HARVEY LAYS SOD ON LEAGUE GRAVE

Washington, May, 30.—"Probably no event has so signalized the return of Americanism in our Government as the speech of Ambassador Harvey on the occasion of his welcome by the British Premier and other high English officials," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "Pledges of American sacrifices for European rehablitation, which featured utterances of members of the former administration, were quite lacking from Mr. Harvey's remarks. Far from apologizing for the fact that he is a representative of the United States, he gloried in it. Precisely as your Ambassador went to Washington as an unalloyed Briton I come to London as an unalloyed American. No less a person than the President of the United States went abroad two years ago and conducted himself more as a citizen of the world than specifically of America. America's rights and sovereignty were bartered away in an attempt to save the Old World from disaster she had brought upon herself. Those rights now are in the keeping of a President and his London representaives who do not hesitate to tell Europe that they are object of their first concern.

"Col. Harvey's declaration of the motives that inspired America to send her soldiers accross the water rings with the Americanism that is found throughout his address. 'Far more prevalent until recently was the impression that we went to war to rescue humanity from all kinds of menacing perils.' said the Ambassador in recollection of the beautiful idealisms uttered so frequently by the former President. 'Not a few remain convinced, he continued, 'that we sent our young soldiers accross to save this Kingdom, France, and Italy. That is not the fact. We sent them solely to save the United States of America, and most reluctantly and laggardly at that.'

"Let us go back for a moment and compare that sturdy language with the sickening sentimentality that has gone before. On memorial Day 1919, standing in Suresnes Cemetery, among the graves of thousands of American soldiers, President Wilson uttered the following: 'Never before have men crossed the seas to a foreign land to fight for a cause of humanity which they did not pretend and of mankind.' Those boys knew that they went to fight for America, and their surviving comrades may glory in the fact that the present administration is not afraid to say so, even at the banquet tables in London.

"Further abondonment of the government-by-theory policy that was upon us so long was sounded by Col. Harvey when he said, 'We will get nowhere until we abruptly put aside academic discussion of theoretical proposals and manfully face, without mincing or wincing, the actual realities.' How much better off would the world be today had the peace conference at Paris confined itself to actual realities instead of wasting months in roaming through the realms of disproved theory—had attended to the business of making peace rather than attempted the reform of human passions through diplomatic decree.

"Official notice was conveyed to his hearers—what they had already learned through the press—that the United States can never enter the league of nations. The present government.' said Col. Harvey, 'could not, without betrayal of its creators and masters, and will not, I can assure you, have anything whatsoever to do with the league or any commission or committee appointed by it, or responsible to it, directly or indirectly, openly or furtively.'

"Respect for Col. Harvey, for President Harding, and for America rose as the Ambassador proceeded and carried the message to his hearers that the America of pre-Wilson days had returned to his own, jealous of its rights, but ready to lend aid to others when the occasion may arise."

BUREAU OF INFORMATION AT WASHINGTON

To The Public:—

It is the wish of the President that visitors to the seat of Government shall have every opportunity to get full information concerning all governmental departments. It is especially his desire that all those who come to Washington to transact business with any department or bureau of the Government may quickly be advised as to the exact location and means of reaching the particular department or bureau in which may be centered the business which they desire to transact.

For this purpose there has been established a Bureau of information on the ground floor of the Post Office Department Building, located on Pennsylvania Avenue at Twelfth Street, which is in charge of competent people who will definitely answer queries of this character.

The public is advised of this arrangement and invited to make use of the facility.

Postmaster General

BIG STILL CAPTURED EARLY ON MONDAY MORNING

Amos Glass and Bill Blow Caught in Act of Making Whiskey.

Sheriff Gore and his force of deputies went into the Stumps Hill neighborhood last Sunday night and just before daylight Monday morning succeeded in locating a big moonshine still. The outfit was examined by the officers and the beer was found to be ready for making whiskey.

Sheriff Gore took his men and went into hiding until about seven o'clock. Upon returning to the sill, it was in full operation, being attended by Amos Glass and Bill Blow. The two men were arrested and brought to jail, and their still was destroyed. About half a gallon of brand new whiskey was brought back by the officers as evidence.

THE CURSE OF HIGH TAXES

Washington, May 30.—In one of the most practical and forceful editorials it has publisher in many months, the "Saturday Evening Post" recently discussed the very appropriate subject of taxation. The importance of relieving the burden of taxation in general and of Federal taxation in particular was pointed out in a way that will impress the minds of all readers. It is true as Editor Lorimer says:

As a rule, the tax gatherer is one of the tax spenders and naturally his view point impels him to see the necessity of higher rather than lower taxes. The spender of public money is impressed with the importance of the service for which the money is spent. He magnifies its value to the public and perhaps sincerely believes that the service should be extended rather than curtailed. He is a constant booster of taxes. If there is to be any check on the raising of public revenue and its expenditure the check must come through the activity of private citizens who make their wishes known in a manner that can not be misunderstood.

The editor of the "Saturday Evening Post" is hardly correct in his statement that "Since the beginninng of the World War, legislators in almost every branch of government have been running hog-wild, taxing and spending, spending and taxing."It was not the legislative branch of government that ran "hog-wild, taxing and spending." Records will show that the President and members of his Cabinet during the World War asked for enormous sums of money and for practically unlimited authority on the representation that both were necessary for the winning of the war. With some doubt, Congress granted practically all requests for money or power, choosing to give the Adminisration the benefit of any doubt rather than take the chance of handicapping those who were charged with the management of miliary operations.

But, as soon as the Armistice had been signed and it was clear that the was was over, Congress acted as a restraining influence upon the executives. In the first year after the signing of the Armistice, Congress cut $1,500,000,000 out of the demands of the executive departments. In the next year they cut out a billion dollars. The present Congress has not yet made its record of appropriations but there is every indication that expenditures authorized will be far less than the amounts requested by the administrative branch of the government. It is unfair and we believe the editor of the "Post" will admit it, on further reflection, to charge legislotors with responsibility for "taxing and spending." Congress is always called upon to make up deficits which the executive departments have incurred in excess of appropriations by Congress.

But this is a minor matter. On the whole, the Post's editorial is not only sound but timely. It is true, as stated, that "high taxes mean loose methods and extravagant management incompetent planning and wasteful execution." The man who has other people's money to spend is very likely to seek means of spending rather than saving it. A full treasury is always a temptation, not only to useful expenditure but useless expenditure. An effective means, therefore, of securing the earliest possible reduction of taxes is first to compel the executive departments to reduce their expenditures and then cut the revenue so that there will be no excess of funds in the treasury to tempt Federal officials to incur obligations that the people eventually must pay.

HIGH AND HOT

Dr. Marcus aays the only thing wrong with the city water is that it is high and hot. He says "Pay for it and cool it, and it will be all right to drink."

The goal next Tuesday is not simply to carry Chilton County for Longshore; that will be an easy matter. But what we want is a big Republican majority to go up against the Democratic majorities in Dallas and Calhoun Counties.

When we hear a fellow telling about the bad things the Republican party has done for the South, we are constrained to remind him of the many good things the Democratic party could have done for us and did not do.

Add the following incident to the horrors of woman suffrage: A good old-time "White Supremacy" Democrat told us the other day that his wife "searched" his pants pockets and got the money with which to pay her poll tax, and now it looked like she was going to vote for Longshore in spite of all he could do.

Bill Brandon has been going about the Fourth District ostensibly in the interest of Jeffers for Congress. But don't you suppose Bill's cites are aimed principally at the office of Governor of Alabama? We imagine that wherever Bill speaks he uses the main decorations to adorn himself in his gubernatorial aspirations, and then if he has any time left he tells the people to vote for Jeffers for Congress.

Uncle Charley Greer of the Sylacauga News detects some kind of a suspicious sound in the name of Congressman Wurzbach. Be calm, now Uncle Charley. It is nothing to be alarmed at. The reason that name sounds so bad to you is because it is the first "crack" in the breaking of the "solid" Democratic South. There will be several more sounds like it before many years.

Jeffers is a good man and we believe would do his best to represent the people of the District; but the trouble is that he can do nothing, being a Democrat and therefore out of harmony with the present administration at Washington. Jeffers would only be a nominal representative; Longshore would be an actual representative, because his party is controlling the government and he could exercise an influence with the administration that would be felt for good among the people of Alabama and his District. The best guarantee of real representation for the Fourth District is to send Longshore to Washington to do the job for us. Let's do it on next Tuesday!

Republicans of Chilton County should remember that for every extra Republican vote we can pile up for Longshore next Tuesday Dallas County is going to put up an extra one to match it for Jeffers. Let us vote everyone possible and do our very best to make Longshore's majority here take care of Jeffers majority in Dallas. We can do it if every Republican man and woman in Chilton County will come to the election and vote.

REGARDING FREIGHT RATES

Last fall, when the Interstate Commerce commission yielded to the plea of the railroad for an increase of twenty per cent in freight rates, railroad executives held to the belief that their revenues would be increased to a considerable extent. The opposite has been the effect.

That the increase in freight rates has had something to do with existing industrial and business conditions is almost generally admitted. The railroads find themselves in the situation of the man who killed the goose that laid the golden egg. They have the higher freight rates, but they do not have the business from which to collect them. Shipping costs have reached a point that makes them a real factor in the transaction of business

The rates on lemons from California is almost equal to price for which foreign-grown lemons are selling in New York City. It will easily be seen that lemons are not being shipped from California to the East and the railroads are getting no revenues from such shipments. The Interstate Commerce commission is considering a lowering of freight rates, with the object of giving some aid to industry and business by lowering the operating costs, and at the same time add to the incomes of the railroads by increasing the shipping business. Just what will be done remains to be seen, but that something will have to be done is evident.—Marion Star.

Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreland, Minona, N. Y. Take these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you lots of good. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton.

WHAT IT WILL TAKE TO GET "BETTER TIMES"

Mr. Editor:

Everybody, I guess, is more or less interested in a hope for better times, a return to normal conditions. I have read may so-called explanations why hard times pounced upon us at this time and why the return to a better era is so slow and difficult. Congress has been losing sleep over the problem and much remedial legislation has been proposed and quite a lot enacted into law, in a vain effort to reach the cause and remove it. In this connection it might be appropriate to remember that one great contributing cause of our present distress is that the whole country is suffering nigh unto death from an outrageous dose of over-legislation already.

Another salient fact to always remember is that no human tribunal can legislate either religion, education nor good morals into any people. Congress can't make brains nor build a conscience. Every time in the world history when a scheme like that has been tried, it has invariably met with a disastrous failure. It is only a phantom dream to look to the government for relief from present conditins.

We all admit that something is radically wrong somewhere with our industrial system, but the most of us have been trying to get on our tiptoes and see the causes for the trouble away across the seas, when the fact of the business is, the real cause lies right at home, is personal in character, and every time we look in a mirror we get a facsimile glimpse of an integral part of this cause at first hand. The individual greed, with its acompanying tendency to wasteful extravagance, fosered by the flush times during the war, has made us a nation of discontented greedy grafters and profiteers, only half satisfied when we are raking in dollars where dimes would be more proportionate with the service rendered. We have lost our proportion. Conscience is dead. The equation of right or wrong has gone ino the discard. Make money is the only God we worship now, and get all you can for nothing is our motto. Unrighteous profiteering is the guiding star in every line of business from the boot-black to the banker. Dodge your own obligations to security if possible, wring the last penny from your starving neighbor, and gloat over it as a job well done; pass your income taxes along the poor devil in the shops or between he plow handles and if he can neither pay them nor pass them along, why let him starve; why need you worry? Just so you get the money, heaven, hell, God nor the Devil don't amount to a hill of beans. That's the ethics that have become the creed of humanity—a selfishness so stupendous that even the Almighty must be amazed—and then we wonder why times are hard!

Let's get the matter into concrete form and view the situation from a different angle. As an illustration of the rampant greed abroad in the land we will consider the shoe and leather market first. Good hides are quoted now at 3 1-2 and 4 cents per pound. An average pair of shoes made from these same hides will cost you $10.00. Now, everybody outside of the asylum (and a good many inside) have sense enough to know that the making and marketing of that pair of shoes did not cost over one tenth of the difference shown between the cost of raw material and the price of the finished product. There has been a 1000 per cent made in the deal by somebody. The producer is robbed in the purchase of the hide and the helpless consumer is made to stand and deliver in the final transaction. Somewhere in the business cold blooded robbery has been done. The congressional investigating committee made effort to find out who the robber was, but the wholesale hide dealer passed it along to the manufacturer. He, in holy horror, unloaded the guilt on the jobber. He in turn passed the buck along to the retailer. The retailer was too small a potato and too widely scattered for the committee to reach. So, there you are. All of them admitted that the double robbery was going on daily, but each class investigated proved up "whiter than the snow." The fact that some monumental lying was done was potent to the whole world, but no responsibility was fixed and the glaring game of highway robbery goes right along, Congress to the contrary notwithstanding.

The same is true of meat and its products. Hogs on foot at from 5 1-2 to 6 cents per pound and the finished product unloaded on the consumer at from 20c to 25c per pound. And remember, that in a packing house not an ounce of loss occurs in butchering. Even the blood and the hair are saved and sold.

Cotton at 10 cents per pound and the woven fabric, ranging at from 10 to 40 yards per pound, and retailing at from 18 to 97 cents per yard, tells its own story of thievery somewhere. Practically all lines of trade and traffic tell the same old storyo f robbery.

The laboring class, in a great many instances, are trying to play the game too. They want something for nothing. Strikes are always a mistake. I have been in a few and have been watching the issue for a quarter of a century. Had to be a United Mine Worker for five years to be allowed to work at all at one place. Have been a Union Carpenter for twenty years and believe I know and understand the system as well as some and a good deal better than a whole lot of folks, and I tell you that even a strike that wins on the face of the results is always a loss to labor in the final analysis. Argue out the principle and it won't hold water. The United Mine Workers of the Birmingham District won everything they asked for in the arbitration before Judge Gary in 1902. The operators lived up to the letter of the agreement all right but conditions began to grow worse instead of better until two years later another one was called, and we went down in utter defeat. Since then they partly organized again and last year they called another strike. Today there are thousandso f them out of employment hundreds of women and children are on starvation, and non-union labor is operating all the mines in the District. That is the ultimate history of all strikes. Union labor is like religion. It is a splendid thing as long as it attends to its legitimate functions, but when it assumes any policy of coercion it goes to an untimely death.

If you can abolish the lust after money—the greed after gain—and awaken the almost obsolete virtues of truth and honesty in the hearts of the American people again, you can cure the evils under which we are groaning. God says "the love of money is the root of all evil" and this country is in a condition to accept at least that one of His statements as being true. It looks like our boosted system of a government "of, for and by the people" is destined to fail us under the strain of selfish greed, bequeathed us by our war experience. If so, we lost the war instead of Germany. OBSERVER.

FOUND 215 BOLL WEEVILS

Lee Robinson of Salem, Beat 16, was in Clanton Wednesday and reported to The Union-Banner that he has already found 215 boll weevils in his cotton field. His cotton is beginning to square, and the weevils are plentiful on the tender buds of the stalks. The second square he noticed in his field was punctured by the sting of a weevil.

MT. PLEASANT, BEAT 12

The Fifth Sunday Singing was a success. We commenced singing at 10 o'clock, and opened with song No. 80 and prayer by A. E. Glasscock. Chairman was elected for the day; committee was appointed to arrange the program. Will Northcutt, John Bean, and George Benson named the following directors to sing three songs each:

Grady Headley, Abe Robinson, Vernon Northcutt, Vester Campbell. Adjourned for dinner till 1:30.

The table was spread and a bountiful dinner was on it. Everyone was invited to come and eat, and there was plenty left.

The bell rang at 1:30, p.m., and the class was called together by the chairman. The directors were Will Northcutt, E. S. Glasscock, Leonard Glasscock, James Franklin, Charley Glasscock, A. H. Glasscock.

Closing hymn was sung by the chairman, "God be With You till we Meet Again." Organists for the day were Misses Pauline Headley, Elsie Robinson, Sibyl Langston, Myrtle Dorminey, Emma Arledge.

The singing was good, no disturbance. We thank the Lord and the boys too, that we were not bothered with "sorghum juice," not much.

Yours truly,
A. E. GLASSCOCK.

I Will Pay $10,000 For The Best Thoughts on One of My Problems

Thos A Edison

IN 1851, RALPH WALDO EMERSON said: "Could I only have music on my own terms, whenever I wished the ablution and inundation of musical waves, that are a bath and a medicine."

Emerson spoke the thoughts of millions, and voiced a need of all humanity.

It is obvious that the phonographic reproduction of music affords the only means of providing music of practically every variety, wherever and whenever it is desired; without this means, even those, who live in the great centers of music, can hear it only at conventional hours—and, then, not always the kind of music they most need and desire.

To make the phonographic reproduction of music serve the need expressed by Emerson, it is necessary that the reproduction shall preserve—undiminished and undistorted—the true beauties of the original music. The greatest shortcoming of the phonograph has been its lack of realism. It is this shortcoming which I have sought to remove. The result is a degree of realism in our new phonograph, which is baffling to even the most expert ears, when direct comparison is made between living singers or instrumentalists and the reproduction or RE-CREATION of their work by our new instrument.

Were Emerson alive today, I feel that our new phonograph would be accepted by him as a satisfactory answer to the need, which he expressed. At any rate, the psychological research work, which we have been conducting for nearly two years, indicates that the well known and almost incalculable benefits of music can be derived, in full measure, from the proper use of this new instrument.

Psychologists, physicians, and other scientists appreciate that our object is to provide music of the best sort, under conditions that will insure the largest benefits. The new phonograph, which we have developed, is merely the instrumentality by which I am endeavoring to place truly fine music at the command of every household.

A great many people have said that they regard this new instrument as the best phonograph in existence. While such statements are naturally gratifying to me, I find that the importance of our work in the field of music is somewhat obscured by the fact that so many people continue to think of this new instrument merely as a phonograph. They may think of it as the best phonograph—but it still is only a phonograph to them.

I want a phrase, which will emphasize that our new instrument is not a mere machine, but that it is an instrumentality, by which the true beauties and the full benefits of music can be brought into every home.

The phrase should not contain more than four or five words. I want a dignified expression, which will clearly distinguish this instrument from all other sound reproducing devices.

I have authorized that $10,000.00 in prizes be paid for the best ideas submitted.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Considering the extremely hot weather last Sunday night, there was a fine audience at the evening service especially of young people, to hear the sermon on "Things Money Cannot Buy." Services will be held next Sunday as usual: morning at 11 a.m. and evening at 8 p.m.. The Sunbeams will meet at 2 p.m. The Juniors at 6 p.m. and the Seniors at 7 p.m. These organizations are doing nicely under their present leadership.

The new church building is progressing nicely and arousing a good deal of interest in the city and community. Some little delay in the construction has been caused waiting for material to arrive, but we think this will not be a long delay. With the erection of the building, it becomes very essential that those who have pledged make some arrangement to meet their notes as they fall due. With a prospect of a better equipment and therefore larger opportunities and great responsibilities for a larger work, let us all heartily and unitedly cooperate in the general work of the church and so seize the great opportunity for service that God is placing in our pathway.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

DON'T FORGET THE DATES JUNE 17, 18, AND 20.

One of the biggest events in the form of entertainment that has ever been presented in Thorsby will be given when the Redpath Chautauqua organization erects their large tent on June 17th, 18th and 20th, to give to Thorsby and vicinity two programs a day for three days, afternoon and night. The Redpath Chautauqua programs have never been surpassed by any other organization in this line of entertainment, and the very name is a guarantee as to the quality of the attractions.

Friday afternoon, June 17th, the spirited, acomplished Chicago Orchestral Company will open the Chautauqua program. Vocal and orchestral novelty numbers, presented in costume; monologues and exceptional artistic solos will be featured in a grand concert in the afternoon, and in a prelude at night. The Chicago Orchestral Company will delight the entire audience.

The same night we will have Joe R. Hanley—eloquent, masterly, inspiring—lectures on "The Modern Crusader," a stimulating exposition of the economic, idealistic and spiritualistic potentialities of America. Mr. Hanley's utterances are vitally concerned with the practical application of fundamental truths.

On Saturday afternoon, June 18th, we will have the famous lecturer, Judge Manford Schoonover. Judge Manford Schoonover is a magnetic, compelling, straight-from-the-shoulder speaker. His famous lecture, "Unseen Forces," is a striking presentation of the decisive strength of one's self-respect. It is vital, stimulating, and will long be vividly remembered.

On Saturday night, June 18th, you will see something that heretofore you would have gone to a city to see, namely, a sparkling comedy, called, "Nothing but the Truth."

"Nothing but the Truth," rollicking American comedy, is one of the greatest popular dramatic successes. The plot, full of amusing complications, startling surprises and humorous characterizations, inspires a constant gale of merriment.

A young stock broker, Robert Bennett, makes a wager with his senior partner that he can tell the truth, the whole truth, and "Nothing but the Truth," for twenty-four hours.

Bennett finds himself enmeshed in a tangle of truths that endangers some of his firmest friendships, his best business interests, and his fiancee's pet charity. Three acts of excruciatingly funny situations find him at the end very sorely harassed, but nevertheless victorious. However could the story be continued, it is doubtful whether Bennett ever again would commit himself to twenty-four hours of such well-nigh incriminating veracity. "Nothing but the Truth," presented by an exceptionally competent New York cast, runs over with clean, bubbling, wholesome fun. It is one of the strongest features of the entire Chautauqua program.

On Monday afternoon, the entertainment will be a concert by the Artist Entertainers, and a short lecture by May Wyon Langebek.

The Artist Entertainers feature unusual novelty numbers, with genuine artistic excellence—a rare and a most desirable program. Clever cartooning, humorous impersonations and delightfully melodious songs are included in the programs of these gifted entertainers.

"Reading Character at Sight," is the challenging subject of May Wyon Langebek. For parents, for employers and for everyone, Mrs. Langebek makes the science of character analysisdistinctly practical, valuable and infinitely entertaining.

Monday night the 20th. we yill have a number that may be to most of us, will be the best of all, Reno the Magician.

Edward Reno, master magician and wizard, presents an amazing program, which entertains, mystifies and delights old and young alike. He accompanies his feats of magic with a running fire of witty comment that sends his audiences into peals of laughter.

What do you think of it? Isn't it the finest and best balanced program ever put on in a small town? You will absolutely agree and say so yourself, if you attend the numbers. The season tickets which pass you to all six numbers will be $2.00 and $1.00. Single admission will be 50c and 35c

On last Saturday afternoon two games of baseball were played here, the first game, Thorsby Institute vs. Jemison, which resulted in a score of 2 to 3 in Thorsby's favor, and the second game, Thorsby vs. Center Hill. My, we hate to tell it, but the result of this one was 31 to 1 in our favor. Another Vida, but you have got to come on boys and beat something besides this Vida class; so come to the front and show folks that you can beat a first class team, for some of you "first class" rooters are getting mighty tired of rooting for the losers.

Mrs. James E. Biggs, who has been in Thorsby for the past two weeks, left Sunday evening for Birmingham where she will visit a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Berlin, after which she will return to her home in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. L. O. Larsen, and her son and daughter arrived in Thorsby Thursday evening from Chicago. They came to attend the commencement at Thorsby Institute, Mrs. Larsen's son, Olaf, being one of the graduates.

On last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Foss, Mrs. J. E. Biggs and Miss Naemi Turnquist motored to Clanton to attend Chautauqua.

Mr. W. L. Leary spent Sunday in Thorsby with his family.

Miss Nolia Robinson spent the week end with her parents. She returned to Birmingham Sunday p.m.

On last Wednesday night Miss Naemi Turnquist was hostess at a card party given in compliment to her guest, Mrs. James E. Biggs.

Mr. J. S. Benson of Rock Island, Ill., arrived in Thorsby last Thursday evening. Mr. Benson is a theological student and will be the Lutheran Church's pastor during the summer.

On last Monday night a banquet was held at the teachers cottage for the Seniors and Alumni of Thorsby Institute. All the teachers were present, besides a number of friends. Various games were played, after which delightful refreshments were served on the lawn.

On Tuesday night Mrs. S. C. Wood was hostess at a reception given at her home in honor of the faculty and graduates of Thorsby Institute. Music and games were enjoyed. There were two prize contests, the winner of the first prize being Miss Agnes Leary, and the second contest prize was won by Miss Lura Woods and John Wesley. After the contests the guests were ushered into the dining room where ice cream and cake was served Mrs. Wood was assisted in serving by Miss Lena Franklin and Miss Naemi Turnquist.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 4TH DISTRICT OF ALABAMA:

Columbiana, Ala., May 28th, 1921.

Dear Friend:—

You no doubt are aware of the fact that A. P. Longshore is a candidate for Congress to succeed Hon. Fred L. Blackmon, deceased. I feel that this election is one of the most important that has ever been held in the District, due to the fact that we have an Administration at Washington that is in every way in thorough accord with the views of Judge Longshore.

Judge Longshore stands for the best interest of the people; he worked and voted against the taxation of chickens and dogs; and did every thing in his power to defeat the compulsory dipping law that was imposed upon the people, without allowing them to say whether or not they wanted it. If elected he will introduce a Bill to amend the quarantine law and allow the people to vote on the question, and say by a majority of the voters whether or not they want to dip their cattle. This one thing that Judge Longshore did in the Legislature of Alabama, is within itself enough to convince any one that he stands for the rights of the people.

He stands for two strong white political parties in Alabama, and we all agree that this State will never have the government that we are entitled to unless we have two white political parties; for under one party rule the people have no reccurse in demanding that their interests be safeguarded by the policies of government administration. One-party rule means burdens and oppression for the people as has been demonstrated in Alabama in the last few years with an increase in taxes at the rate of nearly three million dollars per year.

While a member of the Legislature 1919, he introduced a Bill increasing the pay of the old Soldiers and their Widows, which was finally passed. He is opposed to the high freight and passenger rates, and if elected to Congress he will be able to fight, and help to bring about an amicable adjustment, one that will at least put the rates back to something like normal. He opposes the useless offices, knowing that thousands of dollars, yes millions, are thrown to the four winds of the earth in the creation of useless offices; he will endeavor to bring about this reduction and save millions for the Tax payers of the Country.

He opposes Compulsory Military Training and will fight against it, knowing that the greatest number of the youths of the District are sons of toil, and too, knowing as a father who gave three sons for the cause of the war, that it is an unpleasant thing to give your boy, and to gaze upon him as he leaves his peaceful home may be for the last time. He knows the ache of a mother's heart when the boys are notified that they must go; he has personally observed the care worn face of a sleepless mother who prayed day and night for a safe return of her boys. He opposes a League of Nations, because it will snatch from the peaceful homes of this Southland the dear boys and send them across the sea to fight for the Empires of the World in their greedy desire for conquest. Judge Longshore is 100% American, and will stand to maintain every principle of the blood-bought liberties of our forefathers.

Is it not quite natural that if you send Judge Longshore to Congress that through him you will receive legislation that will be beneficial to the District, because he is in hearty accord with the Administration? If elected he will represent the entire people of the District. We have been unable to get legislation from the National Government, because of the fact that Alabama is one sided in her politics, and we will never be able to get legislation until we make a change in politics in either Party, for the Democrat Party will say there is no use to go into Alabama and promote any project because there is no danger of the people deserting the Democratic party; and the Republican party has done nothing because there has been no change in politics; that Alabama wont give the Republicans any encouragement, therefore, they are disinclined to show the South any special favors. Now let us not labor under this disadvantage any longer, let us vote for the best interest of the people and send a man to Congress (Judge Longshore), who is in thorough accord with the Administration, and get legislation for the laborer and farmer that is right and due. We have never had any and we have been sending a Democrat to to Congress for many years. Governor Fergurson (Democrat) from Texas, said "That the salvation of the Country rests in the hands of the independent voters."

I will thank you to consider Judge Longshore, and when you have voted for him, you have voted for a man that loves liberty and freedom, and one that will stand with unswerving fidelity for the things that are right. He stands for a fair and square deal for both capital and labor.

Assuring you that I have an abiding interest in the welfare of the people, I am

Cordially yours,
G. W. WEAVER,
Chm. Fourth Congressional District Campaign Comm.

FROM REMOTEST PARTS OF GLOBE

TANLAC ELEMENTS COME FROM MANY LANDS FAR AWAY FROM HERE.

The ingredients from which the celebrated medicine, Tanlac is made, come from remote sections of the earth, and are transported thousands of miles over land and sea to the great Tanlac laboratories at Dayton, and Walkerville, Canada.

The Alps, Appenines, Pyrenees, Russian-Asia, Brazil, W. Indes, Rocky Mountains, Asia Minor, Persia, India, Mexico, Columbia and Peru are among the far away points from which the principal properties of this remarkable preparation are obtained.

What is said to be the largest pharmacutical laboratory in the United States has been completed at Dayton, Ohio, for the manufacture of Tanlac which, according to recent reports, is now having the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world: over 20,000,000 bottles having been sold in six years.

The new plant occupies 60,000 sq. feet of floor space and has a daily capacity of 50,000 bottles. Uniform quality is guaranteed by a series of careful inspections by expert chemists from the time the roots, herbs, bark and flowers are received in their rough state from all parts of the globe until their medicinal properties have been extracted by the most approved process. The finished medicine is then bottled, labeled and shipped out to tens of thousands of druggists throughout the United States and Canada to supply a demand never before equaled by this or any other medicine.

SINGING AT UNION GROVE AND CENTER HILL

The singing at Union Grove the 4th Sunday in May was a fine success from all points of view. Attendance extremely large. Directors out in full force. Among the visitors we noted J. N. Scott of Irondale and W. E. Lowery of Bessemer. Dinner was all that could be desired.

Last Sunday the singers gathered at Center Hill. After the morning lesson preaching by Rev. Davis. It was a stiring old-time service, greatly enjoyed. Unusual interest was manifested. Next out under the beautiful shades was spread a rich and bountiful dinner, free to all. The afternoon was spent in singing. Attendance was large.

Those Sunday singings are sources of real refreshment to both old and young. The music sweet, particularly to those who yet linger on this side of the river, as it conveys their thoughts back to the days of yors. The editor is entitled many thanks for giving those services publicity.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Mrs. A. Johnson Hostess.

The Wednesday Card Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. A. Johnson on last Wednesday. The apartments were lavishly decorated with sweet peas and nasturtiums, making a pretty setting for the evening game. After a series of games the highest score was held by Mrs. Heard, who was presented a lovely linen handkerchief. The draw for the consolation was won by Mrs. Hugh Jones, who was presented a lovely bouquet of sweet peas.

Late in theafternoon a most tempting salad plate was served to Mrs. V. J. Heard, Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. Luckie, Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mrs. Macy Jones, Mrs. T. C. McSwain and Mrs. Simpson.

Sartor-Ross Wedding Announced.

The following wedding announcement will be read with interest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sartor announce the engagement of their daughter, Willie Belle, to Mr. Lucius C. Ross of Athens, the wedding to be in early August.

Visitor Honored.

Miss Beverly Hester entertained on Monday at a pretty luncheon as a special courtesy to Miss Oma Hudson who is the guest of Miss Roberta Curry. From a lovely adorned table centered with a bowl of bright nasturtiums an elaborate three-course menu was served. Covers were laid for six. In the afternoon games and music were enjoyed.

Miss Bessie Thomas has returned home from Hendersonville, N. C., where she has been teaching the past season.

Mrs. E. E. Upchurch, Miss Della Latham and Miss Mary Upchurch motored over to Montevallo Wednesday. Miss Upchurch will remain there for six weeks attending summer school.

Misses Marjorie Murphy and Edna Lowe have gone to Tuscaloosa to attend the University Summer School.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hubbard of Mt. Creek were visitors to Clanton on Monday.

Miss Leona Pipes returned home on Wednesday from an extended trip to several cities in Georgia.

Mr. Clarence Evans visited his parents here this week.

Mrs. Clyde Jones and Mrs. Luckie were in Birmingham shopping last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Reynolds and children motored up from Montgomery Sunday.

Mr. Joe Calloway spent the week-end in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonza Williams were visitors to Birmingham last week.

Mr. Clay Marcus of Montgomery spent last Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Marcus.

FRIENDSHIP NEWS.

You will notice in this week's paper the program for the Sunday School Convention of the Clanton District to be held at Friendship Church the Second Sunday in June, the 12th. We expect to have a grand time, as you see we have some excellent speakers on the program.

Our Sunday School is growing in interest and numbers every Sunday. But we still have room for others. We invite all to come and help us in the work.

Rev. M. J. Parrish preached for us las Sunday at 11 o'clock as previously announced.

There will be Sunday School next Sunday at 10 o'clock; and prayer service in the evening at 7:30. All are invited to these services.

Flanders Poppies Popular.

Millions of Americans wore the brilliant red poppy on Monday, May 30, in memory of the dead who lie in Flanders Fields among the poppies. Throughout the world the Flanders Poppy has come to be known as the "soul of the dead," because it blooms so profusely where heroes fell. The little flower was adopted as a memorial blossom, and several hundreds were disposed of in Clanton by the Civic Club. The proceeds will go to the American-Franco Children's League.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Roper of Birmingham are visiting relatives in Clanton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Parrish left on last Thursday for a ten days stay in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bridges will leave Monday for Norfolk, Va.

Miss Marzelle Mullins has gone to Brewton on a visit to friends and relatives.

Mrs. Fuquay and children left on Monday for a visit to relatives in Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Holmes are visiting friends and relatives in Clanton for a few days.

Mrs. D. O. Robinson will present her pupils in musical recital at the county high school auditorium on Thursday evening, June 9th. Everyone is invited to come. There will be no charges for admission.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Martin and children accompanied by Mrs. Plier, motored over to Equality Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White have returned home from a visit to Deatsville and Spigeners.

Dr. Will S. Wilson of Fairfield was in Clanton during the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McSwain have as their guests Mrs. Matt Kinslow and Mr. and Mrs. Tobe Lowrey of Oklahoma.

Mrs. R. E. Luckie and children will leave Saturday for a two weeks visit to relatives in Pine Apple where Mr. Luckie will join them before their return home.

F. A. Gulledge of Verbena was in Clanton Saturday night last.

Study Club Planning Surprise.

The Study Club is planning a surprise for their last number at the Reciprocity meeting Friday at the high school at 3:30, and it promises to be one of the most enjoyable of the entire program. They extend to everyone a most cordial invitation to be present. Misses Kathleen Mullins and Leona Pipes will serve punch during the social hour after the program.

Pastor P. G. Carter, and Rev. D. M. Pearson went to Montgomery on Monday night to hear the Evangelist, Rev. Bob Jones.

Mr. Wallace Jones has arrived in Clanton where he will spend his vacation with his mother.

The Home of the Soul.

In olden times it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton.

FLOWERY WORDS DO NOT CURE COUGHS

Pay absolutely no attention to a patent medicine advertisement unless the manufacturers tell you what is in their medicine. Flowery words and hot air have never cured a cough or stopped a germ from getting a hold on your system. For coughs, sore throat, bronchial trouble, and especially the cough the "flue" left you with, croup, and whooping cough, Creo-Pinus can be relied upon. Ask your physician or druggist about Creo-Pinus. The ingredients are on every package.

Creo-Pinus is made of pine needles, mullin, camphor, beechwood, creosote glycerine, honey, lemons, and a hymol mixture. Creo-Pinus is for sale by Upchurch Drug Co. Clanton, Ala.

A SURE WAY TO KEEP MOUTH FREE FROM DEADLY GERMS

Science tells us that most contagious diseases are contracted through the mouth. Yet an amazing number of people take no steps whatever to protect their mouths from the million of disease germs in the air.

The safest precaution against disease, it is found, is daily use of an antiseptic mouth wash, such as Steroline. A few drops of Steroline on your tooth brush will not only keep your mouth cool, sweet and free from disease germs, but also serve as a splendid dentifrice. Being a liquid it gets between the teeh and reaches all the hidden spots which ordinary tooth pastes and powders cannot possibly reach. Don't take chances on your health! Sold and highly recommended by Upchurch Drug Co.

REGARDING THE TIMES

Jemison, Ala., May 30, 1921.

Editor Union-Banner:

Please give me space in your good old paper to say a few words in regard to the times. It is getting time for us to wake up and see where we are. There has been so many laws passed on us that we can hardly live, and who has passed them—the Democratic party.

Now, boys, look! We have got to call up our chickens and our good old dogs and pay taxes on them if we have them. And this dipping of cattle Do we like this kind of laws. No, we do not indorse this. Now, we have the chance to send a good man to Congress by casting our votes aright and to the best interest of the people. So let us all turn out on June 7 and cast our vote for Judge Longshore, the Republican candidate for Congress.

Have the Democrats ever done anything for us in the past. Yes, they have passed those laws on us. So let us get busy and do our best, for this time is our chance.

I have always been a Republican; and why? Because it makes times better. I remember when I was a small boy we had Democratic laws and hard times, as we have had in the past eight years. The times are so hard, high cost, high taxes, till poor people can hardly live. Now, the bible says "What has been will be again." We had better times once before, so let us get busy and have them again, if it is the Lord's will.

The bible says, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your father which is in heaven." Now, boys let us let our lights shine by turning out on June 7th to the polls and show which party we vote for.

Yours for better times,
R. B. IGO.

Should Shut Down Gas Work

"My stomach has been so filled with gas for the last three years that I felt I could pretty nearly supply our town. I also had frequent pains in right side in region of the appendix. Doctors didn't help much. One day my neighbor told me about what Mayr's Wonderful Remedy had done for him and I got a bottle of our druggist. I can say that it will do all and more than you claim for it." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intesinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Company., and al druggists.

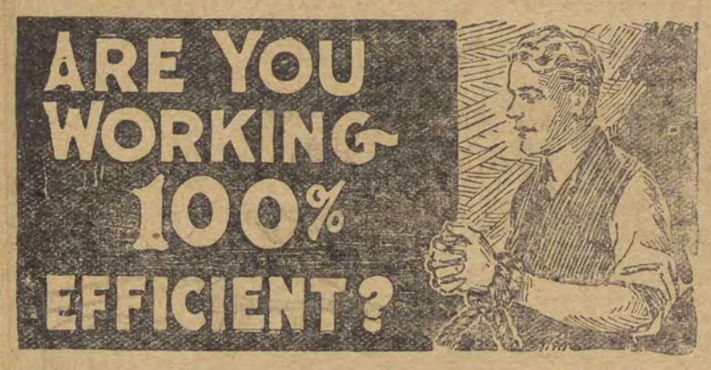
BALLOU SAYS "AMERICA FIRST"

Washington, June 6, 1921.—A radical change has been made in the curriculum of the high schools of Washington, D. C.. After the beginning of the new school year in September, every high school student will be required to take courses in American history and civics. Foreign languages, on the other hand, will be made elective. That means that the grant of a high school diploma will depend not at all upon proficiency in an alien tongue, but will demand a familiarity with our own nation's history and form of government. Superintendent Ballou says he has taken the action because he believes that a fundamental knowledge of American history and government is a prerequisite for good citizenship.



The need of widespread reform of the kind inaugurated in Washington is attested in a recent report of an official of the National Association of Manufacturers. "An authoritative investigation of 5,054 high schools," said he, "indicates that only 2,000 of those investigated profess to teach civics and only 136 use accredited texts." In the rest of these 2,000 high schools social studies mean talks current events with indifferent material as the basis. "What the investigation disclosed regarding the teaching of American history is not indicated, but there is little doubt that many high schools gloss over the subject, trusting to institutions of higher education to make up any deficiency that may exist along those lines."

In making appropriations during the war to pay salaries of Washington school teachers, Congress stipulated that no part of the money should be "for the payment of any teacher to give instruction in the German Language." That restriction does not apply to appropriations since made. It was an extreme provision, but how much more arbitrary is it to say that a pupil shall study German or any other foreign language, especially when a similar mandate does not apply to American history. After September the situation will be reversed in the Washington high schools. Every pupil shall study American history, and may study foreign language.

Dr. Ballou calls attention to a fact that should be more widely recognized when we say that "as the high schools become more cosmoplitan and more largely than ever before a finishing school rather than a preparatory school for college, it becomes increasingly necessary to modify the courses of study in accordance with this charge in personnel." Had that truth been permitted earlier to influence high school curriculums, the country would have been saved from much of the hectic wave of internationalism that swept over it a year or so ago.

What high school student, for instance, knows anything about the proceedings of the Constitutional Convention and the debates that preceded the adoption of each of the provisions of our fundamental law? What high schools are teaching today the lessons of the last three years of our history and the events in Europe in their relation thereto? Yet proper understanding of the principles upon which our government was built in 1787, and the triumphant emergence of those principles in 1920 from the welter of "supreme sacrifices." "international guarantees," and "supergovernments" that assailed them is a complete course in itself, a thorough familiarity with should be demanded of every high school student before he is handed a diploma.

High schools throughout the country may well profit by the example set in the schools at the National Capital. Now is the time to plan the courses for next year, and the Americanism that is featuring the present administration of our government at Washington should also find expression in an emphasized attention to history and civics in our institutions of learning.

JEFFERS ELECTED TO CONGRESS BY 4,000 MAJORITY INDICATED BY EARLY RETURNS

HAS APPARENTLY CARRIED 4 COUNTIES, INCLUDING CLEBURNE, WHICH WAS CONCEDED REPUBLICAN.

Anniston, Ala., June 7.—Unofficial returns at 10 o'clock tonight indicate Major Jeffers' majority will be above 4,000 if not as high as 5,000. Meager returns from Cleburne County, which went Republican in the last election, indicate that the Democratic candidate will carry it by a small majority.

Chilton County returns indicate a 400 majority for Judge A. P. Longshore, and his home county (Shelby) will probably show, on official figures, a majority of barely 200. Major Jeffers' majority in his home, Calhoun County, is now estimated to run over 2,200 with small beats to report. Dallas and Talladega Counties, according to returns already received, will give the Democratic candidate about 1,600 majority each.

Jeffers Easy Winner.

Anniston, June 7.—Early election returns from Calhoun, the home county of Major Jeffers, indicate that the Democratic candidate for Congress has carried the county by at least 1,500 majority over his Republican opponent, Judge A. P. Longshore.

Talladega and Dallas counties have also given Major Jeffers big majorities, the Republican candidate probably having a slight lead in Cleburne.

The overwhelming victory accorded the Democratic candidate for the congressional vacancy has been forecast since the day of his nomination. A light vote being cast throughout the six counties of the District.

The campaign in the District came to a close last night with a monster Democratic rally at Sylacauga. Senator J. Thomas Heflin delivering a rousing speech at the place. Major Jeffers returned to his home here Tuesday afternoon from the lower part of the District and as the returns poured into his office insuring his election to the congressional place his local friends and supporters gave evidence of satisfaction.

TIES THAT BIND

An American in Colombia, South America has perfected a machine which reduces the leaves of the wild pineapple to a beautiful and strong fiber. There are vast stretches of territory covered with this plant, and a large commerce between this country and Colombia in this fiber is predicted. This will mark another step in the program to utilize in American manufactures the raw products of Latin American origin. There is no tie like the tie of trade.

Longshore will Have 400 Majority In Chilton County.

Practically complete, though unofficial returns from the various beats of Chilton County, give Longshore a total vote of 1099 and Jeffers 717. There are four small boxes not heard from at the time this is printed.

The Democratic vote in the County seems to be about their normal strength, while the Republicans did not vote more than half the number they did last November.

Following is the itemized vote by Beats, as near as we could obtain it Wednesday morning:

	Longshore	Jeffers
Beat 2	100	41
Beat 3	18	31

JEFFERS FOR CONGRESS

The majority of the voters participating in the Congressional election in the Fourth District on Tuesday declared for Major Lamar Jeffers, the Democratic candidate, thereby establishing the fact that they prefer to continue to drift upon the dead sea of "politics" popularly known as the "Solid Democratic South," and continue to get no attention from the powes in charge of our National government at Washington. In other words the Fourth Alabama District is willing to continue as one of the red-headed step-children of Uncle Sam.

So long as the Republicans are in power at Washington Mr. Jeffers will be helpless in whatsoever he might take a notion to try to do for his people. And if the administration should return under control of the Democrats, he will still be helpless, for the Democrats take pride in the fact that they can get the votes of the Southern people without having to do anything for this part of the country.

But we have no one to blame but ourselves. So long as the majority of our people choose to stay away from the polls and refuse to vote for what they know to be their best interests, they ought not to raise any kick if the government never does anything for them.

We trust that, if Major Jeffers can do us no good at Washington, he will not do us any harm. But an idle brain is the devil's workshop; and while he is hanging around Washington with nothing to do but watch the procession of government administration from his office window, we doubt not that he will be approached by the guiling proffers of astute politicians who would seduce him into their schemes that are laid to perpetuate the bondage of the Southern people as slaves to a one-party system of bad government. We do not know whether he will be able to stay out of their plans or not.

In the closing days of his campaign we have been surprised to see him and his helpers use some campaign stuff that is deeply dyed in prejudice and closely akin to slanderous in order to cast reflections upon the opposition, and swing certain elements of their own party into line and thus preserve the cleavage to "solid Democracy."

When Jeffers was nominated by the Democrats, we felt like we would have a good man for Congressman, even if we did have to take him in preference to Longshore. We did not believe Jeffers bore the taint of a scheming prejudiced politician. In fact it was boasted by his friends and supporters among the Democrats that he belonged to the more liberal and conservative element of that party. But a man who will allow the things that he permitted circulated in his interest, entirely unfounded as they were, and defamatory of the character of one as pure as himself, we are bound to say that our confidence in him has been somewhat shaken. If nothing else, it has demonstrated that Jeffers is willing to stoop to the wiles of political strategy when the game gets in a pinch. And no people are altogether safe in the hands of a political strategist, be he Democrat, Republican, or something else.

Maybe the devil won't get us because Jeffers was elected to Congress. We have had so many Democratic officials, and things have got in such a mess in the South that we are kindly of the opinion that the devil wouldn't have what is left of us.

END OF THE RAINBOW

If there be any persons hereabouts who were carried into the realms of thin air on the wings of politics in the closing days of the Longshore-Jeffers contest for Congress, they may as well prepare now to come back to earth and get ready to live again among the same people whom they knew and associated with before their rainbow chase.

And it will not be a different living either. They will find that the world which looked so different from the dizzy heights to which they soared was not realy changed. They were simply lookink through colored spectacles. There will be Democrats and Republicans right on again, in spiteo f the assertions by silver-tongued political orators that no sensible person could be a Republican; and also in spite of similar statements by other political oracles that no sane person could possibly be a Democrat.

The excitement of a heated political campaign has not changed very many people around here. In fact we doubt if the change has come over more people than you could count on the fingers of your hands.

Verily, the world will move along as usual, and the political campaign of the Fourth District will take its place in the dusty archives of the past alongside the comet which everybody was looking for a few weeks ago and which nobody saw.

People will now weigh calmly and deliberately the impulses recently staged by the politicians and will come to the same old conclusion that there is no use to play the fool about such frivolous things. If there have been any wounds made they will soon heal, and we shall all delight ourselves in the return to a feeling of neighborliness with one other, in spite of politics.

IN A SWEET PICKLE

The confectioners held a convention at Atlantic City, and their chief subject of discussion seems to have been the "business tragedy" that is making them "put 30-cent sugar into 20-cent candy." This is sad, of course, from their viewpoint, but the situation is no worse than that confronting every industry in the country. Every manufacturer has had to write off huge sums on his books to account for the depreciation in value of his inventory bought at peak prices. Every farmer, too, has had to pocket as loss the difference between the present low prices of food products and the high cost of equipment, interest, and other items that entered into their production. The truth is that all such losses are necessary incidents to the process of deflation that is now going on. Most men have discounted the drops in value and are energetically working for future production and sales. It is up to the candy manufacturers to reconcile themselves to the inevitable, and shape their business accordingly.

The vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad states that in 1917, 23.3 cents were left out of each dollar received after payment of operating expenses and taxes. Last year only one cent was left. The comparison vididly illustrates what has taken place in our transportation system.

The result of the election in Chilton County Tuesday would lead us to believe that Republicans here do not want a Republican Congressman very bad, since there were more than half of those in the county who did not go to the election. The same thing seems to have been true in the case of Shelby County. If Republicans in these two counties had voted their normal strength Jeffers, instead of having four thousand majority, would have had barely over one thousand.

It don't set well on the stomach of a Republican who served in the war against Kaiser Bill to have it said in public print that Southern Republicans are pro-German, hyphenated Americans and carry the smell of "sour kraut" in their wake. But when we consider the source and reflect that such stuff is nothing more than Democratic campaign subterfuge, we are constrained to let it pass without challenge, and pity those who are so unfortunate as to have to resort to such stuff for political argument.

GRADY IN '86

Senator Harris (Democrat) of Georgia, on the occasion of the anniversary of the birth of that great southern orator, Henry W. Grady, of Georgia, placed in the Congressional Record a speech delivered by Grady before the New England Club December 21, 1886. It is interesting to note that Grady, southern Democrat though he was, appreciated the Republican protective tarriff idea, for he is quoted as saying in that speech "We have learned that the $400,000,000 annually received from our cotton crop will make us rich when the supplies that make it are home raised." Grady was just about 35 years ahead of the present South which is now petitioning Congress for protection in its various industries. But it is better late than never. The next thing for the South to do is to weed out those obstinate free traders that still represent it in Washington. Then and not till then, the tarriff will be little more than an academic question and one which no longer raises a political issue.

That "sour kraut" stuff that was pulled for Jeffers must have got the desired results. We hope those who hatched it out are satisfied.

LETTER FROM JUDGE REYNOLDS

Editor Union-Banner:

I was very much surprised at a letter Professor J. L. Johnson circulated at the last moment of the campaign; however, I should have not have been surprised, for it is nothing new for literature containing false statements to be circulated at the last moment.

Mr. Johnson has much to say about the negro, which no one is surprised at, as this is about all the Democrats have to talk about. But I was more than surprised at his attack on Congressman Wurzbach, for he refers to him as "Kiser Bill & Co." and makes many statements about his war record that are not true. I am sure that the Professor knew at the time he made these statements that they were not rue. Any person should be careful about making false statements which effect any one's reputation, who is not present to defend himself, and especially should a public man be careful about making statements that are not true.

I want to say for Congressman Wurzbach that I heard him make several speeches, and I have never heard any public speaker that was more considerate of his opponents than he was. He did not make a single statement that the most bitter Democrat could take offense at; in fact, he hardly mentioned the Democratic party.

Congressman Wurzbach is a 100 per cent American. His father joined the Texas Rangers when he was 15 years of age, fought on the Western front for his country, and when the war between the States was declared he joined the Confederate Army and fought four years for the South. The Congressman enlisted in the American Army during the Spanish-American War and camped in this State for two months. There have been some of his people in every war that the U. S. has taken part in during the last hundred years. And today, two that bear his name and are near and dear to him, lie sleeping in France, having given their lives for this country. And yet, with a record for loyalty to his country that anyone would be proud of, Professor Johnson refers to him as a traitor, which I consider is the gravest charge he could bring against him.

Congressman Wurzbach was Chairman of the Red Cross in his District during the recent war, and I am sure that his war record compares favorably with almost any American's and more favorably than those who have tried to slander him.

I want to say that I have been in politics for about thirty years and I have never made a public statement about anyone that I did not know was true.

Just a word about politics to the Republicans:—I am sorry that over fifteen hundred Republicans in this county prefered to stay at home rather than go to the polls and vote. You will remember that a few Republicans stayed at home one time too many, and we will be taxed for the next fifty years to pay for debts that the Democrats made while they were in office. Our county is almost bankrupt on acount of it, and we will do nothing for years but pay taxes for the interest on the debts they made.

I believe both sides should be present and speak from the same platform on public questions, and then misrepresentations could be corrected and the people could get the truth.

Respecfully,
L. H. REYNOLDS.

READ WHAT THIS POPULAR HOTEL CLERK SAYS ABOUT CREO-PINUS.

Consider it worth its Weight in Gold for Throatand Lung trouble—Effective tonic after "FLU" and Pneumonia.

Like a miracle of old.

T. A. Myrick, popular clerk of Hotel Empire, Birmingham, Ala. says that Creo-Pinus (the creosote tonic) has brought results in one week that is nothing short of a miracle. Mr. Myrick says that last November he contracted the "flu" and pneumonia, which left his lungs in awful shape and that he was caught in a fire on christmas morning and was overcome by smoke and since that time has had a lump on his right lung larger than his fist, but in one week's time after commencing on this wonderful creosote tonic this lump is almost gone, and that he has coughed up at least one half gallon of phleme, and that he considers Creo-Pinus worth its weight in gold to anyone suffering from throat and lung trouble. Creo-Pinus is for sale by Upchurch Drug Co. Clanton, Ala. Price 65c and $1.15 per bottle.

SMITH HOUSE BURNED

The handsome suburban home of Attorney A. C. Smith, in South Clanton, was destroyed by fire about eleven o'clock Monday night. The origin of the fire is not known, but is supposed to have been caused from the stove flue. Some of the household effects were taken out of the house and saved from destruction.

Mrs. Lucy I. Ingram and children, Hubbert and Miriam have returned home after spending several days in Montgomery where the children were under medical treatment of Drs. Blue and McGee, in an infirmary.

Everybody Sees a Change in Father

GRATEFUL SON SAYS FATHER LOOKS LIKE DIFFERENT MAN SINCE TAKING TANLAC.

"My father has suffered from chronic stomach trouble for over twenty years and has paid out thousands of dollars for medicines and doctors," said G. W. Slayton, a well-known Cobb County farmer, living a short distance out of Atlanta, Ga.

"We tried nearly everthing trying to cure him and he went off to the Springs, thinking maybe the water might help him but it just looked like nothing would reach his troubles. Then he tried dieting and live on liquid food until he almost starved, but even that failed to do him any good and he just kept going from bad to worse.

"I don't guess there ever was a case as stubborn as his and if there ever was a confirmed dyspeptic, he was one of them and I guess he would have been one yet if it hadn't been for this Tanlac.

"The first we heard of this medicine was when my Father saw an advertisment in the papers from parties he knew in Tennessee, who were friends of his and he knew what they said about it was the truth so he got it right away and begin taking it. Well, sir, it acted just like magic—everybody notices the change in Father. Why, he is just like a different man and sits down to the table and eats like a farm-hand. Only yesterday he ate pork and turnips for his dinner and ate so much we were actually afraid he was going to overdo the thing but he laughed and said nothing hurt him now and that he was hungry and expected to eat and make up for lost time.

"Now, when a medicine will do things like that I think people ought to know about it and I want to say right now that I would not give one bottle of Tanlac for all the other medicines and health resorts in the country put together."

DURABILITY

"Made to Endure and Make Starting Sure"

The rugged construction of the Cooper Battery has given it those long enduring qualities which are so necessary to the Storage Battery, if the service it renders is to be efficient and of long duration. Two distinctive features that give the Cooper Battery durability are the heavily pasted plates, with an active material of special composition, and the Port Orford Cedar Separator.

The Plate

What the motor is to the Automobile, the plate is to the battery—its heart. Long life and efficient service depend to a greater degree upon the plate than any other part of the battery.

Cooper engineers have designed the plate of this battery—(heavily pasted with an active material of special composition) to meet the unusual requirements of the electrical system of your car. This plate is your assurance of electrical energy that is ever ready, efficient and longer lasting.

The Port Orford Separator

The purpose of the separator of a battery is to act as an insulator between the plates. The Port Orford Cedar Separator used in the Cooper Battery offers greater resistance to the action of the electrolyte and the natural wear and tear due to friction between the plates, which is caused by the continuous jarring and vibrating of the automobile.

Our special process for treating Port Orford Cedar Separators eliminates all injurious substances and still retains the natural texture and firmness of the wood.

¶Before you buy your next Battery, stop at our Service Station and let us show you how the Cooper Battery is constructed, and explain the guarantee under which it is sold.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

BAPTISTS COLLECT $25,000,000 CASH

COMPLETE GREATEST YEAR

Reports to Southern Baptist Convention at Chattanooga Show Marked Progress Along Every Line of Organized Work.

DR. J. H. RUSHBROOKE
Baptist Commissioner For Europe.

Collections in cash totaling $25,103,424.64 have been made for general causes fostered by the Baptist 75 Million Campaign since the campaign was launched in 1919, according to a report to the Southern Baptist Convention, which has just adjourned its Chattanooga session, by Dr. L. R. Scarborough, general director of the campaign, and chairman of the Conservation Commission. The fact that $12,924,943.60 of this amount was collected during the past year, under the most depressing conditions known in years, is very encouraging to the denominational leaders, they say.

Will Seek the Unsaved.

Feeling the need of conserving the spiritual interests of the people as well as the financial aspects of the campaign, the convention asked the Conservation Commission to seek to enlist, through the state and associational organizations, all the 27,000 local Baptist churches in the South in a larger evangelistic effort during the next twelve months, the aim being to induce as many individual members of the churches as possible to win at least one soul to Christ during the new year. Reports to the convention showed that there were 173,595 persons received into the local Baptist churches by baptism during the past year, and a much larger number will be sought during the year ahead.

Would Evangelize Europe.

One of the interesting actions of the convention was the decision to back up fully the Foreign Mission Board in its program for the evangelization of the new European territory of Spain, Jugo-Slavia, Hungary, Roumania, the Ukraine and Southern Russia. Dr. J. H. Rushbrooke, of London, Baptist Commissioner for Europe, addressed the convention, telling how he had distributed the relief funds contributed by Baptists for the needy families of those countries and how the giving of this relief had opened wide the door of missionary opportunity.

Work on the older foreign fields during the past year was unusually successful, the board reporting receipts of $2,404,988 for its missionary operations and $278,000 for relief work, as well as $100,000 worth of clothing; 6,998 baptisms on the foreign fields; 187 of the 611 churches self-supporting, with a total of 405 foreign missionaries and 978 native workers employed.

Home Mission Board Active.

The Home Mission Board reported 77,072 additions to the churches through its instrumentalities, church extension operations of $1,248,000, and 298 patients treated at the Tubercular Sanatorium at El Paso.

During the year the receipts of the Sunday School Board reached $1,147,721.73, and the board turned back into general work of the denomination the sum of $189,000.

Although only three years of age, the Relief and Annuity Board, which seeks to supply the needs of aged, dependent ministers and their families, has doubled the number of beneficiaries receiving aid from the denomination as well as the amount of relief given. It now has permanent resources in excess of $900,000.

There are 119 Baptist educational institutions in the South, with a total enrollment of 40,000 pupils, the report of the Education Board showed, and 2,185 of these pupils are preparing for special Christian service, such as the ministry, missionary and other special religious work.

The Woman's Missionary Union, representing the organized women of the South, reports a total of 19,485 organized societies of women and young people, while the cash contributions by the women to the various causes fostered by the denomination during the year amounted to $3,115,437

MORE ABOUT THE DANCE

Maplesville, Ala., June 1, 1921.
Editor Union-Banner:

I noticed several articles in your paper relative to "dancing," and the following thoughts came to my mind as I thought of what each writer had to say pro and con.

In Psalms 64:9 we read: "All men shall fear and shall declare the word of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing." We know that God has a plan and that he prepared Christ before the foundation of the world, and Christ came to seek and save that which was lost, and that he tasted death for every man. That he (Christ) "gave himself a ransom for all (ransom means corresponding price) to be testified (made known) in due time." I Tim., 2:5-6. All men do not fear God; all men do not declare the works of God, and the question comes to ur minds, will they ever do so?

It is easy to reason out. All shall in due time, all do not now; therefore "now" is not the "due time," then the "due time" must be later; for all people to fear and declare His works and wisely consider His doing. We know that there are many sects, creeds and denominations claiming to be teaching God's Word, and there are many many churches. Yet the scriptures teach that Christ established the one True Church, the church which is His body, the church of the first-born whose names are written in Heaven. That those who constitute the true church must be drawn to Christ by the Father and in order that they may gain the prize of the high calling in Christ Jesus, they must lay aside every besetting sin and run (not sit or stand) with patience the race that is before them.

In II Peter, 1st chapter, we read about the precious promises and about adding to our faith and making our calling and election sure; and if we do this we shall never fall. It is easy to see that not all people are drawn to Christ at the present time.

In Ecl., 3:4, we read about "A time to laugh, a time to weep, a time to moun and a time to dance." David danced, the people shouted and danced in King Saul's day. Herod's daughter, Salome, danced. When the Prodigal Son spent all he had and returned, he heard music and dancing. I cannot find that any of the Disciples of Christ ever danced, or that our Saviour ever danced. And we are to follow Christ, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe, I Tim., 4:10. We read in John 19:11 about the greater sin. Now, which is the gerater sin, to dance or teach and believe error? In I John, 5:17 we read that all unrighteousness is sin. There is a rumor that there is corruption in politics; if so, is it wrong to vote? Some will answer "No."

Some people teach that there is a place they call Purgatory, for those who are not good enough to go to Heaven and not bad enough to go to Hell. Thousands of people who read the Bible say there is no scripture to justify them in believing or teaching that there is such a place. Then to teach such would be as great a sin as to dance. There are many evils worse than dancing. It seems that one set of people practice one evil and condemns other evils; another set does some other evil and condemns still another ad nauseum, until all forms of evil is practiced and all forms condemned.

I do not consider it any of my business to try to stop people from dancing. I do not wish to speak evil of any man. The Bible says "If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man. If anyone is anointed to preach the gospel, he has enough to do without trying to condemn. He is to proclaim God's Word, good tidings to the meek, bind up the broken hearted, proclaim liberty to the captives and the opening of the prison (graves) to them that are bound (dead), to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengance (we are living in the day of vengance now), and to comfort all that mourn. Read Isaiah 61:1-3. First John 2:15 tells us to "Love not the world neither the things that are in the world (such as fine homes, honor, fame, reputation, high positions, money, etc.), for if any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him." We should not smite the blind man just because he is going in the wrong direction. And some people are actually so blind to God's teachings that they believe that their dead friends can talk to them. Such I do not wish to condemn or speak evil of, but would be glad to present God's Word, and if that does not open their eyes, I shall have done my duty and will be willing to leave the results in God's hands. In Ecclesiastes 9:5-10 we read that the dead know not anything—no knowledge, no wisdom, no work, do device in the grave whither thou goest. Psalms 146:4 says that the day a man dies his thoughts perish. So one could not talk without thinking or having some knowledge.

We should not do evil for evil, but should do good for evil. Judge not, condemn not; yet a tree is known by its fruit. And wouldn't it be evil to support spiritualism, which teaches that the dead can talk and know things and therefore can think? Do we read, that not all that sayeth Lord Lord shall enter into the Kingdom of God, but he that doeth the will of God shall enter. See also Matthew 12:50. Now can we do the will of the Father by dancing or by teaching error or believing error? Can we depend on opinions and conscience to guide us? Did not the Apostle Paul persecute the Church with good conscience? John 8:32 tells us that "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make thee free." Should we not then walk in the light, "for everyone that doeth evil hateth the light," John 3:20-21. Christ is the door and way; if you try to enter any other way you are a robber. And "No man can come unto me except the Father draw Him," eJsus says. Is it possible or probable that some have been drawn who hateth the light? Jesus was the true light to lighten every man. Has that been done yet? If it has not been done, isn't it yet future?

We read about the works of the flesh in Gallatians, 5th chapter and about the fruits of the spirit, which are love, joy, peace, longsuffering, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance, against such there is no law. And they that are Chirt's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts thereof. Was not Jesus tempted three times, and did he not overcome them, which were the lusts of the flesh, the world and the pride of life? See I John 2:16. Had we not better do the same if we are to follow Him?

Doesn't the Apostle in II Tim., 2:15 command us to "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth"? Isaiah in 11:9 tells us that "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea." (The Pacific Ocean is 7 miles deep in some places, and if you were on the bottom you would be sure to get wet). This condition is not now, neither has it been in the past, therefore it must be future if we rightly divide the word of truth; so now evidently is not the due time. Proverbs 23:23 tells us to "Buy the truth and sell it not." II Tim., 2:7 tells us to "consider what I say: and the Lord will give thee understanding in all things," and finally Heb., 10:24 tells us, "Let us consider one another, to provoke unto love and unto good works."

Yours very truly,
J. C. EDWARDS.

NO SOCIETY NEWS

Owing to the absence of Mrs. R. E. Luckie, who is away from the city on a visit, we have no Society News in the paper this week.

TRIP TO DUNCAN'S RIFFLES

In order to satisfy our curiosity as to what is being done toward the new dam at Duncans Riffles on Coosa River, Dr. Gragg, Dr. Crumpton, P. D. Wilson, and the editor of the Union-Banner, made a trip to that God-forsaken place on last Friday afternoon. The biggest job we had was getting there and getting away. It was no trouble to see what was going on while there.

There are some indications that a dam, or something, may be built there some day. It seems that a bunch of surveyors have been able to find the place by the aid of many square yards of blue prints and a battery of spirit levels, (they must have had airplanes too.) Now Arkie Mahan is engaged with a bunch of men in building pig-pens on every rock that sticks its head above the the water in that part of the river. Just as soon as Arkie gets the pens built another crew fills them with rocks to keep them from drifting away in times of high water.

The drilling crew is engaged in testing the rock in the bed of the river. Their drills are steam driven affairs which they mount on top of the pig-pens filled with rocks. They drill to depths of about a hundred feet and bring out samples of the rock. We supose they were doing this in order to determine how deep they would have to dig or blast to get suitable foundation for the proposed structure.

It is very strange how these workmen treat visitors. They do not pay any more attention to their guests than if no one out of the ordinary were upon the scene. They go right on drilling, or building pig pens, or doing something else and do not offer any information at all as to what their plans are. Visitors are left entirely alone to form their own ideas about what may be seen.

On our way down there we did find a couple of ex-soldiers in the surveying crew who were kind enough to tell us which road to take to get to the coveted place.

There are some signs of something being done at Duncan's Riffles, but honestly we cannot say whether it is going to be a dam or something else.

Percy Pitts went to Columbiana Tuesday to vote.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY

Resolved, that we the members of Thorsby Chapter, O. E. S., extend to Sister and Brother B. F. Massey our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of their little son.

Be it further resolved that we say to Sister and Brother Massey, put your trust in Him who doeth all things well, and be guided by the Star that shines in the East.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be placed on our minutes, and a copy be sent to the bereaved parents.

They never made a cigarette like this in my day—

The Camel idea wasn't born then. It was the exclusive expert Camel blend that revolutionized cigarette smoking.

That Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos hits just the right spot. It gives Camels such mellow mildness and fragrance!

The first time I smoked Camels I knew they were made for me. I knew they were the smoothest, finest cigarette in the world, at any price.

Nobody can tell me anything different.

Rollicking Comedy, "Nothing But The Truth," Second Night of Chautauqua

The rollicking comedy success, "Nothing But The Truth," will be presented on the second night of the coming Redpath Chautauqua by a New York cast. The plot of this great American play is so full of amusing complications and surprises that it is one constant gale of merriment from first to last. Merely because he tells the pure, unadulterated truth, the hero gets into one complication after another almost hopelessly endangering his firmest friend ships and his best business interests. "Nothing But The Truth" is a clean, wholesome, delightful comedy.

Artist Entertainers Are Notable Chautauqua Feature

THE ARTIST ENTERTAINERS.

Unusual novelty and genuine artistic excellence—a rare and most desirable combination—are delightfully united in the programs of the Artist Entertainers, at the coming Redpath Chautauqua. The exceptional merit of the organization has been unquestionably tried and proved by the successful record of its members during the past three years on the Lyceum and Chautauqua platform. Everywhere they have been greeted by the superlative praise of enthusiastic audiences.

Vera MacKelvie, cartoonist and soprano, a versatile artist of unique and remarkable ability, and Corinne Jessop, reader and soprano, a rarely gifted entertainer, compose the company. The Artist Entertainers company is an exceptionally happy combination of individual artists.

MAY WYON LANGEBEK.

May Wyon Langebek lectures at the coming Redpath Chautauqua on "Reading Character at Sight," and as a part of her lecture actually reads the character of any members of her audience who present themselves. This character reading is always done tactfully and sympathetically with full regard for the feelings of those who go upon the platform.

"Reading Character at Sight," as presented by Mrs. Langebek, is an exact science with an amazing breadth of application. It vitally concerns every man, woman and child in the audience and makes for their success in business and life. It helps to avoid the tragedy of the wrong vocation. It is not a theory, nor is it first cousin to palm reading and fortune telling. The principles which lie behind the science are as old as intuition itself.

Chicago Orchestral Company at Chautauqua

CHICAGO ORCHESTRAL COMPANY.

The Chicago Orchestral Company, at the coming Redpath Chautauqua, is a distinctly unique novelty organization composed of artists of proved popularity. Each member of the company was chosen because of her previous success in Lyceum and Chautauqua productions.

The Chicago Orchestral Company is an unfailingly popular organization and is a fitting opening attraction to a remarkable three days' program.

Scene From Rollicking Comedy, "Nothing But The Truth," Second Night of Chautauqua

"Nothing But The Truth" is one of the most widely known comedy successes.

As a novel by Frederick S. Isham, it was read by millions of people, and later as a play it ran more than a season on Broadway.

It is the ingenious, entertaining story of a young society idler who wagers that he can tell the absolute truth for one whole day.

A complete production of "Nothing But The Truth" will be given on the second night of the Redpath Chautauqua here, by a New York cast.

Edward Reno, who will give a program of magic and mystery on the last night of the Redpath Chautauqua, has been a magician for thirty-five years, and in that time he has traveled all over the world, including India, Syria and Egypt.

Reno is constantly inventing new things in magic and illusion. Also in foreign lands he picked up many things not known to professionals.

In his performance he springs one surprise after another on his audience and keeps all in a state of breathless wonder and delight until they forget to note the flight of time.

Not the least enjoyable feature of Reno's performance is the running fire conversation with which he enlivens everything he does.

Thorsby Institute Commencement.

By an unlookedfor mishap, the items written about Thorsby Institute intended for publication last week, did not reach the office of the Union-Banner until about the time of going to press, but we venture to give a somewhat condensed record of these events, knowing that many people in Chilton County will be interested.

The "Beginning of the End" was an evening devoted to a recital by students of the music department and expression, assisted by Miss Marjorie Fox and Mrs. Ethel Wright Loveland, the respective instructors in these branches making altogether a very creditable entertainment.

On Friday evening, May 27th Miss Marjorie Fox presented Miss Inga Erdahl in a graduation recital. For several years past Miss Erdahl has displayed remarkable talent as a student of piano work. She has been indefatigably industrious and faithful in practice and has developed an all around efficiency which aroused unstinted enthusiasm in the audience during her rendering of the very ambitious program which follows, which was carried out very successfully: Sonata in A Minor, Lrgo-Allegro, Adagio, Allegrettom; Beethoven; (b) Morning Mood, Butterfly; Greig; (a) Kamennoi-Ostrow, Rubenstein; (b) Waltz in A Minor; Chopin; (c) Scherzo, Mendelssohn; (a) Prelude in C Sharp, Rachmaninoff; (b) Impromptu, Reinhold; (c) Two Larks, Leschetesky; Duet, Miss Fox and Miss Erdahl; Rhapsodie, Hongorise No. 2, Liszt. The program also contained a vocal number acceptably rendered by Miss Fox, and an interesting Dramatic reading by Mrs. Loveland. Saturday night, May 28th, there was a Declamatory Contest in which the contestants were nearly all undergraduates. A $5 prize was offered the boy and girl who should excel in delivery and general efficiency. Nearly all the speakers did so well that picking the winner kept the audience guessing. The contestants were Clayton Sharpe, Marie Flummer, Gresham Lowery, Esther Johnson, John Wesley, Mary Ella Gerald, Allison Saltsman, Arthur Male, Chester Maddox, Pauline Gray and Dorothy Rogers; the prizes were awarded Marie Flummer and Chester Maddox.

Sunday, May 29, at 11 a.m. in the Congregational Church, Rev. Lewis H. Keller, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., delivered a very impressive baccalaureate sermon on "Life's Supreme Task." On Monday afternoon, May 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Norton, there was a surprise party given in honor of Miss May Stoddard, Associate Principal of Thorsby Institute, by the mothers of students who have been under Miss Staddard's instruction during the six years she has been connected with the school, together with a few of the graduates, who took occasion to say some nice things to her and also to present her with a signet ring of beautiful design. Miss Stoddard will not be with Thorsby Institute for the coming school year, much to the regret of many warm friends in Thorsby .

On Monday night Miss Stoddard gave a party at the Teachers Cottage to members of the faculty, alumni, and to the members of the graduating class, together with a few others all of whom greatly enjoyed Miss Stoddard's genial hospitality.

Tuesday and Wednesday, May 31st and June 1st, were wholly taken up with the final examinations for determination of scholarship and promotions for the coming school year. Wednesday night, Mrs. Ethel Wright Loveland presented the graduating class in a humorous play entitled Sally Lunn" in which all the parts were well taken, to the great enjoyment of a large and appreciative audience.

On Thursday, June 2, the festivities began early with a Tennis Tournament consisting of girls finals, followed by boys finals, and ending with a fast game between alumni and seniors. At noon, in conformity with an established commencement day custom, a community basket dinner was served on the campus under the auspices of the Ladies Guild of Thorsby. These occasions are becoming more and more pervaded by a spirit of hospitality and community good will each year. In the afternoon the girls gymnasium class gave a beautiful wand drill "Change of the Seasons." Under the direction of Mrs. Loveland, and in the evening at 8 o'clock the graduating exercises were held in Bates Hall, which was packed to the doors and many went away because there was no room for them.

The exercises began with a march by the entire student body, which ended on the platform in formation for chorus singing under the direction of Miss Marjorie Fox, the music teacher who conducted several musical numbers during the evening. Other notable parts of the program were a vocal solo by Miss Agnes Leary, a graduate in the class of 1920; piano duet by Miss Fox and Miss Erdahl; presenting a gift to Miss Stoddard from trustees, faculty and students; address by Rev. S J. Eddins, Pastor Methodist Protestant Church of Montgomery, subject "Some Essentials of Success." Awards of prizes, presentation of diplomas by Rev. James M. Graham, Vice President of the Board of Trustees.

Almon Graham, "Intramural and Inter-Collegiate Athletics."

Olaf Andrew Larsen, "Electricity."

Arthur Frazier Male, "Forest Preservation."

Bessie Vera Hughes, "Luther Burbank."

Essie Iva Hughes, "Mary Lyon."

Alice Leona Sharp, "Longevity."

Lura Josephine Woods, "Community Development."

Class Colors, Green and Gold.

Class flower, Marchal Niel Rose.

Class motto: "Our Principal Business is Development."

Prizes of $1 each were given for a perfect record in attendance and punctuality to the following: Tressie Barrett, Birdie Hall, May Ward, Esther Johnson, Thomas Giles, Margaret Butler, Mary Ella Gerald, Jennie Woodham.

"T Pin" was presented for athletic honors to Miss Dora Bracken. "T Pins" were also given Miss Inga Erdahl, Miss Shannon and Mrs. Loveland as an expresion of appreciation for services rendered in the girls athletic work.

The prize offered for most efficient work at the girls dormitory was divided between Myrtle Arthur and Bessie Hughes, and the pize offered to the girl doing extra work most willingly was divided between Margaret Butler and Myrtle Arthur. Prizes offered to the girls keeping their room in the best order were won by the following: Lura Wood, Bessie Hughes Essie Hughes, Jennie Woodham, Birdie Hall, Annie Hughes and Mary Allie Hancock.

Miss Lura Woods attained the highest scholarship record of the senior class, and Miss Alice Sharp second. A scholarship is offered by Piedmont College, Illinois College and Augustana College. Miss Esther Johnson made the highest scholarship record in the school for the year.

Miss Clara Crumpton of Clanton has been the guest of Miss Louise Connatser for the past week.

On last Thursday a big community dinner was held on the school campus. A large crowd of friends gathered, and after dinner 2 baseball games were enjoyed by Helena and Thorsby, the first game being 7 to 4 in Helena's favor and the second 1 to 0 in Thorsby's favor. The visiting team was given a big dinner and were treated royally in every respect, and they went away saying that there sure was some class to Thorsby.

The official program of the Redpath Chautauqua, which comes to Thorsby June 17, 18 and 20, is as follows:

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Paxson had as their guest Sunday their grand daughter, Miss Hall of Birmingham.

Miss Marjorie Fox who has been teacher of music at the Institute the past year left Saturday morning for her home in New York.

The many friends of Miss Elizabeth Hoopes, will be delighted to learn that she is in Thorsby for about a two-weeks visit. She is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Norton. Miss Hoopes is a former matron of the girls dormitory, and she has a large number of friends here, who are glad to welcome her back once more.

Miss Annie Werness of Birmingham was a visitor to Thorsby Sunday.

Mrs. John Carlson and daughter, Pearl, left Friday night for Chicago, where they will visit friends and relatives. They intend to be away about six weeks.

Mrs. Marie Forsman left Friday night for Chicago for a six weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Larkins.

Announcement is hereby made that on July 4th the Masons and Eastern Star will hold a public installation of officers at Bates Hall. A picnic dinner will be held on the school campus, where a program has been arranged for speeches, games, races, etc. Everybody invited, and don't forget to bring well filled baskets.

Miss Emily Ellsworth and Miss Stella Barnett, who have been teaching at Thorsby Institute, left Monday a.m. for their homes in the North. We are glad to learn that Miss Ellsworth will return next year.

Tickets are now on sale for the big Redpath Chautauqua, which will be here the 17, 18 and 20. So be sure you do your share and buy a ticket. Boost the Chautauqua.

An all day song service was conducted at the Baptist Church last Sunday. A very large crowd attended, and some splendid singing was carried on. Prof. Patton is here now conducting a singing school. About 50 students were enrolled Monday morning.

The Banner Print Shop is equipped to do good printing, and we do nothing except the best. Also our prices are very consistent, and we guarantee satisfaction.

Mr. Aaron Vines of Birmingham was the guest of his parents Sunday.

The services at the Baptist Church Sunday was conducted by Rev. J. M. Graham. He preached an interesting sermon on sacred songs.

Mr. Zell Pope left Tuesday a.m. for his home, after spending several days in Thorsby.

Mr. F. Scott of Jemison was a visitor in Thorsby Sunday. We can't help but notice that he is getting to be quite a frequent visitor to our town—ahem!

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me.

"I saw after taking some Cardui . . . that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person.

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments.

ERE'S CHANCE TO GET BICYCLE FREE

The Birmingham News To Give Away 1,000 Rangers To Boys And Girls.

When the calliope starts tooting in the circus parade, the boys and girls "come a-running," and when somebody shouts "get a bicycle free," they immediately ask "where" and "how."

This story deals with bicycles and not circuses and if you want to get the very latest thing in bikes, and for nothing, step right up close while this paper tells you what The Birmingham News is going to do.

To win one of these bicycles all one has to do is get 35 subscriptions to the daily and Sunday News—a very simple thing for industrious boys and girls. The bicycles, which have already been purchased, are the celebrated "Ranger Motorbike" model for boys and the "Ranger Superb" for girls, each valued at $60, the price one would pay at the factory or through local dealers, and they are delivered to your home by prepaid express.

Any boy or girl in Alabama may enter the contest, which is not limited to age, for there are full-sizes for men and full sizes for women in the event any of them compete and win one of the bicycles. Here are the conditions:

The 35 subscriptions must be obtained between June 5 and Sept. 6, 1921, and the subscribers must be residents of Alabama who are not now or at the time of solicitation, receiving the daily and Sunday News in their homes. The cost of the daily and Sunday News delivered in the home by carrier is only 25 cents per week, or $1.10 per month. If the subscriber desires to take the paper by mail, or lives in a town where The Birmingham News has no carrier delivery, the price is $10 per year, paid in advance.

That, in a nutshell, is the bicycle plan, and now (step up a little closer) for here's the description of the Ranger.

Equipped with every device that can make a bicycle serviceable and comfortable, the Ranger possesses shock-absorbing rubber grips, "Aristocrat" padded saddle of brown leather and fitted with the famous compensating coil and suspension spring; Hercules tubular featherweight rear platform luggage carrier, Mead featherweight steel mud guards, International bicycle stand and spring clip for stand, imported Brampton twin roller anti-friction chain, "Aristocrat" motorbike rubber pedals, mud guard splasher, extra heavy non-skid tires, tool kit and dozens of other points too numerous to mention.

All subscriptions must be verified and accepted by The News before they are allowed to count, but bicycles will be delivered to the candidates as rapidly as their quotas are filled and verified.

If you're interested—and surely you're thinking of those long hikes you can take, write to The Birmingham News, Bicycle Department, Birmingham, Ala., and ask for information and instructions on how to obtain one of these $60 Ranger bicycles.

JUDGE MANFORD SCHOONOVER

Judge Schoonover has climbed to a place of exceptional responsibility and trust in the councils of his state. He is vigorous, inspiring and exerts an immeasurable influence upon his audiences.

RAILWAY INQUIRY IN WASHINGTON

Excessive Labor Costs and Working Conditions Chief Causes of Trouble.

NO CONTROL OVER EXPENSE

Prices and Wages Fixed by Government Leave Little Scope for Managements.

Washington, D. C.—In testifying before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce in the general investigation into the railroad situation, witnesses for the railroads contended that:

(1) The costs of operation are abnormal, owing chiefly to wage scales established by the government which exceed wages paid for similar work in other industries, and to wasteful labor costs, often for work not done, enforced upon the railroads by the so called "National Agreements."

(2) That 97½ cents out of every dollar of operating expenses in 1920 were at prices fixed directly by the government, or by general market conditions and over which the railroad managements had no control.

(3) That the general business depression was not due to the high freight rates, but to the lack of buying both here and abroad.

One of the most striking facts brought out in the testimony presented by the first witness, Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of directors of the Southern Pacific, was the following, in explanation of the chief reason for the increase in operating expenses since 1916:

"The labor bill of the carriers in 1916 (which was before the Adamson law took effect) stood at $1,468,576,394. In 1920 it was $3,698,216,351, an increase of $2,229,839,957.

"The increase by years since 1916 has been as follows:

Increase in 1917	$270,905,748
Increase in 1918	874,331,209
Increase in 1919	229,315,081
Increase in 1920	855,087,919
or an aggregate increase since 1916 of	$2,229,839,057

Exhibits were placed before the committee showing that for the railroads of the whole country, increased expenses in 1920 over 1919 were as follows:

Inc. for 1920 over 1919	$1,495,364,210

Mr. Kruttschnitt, in showing how little control the railroads had over necessary expenditures, said:

"Sixty-four cents out of every dollar of operating expenses were, in 1920, paid out to labor, and the wages of labor are fixed by the government.

"Fifteen cents out of every dollar of operating expenses was paid for materials and supplies at prices fixed by the government.

"Three and one-half cents out of every dollar was paid for other expenses incurred by the government in the first two months of 1920.

"A total, therefore, of 82½ cents out of every dollar of operating expenses for 1920 was paid out at prices directly fixed by the government.

"The remainder, up to 97½ cents, was for materials and supplies, purchased at prices fixed by general market conditions and beyond the power of the railroads to control."

To illustrate how labor costs were inflated by the "National Agreements" entered into during federal control, fixing rules and working conditions, the following examples were cited:

1. The Pere Marquette Railway was compelled to pay $9,364 in back pay to four employees because their titles under these agreements were changed by a decision of the Director General, while the nature of their duties and the volume of their work remained the same.
2. A car repairer on the Virginian Railway was paid $1,000 for work he never did. He was laid off with other employees because there was no work for him to do. When he became entitled under his "seniority rights" to be re-employed, he received back pay and overtime.
3. The Shop Crafts Agreement provides that when employees are required to check in and out on their own time they will be paid for one hour extra at the close of each week, no matter how few hours they may have worked. This rule in the first six months of 1920 cost the railways $6,500,000, or at rate of $13,000,000 a year.
4. On the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad piecework car repairers decreased 41.4 per cent and airbrake repairers 33.4 per cent in efficiency under a guarantee of a fixed minimum rate per hour.
5. On the abolition of piece work on the Union Pacific Railroad in the wheel shop at Omaha, Nebr., the time required for the same work was increased 31.9 per cent and the output was cut down 24 per cent; and in a coach-cleaning yard at Denver the time required was increased 38.8 per cent and the output decreased 28 per cent.
6. Southern Pacific employees, whose sole duty was to keep watch on stationary engines and to stop the engine in case anything went wrong, were reclassified by Director General as "electrical workers," one man on the Salt Lake division being given back pay of $2,881, another $2,094, another $2,009, another $2,003, and six others amounts varying from $1,500 to $1,900.
7. Under the present classification rules of the shop crafts, in order to change a nozzle tip in the front end of a locomotive it is necessary to call a boiler maker and his helper to open the door, because that is boiler makers' work; to call a pipeman and his helper to remove the blower pipe, because that is pipemen's work; and call a machinist and his helper to remove the tip, because that is machinists' work; also for the same force to be employed for putting in the new tip.

Questioned by Senator Poindexter, Mr. Kruttschnitt stated that these instances might be increased indefinitely and were characteristic on railroads of the country, as a result of the "Agreements" left over from federal control.

T. J. Hubbard of Macedonia was in Clanton Wednesday.

HAVE FAITH IN HARDING

Out of Washington for the last fortnight reports have been coming with increasing frequency that the President is under pressure from sources old and new to resubmit to the Senate the Treaty of Versailles and ask for its ratification with reservations nullifying the League of Nations covenant. These reports represent the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Comerce as clinging to the desire to entangle the United States with European politics via the Versailles Treaty; their influence on the President is represented to be greater than that of all the other members of the cabinet combined; and Secretary Hughes and Secretary Hoover are portrayed as whispering into the ear of the chief executive in substance: "You need not pay any attention to the Senate while you have our support," and other assurances to the same effect.

Perhaps our faith in President Harding is too great; perhaps our respect for Secretary Hughes is too great; perhaps we credit Secretary Hoover with too much common sense. Time and events will tell that story; meantime we shall put our faith in Harding rather than in the reports regarding him and Secretaries of State and Commerce to which we have referred. Which is only another way of saying that we find it well nigh impossible to believe that at this late date President Harding is wasting his time giving serious consideration to the resubmission of the Versailles Treaty. To resubmit that treaty would not make lasting peace in Europe, but it would make political war in the United States; it would split the party in power from stern to stem; it would delay indefinitely the the program of domestic legislation to which the administration is committed; it would jeopardize Republican success in the Congressional elections next year and would go far toward making Mr. Harding a one-term President.

As for Mr. Hughes, it would refute the reports that he has learned political sense in the hard school of experience and it would reveal him as a Republican who takes greater satisfaction in wrecking his party than in contributing to its success. As for Mr. Hoover, it might make him the Republican nominee for President in 1924, but it would fall far short of making him President in that or any other year. The fact that these reports appeared first in the newspapers that engaed in the campaign to "sell" the League of Nations to the American people does not, as we read them, add to their reliability. They may turn out to be true, but until we have better evidence to that effect we shall continue to put our faith in Harding.

If it is to be the old, old fight all over again, it will be the old,old lineup, so far as we are concerned. Our opposition to the ratification of the treaty as submitted by President Wilson, was not animated by personal bias or political prejudice. We did our best to defeat President Wilson's attempt to ratify that infamous engagement; we shall do our best to defeat any subsequent attempt to succeed where President Wilson failed. It was our privilege to support the leadership of Senator Lodge in the Senate under the last administration; we hope we shall again have that privilege under the new administration. True it may cost him the senatorship, but we believe that Henry Cabot Lodge counts his senatorship of little worth where the life of the nation is at stake. A senate minority under his leadership saved the nation once; a senate minority under his or the leadership of another, we believe, will save the nation again. And in a new fight as in the old, "the plain people of the land" would be found true to the policy of the "founding fathers."—Boston Transcript.

FEDERAL AIR LICENSES

Congressman Frederick C. Hicks of New York is actively working for his bill providing for the Federal licensing of aircraft. Recent fatal accidents in the air has impressed upon him the necessity for early enactment of such legislation. Mr. Hicks declares that hundreds of old army air planes are now privately owned and are being used on sightseeing trips and for "joy riding in the air" without proper inspection and under the guidance of pilots who have passed no examinations as to fitness. His measure provides for the examination and registration of both pilots and planes.

STATE, LABOR AND COMMERCE

Secretary Hughes, Davis and Hoover have named a committee to fix the number of immigrants from each country that will be permitted to land in the United States. The action is taken under the law recently passed by Congress limiting annual immigration from any country to 3 per cent of the number of its nationals in this country as disclosed by the Census of 1910. The committee members from the State Department will deal with the matter of geographical boundaries, especially of the new political divisions of Europe. Those representing the Labor Department will deal directly with the problem of immigration, while those appointed from the Department of Commerce will determine the three per cent limit under the 1910 census figures.

Scene from Rollicking Comedy, "Nothing But The Truth," Redpath Chautauqua, to be at Thorsby, Saturday Night, June Eighteenth

"Nothing But The Truth" is one of the most widely known comedy successes.

As a novel by Frederick S. Isham, it was read by millions of people, and later as a play it ran more than a season on Broadway.

It is the ingenious, entertaining story of a young society idler who wagers that he can tell the absolute truth for one whole day.

A complete production of "Nothing But The Truth" will be given on the second night of the Redpath Chautauqua here, by a New York cast.

ANSWER TO FALSE CHARGES OF J. L. JOHNSON

To the Voters of Chilton County:

You no doubt have received a circular letter bearing the signature of J. L. Johnson, chairman of the Jeffers Campaign Committee, in which Mr. Johnson attempts to cast aspersions upon the good name and record of Judge Longshore and the Republican party.

This letter is a splendid type and absolutely in keeping with the modern policy of the Democratic party, and demonstrates thoroughly the weakness of the candidate in whose favor it is written. And it is amusing when we analyze this letter and compare it with the true existing facts confronting the voters of the Fourth District of Alabama. For instance, you do not have to argue the question of Godliness or Ungodliness of the people in this campaign, but it might be mentioned that Christ himself was betrayed for a pitiful small sum of money. And when we take the sworn records of the Democratic officials of the State of Alabama and learn that the ignorance or illiteracy among the people of the State of Alabama is greater now than it was prior to the Civil War, we can then see why a man who is a part of our school system would use such unscrupulous methods to deceive the voters of his county.

Has it come to the pass in this county that we have to get people who will publish a circular containing false and untrue statements like the Johnson circular to teach the schools in this county? Is a man that will issue such a circular over his signature fit to train a rabbit dog, much less to teach the white children in this county?

It is indeed regrettable that Major Jeffers, together with many thousands of young Americans, both Democrats and Republicans, received such severe wounds on Flanders-Field, but when we know that Emmett J. Scott, the thoroughbred kinky-headed, burly black negro, was apopinted Special Assistant to the Secretary of War by Woodrow Wilson, and know that he issued orders and directed the movement of the American soldiers in France, we then see why so many were wounded and why we made such woeful mistakes on the battle fields. But the shameful and disgraceful act was when Democratic President Woodrow Wilson, after the unfortunate Major Jeffers, and other American soldiers received their wounds, in their heroic stand for "freedom" and "Old Glory" and for the world-wide freedom of democracy, appointed Robert R. Morton, the thoroughbred negro principal of the Tuskegee Institute as the sole representative from Alabama to go with him to the Peace Conference at Paris—A TRUE EXAMPLE OF THE SO-CALLED WHITE SUPREMACY.

Prof. Johnson gets very much excited over the fact that the Republican party has recently elcted a Republican from the great State of Texas, viz: Congressman Wurzbach, by saying: "You can shut your eyes and say 'Wurzbach,' and a mental picture will flash before you of our brave boys dying of the blood-soaked fields of France, Wurzbach, Kyser Bill & Co." whereas, a matter of fact our energetic and industrious politician and Professor knows or should know that Congressman Wurzbach and his family have lived in the State of Texas for over one hundred years and is not a German, but was born and reared in or near San Antonio, Texas, where in previous years he was elected Probate Judge for four terms of his home county. Also his father fought as a Confederate veteran in the Civil War. Several members of his family were killed and wounded in the recent World War against Germany, while fighting for Old Glory.

We therefore, urge every voter to go to the polls on June 7th, 1921, and register their protest against such misrepresentation of facts as is contained in the Johnson circular, by casting your vote for Judge Longshore for Congressman.

Very Respectfully,
M. D. FOSHEE.

A THUMNAIL SKETCH

Dr. Jno. Wesly Hill, formerly chairman of Lincoln Memorial University, while visiting Washington recently, paid this encomium to President Harding: "I have been intimately acquainted with President Harding for a quarter of a century. He is a man with perpendicular bearing, solid backbone, frictionless intellect and vision undimmed by partisanship or selfish ambition; a real American who reproduced the simple, unostentatious democracy of Abraham Lincoln more than any other man in public life since Lincoln."

YEAST GIVES NEW STRENGTH TO WEAK PEOPLE

Everybody is talking about yeast—of the apparent miracles it is peforming in bringing new strength and health to weak, run-down men and women.

The reason is that yeast contains a vital substance known as vitamines, which we do not get in most of our foods. These vitamines are absolutely necesary to the system, and it is because people do not get enough of them that they become thin, pale, weak and old before their time.

Ordinary yeast cakes, however contain only about 20% real yeast. The most efficient form of yeast is brewer's yeast, highly concentrated. This is the basis of the great new tonic. Ironized Yeast, which is bringing almost incredible results everywhere, especially in treating weakness, thinness and general run-down condition. Contains Iron as well as vitamines, and being a tablet form is plesant to take. Sold and highly recommended by Upchurch Drug Co.

It never rains but it pours!

IT WAS "company night."
BUT WHEN I got home.
I FOUND the Browns.
HAD A sick baby.
AND COULDN'T come.
SO I chortled "Oh, joy.
WON'T SUE and I have.
SWELL EATS for two!"
BUT NO, Sue said.
"YOU DON'T suppose.
I'D WASTE all this food.
JUST ON you!"
AND SO I said.
"LET'S PHONE the Smiths."
BUT THEY had headaches.
THEN WE tried the Joneses.
AND THEY fell for it.
AND WHEN grub for four.
WAS JUST about ready.
THE PHONE bell tinkled.
AND THE Brown baby was better.
AND A minute later.
THE SMITHS changed their mind.
AND THE Missus fainted.
"OH, WELL," I said.
"THE MORE the merrier.
WHAT'S THE difference?
IF THERE isn't enough food.
I'LL FEED the males.
ON THE cigarettes that satisfy.
AND YOU women can talk.
AND BETWEEN the two.
WE'LL ALL be Satisfied."

WONDERFUL company, Chesterfields—any time, anywhere. Just seem to "hit the spot." Good tobaccos, good blending, (by a private formula that can't be copied), good-looking package with an air-tight wrapper. On every count, an all-around downright good smoke. "Satisfy"? All over the place.

ACTIVITIES OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Quietly bus steadily and persistently the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce has been busy working for the organization and trying to accomplish and materialize some of the plans as mapped out a few weeks ago. We are pleased to be able to announce the introduction of two local industries which are to be festered by the Chamber and carried on by two members of the Chamber and local citizens of Clanton, the first.

A Potato Curing House.

to be erected by Mr. Joe Maddox with a capacity of 4,000 bushels. The house will be built in July or early in August in plenty of time to take care of the sweet potato crop that comes in about September and October. This will be a great help to the farmer who will be able to get a good price for his potatoes at the time of digging, or have provision made with Mr. Maddox for the curing if his potatoes, thus saving the farmer the risk of losing half of his crop by the old method of curing his own potatoes through frequently rotting in the ground. This should be an inducement to every farmer to plant a good acreage of potatoes, especiallyin view of the low price of cotton this year. After the potatoes are cured they will be shipped in carload lots to reliable markets. Through years of experience Mr. Maddox knows how to deal with the farmer and wil give him a square deal. The house will be erected near to the cotton warehouse where Mr. Maddox has a railroad track convenient for shipping purposes. The enterprise is heartily endorsed and will be fostered in every way by the Chamber of Commerce. In due course instructions will be sent out by the Chamber in the matter of grading and digging and such other necessary information to make it a mutual profit to both parties concerned.

An Icecream Industry

We are also pleased to announce that Mr. J. M. Nix another enterprising member of the Chamber has installed a $1,000 plant at his well-known bottling establishment for the manufacture of first class ice cream. The equipment has a capacity of 100 gallons per day, and we think the time will soon come when the market will demand this amount per day from this popular business man. Large quantities of ice cream are being used locally and in the county. Why not support a local enterprise? This movement is also heartily endorsed by the the Clanton Chamber of Commerce which hopes to render all the encouragement and support that is within the scope of this organization. On the second day thirty gallons of this tasty and cooling refreshment was made, and its quailty pronounced excellent by its patrons. Mr. Nix is now in a position to handle all the cream of the farmers at the best market prices, and the Chamber bespeaks for him the mutual cooperation of thte farmer with Mr. Nix in this the newest and latest industry.

Express Tariffs.

The Chamber of Comemrce is now in receipt of the Express Tariffs for the entire countya nd is now in a position to audit all the express bills of the merchants for the county including Jemison, Thorsby, Verbena, Lomax and Clanton. The very best of courtesy was shown to the secretary by the Birmingham officials of the American Express Co., who showed him over the various departments of that office and introduced him to the methods of the work. All merchants can now get receipts for any express money paid out by them at the local office. Frequently through error overcharges occur, and it is the purpose of the Chamber to secure a refund of all such overcharges and to take care of loss and damage claims. A liberal refund will be made to all merchants availing themselves of this privilege. A regular clerk will be employed for this purpose by the Chamber of Commerce.

Freight Tariffs

Efforts are also being made to secure the Freight Tariffs for the same purpose. According to numerous expressions of the merchants this is a very needy service to be rendered and we hope in the near future to render such sercise as, doubtless numerous overcharges occur among the merchants all over the county which are rectified for various reasons but chiefly for the lack of time on the part of the merchants to check up their bills, and not being familiar with the constantly changing tariffs. At present however, we have nothing definate to announce.

The Merchants Credit List

A new credit list for the protection of the merchants who are members of the Chamber has been issued which includes Thorsby and Clanton and contains some 646 names.

Truckers Association

A meeting is called for next Saturday Afternoon of all the farmers who are interested in organization of a Truckers Association for the purpose of the cooperative shipping of potatoes and other farm products. It is useless to raise potatoes or any other crop without their being a good market for it. Thhrough this association it is the purpose of the Chamebr to ship all potatoes properly cured in carload lots to good reliable markets and obtain the very best market prices. This can only be done by cooperative shipping, and all members of this Association will get the benefits of these markets. This is not a money making scheme for anybody else but the farmer. The shipping agent will get a small percentage for all sales made, and for the securing of the markets, and handling of the crops. The rest of it will go direct to the farmer. Through the Truckers Asociation of Cullman City last year 100 carloads of potatoes were shipped, and the farmers made from $250 to $300 per acre on their potatoes. We do not anticipate quite such high prices this year, but wish to emphasize that by this method of shipping it is reasonable to believe that a much better price can be secured and the farmer be protected from crooks who seek to beat them out of their money. So if you have potatoes, watermellons and other produce to ship be sure to join the Truck Growers Association that is to be organized next Saturday afternon at about 3p.m.

P. G. CARTER Secretary.

We are proud of the confidence doctors, druggists and the public have in 666 Chill and Fever Tonic.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday, for various reasons, was an off day so far as congregations were concerned. We presume that the hot dry weather and all day singings, and such attractions accounted for this. In order that a church may be successful, it is essential that its membership be loyal in their attendance at the various services. If only fifty per cent of the membership were present at night with those who are not members who attend our services, the present building would not hold all the people. Church membership carries with it the responsibility of church attendance as well as loyalty to the cause. Let us rally together next Sunday, wet or dry, hot or cold, and fill the building, in loyalty to our Lord and in co-operation to the pastor. Preaching services will be held as usual both morning and evening at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. respectively. The various young peoples oragnizations will also meet.

A Stone Laying Ceremony will be held on Friday, June 17th, about 10:30, a.m. Further particulars will be announced in the next issue of this paper. Everybody is invited to our services and Baptists earnestly invited to unite with us.—Pastor.

P. G. CARTER, Pastor.

LIBERTY HILL

The Liberty Hill Singing Society met Sunday afternoon, June 5th. The attendance was small, singing fine. Singing was opened with a song by the chairman. Directors for the afternoon were, Glover Smith, Zack Lowery, Misses Lillie and Claudie Smith. A duet was sung by Glover Smith and Miss Blanche Riggins. An octette was sung by Glover Smith, Paul Littlejohn, L. U. Riggins, Gertrude Smith, Alpheus Littlejohn, Lillie Smith, Necie and Claudie Smith. Also a ladies quartette, by Misses Gertrude Smith, Etta Foshee, Lillie and Claudie Smith. Organists, Marie Morris, Lillie Smith and Blanche Riggins.

The society will meet again on the Third Sunday afternoon, June 19th. We hope to have a large crowd. We are expecting Prof. Patton to be with us. So we invite everybody to come out to the singing.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. P. N. Mitchell of ElPaso, Tex. and Mrs. L. P. Jervey of Richmond, Va., who were formerly Misses Dell and Elizabeth Williams, are visiting relatives and friends in Fairview community. Mrs. Mitchell has been in Virginia, Washington and Baltimore, and Mrs. Jervey is returning with her sister for a month's stay in the West.

PROVIDENCE, BEAT 16.

Editor Union-Banner—Please let us have space for a few words about our Sunday School and Singing Society. We had Sunday School at ten o'clock under direction of Assistant Superintendent, W. H. Robinson. After Sunday School we had preaching by Rev. M. J. Parrish, who delivered a very able discourse to a large congregation. All went home for dinnner and come back for the Society.

The house was called to order at 2:30 by President W. H. Robinson by singing a song and offering prayer. The committee arranged the following directors for the afternoon: W. H. Robinson, C. H. Robinson, T. G. Wyatt, E. L. Powell. Recess 15 minutes. After recess T. L. Robinson, J. W. Cleckler, J. R. Robinson, all for fifteen minutes each. Organists for the afternoon were C. H. Robinson, Miss Alice Wyatt. C. H. Robinson, G. C. Powell and J. W. Cleckler were appointed Executive Committee. The closing song was sung by the President and dismissed with prayer by the Rev. M. J. Parrish.

MARS HILL NEWS.

Health at this place is fine at present. We have had a nice little shower of rain which was much needed. The farmers had done just about all they could until it rained.

Rev. Bailey filled his regular appointment here Sunday. A good many attended but not as many old folks as we would like to see.

Mrs. Lula Foshee and two daughters, Lucy and Mamie, from Riverside, are spending a few days down here with relatives.

Misses May Clark and Jewel Scott spent Saturday night with Miss Mamie Cofer.

Mr. Joe Langston and family from near Pletcher made a flying trip to Mr. Martin Johnson's Saturday.

Mr. Noah Moore and family are visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Scott.

There was an enjoyable singing at Mr. Anderson Scott's Sunday night.

Mrs. Lessie Foshee from Littleton is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Scott.

Misses Modema Waldrup and Alice Posey attended church here Sunday.

Miss Louise Orr has returned to Clanton after taking a stenographic course at Draughon's Business College in Montgomery. She will do public stenographic work at the Exchange Hotel.

REFUGE

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me a small space in your paper to announce that we have organized a Singing Society at this place; and this society will meet every second and fourth Sunday evening at 2:00 p.m. All singers and lovers of music is invited to come and help out in this great work.

T. N. MINER, Secy.

DISTRICT S. S. CONVENTION

The attention of the people living in the neighborhood of the Friendship Baptist Church is drawn to the Sunday School Convention to be held at that church next Sunday. The program, as published in this paper last week and this week, will prove to be very interesting to all who attend and everybody is cordially invited. The program includes a morning and afternoon session and we presume that dinner will be served on the ground.

PASTORS AND WORKERS CONFERENCE

The Pastors and Workers Conference will be held at Marbury on Monday, June 13th. A very interesting program has been arranged, and the following subjects will be discussed:

"How to Create and Preserve Harmony in our Churches," by Rev. B. C. Hughes.

"The Baptists Attitude Toward other Churches and Denominations," by Rev. J. O. Colley.

The Need of the Infilling of the Holy Spirit," by Rev. D. D. Head.

"How the Men can help the W. M. U.," by Mrs. G. F. Griggs of Marbury.

"The one-Week Campaign," by a State Worker.

Dinner will be served on the ground by the ladies of the church and everybody is invited to the meeting which begins at 10 a.m.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The next general meeting of the Clanton Chamber of Commerce will be held on Thursday, June 16th, and will take the form of a banquet. All members of the Chamber will be entitled to attend and should notify the secretary of their intention to be present as soon as possible. The banquet will be free to all members. An interesting speaker from Birmingham is being arranged for, who will be announced in next weeks issue.

The last banquet was a distinct success and greatly enjoyed by all who participated. The Chamber has over sixty members and includes nearly all the business men in the city, and some of the professional men It is already paying dividends and will soon become a potent factor for the upbuilding of the city and community. If you are not yet a member, we shall be pleased to receive your membership and welcome you to the banquet.

THE POINDEXTER ANTI-STRIKE BILL

Washington, June 11—."The present strike in the merchant marine serves to impress upon the public mind the vital importance of the enactment of legislation which will preventi nterference with interstate traffic," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "There is now pending in Congress a bill for that purpose but it has apparently been permitted to slumber, upon the theory that there is no critical situation confronting the nation calling for its immediate enactment. Such a measure, however, in order to be useful, must be already upon the statute books before a crisis arrives. When a critical situation has been presented it is too late to secure protection to the public thru legislation.

"There can be no controversy over the rights of an employe of the merchant marine to quit his employment at the termination of his contract. Neither is there any question as to the similar rights of an employe of an interstate railroad to quit his employment whenever he has fulfiled his agreement with his employer. The question of the individual rights to quit is not involved in any way in the pending anti-strike legislation.

"The anti-strike bill, sometimes referred to as the Poindexter Bill, makes it unlawful for any person, with intent to obstruct the movement of commodities in commerce with foreign nations or among the several states, to solicit, advise, induce or persuade or attempt to persuade any person employed by any carrier subject to the act to regulate commerce, to quit such employment. The bill declares it to be unlawful, with intent to obstruct interstate commerce, o use violence or threats to prevent or seek to prevent any person from engaging in employment or continuing in employment in interstate commerce. It further makes it unlawful for any person with a similar purpose to destroy any car, bridge, track, ship, or other agency of interstate commerce. And, finally, by a new section in the bill it is made unlawful for two or more persons being officers, attorneys, employes, etc., of any carrier subject to the act to regulate commerce, for the purpose of maintaining, adjusting, or settling any dispute which can be submitted for decision to the Committee of Ways and Working Conditions or to a Regional Board of adjustment, to enter into any combination with the intent substantially to hinder the operation of trains or other facilities of transportation in interstate commerce. The bill closes with the express provison that 'Nothing in this Act shall be taken to deny to any indivdual the right to quit his employment for any reason.

"It will thus be seen that the sole and exclusive purpose of the anti-strike bill is to prevent conspiracies for the injury of the public through interruption of the transportation of goods necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety.

"If employes of merchants ships, or employes of railroads desire to quit their employment, or decline to continue in employment at wages offered, that is their privilege. It is equally the right of any other individual to accept employment with full protection from interference, however slight, from those who decline to accept employment themselves. The protection of the individual in this right is essential to the preservation of the public welfare.

"It is difficult to imagine upon what ground anyone devoted to the public welfare could object to the enactment of a measure protecting individual liberty."

THE DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT FRIENDSHIP

As previously announced, the Sunday School Convention of the Fourth Chilton County District met in session at the Friendship Church on last Sunday. The meeting was opened with singing, followed with prayer by Bro. R. T. Grant. Before the convention proper was called the local Sunday School was called together and the business of the school attended to. This required only a few moments, and the house was turned over to the District President, Mr. H. A. Harris, who acted as chairman of the meeting.

A brief devotion was conducted by T. E. Wyatt, and the first speaker on the program, Mr. H. A. Harris, entered upon his subject, "Sunday School Co-operation, Pastor, Superintendent, Teachers and Pupils," and this subject was thoroughly discussed from all angles. Mr. W. T. Bean was next to speak, who told us from start to finish "How to make the Sunday School count for Something." Mr. Bean made an excellent talk, which was enjoyed by all. Mr. Bean is a veteran school teacher of this county, and when it comes to anything about teaching, he knows his business.

"The Leadership of Young People" was discussed by one of the broadest minded and most experienced Christian workers of our county, Miss Mary C. Gibson of Verbena. In this speech Miss Gibson gave the audience the benefit of her deep thinking mingled with her broad experience obtained from most of the foreign countries as well as our own. Her speech was inspiring and not without intense interest.

This brought us up to the noon hour, when dinner was spread on the newly built table near the church, and, take from one who was on hand, there was no one who went away hungry, unless he just wouldn't come up to the table, for there was plenty left for another crowd larger than the one which was fed, and this was no hand full either. This was indeed a bountiful dinner.

After noon, devotion was conducted by Mr. J. D. Collins, and "Planning Your Work and Working Your Plan" was ably discussed by our County Secretary, Miss Della Wiliams.

After Miss Williams' speech, Mr. Harris was asked to be excused from the convention to catch the train taking him back to school, and he appointed Rev. P. G. Carter of Clanton to take charge of the meeting and see it finished. Rev. Carter was the next speaker who told us of "The Possibilities of Child life and their Development." Bro. Carter did the broad subject justice by thoroughly discussing it from every point of view.

Rev. D. M. Pearson, Pastor of the Clanton Methodist Church was there and pointed out plainly "The Place of the Sunday School in Adult Life." This subject was ably discussed by Bro. Pearson.

After the Efficiency Chart was explained and applied to the various Sunday Schools of the District by Miss Williams, the convention was brought to a close by the acting chairman.

According to previous announcement, after the Convention closed, the Friendship Singing Society met in regular session, Mr. W. O. Rich presiding. About two hours of fine singing was directed by, T. G. Wyatt, R. T. Grant, Rube Miller, and Jesse Jones. The class did some excellent singing which all seemed to enjoy.

REFUGE, BEAT FOUR

Editor Union-Banner:

Please let us have a little space for a few words about this place. Our Sunday School and Singing Society are progresing nicely under the management of our Superintendent, J. E. Miner.

Our singing last Sunday was fine. The committee got busy with the program for the evening directors. The house was called to order by singing song, "If Jesus goes with Me" and prayer by R. Robinson. Directors for the evening were, W. H. Robinson, C. H. Robinson, J. W. Cleckler, R. M. Robinson. Recess 15 minutes; then O. R. Robinson, R. E. Powell, R. Robinson, 15 minutes each.

Organists for the evening were Miss Margie Easterling, C. H. Robinson, R. E. Powell.

Dismissed with prayer by W. H. Robinson. All are inivted to come again. T. N. MINER, Secy.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to exress our appreciation to the people of Clanton who were so kind and sympathetic to us in the death of our husband and father, P. C. Smith.

P. C. SMITH DIED SUDDENLY MONDAY MORNING

The almost instant and altogether unexpected death of Mr. P. C. Smith occurred at the family home in Clanton about eight o'clock Monday morning. He was seized with a severe headache and in a few moments lapsed into unconsciousness. A doctor was called, but nothing could relieve him. Death followed shortly.

Mr. Smith was a popular business man of Clanton. He came here a few years ago and established "The Candy Store," which soon grew to be one of the most popular business places in town. Later he established "The Ideal Theatre," which he was operating at the time of his death.

He was 48 years old and a member of the Modern Woodmen of America. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his departure. Burial took place Tuesday in Pine Hill Cemetery at Jemison.

IN MEMORY

On May 12, 1921, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Massey and took from that home their seven-year old son, John Mark. He was taken with apendicitis April 14th and was operated on at South Highland Infirmary on the 16th. The doctors and nurses worked with untiring efforts for four weeks to save him, but the Lord saw fit to call him up higher. His suffering was great, but it was wonderful to see the patience and courage he displayed in his struggle for life.

Besides his mother and father, he leaves four sisters and three brothers to mourn his loss.

Rev. A. L. Foshee conducted the funeral services at the Liberty Hill Church, after which interemnt was made. The floral offerings were beautiful and showed those left behind that he was a favorite with many people.

MAPLESVILLE WINS CLANTON

Maplesville won from Clanton, on the formers ground, Saturday by a close score of 10 to 9. The game was loosely played throughout each team getting nine safe bingles. Hutto, who replaced Coleman in the third inning, pitched creditable ball. The feature was the hitting of Cruise for the locals, getting a homer and a triple at four times at bat.

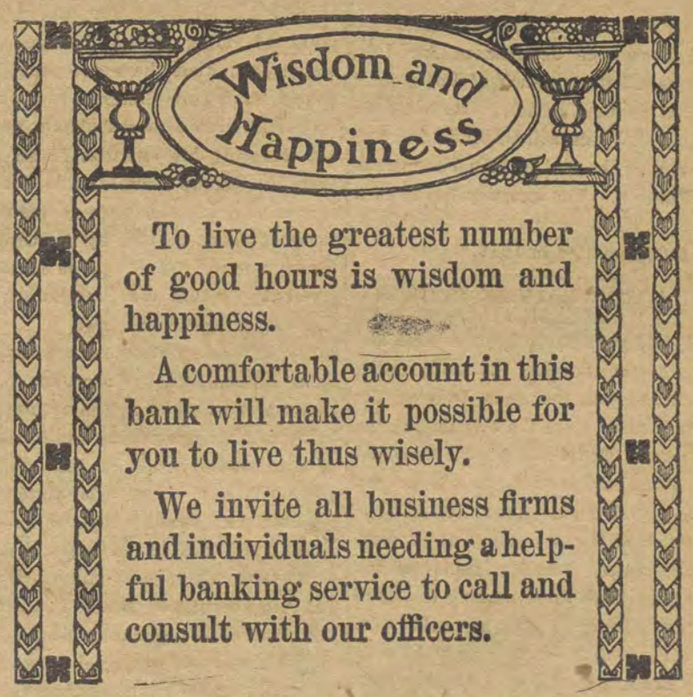
THE PURPOSE OF THE ANTI-STRIKE LAW

Washington, June 10.—"The railroad owners and the railroad employees must not get the notion that they are the only ones interested in the proposed anti-strike legislation," says the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "Nor are they ones most interested. Interstate Transportation is conducted in the interest of all the people—not for merely a few. Practically every railroad has been permitted to exercise the right of eminent domain—to condem property for a right of way on the theory that the property is needed for a public use. Moreover, the Federal Constitution gives Congress jurisdiction over interstate commerce in order that the welfare of all the people may be adequately protected. The Poindexter anti-strike bill is designed to afford that protection in a definite and effective form.

"It is unfortunate that railroad owners and railroad employees cannot always agree. It is unfortunate that human being in general are usually more concerned over self interest than they are over the public welfare. But so long as human nature remains as it is, there will be differences of opinon concerning relative rights, and those differences will lead to disputes of a serious nature. It becomes the duty of the public, then to guard its own interests and to protect itself against injury by the combatants.

"It is desirable that exact justice be done in every case, but this is impossible. Exact justice may be done in most cases, and approximate justice in others. To this end, the govtrnment has established, in the railroad act, a provision for an adjudication of railroad disputes, which adjudication may be expected to attain approximate justice — a nearer approach to justice than will usually result from strikes and lockouts. Having provided that agency for adjudication, the government, as the representative of the public welfare, has a right to demand that neither the employer nor the employee of interstate railroads shall enter into conspiracies to interrupt interstate traffic. The Government has the right and bears the obligation, of declaring that although every man shall have the right to quit his employment for any reason, yet he shall not interfere with the corresponding rights of any other man to take employment or continue in employment on terms satisfactory to him.



"That is the whole purpose of the anti-strike law. It expressly preserves the right of one individual to quit, it is intended to protect the equal rights of any other man to work. This much the government is bound to do in the fulfilment of its first obligation to its citizens. A government that cannot protect the lives and liberties of its people has little hope of commanding their respect or support."

ATKINSON'S BABY DEAD

May Benton, the two-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, died at the family home in Clanton last Thursday morning about four o'clock and was buried in Clanton cemetery about six o'clock Thursday evening. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson extend their sympathy in the loss of their little one.

DRY WEATHER HURTING CROPS

Reports coming to us from all parts of Chilton County would indicate that the dry weather is getting the farmers into a very serious predicament. The eight or nine weeks of excessive heat and not a drop of rain in most places has about put the corn crop on the blink.

Cotton crops would be faring better than corn as regards the dry weather, but it seems that cotton is fighting an enemy that is worst for it than the dry weather is for corn, to-wit: Billy Boll Weevil. There is a wealth of weevils throughout the land, and they get the squares as fast as they come on the cotton stalks.

Many a hard evening and mornings work in the garden has come to naught. Many a dream of delicious garden vegetables has gone a-glimmering, all chargeable to the dry weather. Gardens are simply a blank failure everywhere. They have dried up, root and branch.

All in all, the present situation is a serious one as indicated by reports from many sections of the county.

A WELCOME RAIN

The above article anent the dry weather was written on Tuesday just after it looked so much like we would get a rain, but didn't get it; however we are indeed glad to add this paragraph Wednesday afternoon and acknowledge receipt of one of the finest and most welcome rains that has visited Clanton in many a day. It will be a boon to corn and cotton crops hereabouts, but alas, it will not bring our departed gardens to life we fear.

We expect the boll weevils were as glad to see the rain as the rest of us; for it will mean a great feast of cotton squares for them to devour in a few more days.

We wish to call special attention to the announcement elsewhere that there will be a Fourth of July celebration at the Soldiers Home at Mt. Creek. We would urge that all who can will make their arrangements to go to the Home on that day and mix and mingle with the old veterans. It will be a joyous occasion to them as well as to their visitors.

An examination has been called by the Postoffice department for July 9th to fill the vacancy of Postmaster at the Clanton office. It is to be hoped that this will result in the settlemen of the matter of a Postmaster at Clanton. The question has been a mooted one ever since Postmaster J. E. Robinson died in 1918.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Fairly good services were held last Sunday, considering the many counter attractions that seem to draw the people away from the city during the summer. The B. Y. P. Three classes won the banner at the last report, all three making the same grade. Services will be held next Sunday as usual—morning at 11 a.m. and evening at 8 p.m. You are cordially invited to these services.

TINKHAM OF MASS. WOULD CUT DOWN SOUTH REPRESENTATION

One Tinkham, elected to the U. S. House of Representatives from Massachusetts, has had an obsession for some time to the effect that he is the guardian in general of the negroes of the South, and it is his mission to thrust the vote in their hands whether they are qualified or want to exercise it or not. The alternative is, that is every ignorant darkey in the South does not vote, the number of seats held in Congress from the South will be cut down.

Tinkham was sat upon once by the Republican Party with his resolution —in the early days of the Harding administration — because President Harding and most of the real leaders of the party know that meddlesome legislation such as is proposed by Tinkham will accomplish no good result; will simply engender friction between the races; make the Republicon party worse hated than it is now in the South, and revive memories of the atrocities of reconstruction days committed by the Republicans headed by fanatics of the Tinkham type.

Just what Tinkham expects to accomplish is not clear. One thing is pretty well certain—he is a survival of the meddlesome type of "Down East Yankee" which has made the American greatly disliked abroad, and which type generally is not greatly appreciated here at home. This same type was most offensive during the "carpetbag days" after the Civil War usually mixing such thrift and acquisitiveness with their alleged philanthropy to the end that their memory remains in the recollections of the South much as a place from which a specimen of the genius mephitis mephitica has been forcibly dislodged.

Whether Mr. Tinkham has some deep-laid scheme, or whether it is merely an outcropping of his inherent meddlesomeness does not apepar in the record. If, for instance, he thinks that by bringing every specimen of the negro race to the polls and voting these individuals, imposing upon the South a political domination of ignorance and its inevitable venality, he is merely a hopeless fool to whom the pages of history reveal nothing. Other Republicans know the South will stand for nothing of that sort, even if the Massachusetts busybody does not gather this from the overthrow of the carpetbag governments after the war. The South is much more able to successfully resist such an imposition now.

On the other hand, if Tinkham and the small band of his type are willing to accept the general negro absence from the polls, make a trade on the basis of their staying away at least until thoroughly fitted for citizenship, thus removing the negro from politics absolutely, the South would be mighty glad to make such a deal and pay the price in a reduced representation.

It is perhaps inevitable that in a body as large as the National House of Representatives there should be a proportion of fanatics and fools, but there is usually a saving grace of common sense left in the majority to the end that these individuals with half baked ideas do not get to the point of doing actual damage. It would seem that there are problems enough facing the Congress to occupy the attention of even a Tinkham, without devoting his energies in an attempt to stir up trouble, race antagonisms and interferences in matters that haev been decided by the United States Supreme Court to be matters peculiarly within the jurisdiction of the States and State laws.

The attempt of Tinkham will fail because it has nothing to recommend it; because the author of the resolution is himself an ignoramus, uninformed of the fundamentals of the subject about which he seeks to legislate and regulate, and because there is no definite good end to be accomplished even were his muddle-minded ideas put into execution. But it is a great pity that such individuals of limited intelligence and provincial viewpoint can manage to obtain membership in the National Congress.—Birmingham News.

The foolish efforts of Tinkham in this matter of the South and the negro is one of the most uncalled for things we have ever witnessed. If the Republican administration at the City of Washington listens to such fanatics and lends encouragement to his kind of bosh, they will absolutely destroy what prestige the Republican party has been able to build up in the South during fifty years of struggle.

Tinkham and those of his stripe in the North must wake up to the fact that the South is white, Republicans the same as Democrats. The Republicans of the South will not tolerate this negro bosh any more than the Democrats will, and when the national Republican party undertakes to fasten the stain of niggerism on those of Republican sentiment in the South, that day will the Republican party in the South be set back to the days of fifty years ago.

POLITICAL OPIATES

Washington, June 11.—As evidences multiply of the earnest desire of the Harding Administration to "have less government in business," the devotees of bureaucracy renew their mad drive to put the government into all sorts of business. There is a positive rush of headlines in the public prints declaring that the government must undertake this, or become a partner in that. Now it is a plan in the form of a bill in Congress whereby the government shall purchase agricultural products in this country and hawk them in the market-places of Europe, and $100,000,000 is asked to start this work. Again the government is asked to finance every country in Europe in order that they may trade with us. Here is a particular industry which by government legislation is presented with a copper-riveted monopoly on a certain commodity, and there is another industry which it is designed to curb by a government license to operate. The government is pulled this way and hauled that—jammed into a crevice to make up a deficit, or strapped to a saddle to handicap a so-called "trust" or spliced to a guarantee of a profitable return on private capital.

The foreign observer of "democracy in the making" must long ere this have reached the conclusion that this is a government of the government, by the government, and for the government, and the only way democracy may participate in the shindig is to become attached to a government payroll. And in the background are the plumb planners and their allies sounding the chorus of government ownership of railroads, mines, and practically every other form of industary, incited to their antophonies by the example of those who ought to know better.

Certainly if present tendencies are not repressed that socialism against which we all harangue, but the tenets of which so many of us are avid to adopt, will eventually engulf us. Lenine had his day with that insane idea, and Lenine has had enough, if reports are to be credited. A centralization of power is fast developing in this country which, if not restrained, must terminate in a despotism the like of which was never known. Even now State lines have become little more than the boundaries of magnified voting precincts, and it would seem as if no move could be undertaken unless the President was approached to act as arbiter and to give his sanction or dissent.

To Harding's eternal credit be it averred that he looks at such manifestations of infirmity with extreme disfavor and has more than once expressed his wish that private controversies might be settled by those immediately concerned. But after nearly a decade of dictatorship during which business was neuroticized by every conceivable political anodyne, it might be somewhat natural that the White House should be looked to as a dispensary where, if a cure can not be found, a hypodermic may be administered which will afford some temporary relief.

Are we to repudiate the teachings of those who founded this nation? Shall we remain deaf to the warnings which find their echo in lunatic Russia? The patriot and the skeptic has each his own answer, and at present the former is counted with the majority. For country's sake, and for conscience's sake, therefore, let us put an end to this program for governmental participation in every human activity. Let the government attend strictly to governing, without distincion of class and let private industry pursue its course strictly within the law, held strictly accountable to the law, and, backed by the law, let us settle its problems without recourse of some sort of legislative opiate. Let us have done with this substituting of heroin for heroism.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

25 YEARS AGO

As Printed in "The Banner" of June 18th, 1896.

The new court house is now built up to the second story.

There will be a frolic at the residence of Mr. Gilson tonight.

Miss Mullins of Jumbo is visiting Mr. John Vines family.

Mr. Bob Durham of Jemison is on a visit to friends in Clanton this week.

Judge Callen is on a visit to Talladega Springs.

The 15th Senatorial Convention met at Clanton last Tuesday and was called to order by L. H. Reynolds. Major J. H. Pitts was made temporary chairman and Frank Crichton temoprary secretary. Hon. G. B. eDans of Shelby was nominated for State Senator by acclamation of the convention.

CORINTH SINGING

People of Corinth and other communities met with Corinth on the 12th, for song service. The following persons were on the committee of arrangement: A. A. Beaird, Lee Robinson, E. L. Jones. The following program was arranged:

A. L. Robinson, E. F. Taylor, J. W. Cagle, Archie Jones, A. A. Beaird, T. L. Robinson; recess 15 minutes. At 11 o'clock, sermon by Rev. J. D. Hughes, and needless to say, it was a good sermon. If you know the man, you know the sermon was good. Recess for dinner at 1:30 o'clock. We hope everyone enjoyed a good dinner. The evening service consisted of the following: W. M. Devaughn, Lee Robinson, John Norris, J. R. Robinson, A. M. Jones, H. G. Carter, J. D. Huett; quartette by W. M. Devaughn, A. A. Beaird, J. R. Robinson, Ocie Devaughn; Archie Devaughn.

The following were organists: Mrs. Pearlie Hughes, A. A. Beaird, Lee Robinson, H. G. Carter, Mrs. Bell Cagle, G. T. Anderson, Claudy Hughes, Mrs. Lola Jones.

We wish to thank the people for their good order and good singing, as we deem this one of the very best days services we have ever had.

N. J. JONES, Chm.,
J. A. JONES, Secy.

Miss Louise Connatser of Thorsby was the week end guest of Miss Clara Crumpton.

The many friends of Mr. Grady Armstrong are glad to see him able to be out again after practically recovering from injuries received some months ago in a railroad wreck. He is yet using crutches to walk with, but hopes to be able to go without them in a short while.

Little Mother Happy Again

"For the past nine years I have been very much distressed with bloating and stomach trouble due to constipation since I was a child. No medicine gave me more than temporary relief. I got so bad I was afraid I would have to leave my three little children. But since taking a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy two eyars ago I have been entirely well; no constipation or other trouble." It it a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Co., and all druggists everywhere.

IN MEMORY

On May 24th the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Popwell and took from them their loving daughter, Mrs. Hattie Littlejohn. She leaves a husband, father and mother, and two brothers to mourn her loss.

She had been sick about two weeks and had typhoid fever. She was 22 years old, and a member of New Salem Baptist Church.

Interment took place at New Salem.

Work on the erection of the new Clanton Baptist Church continues in progress. Brick layers are now putting up the outer walls of pressed brick, and from present indications it would seem that this will be the best looking building in Clanton when it is completed. The Baptist people will be proud of their new house of worship.

Mr. Bryant McKee of Birmingham is visiting his son, G. O. McKee in Clanton this week. He says dry weather is worse where he lives than it is here.

Mr. H. A. Harris and Supt., H. L. Foshee were at home last Sunday from the University of Alabama. They are attending the University Summer School.

GRAN'POP PROBABLY is.
THE NATIONAL champion.
AT SWAPPING things.
TWO YEARS ago he swapped.
THE OLD blind mare.
FOR A cider mill.
AND THEN of course.
WHEN WE went dry.
CIDER MILLS got valuable.
AND GRAN'POP swapped again.
AND GOT a flivver.
SO I said, "Gran'pop.
SUPPOSE I start you.
WITH THAT old busted.
BABY CARRIAGE back home.
COULDN'T YOU swap it.
AND GET me.
A LIMOUSINE."
A CRAFTY gleam.
CAME INTO Gran'pop's eye.

AS HE said, "No.
BUT I'LL tell ye.
I'LL SWAP a match.
FOR ONE of them.
CIGARETTES OF yourn.
THAT SATISFY."
SO WE swapped.
ONE BROKEN paper match.
FOR ONE perfect cigarette.
AND YOU ought to see.
HOW PLEASED he was.
IT DID me good.

HERE'S CHANCE TO GET BICYCLE FREE

The Birmingham News To Give Away 1,000 Rangers To Boys And Girls.

When the calliope starts tooting in the circus parade, the boys and girls "come a-running," and when somebody shouts "get a bicycle free," they immediately ask "where" and "how."

This story deals with bicycles and not circuses and if you want to get the very latest thing in bikes, and for nothing, step right up close while this paper tells you what The Birmingham News is going to do.

To win one of these bicycles all one has to do is get 35 subscriptions to the daily and Sunday News—a very simple thing for industrious boys and girls. The bicycles, which have already been purchased, are the celebrated "Ranger Motorbike" model for boys and the "Ranger Superb" for girls, each valued at $60, the price one would pay at the factory or through local dealers, and they are delivered to your home by prepaid express.

Any boy or girl in Alabama may enter the contest, which is not limited to age, for there are full-sizes for men and full sizes for women in the event any of them compete and win one of the bicycles. Here are the conditions:

The 35 subscriptions must be obtained between June 5 and Sept. 6, 1921, and the subscribers must be residents of Alabama who are not now or at the time of solicitation, receiving the daily and Sunday News in their homes. The cost of the daily and Sunday News delivered in the home by carrier is only 25 cents per week, or $1.10 per month. If the subscriber desires to take the paper by mail, or lives in a town where The Birmingham News has no carrier delivery, the price is $10 per year, paid in advance.

That, in a nutshell, is the bicycle plan, and now (step up a little closer) for here's the description of the Ranger.

Equipped with every device that can make a bicycle serviceable and comfortable, the Ranger possesses shock-absorbing rubber grips, "Aristocrat" padded saddle of brown leather and fitted with the famous compensating coil and suspension spring; Hercules tubular featherweight rear platform luggage carrier, Mead featherweight steel mud guards, International bicycle stand and spring clip for stand, imported Brampton twin roller anti-friction chain, "Aristocrat" motorbike rubber pedals, mud guard splasher, extra heavy non-skid tires, tool kit and dozens of other points too numerous to mention.

All subscriptions must be verified and accepted by The News before they are allowed to count, but bicycles will be delivered to the candidates as rapidly as their quotas are filled and verified.

If you're interested—and surely you're thinking of those long hikes you can take, write to The Birmingham News, Bicycle Department, Birmingham, Ala., and ask for information and instructions on how to obtain one of these $60 Ranger bicycles.

FELT LIKE AN IRON BAND AROUND HEAD

Mrs. Osborne Says She Shudders When She Thinks how She Suffered.

"For years," said Mrs. V. B. Osborne, of 118 Lancaster Ave., Lexington, Ky., "I have been in a run-down condition, nervous, weak and dizzy. I was actually so nervous that any sudden noise or excitement would produce a palpitation of my heart that frightened me. I absolutely could not climb stairs, for to attempt such would thoroughly exhaust me.

"I had nervous headaches and when they came on it seemed that an iron band was drawn tight around my head. I now shudder when I think of those headaches. My stomach was weak and I could not digest the lightest liquid food. Any food of a solid nature caused nausea and the sickness sensation remained for hours.

"My misery was almost unbearable. My sleep was never sound and I was worn out all the time. My condition was indeed a very deplorable one. I finally sought treatment in Cincinnati, but nothing helped me one particle. I was on the verge of giving up in despair when a neighbor pleaded with me to try Tanlac. I obtained a bottle of the medicine and began its use.

"I began improving at once and soon felt my nervousness and dizziness disappearing. Then my headaches left me and I realized my strength had returned. My appetite and digestion improved and I am now so much better in every way. This Tanlac is a wonderful medicine and the only one that ever really helped me. I hope every poor woman who is suffering as I did will try it."

CHILTON COUNTY SINGING CONVENTION WILL MEET

The next session of the Chilton County Singing Convention using the new books, will convene at Pleasant Grove, four miles west of Jemison, the Fourth Sunday in June. Prof. Patton and other noted snigers will be on hand.

VETERAN'S BUREAU

The recommendations of the special committee appointed by President Harding to examine into various soldier relief bureaus, of which General Dawes was the chairman, have been embodied in a bill introduced in the House by Congressman Burton E. Sweet of Iowa. The measure creates in the Treasury Department a veteran's bureau under which will be brot together the present War Risk Bureau, the Federal Board for Vocational Education, and that part of the Public Health Service now in the charge of soldiers hospitals. The bill abolishes the office of Director of the War Risk Bureau, and it is rumored that Col. Charles R. Forbes, who now holds that position, will be made chief of the new organization. The measure has been referred to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, and will doubtless receive an early and favorable report.

LINE ON SOUTH AMERICA

It is reported that the Western Union Cable Company intends to double its cable capacity to the east coast of South America within the next two years, and in the next year plans to lay a cable along the South American west coast by way of the Panama Canal. Heretofore most of the Cable messages to South America have had to go over British cables by way of London. The new service coupled with the new American shipping routes to South America, offers the best of inducements for American exporters to enter those markets and secure the trade that naturally belongs to stay in the Western Hemisphere.

OAK HILL

Editor Union-Banner:

Please give us a small space in your columns to express our thanks to the many friends who helped to make the singing at this place Sunday the splendid success that it was, and especially the kind hands who prepared such a bountiful spread of so many good things to eat. May God's richest blessings be upon them and all the other good people from all parts of the county who so ably assisted in making such beautiful music in praise to the name of our great Creator.

As we sat and looked over the great class and listened to their sweet songs we could almost hear the music of angels as they sung around the great white throne of God. Then we were made to say like David, the great singer of old, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.

We had with us Prof. J. D. Patton and other noted singers who were at their best and made it one of the best ever held in the county. Come again.

The editor and all others who were not there do not know what a good time you missed.

THE SPIRIT OF THE B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION HELD IN MOBILE

(By Miss Lena Franklin.)

There was nothing more inspiring and helpful to young people than the training of the young peoples' unions. The letters "B. Y. P. U." are meant to mean "Baptist Young Peoples Union." It also can mean "Best Young Powers Utilized." Its purpose or aim is to train young people in Christian service. This Christian service may include any kind of service for building up the church and for the glorifying of God.

How I wish that all the young people of the Baptist churches of Alabama could have attended the B. Y. P. U. Convention in Mobile last week. It would have given them an inspiration that would have not only helped them but would have meant so much to the churches of our State. But as all could not be there, I want to tell them something of this convention.

Tuesday morning I went to Montgomery to make connection with the great B. Y. P. U. special train. This train was loaded with the B. Y. P. U. members of Northern and Central Alabama, all on their way to the convention. The spirit of this group of young people was wonderful. No one felt himself a stranger, but all felt that they were among their best friends or belonging to the same group. This group was chaperoned by such people as Rev. Jerome O. Williams and O. S. Andrews, the President of the B. Y. P. U. Convention.

We left Montgomery at twelve o'clock and arrived in Mobile at five-forty. This time was spent in good social talking, eating and singing B. Y. P. U. songs. When we reached Mobile there were automobiles there to meet us and carry us to the First Baptist Church, where we were assinged to homes and made to feel at home. All entertainment was free to all, furnished by the B. Y. P. U. people of Mobile.

The first evenings program was wonderful. We Chilton County delegates were made to feel good when we saw J. O. Williams, one of Chilton County's men, come to the stage to deliver the conventional sermon. This great message was full of inspiration and good thought. I do not understand how any young man or young lady could have heard this message without making a resolution with in their hearts not to be satisfied with anything other than his best efforts to serve in the Master's Kingdom.

This was not the only good message there was. Two and three good ones were given every day equally as good. Among the great speakers was Dr. Sammons, who spoke on "Our Life's Investment." As a result of this speech there were about one hundred young people who volunteered as Christian workers or leaders, some volunteered ministers, some teachers, some missionaries, etc.

The speech that filled our souls with B. Y. P. U. energy was the speech given by Mr. E. E. Lee, a state worker, on the subject "The Spirit of the Game." This man was once a professional baseball player and later gave up this life for the Master's cause. He has the gift that so many preachers and teachers have not That is, he has this baseball experience to catch the interest of the young people especially the boys, and he uses it to a wonderful advantage. In the speeches he gave he illustrated and explained forcibly how a B. Y. P. U. might be made as interesting as a baseball game. He compared the parts of a ball game to the parts or places in a B. Y. P. U., and in this way made it s clear that a child could understand and thoroughly enjoy every word.

There were many other good speeches made that I haven't time here to tell of, including special conferences and talks on methods both in the Junior and Senior Unions. Among the other great favors of entertainment was an automobile trip for all the delegates on Thursday. This trip extended over all the interesting parts of Mobile and the vicinity and ended with a grand picnic at Monroe Park down on Mobile Bay.

On Friday morning we were given a boat ride on the big pleasure boat, "The Apollo," down the Mobile Bay and into the Gulf of Mexico. The ones on board were only B. Y. P. U. folks, except the boat crew who manipulated it. We arrived from this trip at one-thirty and boarded a B. Y. P. U. train for home, all happy-hearted and feeling like we had had a great trip and were longing to get back home and go to work trying to make our churches and B. Y. P. U.'s better.

There will not be another convention this year, but will be one next June at Mentone, north of Birmingham, out on the Mountain.

Now, Baptists, if you haven't a B. Y. P. U. in your church, get your young people interested and organize one. If you don't understand onganizing one, if you will write me at Thorsby I will get some one to come and help you. Let us try to make our country churches mean as much to our young people as the city churches. We have the material. Why not develop it?

Miss Helen Gronquist, Mrs. Emma Adams and Mr. A. Hoyt were visitors in our town last week, and were the guests of Mrs. F. E. Gronquist.

The many friends of Mrs. Louis Howard will be glad to learn that she is improving nicely after the operation.

LAST CALL FOR THORSBY CHAUTAUQUA!

Beginning Friday afternoon, and continuing until Monday night Thorsby will have one of the biggest attractions that has ever been given its citizens, in the form of the Redpath Chautauqua. We can safely guarantee that every number will please. The press reports received from places in which it has been state that it is the best program that has ever been put on by these people. We don't want you to miss it, and we are only trying to convince you so that you won't. Now let's all be ready to meet as one big family under the big tent. The following is the program:

FIRST AFTERNOON.
Introductory Exercises.
Grand Concert, Chicago Orchestral Company.

FIRST NIGHT.
Concert, Chicago Orchestral Company.
Lecture, "The Modern Crusader," Joe R. Hanley.

SECOND AFTERNOON.
Lecture, "Unseen Forces," Judge Manford Schoonover.

SECOND NIGHT.
"Nothing but the Truth," delightful American comedy; New York Cast.

THIRD AFTERNOON.
Concert, Artist Entertainers.
Lecture, "Reading Character at Sight," May Wyon Langebek.

THIRD NIGHT.
Concert, Artist Entertainers,
Magic and Mystery, Edward Reno.

Mrs. G. C. Wilder has as her guest this week Mr. and Mrs. Hill, of Tallassee.

Mrs. G. F. Harper made a trip to Wilsonville last week with some of her friends who were motoring thru. She returned home Saturday.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Seale and son of Selma, Mrs. John Straton and son of Greensboro and Mrs. Scott Taylor of Meridian, Miss., visited at Mr. G. F. Harper's.

Misses Jennie Robinson, Alpha Bentley and Lena Franklin arrived on Friday from Mobile where they have been attending the state B. Y. P. U. Convention.

The Health Crusaders of the Verbena High School, under the direction of Miss Lena Franklin, have been given the banner of efficiency for this County. They are also running a close race for the state banner.

The committee that are selling tickets for the Chautauqua have certainly been hard at work for the past few days, and they are getting splendid results. Very few people get away without buying at least one ticket, but of course there are always a few pikers who wont do their bit; but we are glad to say they are very scarce in Thorsby, and can be easily numbered. Just watch little old Thorsby put this big thing over. Don't forget the dates, 17, 18 and 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Erik Gronquist of Chicago spent a few days in Thorsby last week visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gronquist.

Miss Edith Robinson is spending a few days in Birmingham visiting her friends and relatives.

Mrs. B. K. Forsman and little son are spending a few weeks in Thorsby as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Larson.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me.

"I saw after taking some Cardui . . . that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person.

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments.

MR. MERCHANT AND CITIZEN OF THORSBY

Have you noticed how our farmers are coming in to visit us on Saturdays? Is it not beginning to look like it used to ten years ago? Every Saturday is a Community Day. Why is it? Is Thorsby waking up? Our farmer friends think it is, and therefore are coming in to see what's going on. Mr. Merchant, isn't it the result of our page in our home paper, and your advertising which appears from week to week? Let us therefore wake up still more, talk more of Thorsby advertise again as much and then we shall see the result.

FOR SALE—Full blood Jersey bull four years old; bargain.—E. N. Dyrhood, Thorsby, Ala.

Prof. R. A. Smith of Sayre, Ala., is spending his vacation with friends and relatives in Chilton County. Mr. Smith has been principal of the Sayre High School for the past two or three years. He goes back there again next session.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Elmore are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a fine baby girl at their home.

Mrs. J. Watts Moore and Miss Kathleen Mullins spent a couple of days in Montgomery this week.

Dr. Hughes Kennedy of Birmingham spent the week-end with friends in Clanton.

Mr. L. C. Reynolds came up to Clanton Tuesday to join a fishing party out at Lock 12.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Georgia Williamson, to Mr. Millard Frank Jackson, Jr., of Pineapple, will be read with interest by many of their friends in Clanton. The wedding occurred at Demopolis on Thursday evening, June 2. After a motor trip through Florida they are at home in Pineapple, Ala.

Miss Dorothy Goodwyn Sewell of Deland, Fla., is spending this week as the guest of Miss Sarah Luckie in Clanton.

Lovely Swimming Party Enjoyed.

The younger set enjoyed one of the loveliest of the season's parties on last Friday evening. The occasion being a swimming party at Mims' Pond. The merry party motored out and after a delightful swim a most elaborate picnic lunch was spread on the pavillion. Participating on this occasion were Misses Leona Pipes, Beverly Hester, Roberta Curry, Maud Mullins, Louise Orr, Kathleen Mullins Messrs. Hughes Kenedy, Leon Mullins, Bill Orr, Otto Jones, Wallace Jones, Joe Mullins and Omar Reynolds. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Eric Hart.

Miss Peggy Mullins is sepnding a few weeks with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mullins.

Mrs. Macy Jones is visiting her mother, Mrs. Giddens, in Montgomery this week.

Philathea S. S. Class Meets.

A very interesting meeting of the Philathea S. S. Class was held with Mrs. J. D. Armstrong on last Monday. A most enjoyable program was rendered, the President, Mrs. Roberts, presiding. Plans were made to entertain the husbands of the members of this class at a chicken barbecue on Friday evening at the water station. Late in the evening the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Mrs. Cannon of Coaling came to Clanton on Tuesday to attend the funeral of her brothr, Mr. P. C. Smith.

WASHINGTON LETTER

The Burleson Record.

One of the items in the recent deficiency appropriation bill passed by Congress called for over $81,000,000 to pay unpaid bills of the post office department bequeathed by former Postmaster General Burleson to his successor, Mr. Hays. Congressman Halvor Steenerson of Minnesota, the chairman of the House Post Office Committee, has prepared a tabulation of post office deficiencies during the incumbency of Mr. Burleson. It shows that $65,000,000 should be charged to the year 1918 to 1920, inclusive, but that the balance of the $81,000,000 total should be allotted to each of the years from 1913 that Mr. Burleson was in power. The tabuluation is a complete refutation of the big boasts so frequently indulged in by the former official that he was the first Postmaster General for 30 years to show a credit balance at the end of the fiscal year. As a matter of fact he had a deficiency every year.

No More of That.

The Senate has increased the total of the Naval Appropriation Bill as it came from the House by $98,000,000. Carrying $494,000,000 it passed the upper body by a vote of 54 to 17. Before final passage an amendment was added at the suggestion of Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin to the effect that no army or navy officer shall have any financial relations with manufacturers of ordnance or other munitions. It is a notorious fact that many of the closest advisers of the former administration were also officials of firms selling millions of dollars worth of supplies to the government. At least two of those men were recommended for court martial by Hughes, now Secretary of State, but they were whitewashed by the former Secretary of War.

State Department Salaries.

Wilbur J. Carr, director of the Consular Bureau, told the joint committee on re-classification recently that the government is losing money every year by not having capable men to do its work. He said the turnover at the State Department annually was very great, employees receiving $1600 and $1800 leaving the service constantly for positions paying $3000 or more. This trouble has been even more exasperating in the case of consuls, who start in at low rates of pay —$2,000 to $2,500—put in three or four years for the government, find that they are receiving less than it costs to live at foreign posts, that there is no future in the way of adequate promotion or ultimate retired pay, and having received excellent training at the hands of the government, they resign to accept private employment at from three to five time their consular salaries. Just think of it, for example: the U. S. Consul at Bahia, Brazil, gave clearance to $16,000,000 worth of exports to this country last year, yet his salary is but $3,500—and that was but a phase of his duties.

The Many in One.

The House has passed and sent to the Senate a bill permitting the consolidation of competing interstate telephone systems. The Interstate Commerce Commission is charged with the administration of the measure, and will pass upon all applications for consolidations.

The European Kaleidoscope.

A month ago British and French troops were on the point of invading Germany to enforce reparations payment. Now they are fighting side with the Germans against the Poles who, although members of the league of nations, refuse to be bound by certain provisions of the Versailles Treaty. International evolutions in Europe are kaleidoscopic. The neutral observer is dizzied by the celerity with which the nations transfer their sympathies from one to another of their neighbors. Precisely the same emotions sway the political leaders of Europe as have inspired their predecessors for unnumbered centuries in the past. Our forefathers came to America to find relief from just those conditions, and our people last November recorded an emphatic refusal to be put under their influence again.

No Reason to Fear.

It is difficult to account for the objections that have arisen to the publication of the slacker list. No man with an honorable service record need fear having his name appear by accident in the list. Every friend of such a veteran knows that he was overseas, and he can show his American Legion buttom and discharge papers. If the point is ever raised it serves merely to emphasize the fact that the man is a war hero. If all the remonstrances to the publication could be traced to their sources it might be found that many of them are inspired by the slackers themselves or by those who hope to embarass the Washington government.

Effect on Coal.

One result of the reduction of wages to the railroad workers, and consequent lowering of fright rates, will be a drop in the price of coal, practically every pound of which is transported on a railroad before it is bought by the householder or manufacturer.

McNamara at Large.

When John McNamara, one of the confessed dynamiters of the Los Angeles Times, was recently released from the San Quentin prison he was imemdiately engaged to address a meeting of the structural iron workers' union, to which he belonged at the time of the Times outrage. What will be Mr. Gompers' attitude toward this gentleman now? Ten years ago he supervised the raising of a huge sum of money for the dynamiters' defense, and was "shocked beyond expression" when he read the report of their confessions. Now are these confessed dynamiters to be received back into the ranks of organized labor as they emerge from prison? The country would be interested to hear from Gompers what he thinks about it.

Hands Across the Sea.

Some people are inclined to be petulent over Ambassador Harvey's effusiveness in asserting in his London address picturing "Britannia and Columbia hand in hand, side by side, erect and glorious upon a plane of perfect equality in the eyes of each other and the world." We do not see anything to criticize in that. We should be willing for our ambassador to say the same thing at the capital of any other nation of people of the white race. We shall be glad to work hand in hand with all nations, but we do not propose to acquiesce in the Wilsonian policy of "supreme sacrifice."

AN AMAZING SECRET ABOUT TOOTH PASTES AT LAST DISCLOSED.

A recent scientific investigation reveals the surprising fact that many tooth pastes and powders, instead of helping the gums and teeth, often do them serious harm.

This is because the abusive substances contained in tooth paste gradually wear tiny crevices in the teeth, where decay germs quickly enter. This gritty substance also tears the membranes of the gums where germs of pyorrhea and other dangerous mouth diseases quickly gain foothold.

The ideal dentrifice it is found, is a thoroughly antiseptic liquid mouth wash such as Steroline. This cleanses all the hidden spots that tooth pastes and powders never reach, and acts as a real preventive of the many diseases contracted through the mouth. Steroline keeps the mouth cool, sweet and fresh, heals raw and bleeding gums and quickly helps overcome bad breath. Sold and highly recommended by Upchurch Drug Co.

STONE LAYING CEREMONY

The Corner Stone for the new Baptist Church will be laid on Friday morning, the ceremony to begin about 9:45, a.m. Mr. Frank Willis Barnett will be one of the speakers. It is expected that others will be here from Wetumpka and Montgomery to take part in the exercises. The occasion is of such importance to the community that we would appreciate very much the closing of the stores, or at least the presence of all the merchants at this ceremony. The building to be erected will be a valuable asset to the city, and your interest can be shown by your presence at this service.

A DEMOCRATIC BOOB IN TEXAS WOULDN'T QUIT OFFICE ON REQUEST

There is probably no doubt whatever that Hugh R. Robertson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Texas, is a clown. When Robertson, a Democratic appointee, was requested to resign by the Department of Justice, he declared that political reason were not sufficient justification for the request. And so the poor chap was removed from office.

Of course, he was a boob, no matter how efficient he may be, to suppose that the precedent established by Andrew Jackson would be waived expressly for him. Or perhaps Robertson has a huge bump of egotism and deep within his mind knows positively that there are no other lawyers in that neck of the woods who can hold down the attorneyship quite so completely as himself. Doubtless it does grind his soul to see his honorable boots filled by a man utterly incapable of distinguishing between a B and bull's foot.

But after all, what the dickens would be the good of being a Republican in Texas if there were not opportunities every now and then to get a slice of bacon as compensation? —Birmingham News.

CHAMBER OF COMM. BANQUET

The Clanton Chamber of Commerce will hold its next banquet tonight, Thursday, at the Wilson Hotel. Mr. Frank Willis Barnett, a regular contributor to the Age-Herald and splendid talker, will be the principal speaker for the evening. All paid up members of the chamber are entitled to be present. Let the secretary know at once if you are going to be present, as we do not want to pay for more plates than necessary.

TEMPTATIONS TO IDLENESS

Washington, June 18.—Indicating the opinion that British aid to the unemployed may increase idleness, the Republican Publicity Association has the following to say in a statement given out today through the President of that organization, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr.:

"The strike of the English miners is now about three months old. It is growing worse rather than better, and recently the ranks of the unemployed were increased by 500,000, when cotton mill operatives quit work. Yet the government is paying more than $8,000,000 every week in unemployment doles, so that as the nation's ability to pay is reduced thru cessation of production, its liabilities are increased. It is possible for a man earning $7 a week when employed to get $4 a week when he remains idle. There has also been a standing offer by the governmnt of $50,000,000 to stabilize conditions while making an investigation. Because of the gratituities paid to the unemployed, there have been instances where men have committed breaches of discipline so that they could be discharged and receive $4 a week without any effort on their part.

"England would do well to take a page from recent American labor history. She would learn therefrom that the more labor radicals are coddled by the Federal Government the more avaricious they become. Never were strikes and threatened strikes so prevalent in this country as after the brotherhoods had won their fight for the Adamson law, and had been granted successive increases in pay out of the Federal Treasury by the Railroad Administration. The return of the roads to their private owners was notice to the workers that Federal gratituities had ceased, and that a full day's work must be rendered for a full day's wage, or the wage earner's income would cease. Other industries were relieved from the radical demands of their employees when it became known that men were waiting to take the places of those who wished to quit work for any reason.

"A little of the same spirit in England would accomplish wonders. Millions of men are perfectly willing to languish in idleness if they and their families are being cared for meanwhile by a beneficent government, and if they know that other men are not ready to step in and take the places they have vacated. But let the gratituities be stopped and an invitation issued to all able-bodied men, whether members of organizations or not, to work the mines and other industries that have shut down, and there would be an immediate change for the better.

"When the opportunity for work is there, and men are faced with the alternative of acecpting it or starving with their families, they are pretty apt to get busy. Of course some violence would attend the transformation from idleness to activity, but it involves a question that must be settled sooner or later. Such a settlement is bound to result eventually in a victory for the state, for there never yet was a strike of minority that the majority could not put down if sufficient determination was exhibited."

THE BIGGEST WHISKEY STILL IN HISTORY OF WILDCATTING

Captured a Mile North of Thorsby Last Sunday Morning in the Cellar of Si Campbell's House, a Negro.

Sheriff Gore says it is no longer a mystery to him why there has been so much complaint about whiskey in the vicinity of Thorsby. The big still that his deputies located and captured Sunday morning explains the whole situation. No one could be surprised at the existence of plenty of whiskey for those who might be inclined to imbibe, after it is found that right in the community there has been operating a plant that is capable of condensing four hundred gallons of beer at a whack, and turning out fifty gallons of corn juice at a single "run".

Si Campbell's boy was suspected of dealing in whiskey, a report to this effect reaching the Sheriff's office Saturday. Sheriff Gore himself went up to Thorsby Saturday night, and shadowing the young negro saw him late in the night perfect a sale of whiskey. The miscreant was taken into custody by Sheriff Gore and placed in jail about midnight Saturday night.

Early Sunday morning Sheriff Gore sent his deputies, Grant, Culp, Curlee and Joe Gore up to Si Campbell's place to make a search for whiskey that might be concealed about the house. The deputies searced the house and all round the premises. The place was dragged with a fine-toothed comb for yards around, and nothing could be located.

While the officers were some little distance from the house engaged in searching out some elusive spot, some thing happened back at the house that "let the cat out of the bag." As the searchers came back by the house Will Culp sniffed his trained nose a bit and let out the exclamation, "I smell beer." Jim Grant promptly joined in with a vociferous "I smell it too." These fellows who have been at the scene of many stills knew by that familiar smell in the air that there was something around there besides whiskey which they had come to hunt for. Joe Gore and Jim Curlee didn't have much to say about it, but they began to unlimber for some real excitement. They could feel it in their bones.

Will Culp switched the car out to the side of the yard and the four of them unloaded with renewed interest in the situation. They made a research of the house and could find nothing. They began to inquire into a way to get under the house and could not find one. They they got real suspicious. Jim Grant snatched the dining table from its accustomed place in the middle of the room. Joe Gore dragged away the floor carpet upon which the table was standing, and there was revealed to their inquisitive eyes a square cut out of planks in the floor. This square was soon found to eb a trap door with hinges; when it was raised by Will Culp there was revealed beneath the floor in the cellar a monstrous whiskey making thing that held four hundred gallons of beer at a time. Joe and Jim fell into each others arms and cried for joy, while Culp and Curlee scooted into the cellar to see what all was really there. They knew when they first discovered it that they had discovered the prize of all rading history in Chilton County.

While the officers had been searching different parts of the place, the negroes had gotten uneasy and carried their beer a little distance from the house and poured it out. It was the smell of this beer that aroused the deep suspicion of the deputies and led them directly to the location and capture of the still.

This was what might be called a wholesale whiskey-making establishment. There was a large cement vat in the cellar that held the water for cooling purposes. Water was supplied through a pipe connected with the well in the yard. A large brick furnace was used to boil the beer in the still. The smoke from this furnace escaped through a chimney built to connect with the stove flue.

When the raid had been completed Sheriff Gore was notified by telephone of what had happened, and was instructed that he should send a truck after the still as it was too large to be brought in on an ordinary Ford.

While the Sheriff was getting there with conveyance for the big still the deputies went to a negro church near by and arrested Si Campbell, a negro preacher, who was attending the funeral of his niece. He was brought to jail along with the still that had been unearthed from his cellar.

TO THE CLASS OF 1921, HARDING ADDRESS NATION'S GRADUATES

Washington, June 18.—President Harding's commencement day address to the post-graduates of the American University, Washington, D. C., was directed to the nation's class of 1921 as well. It is one of the finest speeches the President has yet rendered, and should therefore receive the widest publicity.

"We are at the height of the annual commencement season" said the President, "when thousands of students go out from institutions all over the land and take up the tasks for which their years of study have been preparing them. I wish I could impress the young men and women of every graduating class this year with my own acute conviction regarding the obligation of service that is placed upon them. They have been favored with the privilege of special equipment and preparation such is is vouchsafed to an all too small proportion of the people. They will not prove themselves worthy of their peculiar good fortune or of their special responsibility unless they regard it as a trust to be held for the good of the whole community."

The President admonished the nation's graduates not to believe they knew it all with the possession of their diploma. "I have often thouthought I did on the day I graduated thought I knew on te day I graduated I would make the finest president the country ever had." The entire address is an apepal to student graduates to make service to humanity their chief aim in life. "The world and its experiences constitute the greater university in which all you have yet to complete, so far as is humanly possible, youn education," he said. "I pray you to go out to it without too much thought of personal rewards, of individual gains; and yet, not to thrust these considerations entirely aside. Be generous, but do not dissipate your capital or knowledge and ability in aimless, useless generosities. Hold true to those ideals which your government and its institutions represent. We Americans will best help mankind at large if we most earnestly sustain men immediately about us." Again he emphasizes this call to service by saying: "We look to this month's graduating classes to rovide far more than their numerical share of leaders for the nation in a future not far ahead. You will play your parts in a world in many ways unlike any that former generations of your colleagues could have anticipated. I would feel that I had performed well the part that has providentially fallen to me if I could impress upon every one who goes out this year with a diploma the thought that it is not a certificae of thought that it is not a certificate of right to social favor and profi in the world, but rather a commission of service. Men all about you will need the best you can give them."

Closely intertwined with this thought of service to humanity was his exhortation to the student graduates to have faith in our country and is ideals. Much that has been esteemed elemental has been swept aside," he decared. "Amost nothing remains that we may safey think of as sacred, as secure from the attacks of the iconiclasts. Its a time in which men search their souls and assay their convictions, in which they examine the very fundamentals of institutions immemorially accepted in which no tradition may be held immune from assaults of the skeptic and the doubter. . . . . Nothing remains with us that is not queried. Therefore we need for the leadership of the coming generation an open-minded willingness to recognize the claim of the doubter, the innovator, the exeprimenter, the would-be constructionist. But while we must give these adventurous ones their full chance, we must sedulously guard against the spirit of mere synicism, the disposition to condemn all things as they are because they are not perfect, the tendency to tear down before any plan of reconstruction has been prepared. The trained mind—provided it is not over-trained—is the one that must provide the saving faculty of discrimination. The world must go forward and not backward; and it will not go forward as ar esult of any philosophy of mere destruction. . . Interrogation points have been written in the blood and suffering of countless millions at the end of a thousand statements of what a little time ago we deemed the very basic principles of economics, of sociology, of international relationships, of public policy and human justice. . . . Let us make our America the best place on earth in which men and women may dwell. Let us make it an example to all others, an inspiration and a model. It has been our privilege to see this country which we all love called upon to redress the wrongs of the world, to restore the balance of civilization. We could not have played that part had we not first been true to ourselves, confident of our destiny, assured of our righteousness and of the power inherent in our concept of righteousness. Let us go on, holding fast to what, in the great trial, has been proven good, seeking to make it better, stronger and more unselfish. Let us place a firm reliance in our destiny and let us seek to realize that destiny through unceasing effort and unfaltering devotion."

He warned students not to put too much trust in books or in academic learning—that education was something never completed: "The education that can truly prepare for the demands of society in the time before us can not be given merely in academic halls. The great world outside must contribute of its practical experience, its intimate knowledge, its discipline and disappointments to complete the equipment. We can learn much from books, but if we learned only from books we would learn only the wisdom of the past. Books are tremendously useful if they be made the servitors of the inquiring mind; they may be deadening and worse than useless if they become the master of the too-receptive mind. He who has learned how to use books, how to find what he requires in them and then to apply it, without the necessity of overloading his own mind with unnecessary detail, is the one who has made his educational preparation most useful. As a mere storage house for facts, beliefs, impressions, the human mind is an unsatisfactory plant. It is too liable to error and too limited in its capacity. But, on the other hand, when it is used as a mercerator of information, a molding, developing, forming and reforming mechanism it does its best work."

The President paid his compliments to the democracy of American educational institutions—"one of the fine things about our American educational system." "There is, thank God, no caste system here. All kinds of experience, of social background, of ancestry, of tradition, of training are brought together in the melting pot of the American college or university. Neither social nor intellectual snobbery is likely very long to survive such experience. This is why education, when it is of the right sort, is the greatest levening and democratizing influence we can find. It inculcates a realization of true standards, and appreciation of the fact that differences in estate and fortune are, after all, but the superficialities of life as compared to the fundamentals of character, ambition, and determined purpose."

Mr. Harding concluded his address imploring "a dedication to common service, to human betterment, to civilization's advancement, on the part of those young people who at last must so largely direct the affairs of the country and of society in the hard but very hopeful times which lie ahead."

FIRE MONDAY NIGHT

Fire, about midnight Monday night, destroyed one of the Stanfield houses at the corner of Fourth Avenue and Tenth Street. The house was occupied by Mr. Wolff. Most all of the household effects were saved. The building was a complete loss.

It is rumored in Clanton that the Alabama Power Company has been granted the permit to build the proposed dam and power plant at Duncan's Riffles on the Coosa River, and that they will begin operations there in the near future. We hope this is true as the erection of this plant will give work to a great many idle people in this part of Alabama.

THE CHURCH CORNER STONE

The Banner wishes to commend the action of Pastor Carter in securing the beautiful corner stone of the new Clanton Baptist Church. And no more beautiful and fitting is the stone itself than was the ceremony of laying the same, held on last Friday morning. The energetic Baptist pastor is to be thanked for both the stone and the ceremony. Without his determined efforts the church would have had neither.

We are sure that a majority of the members of the church feel the same way about the matter as we do. It is indeed very appropriate for such a building to have a corner stone laid with a ceremony that is in keeping with the dignity and reverence of the cause which the new church building is designed to serve.

MORE ABOUT DUNCANS RIFFLES

"It has been "hinted" to us by a friend that some of the local employees of the Alabama Power Co., did not like the tone of the article about the editor's visit to Duncan's Riffles some weeks ago. From the best we can learn, those who object to what was said are inclined to take it as expressive of some degree of animosity in this paper toward the Power Company and their operations down here.

But we want to take the privilege here and now to tell those who may be concerned that if they are looking for hostility to the Alabama Power Company to come from the editor of The Union-Banner, they are just simply on the wrong trail and that is all there is to it. There ain't nothing doing in that line at all. We are for the Alabama Power Company good and strong.

This paper is proud of the things the Alabama Power Company is doing and has already done in Clanton and Chilton County, and far be it from us to cast one iota of discredit upon the Company or any official or workman thereof. We don't hesitate to say that Clanton is worth twice as much as a place to live in and do business in since the Alabama Power Company extended their system here than it was before they came. And their proposed additional developments in this section of the State is a welcome movement which we and other citizens of Chilton County look upon with pleasure.

It appears that the bone of contention in what we said in the previous article lies in our expression as follows:

"It is very strange how these workmen treat visitors. They do not pay any more attention to their guests than if no one out of the ordinary were upon the scene. They go right on drilling or building, etc., etc."

Any objections that might be raised by any employee of the Company to the above expression can be accounted for only by a failure to see the irony in the statement, "It is very strange how these workmen treat visitors." The literary term for such expressions is called "irony." That is the use of an expression in which you mean the exact oposite, and which you know your readers will necessarily take to mean the opposite of what is said.

It was not strange at all how they treated us; it was not strange when we were on the scene. They treated us just like we expected them to treat us and just like everybody else going there would expect to be treated, and just like the Alabama Power Company expects them to treat us and everybody else. The business of that man running the drilling machine is to drill into the bed of the river and get out samples of the rock. That is what the company is paying him for. We doubt if he even knows very much about what the Power Company is going to do at Duncan's Riffles; and even if he did know he is not supposed to take an hour off to conduct visitors around over the job and tell them what is going to happen. We did not expect him to do it, and nobody else with very much sense would expect him to do it. And for a sensible man to say it is strange that he does not do it most certainly could not be taken as anything else other than a jest.

I looks to us like what we said was complimentary to the men who are at work there. The Power Company has them employed there to work and not to entertain tourists, and since we say they are doing what the Company is expecting them to do, it ought to be to their credit.

Now, the editor of this paper and the other gentlemen who went to Duncan's Riffles with him are not mad at the way we were treated. There is no ill feeling on our part, and we hope no offense has been done to anyone on the side of the Ala. Power Co. However, if the company wants publication made of their plans and arrangements at Duncan's Riffles, we shall be glad to know who can furnish us with the inside dope, so we may interview him and give the facts to the eager and interested public. It would make a cracking good story, and this editor would be glad to have the honor of conveying it to the public first.

PRAISE FOR MIDDLETON

The Banner is gratified to see The Mobile News-Item come out with an editorial expression commendatory of the work of Hon. J. Osmond Middleton as Assistant United States District Attorney for the Southern Alabama District. The great number of Osmond's old friends in Clanton and Chilton County will be interested in what was said of him, and we are glad to reproduce the editorial below:

"A new record for convictions has been set by the United States Attorney's office here. During the term of court which came to an end last week the Government secured a conviction in every case that was tried. It is generally conceded that this high record is due largely to the ability and efficiency of Assistant U. S. Attorney J. O. Middleton. Since Mr. Middleton's apointment in April, he has been characterized by great ability.

"Mr. Middleton is a young man of the highest character and probity, and is a lawyer of great strength, being recognized as one of the ablest advocates of the bar.

Mr. Middleton is an applicant for appointment as U. S. Attorney for the Southern District upon the expiration of the term of the present incumbent, and he is generally endorsed by the bench and bar throughout the district, as well as the Republican organizations. The appointment of Mr. Middleton would meet with universal approval throughout the Southern District, and we do not hesitate to say that this apointment would be a credit to the administration of President Harding and an honor to the Republican party.

THE Y. M. C. A. EDUCATIONAL SERVICE PROGRAM

During the past sixteen months the State Y. M. C. A. of Alabama co-operating with the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A has distributed $100,000 in free scholarships to the ex-service men of this State, both white and colored, more than two thousand men sharing in the fund.

These scholarships have prevented hundreds of worthy young men from dropping out of school, or from losing valuable time from their studies on account of financial troubles.

The following young men of Chilton County were awarded Y. M. C. A. scholarships which they used at the schools or colleges listed after their respective names:

Henry Popwell, Clanton, awarded $70.00, Extension Division United Y. M. C. A. Schools, New York.

In addition to the individual scholarship awards listed above, funds were provided for conducting a night school for colored ex-service men at Clanton. The school ran three months and the pupils were taught the elementary branches such as reading, writing, arithmetic, besides receiving daily instructions in such matters as health, hygiene, good citizenship, etc.

The following citizens compose the Educational Service Committee which approved general scholarship applications from Chilton County:

John A. Thomas, Chairman; F. B. Collier, Secretary; E. E. Upchurch, Guy Higgins, C. R. Foss.

These gentlemen were painstaking and diligent in the performance of their duties, and greatly assisted the State Committee of the Y. M. C. A. in approving applications and making awards in this county.

FRANK WILLIS BARNETT'S IMPRESSION OF CLANTON

Tuesday's Birmingham Age-Herald carried a good story about Clanton, written by Rev. Frank Willis Barnett in his daily column about "Men, Women and Things." Mr. Barnett was an invited guest in Clanton last Thursday night at the banquet of the Chamber of Commerce, and Friday at the laying of the corner stone of the new Baptist Church. We take the liberty of printing his article below for the benefit of those who did not see it in the Age-Herald:

I had a little story in Sunday's Age-Herald about "One of Spurgeon's Boys," and how in the whirl-a-gig of events after leaving the orphanage and going to New Zealand he came to America and studied in the west and later came south to take a pastorate at Clanton.

He is not only a church builder, having begun the erection of a beautiful house of worship at Clanton, but he is also a civic builder, and thru his energy and public spirit organized the Clanton Chamber of Commerce, which has been in operation about six months and is at present a live and going concern.

The Chamber was formally opened with a banquet at which O. L. Bunn was the principal speaker, and though it had been several months since he spoke, I found on my recent visit that they were still talking about his splendid address, and were deeply grateful for his many helpful suggestions and his continued interest in the organization. He showed a keen desire to get the organization started right.

I have known Clanton for 33 years as one of the first out-of-town trips which I made from Birmingham in the early days when I began to practice law, was to make a trip to Clanton in the interest of a large corporation. I recall quite well that I spent the night at what was then a new hotel, and quite the pride of the town; but it is used as a dwelling now and the hustling little city boasts two first-class brick hotels.

A good many people think that because Clanton is the county seat of Chilton, that its chief industry is politics. Now, I am not going to say that there is ever a shortage of candidates or a lack of interest in the political game; but anyone who thinks that the people give all their time to it are mistaken, for its a thriving town, being the largest between Birmingham and Montgomery.

That the citizens are public spirited and covet the best is evidenced by a good and plentiful municipal waterworks and sewerage system, getting excellent and unlimited light and power from Lock 12, plant of the Alabama Power Company. It has good churches, good elementary and high schools, ample banking capital, good merchants, thriving industries, enterprising farmers and a live weekly. The Louisville & Nashville serves it, and it is on the Birmingham-Montgomery Highway.

With these things it is a small wonder that Rev. P. G. Carter, "one of Spurgeon's Boys," with a vim and energy, was able to mobilize the various forces and bring them together in a local chamber of commerce. It gave me a genuine pleasure to receive an invitation to come down on last Friday night and address the new body at a banquet at the Wilson hotel for it meant the meeting of a number of old friends and the getting acquainted with some splendid forward-looking citizens.

Too many men who live in the larger cities are apt to think that the world revolves around them. It is true that they play a big part in the nation's progress, but while their role is the spectacular one, it takes the towns and the country to act as the balance wheel, and for this reason I always hail with delight a chance to get away from the noise and roar of the great metropolitan marts to recuperate in the quieter life of town and country.

But both town and country are waking up to the fact that they need not live in an eddy or on a side track but with a little trouble can swing out into the main currents and spin down the main line. The organization of a chamber of commerce at Clanton means that the citizens are ready to share their town with outsiders, but at the same time making it a better place for the old "residents" to do business and rear a family.

Clanton is situated in a good farming country. The sandy loam soil with a red clay subsoil is capable of high production if properly handled. Trucking is one of the things the chamber proposes to foster; another is the erection of a potato house to conserve the sweet potato crop. It holds out attractions for those engaged in the lumber industry and its brick clay is capable of being turned into a staple building commodity of value. It offers on good terms sites for manufacturing plants. It is arranging to have a rate clerk look after the interests of the shippers.

The banquet was a great success, both as to menu and speeches.

FRANK WILLIS BARNETT.

Mr. Joe Rasberry of Anniston was the guest of his brother, Jim Rasberry in Clanton last Sunday.

Bud Jones has bought out the produce business of Tom Taylor and Jesse Baker, and will continue the operation of same at the old location where Duncan's Automobile Shop once was. Bud Jones is a well-known business man of Clanton, having been engaged in the cattle business here for quite a long time. The people will, we are sure, find him a good man to deal with in the produce business. Mr. Jeff Ruffin will continue with him in the same capacity as he occupied with Taylor.

NEW QUICK WAY TO PUT ON FIRM FLESH

Thousands of weak, thin, pale and sickly people are now quickly putting on solid flesh and regaining rugged health and strength in an entirely new way.

This way is by taking vitamines into their systems. Vitamines are a mysterious living substance, found to be absolutely necesasry for perfect daily health. But most of our foods are lacking in them—that is why so many of us become thin and rundown.

Yeast has been found to contain billions of vitamines and is bringing incredible results in putting good flesh and muscle on thin people. No need to eat yeast cakes—simply take Ironized Yeast tablets, containing iron and highly centralized brewer's yeast, the most efficent form of yeast Pleasant to take—brings quick results. Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE QUARTERLY BANQUET

The Clanton Chamber of Commerce held a very interesting banquet at the Wilson Hotel on Thursday, June 16th. More than twenty men sat down to supper ,and a splendid address was delivered by Dr. Frank Willis Barnett of Age-Herald fame and state-wide distinction. In touching upon the various enterprises contemplated by the Chamber of Commerce he counselled the officers and members to use wise discretion. In the course of many practical remarks he stated that every man who is in business of any kind that is of a good nature should be a member of the Chamber of Commerce. He also stated that every citizen of Clanton to make a success should believe strongly in the city, its churches and the people with whom he lives.

Reports were given on some of the undertakings now being undertaken by the Chamber. The committee appointed for the building of a road to the Dam stated that the only practical thing to do was to cooperate with the commissioners and Federal authorities in rebuilding the road from the city of Clanton to Coopers, and thereby connecting with the road from Coopers to the Dam, which the Alabama Power Company has promised to build. Report of this committee was accepted and the committee continued with power to act. The secretary stated that a curing house was to be built by Mr. Joe Maddox as one of the enterprises of the Chamber of Commerce. Efforts are also being made for the establishment of a traffic department, but there was nothing definite yet to report. The secretary also stated that some fifty letters were being mailed out to various manufacturing concerns with a view of locating a knitting mill, a wood specialty factory and canning industry.

In proof of the justification for the existence of the Chamber of Commerce an instance was cited by the secretary. Within a few months ago two men tried to perpetuate a promotion scheme to the extent of $6500 for the establishment of a canning industry. When properly investigated by the directors, it was proved to them that there was no capital or proper backing behind it. And when the proposed promoters discovered that the Chamber of Commerce understood the scheme they left the city and have not since returned. In this way alone, the Chamber of Commerce is worth a great deal to the city and commuiity as a means of protection against fraud. The Chamber of Commerce is the local organization through which any business concern desiring to locate should work, unless backed by a Chamber of Commerce it cannot succeed. At the close of the ceremonies Mr. C. Fenn Jones in e ulogistic terms commended very highly the work of the secretary and attributed to him not only the organization but the present success of the Chamber, and expressed for the members the desire that he be spared for some time to come to continue the good work for the civic interests of Clanton and Community. Loud applause followed his remarks. The secretary replied and stated that his one desire was to help the community in which he lived as well as the church he served. Those present went away satisfied that the Chamber of Commerce supplies a long felt desire on the part of the business men for an organization of this kind.

THE BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT WHITE POND

The Unity-Chilton Baptist Sunday School Convention held a very interesting and rofitable service with the White Pond people Sunday, the 5th. Above twenty Sunday Schools were represented and the work seems to be on the hearts of those engaged in a way that augurs success to the Baptist organization.

The opening devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. W. A. Goss. "Stopping the Leaks in the Sunday School" was discussed in his usual hapy and instructive manner, by Prof. J. L. Johnson.

For another hour the crowded house gave the closest attention to Bro. Emmett Moore, of the State S. S. Board on "The work of the Superintendent." Perhaps the most absorbing number on the program was rendered between 12 and 1:30, with everybody entering heartily into the exercises (dinner). White Pond sustained her reputation for taking care of the large crowd. This she never fails to do.

Quite a large crowd remained out doors in the afternoon enjoying the social features of the occasion, but a good and appreciative audience heard the rendering of the afternoon program. In the absence of Rev. W. B. Earnest, his subject, "The Place of the Sunday School in Developing the Kingdom," was discussed by Rev. W. A. Davis..

Rev. R. D. Wright, a student from the B. C. I., Newton, Ala., gave a short talk on the advantages of that institution. Bro. Judson Strock spoke a few minutes on Howard College.

In the absence of Mr. W. D. Cannon, Bro. Moore gave a very instructive talk on the subject "The Need of Trained Workers." Miss Griggs also being absent, her subject, "Why a Baptist S. S. Convention," was discussed by our President, Prof. A. E. Davis.

The business session of the meeting was smooth and harmonious, considerable business being transacted.

Altogether, we think the occasion one of profit and of great promise. A rising vote of thanks was given the White Pond people for their unbounded hospitality.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH CORNER STONE CEREMONY

In the presence of a large audience, interesting services were held for the laying of the corner stone of the new Baptist Church on last Friday morning.

Dr. Frank Willis Barnett, the author of "Men, Women and Things," which daily occurs in the Age-Herald, and a man of State-wide reputation as a practical speaker, made the principal address. Dr. Barnett has known Clanton for thirty-three years and complimented the people and pastor for their heroic effort in undertaking so great an enterprise at the beginning of the serious financial depression that now exists.

The Corner Stone represents an open Bible and is valued at $28.00. On it is engraved "The Clanton Baptist Church," and the date of its organization, 1872 and the date of the erection, 1921. Splendid progress is being made on the building and is likely to be completed by the end of October. It will be one of the most beautiful church structures in Central Alabama, with a splendid Sunday School Department and modern equipment.

MAN DREADED TO SEE NIGHT COME

WAS SO RESTLESS HE COULDN'T SLEEP AND DAYLIGHT WAS ALWAYS WELCOME

"With the exception of a little milk toast, which comprised my diet for more than eight weeks, I could not eat anything," said Capt. Geo. W. Womble, residing at 105 Jennings St., Knoxville, Tenn., a highly respected citizen of that city.

"I am now able," continued Captain Womble, "after taking two bottles of Tanlac, to eat practically anything. I had a bad form of stomach and intestinal trouble for a long time and for months my conditon had been such that I suffered agony. I got so I could not eat the simplest food. I tried doctor after doctor and all kinds of medicine, but nothing that was prescribed for me seemed to do me any good. I had a terrible pain in my breast just over my heart and for weeks and weeks I got no relief.

"I finally got so nervous that I actually dreaded to see night come as I could not sleep and was always so restless that I would rejoice to see daylight come. I was also constipated all of the time. In fact, life seemed a burden and I was so miserable that I was almost on the verge of despair. Several of my neighbors told me about Tanlac and advised me to try it.

"I am personally acquainted with Mr. Dan M. Chambliss of the firm of Kahlman & Chambliss, and when I told him of my condition and how I suffered, he advised me to begin taking Tanlac without delay and that it had relieved hundreds of the best people in Knoxville. I have now taken two bottles of Tanlac and am giving you this testimonial in the hope that it may induce others to take it. Since taking this medicine I actually feel like I had been made all over again with the youth, energy and ambition of a sixteen year old boy."

PROVIDENCE, BEAT 16

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow us a small space in your paper to say a few words in regard to our Sunday School and Singing Society. We had a good crowd at Sunday Schooi at 10 o'clock. The school was opened by Bro. R. Robinson, superintendent, and the different lessons were ably discussed by the pupils and teachers.

All went home for dinner, and came back at 2 o'clock for the singing society. House was called to order by vice-president G. C. Powell, and the commitete arranged directors as follows: G. C. Powell, O. R. Robinson, J. W. Cleckler, R. M. Robinson, three songs each; recess for 15 minutes. A cloud began coming up and every body thought it best to go home, and then it didn't rain much.

We thank everybody for coming. Come back again the first Sunday in June. J. W. CLECKLER, Secy.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Backing Up the Census Bureau.

President Harding is putting into practical effect his teachings regarding the desirability of efficiency in the service to the public. This is particularly notable in the case of appointments to the principal positions in the Census Bureau—one of the Government Bureaus which controls a large amount of what is ordinarily considered as patronage. The work of the Census Bureau is almost entirely statistical. It has little to do with governmental policies. It is highly important, if statistics are to be used at all, that they be dependable and therefore it is equally important that the men who have charge not only of the gathering but of the tabulation of the statistics and deduction of results shall be men skilled in this particular line.

President Harding selected for Director of the Census Mr. William M. Steuart. Mr. Steuart is a native of Texas but has spent nearly all his life in the North. He has been connected with the Census Bureau since 1880, having served ten years as a subordinate in the Division of Manufacturers; then ten years as Chief of Division, and fifteen years as Statistican for Manufacturers in the Bureau. He served as Secretary and Statistican for the United States Tariff Commission from 1917 to 1919, and was Assistant Director of the Census from August, 1919 until his promotion to the Directorship a few weeks ago.

The new Asistant Director is Joseph A. Hill, a native of New Hampshire, graduate of Harvard in the Class of 1885, a lecturer in the University of Pennsylvania in 1893, instructor at Harvard in 1895, representative of the Massachusetts Tax Commission, investigating the European system of taxation, in 1897, and since 1898 engaged in statistical work in the Census Bureau. He was appointed Chief Statistican in 1909 and is a member of the American Economical Association and president of the American Statistical Association.

If experience may be considered a qualification for a public position these two men who will direct the work of the Census Bureau for the next four years at least may be considered amply qualified for the work over which they have been given charge.

Coal Prices.

Coal mine operators solemnly warn the people that unless they buy their fuel now there is likely to be a great congestion when cold weather comes and the railroads are unable to handle sufficient coal to fill the rush of orders. If there is a fuel famine next winter the blame will not rest with the consumers but with the producers who have held coal at prices that the people have refused to pay. Two years and a half after the close of the war finds fuel prices at their peak. Deflation has come in every other industry, and the people refuse to believe that there is adequate reason for postponing the drop in coal prices.

It is asserted that miners' wages cannot be reduced until next April, upon the expiration of an agreement entered into with the operators at the direction of the Government. That may be true, but the parties to that agreement can always amend it with another. And it is a question whether the agreement would prohibit the mine operators from employing men not parties thereto at a lower wage. Where there is a will there is a way, and it is ridiculous to expect the people to believe that the mine owners, if they are disposed, could not bring the price of fuel within the limits of reason and stimulate an immediate demand among the consuming public.

Tariff Hypocrisy.

Some time ago a correspondent for a Western paper remarked the frequency with which a lot of Democratic Senators and Representatives express their views in favor of certain Republican policies, particularly a protective tariff upon commodities produced in their states. Their near-Republicanism will fool no one. However ardent an advocate a Democrat may be of protection on the products of his own state, he is manifestly insincere unless he is an advocate of protection as a matter of national policy—protection for American industry regardless of its geographical location. Senator Underwood of Alabama, floor leader of his party in the Senate, recently wrote a letter in support of a Democratic candidate for Congress in an interim election and asserted among other things that the old-time cleavage between the two great political parties has not changed. That is absolutely true. Many Democratic voters have become advocates of the protective policy, but the Democratic organization is still opposed to protection except for the products of their constituents whose votes they hope to secure by pretending to promote their self-interest. As a matter of practice, there can be no protective tariff put into effect unless it is framed by the real friends of protection. The man who is for protection only on his own industries is no friend of protection at all. He is a shyster merely trying to hold his seat in Congress by pretending to represent the interests of his constituents whereas, if re-elected, he will stand with his party organization, of which Mr. Underwood is the effective head.

The Era of Service.

The spirit animating the present administration in attacking the problems that confront the country was happily expressed by Attorney General Daugherty in an address before the Republican Glee Club of Columbus at a recent meeting in Washington: "Kindliness and friendship are the greatest things in the world," said Mr. Daugherty, "and in that spirit President Harding and his assistants are striving to reorganize this government as one of the greatest in the civilized world. We all are striving here with an entanglement of misfortunes. Everybody is working unselfishly. Material rewards are not so important as a good conscience and good friends, and we all expect to go home some day proud of our work, our friends and our country."

Democratic Puerilities.

The ridiculous extent to which Democrats can sometimes go in the matter of legislation is illustrated in a resolution pr esented by Congressman Gallivan of Massachusetts. The resolution provides "that there shall be no prize fight in the United States for world championship after the passage of the soldiers' bonus bill." Just what relation the Dempsey-Carpentier match has to soldiers' bonus is not apparent. Perhaps the author of the resolution thinks that if the fight was made to wait on soldiers' bonus legislation the proponents of the latter would be stimulated to super-human efforts to get it through so that the affair at Jersey City would not be long delayed. Happily the gentleman and his party are not now in position to enact the unique legislation they formerly reveled in.

Do You Remember?

How different was President Harding's reference to the Revolutionary heroes of Valley Forge from the description by former Secretary of War Baker not long ago, who referred to them as tramps, vagabonds, and thieves.

The Home of the Soul.

In olden times it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton.

BAPTIST PASTORS AND WORKERS CONFERENCE.

A very interesting meeting of the Pastors and Workers Conference was held at the Marbury Baptist Church on Monday, June 13th, with a very nice attendance of both brethren and sisters. The subjects discussed were of considerable interest and very timely and practical in their relation to the church problems of to-day. How to create and preserve harmony in our churches proved to be a very perplexing problem, and though many good sugestions were offered, the question was not altogether solved though the discussion ensued for more than an hour with several of the preachers and brethren taking a part. Prayer, love of the brethren, loyalty to the church and cause, and a proper conception of the work being done were among some of the things suggested. The next subject discussed was on the need of the infilling of the Holy Spirit, ably led by Rev. D. D. Head. Rev. J. O. Colley, pastor of Clayton Street Baptist Church was among those present and very interestingly led in the discussion of the Baptist attitude to the other churches and denominations. For the purpose of great moral reforms he indicated the necessity of the cooperation of all denominations as proven by the great prohibition movement now in progress, and the cleaning up of the citits and enforcement of the laws. It was the sense of the meeting and of the speakers that denominational loyalty with Christian unity should characterize every protestant church of the evangelical faith.

The Baptist "Win One" evangelistic campaign to be held for at least one week was discussed and various plans for personal work, advertising, and the securing of speakers for the various meetings was duly considered.

Mrs. G. F. Griggs of Marbury read a profitable paper on how the men can help the W. M. U., who suggested that the men read the mission journals, cooperate with the women by allowing them and assisting them to attend the meetings, and by supporting them in a practical way.

The ladies of the church served a delightful dinner at the church which was enjoyed by all present.

The next meeting will be held at the Jemison Baptist Church subject to their consent, on Monday, July 11, and the folowing subjects will be considered: "The Person and the Work of the Holy Spirit," by Buford Lawrence; "The Scriptural Teachings on the Duty of Tithing," by Rev. T. J. Deason; "The Laymen's and Women's Responsibilities in the Work of the Church," by W. T. Johnson and W. J. Billingsley.

In view of the possible absence of the present secretary for some time, Bro. Buford Lawrence was appointed to act as temporary secretary.—P. G. Carter, Secretary.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

THORSBY CHAUTAUQUA IS A SUCCESS.

The Thorsby "Redpath Chautauqua" closed its program on last Monday night with the Artist Entertainers and Reno the Magician. The programs offered by Redpath this year are all of the highest class and were all so well balanced that it was difficult to decide which number you liked the best. There was not a dull moment at any time. The entertainers were all artists in their specific lines and everyone expressed their wish that they could have heard more from them.

Financially the chautauqua was a success. The receipts were a little more than what our contract called for, so that none of the guarantors will have to be called upon. We are proud to state that the citizens of Thorsby, almost all of them, backed up their organizations in putting this entertainment over. We also want to express our appreciation to our many friends of Clanton, Jemison and Verbena, who gave us their patronage.

From what we have heard, we believe that everybody enjoyed themselves thoroughly at every entertainment.

On Tuesday last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson a reception was held for Mrs. May Hastings Nottage in recognition of her loyal and faithful services as House Mother of the boys dormitory of the Thorsby Institute. Rev. J. M. Graham in his masterly way told how Mrs. Nottage had mothered and sheltered the boys in sickness and health, prosperity and adversity, happiness and sorrow, and now a few of her friends had gathered together for the purpose of presenting to her as a token of their appreciation for her work an umbrella to shelter her in sunshine and in rain.

Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goddard, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson, Rev. and Mrs. E W Butler, Rev. J. W. Davenport, Mrs. Robert Davenport, Mrs. A. K. Horn, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Turner, Mrs. Hattie M. Gerald, Mrs. L. O. Larson, Mrs. E. F. Mead, Miss Ruth Gerald, Mrs. Dagmar Larsen, Miss Agnes Gerald, Miss May Stoddard, Master Jack Peterson.

Clanton Defeats Jemison.

The Clanton baseball team handed the Jemison team an easy walloping on last Friday evening, the score being 17 to 3. The playing of the Jemison team reminded us of what the Thorsby boys term the "Vida Class." Clanton plays Prattville here this afternoon.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which griped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

HENRY FORD AT SHEFFIELD

From the Nashville Banner.

The visit of Mr. Henry Ford to Sheffield and his inspection of the great power plant there is interesting and suggestive of possibilities through which this region of the country would greatly profit.

An invasion of the south by the enterprising Detroit manufacturer would be highly appreciated. He could undoubtedly build a great industry at Sheffield if he should turn his attention to such achievement. It is hoped that he was favorably impressed with what he saw.

The congressional failure to continue the government work at Sheffield was part of the political malevolence of which the majority in Congress has given too much evidence, and it is smacked also strongly of sectional prejudice. The great work can't be permanently abandoned. It means too much for the general welfare.

And the great power at the Muscle Shoals will not in this day when hydro-electric energy is so much in demand be allowed to run to waste. Other enterprising manufacturers like Mr. Ford will put it to use. There are great possibilities in what may come of the plant at Sheffield outside of what the government may do.

The interest Mr. Fard has manifested is, in any light, gratifying. There should be opportunity for a man of his enterprise and genius there, and the south would be glad should he put it to use.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

The regular services of the church will be held next Sunday as usual at 11 and evening at 8. At the night service it is expected that a series of interesting pictures will be shown illustrating a sermon on "The Greatest Question in the World." We appreciate the splendid congregation present last Sunday evening and Sunday morning, and are pleased to know that the night services in spite of the hot weather are proving popular from time to time.

The new church is progressing nicely with several men engaged on the brick work. With the progress of the building will come the need of money with which to pay. We urge all those who possibly can to make provision for their notes or pay them as soon as possible. Many expressions of the splendid building are being heard as its beauty begins to unfold. United effort and co-operation will bring the enterprise to a successful climax in the near future.

We cordially invite everybody to the services of our church.—Pastor.

HERE'S CHANCE TO GET BICYCLE FREE

The Birmingham News To Give Away 1,000 Rangers To Boys And Girls.

When the calliope starts tooting in the circus parade, the boys and girls "come a-running," and when somebody shouts "get a bicycle free," they immediately ask "where" and "how."

This story deals with bicycles and not circuses and if you want to get the very latest thing in bikes, and for nothing, step right up close while this paper tells you what The Birmingham News is going to do.

To win one of these bicycles all one has to do is get 35 subscriptions to the daily and Sunday News—a very simple thing for industrious boys and girls. The bicycles, which have already been purchased, are the celebrated "Ranger Motorbike" model for boys and the "Ranger Superb" for girls, each valued at $60, the price one would pay at the factory or through local dealers, and they are delivered to your home by prepaid express.

Any boy or girl in Alabama may enter the contest, which is not limited to age, for there are full-sizes for men and full sizes for women in the event any of them compete and win one of the bicycles. Here are the conditions:

The 35 subscriptions must be obtained between June 5 and Sept. 6, 1921, and the subscribers must be residents of Alabama who are not now or at the time of solicitation, receiving the daily and Sunday News in their homes. The cost of the daily and Sunday News delivered in the home by carrier is only 25 cents per week, or $1.10 per month. If the subscriber desires to take the paper by mail, or lives in a town where The Birmingham News has no carrier delivery, the price is $10 per year, paid in advance.

That, in a nutshell, is the bicycle plan, and now (step up a little closer) for here's the description of the Ranger.

Equipped with every device that can make a bicycle serviceable and comfortable, the Ranger possesses shock-absorbing rubber grips, "Aristocrat" padded saddle of brown leather and fitted with the famous compensating coil and suspension spring; Hercules tubular featherweight rear platform luggage carrier, Mead featherweight steel mud guards, International bicycle stand and spring clip for stand, imported Brampton twin roller anti-friction chain, "Aristocrat" motorbike rubber pedals, mud guard splasher, extra heavy non-skid tires, tool kit and dozens of other points too numerous to mention.

All subscriptions must be verified and accepted by The News before they are allowed to count, but bicycles will be delivered to the candidates as rapidly as their quotas are filled and verified.

If you're interested—and surely you're thinking of those long hikes you can take, write to The Birmingham News, Bicycle Department, Birmingham, Ala., and ask for information and instructions on how to obtain one of these $60 Ranger bicycles.

CEDAR GROVE

There will be a singing at this place on Sunday afternoon, June 26th. We will then organize a singing society for every second and fourth Sunday afternoons.

We are proud of the confidence doctors, druggists and the public have in 666 Chill and Fever Tonic.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Mrs. Page Hostess.

The members of the Embroidery Club enjoyed a pleasant afternoon on last Thursday, when Mrs. John Page was hostess at the home of Mrs. M. L. White. Pretty summer blossoms adorned the apartments where the members did fancy needle work, and music on the Edison was also enjoyed.

Late in the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. White, served delicious sherbert and cake.

Mrs. M. B. Arant and Miss Rita Arant are visiting relatives and friends in Opelika.

After a pleasant visit of a couple of weeks in Elmore, Miss Mary Bess Sims has returned to her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Harper will arrive Thursday for a few days visit to relatives in Clanton.

Missionary Society Meets.

A social service program was presented at the Woman's Missionary Society on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White. Mrs. Pearson conducted the devotional exercises, after which Mrs. W. W. Fox took up the program. Several selected papers were read. Plans were made to have a spend-the-day study class at the parsonage on next Tuesday for the purpose of studying the "Church in the Community." Late in the afternoon a tempting ice course was served.

Dr. E. E. Upchurch was called to Carrollton this week on account of the sickness of his brother.

Miss Marzelle Mullins returned to her home Wednesday, acompanied by Miss Allie Crumpton, after a visit of a couple of weeks in Brewton.

Younger Set Enjoy Picnic.

Among the outings of this week, none has been more thoroughly enjoyed than the picnic given by Mr. Leon Kemp at his camp on last Thursday evening. The party motored out, and a most elaborate luncheon had been prepared by Mr. Kemp. Games were also enjoyed. Invited to take part in this moonlight picnic were Misses Edna Kemp, Irene Jones, Eloise Kemp, Jewel Minor, Mary Popwell, Anice Kemp, Virgil and Annie Bell White, Messrs. Otto Jones, Joe Higgins, Luther Foshee, Grady Taylor, Grady Heflin, Julius Burnett, Erskine Connell and Wallace Jones. The party was chaperoned by Miss Hattie Jones.

Epworth League Organized.

A most flourishing Epworth League has been organized at the Methodist Church under the leadership of Mrs. Macy Jones and Mrs. Clyde Jones. The meetings of the League are held at the church on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. All young people are most cordially invited. An interesting feature of last Sunday's program was a song by Miss Elizabeth Duncan and Miss Willadean Reynolds and Mr. Raymond Roberts, and a recitation by Miss Annie Belle White. The scriptural lesson was given by Mr. Ewart Corley. Splendid programs are arranged for each meeting.

Miss Jenette Rucker of Elmore and Miss Frances Taylor are the guests of Misses Mary Bess and Grace Sims.

Thomas-Levie Wedding.

A wedding of interest, and one that came as a surprise to her many friends occurred last Wednesday morning when Miss Mabel Thomas and Mr. Ottis Levie of Sylacauga were quietly married by Rev. D. M. Pearson at the Methodist Parsonage at 7:30 o'clock. The bride was most attractive in a blue tricotine suit and accessories to match. Only the immediate family were present. The bride is one of Clanton's most lovely and accomplished young ladies, and her many friends will regret that her marriage will take her away from Clanton, where she is most popular in social circles.

Miss Mathilda Thomas of Kellyton has returned home after a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mullins of Cuthbert, Ga., announce the birth of a baby girl.

Miss Louise Orr left Tuesday for Birmingham to be gone for several days.

Mr. Burton Higgins of Montgomery was a visitor to Clanton last week.

A. F. Mims of Thorsby was a visitor to Clanton Tuesday. He says he has been getting some scattering showers but would be glad to see a real rain.

Lovely Outing Enjoyed.

On last Saturday afternoon the younger set of Clanton enjoyed one of the season's loveliest outings when Mr. and Mrs. Guy Higgins entertained for several of the civil engineers at a swimming party and moonlight picnic. The party motored out to Mims' Pond and after a delightful swim a most delightful picnic feast was enjoyed. Participating in this affair were Misses Roberta Curry, Beverly Hester, Maud Mullins, Leona Pipes, Louise Orr, Messrs. Wallace Jones, Irby Jones, Omar Reynolds, Grover Walker, Weeks, Bill Lanier, Stewart, Charlie Levy, and Fenn Jones.

Mr. Wallace Jones had as his guest for the week-end Mr. Irby Jones of Montgomery.

Mrs. Tol Mullins and Miss Betty Mullins returned home Wednesday afternoon after an extended visit to Evergreen.

S. S. Class Enjoys Picnic.

Among the lovely outings of the week, and a most thoroughly enjoyable affair was the chicken barbecue given on Friday evening by the Philathea S. S. Class of the Methodist Church. At the appointed hour the lunch was spread and no better chicken was ever tasted. It was voted to repeat the affair again in the near future. Those enjoying this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Mr and Mrs. Hugh M. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Broadhead, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hart, Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Nabors, Mrs. J. O. Middleton, Mrs. Barney Roberts, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. M. L. White, Mrs. Geo. Polk, Miss Williams and Miss Callie Watts.

Miss Kathleen Mullins left Wednesday for several cities in Georgia to be gone a few weeks. She will attend several house parties while away.

Wednesday Bridge Club Meets.

At her home on last Wednesday evening Mrs. Watts Moore as the gracious hostess to the Wednesday Card Club with several invited guests. The apartments were lovely with decorations of pretty summer blossoms and pot plants. During the game music on the Edison was enjoyed, after which a tempting salad plate with ice tea was served. The top score was held by Mrs. Guy Roberts, and she was awarded a pretty ivory bud vase holding an exquisite white rose bud. Enjoying this hospitality were Mrs. McSwain, Mrs. Luckie, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Guy Roberts, Misses Roberta Curry, Kathleen Mullins, Lurline Harper and Leona Pipes.

Mrs. J. Osmond Middleton of Mobile arrived in Clanton last week for a two-weeks visit to her parents here.

Presbyterian S. S. Class Picnic.

Mims' Pond was the scene of much merriment Tuesday when the members of Mrs. Splawn's Sunday School Class, with some invited guests, enjoyed a most pleasant day. Swimming and games were indulged in throughout the day. At noon a most bountiful picnic dinner was served to about fifteen. Mrs. Splawn was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Guy Higgins.

Mr. Ernest Askins of Sylacauga is visiting his grandparents here this week.

LIBERTY HILL

The Liberty Hill Singing Society met Sunday afternoon, June 19th. There was a large crowd and very good singing.

Messrs Glover Smith, Rube Miller, John Gore, W. G. Culp, and Sam Henley directed three songs each. Prof. Patton was given an unlimited time. Organists were W. G. Culp, Miss Thelma Farley and Mrs. Zelma Littlejohn. We thank the visitors for coming, and invite them to come again. The society wil meet again on the first Sunday p.m. in July.

Was Good Judge of Liquor

"Since a young man I had a liking for liquor and was considered a pretty good judge of it at one time, but constant drinking gave me stomach trouble which became chronic. My stomach would have been a valuable addition to a gas factory. Doctors did not seem to relieve me. One day my druggist got me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I am now as good as new." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamaion which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold in Clanton by Alred Drug Company.

CARS FOR SALE—I have a Dixie Flier 5-passenger car practically new, and a 5-passenger Briscoe slightly used, which I will sell at a bargain. Call, write or see me. R. W. SCOTT,

IN THE

Produce Business

I wish to announce to the public that I have purchased the Chicken and Feed Business of the Clanton Produce Company from Tom Taylor and Jesse Baker, and will operate that business in the future.

I have had quite a bit of experience in this line of business myself, and I have secured Mr. Jeff Ruffin to continue to work here with me.

Besides handling Produce I carry a very complete line of Feed Stuff, such as Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls, Corn, Oats, Mixed Feed, Hay, Dairy Feed, Perfection Shorts, Peanut Meal, Etc.

Come around to see us if you want to sell or bny anything in our line.

We will continue to make the same regular trips over the county that Mr. Taylor has been making.

POOR RICHARD'S PLAN

Something more than 150 years ago Benjamin Franklin, the greatest American philosopher, gave in his "Poor Richard's Almanac" a plan for saving 100,000 pounds sterling, approximately $500,000. His suggestions are as good today as they were them. His plan was thus set forth:

"As I spent some weeks last winter in visiting my old acquaintance in the Jerseys, great complaints I heard for want of money, and that leave to make more paper bills could not be obtained. Friends and countrymen, my advice on this head shall cost you nothing; and, if you will not be angry with me for giving it, I promise you not to be offended if you do not take it.

"You spend yearly at least two hundred thousand pounds, it is said, in European, East-Indian, and West-Indian commodities. Suppose one-half of this expense to be in things absolutely necessary, the other half may be called superfluities, or at least, conveniences, which, however, you might live without for one little year, and not suffer exceedingly. Now, to save this half, observe these few directions:

"1. When you incline to have new clothes, look first well over the old ones, and see if you can not shift with them another year, either by scouring, mending, or even patching if necessary. Remember, a patch on your coat and money in your pocket is better and more creditable than a writ on your back and no money to take it off.

"2. When you are inclined to buy China ware, chintzes, India silks, or any other of their flimsy, slight manufactures, I would not be so bad with you as to insist on your absolutely resolving against it; all I advise is to put off (as you do your repentance) till another year, and this in some respects may prevent an occasion of repentance.

"3. If you are now a drinker of punch, wine, or tea, twice a day, for the ensuing year drink them but once a day. If you drink them but once a day, do it every other day. If you do it now once a week, reduce the practice to once a fortnight. And, if you do not exceed in quantity as you lessen the times, half your expense in these articles will be saved.

"4. When you incline to drink rum, fill the glass half with water.

"Thus, at the year's end, there will be a hundred thousand pounds more money in your country.

"If paper money in ever so great a quantity could be made, no man could get any of it without giving something for it. But all he saves in this way will be his own for nothing, and his country actually so much richer. Then the merchants' old and doubtful debts may be honestly paid off, and trading becomes surer there after, if not so extensive."

There will be a singing at this place in the afternoon of July 3rd. All singers and lovers of music are especially invited.

HARP & HARMONY CONVENTION

The Chilton County Singing Convention using the Harp and Harmony Music Books will meet in special session at Pates Chapel, about two miles west of Thorsby, on the Fifth Sunday in July. Convention will open at 9 o'clock. All are invited.

WITH CHARITY FOR ALL

"I am glad to say," declared Secretary Hughes, "that the message of America is one of cordial friendship to all nations. We have no questions which mutual good will and the processes of reason can not solve." When the United States is actuated by such motives, of what possible good would it be to itself or the world to became a member of the league of nations?

LONGSHORE APPRECIATES THE SUPPORT OF FRIENDS

A defeated candidate should appreciate the loyalty and devotion of his friends to the same extent as if he were the victor; and I desire to express to those who gave me their votes and support my deep appreciation. I went into the race determined to make a hard fight, but not to strike below the belt, and I maintained this attitude to the end; I spoke of my opponent in the highest terms, as I did not want to win except upon merit. I knew that the party in power would be charged with the hard times and low prices of farm products; I know that the people were impatient and dissatisfied with present conditions, and were inclined to put the blame upon the present administration, but I did not believe that a United States Senator, a candidate for Governor of Alabama, would have the hardihood to attempt to shift upon the shoulders of President Harding, who had only been in office barely three months, the hard times caused by the eight years of the most wasteful and extravagant administration that the world has ever seen; neither did I believe that any speaker would have the brazen effrontery to attempt to inject the race issue and play upon the credulity of the ignorant, when the White House records show that President Wilson appointed more negroes to office than any other man who was ever elected President.

No issue was presented by the Democratic speakers during the whole campaign; white supremacy and appeals to prejudice were the only arguments (?) presented; when as a matter of fact there are only about 3,500 negroes registered in Alabama and they were all registered by Democratic Registrars; but I do not feel in the least discouraged, no question is ever settled until it is settled right. The voters in this District are almost ready for a revolution, and the time will soon come when the rising tide of reason will sweep error and prejudice from the throne and bury them out of sight forever, and as the morning dawns, in its gray beams we read a brighter destiny. The campfires of truth and righteousness will never grow dim, but will shine brighter and brighter until its purifying power shall consume the chaff of error and prejudice and leave in its place the golden truths of old time democracy, that gave us a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

I have no word of criticism for those who voted for Major Jeffers; I would be small indeed if I did not grant the right to every man and woman in the District to vote as they please; some of the closest personal friends I have voted for Major Jeffers, and I honor them for theiy party fealty. The attempted humiliation of myself and family in bringing the successful candidate to the very shadow of my home for a jollification meeting, I pass by with the supreme contempt that it deserves.

I desire to say in conslusion that I congratulate Mr. Jeffers on his election; I consider it a distinct honor to represent the Fourth District in the Federal Congress, and the Republicans in 1922 will have the pleasure of electing a full-fledged Republican to the sixty-eighth Congress.

LEANDER MIMS DROWNED IN COOSA RIVER SUNDAY

Leander Mims was drowned in the Coosa River at the "Big Eddy" last Sunday morning about 7:30 o'clock. His body was dragged from the river a quarter of a mile below where he went down, on Monday morning by Sam Littleton and Lee Mims.

Leander lived across the river and was on his way home with some flour, meat and other things. His boat was anchored on the Coosa side of the river. He had laid his provisions on the shore and was going to swim across to his boat and bring it back to carry his load on across. When he plunged into the swift current he was carried down and was not seen any more until the recovery of his body on Monday.

An inquest was held over the body by Sam Adams, a coroner of Coosa County, and a verdict of death by drowning was recorded.

The dead man was the son of Zed Mims, and leaves a wife and three children.

FRIENDSHIP CHURCH

Last Sunday was regular preaching day at Friendship, and Rev. Lowery filled his appointment both morning and night.

At 11 o'clock Sunday morning, after Sunday School, Rev. Lowery took charge of the service and talked for a few minutes. He did not preach but merely introduced the purpose of the occasion to follow, and the speaker for this occasion. Miss Lena Franklin came down from Thorsby with Bro. Lowery, for the purpose of talking to us about the Baptist Young Peoples Union, and needless to say, she fulfilled that purpose admirably. Miss Franklin talked about 45 minutes about the B. Y. P. U., stating its purpose, its effect, how it should be conducted, etc. Nothing was left unsaid by this talented young teacher. It was put to a vote of the church whether or not a Union should be organized there, and the result was unanimously favorable.

The Friendship B. Y. P. U. was organized, and the following were elected as officers: President, Miss Alice Wyatt; Vice-President, Mr. Eugene Gore; Secretary, Miss Ruth Teel; Treasurer, Mr. W. O. Rich; Corresponding Secretary, T. E. Wyatt. All the officers and committees were provided, to constitute an A-1 Union. The Union will meet every Sunday night at early candle light. You will hear more from this organization later.

The Singing Society met in regular session Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The principal feature of this occasion was the playing of Prof. George Anderson, the noted blind organist of near Billingsley. Prof. Anderson is most assuredly a wonder when it comes to doing things without seeing. He can play any piece of music any one wishes him to, merely by stating the number of the piece and the name of the book it is in. He meets people whom he has not met for five or six years, and when they merely speak to him he at once recognizes their voice and calls them by name. It is wonderful to get acquainted with this man.

Next Sunday there will be Sunday School at 10 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. will meet at the church about 7:00. Everybody is invited to these services.

CLANTON BEATS WEST END

The Clanton baseball team defeated the West End Birmingham team on the local diamond last Saturday afternoon by a score of 6 to 4. The game was a hard-fought battle and was one of the most interesting of the season.

It looked as if the visitors were "fooled" in the Clanton team. They expected to come down here and walk away with all the honors. When they found that the Clanton boys were capable of "holding their feet to the fire" they began to get irritable, showing a disposition to argue for the game instead of playing for it. But that did not get them anywhere.

Both teams made one score each in the first inning. Then the ropes were tightened and not another score was made until about the fourth or fifth inning, when West End made three scores on Clanton's error. But Clanton had an opportunity then to break the West End lead and ran their total up to six before the end of the game was reached.

The hitting and pitching of Parrish for Clanton was the wonder of the game. But the entire team played good ball with the exception of a couple of errors.

JEMISON ROUTE 2

Our second quarterly meeting was held Saturday and Sunday at Oak Hill. We had three of as fine sermons as the writer ever listened to, delivered by Rev. W. R. Graves of Oneonta, Ala. Rev. Graves came to fill the place of our district Superintendent, Dr. W. I. Powell of Birmingham. Bro. Graves preached Saturday morning, Saturday night and Sunday. He took up the life of Jesus from the time he was found by the wise men from the East, to His ascension to His Father in Heaven, and so impressed his hearers that almost the entire audience was in tears throughout his discussion. Oh, if we only had more consecrated men like Bro. Graves, who could bring Heaven and earth so close together, we could get a spiritual view of the glories that await the faithful beyond

Our singing society will meet with Collins Chapel class next Sunday evening instead of Oak Hill. Let everybody go who can, for we are expecting a large crowd and a good time.

MR. N. J. CALLOWAY DIES EARLY TUESDAY MORNING

Mr. Newton J. Calloway, age 74, died at his home one mile south of Clanton, about nine o'clock Tuesday morning. The deceased has been suffering some weeks with dropsy, which is said to be the cause of his death.

He was buried at Samaria late Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. D. Hughes conducting the funeral services.

CORINTH CHURCH

Our singing society met at Corinth Sunday, June 26th, 1921, at 2:30, p.m. Program for thte first lesson was A. L. Robinson, J. F. DuBose, A. M. Jones, Archie Jones, 3 songs each. Recess 10 minutes. Program for second lesson, A. D. Norris, Crayton Norris, N. J. Jones, 3 songs each. Organists for the evening were, Mrs. Lula Jones, Mrs. Vally Howard.

All seemed to sing with the spirit and understanding, and the Master was honored. The two Norris brothers had never conducted music before, but they did fine. We were all rejoiced that they have taken up the work.

We were dismissed with prayer by A. L. Robinson, the chairman.

FIRE MONDAY NIGHT

It was reported in Clanton Tuesday that the home of Will Ray, five miles south of Clanton was destroyed by fire Monday night.

"BUTCHERING THE TRUTH"

There was an article printed in The Sylacauga News last week, credited to the Nashville Tennesseean, which, to our way of looking at things, presents a horrible and reckless example of "butchering the truth" for political purposes. The article was ostensibly dealing with the significance of the recent special congressional election in the Fourth Alabama District. None of the ideas were very well founded, being advanced more from the standpoint of far-fetched Democratic hopefulness than from the basis of actual truth.

The weave of the article was very well put together in most places, constituting a series of "signs" seen by hopeful Democrats; but when the following figures were presented, the blanket split badly and caused the whole argument to fall into disrepute. The article reads:

> "Chilton County gave Harding a majority of 313 over Cox, Jeffers by 400. Shelby County gave Harding a majority of 712 over Cox. Jeffers carried it by 60."

We do not see what motive the Tennesseean could have had in employing such false figures to bolster up their Democratic hopes. We know of course, that all Democrats would be pleased to see any signs that would indicate that the country is swinging away from the great Republican landslide of last November. But their zeal for such signs should not lead them into the employment of such false statistics as those quoted above.

The truth of the situation which is misrepresented in the figures, is as follows: Chilton County gave Harding a majority of 1314 over Cox; the combined vote of Harding and Cox in the county was 3234. Longshore was given a majority of 506 over Jeffers; the combined vote of Longshore and Jeffers was 1308.

We do not know what the majority for Harding was in Shelby County; but we do know that Jeffers did not carry that county by 60. Longshore carried Shelby County by 312 majority.

It is a shame upon the Sylacauga News that they joined in the false statements by the Tennesseean, and instead of doing the manly thing and trying to set the figures right, added to the malicious intent by publication of the figures when they knew they were not true.

What is a Porch? And How Liquor Runners may Transport Wares Safely

There used to be a conundrum, beloved of the attendants upon church sociables and croquet parties along in the Mansard-roof era of our civilization, to this effect: "When is a door not a door?" The answer was: "When its ajar!" There was always much merriment and happiness when this was sprung. It is commended to the Supreme Court of Alabama— it may assist that august body, which is reported to have started upon a disintegration of the dwelling house, as a legal entity, or proposition, or conundrum. A Montgomery dispatch of June 24 reported the affair thusly:

> The front porch, or piazza, of a residence is not a part of the dwelling when it comes to a definition of the act regarding grand larceny under a decision of the Supreme Court Thursday. The code says a person who steals anything valued at $25 is guilty of grand larceny. But if he steals anything of the value of $5 from a dwelling house, he is guilty of the same offense.
> Luther Driver and Enoch Mims were convicted of grand larceny in Chilton County, it being alleged that they stole cotton valued at $19 from the front porch of the complainant. The Court of appeals held that the front porch was a part of the dwelling but the Supreme Court reversed this decision and granted the defendants a new trial, deciding that a front porch is not a part of the dwelling, when it comes to a definition of grand larceny.

"When is a front porch not a part of a house?" may be the new form of that ancient wheeze. The answer is: "When it gets into court!" If it isn't part of the dwelling, what is it—part of the smokehouse? And necessarily, according to this, the dwelling house must be porchless, a mere four walls, in order to be perfectly legal and according to Hoyle. Maybe the legal profession is trying to keep up with the doctors who are trying to convince humanity that the Creator made a mistake in giving people tonsils and appendixes and teeth.

So, hereafter if a man is sitting out on his front porch anybody can chase him off and take possession of that porch himself, because it is not part of the said man's dwelling, although he may have paid for the porch under the mistaken notion that it was part of the house.

This decision is almost as interesting and unique as that one which held that an automobile, although loaded with liquor, but standing still at the moment the liquor was seized, could not be confiscated on the ground that it was engaged in transporting contraband booze. Hrereafter, if the liquor runners have a good pair of brakes and will stop when the officers approach, they may lose their liquor, but the car is safe. Also in order to make the arrest and confiscation, the officers will have to be equipped with motorcycles, make a flying leap into the speeding car, and seize the liquor while the car is moving.

Law certainly is an interesting pastime.—B'ham News.

WASHINGTON LETTER

At Last

Secretary of War Weeks is to recommend to Congress that no more money be spent on the Muscle Shoals power project in Alabama. He thinks it would be better to abandon the project entirely than to throw good money after bad. It is estimated that $30,000,000 more would be required to finish the work. Millions upon millions were spent at that point during the previous administration, until Muscle Shoals came to be known as the dumping ground for appropriations. Secretary Weeks intends to ascertain if private individuals can be found willing to take over the plant and operate it. If none can be found it is likely that the project will be abandoned.

An Ohio Idea.

Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio believes that there should be an absolute prohibition against the incurring of deficiencies by the heads of government departments. While he was Governor of Ohio there was a law of that nature. An emergency fund was appropriated by the State legislature for use in case of real emergency, but it could not be drawn against without the approval of an emergency committee. "I see no reason," said Senator Willis, "why such an arrangement could not be applied readily and speedily to those organizations of the Federal Government." Mr. Willis is devoting himself to the question of economy, and is cooperating with his Republican colleagues in working out a plan for e ffecting material reductions in the national expenditures.

Fernald Furnishes Peg.

Senator Bert M. Fernald of Maine is an unalterable opponent of government by commissions. As an instance of how a Federal commission may increase from its original size and scope, Mr. Fernald cites the Federal Trade Commission. In 1914, it consisted of five men, but now there are 418 employees, and its work costs the government a million dollars a year. During the last campaign Mr. Fernald says he confined his speeches to the league of nations and Federal extravagance. Individually in his audiences frequently inquired of him why it was necessary to keep so many expensive clerks in Washington. "The farmers of this country will be quite satisfied," declares Senator Fernald, "if Congress now drives in a peg to stop the creation of any more commissions. They understand this question well. They are not to be fooled. The farmers of this country are about as intelligent as any particular class we have, and they cannot be fooled by being told that we can create a commission here that will give then higher prices for their products or their live stock." Mr. Fernald directed his argument specifically against the so-called packer bill, and the additional cost of administration that the provisions of that measure would place upon the Government.

TEACHERS EXAMINATION

The next State Examination for teachers will be held at the County High School building on July 18th, 19th, and 20th, 1921. All applicants except those holding unexpired certificates should be there by 9:00 o'clock Monday morning. NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENTS

To H. C. Martin, Ed Martin, Odis Hilyer, Cora Webster and Hughie Hilyer, non-residents of the State of Alabama, take notice that A. C. Smith, administrator of the estate of M. E. Martin, deceased, has filed application in said court for a sale of the lands described therein, belonging to the estate of said decedent, for the purpose of paying the debts due by said estate, and the 8th day of August, 1921, has been appointed for the hearing of said application.

You are, therefore, hereby notified to appear before the said court on said 8th day of August, 1921, to contest said application, if you think proper.

Witness my hand, this the 27th day of June, 1921.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
6-30-3t Judge of Probate.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

This day came A. C. Smith, administrator of the estate of M. E. Martin, deceased, and filed his petition in writing under oath in this Court, for an order to sell certain lands belonging to said estate, described in said petition, for paying the debts due by said estate, upon the ground that the personal property of said estate is insufficient for the payment of the debts.

It is therefore ordered that the 8th day of August, 1921, be appointed a day for the hearing of said petition, when any persons interested may appear and contest the said application if they think proper.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
6-30-3t Judge of Probate.

DISEASE GERMS LIE IN WAIT FOR YOU EVERYWHERE

No matter how strong our constitutions, every one of us are constantly open to the dangers of the millions of deadly disease germs in the air.

There is only one real protection. That is daily use of a thoroughly antiseptic mouth wash, such at Steroline. As we know, most germs enter through the mouth. Thus, if we keep our mouths in antiseptic condition, germs are allowed no foothold. Besides being the approved mouth wash, Steroline is also highly recommended as a dentifrice. Being a liquid, Steroline gets between the teeth, reaching the most out-of-the-way crevices, which most tooth pastes never reach. Steroline keeps your mouth cool, fresh and sweet. Quickly heals raw and bleeding gums and sweetens the breath. Sold and highly recommended by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton, Ala.

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Pretty Birthday Party Given.

A much enjoyed social feature of the past week was a birthday party given by Master Charles Simpson, celebrating his ninth birthday anniversary. The children assembled and were invited out to the grove where delicious punch was served by Mrs. Simpson. A peanut hunt was an interesting feature of the evening, followed by various juvenile games. On a draw for the prize Miss Louise McSwain was the lucky contestant and was presented with a box of home-made candy. Late in the afternoon these merry little folks were served ice cream around a table on the lawn which was centered with a pretty cake holding nine lighted tapers. About 25 little guests enjoyed this hospitality.

Family Reunion Enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds entertained informally at a dinner on last Sunday, the occasion being a family reunion.

At the noon hour an elaborate four course menu was enjoyed. The table was centered with an immense bowl of bright nasturtiums.

Those enjoying the day were, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Reynolds of Tuscaloosa, Mr. and Mrs. Christian of N. Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Reynolds, Mr. Hoyt Reynolds and Miss Willadean Reynolds.

S. S. Class Enjoys Outing.

Miss Anna Prince carried the members of her Sunday School class on a stroll and picnic on last Friday evening. This merry party took a nice walk and enjoyed games on the high school grounds before the lovely lunch was spread. Fourteen little folks enjoyed this lovely outing.

Wednesday Club Entertained.

Miss Leona Pipes was the delightful hostess to the members of the Wednesday Card Club last Wednesday morning at her home. The apartments were prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and vases of bright summer blossoms. After a series of games the top score was held by Miss Lurline Harper and was presented a dainty apron.

A delicious salad plate concluded the morning's pleasure and was served to Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. E. Luckie, Misses Roberta Curry, Lurline Harper and Annie Gragg. Mrs. Guy Roberts will be hostess next week.

Mrs. R. E. Luckie and children returned home Wednesday from Montgomery, where they went to attend the 65th birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. S. A. Goodwyn.

Mr. Clarence Evans was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Evans, Monday.

Miscellaneous Shower for Bride.

Mrs. J. C. Jones and Mrs. M. L. White were charming hostesses on last Wednesday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Jones, when they paid a special courtesy to Mrs. Otis Levie of Sylacauga. The entire lower floor of this home was a scene of loveliness with a profusion of ferns and bright garden flowers, accentuating the rainbow colors.

The guests were met by Mrs. J. P. Hayes and Miss Maud Mullins, and introduced to the receiving line, consisting of Mesdames Jones, White, and Levie, who stood in the reception hall. From there Miss Cuba Keith invited them into the parlor, where the guests registered in the bride's book, presided over by Miss Warrene Spigener, niece of the bride. Then they were carried into the dining room where a most refreshing beverage was served by Misses Sarah Mullins and Sophia Mullins. The dining room being especially attractive with the rainbow colors prevailing. The punch bowl was embedded in masses of greenery intermingled with bright colored verbenas and other garden flowers.

The evening's musical program was excellent, consisting of several solos by Misses Roberta Curry and Willie Belle Sartor, and duets and piano numbers by Mrs Barney Roberts, Mrs. Robinson, Misses Beverly Hester, Gladys Nix, Edna Kemp and Ruth Robinson. An unusually interesting feature of the entertainment was a reading by Miss Warrene Spigener.

The gifts were brought in by an express company of three dainty little girls, Misses Hilda Hart, Eloise Rasberry and Nell Ross Mullins, each bringing a pretty express wagon filled with useful gifts. Late in the afternoon an ice course was served to about 75 guests.

Mrs. Levie, prior to her marriage, was Miss Mable Thomas of Clanton.

Juniors Enjoy Picnic.

The Junior girls of the Methodist Sunday School enjoyed a picnic on Monday evening at Cordrey's Mill Pond, south of Clanton. The party motored out and enjoyed wading for some time, then a lovely picnic lunch was spread, after which they motored back to Clanton. They were due to their teacher, Miss Gertrude Popwell, many thanks for the occasion.

Chicken Broil Given.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Church were a merry bunch on Tuesday evening when they were delightfully entertained at a chicken broil given at Mims Pond. At five o'clock the crowd motored out and the barbecuing of the chickens took place, some enjoying a swim before lunch time. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Barney Roberts.

Mrs. Grady Reynolds had as her guest last week Mrs. Toy Parsons of Mobile.

Miss Annie May Harper returned home Thursday afternoon, after an extended visit to Mr. and Mrs. Clark Harper in Columbus.

Mrs. Watts Moore left Friday for a weeks visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mullins in Cuthbert, Ga.

Mrs. G. L. Phillips left Monday morning for a visit to relatives in Birmingham.

The friends of Mr. Grady Reynolds will be glad to see that he is out again, after a spell of typhoid fever.

Prof. J. L. Johnson went over to Sylacauga on a business trip Tuesday.

Mrs. John Sewell of Deland, Fla., and Mrs. Clark Harper of Columbus, Ga., spent Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Luckie.

Mr. Frank Thomas was the guest of his mother, Mrs. E. W. Thomas, for the week end.

Misses Leona Pipes and Annie Gragg were shoppers in Birmingham last week.

Mrs. Hugh Jones returned home Sunday after a brief visit to relatives in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Christian of North Carolina are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pitts.

Mrs. Jake Sheperd and daughter, Ruth, are visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. Macy Jones has returned home after a few weeks stay in Montgomery.

DEMAND FOR TANLAC BREAKS ALL RECORDS

Amazing Success Achieved by Celebrated Medicine Not Only Phenomenal, But Unprecedented—Over 20,000,000 Bottles Sold in Six Years—Foreign Countries Clamor for It.

Never before, perhaps, in the history of the drug trade, has the demand for a proprietary medicine ever approached the wonderful record that is now being made by Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout this country and Canada. As a matter of fact, the marvelous success achieved by this medicine is not only phenominal, but unprecedented.

The first bottle of Tanlac to reach the public was sold just a little over six years ago. Its success was immediate and people everywhere were quick to recognize it as a medicine of extraordinary merit. Since that time there have been sold throughout this country and Canada something over Twenty Million (20,000,000) bottles, establishing a record which has probably never been equalled in the history of the drug trade in America.

Fame is International.

The instant and phenominal success which Tanlac won when it was first introduced has been extended to practically every large city, small town, village and hamlet in North America. Its fame has became international in its scope, and England, Japan, Mexico Cuba, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Alaska, and many European countries are clamoring for it.

From coast to coast and from the Great Lakes, Tanlas is known and honored. Millions have taken it with the most gratifying and astonishing results, and have pronounced it the greatest medicine of all time.

Tens of thousands of men and women of all ages in all walks of life, afflicted with stomach, liver and kidney disorders, some of them of long standing, as well as thousands of weak, thin, nervous men and women apparently on the verge of collapse, have testified that they have been fully restored to their normal weight, health and strength by its use.

Restored to Health.

Still others, who seemed fairly well, yet who suffered with indigestion, headaches, shortness of breath, dizzy spells, sour gassy stomachs, coated tongues, foulness of breath, constipation, bad complexion, loss of appetite, sleeplessness at night and of terribly dejected, depressed feelings, state that they have been entirely relieved of these distrssing symptoms and restored to health and happiness by the use of Tanlac.

POWER COMPANY PETITION IS PUT OFF BY FEDERAL COMM.

Reports that the Federal Power Commission had postponed indefinitely the petition of the Alabama Power Company for permission to construct a dam across the Coosa River at Duncan's Riffles, caused the Alabama Public Service Commission Tuesday to send long telegrams to John W. Weeks, Secretary of War, and Senator Underwood, urging that something be done to expedite the granting of these permits.

The commission said it is necessary to construct this additional unit in order that the interest of the state may be protected.

SLEEP WALKER IS BELIEVED LOST IN THE COOSA RIVER

Gadsden, Ala., June 27.—A strange case of somnambulism was reported here today. Annie Couch, fourteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Couch, walked from her bed in the Couch home Saturday night to a swing on the bank of the Coosa River at Hooks Bluff, which was used by boys in diving into the stream. From the swing, it is believed, the child dropped into the river, asleep all the while, and was drowned. Doctors gave it as an opinion that the child in a sub-conscious condition was following an impression made by watching boys go in swimming at that point on the river, and immitated them in her sleep.

All the members of the church are especially urged to come out next Sunday night to prayer meeting, which will be held directly after the B. Y. P. U. finishes its work.

Second Hand Coffin for Sale

"Now that I have been resurrected from the grave to which my stomach trouble was fast leading me and for which event I had made preparations, even to having bought my coffin, Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has made a new man of me and I feel as good as ever in my life, after having been at the point of death half a dozen times with acute indigestion and colic attacks." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal rac and allays the inflamation which cuses practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Co., and all druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

There was a fine Sunday School in attendance last Sunday, considering the hot weather, with something like 130 present. Two nice congregations also attended both preaching services. At night, the church was full to see the set of pictures in the series on the Life or Christ, and hear the logical argument presented in making a decision to the greatest question in the world, "What will you do with Jesus, which is called the Christ?"

The services will be held as usual next Sunday—morning at 11 a.m. and night at 8 p.m. The morning service will be followed by the ordinance of the Lords Supper.

We will appreciate your presence and cooperation.

REFUGE, BEAT FOUR

We had a large crowd at Sunday School Sunday at 10 o'clock. All had a good lesson. At 11 there was preaching by Rev. M. J. Parrish, who delivered one of the most able sermons to his hearers that we have ever heard. We pray God's blessings upon him, that he may hold out faithful to the end.

In the afternoon singing was called to order by president, J. L. Powell; prayer by R. N. Connell. Directors as follows: G. C. Powell, R. M. Robinson, E. L. Powell, J. W. Cleckler, 15 minutes each, then recess. J. E. Miner, G. C. Powell, R. M. Robinson, O. R. Robinson, three songs each. Dismissed with prayer by R. M. Robinson.

We thank all who visited our church and singing society. Our doors stand open to all. So come again.

The Home of the Soul.

In olden times it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton.

IN THE

Produce Business

I wish to announce to the public that I have purchased the Chicken and Feed Business of the Clanton Produce Company from Tom Taylor and Jesse Baker, and will operate that business in the future.

I have had quite a bit of experience in this line of business myself, and I have secured Mr. Jeff Ruffin to continue to work here with me.

Besides handling Produce I carry a very complete line of Feed Stuff, such as Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls, Corn, Oats, Mixed Feed, Hay, Dairy Feed, Perfection Shorts, Peanut Meal, Etc.

Come around to see us if you want to sell or bny anything in our line.

We will continue to make the same regular trips over the county that Mr. Taylor has been making.

THORSBY WILL STAGE GRAND CELEBRATION ON THE FOURTH DAY OF JULY

Don't forget the big Fourth of July Celebration, to be held on the Thorsby Institute Campus, at Thorsby, when the public installation of Blue Lodge officers of the Thorsby A. F. & A. M. Lodge and the officers of the Thorsby Chapter Eastern Star, will be held. At this instant addresses will be given by Bro. Beauvhants of Montgomery and Rev. J. M. Graham of Thorsby.

There will be two ball games in the afternoon, in conjunction with other sports during the day.

Bring well filled baskets, but if this is inconvenient, refreshments will be served. A general good time has been arranged for, and everybody is invited to come.

CLUB BANQUET

On last Friday night the Business Mens Club of Thorsby gave the ladies a big reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard. It was gotten up entirely by the men, furnishing all the refreshments and doing all the work without the aid of the fair sex, even in the kitchen.

Shortly after the guests had arrived coffee, lemonade, club sandwiches and cake were served, after which a number of impromptu speeches by the men were enjoyed. Some of the speeches were as follows: "The ups and downs of Jiggs," Mr. Reagan; "The joys of Marired life," Mr. Ernie Hanson; "How to have a peach of a time," Fred Howard; "The joys of Club Life," Louis Howard; "What a grand and glorious Feelin" Dr. Wood; "How would you tame the Katzenjammer Kids," Mr. N. C. Peterson; "What would you do if you had the Humor of Jeff and the disposition of Mutt?" Chas. Howard; a lawyer's plea before the jury—State of Alabama vs. Si Campbell, charged with the making of Mountain Dew, plea for the defendant, Mr. L. E. Diefenderfer; "The mental anguish of a base ball fan with three on bases and none out in the last half of the 9th inning, Babe Ruth at the bat on opposing side," by Broadus Connatser; "When a fellow needs a friend," James Bosworth; "Teaching a bunch of green horns," by J. O. Johnson; "What I feel like doing when my husband comes in home from the Club at 2:00 a.m.," Mrs. Regan. W. M. Parnell was toastmaster for the evening.

After the speeches music and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when ice cream on cantelopes were served with delicious cake.

About 42 guests were present and all who went reported the best time they have had in Thorsby for a long time. Long live the Club!

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since . . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too.

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY BEGINNING WORK ON DAM AT DUNCAN'S RIFFLES

Immense Structure Will Cost Around 7 Million Dollars, and Provide Work for one Thousand Men for two Years—Bigger than Lock 12.

Permit for building the 120,000 horse power dam at Duncans Riffles on the Coosa River, near Verbena, was issued by the Federal Power Commission last week, and the Alabama Power Company will in the immediate future begin construction and push the work to completion.

The dam will cost about $7,000,000 or $8,000,000 and will re quire 1,500 to 3,OOO men two years in the building. The plant is to have an ultimate capacity of 120,000 horse power of which 60,000 is to be developed with the original installation.

The dam is to be 74 feet high, and 1,800 feet long. It will be somewhat larger than the dam at Lock 12, which is 70 feet high and 1,600 feet long.

44 Miles Navigable Water.

The Duncans Riffles Dam will back water up to Lock 12, 14 miles north of it, and the two dams will have created 44 miles of navigable water on the Coosa which, up to that time, were not navigable. Two more dams one large one and one small one will complete the navigation scheme of the Coosa and render it open for traffic the year around between Rome Georgia, and the gulf, a distance of 800 miles.

With the lock at Duncans Riffles, the Alabama Power Company will have twice the present hydro-electric capacity. Demand for the additional power is a pressing one, the present capacity of the company not being near enough for the calls made on it by various industries and communities.

Preliminary work on the Duncans Riffle dam was begun last fall, but was interrupted by the inability to secure action by the power commission. Final permit to go ahead was not granted until last Tuesday.

The Alabama Power Company has filed the recent mortgage and deed of trust authorized by the stock-holders for the issuing of $25,000,000 of bonds. The mortgage is to the United States Mortgage and Trust Company of New York, and bonds will bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent. They are redeemable in gold not later than March 1, 1981.

With the flotation of this bond issue the Alabama Power Company is now prepared to go ahead with its development plans. It is nearing the completion of the additional unit of 20,000 horse power at the Lock 12 dam, and it has completed its transmission lines into northern Georgia, where it connects with the Georgia Railway, Light and Power Co., line, they in turn, being connected with the power of Tennessee and the Carolinas.

The power of the five states is thus made transmissible from point to point, according to the needs of places in the various states.

The new dam at Duncans Riffles will be known as Mitchell Dam, being so named after the late James Mitchell, president of the Alabama Power Company and builder of Lock No. 12.

President Martin's Statement.

Speaking of the new dam, President Thos. W. Martin said:

"The present demands for power made it necessary for work to be commenced at once. With the return of normal business, which we hope to see in the near futur, these demands will be incerased.

"The plant will have an ultimate capacity of 120,000 horse power and 60,000 horsepower will be installed at once.

"The construction will require about two years and power should be available for use from the new plant not later than July 1, 1923."

Work has also started on the building of a transmission line from the Lock 12 plant to the new site at Duncan's Riffles.

DEMOCRATS UNREASONABLE

Washington, Jdne 30.—"It is very truthfully and appropriately remarked by the Philadelphia North American that the Democrats gave Mr. Wilson eight years to mess things up, and now they are not willing to give Mr. Harding eight months to straighten things out. The Republicans have been in control but four months, and, in fact, have not had real control at all, for the laws and appropriations under which the government operates up to June 30, the end of the fiscal year, were signed by Mr. Wilson. President Wilson vetoed reform bills passed by the Republican Congress and would sign only those measures of which he fully approved.

Up to June 30, therefore, the government is still almost entirely under the Wilsonian regime. After June 30, the Republicans will be solely responsible for the manner in whicn the business of the government is conducted, except, of course, that they must arrange to pay the enormous debts the Democrats contracted.

But the Democratic press and the Democratic organization are not willing to give the Harding administration a chance to bring order out of the chaos into which the Wilson administration threw the country. The Democratic Federal Reserve Board sprung its deflation program upon the farmers in such a way as to force them to sell their crops at greatly reduced prices, after having produced them at war-time costs.

The McAdoo management of the railroads boosted wages, required the roads to pay for services not rendered, discouraged good service, and permitted the property to deteriorate. The railroads were taken over with money in their treasuries and turned back practically broke. The politicians placed by Mr. Wilson in charge of the departments and bureaus of the government swelled the government payrolls and organized the government service on a basis that cannot be immediately abandoned. The postal service was demoralized, importation of foreign goods was encouraged by a free trade law, and taxes were augmented by extravagant methods in the management of public business.

Mr. Wilson was given full sway for eight years in the pursuit of such policies as these, and the Democratic Congress almost invariably voted in accordance with the wishes of the executive. And, now, because Mr. Harding and the Republican Congress are not able to rectify the damage in four months, the Democrats set up a howl about broken promises.

MR. C. T. WALKER EXPLAINS WHERE CO. MONEY GOES TO Lawley, Ala., July 1, 1921.

Editor Union-Banner:

I have been asked the question: "Where does the county's money go?"

The following is a showing where some of it has gone:

For lumber and bridge work—
Beat 7, ... $293.92
Beat 8, ... 332.27
Beat 15, ... 220.50
Total bridge work, ... $846.69
Dipping cattle for Third District, about, ... $600.00
Total, ... $1,446.69

There has not been any work done that could have been avoided.

Yours truly,
C. T. WALKER.

HARP & HARMONY CONVENTION

The Chilton County Singing Convention using the Harp and Harmony Music Books will meet in special session at Pates Chapel, about two miles west of Thorsby, on the Fifth Sunday in July. Convention will open at 9 o'clock. All are invited.

TAX RELIEF FIRST

The suggestion of Senator Watson of Indiana that tax revision be given the right of way over tariff revision will be greeted with on "amen" from the great majority of American business men. "This country is in the midst of an intense economic reaction," declares the Senator. "This is not the fault of legislation. The country can rest assured that the tariff and revenue bills will pass, but my own thought is that we cannot revise business until we first repeal the excess profits taxes and the higher sur-taxes upon incomes."

Chairman Penrose, of the Senate Finance Committee, is quoted as saying that the tariff bill will come out of committee about the first of July and be passed after about two weeks debate in the House. But that his own committee would require "one or two months" to consider the measure when it reaches the Senate, and that supplemental hearings would be held on the bill. Meanwhile, unless the tax bill is disposed of, business must continue to mark time until about the end of the year. The present taxes "are depressive influences on business," says Senator Watson, "even though they are not to be paid, because the business depression will reduce their yield to a vanishing point. The situation condemns labor to idleness and the train of economic woes."

The question as to which should take precedence in legislation, the tax or the tariff bill, created considerable controversy early in the session. The year closed with a total of imports into this c untry of $5,279,000,000, which was a record-breaker in the trade history of this country and one calculated to excite a great deal of uneasiness in the minds of American producers. But comparing the first five months of the current year with the similar period of 1920, it will be seen that there has been a big slump in our import trade and the danger from that quarter has been lessened:

January	$474,000,000	$209,000,000
February	465,000,000	214,500,000
March,	524,000,000	252,000,000
April,	496,000,000	254,500,000
May,	431,000,000	205,000,000
Total,	$2,390,000,000	$1,135,000,000

With this falling off of over 50 per cent in imports, exports appear to be maintaining a satisfactory showing, those for the 11 months ended May 31 totaling $6,179,000,000, or 64 per cent of the total trade for the period named.

The thing which is holding business in fetters more than any other factor is the Democratic system of taxation, and until that is wiped out it will be impossible for business to put the slogan of the day "Let's Go!" into action. On the other hand, trade conditions the world over, wages and production costs, and all the other incidents of commerce, have by no means recovered from the demoralization of the war, though they are slowly rounding into recognizable form. Again, as Senator Watson very pertinently remarked: "We can formulate a tariff bill, but with the present disturbances of international exchange, the derangement of e conomic life all over the globe, conditions will inevitably make some details of any bill we bring out obsolete within six months."

It is the hope of the producers of the country that the next Republican tariff law will remain in force for some time. Therefore, it must require infinite pains and study to perfect it. If need be, the emergency tariff law can be extended for a few months. But the country is almost unanimous in its demand for relief from present taxation.

DESERTERS FROM DRAFT OF WAR FROM CHILTON COUNTY

Headquarters Fourth Corps Area, Fort McPherson, Ga.

June 25th, 1921.

The men whose names appear below, and who were under the jurisdiction of the local board named, were, according to the public draft records, classified and reported by the draft authorities as deserters from the military service of the United States. Actual expenses not to exceed $50 to include reimbursement for the amount actually expended, but not to include allowance for services, will be paid to any civil officer or other citizen for the apprehension and delivery to military control of any one of them. If any one of them is apprehended, he should be delivered at, and reimbursement for the actual expenses incurred by the arresting officer should be claimed at, the nearest Army post, camp or station.

The law (106th Article of War) provides that: "It shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States, to arrest offenders, summarily to arrest a deserter from the military service of the United States and deliver him into the custody of the military authorities of the United States."

WHOSE WAR WAS IT ANYHOW?

Some of the papers, notably the Detroit Free Press, are romping on the American Federation of Labor because they passed a resolution calling for an amendment to the Constitution which leaves the declaration of war to a vote of the people. We can't see why it wouldn't be just as well to leave it to the men who must do the fighting and get killed as to leave it to the munition manufacturers and others who stay at home and rob the government while the war is going on. The men who did the fighting in the world war had nothing to say or do about bringing it on. It was such "patriots" as Tom Heflin, who was willing to sacrifice all his wife's poor relations on the altar of Democracy. You remember Tom, who is a big, raw-boned, double-fisted, healthy giant, took a notion that he was badly needed at Washington "to uphold the hands of the President," just about the time the fighting commenced. Tom was powerful thirsty for gore, also the steel corporation, the duPonts, Morgans and the Rockefellers, but they wanted the other fellow to get the gore. We see no reason why we shouldn't leave it to the other fellow who has to go after the gore. But then if the last war had been left to the fellow who must fight, it is admitted that there would have been no war, and our munition makers would now be paupers.—The Collinsville Courier.

Dr. Gragg and his two boys, Thomas and Vincent, and Mr. Felix Woodyard, returned last Saturday from a fishing trip to Coosa River. They brought back a "yellow cat" which was about the largest one we have seen this year. He would have weighed around fifty pounds. But Dr. Gragg declares they let one get away that would have weighed a heap more than the big one they caught. We don't doubt the latter statement of the Doctor, because we claim to be fisherman enough to know that it is always the biggest one that gets away.

If the Republicans do not get busy and adjust conditions quickly you can safely wager on a Democratic Congress at the next election.—Tuscaloosa News.

According to reports from Democratic papers, which is the source of all our information, they have so far done nothing—not repealed any of the Democratic laws passed by a Democratic Congress; that being the case, and you want to kick, go out behind the barn and kick yourself. You can't expect us Republicans to undo in four years the tangle you got us into during eight years of extravagance of Baker, Burleson & Co. If you do, you are 'specting too much.—Collinsville Courier.

The fellow who is disappointed now because the Republicans have not in four months repaired all the damage the Democrats did to this country in eight years, that fellow sure was expecting wonders to come out of Mr. Harding's administration. Not even his fondest supporters thought he would do such miraculous things, let alone those who were agin him.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Everybody Help.

General Dawes, the head of the new Budget Bureau, is not asking too much when he indicates to business men of the country that he wants their help without compensation. The purpose of the Budget Bureau is to cut government expenses. The business men of the country are demanding a reduction of expenses. You cannot expect to get economy in the public business through men who never had any successful private business of their own, neither can you expect men of large business affairs to work for the government at the salaries the government is willing to pay. Dr. Dawes does not want any man to give his whole time to the government but does want a number of men to give him and his bureau the benefit of their knowledge of best methods of organization. Mr. Dawes, like President Harding, does not claim to "know it all." He does not pretend to be a super-man. Congress has already cut two and a half billions out of the demands of the executive departments in the past two years, and Mr. Dawes intends to show them how the executive department under a Republican administration can cooperate in an effort to cut out some billions in the future. He is entitled to all the help the business minds of the country can give him.

No Dictatorship.

President-Harding has once more signified his desire that legislative matters should be handled strictly by Congress, that there should be no interference by the executive with the authority of the legislative. Senator McCumber, who has the soldiers bonus bill in charge, recently gave the Senate to understand that "the President had no desire to interfere with the functions of Congress and would withhold his judgment until the bonus measure came before him in the regular channels of legislative procedure." Up to that time he proposes to remain outwardly neutral. This is by no means the first occasion on which the President has refused to intervene in Congressional matters. This is no longer a one-man goverment, but each branch of it is to be held responsible for its own acts and to receive credit for its constructive accomplishments. The quicker that fact is appreciated, the sooner will agreementes be reached. The day of "running to teacher" is over.

Progressive Outside the League.

There is to be an American-Japanese Conference for the purpose of adjusting differences. A France-German economic conference is on which is certain to create greater harmony. The Greco-Turkish war bids fair to yield to arbitration. The Panama-Costa Rica boundary dispute has been laid aside. And the league of nations celebrated its birthday June 25th. That is about all there was for the league to celebrate, since it has accomplished nothing, has been ignored by everybody, and is about as important in the world of events as the third handle on the modern loving-cup.

Shreve Supports Veterans Bureau.

The bill to establish the veterans bureau was ably supported by Congressman Milton W. Shreve of Pennsylvania. Mr. Shreve has had brought home to him in a very forceful way the need of better coordination among the bureaus for soldier relief. He relates the case of two men suffering from tuberculosis for whom he sought to get proper hospitalization, but before it could be accomplished both men had died, one of them in the county almshouse. The Congressman has received scores of communications from ex-soldiers and others in his district commending him upon the stand he took regarding the legislation. "The passage of the bill" declared Mr. Shreve, "will do much to restore confidence and pride and a better feeling among these men who so justly deserve all the nation can do for them."

Back to the Work.

"I was reprimanded," said Admiral Sims. "I got what was coming to me. I spilled the beans. I am sorry to have caused the administration any embarassment. The fact is, I didn't know it was loaded—at least, so much." So the London speech incident is closed and the Democratic party has once more failed to start a fight in Republican ranks. The occasion simply added to the gaiety of nations, and we have resumed our occupations with the saw and ax, and the pruning hook.

FROM CONGRESSMAN JEFFERS

Major Lamar Jeffers, recently elected to represent this District in the United States Congress, writes The Union-Banner a leter telling of his entry into the House and taking the oath of office. His letter was dated June 30th, and had the following to say:

"I have just gotten started in my office here, having been sworn in last Monday at noon. I was to have been sworn in last Friday, but Speaker Gillett was away and the temporary speaker thought he did not have the authority to administer the oath to new members.

"On Tuesday I was appointed to three committees—the committee on reforming the Civil Service, the commitee on election of President, vice-president, and representatives in Congress and the committee on flood control. None of these are major committees, but all of them have, from time to time, important work before them. Coming in three months after the beginning of the session, and being on the minority side of the House, I could not of course expect any assignment to the major committees at the start, because the places on these commitees were all taken at the beginning of the session. However, being assigned to these committees is at least recognition, and I hope to be able to prove of service on these committees and be in line for assignment to heavier committees when there are openings.

"Please give my regards to all the boys and let me hear from any of you whenever I can be of service.

"Thanking you, and with good wishes, I am

Yours very truly,
LAMAR JEFFERS."

The definite announcement by the Alabama Power Company that the w rk of building the new dam and power plant at Duncan's Riffles on the Coosa River will start at once comes as welcome tidings to the people of Chilton County, and particularly to those who live in and near Clanton, Coopers and Verbena. This development, according to announcement will employ from one to two thousand men for a period of about two years. Such a program should put every idle man in this section of the state to work. The Power Company has said that they will give the local laborers preference on the jobs that are to be opened up, which we think is a decision worthy of great praise. We feel like Chilton county is particularly fortunate to have the Alabama Power Company locate the seat of their great industrial system on our soil. Our future generations of men and women will be the beneficiaries of this great institution.

YEAST FILLS OUT HOLLOWS IN SUNKEN CHEEKS

Science finds that people become thin, weak and sickly because their food lacks one vitally necessary element called vitamines.

Yeast contains billions of vitamines, and is great for building good solid flesh and muscle. People formerly ate yeast cakes but the best and easiest way to take vitamines into the system is to take Ironized Yeast which contains highly concentrated brewer's yeast (very effective) in tablet form. It also contains iron, the great blood builder, making the work of the vitamines doubly effective. Many say that with ironized Yeast it is easy to gain as much as a pound a day. Quickly rids the skin of pimples, blackheads, etc.

The fact that such a reliable drug store as Upchurch Drug Co., highly recommends Ironized Yeast, indicates that it is well worth trying. Special directions for children in each package.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper —secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigaretty aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.

Mission Study Spend-the-Day Party.

A mission study session of the Womans Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, which was held at the residence of Mrs. D. M. Pearson last Wednesday, proved a delightful social event and a beneficial session to the members present. There were 20 present and they met at 10 o'clock for a study of "The Church and the Community." Various phases of comunnity life were discussed. The chapters were ably explained by Mrs. Barney Roberts, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Kicker, and Mrs. Elbert Littlejohn, bringing out the point of cooperation as being the fundamental principle of community life.

At the noon hour a lovely lunch was enjoyed with Rev. Roberts and wife of Verbena and Pastor Carter as invited guests. The study was continued into the afternoon until late when the meeting closed with prayer by Rev. P. G. Carter.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

This day came A. C. Smith, administrator of the estate of M. E. Martin, deceased, and filed his petition in writing under oath in this Court, for an order to sell certain lands belonging to said estate, described in said petition, for paying the debts due by said estate, upon the ground that the personal property of said estate is insufficient for the payment of the debts.

It is therefore ordered that the 8th day of August, 1921, be appointed a day for the hearing of said petition, when any persons interested may appear and contest the said application if they think proper.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
6-30-3t Judge of Probate.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENTS

The State of Alabama Chilton Co., —Probate Court.

To H. C. Martin, Ed Martin, Odis Hilyer, Cora Webster and Hughie Hilyer, non-residents of the State of Alabama, take notice that A. C. Smith, administrator of the estate of M. E. Martin, deceased, has filed application in said court for a sale of the lands described therein, belonging to the estate of said decedent, for the purpose of paying the debts due by said estate, and the 8th day of August, 1921, has been appointed for the hearing of said application.

You are, therefore, hereby notified to appear before the said court on said 8th day of August, 1921, to contest said application, if you think proper.

Witness my hand, this the 27th day of June, 1921.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
6-30-3t Judge of Probate.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlains Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

PHYSIOLOGICAL ACTION OF TANLAC EXPLAINED

World's Leading Authorities Show Just What Tanlac Really Is, and Explain Effect of Each of Ten Ingredients on the Human System. The Power of Medicine Conclusively Proven.

A day never passes but what thousands of people ask the questions: What is Tanlac? Why its phenominal success? Why do we hear so much about it? and why has this preparation so far out-stripped all other medicines of its kind?

The answer to these questions is easy and can be explained in just one word—merit. Tanlac is scientifically compounded and represents years of work, study, experimentation and research by some of the foremost chemists and pharmacologists of America.

The Tanlac formula is purely ethical and complies with all National and State pure food laws. It is purely vegetable and is made from the most beneficial roots herbs and barks known to Materia Medica. The Tanlac Laboratories are among the largest and most modernly equipped in this country.

Ten Ingredients in Tanlac.

Altogether, there are ten ingredients in Tanlac, each of which is of recognized therapeutic value.

In referring to one of the more important ingredients of Tanlac, the Encyclopedia Britanica says:

"It has been the source of the most valuable tonic medicines that have ever been discovered."

In referring to other of the general tonic drugs contained in Tanlac, the 13th Edition of Potter's Thereapeutics, a standard medical text book, states that "they impart general tone and strength to the entire sysem, including all organs and tissues."

This same well-known authority in describing the physological action of still another of the ingredients of Tanlac, which is of value in treating what is commonly known as a "run-down condition," uses the following expression:

"It is highly esteemed in loss of appetite during convalescence from acute diseases."

There are certain other elements in Tanlac which, because of their influence upon the appetite, digestion, assimilation and elimination, improve the nutrition and vital activity of all the tissues and organs of the body and produce that state of general tonicity which is called health.

The United States Dispensatory makes the following comment regarding another ingredient:

"It may be used in all cases of pure debility of the digestive organs or where a general tonic impression is required."

There are certain other ingredients described in the Dispensatory, and in other standard medical text-books, as having a beneficial action upon the organs of secretion, whose proper functioning results in a purification of the blood streams passing through them. In this manner, objectionable and poisonous ingredients of the blood are removed and the entire system invigorated and vitalized.

Tonic and Body Builder.

Tanlac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time, however, it is a powerful reconstructive tonic and a body builder, for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and the thorough elimination of the waste products must, therefore, have a far-reaching and most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

PASTORS & WORKERS CONFER

The next meeting of the Pastsors and Workers Conference will be held at Jemison Baptist Church on Monday, July 11. The following programme has been arranged:

"The Person and Work of the Holy Spirit," by Rev. P. G. Carter.

"The Scriptural Teaching on the Duty of Tithing," by Rev. T. J. Deason.

"The Laymens and Womens Responsibilities in Work of the Church," by Bros. W. T. Billingsley and W. T. Johnson.

These meetings are proving very interesting and profitable to all who attend, and are open to all the brethren and sisters of our churches in the Unity and Chilton County Associations. They are not exclusive for preachers, but for all the lay workers. Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

VERBENA

The third Sunday School Convention for the year 1921 of District No. 5, was held at Verbena Methodist Church Sunday, July 3rd. Tho the attendance was not as great as in some former conventions, and tho some of the speakers were absent, yet those who did attend manifested much interest, and a very beneficial meeting was held.

11:00, a.m. An able address on "Religious Conditions in the Orient" by Miss Gibson.

11:30. "The Qualifications of a Teacher," Rev. White.

12:00. Adjourn for dinner.

1:30. Devotional, Judson Strock.

1:40. "Duties of Superintendents," J. C. Patillo.

2:10. "Purpose of Sunday School" E. G. Moore.

2:30. Address by D. J. Flummer.

3:00. Report of Sunday Schools.

3:20. Adjourn.

We wish to thank the people of Verbena for their hospitality and especially for the splendid dinner that was served to all.

W. A. CALLOWAY, Pres.,
ALFRED JONES, Secy.

COLLINS CHAPEL

The Oak Hill and Union Grove Singing Society met with Collins Chapel class Sunday evening, and the singing was fine.

The society meets with Union Grove next Sunday evening. We ask everyone who can to be present and lets have a good time and a good singing. E. L. GLASSCOCK.

Billiousness and Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with billiousnes and constipation which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

FRIENDSHIP

There was very good attendance at Sunday School Sunday morning and at prayer meeting Sunday night. Before prayer meeting the literature of the B. Y. P. U. was given out. No program was rendered by the Union as the quarterlies and other literature did not arrive in time. The B. Y. P. U. will meet again next Sunday night at 7:30.

Next Sunday morning there will be Sunday School at 10 o'clock as usual. In the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock the Friendship Singing Society will meet in regular session. All singers are invited to come out.

Nearly all of our singing class went over to Samaria last Sunday evening to help them sing. A fine time was enjoyed by all.

Last Sunday night at prayer meeting it was voted by the members of the church that instead of beginning our protracted meeting on the Fourth Sunday our next regular meeting day, that we begin it about Thursday before the Fourth Sunday in July. So if nothing prevents, this will prevail. Definite announcements will be made later through the paper and otherwise.

LIBERTY HILL

The singing society met again Sunday aftenoon with a large crowd and good singing. The directors for the afternoon were, Glover Smith, Ammie Boswell, Maxie Boswell, Claudie and Lillie Smith. A solo was rendered by Claudie Cmith. A mixed quartette was sung by Misses Marie Morris, Eula Foshee, Edna Littlejohn and Blanch Riggins, Messrs Glover Smith, Ammie Boswell, L. V. Riggins, and D. W. Ward. An octette was rendered by Etta Foshee, Blanche Riggins, Gertrude and Claude Smith, Glover Smith, Ammie Boswell, Alphus Littlejohn and L. V. Riggins. A duet was rendered by Necie Smith, Macie Littlejohn, Willie Riggins and Gresham Smith, which are four of our younger boys and girls who have just begun studying music, and they have made a splendid start showing their courage and zeal towards doing something worth while in life.

Our society will meet again July 17. We invite everybody to come and be with us. We thank the audience too for their good attention.

J. P. Gentry of Jemison was a visitor to Clanton last Saturday. He was complaining of the dry weather and poor crop prospects.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

The intense hot weather is injurious to church congregations, but should be a test of o ur loyalty to the cause by our faithful attendance. The preacher has the hottest job of all, and is doubly hard when the seats are empty.

Reasonably good congregations were present at both services last Sunday, and a fine Sunday School of 100 in attendance.

Notwithstanding the hot weather, let us be loyal in attendance during the hardest period in the year for church work.

Services will be held next Sunday as usual, with preaching by the pastor.

The Sunday School B. Y. P. U.'s will meet at their regular hours.

Everybody is cordially invited to come to these services.

W. M. U. TO MEET

The quarterly meeting of the W. M. U. of the Unity Association will meet at Samaria Church, Saturday, July 16th. All the members are requested to be there.

A Splendid Medicine for the Stomach and Liver.

"Chamberlain's Tablets for the stomach and liver are splendid. I never tire of telling my friends and neighbors of their sualities," writes Mrs. William Vollmer, Eastwood, N. Y. When billious, constipated, or troubled with indigestion, give them a trial. They will do you good.

On the 16th of July a treat along the musical line will be given you, when the Lutheran Choral Society will render a concert. Quite an elaborate program has been arranged, which consists of choir anthems, vocal and piano solos, duets quartetts, trios, readings, etc. We are sure that it will be a program worth listening to. A small admission fee will be charged. After the concert light refreshments will be served in the church grove for the small sum of 10c. The proceeds will go to help pay for the piano, which the young people purchased for the church a short time ago. Don't forget the date—Saturday night, July 16th.

Next Thursday, the 14th of July, the Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Inga Howard. All members and friends are invited.

B. Y. P. U. TRAINING SCHOOLS

There will be a B. Y. P. U. Training School, taught by Mr. Thos. E. Swearingin, a state field worker, in the evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock, July 10 to 17, 1921. This course is given to all young people and older ones too, who would like to attend. The Thorsby B. Y. P. U. invites all the young people to come and be their guests during the school. Don't let this opportunity go by. Remember the school is free to all.

If you are not a member of a B. Y. P. U. come and learn more of the work. Mr. Swearingin and the Thorsby Union are expecting all the wide awake young people from all the churches around, from New Salem, Collins Chapel, Union Grove, Pates Chapel, and any others who can attend. Come and let us make this a profitable as well as an enjoyable week.

There will be similar courses given by Mr. Swearingin at the following churches for the benefit of the young people of these churches:

Macedonia, July 17 to 19;
Liberty Hill, July 20 to 23
Verbena, July 24 to 26;
Friendship, July 27 to 29.

Last Wednesday night Miss Naemi Turnquist entertained the members of the Lutheran Choral Society. A short program was rendered which contained the following numbers: vocal solo, Miss Ellen Swanson; Reading, "A musical Bath," Walter Johnson; vocal duet, Agnes Gerald and Naemi Turnquist; and a short talk by Mr. C. R. Foss. After the program games were played, after which punch and cake were served. The society intends to have one social gathering every month. This is a new organization and they boast of having about fifteen members.

Misses Bertha and Vercie Littleton had as their guests during the Fourth their nieces, Misses Mae and Bessie Horsley of Birmingham.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wallace of Paulette, Miss., visited Miss Lena Franklin last week. Mrs. Wallace will be remembered by her A. G. T. I. friends as Miss Myrtle Brown of Ozark.

Mrs. J. A. Cadell of Montgomery has been visiting her uncle, Mr. B. T. Franklin and family this week.

Misses Etha Nix and Miriah Freeman spent Thursday of this week in Thorsby visiting Miss Lena Franklin.

Mrs. Marie Forsman returned last Tueday from Chicago, where she spent several weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Larkins.

Miss Agnes Leary has as her guest this week Miss Gray of Birmingham.

Miss Alpha Bentley left last week for her home in Birmingham. Miss Bentley is a sister of E. N. Bentley, with whom she lived while attending school at Clanton last year. She became a popular girl in Thorsby and her many friends here were sorry to see her leave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Robinson, formerly of Clanton, have moved to Thorsby and are occupying one of the Villadsen cottages.

Mr. W. M. Parnell made a business trip to Clanton Tuesday.

Miss Mae Parnell spent Saturday in Birmingham doing some shopping.

Misses Clara Crumpton and Agnes Kemp of Clanton are the guests of Misses Louise and Juanita Connatser this week.

On the night of the Fourth after a most enjoyable day in Thorsby a party of young folks motored down to Mims Pond to cool off. Those in the party were Misses Agnes Gerald, Lorena Graham, Naemi Turnquist, Arthur Villadsen, Broadus Connatser, and Walter Parnell.

Mrs. W. J. Billingsley had as her guests last week Mrs. Bice, Mrs. Mims and Miss Gertrude Downs of Billingsley, Ala. They returned home on Monday.

Don't forget that next week Mr. Swearingin will be here and will give a B. Y. P. U. training course, at the Baptist Church.

HOT! HOT! HOT!—Everybody says it is, so we suppose that it must be true. However, every time you say "Whew, its hot," it gets just one degree hotter; so there you are making it worse for yourself. Lets try and forget about it, and get ready for bigger and better business this fall.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

. . . I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

MRS. TUPPER CALLED HOME

After a long illness, Mrs. Margaret E. Tupper, aged 81, quietly passed away last Monday evening. Since coming to Thorsby fourteen years ago, Mrs. Tupper has made her home with the family of Rev. E. W. Butler, whose wife is her only living child. Two sisters in Illinois survive her, and four grandchildren in the Butler family. Mr. Clarence T. Butler of Montgomery, and Margaret, Richard and Dorothy, younger children in the Butler home at Thorsby. Mr. Clarence Butler accompanied the body to Griggsville, Illinois for burial beside her husband, the late Rev. Henry Martin Tupper, and her two sons. Mrs. Tupper was a member of the Congregational Church at Thorsby. She was a little woman of unusual intellect and vitality, who spent a long and useful life devoted to good works.

Quite a good deal of interest was aroused in the article of a past issue relating to a large still, which the article said was found in Thorsby. We were about to send in our thanks for the compliment, but found upon investigation that it was outside of the city limits; consequently we cannot claim the credit, but leave it to Chilton County. We hope that our citizens have plenty of spirits, but not of the kind referred to.

IN MEMORYY OF N. J. CALLOWAY

Mr. N. J. Calloway was born Oct. 7, 1847, and departed this life June 28, 1921. He joined the Baptist Church at the age of 16, and began an active Christian life.

He was married to Miss Nancie Caffee while only a young man. He was a true and loyal husband to her till she died in 1888. Mr. Calloway was married to Miss Alice White in 1890.

Years ago Mr. Calloway was ordained a Deacon in the Salem Church. Later he moved near Clanton and was in the organization of the Samaria Church. He was found to be very faithful at all times. Bro. Calloway was always at his post of duty in Sunday School, and in all phases of church work, unless hindered by sickness.

He leaves a wife, six children, and a host of friends to mourn his leaving. H. G. WILLIAMS.

SAID CAN'T BE DONE

"My experience with doctors and medicines caused me to lose faith in both, and when a friend told me that Mayr's Wonderful Remedy would cure my stomach trouble, I told him 'it can't be done.' However, he finally persuaded me to try it and to my surprise it did. All symptoms of acute indigestion and gas having disapeared." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal musuc from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Co., and all druggists everywhere.

Mrs. Hugh Merchant and children of Centerville were in Clanton last week visiting at the home of her father, C. C. Crumpton and brother, Dr. J. P. Crumpton.

Mr. W. J. Morris of Baker School House was a visitor to The Union-Banner Saturday. He mentioned the next annual county convention of the old time singers that is to be held at Lomax the first Sunday in September, which is expected to be a grand occasion for those who love the old time melodies.

Rev. Job Reynolds of Jemison was a visitor to Clanton last Friday. This was his first visit to Clanton since Christmas. His health has been poor for several months. It was a pleasure to have him visit us, and we hope he may be able to come back many more times.

CORINTH SERVICES

After Sunday School Sunday morning we were called back in the church for singing at 10:30, when the following program was rendered: Edward Taylor, W. M. Devaughn, Lee Robinson, three songs each. At 11 o'clock, Bro. J. D. Hughes preached to us from the 17th chapter of St. John.

At 2:45, p.m. our singing society was called to order by song by A. L. Robinson, the president, and prayer was offered by Bro. Dewie Hughes. The program for the first lesson was A. M. Jones, W. M. Devaughn, Edward Taylor, three songs each; recess 10 minutes. Then Crayton Norris, Lee Robinson, J. F. Dubose, 3 songs each.

Everyone present seemed to give undivided attention to the service.

MOSES A. KILLGORE DEAD

The sudden death of Moses A. Killgore on last Friday night at his home at "Killgore's Gap," came as a surprise to his friends throughout the county. He had been in his usual state of health and activity, except a few days of minor ailment last week. He had not ceased his usual work up to the day preceding his death.

It is reported that some time during Friday night Mr. Killgore awoke from his sleep and told his wife he was going to die if something were not done to save him. At once he lapsed into unconsciousness and died.

Mr. Killgore had been a prominent figure in Chilton County in the past. He was elected Sheriff of this county in August, 1900, served about two years, and resigned. He became well known over the entire county, and had many friends who will regret to learn of his death. He was buried at Cane Creek.

MEN and FIGURES

A Bank's solvency is more than a matter of figures. A balanced statement of condition, with its array of figures is accepted by the public in confidence proportionate to the confidence in the men behind the figures.

DOVE LIGHTS AT LAST

Washington, July 11.—Peace with Germany is at last a fact. Almost two years and eight months after the actual cessation of hostilities, the war, so far as the United States is concerned, is officially declared at an end. There is no more remarkable chapter in the history of the country than that recounting the events of the armistice period. The people have been helpless to bring an earlier peace. Their Senators and Representatives in Congress performed their duty when they enacted a peace resolution last winter and sent it to the President for his signature, but he negatived their efforts with an executive veto. He served notice to the country and the world that he intended the war to continue until peace could be written on terms dictated by him alone.

But those terms held little favor with the great majority of the people, and through their Republican Senators they proclaimed their preference for technical war rather than submit to dictation by a coterie of foreign diplomats in all their future dealings with the other nations of the world. As the months go by added proof is forthcoming of the wisdom of our Republican legislators in refusing to bind the country as the Democratic President urged. Extolled as the means by which the world would be regenerated and saved from all future wars, the league of nations has become a complete nonentity. With more than 40 members, including the greatest powers of the world other than the United States, it has utterly failed to prevent fighting in various parts of the earth; in fact, practical measures for peace have not been even attempted.

It has been proclaimed many times that without the United States as a member, the league of nations could not successfully function. That has beem amply demonstrated, but along with the demonstration has gone the realization that if the United States were to become a member she would be called upon to carry into execution herself all the onerous duties imposed by the provi.ions of the league covenant. Those nations that are so faithless in carrying out their own obligations under that instrument, would be the first to hold the United States to strict accountability for the fullest performance of her own pledges.

The approval of the resolution marked the final act in bringing the country independence from the internationalism that has hung over it for so long. The future celebrations of Independence Day will have a two-fold significance. They will commemorate our freedom in 1921 from the dastardly attempt to return to that domination. The executive approval of the peace resolution is the crowning incident to thte most glorious achievement of the Republican party.

FRIENDSHIP CHURCH

Sunday School was held here last Sunday as usual. A good attendance was present, and much interest was manifest in the lesson.

The singing society met in the afternoon about 2:00 o'clock, and about two hours of fine singing was enjoyed.

In the evening at 8:00 o'clock the B. Y. P. U. met in their first session. no formal program was rendered as the program committee had not had a chance to arrange a program, but topics were assigned for discussion next Sunday night, when we will have a real B. Y. P. U. Much interest was shown Sunday night in the work by the young folks, both church members and non-church members. The membership committee reported an addition of 11 new members to the roll. We urge all of the young people of the community to join the Union and help us out in this noble work. It belongs to the young folks, and the young folks are going to show the old heads what we can do.

Mr. Thomas E. Swearingen, who is conducting a B. Y. P. U. School at Thorsby this week is coming down to Friendship Friday, July 15, and give us two lessons in B. Y. P. U. work, one at 10:00, a.m. and one at 2:30, p.m. Every young person in the community, and especially the active members of the Union are urged to be present at these two hours. Remember it is tomorrow, Friday, July 15.

HARDING JOINS REDMEN

Washington, July 7. — President Harding was initiated today into the Improved Order of Redmen, national officers of the order administering all three degrees at a special ceremony in the President's office at the White House.

Lomer Giles of Gorgas sent us his subscription to The Union-Banner this week. Thank you, Mr. Giles.

SHOULTS NEWS

The health of this community is very good at present.

Our Sunday School is progressing nicely under the careful management of Mr. H. R. Oden. We are proud to see the young people taking such an interest in the Sunday School, and we hope to get the older people interested too.

Miss Eva Hall, who has been visiting her brother in Mississippi has returned home. We missed her in our Sunday School and we are blad to have her with us again.

Misses Eva, Rosa and Etta Hall and Mr. F. A. Ellie and wife, spent the Fourth at Mr. C. T. Walker's.

Miss Myrtle McAfee had as her guest Sunday Miss Eva Hall.

Mr. Bennie McAfee dined with Mr. Martin Ingram Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Ingram visited her sister, Mrs. Pearl Ellis Sunday.

The entertainment at Miss Eva Hall's Saturday was enjoyed by a lage crowd. Mr. Grady and Leonard McGee rendered some excellent music for the occasion.

Mr. J. R. McAfee and three children from Oklahoma have come to spend the summer months relatives here.

Mrs. Jane Merchant spent the 4th of July with Mrs. C. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence and little girl have been visiting their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lawrence.

Miss Sallie Lee Bearden has had as her guest Miss Minnie Griffin from Siluria.

The young people are going to meet at the church Sunday p.m. at 2:30 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a B. Y. P. U. Lets every one come and do our part and I am sure we will have a success, and let's none of us be shirkers.

CEDAR GROVE

The Cedar Grove Singing Society met Sunday afternoon, July 10, and elected Mr. G. D. Melton Chairman and Mr. J. D. Price Assistant. We will meet every second and fourth Sunday afternoon.

The songs were conducted by Prof. J. M. Lowry and Mr. G. D. Melton. Organists were Mesdames Zelma Littlejohn, Marietta Collins and Miss Bonnie Littlejohn. We were glad to have some of the Liberty Hill singers with us, and we invite them to come again next fourth Sunday. We also invite all singers and lovers of music to come and be with us.

REGISTRATION

Attention is called to the notice of registration published in this paper. Posters have also been sent to every Beat in the County advertising the session of the Registrars to be at the court house in Clanton from July 20 to July 30. Mr. J. W. E. Gulledge, Chairman of the Board is making every effort in his power to have all the people of the county know about the opportunity, for voters to register. He is asking that someone announce the registration at every church service or gathering of any kind from now until the 30th of this month, so that all who are entitled to register and be come voters may come before the Board at the court house and get their certificate.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

Editor Union-Banner:

Please give us space in your paper to express our sincere thanks to the people of this section and to Doctors Johnson and McNeil, and Esquire Jos. E. Cobb, for their great kindness to us during the siscknes and death of our husband and father, Mr. J. L. Smith, who passed away July 4. We never can forget them. May Heaven's blessings rest on them all.

A wedding of interest, and which came as a surprise to their many friends, occured last Sunday morning, when Miss Flossie Robinson and Mr. Sam Foshee were united in holy bonds of matrimony, by Bro. Nelson. Those who witnessed this affair were Mr. Rufus Turner, Miss Dovie Foshee, Mr. Marion Nelson and Miss Bessie Robinson, sister of the lovely bride. After the wedding they all motored back to the home of the bride, where a most delicious dinner was served. Late in the afternoon the three couples enpoyed a lovely ride.

Their many friends join in wishing them much happiness and success in future life.

COLLINS CHAPEL

There will be singing at this place Sunday afternoon, July 17. The Oak Hill and Union Grove class will be with us. Let everybody come who can and let us make our singing a success.

Messrs. W. T. Jeter and L. H. Johnson of Bessemer were in Clanton Monday. They are contemplating establishing a bus line from here to Mitchell Dam, by way of Coopers. They own three 15-passenger Reo Busses, which they propose to put into use on this line.

WEST CHILTON

After a long drouth, this section is being visited with refreshing rains.

Mr. Gat Smith died on the 4th inst., after a long illness. He was buried at Union Springs Cemetery on the 5th, by the Masonic Fraternity, attended by an extremely large gathering of his friends. The funeral service was conducted largely by eulogies by those who knew him best.

DEEP PLOWING PAYS

A practical demonstration of the advantages of deep plowing in the preparation of land for farming can be seen on the place of Mr. Dudley Collins. The recent dry weather has served to make the difference between deep and shallow plowing particularly noticeable in this instance.

The field which provides the illustration is about six acres in area and is planted in corn. Back in the spring Mr. R. C. McDavid of the Clanton Motor Car Co., carried a Fordson Tracton and plow out to Mr. Collins' place to demonstrate the machine in the breaking of land. A start was made in the center of the six-acre tract, and it was plowed in a circle until the sides of the field were touched. This left the corners not plowed. The tractor plowed the ground nine inches deep. Mr. Collins used a two-horse plow to break up the corners that were not plowed by Mr. McDavid with the tractor, going to a depth of only four or five inches.

Corn was planted in the entire field at the same time, the same fertilizer used, and the same methods of cultivation applied. Now it can be seen that the corn on the ground plowed deep with the tractor is at least 25 per cent better than that in the corners of the field where it was not plowed so deep. A difference of a foot or more in the height of the corn can be seen by looking at the field. The corn on the ground that was plowed deep has withstood the dry weather much better than that on the ground plowed shallow.

Mr. McDavid believes, and rightly too, that the farmers do not have to have a great deal of rain in this country to make a fair crop of corn. He says the proper methods of preparation of the lands before planting will insure a sufficiency of moisture; and the main item in this preparation is deep plowing. This done, and followed by intensive cultivation, the crop will get enough moisture to put it safely over any dry spell which may happen in this climate.

Mr. Collins gives the tractor plowing full credit for the difference that is shown in his corn. He says it was all given the very same chance but for the difference in the breaking of the land; and that it would not have been possible to have plowed that piece of ground nine inches deep with a mule-plow. We predict that Mr. Collins and many other farmers in this county will be plowing with Fordson tractors before many more years.

SOME TRUCK

Figures compiled by the United States Department of Agriculture Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, covering shipments of fruits and vegetables for July 7, are very interesting. They may look a bit unreasonable to some people.

On the item of peaches, for instance, the report says on July 7th Arkansas shipped 20 cars, California 1 car, Georgia 535 cars, South Carolina 1 car, Texas 20 cars; total for one day, 578 cars. The same day different states shipped to market 273 cars of cantelopes, 56 cars of tomatoes, 32 cars of watermelons, 47 cars of white potatoes.

These figures indicate that somebody is growing truck by the wholesale. They must have had more rain than has been in Chilton County this summer.

WILL BID AGAINST FORD

Now that Henry Ford has let it out that he has a kind of a notion to buy the government property up at Muscle Shoals, it is announced from Washington that the flivver king is not the only one who will be bidder on the nitrate plant. The Alabama Power Company and the DuPont interests, it is intimated, will also be after it, and will submit bids to the government. We could have told Mr. Ford several days ago that if he gets a grab on any of the power possibilities in Alabama, he will first have to reckon with the Alabama Power Company.

DESTRUCTIVE DROUGHTS.

Until lately Alabama had suffered from the effects of a prolonged drought, and in many localities in the state the spell is still unbroken. It will be poor consolation, but of some interest, to Alabamians to know that they are not alone in their troubles. Not only have the seasons been bad in many other states, but the British Isles are suffering from the worst drought in years.

A dispatch from London relates that the drought and extreme heat have lasted for two months. Hyde Park leaves are drying up as in autumn and crops are burning up. In some places in England water is selling for a penny a bucket. At one place a large lake had been reduced to the size of an ordinary pond, and the ducks are said to be laying smaller eggs than common on account of the scarcity of water.

From Ireland comes word, says the dispatch, that the famous river Shannon, which is the largest stream in the isles, is so dry that it is possible to walk across it. The reserve water supply can last only 23 days and the government is urging the people to use it as sparingly as possible.

Paris reports the hottest summer of many years. Heat in the larger of the American cities is, as usual, almost unbearable, with numerous prostrations each day.— Montgomery Advertiser.

$300,000 FOR MELONS.

Members of the Southest Georgia Watermelon Growers Association have received $300,000 for their melons this year, and are still shipping them. Another instance of the benefits of co-operative growing and marketing of farm products. If it will pay in Georgia, it will pay in Alabama. If it will pay anyhere in Alabama, it will pay in Chilton County. It is co-operation that we need. It may not necessarily be in the growing of watermelons, but if not in that, in something else.

GOING AFTER WATSON

Representative Ryan, Republican of New York, has introduced in the House a resolution directing that the editorial offices of the Columbia Sentinel, the paper published by Senator Tom Watson of Georgia, be discontinued at the Senate office building, and that an expression of disapproval be forwarded to the President and to Senator Watson.

CLANTON BEAT ALEX CITY

The Alexander City baseball team came over to Clanton for one game Monday and a double-header Tuesday. Clanton won two out of the three. The Monday game was a score of 7 to 1 for Clanton. Alex City took the first game Tuesday 15 to 1. The Clanton boys tightened up on the visitors in the second game, shutting them out 9 to 0.

JUDGE DUKE TO TRY SOLDIERS

Judge Lum Duke of Opelika, has been appointed by Chief Justice Jno. C. Anderson of the Alabama Supreme Court, to preside over the Circuit Court of Marion County at Hamilton, during the trials of the nine soldiers charged with the lynching of William Baird, a coal miner.

PASSAGE OF THE BONUS BILL MIGHT BANKRUPT NATION

In his address to the Senate Tuesday President Harding made it plain that opposition to a soldier bonus bill at present is entirely economic. It is one of facts and figures, regardless of what the nation's sentiments may be toward the men who fought to save America from German militarism.

Mr. Harding and every other citizen of the United States feels that no reward would be too great for the services which were given to the country during the World War, but however laudable may be the desire to show its gratitude, the nation is facing a grave financial crisis. As the President said yesterday, if the bonus bill did not mean a disaster to the nation's finances and threaten to retard the readjustment of taxes, on which much of the future prosperity of America depends, it could be considered on a quite different basis.

Taxes could not be reduced if an additional burden of from three to five billions of dollars were placed on the national treasury. A bonus however much it may be deserved and no matter how willing the people might be to pay it, would not only fail to benefit the recipients themselves if it brought about a financial paralysis but would react for years to come on every man, woman and child in America, even though payment should be postponed for several years.

There was nothing in Mr. Harding's address at which any patriotic supporter of the bonus measure could take offense. He made a straightforward statement of a situation brought about unavoidably by the World war, which must be ended by reduction of taxes, refunding of our war debt, the readjustment of our foreign loans and the practice of strict economy in operating the government.

As for our disabled veterans, Mr. Harding shows that they have not been neglected. In spite of sensational charges, which were in some instances substantiated, the government's treatment of its disabled service men has been on the whole creditable and reassuring. Whatever mistakes were made, they were not intentional.

President Harding says: "Every obligation is to the disabled and dependent," and in that the heart of the nation is with him. Our first duty is owed to the men who need attention most. — Birmingham Age-Herald.

PLENTY OF WORK TO BE HAD IN THE NEAR FUTURE

The work of building a new hydro-electric plant and dam at Duncan's Riffles on Coosa River has put new life into business activities of the towns and communities of Chilton County adjacent to the project.

Cooper and Verbena are the nearest towns to the site of the new dam, and Clanton is the next nearest. Cooper is the point where the railroad branch line from the river will connect with the main line of the Louisville & Nashville. It is also the point where the automobile road from the new dam will connect with the Birmingham and Montgomery Highway. Travel from Verbena and Clanton to the new dam will be over the Birmingham and Montgomery Highway to Cooper, and from there out to the site of operations.

Business men and farmers in this section of the county are hopeful of future conditions here due to the money that will be turned loose for labor by the power company. It will come at the most opportune time in our history too, for the dry weather has ruined crops in the eastern part of Chilton County. There will not be any corn made and the farmers will welcome any opportunity for outside work that will enable them to make a living.

Already the work of building the railroad from Coopers is in progress. A crew of men is building a transmission line from Lock 12 down the river to Duncan's Riffles. Electric energy from Lock 12 will be utilized in the construction of the new plant. The power Company is engaging many saw mills up and down the river to cut their timber into lumber, a large quantity of which will be used at the new dam. These saw mills will give employment to many laborers.

There will soon be passenger service inaugurated between Clanton and the seat of operations on the river, by way of a utomobile bus line. A concern composed of business men from Bessemer will put on three motor busses between here and the river, by way of Coopers, and conduct a regular passenger schedule.

HARRY G. HAWKER KILLED

London, July 12.—Harry G. Hawker, the first aviator to attempt a flight across the Atlantic in an air plane, met a terrible death today while flying over the Hendon Field. The machine was seen descending in flames and Hawker's body was found two hundred yards from the spot where the plane fell. It was badly mutilated both by fire and the fall, one foot was severed and both legs were broken.

COUNTY COURT

The regular July term of the County court fell on the 4th, and was therefore continued over to Monday, the 11th, when the following cases were disposed of by Judge Reynolds:

J. C. Roper, charged with violating prohibition laws; defendant pleads guilty.

W. L. Ledbetter, charged with carrying concealed weapon; defendant plead guilty and was fined $50 and cost.

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Spend the Day Party.

On last Saturday Miss Sophia Mullins entertained a number of her friends at a spend the day party at the Wilson Hotel, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday. The morning was spent in playing rook. At noon a delicious birthday dinner was served. Late in the afternoon the party motored out to Mims Pond and enjoyed a delightful swim. Those present were Elizabeth Duncan, Sallye Johnson, Aurabelle Martin, Tommie Parrish, Willadean Reynolds, Helen Stroud, Maude Wagoner.

Friday Card Club Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hart entertained last Friday evening the Friday Bridge Club. The flowers used for decorations were ferns and nasturtiums. Bridge was played at three tables, after which a salad course was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reynolds, V. J. Heard, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Hart, Dr. and Mrs. Hosea Downs, Miss Bettie Mullins, Miss Maud Mullins, Mrs. Carrie Mullins.

Picnic At Mims Pond.

The ladies of the Embroidery Club entertained their husbands at a chicken broil and swimming party on last Thursday evening at Mims Pond. After two hours of enjoyable swimming a delicious picnic lunch was served. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Nabors, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Callen, Mr. and Mrs. Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Page, Rev. and Mrs. Pearson, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Broadhead, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hance Alred, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wyatt.

Mrs. Monroe Wyatt had as her guest last week Mrs. Jim DuBose, of Birmingham.

Miss Frances Hopkins of Dothan, has been the guest of Mrs. E. E. Upchurch in Clanton for several days.

Mrs. M. L. White left Tuesday for a few days visit to Birmingham.

Mrs. Eric Hart was a visitor to Montgomery Monday.

Mrs. Guy Roberts Hostess.

Mrs. Guy Roberts proved a charming hostess on last Wednesday evening when she entertained the members of her card club. The rooms were prettily decorated with bright blossoms where the tables for the game were arranged. At the close of the evening's game the highest score was held by Mrs. McSwain and she was presented a couple of lovely hand made handkerchiefs. A delightful ice course was served to Mrs. J. C. Page, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Watts Moore, Misses Lurline Harper and Lessie Reynolds.

Mrs. Gowan Entertains Young Folks.

At the home of their grand parents Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mullins, a birthday party was given by Mildred and William Gowan Monday evening, celebrating their eighth birthday anniversary. Delicious punch was served on the porch by Mrs. Amzi Gowan, fram a prettily decorated table. Games were played on the lawn till late when cream and cake were served.

An interesting feature of the evening's pleasure was the cutting of the birthday cake when Miss Helen Moore cut the button, Miss Peggy Mullins the thimble, Joe Moore the dime and Miss Frances Higgins the needle. Each little guest cut for these favors and drew "candy kisses." The young hosts received numerous gifts on the happy occasion when about thirty of their little friends called.

Miss Lessie Reynolds left Thursday for a two weeks visit in Pensacola.

Miss Willie Belle Sartor was shopping in Birmingham Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Ross Mullins returned home on Friday from a week's stay in Birmingham, where she had carried her baby for treatment. We are glad to learn of the steady improvement of the little one.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Askins of Sylacauga arrived in Clanton Tuesday for a visit of several days to friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lowe of Birmingham are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Foshee this week.

S. S. Class Enjoys Outing.

A happy group of interesting junior boys were the members of a lovely party on last Wednesday evening when their teacher, Mrs. M. A. Gore, Mrs. Reese Mullins and Mrs. Clyde Jones gave them a picnic at Mims Pond. The group left town about five o'clock and motored out, and after a refreshing swim an elaborate picnic lunch was served on the pavillion. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. M. A. Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Mullins. There were about 35 in the crowd.

Mrs. M. L. Martin and Mrs. B. H. Hayward of Tampa, Fla., arrived on Thursday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gore.

Mr. James Wade returned home on Tuesday from a week's visit with friends in Birmingham.

After spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. J. Q. Wade, Mrs. Killebrew returned to her home in Tennessee on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Page have had as their guests for this week, the parents of Mrs. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Bostick, of McMinnville, Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Parrish of Montgomery were visitors to relatives in Clanton Tuesday.

Philathea S. S. Class Meets.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Philathea S. S. Class of the Methodist Church was held at the home of Mrs. Durwood Broadhead on last Monday evening. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Barney Roberts, opening with scripture reading, followed with prayer by Mrs. Pearson. The subject for the afternoon was the Apostle Paul, and an open discussion was enjoyed. During the social hour a delicious ice course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Broadhead. The class adjourned to meet with Mrs. Eric Hart next time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Curlee have as their guest, their daughter, Mrs. R. S. Gilbert of Rockford, Ill.

Squire J. J. McDowell of Poplar Springs was a visitor to The Banner office on Wednesday. Mr. McDowell is 75 years old, and says his health has broken more in the last six months than in twenty years prior to that time. He has been a hardy man all his life, doing service under Gen. Lee in the Confederate army in Virginia. But he realizes that he has now reached that stage where it is but a step from this life to the other world.

THOUSANDS HAVE BAD BREATH AND DON'T KNOW IT.

Nothing is more offensive than a bad breath. Yet thousands of people suffer with this dfistressing affliction —and the surprising part of it is that a good part of them do not even realize it. Most people hesitate even to mention this disagreeable subject.

An excellent remedy for bad breath is daily use of an antiseptic mouth wash such as Steroline. A few drops of Steroline on your tooth brush will keep your mouth cool sweet and fresh and it makes an excellent dentrifice, as it gets between the teeth, reaching all the hidden spots that ordinary tooth pastes and powders cannot reach at all. It arrests decay which is one of the commonest causes of bad breath, and gives your mouth that "clean feeling." Sold and highly recommended by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton, Ala.—Advertisement.

PESKY ANTS SHOULD BE DESTROYED.

Auburn, Ala., July 12.—(Special). The best way to get rid of house ants is to locate their nest or colony and destroy it, says Miss Mina A. Willis, Assistant State Home Demonstration Agent. Collecting ants on sponges or by the use of ant tapes, repellents or such measures are likely to be only temporary, and may even attract more ants.

Where the nest can be located, the ants can be destroyed by poring into it boiling water, kerosene, or gasoline. If it is not possible to find the nest the ants may be destroyed by spreading a slow acting poison which will eventually be carried to the queen. This poison should be included in a sweet syrup and a good formula is as follows: 1 pound of sugar dissolved in a quart of water to which should be added 125 grains of arsenate of soda. The mixture should be boiled and strained and on cooling applied on sponges so that the ants may eat it gradually. Precaution should be taken in preparing the syrup and also in safe guarding it afterwards to prevent its poisoning human beings and domestic animals.

Commercial insect powders are also good if applied according to the directions on the containers.

Could Beat Hands Shucking Corn

AT LEAST J. A. WHITE WOULD BET SO, AFTER BEING RELIEVED OF DYSPEPSIA BY TANLAC.

"My wife and myself have had stomach trouble," says Mr. J. A. White, residing on the Leestown Pike, R. F. D. No. 6, near Lexington, Ky., "and have both been nervous and run down."

"We could not see anything without suffering afterwards, and could not sleep at night. We were regular nervous dyspeptics. We tried many remedies without permanent benefit until we hard of Tanlac. I got this medicine and began using it. We noticed immediate results. We are today both greatly improved by Tanlac. We give all credit for the change of health to Tanlac. It is a remarkable medicine.

"I personally feel so good that I told my hands a day or two ago that I could beat any of them shucking corn I meant it, and believe I could have beat 'em all.

Of all the maladies that afflict humanity, chronic dyspepsia, such as Mr. and Mrs. White suffered from is probably the most prevalent and hours might be consumed in describing the sufferings, mental and bodily, of the victims of chronic dyspepsia.

A morbid, unreal, whimsical and melancholy condition of the mind, all aside from the nervous physical suffering, is the usual state of the average dyspeptic, and life seems hardly worth the living.

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine, is designed especially for overcoming this distressing condition and millions of people have taken it with the most astonishing and gratifying results. It seems to go straight to the spot, toning up and invigorating every organ of the body.

A HOME COURSE IN DOMESTIC SCIENCE

"Twenty lessons in Domestic Science," by Marion Cole Fisher, has recently been received by us for review.

This is a complete advanced course in domestic science and home economics boiled down to meet the requirements of the housewifee and student.

The entire course consists of 20 practical lessons—one hundred pages filled with the most valuable information the housewife can possess—heretofore taught only in domestic science schools.

Do you know the relative value of food, which fruits to use for cooking what purpose salads serve, the correct use of condiments, about proper kitchen equipments, about U. S. government bulletins, how to reduce the high cost of living, how to promote and protect your own and your families health, how to make housekeeping simpler and more economical and pleasant by utilizing modern science in the home.

This book, we note, is priced at $2 per copy and from what we understand it contains a complete $100 college course, condensed, and it is practically FREE to every interested housewife.

Write the Home Economics Department of the Calumet Baking Powder Co., 4100-28 Fillmore St., Chicago, Illinois, for full particulars regarding the book and how to secure it.

Our good friend, Mr. W. M. Poole of Route No. 2, favors us with a nice bucket of peaches every day or so. The Banner force is much obliged to Mr. Poole.

CEMETERY CLEANING

All those who are interested in the cemetery at New Salem Church, will please come there Thursday, July 21 for the purpose of cleaning off same. Bring your tools and dinner, prepared to work all day.

WASHINGTON LETTER

A Typical American.

After the election of John T. Adams to the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee Mr. Adams went back to his home in Dubuque, Iowa, to arrange his private business so that he could devote all his time to National Committee affairs. His fellow townsmen made his visit the occasion for a public reception, wholly non-partisan in character. One of the principal speakers was a leading Democrat, who, after a few humorous remarks concerning politics, spoke as follows, addressing the new chairman:

"We are proud of you, John Adams, because you were born with your hands empty of inheritance; we are proud of you John Adams, because, denied the early education which you craved, you obtained it through diligent study and application in your more mature years; we are most proud of you, John Adams, as a father, husband and neighbor in private life, and we are glad, for your sake, and for Iowa and the City of Dubuque, that this great honor has come to you."

At a "salary" of $3 per week, Mr. Adams entered the service of the sash and door factory of which he is now the head. It is an immense concern with branches in many states. At the same time that he was succeeding in business and politics, he was growing in the esteem and affection of his neighbors—an achievement very similar to that of President Harding, who worked his way up from the bottom.

Something to Think About.

It is said that Germany is "sweeping the seas clear" of British competition in world trade. She recently underbid British competitors by 50 per cent on $1,400,000 worth of contracts in Palestine and India where England is supposed to be in control of things. The American manufacturer may ask himself what will happen to his industry if our protective tariff wall shall not be raised sufficiently to keep out the destructive German competition.

Getting Back to Normal.

Western farmers are reported to have all the harvest help they want at $3 per day, whereas last year they had to pay $8 and $10. In New England there are 800 idle farms compared with 4,000 last year. Apparently the farming industry is slowly coming into its own again, not from special privileges extended by a beneficent government, as many have been advocating, but through the working of the law of supply and demand, coupled with undaunted courage and thrift on the part of the farmers themselves.

Veterans Dependable Americans

It was a significant scene in Detroit when fifty delegates from the convention of disabled war veterans invaded the socialist national convention and warned the latter that the overseas men were ready to fight again in the maintenance of American principles of government. The men who offered their lives and sacrificed their health in the defense of their country have no intention of standing idly by while plotters from within are conspiring the overthrow of the government. Americans know the attitude of the overseas veterans, and it is well that it has been brought home directly to the Socialists.

A SUCCESSFUL CHILTON BOY IN BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

The Union-Banner is always glad to publish stories of the success of Chilton County boys who have gone out into the world to make a name and a place for themselves. The latest instance of this kind to come to our attention is that of Benjamin Crichton Apperson, who is now Field Secretary of the Birmingham Retail Grocers and Butchers Association, Editor of the Grocers' Journal, and Membership Secretary of the Birmingham Merchants Credit Association.

This young man was born near Maplesville in the year 1900 ,and is the son of that sturdy Chilton County citizen, D. M. Apperson. The young man stayed on his father's farm until about five years ago, when he went to the city of Birmingham to seek his share of the future held in store for him by the whirling and bustling business world. Along with the millions of other young men of the country who were launching out on their careers, young Apperson laid aside the arts of peace in 1917 and took up the cudgel of war, when Uncle Sam stepped into the allied ring against the German war god.

When he had done his bit for his Uncle Sammy, Birmingham's opportunities called him back to that city. He went into the service of Bradstreet's Commercial Agency for a while, later taking up the work of organizing the retail merchants of Birmingham.

While yet a young man, and as he terms it, "a student in the line," it is noteworthy that he has attained the position of Secretary of the Birmingham Retail Grocers and Butchers Association, Editor of the Grocers' Journal, the official organ of the Association, and Membership Secretary of the Merchants Credit Association. These are honors which any young man of the age of Mr. Apperson would consider worthy. They are his marks of diligence which have been bestowed upon him by the business men of Birmingham.

Benjamin Crichton Apperson was named after Frank Crichton, founder of "The Banner."

CLANTON PLAYED PRATTVILLE

The Clanton baseball team went to Prattville last Friday and played two games. The first was a score of 3 to 4 in Clanton's favor. Prattville stood them off in the second by a narrow margin of one, the score being 6 to 7.

Those who went from here report that these two games were classy stuff, both the teams playing jam-up ball. The slugging of Connatser for Clanton, was extraordinary. They sey he connected up with four balls that hit the back field fence.

Webb Parrish, the star pitcher of the Clanton baseball team, is now on a sojourn in South Alabama, being employed on the pitching staff of the Brewton team. Webb is the best hurler that has ever "growed up" around these diggins, and he has now started off on the road to real base ball. He is in fast company down in Southeast Alabama, but we have no fears that he will weaken under the pressure. He will make good.

BUS LINE FROM CLANTON TO NEW DUNCAN'S RIFFLES DAM

We are proud to announce the perfection of plans for the establishment of regular bus line passenger service between Clanton and the new Mitchell Dam at Duncan's Riffles on the Coosa River. Messrs. W. T. Jeter and L. H. Johnson of Bessemer were in Clanton last Monday and informed The Union-Baner of their arrangements to coduct such a business with headquarters in Clanton. They plan to begin operations in about sixty days from now. They will put on three 15-passenger Reo Busses, and run regular schedules between here and Mitchell Dam, by way of Coopers.

Clanton should be particularly proud of the institution of such service here, as it will bring many people from the dam to our town to spend their money. This is the only real town in reach of those who will be employed out at the river, and they will be quick to recognize that fact. Then but one thing remains, and that is a quick ready way to get here and get back to their work. This will be provided by regular bus service.

Messrs. Jeter and Johnson made an effort to see the Secretary of the Clanton Chamber of Commerce while here, but he was out of town. It is to be hoped that the business men who compos the Clanton Commercial Club will have a chance to help these men out with their project for it will certainly be something worth while for the merchants of our town.

Until the closing of the work at Muscle Shoals, these machines were operated between Wilson Dam and Sheffield.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlains Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

THOSE ENTITLED TO REGISTER

Attention of the public is called to the announcement of the County Board of Registrars of their session at the court house in Clanton, beginning on July 20th, and continuing through July 30th. Mr. Gulledge, the chairman of the Board of Registrars, is very anxious for everybody to know about this opportunity for registration, and especially those who may be entitled to register and become qualified voters of Chilton County.

The Union-Banner has requested Mr. Gulledge to state briefly what constitutes qualifications for registration, and the following is the statement he gave us:

1. All persons qualified to register and who have not heretofore registered in this county.

2. Those moving their citizenship from another county, provided they have been in this county twelve months or more.

3. All persons who have lost their certificates of registration, or have had them mutilated or destroyed, are entitled to another certificate.

4. All persons who are 21 years old, who otherwise would be entitled to register.

All reasonable efforts should be made to spread the news of this opportunity to register to the utmost parts of the county, and all citizens who are enitled to do so, should come and register and establish themselves as full fledged qualified citizens, and be able to exercise their ballot in voting on matters that may come up in the future for the good of the county, state and nation.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS

The State teachers examination to be held here July 18, 19, and 20, will be the last State examination for third grade teachers, as this grade of teachers has been abolished by the State.

Billiousness and Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with billiousnes and constipation which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words in regard to this community. Health of this place is good at present.

We had a nice shower Sunday evening, which made everybody feel still better.

Our Sunday School is doing fine as we have more new members every Sunday. Come on boys and girls, and lets make it a banner Sunday School yet.

On last Friday night the young people met at the church and organized a B. Y. P. U., under the instruction of Miss Lena Franklin. We already have a good many members on roll, but we diligently urge all those who have not yet enrolled to come join us and lets make our community rank one among the first in the work of Christ.

DISARMAMENT IDEA MEETS UNIVERSAL APPROVAL.

Washington, July 12.—President Harding's proposal for an international conference on disarmament and related subjects has been received with so many expressions of approval abroad that officials here are already beginning to turn their thoughts to details of the meeting and of its work.

Although the first definite acceptance, that of France did not reach the state department until today, it was learned that all except one power invited to the conference had given informal assurancees of co-operation in the President's plan. Officials will not disclose which nation had not responded, but press dispatches from abroad indicated the missing reply was that of Japan, and that it soon would be forthcoming.

May Meet Armistice Day

The expectation here is that preliminary negotiations would be completed by late fall, and armistice day, November 11, has been suggested as a possible date for the assembling of the delegates here. This feature of the plan, it was explained, will of course, be subject to change as developments may dictate, but it is accepted as virtually certain that the meeting place will be the American capital.

In their consideration of the subjects to be discussed at the conference, officials are dealing only with such specific subjects as disarmament and the Pacific situation, but they are keeping in mind that in the end the conversations may offer an opportunity for the broaching the association of nations plan which has been suggested by Mr. Harding from time to time. In highest administration quarters, it was said to-day, although the meeting has been called for other purposes, it would not seem unnatural that such an association might be discussed in the general search for ways and means to make the peace of the world secure.

Continues Leading Topic in England.

London, July 12.—The disarmament conference continues to be the most prominent topic of discussion, dividing honors with the Irish peace conference. No doubt is felt in London that all the nations invited will accept, and as the French Premier, M. Briand, seems already to have decided to go to Washington, it is considered all the more likely that the British Prime Minister also will go, always provided that the state of affairs at home at that time will permit his absence and that his health will permit him to make the trip, as there has been talk of the premier taking a long rest in Switzerland by advice of his physicians.

The belief prevails among the members of his entourage, however, that the premier is strongly inclined to visit America, and that Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador at Washington, is pressing him to go. It is asumed as a certainty that A. J. Balfour, lord president of the council will be a delegate, and probably also Admiral Lord Beatty, Lord Lee of Farham, first Lord of the Admiralty, and Sir Laming Worthington Evans, Secretary of War.

Has Italy's Approval.

Rome, July 12.—The foreign ministry officially notified the American embassy tonight that President Harding's plan for a conference on the limitation of armaments meets with the full aproval of the Italian government.

France Gladly Accepts.

Paris, July 12.—The French government will accept with pleasure and without reserve an invitation to a conference on the limitation of armaments. This is stated in a letter sent to the American embassy here by the government this morning for President Harding.

UNION GROVE.

Last Sunday was an enjoyable day at this place. At the usual hour we had Sunday school, followed by sermon by Rev. Lowery, the pastor. Both these services were well attended and enjoyed by all. In the afternoon the Union Grove and Oak Hill singing society met in regular bimonthly session and engaged in the singing. Directors were Misses Emma Arledge, Lucile Mims, Mollie Vinzant, Mr. Leonard Glasscock, Vernon Northcutt, Akins Collins, E. L. Glasscock. Organists were Misses Myrtle Dorminey, Sibyl Langston, Ellen Glasscock, Lena Glasscock.

The Collins Chapel class joined the Union Grove and Oak Hill Society. The society will now be known as the Oak Hill, Union Grove and Collins Chapel Singing Society. The society meets with Collins Chapel next Sunday evening July 17th. We ask everyone who can to be present and let's have a good time and a good singing..—T. J. Dorminey.

East Nashville, Tenn.— The efficiency of Thedford's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver.

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr Parsons describes —valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities.

Thedford's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Thedford's. E 88

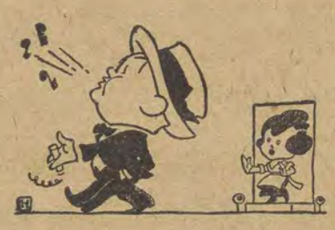
PICNICS AND BARBECUES ARE RECOMMENDED

Auburn, Ala., July 11.—One of the best ways for farmers to forget the low prices of farm products and other unsatisfactory conditions existing at present is to get together far a community picnic or barbecue, says Director L. N. Duncan of the Alabama Extension Service in commenting on the present agricultural problems.



The big season for picnics and barbecues is now here and every community in the state should arrange for at least one outing of this kind during the period intervening between the laying-by and the gathering of their crops.

In arranging for barbecues and picnics the women and children should be included and it is well to invite outside speakers including the county farm and home demonstration agents, the local editors, the county superintendent of education, and others who may be interested.

Such occasions are greatly enjoyed by farmers after they have spent several months at steady work in their fields and are also excellent opportunities for getting together and talking over mutual problems in an informal way.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

Some More Facts About the New Dam at Duncan's Riffles

[From Birmingham Age-Herald]

Eight years ago Alabama had no hydro-electric power other than that of Tallassee, serving one or two interests.

Today it has hydroelectricity taking the place of more than 1,000,000 tons of coal per annum, serving more than half the state, and so correlated with the water powers of four adjoining and adjacent states that the total developed power of the five may be shifted from point to point to serve in loads desired.

The water power already developed (120,000 horsepower), is to be increased 100 per cent by the building of the $8,000,000 dam, fourteen miles below the present one at Lock 12 on the Coosa River. There is a standing and waiting demand for the increment.

Work on the new dam, which will require 1,500 to 2,000 men two years is already under way.

The new dam will add further to the navigable stretch of the Coosa, and create another lake of scenic beauty for the pleasure of Alabamians.

James W. Neal, chief of the southern field division of the federal power commission, has compiled the following memorandum bearing on the history of the Coosa development and the Alabama Power company in Alabama:

Hydroelectricity in Alabama.

Some 15 years ago, James Mitchell, a pioneer in hydroelectric development in the south, became impressed with the possibilities of developing water power in connection with proposed improvements of the Coosa River for the purpose of navigation, and worked out a cheme for a combined utilization of this river as a source of power for the industrial development of northern Georgia and Alabama, and as a highway for transporting the products of this section.

The state of Alabama had undertaken navigation improvements on the Coosa River as early as 1823, and appropriations were made by Congress in 1828; but these early improvements were merely temporary in character. Later on permanent construction was undertaken in the upper river, between Rome, Ga., and Wilsonville, Ala., and the Alabama River, into which the Coosa River flows, was improved from the mouth of the Coosa to the Gulf. Between these improved sections was a stretch of 116 miles abounding in shoals and rapids, and so costly of improvement that the government hesitated to undertake the work. It was in this section that James Mitchell proposed to build the dams which would not only make the river navigable, but also produce thousands of water horsepower.

Lock 12 Dam.

Since the Coosa was a navigable river, it was necessary to obtain the approval of Congress to the scheme proposed. An act authorizing the construction of a dam and powerplant at Lock 12, was enacted in 1907 and the plant was constructed and placed in operation in 1913. In 1912, a bill for the construction of a second dam and power plant to be located at Lock 18 passed both houses of Congress. This was at the beginning of the controversy over water-power legislation which was to last for nearly 10 years; the President vetoed the bill and further plans were set aside to await the time when a government policy appreciative of the necessities of power development as well of the public interest should be determined. Before such a policy was determined, James Mitchell died, his plans still unfinished.

Water Power Bill.

On June 10, 1920, the President signed the federal water power act—a measure which had finally been evolved out of the controversies of the preceding 10 years. No better illustration can be had of the value of this legislation than the fact that on June 27, two and one-half months from the date on which its revised application had been presented to the federal power commission under the new law, a license was issued to the Alabama Power Company for a project at Duncan's Riffles, and work was again taken up along the lines proposed by James Mitchell more than 10 years before. Four days after issuance of license, construction began, and in two years time it is expected that this dam will be completed and the plant placed in operation.

Features of Dam.

The dam will be of modern concrete construction, gravity type, with an extreme length of 1,200 feet, surmounted with Taintor gates 15 feet high, and will develop a head of 68 feet. The initial installation will be two 24,000 horse-power vertical units with turbines of single runner type, directly connected to the generators, and with provision for the installation of three additional units as the demands of the market may require. The switching and transforming stations will be of the outdoor type, and power will be transmitted at 110,000 volts. The transmission line will connect with the existing line of the company at Lock 12 about fourteen miles distant.

New Improvements.

The company's plans introduce two noteworthy departures from previous designs of similar plants. One of these is in the location of the units which will be on the upstream side of the dam, each in a separate inclosure and on its own concrete foundation, and with electrical connection through a gallery connecting the several units. The other is in the design of the draft tubes. An improvement is introduced here which will reduce loss of head during a period of high water by causing the draft tubes to discharge upward at the toe of the dam. Any one who has observed water discharging over a dam in time of flood noted the so-called "standing wave," which forms near the base of the dam when the dynamic energy of the water flowing at high velocity along the toe of the dam is used up in raising the water again to a somewhat higher level.

O. G. Thurlow, the chief engineer of the Alabama Power Company, has taken advantage of the hydraulic principles involved in this phenomenon and has so designed the spillway and the tail water channel as to keep the standing wave downstream from the draft tube outlets at all stages of discharge. By this feature advantage will be taken of the difference in head between the top of the standing wave and the surface of the water at the draft tube outlets, a difference which may reach 10 feet at times of flood.

The reservoir created by the dam will have an area of about 6000 acres. The company will clear this area of all timber and brush so that in addition to removing obstructions to navigation it is expected that lake of considerable scenic beauty will be formed which may in time become a public recreation resort. Since the lake is located in a region where malaria is prevalent the company will also take precautions against the mosquito breeding, and has already installed several hatcheries for the propagation of "top-feeding minnows," a small fish which destroys the mosquito by feeding upon the larvae as they float on the surface of the water.

Navigation Provided for

The license issued to the Alabama Power Company provides that when ever a definite project is adopted for the improvement of this section of the river by the federal government the company will install the necessary locks and channels for navigation. A waterway will thus be provided without expense to the public; territory otherwise inaccessible will be open for development, and the needed electrical power will be provided for the industries of the state without draft on its diminishing coau supply.

OPEN WHITE HOUSE GATES

Government of the People Has Been Established at Washington.

The first official act of President Harding, performed on March the 4th within a few hours after his inauguration, was to order the gates to the White House grounds opened to the public. The immense iron barriers which had been locked and policed against the American people for years swung back; romping children took the place of bleating sheep on the White House lawn; the walks resounded to the steady tread of thousands of "just plain folks" from all parts of the United States who made themselves at home and were glad.

The south lawn, with its fountain and gardens, became the scene of public affairs and receptions, parties for the kiddies, parties for school children, lawn fete for the wounded and disabled soldiers in Walter Reed Hospital and other hospitals near to Washington. President and Mrs. Harding attended many of these affairs. Throughout this summer—until the middle of September—the U. S. Marine and gives a concert every Saturday afternoon on the south lawn, free to anyone who wishes to attend. Hundreds are in attendance at every concert.

Speaking recently at the ceremonies attendant to the unveiling of a bust of President Harding at the McKinley Memorial at Niles, Ohio, Vice-President Coolidge said:

"The open White House gates are but the symbol of the open heart of him who wishes his every approach open to the people. This disposition has been manifest in the co-ordinating harmony in the Cabinet and in Congress, bred not of coercion but of co-operation. There has been established at Washington a government of the people."

This is a very true statement of the situation, a very apt phrasing of the general sentiment which one hears expressed every day by the American people who visit Washington.

MEN and FIGURES

A Bank's solvency is more than a matter of figures. A balanced statement of condition, with its array of figures is accepted by the public in confidence proportionate to the confidence in the men behind the figures.

There is a value that is not shown in figures—it is the value that lies in men.

The PEOPLES SAVINGS BANK'S service to you is based on men of tried character.

G. O. P. POINTS WITH PRIDE

Marks Made by Harding Administration Prove Things are Being Done as Promised.

Washington, July 19 — "Those carping critics who try to make their fellowmen believe that the Republican administration is doing nothing in fulfillment of campaign pledges should cast their eyes over the legislative and executive field in Washington," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr.

"They would see:

"A peace established after two and a half years of impotency on the part of the former administration to accomplish that end.

"A tariff bill in process of enactment that will bring independence to American labor and industry from the menace of destructive foreign competition.

"The stage all set for the perfection of an internal revenue law that will take from the back of the business man the heaviest load he has carried since the organization of the government.

" An economy program in active operation that will save the tax payers tens of millions of dollars.

"A vigorous campaign being waged against war profiteers with the object of restoring ill gotten gains to the Treasury and lodging the criminals behind the bars.

"The courageous publication of facts concerning the soldier bonus bill that will correct the mistaken impressions of well meaning but ill informed citizens regarding the effect of that measure upon the country's welfare.

"The extension of helpful aid to the railroads to enable them to recover from the awful depression that followed the 26 months of Democratic mismanagement.

"The Postmaster General engaged in a determined effort to make of the Postal Savings System a real help to the poorer members of society and an aid in the financial operations of the government.

"A budget law enacted and in full operation that will not only save hundreds of millions in the next fiscal year, but will be relied upon to cut down substantially the expenses of the government during the year that began July 1st.

"The first meeting in history of all the chiefs of executive departments and bureaus, presided over by the President, for the sole object of finding ways and means for cutting down Federal expenses.

"The retirement of scores of obsolete ships and the sale of surplus materials, unused real estate, etc., in the Navy Department.

"The rigid curtailing of army establishments in accordance with the law of Congress that the enlisted personnell must be cut to 150,000.

"The promulgation of an order that all bureaus must turn in to the general supply committee every piece of surplus equipment, and that no new pieces shall be purchased that can be obtained from the stock of that committee.

"The work of the War Risk Insurance Bureau brought up to date for the first time since its organization in the early days of the war.

"The Veterans' Bureau Bill, enacted into law, and the work of consolidating under a single head all soldier relief activities in full swing.

"Huge appropriations granted by Congress for the construction of adequate hospital accommodations for our disabled soldiers, and the grant of authority to use Army buildings not needed for military purposes for the same work.

"The conduct of experiments never attempted before in the history of the world, to determine the part to be assigned in possible future wars to battleships and aircraft.

"A comprehensive survey of conditions in the Phillippine Islands by experts, upon which to frame a definite policy towards those possessions.

"One of the foremost business men in the country at the head of the Shipping Board, engaged, with able assistants, in liquidating the greatest commercial wreck in the history of the world.

"The notification to the world in readily understood language that the United States in the future will insist on the maintenance of its rights whether won in the war or otherwise acquired.

"A settlement of the years-old controversy with Colombia by a treaty in which American honor and dignity are fully upheld.

"The adjustment of a political feud in Cuba that threatened to engulf that little Republic in another war.

"The suppression of rival factions in Panama and Costa Rica that seemed bent on precipitating a war in the immediate vicinity of the Panama Canal.

"The adjustment of domestic labor disturbances through friendly interference of the Department of labor.

"The complete elimination of the spirit of autocracy that prevailed for eight years and the substitution of the democracy that has distinguished the nation from its beginning.

"The initiation of a program for a great conference on the subject of disarmament to be participated in by the world powers represented at Washington.

"And yet some people tell us that the period from March 4th has been barren of accomplishment."

REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS MAKE A 90 DAYS RECORD

Enacts Many Constructive Laws and Does Splendid Committee Work.

Washington, July 18.—The Republican party has had charge of the national government a little over four months. It succeeded eight years of Democratic control. Those critics who are complaining because the Republican administration has not corrected in four months the Democratic mistakes of eight years unconsciously pay a very high tribute to the constructive ability of the Republican party.

Even so, the legislative accomplishments of the Republican administration since March 4th surpasses by long odds the record of any previous administration for anything like the same length of time. Assembled in special session, April, the Congress has enacted a budget law, which, due to prompt action by President Harding, was equipped with the necessary personnell and in full operation at the beginning of the new fiscal year, July 1st, less than ninety days after the special session convened. This piece of legislation has been urged by tax payers for over a decade. It was urged by President Taft during his admininstration, but the Democratic Congress was overwhelmingly opposed to it. The first Republican Congress in eight years, elected in 1918, enacted a budget law, but it was vetoed by President Wilson.

Budget Law Enacted.

With a Republican Congress and a Republican President the budget law was speedily enacted and put into operation. Such a law is absolutely essential if public funds are to be handled in an orderly and economic manner and public waste and efficiency are to be stopped. It is conservatively estimated the operation of this law will save the tax payers $300,000,000 a year in the running expenses of their government, while some reliable authorities estimate the annual saving as high as half a million dollars.

If this were the only legislation enacted thus far, the Republican party could well afford to go before the country on that alone.

But that is only a beginning. Congress has enacted an emergency tariff law which affords protection sorely needed by the agricultural interests, a law which will prove its worth when the harvested crops of the world begin to move within a few weeks.

It enacted an immigration law which protects and stabilizes the labor market of this country during the period of industrial readjustment and at the same time prevents this country's being flooded with a class of vicious agitators which European nations are trying to get rid of.

By joint resolution, Congress has brought to an end the state of war existing between the United States on the one hand and Germany and Austria Hungary on the other. By the establishment of this official peace all extraordinary war powers vested in the President and other executives are automatically repealed and the way is cleared for the resumption of diplomatic, consular and commercial relations with Germany.

These are the more important laws which the Republican Congress has enacted in less than ninety days. In addition, it has held hearings and started well on their way other important bills, which have passed one or the other of the two houses. The House Comittee on ways and means has prepared and reported a permanent tariff bill.

Committees Hard at Work.

Major committees of both Senate and House have been in session daily since Congress convened, holding hearings and drafting legislation to be presented. These committee meetings attract little public attention, but in reality they are where the actual work of Congress is performed. For these committees to act hastily means the presentation of bills which have been neither wisely considered as to their subject matter nor carefully prepared as to their context. Thorough study and well considered action by committees are necessary antecedants of wise legslation. No session of Congress has witnessed more diligent committee work than has the present session.

THE PASTORS AND WORKERS CONFERENCE.

A very interesting meeting of this Conference was held on Monday, July the 11th at the Jemison Baptist Church, with a fair attendance of preachers and laymen. The reports from the churches in the field were encouraging and hopeful of the future. The following subjects were fully discussed by the brethren:

The Scriptural Teaching on the Duty of Tithing, led by Rev. T. J. Deason. The Person and Work of the Holy Spirit, by Rev. P. G. Carter. The Laymen and Womens Responsibilities in the Work of the Church, engaged in by several of the laymen.

The spirit of fellowship and harmony that characterized the meeting was good. The next meeting will be helld at Stanton or Maplesville in the month of September, and some of the following subjects will be discussed:

The Qualifications of a Preacher; How to Secure the Leadership of our Laymen; How to Deal With Indifferent Members of the Churches; To What Extent Should the Laymen and Women Lead in our Churches. These are all practical church problems and should prove to be very interesting and profitable. The speakers for the different subjects will be announced later All pastors and laymen and sisters of all the churches of the two Associations are cordially invited to these meetings. Why not make your arrangements to attend the next meeting which will be held on Monday after the second Sunday in September. We heartily invite you.—P. G. Carter, Pastor.

HARP & HARMONY CONVENTION

The Chilton County Singing Convention using the Harp and Harmony Music Books will meet in special session at Pates Chapel, about two miles west of Thorsby, on the Fifth Sunday in July. Convention will open at 9 o'clock. All are invited.

SOME EDITORS "SEEIN' THINGS."

The editor of The Tuscaloosa News has started in to "seein' things" in regard to the Alabama Power Company, and several others of the smaller ones over the state have had a visitation of the same nightmare, apparently, from what we see some of them printing in their papers on the subject. The following is what the editor of the Centerville Press saw one night last week, and recorded in his current issue of the paper.

> The Centerville light plant is not a model one, neither do they give satisfactory service all the time, but this paper prefers to put up with a little inconvenience from home enterprise than be financially dominated over by a foreign corporation that will in the end "eat you alive" financially. The Alabama Power Company probably gives good service, but if you will notice that most places where they enter they gradually raise the rate after all the home companies have been dismantled and sent to the junk pile. As one of our contemporaries has well stated, this monster corporation is going to have to be reckoned with in the near future; a fight of the people for a just and sane service.

We have seen a number of expressions like the above coming from editors in small towns who seem to be scared to death about being "eaten alive" by a huge monster which they imagine to be growing up in the mountains somewhere over here on the Coosa River. The trouble seems to come from an imagination that the Alabama Power Company will some day get into politics in Alabama and wield a dominating influence to the detriment of the people of the state. We do not see anything to fear in that remote possibility. But even if the Alabama Power Company should get control of Alabama's governing machinery, we do not think there would be any danger of our being any worse governed than we have been in the past few years.

We are not prepared to "make any threats" about the future political maneuvers of the Alabama Power Company. "This monster corporation" may "have to be reckoned with in the near future." If so, we shall then choose our side of the situation and fight for what we think right. But at present we do not see why there should be so many editors scared of being "eaten alive" by the "monster."

Clanton and Chilton County have had about as much dealings with the Alabama Power Company as any other county in the state, and so far we have not heard of anybody about here being "eaten alive." The Alabama Power Company extended their system to Clanton over a year ago, and bought out the local electric power plant. It was a change for Clanton from very unsatisfactory light and power service to the exact opposite—a highly satisfactory service that is indeed worth having. We are not charged exorbitant rates either. Our lights and power are costing us less from the Alabama Power Company than they did from the former local and inadequate power plant, and what is the best part of it, when you turn on the switch you get the juice and plenty of it.

If a customer comes along with a rush order for printing now, we don't have to chase around over town to find out how long it will be before we can get power to run the press. All you have to do is set up the job, kick on the switch and old Coosa River does the rest.

Or if the baby happens to get restless along about 2 a. m., and kind father gets and order to "walk about" for a while, you can arise with the pleasant assurance that the light plant did not shut down at midnight, pull the switch and instantly illuminate that turbulent pathway which is always obstructed by so many chairs, perambulators, discarded shoes, etc. and etcetera.

We have heretofore made the remark that Clanton is worth twice as much as a place in which to live and do business now as it was before the Alabama Power Company "ate us alive." We can say to Brother Nunnally that the same thing would be true of Centerville if the Alabama Power Company were serving his town, and he would soon find glory in the fact that he could be free from the inconveniences of a make-shift light and power service.

We would rather recommend the Alabama Power Company as a good Samaritan who found us wounded by the roadside and gave us shelter and protection, instead of a cruel monster going about the land seeking whom he may devour.

We have sought diligently for a reason why Ed Doty of the Tuscaloosa News is so "hard on" the Alabama Power Company. Must be that he is peeved because the company is building their hydro-electric plants on the Coosa River instead of the Cahaba, near Tuscaloosa.

NOW A "REGULAR" CITIZEN

It is no longer Pastor Carter, the Englishman. From here on it is to be just plain preacher Carter, pastor of the Clanton Baptist Church, the ordinary American citizen, just like any other Baptist preacher you may know. He went to Montgomery one day last week and went through Uncle Sam's machine for making Americans out of Englishmen. He was changed from a British subject to a free and independent American citizen. We predict that Brother Carter will do better preaching hereafter than he has ever done before. His own expression on the subject shows something of the regard that has grown up in his life for Uncle Sam: "It has been rather an expensive proposition but well worth it to be a citizen of so great a country as the United States of America." Right you are, preacher. It is a grand and glorious feeling, and the more you get of it, the better you will like it.

RETURNS ARE PLEASING

Mr. McCarns, the traveling representative of the Goodyear Tire Co., was in Clanton last Thursday calling on the Lawrence Garage, local selling agents for the Goodyear tires and tubes. Mr. McCarns also called on The Union-Banner while here, in regard to some advertising for Goodyear products. He stated that his people are well pleased with the results they are getting from their advertising in this territory, and with the service of the Lawrence Garage in handling their business here.

LUMBER ORDERS DOUBLE

New Orleans, July 19—Orders on hand at mills that are members of the Southern Pine Association have doubled since the first of the year. On January the first orders averaged 607,592 feet per mill, while on May the first an average of 1,206,620 feet is reported, an increase of 99 per cent. Stocks on hand have decreased 18 per cent as a result.

SCRAMBLE ON FOR GOVERNMENT NITRATE PLANTS

Secretary of War Expected to Issue General Call for Bids on Muscle Shoals Property.

Washington, July 19—So numerous have become the tentative bidders for the government's properties at Muscle Shoals, and so anxious is the administration that it avoid the possibility of making a grave mistake, that it is regarded today as certain that in the near future the Secretary of War will call up all interested individuals and corporations to state whether or not they desire to submit offers. In other words, it is expected that there will be a general call for bids.

Up to the present, only one bona fide offer of purchase has been submitted, that is the offer of Henry Ford. However, numerous tentative offers have been made. Several chemical companies have become unusually and significally active. Likewise the DuPont Power company has approached the administration. And in the meantime the Alabama Power Company, although it has not expressed itself, is regarded as a corporation with which the administration must reckon any prospective deal is consummated.

Alabama Company's Attitude.

It is learned here today that the Alabama Power Company was of the opinion that as long as it was the policy of the government to operate the Muscle Shoals properties as government utilities for the benefit of the farmers and the people generally, it would assume and maintain a hands off attitude.

It is the understanding, however, that the Alabama Power Company, should the government abandon its original policy and substitute the policy of selling or leasing to a private corporation, which substitution would be denoted by an act of Congress, would feel at liberty and disposed to submit for acquisition of the property. Should Secretary Weeks, in the near future, act in accordance with the general understanding, and request all interested parties to make an offer for Muscle Shoals, the responsive action of the Alabama Power Company is a matter of speculation.

Want Ford Offer Accepted.

The various organizations in the city of Washington which represent the farmers of the United States are impressed with the idea that the acceptance by the government of the Ford offer would redound greatly to their advantage. They hold that Mr. Ford would operate the plants not entirely for selfish reasons. They contend too, that much of the present activity is the result of fear on the part of corporations that Ford would become a commercial rival to them. They make it plain that Ford must be given every consideration, and that the rejection of his offer, if it be rejected, must be based on excellent grounds.

The initiation of what appears to be a scramble for Muscle Shoals is regarded as proof that practically every corporation, despite previous silence, knew that Muscle Shoals was a commercial possibility. The opinion prevails that, as a result of the situation, there will soon be a boom on the Tennessee, which will result in permanent benefits for the people of the country.—Hugh Roberts in Birmingham Age-Herald.

25 YEARS AGO

As Printed in "The Banner" of JULY 16, 1896.

Died Friday night, 10th inst., Mrs. Netty Jones, wife of Hugh Jones, deceased, at the residence of Andrew Jones near Lily Post Office. She was buried at the Jones Cemetery at Lily on Saturday.

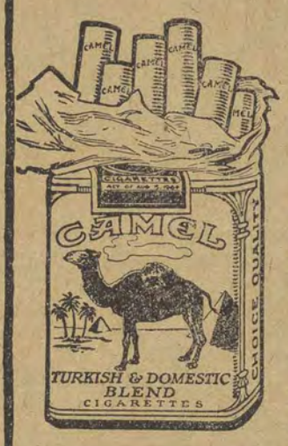
Marriage license have been issued this week by the Probate Judge to the following:—Mr. J. R. Hammell and Mrs. S. E. Neely; Mr. J. P. Jones and Miss Ida Vernon.

Mrs. Gilbey Logan died this morning about five o'clock.

A fatal accident occured on Tuesday at Mr. Grant's place two miles north east of town. Mr. John and Mr. Will Grant had gone down to the fish pond to kill a crane, John fired at the bird about 35 yards away and killed, the bullet striking it in the neck. The ball must have then glanced off, and some 80 yards farther on passed between the rails of a fence and unfortunately struck poor Will who was behind the fence, hitting him also in the neck. He was at once carried home and Dr. Matthews called in, but we are sorry to say the injury proved fatal and Will passed away on Wednesday evening. John and Will were inseparable and their fraternal regard was such as is rarely seen. We deeply sympathize with the afflicted relatives.

The joint debate last Monday at Clanton between Hon. S. M. Adams, Populist and Col. Hibbard of Monroe, Democrat, was unusually interesting.

SINGING SCHOOL at FRIENDSHIP



Prof. W. M. Devaughn will teach a twenty-days singing school at the Friendship Church, one and one-half miles north of town, beginning on Monday, August 1. Everybody who wishes to attend are asked to notify J. D. Collins or W. O. Rich.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigaretty aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.

TWO MURDERED IN CITY OF BIRMINGHAM.

Birmingham, July 18—Police are without a clue to the slayer of two men under a viaduct at Fifth Avenue and Twenty-sixth Street in the past two days, the latest vistim being Amos A. Powell, white, formerly of Florence, Ala., who was found lying in the viaduct yesterday morning, his skull crushed. The other victim was a negro, found dead yesterday morning.

When the negro's body was found it was believed he had been killed in a fight, but the finding of Powell's body has led the officers to substitute the theory of robebry and murder.

Powell's pockets had been turned inside out and a fifty-cent coin was found near the body. A heavy iron rod covered with blood and hair was found near the body. The man had been struck in the right eye, the side of his face being mangled.

Other blows had crushed the top and back of his head. His right shoulder also was broken, and there were bruises on other parts of his body indicating that he had been beaten with the iron after he had been knocked down by the blows in the face and on the head.

MOONSHINERS KILL OFFICERS IN MORGAN COUNTY

Birmingham, July 18.—A posse of prohibition officers and citizens in charge of N. L. Pierce, chief of the Alabama prohibition forces, are searching Morgan county today for an alleged gang of mountaineers who last night shot and killed Prohibition Enforcement Officer Ed Howell, of Albany, and wounded I. G. Brown, of Albany, another officer.

The shooting took place on the Tennessee River, six miles from Albany, where it was said the deputies were decoyed by alleged information as to a distillery.

Forty-eight bullet wounds were found in Howell's body. Several of the bullets struck Brown, but he was not seriously wounded.

Deputy Hallbrook, third member of the party, was not injured. The officers returned the fire when they were attacked, but were outnumbered heavily.

Mrs. Chas. Swanson and her two daughters, Ellen and Elizabeth, returned to Chicago Monday after spending several weeks here with Mr. Swanson.

DON'T FORGET TO REGISTER

Those people in Chilton County who may be entitled to register are urged not to forget to come to Clanton and attend to that duty. The Board of Registrars are now in session at the Court House, and will be here every day up to and including July 30th. The public generally is asked to help spread the information concerning this opportunity to register, so that all who are entitled may know about it. When you read this, if you know of a man or woman who is entitled to register, tell them of it and urge them to come at once.

Grady Heflin: "Oh about a penny's worth."

Jack: "All right big boy, lick this piece and give me your penny."

TIRE INDUSTRY BOOMING

New York, July 19—The summer automobile tourist is bring prosperity to the tire industry. Reports from Akron, Ohio show that tire plants there are running three 8-hour shifts six days a week, and three thousand additional men were put to work on July the first. A large tire concern at Chicopee Falls, Mass., is now at work full capacity, having added a night shift of 300 men the last of June. One of the largest tire fabric concerns in the country, located at Cohoes, N. Y., is now running full capacity, having put its complete plant in commission July the first.

SHERIFF IMPEACHED

In a decision rendered last Thursday morning the Alabama Supreme Court announced that George W. Mitchell, Sheriff of Lauderdale county, had been found guilty of corruption in office, and that an order had been issued providing for his removal from office.

THOSE ENTITLED TO REGISTER

Attention of the public is called to the announcement of the County Board of Registrars of their session at the court house in Clanton, beginning on July 20th, and continuing through July 30th. Mr. Gulledge, the chairman of the Board of Registrars, is very anxious for everybody to know about this opportunity for registration, and especially those who may be entitled to register and become qualified voters of Chilton County.

The Union-Banner has requested Mr. Gulledge to state briefly what constitutes qualifications for registration, and the following is the statement he gave us:

1. All persons qualified to register and who have not heretofore registered in this county.

2. Those moving their citizenship from another county, provided they have been in this county twelve months or more.

3. All persons who have lost their certificates of registration, or have had them mutilated or destroyed, are entitled to another certificate.

4. All persons who are 21 years old, who otherwise would be entitled to register.

All reasonable efforts should be made to spread the news of this opportunity to register to the utmost parts of the county, and all citizens who are enitled to do so, should come and register and establish themselves as full fledged qualified citizens, and be able to exercise their ballot in voting on matters that may come up in the future for the good of the county, state and nation.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me.

"I saw after taking some Cardui . . . that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person.

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments.

BODY OF WALTER CATON TO BE BROUGHT TO THORSBY

The body of Walter Caton, a soldier who was killed in France, will be returned to Thorsby in the next few days and carried to the home of his father, William Caton, out west of Thorsby, and buried in the family cemetery. News of the arrival of the body at Hoboken, N. J., has been communicated to the family, and the body will arrive as soon as transportation can be made from the port.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

On last Wednesday afternoon a very pleasant time was spent when a few friends gave a surprise party to Miss Caroline Skinnes, complimenting her on her "sweet sixteenth" birthday. Those who participated in the social time were Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Dyrhood, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Hutchinson, Mrs. Carl Grenn, Mrs. M. J. Soberg, Mrs. Grothy, Mrs. Martin Peterson, and sons, Willis, Leroy and Richard, Mrs. R. Mikesell and children, Lavert, Lavertia and John, Mrs. Erdahl and daughters, Anna and Inga, Miss Clara Peterson, Miss Nellie Werness and Rev. Benson. Delicious refreshments were served consisting of several beautiful birthday cakes and other good things.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Mrs. R. Mikesell and children. Mrs. Mikesell resides in Council Bluffs, Ia.

Miss Ruth Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, arrived home Sunday night to spend her vacation. Miss Peterson is employed as stenographer in a large firm in Birminghtm. We are glad to have her with us occasionally.

The concert and social given by the Lutheran Choral Society Saturday night was quite a success, altho there was not as large a crowd as usual. Quite a nice little sum was realized, which goes to help pay for the piano which the young people purchased for the church.

On last Wednesday afternoon little Christine Bosworth celebrated her eighth birthday. All her aunts and cousins were present to enjoy it with her. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served. A lovely white birthday cake with eight red candles formed the center piece.

Rev. Chas. C. Rogers of Hackleburg was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Graham last week.

LAST MONTH, on a bet.
WITH THE boys up home.
I SPENT a night.
ALONE IN the old.
HAUNTED HOUSE.
AND WHEN I heard.
MOANS AND groans.
I SAID "The wind."
AND TRIED to sleep.
I HEARD rappings.
AND SAID "Rats."
AND ROLLED over.
THEN I heard steps.
AND IN the light.
OF A dying moon.
A WHITE spook rose.
I WASN'T scared—much.
BUT DIDN'T feel like.
STARTING ANYTHING.
BUT THEN I caught.
JUST A faint whiff.
OF A familiar.
AND DELICIOUS smell.
WHICH TIPPED me off.
SO I gave the ghost.
THE HORSE laugh.
AND SAID "Ed.
YOU FAT guys.
MAKE BUM ghosts.
BUT BEFORE you fade.
LEAVE WITH me one.
OF YOUR cigarettes.
THEY SATISFY."

WOULD GO FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE

Tennessee Farmer Wants to Go From House to House and Tell Everybody about Tanlac.

"If I were not so busy with my farm work I would go from house to house and tell the people about Tanlac," said A. J. Livingston, a well known farmer, living near Ashland City, Tenn.

"I had stomach and kidney trouble and suffered torment with my back and side. The doctors could do nothing for me so I wrote to a friend of mine in Nashville about Tanlac and he advised me to try it, saying he had heard so many favorable reports about it and sent me a bottle.

"After taking the first bottle I felt so much better that I ordered another bottle myself, and the result is I am a well man. I told a friend of mine about it and ordered a bottle for him and he had good results. I can eat anything I want and it don't hurt me and can sleep like a log. To tell the truth, I just simply feel like a new man and have more strength and energy than $ have had in years. It is simply the grandest medicine in the world. I would like to see all of my friends and gett hose who are suffering to try it and I hope you will reach them through this testimonial, which I have gladly given."

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine, which accomplished such remarkable results in this man's case, is a wonderful tonic, appetizer and invigorant. It builds up the system, creates a healthy appetite, promotes digestion and issimilation of the food and makes you feel strong, sturdy and well as nature intended.

HARVEST PROSPECTS IN TEXAS

Ft. Worth, July 19—Conservative estimates place the net profit of Texas farmers for this year's grain crop at about eighteen million dollars, which will average the Texas wheat grower a net profit of $6.75 per acre after all his expenses for growing, harvesting and marketing his crop have been paid. The new crop has begun to reach the Gulf ports and the money it is bringing is greatly stimulating wholesale and retail business. Wholesale trade is now equal to what it was a year ago. The prosperity has touched all classes. Harvest hands received from $3 to $5 per day with board and every available man was used. Over twenty-six million dollars was paid out by Texas farmers for wages and other expenses incidental to producing and harvesting their crop. The money is already in circulation.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlains Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

A MODERN 23rd PSALM

The Ford is my car.

I shall not want another.

It maketh me to lie down in wet places.

It soileth my clothes.

It leadeth me into deep waters.

It leadeth me into the paths of ridicule for its name sake.

It prepareth a break-down for me in the presence of mine enemies.

Yea, though I run through the valleys, I have to be towed up the hill.

I fear great evil when it is with me.

Its rods and its engines discomfort me.

It anointeth my face with oil.

Its tank runneth over.

Surely to goodness if the thing follows we all the days of my life, I shall dwell in the house of the insane forever.

The above clipping, credited to the Sussex Herald, was sent to us by Mr. E. L. Glasscock, of Jemison. It is a very striking paraphrase of the 23rd Psalm, and doubtless expresses the sentiments of many people who have become afflicted with that modern disease so commonly prevalent with the users of Ford cars. We have not seen any name offered for this malady, but it must be something like "flivveritis."

FRANCE SWAMPS US WITH OUR OWN MADE GOODS.

Boston, July 19—Manufacturers of small tools are showing considerable concern over the inroads made in their domestic business by imports from France. Included in the large stores of military goods which were sold by the United States Government to France at an insignificant price were many of these tools. They are now being reshipped to this country and sold here at prices varying from one-third to one-half less than the domestic manufacturers quote. New England seems to have been the principal point for the disposal of these supplies and New England has long been one of the principal markets for the small tool manufacturer of this country.

FLOOD OF GERMAN IMPORTS

New York, July 19—A serious phase of the import problem is presented by the large arrival of goods from Germany. The United States Mail Steamship Hudson, from Bremen arriving July 4th, carried a 2,300 ton cargo, the largest individual shipment thus far received. It consists principally of crockery, glassware, chemicals and dyes. With the jobbers experiencing difficulty in moving their stocks of domestic commodities at present prices, these imports, which are offered much cheaper than the quotations prevailing here for domestic goods, present a difficult situation.

A Splendid Medicine for the Stomach and Liver.

"Chamberlain's Tablets for the stomach and liver are splendid. I never tire of telling my friends and neighbors of their sualities," writes Mrs. William Vollmer, Eastwood, N. Y. When billious, constipated, or troubled with indigestion, give them a trial. They will do you good.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Navy Housecleaning.

The Navy Department is engaged in a general house cleaning to get rid of everything of value not necessary to the proper maintenance and operation of the fleet. In the past few weeks 166 naval vessels have been declared obsolete and sold. In one deal 112 submarine chasers were disposed of to a Philadelphia firm that intends to use them in trading in Mexican and West Indian waters. Three old battleships, four cruisers and two gunboats have been candemned and are now being stripped of their fittings preparatory to their sale as junk. A survey of the Department's real e state holdings has disclosed some surprising facts. In 1857 1,100 acres of white oak timberland were acquired in Georgia from which to cut material for wooden ship building purposes. The tract is still owned by the government. At Sackett's Harbor, New York, a tract of land was bought in 1814 for a commandant's headquarters, but it has been abandoned for more than half a centurn except for a caretaker. It is expected that the survey will reveal other pieces of real estate, acquired during the war for special purposes that can now be disposed of to advantage.

Fish or Cut Bait.

The railroad labor organizations are engaged in a referendum to determine whether they will accept the wage reductions ordered by the railroad labor board or strike. The result is to be announced September 1. The deliberation with which the vote is being conducted indicates that the labor leaders are giving most careful thought to the problem. They know that with the present high cost of rail transportation shippers are either withholding their shipments or are consigning them to carriers by water. The railroads simply cannot survive unless they regain most of the business they have lost. It is a case with the employes accepting reductions in wages or of facing a shutdown of the roads, with consequent entire loss of employment.

The Augean Stable.

The Democrats of the Senate and House are loud in their criticism of what they allege is the failure of the Republican administration to effect the reforms promised in the campaign of last year. The people must realize that whatever delays are encountered by the Republicans in their endeavors to put things to right are due to the handicaps left by their retiring Democratic administration. Never did a President take office with the machinery of government in such a deplorable condition as that found by Mr. Harding when he stepped into the White House on March 4th. His first duty has been to repair the damage and remove difficulties left in his way by his predecessor. Long strides have been made in that direction, and if the people will be patient they will see the debris of Democracy cleaned away and the path opened for carrying into effect the Republican reforms that the nation craves.

Preparation At Last.

The restoration of diplomatic relations with Germany will lead to a stimulation of trade with that country. The need for a protective tariff will be felt more than ever and the country is to be congratulated that there is a party in power ready to protect our industries from the destructive competition that would otherwise come from across the water.

A Sample.

The appalling waste forced upon the railroads by an impractical Director of Railroads under government control is illustrated by the testimony of E. T. Whiter of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who appeared recently before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce. Mr. Whiter said that if a machinist and his helper were doing rod work the helper could not unscrew nuts on the rod bolts or the piston rod packing gland on one side of an engine while the machinist was working on the other side. Although he might be perfectly competent to do so simple a piece of work, he must stand idly by, under the ruling to which Mr. McAdoo gave his sanction.

An Empty Sack.

The war cost this country something like $26,000,000,000 of which not less than six billion dollars was absolute waste, due to the mismanagement and poor business methods of the Wilson administration. Now when it is proposed to enact a soldier bonus law that would call for about three and a half billions, the treasury is empty and there is a big deficit pending. If the Wilson administration had saved that six billion dollars, there would not be the least trouble in finding funds for bonus.

We Must Have Ships.

There may be a difference of opinion as to methods, but there is unanimity of opinioin on the general proposition that the United States must by some means keep in operation the merchant marine fleet built during the war. Whether they be operated by the government or by private concerns, whether they be owned by the government or by private purchasers, they must be kept in operation under the American flag, building trade for American industries and subject to the call of the American government in case of war. Some of the ships not suited to our ocean going trade may well be sold whatever our general policy. But we have a lot of high class ships that must be kept in active service in foreign commerce. The permanence of the American Merchant Marine is no longer a matter of dispute.

Try it On Government.

"If you are satisfied tell others; if not, tell us" is a motto many business men hang up in their establishments. It is a good rule for the people to follow in regard to the work of the public servants at Washington.

The Chief Effort.

It would take many hours for the Congress to pass any legislation the executive departments may ask in order to permit them to reduce expenditures. Reduction of expenses has been the chief effort of Congress ever since the signing of the armistice.

There may be a railroad strike in September. If so, we shall have to accept it as an illustration of the fact that sometimes things have to be worse before they can be better.

Washington Post—One of our unqualifiedly foreign affairs is the league of nations.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

We would like to see a larger per centage of our members feeling it their duty and responsibility to attend the services regularly each Sunday. If only fifty per cent of our members attend regularly we would fill the house to the doors. It is necessary to have your presence to be able to make a good church. We appreciate the many visitors who are worshiping with us, and if they are Baptists we extend to them an earnest invitation to unite with us in fellowship.

The services will be held next Sunday as usual, morning at 11 and evening at 8. The Sunday School and young peoples organizations will also meet. We heartily invite everyone to those services.—P. G. Carter, Pastor.

Mr. Z. J. Jones of West Chilton, was a visitor to Clanton Tuesday. It is needless to say that he came to see The Union-Banner while here, and his visit was enjoyed.

FRIENDSHIP CHURCH

Don't forget that our protracted meeting begins at Friendship Church tonight (Thursday). Rev. Lowery will take care of the preaching until Sunday when he will be joined by Rev. Hand of Newton. The meeting will continue well into next week. Everybody in reach is invited to come out and hear these preachers.

Sunday School will be held as usual next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

The Singing Society will meet in the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. All singers are urged to come.

The B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:30 Sunday night, in order to do their work before preaching begins.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION TO NON - RESIDENT.

The State of Alabama, Chilton County, Circuit Court in Equity, No. 298 —Murshal Burnes, Complainant, vs Rosa Burnes, Defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy Pitts that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that her place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in the Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Rosa Burnes, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 21st day of August, 1921, or in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against Respondent.

Done at office in Clanton, this 13th day of July, 1921.

COLLINS CHAPEL

Our Singing Society met at this place on last Sunday afternoon, July 17, 1921, at 2:30 o'clock.

Directors for the afternoon were: Messrs A. H. Glasscock, Akins Collins, Charles Glasscock, James Franklin, Leonard Glasscock, Vester Campbell, Misses Lucile Mims, Audell Burnett, Emma Arledge.

Organists for the afternoon were Misses Mattie Mims, Sybil Langston, Eunna Arledge, Lena Glasscock.

We were dismissed with prayer by Rev. E. A. Narris.

Our Singing Society will meet with Oak Hill class next Sunday p.m. Let everybody go who can, for we are expecting a large crowd and some good singing. J. M. MIMS.

SPECIAL TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT HERE.

Circuit Court Clerk, M. D. Foshee, informs us that an order has been received calling a two weeks special jury term of the Circuit Court of Chilton County, to convene on the 22nd day of August. He states that there is a heavy docket of cases to be disposed of.

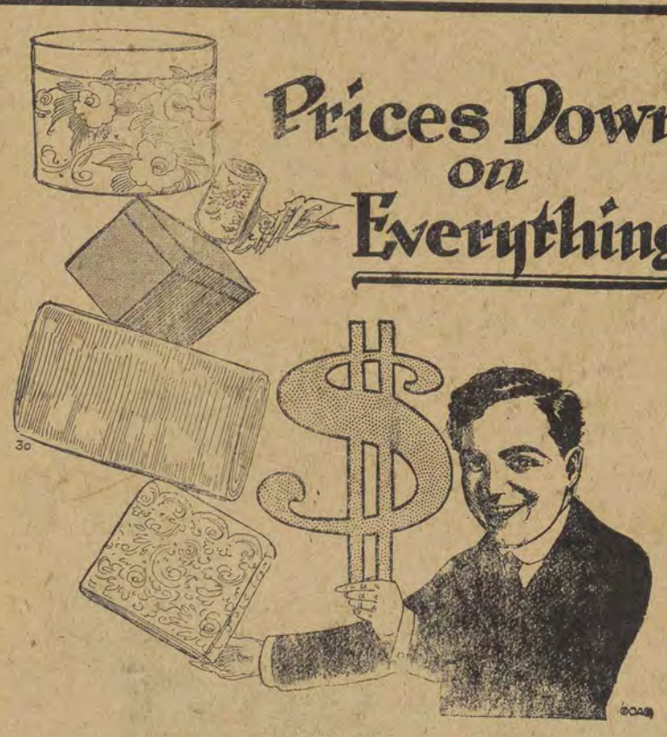
DR. JOHNSON HERE.

Dr. Samuel E. Johnson of the U. S. Navy, stationed at Memphis, has been in Clanton this week spending his vacation with relatives. He says he is so well pleased with his position with Uncle Sam that he does not contemplate a return to his former public practice of medicine.

CEMETERY CLEANING.

All persons who are interested in the Mt. Carmel, or Childress Cemetery are requested to meet there on Tuesday, July 26, for the purpose of cleaning off same. Bring the necessary tools.—H. W. Varden and W. Q. Childress.

Billiousness and Constipation.



"For years I was troubled with billiousnes and constipation which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

Visitors Entertained.

One of the loveliest of the season's parties was given by Miss Warrene Spigener, when she entertained the younger set at a "Do as you like" party, paying special courtesy to her house guests, Misses Marie and Carrie Jones of Rockford.

Rook, dominoes and other games were played until late, when a delightful ice course was served. Music was enjoyed throughout the evening. Mrs. Spigener was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. J. R. Mullins and Miss Bessie Thomas. About 35 young people enjoyed this rare hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McDavid motored to Montgomery Saturday, returning Tuesday.

Mrs. Reynolds Hostess.

The members of the Wednesday Card Club enjoyed a lovely meeting with Mrs. Grady Reynolds hostess on last Wednesday afternoon. The apartments were attractive with a variety of summer blooms, and tables were arranged in the dining room for the game. After a couple of hours playing bridge, Mrs. McSwain was found to hold highest score and was presented a pretty sandwich basket. Later a tempting salad plate was served to Mrs. Amzi Gowan, Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Mrs. McSwain, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mrs. Alex Richards and Miss Lurline Harper.

Mrs. John Strock and Miss Marjorie Strock are visiting the family of Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Johnson.

Miss Kathleen Mullins returned to her home Tuesday afternoon after a visit of several weeks in various cities of Georgia.

Mrs. Percy McKinley of Birmingham visited Mrs. M. L. White last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud White of Birmingham visited relatives in Clanton last week.

Mrs. John C. Page and daughter, Peggy, have gone to McMinnville, Tennessee to visit her parents.

Spend the Day Party Given.

Mrs. R. E. Luckie charmingly entertained at an informal luncheon on last Thursday, paying special courtesy to Mrs. Newton Askins and Mrs. Amzi Gowan.

The apartments were open en suite for the occasion, decorated with a profusion of yellow daisies and sun flowers. In the dining room the table was attractively centered with a tall crystal vase of sun flowers. A three-course buffet luncheon was served and covers laid for the two honorees, Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. Clyde Jones, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Macy Jones, Mrs. J. D. Armstrong, and Mrs. T. C. McSwain. Social conversation and fancy sewing was indulged in during the afternoon until late, when an auto ride was enjoyed.

After a visit of several weeks to relatives in Gulfport, Mrs. Heard and Mary returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoke Pipes, of Louisville, Ky., announce the birth of a son.

Joint Hostesses Honor Bride-to-be.

Mrs. Guy Roberts and Mrs. Percy Pitts were joint hostesses on Tuesday evening at the home of the former in honor of Miss Willie Belle Sartor whose marriage is to be an interesting event of early August.

The punch table, attractively decorated in crepe papers of the rainbow colors, and banked with a profusion of ferns, was placed advantageously on the front porch and punch was served by Mrs. McSwain and Mrs. D. M. Pearson. The guests were ushered by Mrs. Julius Reynolds into the living room where the receiving line consisting of Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mrs. W. A. Reynolds, Miss Callie Watts, Mrs. W. H. Sartor, Mrs. Barney Roberts, Miss Sartor and Mrs. Pitts stood. The entire apartments were beautifully decorated with quantities of various garden flowers, and suspended from the corners of the rooms to the chandeliers were bright crepe papers carrying out the colors of the rainbow. Miss Beverly Hester and Mrs. Julius Reynolds rendered several piano selections.

The bride's book where the guests registered was kept by Miss Mattie Ware. Late in the afternoon the bride was invited into the dining room where, on the dining table, numerous and useful gifts were displayed. An ice course was served by Miss Willadean Reynolds and Miss Elizabeth Duncan to about sixty guests.

Mr. W. C. Warrick of Lapine visited Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White last Saturday.

Miss Mildred Dunn of Garland, Ala., was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. N. A. Kicker, last Saturday.

Mrs. Paul Richard Reding and attractive little daughter, Ann, of Mobile, are the guests of friends and relatives in Clanton. Before their return home they will also visit at Fairfield.

After a delightful visit of several days to Miss Warrene Spigener, the Misses Marie and Carrie Jones have returned to their home in Rockford.

Mrs. G. L. Phillips has as her guest this week Miss Evelyn Duncan of Prattville.

Mrs. J. Q. Wade and James left Wednesday for an extended visit to Atlanta and Marietta, Ga.

Mr. Evan Parrish made a business trip to Birmingham Monday.

Epworth League Enjoys Outing.

The members of the Junior Epworth League enjoyed a lovely outing last Wednesday at Mims Pond. The gay party, chaperoned by Mrs. Macy Jones and Mrs. Clyde Jones, left about four o'clock. Swimming was enjoyed until late, then a delightful lunch was served to about twenty.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mullins and little daughter, Sarah Elizabeth, are expected to arrive next week to spend several days with relatives here.

Enjoyable Missionary Meeting.

"Shanghi, the City of Beginnings," was the subject of a very interesting program presented at the meeting of the Womens Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. John Armstrong on Monday afternoon. The meeting was opened with prayer followed with a Scripture reading by the President, Mrs. Nabors. A very interesting sketch of the lives of three great missionary workers and their work in China was given—Mary Lambert, by Mrs. E. Littlejohn; Laura Haywood, by Mrs. Luckie; Helen Richardson, by Mrs. Barney Roberts; Readings, messages from the McTyeire Girls, Mrs. McSwain and Mrs. M. L. White. At the close of the program a delicious plate luncheon was served to fifteen members.

Embroidery Club Entertained.

Mrs. R. C. McDavid proved a charming hostess on last Thursday, when she entertained the members of the Embroidery Club at the parlors of the Wilson Hotel.

The reception rooms were made attractive with quantities of zenias and other garden flowers. The members did fancy work until late in the afternoon when a beautiful salad plate with sherbert was served in the rainbow colors. The following members were present: Mrs. Horn, Mrs. Gerald, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Hance Aled, Mrs. Frank Callen, Mrs. Grady Broadhead, Mrs. Pitts, Mrs. W. M. Wyatt, Mrs. Nabors, Mrs. P. D. Wilson, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. Barney Roberts, Mrs. Guy Roberts, and Miss Willie Belle Sartor. The club was invited to meet with Mrs. Pearson on next Friday when she will entertain in compliment to Miss Willie Belle Sartor.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Newell and children of Birmingham are expected to arrive Friday to be the guests of Judge and Mrs. Reynolds for several days.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Two good services were held last Sunday with reasonably good congregations. The conference held at the close of the morning service was characterized with a fine spirit of harmony and unity. Important matters were decided upon for financing the new building, which makes it possible for the same to be completed in due time. The Womens Missionary Union at the last meeting decided to purchase a full figured window for the auditorium with a picture of the good Shepherd. These windows cost $225 complete, and if anyone desires to purchase any of the remaining windows, it is necessary to get in touch with the pastor at once as the order must be placed with the manufacturer in the next few days. Smaller figures can be purchased for $146, known as medallion windows and will add considerable beauty to the full figured windows. Full information concerning these will be given by the pastor on application. The young peoples organizations have each decided to purchase a small window and we bespeak for them the hearty support of the people in raising the money to purchase the same.

The work on the new building is progressing nicely, and the prospects for completion in the early fall are

HEARING POSTPONED

Announcement was made on last Thursday that hearing of the petition of the Alabama Power Company for a valuation of its physical property in the state, which hearing was to be had before the Alabama Public Service Commission on July 19, has been postponed to July 21. Citizens of Birmingham and other cities and towns where the value of the property owned by the Alabama Power Co. is considerable, are especially interested in this hearing, and it is probable that the number of persons in attendance will be unusually large.

PROMISE OF PEACE REDEEMED IN LITTLE OVER TWO MONTHS

Republican Administration Brings War With Germany to Official Close.

Washington, July 19.—Those who wish to be accurate up to the last detail will be interested in knowing the United States and Germany were officially at war four years, two months and twenty-six days. The state of war was brought to a close officially and technically July 2 at 3:10 P. M. (Easternn time) with signing of the Peace Resolution by President Harding at the home of Senator Frelinghuyseen at Raritan, N. J., where the President and Mrs. Harding were spending the fourth of July holidays. Two year, seven months and twenty-one days had elapsed since the signing of the armistice.

With the signature of President Harding was completed one of the pledges made by him and his party during the presidential campaign—namely, that, in the event the Republican party were placed in control of both branches of Congress and the presidency, one of the first acts of the administration would be to bring about peace with Germany.

European Tension Caused Delay

Congress was convened in special session April 11th and President Harding in his first mesage to Congress, April 13, urged peace by resolution. The senate promptly responded by passing such a resolution. About the time the House was ready to act upon the resolution, the differences between Germany and the Allied Council over the amount of reparations Germany should pay and the penalties that should be imposed in event of her failure, became so acute that all Europe seemed on the verge of a renewal of the war. At this point the German government appealed to the United States to act as arbiter, which petition was promptly refused in a short but firm note by Secretary Hughes. The tension was so great during this period that it was deemed the part of statesmanship for the House to defer action on the peace resolutiion. Had it been passed at that time, it might have led both Germany and the Allies to misinterpret the position and intentions of the United States and would have gravely agravated the already very serious situation in Europe. In consequence, nothing further was done regarding the peace resolution until the European situation became more settled.

Meanwhile, the Democrats were raising quite a clamor, alleging inexcusable delay in passing the peace resolution and accusing the Republican administration of repudiating the campaign pledges in this regard. The absurdity of these Democratic claims is exposed by the above facts. Including the period during which the critical situation in Europe made it inadvisable for the United States officially to declare itself at peace with Germany, only a little more than two months elapsed between the assembling of the special session of Congress and the passage of the resolution and signature by President Harding.

Not a Trivial Matter.

Furthermore, the records show that the Democratic party was not as anxious for a speedy peace as the protesttations of their leaders in Congress would lead the uninformed to believe. Peace could have been declared with Germany more than a year ago, had it not been for President Wilson. The Republican Congress in May, 1920, passed a peace resolution similar to the one President Harding has just signed. It was sent to President Wilson, but he vetoed it May 27, 1920.

WHAT IS THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE?

Since there are still some people who do not seem to understand the work and purpose of this organization and who show a tendency to withdraw their support, or refrain from joining the organization, we think it might be well to again state some of the reasons for its existence, and some of the things it is trying to do.

The Chamber of Commerce is a business organization for the purpose of protecting the merchants, the mutual counsel and cooperation of the business men in increasing trade and generally developing the community. It also endeavors to reach out to the farmers by securing for them good markets, and any other general assistance that it may be able to render them.

The locating of industries is also another feature of the organization but this is necessarily a slow process as there are hundreds of places with greater inducements than we can possibly offer. The following letter, however, received by the Secretary in reply to fifty letters sent out to various concerns will be of interest to our readers and show what steps are being taken for this purpose. The name of the concern is left out for obvious reasons, but the letter comes from a large and responsible company which manufactures all kinds of tool handles:

"Your letter of the 17th instant interests us very much, as we have been cruising the country around Athens, Decatur and Clanton with a view of locating a handle mill. Of course at the present time there will be nothing doing in this direction, but just as soon as there is a revival in business and conditions justify it, we will be more than glad to take the matter up with you very seriously. Thanking you for the interest you have manifested, we are," etc. This should be a good prospect for the Fall if business conditions improve.

Other projects are also on foot, such as the building of the highway from Clanton to Coopers, the establishing of a traffic department, all of which takes time to accomplish. Certainly every man who is interested in his county seat, or doing business therein of any kind should be a hearty supporter of this dignified and well recognized organization. Thru the Chamber of Commerce Clanton has received more definite advertising in the daily newspepers than ever before in its history, all of which will lead people this way to invest their interests in our midst. It also acts as a protection against fraud on the part of promoters who have no backing or are not genuine. This alone justifies its existence. So if you are not a member, see the secretary and become a worthy and desirable citizen of your community by joining this organization that is trying to do so much for your personal benefit.—P. G. Carter, Secretary.

REGISTRATION

Attention is called to the notice of registration published in this paper. Posters have also been sent to every Beat in the County advertising the session of the Registrars to be at the court house in Clanton from July 20 to July 30. Mr. J. W. E. Gulledge, Chairman of the Board is making every effort in his power to have all the people of the county know about the opportunity, for voters to register. He is asking that someone announce the registration at every church service or gathering of any kind from now until the 30th of this month, so that all who are entitled to register and be come voters may come before the Board at the court house and get their certificate.

O. B. Thompson and wife of Fairfield are in Clanton this week visiting relatives and friends.

WILLIAMS REUNION

Monday, July 4th, 1921, was a remarkable day for the children, grandchildren, relatives and friends of Jones Livingston Williams and Elizabeth Amanda Williams. The day was filled with experiences which will live in the memory of the Williams generation. Eighty-three of us met and mingled in Kicker's Grove, the place which afforded sufficient quietude and comfort to make the day a most enjoyable one. It reminded me of the celestial picture that has often come to my mind since my mother and grand parents left us. Surely the spirit which animated them was with us as we were assembled there. Every voice and every deed seemed to be in harmon with what is good and holy. There was a tinge of sacred unity even in the jokes and laughter of the older ones, and in the jubilant tricks of the children.

Mrs. Jennie Sims, Mrs. R. P. Woolley, H. A. Williams and P. D. Williams, who are the only living children of those in whose memory we met, were all present. It brought joy to the hearts of the grandchildren and friends to watch these four as they silently expressed their gratitude in having us all together. Besides the children there were thirty-five other Williamses by name, thirteen Woolleys from Selma, S. H. McArthur and family from Selma, W. M. Olive and family from Tuscaloosa, Elbert Littlejohn and family from Clanton, W. L. Sims from Wylam, J. W. Wood and family from Clanton, and J. G. Wood and family. We were very fortunate to have Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Kicker, who were our royal host and hostess, with us throughout the day. Then a number of old acquaintances and friends added pleasure to the day by calling around by the grove to see us.

After all the glad handshakes and cordial greetings which lasted thruout the morning were over, and a number of family jokes were enjoyed the baskets and lunch boxes burst forth with their bountiful contributions. I think it was agreed by all those present that they never faced more and better things to eat.

The afternoon was spent very pleasantly in a family circle reminiscing the experiences of kinsmen. I am quite sure that the old family ties were strengthened and new ones formed during this memorable day. Personally, it was to me a day of untold worth and happiness in that I was drawn nearer to loved ones and made to feel more than usual that love is able to lift us to a higher plane. May we always love and commemorate those principles which were held up before us by those who are waiting for us on the other side. —Mabel Williams.

NEW ENGLAND OPTIMISTIC

Boston, July 18.—Crops are in a splendid condition throughout New England. In the manufacture of cotton goods, mills making ginghams, percales and bleached muslins are at work full capacity and practically all woollen mills are operating at nearly full capacity. There is a very appreciable increase in activity in hides, leather and shoes. Retail reports show that in volume more goods are being sold than in 1920, although the prices are materially reduced. The credit situation is much better. Many concerns which were believed a few months ago to be hopelessly involved have braved the storm and their inventories have been liquidated, they are in position to take advantage of all favorable market conditions.

OLD TIME SINGING.

Mr. W. J. Morris has sent word to the Union-Banner that the old time singing will be held at Littlejohn Schoolhouse on the fifth Sunday evening in July, instead of Baker Schoolhouse on the fourth Sunday.

LIBERTY HILL

The Singing Society met at this place Sunday afternoon, July 17th, with a small crowd. Those who directed during the afternoon were: Glover Smith, Claudie and Lillie Smith. A song was sung by Necie Smith, Gussie Littlejohn, Ruth Sessions, Macie Littlejohn and Frances Lowery. A ladies quartett by Blanch Riggins, Gertrude Smith, Lillie and Claudie Smith. A mixed quartett by Lillie Arant, Senara Culp, Gertrude Smith, Bonnie Littlejohn, Glover Smith, Paul Littlejohn, Wilburn Ward and Alpheus Littlejohn. Also a duet by Lillie and Claudie Smith. Organists were Blanche Riggins, Lillie Smith and Velma Littlejohn. We are glad to have visitors any time. The society will meet again on the first Sunday afternoon in August. We invite all singers to come.—Bonnie Littlejohn.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

"THE STORE WITH THE RED FRONT"

MT. PLEASANT

Everyone seemed to enjoy the splendid sermon preached by Bro. Deason last Sunday. This line of work is entirely new to him, as this was his third sermon. He will also preach here the fourth Sunday in August and we cordially invite every one to come.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Massey visited Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Handley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Foshee were the guests of Misses Eula and Hattie Foshee Sunday

Misses Lona and Nora Thompson of Selma spent part of last week with their aunt, Mrs. John Duncan.

Miss Dovie Foshee left Saturday for Elmore where she will spend a few days with friends and relatives.

Misses Jessie and Myrtice Logan spent Sunday with Miss Pearlie Barrett.

Mr. Lonnie Dozier has returned to his home in Elmore, after spending a few days with friends here.

Mrs. W. H. Foshee visited Mrs. G. H. Massey Sunday.

AWAY ON VACATION

Rev. P. G. Carter left Monday afternoon for a vacation of two weeks to be spent on the Coast of Georgia and Florida. He went from here to Atlanta, and will proceed to Savannah, Tybee Island and Jacksonville, Fla., before returning home. Bro. Carter will not visit England this summer.

BUILDING NEW HOUSE

Farley Brothers, contractors, are now engaged in building a new residence for Judge Reynolds at corner of Fourth Avenue and Eighth St. It is designed to be a very handsome building when completed.

LOST—$10 on streets of Clanton, two five-dollar bills folded. If found return to Union-Banner and receive reward.

Don't forget to come to Mt. Pleasant the fourth Sunday.

MEN and FIGURES

A Bank's solvency is more than a matter of figures. A balanced statement of condition, with its array of figures is accepted by the public in confidence proportionate to the confidence in the men behind the figures.

HUGHES RE-ESTABLISHS VIRILE AMERICANISM IN FOREIGN AIMS

"Open Door" Letter Most Important State Document Issued.

American diplomacy has returned to normalcy. Once again it is the policy of the State Department to assert the good old-fashioned doctrine of Americanism, without fear, shame or apology and to notify foreign powers that interference with American rights abroad or their abidgement will not be countenanced by the United States.

The largest exhibition of revitalized American statecraft is Secretary Hughes' brief but vigorous note reaffirming America's insistence upon the "open door" policy in China. The occasion of this announcement was an inquiry from the Chinese Minister at Washington as to whether the American Government contemplated withdrawing its support of the rights of an American concern which entered into a contract with the Chinese government last January to erect certain wireless stations in China, inasmuch as the British, Japanese and Danish governments had protested to China against granting such rights to an American concern. Protests were based upon the ground that the contract conflicts with certain monopolistic rights by wireless concerns of the protesting nations, which contend they enjoy certain special priviliges and concessions in China.

"Open Door" Must not be Shut.

Secretary Hughes notifies the Chinese minister that such assertions of monopolistic rights in China "cannot be reconciled, either with the treaty of rights of American citizens in China or with the principle of the 'open door.' Your reference to the principle of the 'open door' afofrds me the opportunity to assure you of this Government's continuance of its whole-hearted support of that principle." Secretary Hughes further stated the enforcement of the "open door" policy in China is indispensible to the free and peaceful development of commerce on the Pacific Ocean. He assures the Chinese minister that the United States does not seek to establish any special rights in China which would abridge the rights of citizens of other friendly powers, but it will not acquiesce in any agreement which permits this to be done by other powers.

This re-affirmation of the doctrine of the "open door" in connection with the Far Eastern problems is the most important State document issued by Secretary Hughes. It came while consideration of the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance occupied the center of the stage of international diplomacy. One of the features of this Alliance was an agreement of these two powers to defend each other's "special rights" in China. Secretary Hughes' letter gave both England and Japan notice, none the less pointed because it was given indirectly that the United States would not "acquiesce" in their shutting the "open door" in China by dividing beween themselves commercial and economic privileges in that country to the conclusion or inferiority of other nations.

No Mistaking U. S. Attitude.

It was an iron hand in a velvet glove. The warning was heeded in London and Tokio. While those two capitals gave pause in their deliberations, there came President Harding's invitation for a conference to consider disarmament and, because "the limitation of armaments has a close relation to Pacific and Far Eastern problems," a consideration also of those problems.

The result is now history. The Anglo-Japanese Alliance was not renewed. President Harding's invitation for a disarmament conference was accepted. The United States has resumed her old-time leadership in world affairs by returning to her traditional virile policy of upholding the rights of the American government and American citizens wherever they may be questioned or brought into jeopardy.

OAK HILL

Our singing society met at this place Sunday afternoon with only a part of the class present. We were sorry the Collins Chapel class could not be with us, but were glad to hear that they had such a wonderful meeting in progress down there. We had some visitors from Oak Grove and other places, which we were very glad to see. The Union Grove class was on hand and did their part. And also the faithful few from Jemison who have been so nice in helping to build up the society.

Our singing society was organized in May of 1920 with less than two dozen members, and struggled on though surrounded with great opposition, until late in the fall Union Grove united with us and we have been steadily growing since that time. Only a few weeks ago Collins Chapel and Jemison classes united with us. So now we are thankful that we can claim a place among the best in the county.

Our president being absent again, the society was called to order by vice-president A. H. Glasscock, after a song and prayer. The following directors were called: Miss Mollie Vinzant, Vernon Northcutt, Miss Flossie Cobb, Vester Campbell, Miss Emma Arledge; recess 15 minutes; Leonard Glasscock, Charles Glasscock, A. H. Glasscock, a duet by Miss Emma Arledge and Myrtle Dorminey.

Organists for the afternoon were Misses Lena Glasscock, Myrtle Dorminey, Esther Atkinson, Emma Arledge, Flossie Cobb.

They were all at their best and did some fine singing, which was enjoyed by all present.

The society will meet with Jemison Baptist Church next Sunday, the 31 instead of the first Sunday in August. Let every one who possibly can go, and show the people of Jemison that we appreciate what they are doing to help build up our society.

SHOULTS

Sunday School is moving along nicely under the careful management of Mr. H. R. Oden as Superintendent.

There will be prayer meeting here every Sunday evening about 5 p.m. Let us everyone put forth an effort to make this a success, one that will be upbuilding to the community. We need more old people in the lead. Just as the old sheep lead the young, so must the old men and women lead the young girls and boys.

Mr. Ernest Hamrick of Stanton was one among the visitors at Sunday School last Sunday.

Mrs. Daisy Garrett and son of Montgomery are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Sallie Sewell.

Mr. Lee Sewell has been discharged from the army. He is now spending a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. Sallie Sewell.

Mrs. J. F. Bearden has as her guest her aunt, Mrs. Nancy Frith of Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hamrick of Stanton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis.

Mrs. I. N. Raney, two sons and daughter of Snyder,, Okla., have been visiting their brother and uncle, Mr. J. R. McAfee. They returned home last week, carrying many souvenirs with them. It was their first visit to Alabama.

Misses Etta Mae and Rosa Hall spent the week end with relatives of Cox.

Miss Myrtle Ingram and Miss Bobbie Smith are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Clark Lawley of Cox.

Mrs. C. Hall has been spending a few days with relatives of Tabernacle.

The literary school at this place started Monday morning, with Mr. H. R. Oden as principal and Mrs. Bessie Garner assistant.

Miss Myrtle McAfee and Miss Eva Hall dined with Miss Lillie Bearden Sunday.

The ball team at this place played Stanton a game last Wednesday p.m. Shoults winning by 8 to 7. They also played Maplesville Saturday p.m. Shoults being victorious, by 7 to 2.

REV. BEN HUGHES DEAD

The many friends of Rev. B. C. Hughes will regret to learn of his death, which occured in Birmingham Monday morning. Rev. Hughes had been very low for some weeks, having been carired from his home in Siluria to a Birmingham Infirmary some time ago. The deceased leaves two sons and two daughters, all of whom are grown, to mourn after him.

The remains were laid to rest in Avondale Cemetery Tuesday.

LEGAL NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Probate Court, July 26, 1921.

This day came Mrs. Belle Smith, of the estate of J. L. Smith, deceased, and filed her petition in writing under oath in this court, for an order to sell certain lands belonging to said estate, described in said petition, for paying the debts due by said estate, upon the ground that the personal property of said estate is insufficient for the payment of the debts.

It is therefore ordered that the 29th day of August, 1921, be appointed a day for the hearing of said petition, when any person interested may appear and contest the said application if they think proper.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Two good congregations were present last Sunday, which were much appreciated by the pastor of the church. There was also a good crowd at Sunday School, some 126 being present, which is about as many as we can accommodate in the present building, but which is about half as many as we are expecting when we get into the new building with proper equipment. We appreciate the large number of visitors present at our services and desire to draw the attention of many of the absentee members that we are missing them from our services. With their presence the present building would be overflowing to the doors. Those who are negligent in this matter are reminded of their duty and obligation to the Lord, and earnestly invited to return to the house of worship as soon as possible.

The pastor will be absent from the city about ten days on his vacation so there will be no services next Sunday. The Sunday School and Young Peoples meetinbs will be held as usual. The next regular preaching services will be held on Sunday, August 7th.

Let us begin to work and plan for the great joint meeting of the churches which is to begin on the 18th of September. Dr. Charles P. Weigle as been engaged and is very highly recomemnded for such meetings as these

When the pastor can serve you let him know as he always is at your service when needed.

P. G. CARTER, Pastor.

WHY NOT A HOSPITAL?

Clanton and Chilton County has a nice court house where the business of the people's government is carried on; a good sanitary jail where the lawless are placed for safekeeping; good school buildings where the rising generations are taught the things they will need to know in the pursuit of life's future ways; good churches (and better ones building) in which the people may go and worship God according to the dictates of their conscience; good hotels to take care of the stranger who may be within our gates; and many other modern conveniences which make life a pleasure in our modern little city and thriving county.

These things are all right, and are very necessary and proper. But they are for people who are well and in a hale physical condition.

Now, why not have a hospital in Clanton where sick people can get the proper attention in the same measure that the other institutions mentioned above take care of the needs of those who are well?

WE CAN HAVE A HOSPITAL.

Some months ago we had something to say in these columns on the subject of a hospital for Clanton and Chilton County. Now we have come back to that matter again, and we can see more potency in the proposition now than in the past.

We heartily agree with those who contend that there is a great need of a hospital in Clanton. We are situated in the midst of a large scope of territory in central Alabama in which there is no institution for the proper care and teatment of the sick. This teritory extends from Montgomery on the south to Birmingham on the north; from Selma on the west to the Georgia state line on the east. Nothing argues stronger for the location of a modern hospital in Clanton than the very fact that we occupy the geographical center of this great stretch of territory in which there is no hospital.

The plans that have been brewing for some months among the members of the medical profession and other interested parties are for the organization of a stock company for the building, maintenance and operation of a hospital in Clanton, backed up strictly by local capital. The doctors who are interested in the matter are our home doctors, in whom the people have confidence. If we go into a stock company with them as our partners in the business, we can feel safe that our interests will be safeguarded. The formation of a stock company on the basis proposed and the taking of the stock by the people of Clanton and Chilton county will insure for us a reasonable rate of charges for work done at the hospital.

Contrast in your own mind for a moment the picture of a hospital in Clanton on the basis outlined above, with the picture of one established here by outside men and outside capital, and operated by people who are interested in Clanton and Chilton county only for the money they may extract from the people. Which plan do you think would be the best for our people?

Well now, if we don't put up a hospital ourselves in Clanton to serve this large territory, pretty soon some stranger will grasp the opportunity and our chances will be gone.

There is no system under the sun that is as sensible and practical for the establishment and operation of such an institution in Clanton as that found in the co-operation of the local doctors with the home people of the town and county. It is the cheapest way by which to set up the plant and start it going. Then it is just as safe for good results to the patients as any hospital in the state of Alabama.

The greatest humbug in this whole land and country is the idea that one can get better medical treatment in Birmingham or some other city than can be had in Clanton. Such ideas as these are designed only for the purpose of fooling the poor man out of his money. And you can mark one thing—he who follows one of such ideas off to the distant city, if he comes back dead or alive, comes back minus his pocket book and bank account.

We can get just as good medical attention in Clanton as any place in Alabama. Place at the disposal of Clanton's doctors the right kind of a hospital and equipment, and we challenge any set of physicians in the whole state to turn out a better job than they can. We can give you a few facts and figures that will bear us out in this confidence in our home doctors, and will do so in a subsequent article on the subject.

But here is the milk in the cocoanut—the need of a hospital, a place to put a sick person and give him or her a chance to get well. Clanton is needing such a place worse than it needs anything else we can mention. We are glad to say that such an institution can be built and operated here. It looks like a sure go now. We shall have more to say about it as the weeks go by.

"The National Republican administration is slow in solving the problems of our country. So far it is just where is started on March 4th."—The Prattville Progres.

There are none so blind, Brother Doster, as you Democratic editors who purposely "refuse to see." You are sitting at the hole and the rats are running out by the hundreds, but you do not see any of them, because you have your eyes closed to keep from seeing them. You have bet that the Republicans could not rebuild this country after the Democrats tore it up and mutilated it for eight years. Now you are so afraid they will fix it back that you have closed your eyes to make sure you will not see any improvement.

ELECTRICITY IN CLANTON

A Story of Our Development and Progress.

Wouldn't it sound funny to hear a leading man in Clanton—one of the principal merchants or a banker—say that he didn't believe electric lights were "safe" or practical? Or, what would you think if you heard a prominent citizen say he wouldn't let the things be put in his store or residence for fear they would set it on fire? All such notions as these would get the horse laugh now; but there is more than one man, prominent and progressive citizens of this town today, who have made just such amusing statements in the past. These same men today are perhaps not only lighting their homes and stores and offices by means of electricity, but very likely much of the food they eat is prepared by electrical apparatus; their clothes are washed and ironed every week by electricity, may be; if they hapen to be farmers their cotton is likely ginnned by electrical power, and their corn and wheat and feed stuff ground in the same way.

In the last ten years electricity has become so common in Clanton, and we think so little about it that it is both amusing and interesting to look back over those brief years and see again what fools some of us acted when the electrical "fad" first hit our town. Then there is another thing that makes the subject of electricity an interesting matter for us. We are situated at what has become the center of the greatest electrical development system in Alabama. By virtue of the activities of the Alabama Power Company, the eyes of the entire state are now looking to our part of the Coosa River for their supply of the greatest and most important domestic and comercial commodity, hydro-electricity—that is, electricity developed and generated by water powei. Tremendous as the program of development now looks to us, how do you suppose it would look to one who went to sleep in Clanton in 1906 and woke up about 1923? Imagine the staggering scene such a one would behold, two of the largest electrical generating plants in the whole country built and in operation right at our door on the Coosa, with a network of wires carrying the "juice" to all parts of the state, turning thousands and thousands of the wheels of industry from Tenessee to the Gulf. And perhaps also that same fellow went to sleep doubting if electric lights could really be depended upon to make lights.

There is a good deal of interest attached to the story of how Clanton in fifteen years came to develop a real faith in electricity, and established the almost universal use of it for domestic and comemrcial purposes. We suppose it came about very much the same way in every town or city, but the interest in the story is individual to each and every individual community.

Mr. Joseph P. VanDerveer holds the distinction of being the first man to introduce electric lights in Clanton. In 1906 when B. H. Duke was running a planing mill near what is now the J. C. Jones residence, Mr. VanDerveer, by agreement with Mr. Duke, placed his electric dynamo at the mill and Mr. Duke furnished the steam power with which to generate the "juice." The Banner, of April 5, 1906, had the following to say in regard to Mr. VanDerveer's venture:

"Lighten our darkness" has long been the prayer of the good people of Clanton, and it is now to be answered. The Clanton Electric Light and Power Company are making preparations to put in a plant at once, and the town has contracted with them for fifty lights to be placed on the streets, so that it will be a pleasure to walk down town after nightfall. One good effect will be largely increased attendance at church and prayer meetings. J. P. VanDerveer is general superintendent of the new company.

The Banner of April 19, 1906, noted further progress of the venture by saying:

The electric light poles are planted, next thing the wires will be stretched. B. H. Duke is getting the power ready and soon our nights will be light as day—more or less. Building is booming and everyone is too busy for politics.

The Union of the same date takes note of the progress being made in the new lighting system for the town by saying:

Clanton is bound to have electric lights very soon. The VanDerveer Light and Power Company are getting the poles up very fast, and will dispel the darkness that envelopes our streets at night.

Expressing a renewed hope for the installation of the new lights, The Union on May 24, 1906 says:

The electric light wires are being put in place, and Clanton bids fair soon to have light in the dark places.

The first building to be lighted by electricity in Clanton was the court house—the one that was burned in 1918. Mr. VanDerveer's story of that incident is very interesting. A large number of the townspeople, men, women and children, were out to see the great curiosity on the night of Tuesday, July 31st, 1906. When the lights had been turned on and the excitement subsided, Hon. Thos. A. Curry made a speech befitting the extraordinary occasion.

The Banner of August 2, 1906, made the following mention of the lighting of the court house:

Tuesday night the electric light was turned on at the court house, and for the first time in history Chilton County's court house was illuminated as it should be. It is to be hoped that some of these dark nights the streets of Clanton will also be made walkable for the citizens and the stranger who may be within our gates.

The first residence to be lighted, according to Mr. VanDerveer, was that of Mr. E. M. Pinckard, which then had just been completed. This is the same house which is now owned by Mr J. C. Jones. The lighting of the Pinckard home, together with the event of its completion and occu pancy by the family, was celebrated with a big party, in the midst of whch the fireman at the planing mill went to sleep and let the steam get so low that the lights went out. The party stopped when the lights stopped. When a new head of steam had been raised by the physical efforts of Mr. VanDerveer himself (Mr. Duke refused to be awakened before the next morning) the lights resumed and the party carried on, completing its program somewhere after the middle of the night.

Following the Pinckard residence the lights were installed in the homes of Dr. Hayes, W. H. Sartor, and the Methodist Church The Baptists at that time would not allow them to be put in their church for fear it would burn the building. They must have disagreed with The Banner in the statement that electric lights would cause more people to attend church and prayer meeting. Maybe they thought people would not come about them for fear they would blow up and cause a disturbance in the midst of a sermon or a prayer

In purchasing some goods one of the big merchants of the town had been given a large electric sign by the house from which he made the purchase. He would not allow the sign to be put up touching his frame storehouse. A scaffold was built in front of the store and the sign placed upon it. We will not tell the name of that merchant, but he was one of those Baptists who refused to let the lights be put in the church, and he is still a prominent citizen of Clanton.

On the night the lights were turned on at the court house, after the ceremony was about over (maybe while Mr. Curry was making his speech) one prominent citizen, with the ever-present umbrella, strolled down to the planing mill to see the dynamo at work. He was curious to see the machine that could make such wonderful stuff as electricity. As he stood watching the little dynamo someone must have been pranking with the switch at the court house; something got wrong and a kind of backfire caused the dynamo to emit great spurts, flames and flashes of the current. The aforesaid spectator departeed from the presence of the dynamo without making any announcement of his intentions to leave. He did take time to reach up and get his hat as he went away, but the umbrella was left at the scene of the fright. He never did go back to get it and possibly could not form any idea as to where he left it.

Mr VanDerveer has in his possession the first money that was paid to him for eelectric lights in Clanton. It is $3.00 in silver, which is sealed in an envelope bearing this notation:

This money ($3.00 in silver) is the first money paid to me for lights in Clanton—a street show was in Clanton about June, 1906 and I furnished them lights for $3.75 per night. Balance of the money was paid to B. H. Duke to supply power. This $3.00 was my part. Am keeping it as the first money received.

Mr. VanDerveer moved his electrical machinery from the Duke planing mill and set up his own plant at the rear of the Masonic Hall, where he made his own steam power to generate the current. Here he operated for some time, having Alva Wade employed to keep the plant running. As time went on the expenses of running the plant bore heavily on its promoter, and the support of the people of the town was very limited. Mr. VanDerveer began to look for an opportunity to quit the venture and save himself from financial loss. This opportunity came one evening about sundown just as the boiler had been fired up for the night's run. The governors on the engine flew off and partially wrecked the wires and other apparatus, tearing a large hole in the roof of the engine house as they passed out into space. This ended Mr. VanDerveer's career in the light business.

A short while afterward he sold the property to J. Q. and and Alva Wade The story of the Wade Light Company extending up to the time when they sold out to the Alabama Power Company a little over a year ago, needs no rehearsal at our hands. Suffice it to say that under the management of the Wades the system grew into larger proportions, many more people began the use of electricity for lighting as they became convinced that it was "safe," and the business was firmly established in Clanton as a necessary public utility. Those who at first doubted the practicability of electricity were converted to its use and value.

Now we get our lights and power from the Alabama Power Company. The current we use comes to us from the Lock 12 plant on the Coosa River. The use of electricity for lighting purposes is not by any means all the purpose it is made to serve here now. Joe Maddox gins cotton with it in the fall; Dr. Gragg makes X-Rays with it after the fall; Hugh Thompson grinds corn with it; Dr. Crumpton grinds teeth with it; our drug stores make milk shakes with it; the barbers cut hair with it; the garages fix automobiles with it; the shoe shops mend shoes with it; The Union-Banner sets type and prints papers with; and the Lord only knows what we will be doing with it in another fifteen years.

It is no reflection upon those who expressed doubts about electricity in 1906. There are many things being done electrically right here in Clanton to-day that even the wisest of us would have scoffed at in 1906 when Mr. VanDerveer started the business.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlains Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

FRIENDSHIP REVIVAL IS IN FULL SWAY

The revival meeting at Friendship Baptist Church this week is drawing very large crowds both day and night. Rev. Hand is preaching, and reports come that he is doing some fine work. Four members have united themselves to the church already.

It is expected that the meeting will continue until the last of this week, probably until Sunday.

Miss Kathleen Mullins Entertains.

A most enjoyable picture show party was given on last Friday by Miss Kathleen Mullins as a special courtesy to her sister, Mrs. Amzi Gowan, of Brewton.

After seeing a most thrilling picture the guests were invited to Upchurch Drug Store where refreshing ices were served to Mrs. Gowan, Mrs. Luckie, Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. Hugh Jones, and the hostess.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

IMAGINE SCRUBBING YOUR TEETH WITH SANDPAPER

You say you wouldn't do it, of course. But, as a matter of fact, you do as bad every day. That is, if you use ordinary gritty tooth pastes and powders, which not only wear away the enamel on your teeth, also allowing decay to set in, but which also leaves your gums very raw and bleeding.

ePople everywhere are beginning to see real dangers in abrasiv tooth pastes and are turning to liquid dentifrices. Perhaps the most satisfactory of these is Steroline. A few drops of Steroline on your tooth brush each day keeps your mouth and teeth in perfect condition. Being a liquid, Steroline reaches and cleanses out all the hidden crevices that tooth pastes never reach. Keeps your mouth cool and sweet, heals bleeding gums, and acts as a real preventive against the many diseases contracted through the mouth. Sold and highly recommended by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton, Ala.

THOSE ENTITLED TO REGISTER

Attention of the public is called to the announcement of the County Board of Registrars of their session at the court house in Clanton, beginning on July 20th, and continuing through July 30th. Mr. Gulledge, the chairman of the Board of Registrars, is very anxious for everybody to know about this opportunity for registration, and especially those who may be entitled to register and become qualified voters of Chilton County.

The Union-Banner has requested Mr. Gulledge to state briefly what constitutes qualifications for registration, and the following is the statement he gave us:

1. All persons qualified to register and who have not heretofore registered in this county.

2. Those moving their citizenship from another county, provided they have been in this county twelve months or more.

3. All persons who have lost their certificates of registration, or have had them mutilated or destroyed, are entitled to another certificate.

4. All persons who are 21 years old, who otherwise would be entitled to register.

All reasonable efforts should be made to spread the news of this opportunity to register to the utmost parts of the county, and all citizens who are enitled to do so, should come and register and establish themselves as full fledged qualified citizens, and be able to exercise their ballot in voting on matters that may come up in the future for the good of the county, state and nation.

Start fresh all over again at the beginning! Get a pipe!—and forget every smoke experience you ever had that spilled the beans! For a jimmy pipe, packed brimful with Prince Albert, will trim any degree of smokejoy you ever registered! It's a revelation!

Put a pin in here! Prince Albert can't bite your tongue or parch your throat. Both are cut out by our exclusive patented process. So, just pass up any old idea you may have stored away that you can't smoke a pipe! We tell you that you can—and just have the time of your life on every fire-up—if you play Prince Albert for packing!

What P. A. hands you in a pipe it will duplicate in a home-made cigarette! Gee—but you'll have a lot of fun rolling 'em with Prince Albert; and, it's a cinch because P. A. is crimp cut and stays put!

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

Mrs. E. W. Butler is spending a few weeks in Hendersonville, N. C., visiting with Miss Elizabeth Hoopes.

Mr. Albert Anderson spent a few days here with his parents before leaving for Sylva, N. C., where he will be employed for some time doing some construction work.

Miss Nolia Robinson is spending a few days here with her parents.

Mrs. H. V. Thomsen has as her guest this week, Mrs. Green of Birmingham.

Miss Ruth Peterson, who has been visiting her parents here for the past two weeks. returned to Birmingham Monday where she is employed as a stenographer for the Parisian Co.

An interesting social event which took place this week was the affair given by Mrs. H. V. Thompson Monday night when she entertained a few friends honoring her guest, Mrs. Green of Birmingham. Music and dancing was the main feature of the evening, and delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Agnes Leary, Ollie Bray, Gladys Carden, Naemi Turnquist, the honor guest, Messrs. Earl Leary, Monroe Bray, W. M. Parnell and Clyde Meade.

The Ladies Guild will meet Thursday, July 28th, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Graham.

Mrs. Inga Howard entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson and family.

On Sunday afternoon a number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. John Carlson, welcoming her back home after an absence of almost two months. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served.

Watermelons! Watermelons! Watermelons! Whee! If you want to see melons, and more melons, just come to Thorsby. You can't look anywhere without seeing a melon, and they are not the little puny kind but they are whoppers, and good, o-oo-ee. They are some class. Believe us, Thorsby is some busy and if you don't believe it, just come around and see the watermelon sight. It is a show worth coming to see. About 200 cars are expected to be shipped.

On last Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Soberg delightfully entertained the members of the Luther League and Choral Society. After the guests had arrived a watermelon cutting was enjoyed. Then games were played and victrola music was enjoyed. Later in the evening lemonade and cake was served. A jolly good time was had by all present. The hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Soberg was such as will long be remembered in Thorsby.

The home of Mrs. Martha Grothy was the scene of a delightful social event last Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Grothy and Miss Nellie Werness entertained in the honor of Mrs. Roland Mikesell of Council Bluffs, Iowa. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent in social intercourse, after which delicious refreshments were served. The guests included Mesdames Roland Mikesell, E. N. Dyrhood, Martin Peterson, J. Lefstead, Magne Anderson, B. Erdahl, I. H. Horn. Misses Caroline Skinnes, Olga Grinley, and Clara Peterson.

Mr. C. R. Foss spent two days in Birmingham last week, attending to some business matters.

Mrs. John Carlson and daughter, Pearl, returned home Saturday after visiting for some time various points in the north.

Miss Reynolds Hostess.

One of the largest and prettiest of the social functions of the season was the linen shower given by Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and Miss Lessie Reynolds on Wednesday evening entertaining for Miss Willie Belle Sartor, whose wedding to Mr. Lucius Crutcher Ross will be an interesting event of next Wednesday.

The lovely home of Mrs. Reynolds was never prettier than on this occasion, being radiant with summer blossoms carrying out the bridal motif of the rainbow colors.

The guests were received and invited into the living room where punch was served from a pretty table banked with tall ferns and amid baskets of pink rosebuds, by Mrs. Guy Roberts.

An interesting contest, "A Romance in Song," was successfully conducted by Mrs. R. E. Luckie, and it proved to be an enjoyable feature of the entertained, and a dainty linen handkerchief was awarder for the most correct answers.

After the musical program little Misses Jane and Helen Roberts dressed in rainbow colors led the bride to the end of the rainbow to find the pot of gold. In the parlor a rainbow had been made and placed here were the numerous and useful linens.

The bride-to-be was never more handsome than on this occasion wearing a gorgeous black satin dress with large black tafetta picture hat.

Late in the afternoon the guests were invited into the dining room, where the rainbow colors still prevailed in the ices and cakes. Mrs. R. C. McDavid served the cake from the dining table centered with a basket of exquisite roses which lent their fragrance and color to this scene. Mrs. Percy Pitts served cream, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Smith. About 100 guests called during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gore have as their guest Mrs. W. L. Martin and Mr. Haywood of Houston, Texas.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which griped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

Card Club Meets Tuesday.

Mrs. R. E. Luckie was hostess at a bridge party on Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained the members of her card club and several extra guests.

A quantity of zenias, marigolds, and ferns adorned the apartments where the tables were arranged for the game. At the close of the game the highest score was held by Mrs. Grady Reynolds, who was awarded a couple of hand-made handkerchiefs.

Late in the evening the hostess served a tempting salad plate to the following players: Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. Vic Heard, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. Macy Jones, Mrs. McSwain, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Samuel Johnson, Mrs. J. D. Armstrong, Mrs. Clyde Jones, and Miss Kathleen Mullins. The Club will meet with Mrs. Heard next Thursday at four o'clock.

The younger set enjoyed a pretty party last Wednesday night given by Miss Pearl Minor celebrating her thirteenth birthday.

Cannot Express His Gratitude

MEMPHIS MAN IS GRATEFUL FOR WIFE'S RECOVERY FROM SEVERE ATTACK PNEUMONIA.

Among the hundreds of people who have realized the powers of Tanlac is the wife of Jeff Chastain, of 712 Chelsea St., Memphis, Ten.

"I am convinced," said Mr. Chastain, "from the wonderful improvement Tanlac has made in my life's health that there's nothing so good for a run down system. Last January she had a severe attack of pneumonia and for a time no hope was held out for her recovery. Finally the crisis passed, however, and she was able to sit up, but had to be lifted in and out of bed. She had no appetite, could not eat and just lingered on in her weakened condition.

"After the ordinary treatment failed to start her up hill I bought her a bottle of Tanlac and the way she has improved is astonishing. In a few days she had a splendid appetite and was up and about the house and is like an entirely different person. It has helped her like it had been made especially for her case and I have never seen or heard of anyone getting back their strength so rapidly. She sleeps soundly every night, gets up in the mornings feeling thoroughly refresheed and rested. She has also gotten rid of a very anoying cough the pneumonia left her with and is gaining right along in weight. I am so thankful to see her getting strong and well again that I just can't express my gratitude."

25 YEARS AGO

As Printed in "The Banner" of JULY 30, 1896.

Mr. Bascom McMorris has accepted a position at the Clanton Drug Co.

Miss Bettie Mullins visited friends in Jemison Sunday.

Tuesday night Mrs. W. H. Foshee had a very unpleasant experience. Some time after retiring she awoke and found a man in the room. She alarmed the house and Mr. Durwood Foshee made a search, but found no one about, although the doors which he had closed before going to bed were found open.

Jim Abrams was arrested on Wednesday at Maplesville, charged with assault, and was brought to Clanton and jailed.

Mr. Forest Potts is down on the sick list this week. The hand holt broke loose and he fell from a running train a few nights ago, and he bruised himself considerably. We are glad to say he is improving.

Mr. W. T. Callen is about to build an addition to his residence.

Several of the workmen on the new court house were compelled to quit work yesterday on account of the intense heat.

Marriage license were issued this week to Mr. J. P. Nix and Mrs. Anna J. Ward; Mr. Daniel W. Jones and Miss Lizzie Stephens; Mr. Thos. L. Wyatt and Miss Minerva Headley; Mr. J. P. Rainwater and Miss Mattie Wells; Mr. W. F. Teel and Miss Annie Lee Baker; Mr. John E. Jones and Miss Mahala Ellison; Mr. Thos. H. Williams and Miss Eliza McCullough.

SIMS UHELD

Senator Frederick Hale of Maine, chairman of the sub-committee that several months ago investigated charges preferred by Admiral Sims against the conduct of the Navy Department during the war, has completed his report and submitted it to the Senate. It is bassed on the evidence contained in about 4,000 pages of testimony taken in the investigation, and it is an endorsemet of the stand taken by the Admiral. His criticisms were directed not only against the policies of former Secretary Daniels but against the organization of the department itself as not being such as to enable the effective prosecution of a war. The Democratic members of the subcommittee filed a minority report and naturally took exception to the assertins of Admiral Sims.

PROVIDENCE, BEAT 16

The protracted meeting at this place will begin on Saturday before the first Sunday in September, and run into the following week.

Mr. W. B. Rainer and son, O. S. Rainer, of Elba, were in Clanton last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Elmore.

WASHINGTON LETTER

To Restore Pneumatic Service.

Engineers retained by the Joint Congressional Postal Service Commission, after investigations at the New York post office, have recommended that the pneumatic tube service in that office be re-established. The tubes were in operation for several years up to the latter part of the Burleson administration of the depatment, but for some reason he became bitterly antagonistic to their use, and appropriations for them were discontinued. The former President vetoed one annual post office appropriation bill for the sole reason that it contained an item for the operation of the tubes. Similar tube systems are installed in post offices in other large cities and it is anticipated that they will shortly be put into service again. It has been demonstrated many times that the handling of first class mail can be greatly expedited through the use of the tubes.

Priority of Tax Law.

Sentiment in both Houses of Congress appears to be increasing in favor of putting the new internal revenue tax bill ahead of the tariff measure. Word has been received from the Bureau of Internal Revenue that unless the revised law is received soon it will be impossible to reorganize the working force of the Bureau so as to handle its provisions in their application to incomes for 1921. Republican leaders in the Senate are said to favor pigeonholing the tariff bill when it comes from the House until the measure has been taken up and passed. Millions of new tax blanks must be printed and new regulations prepared to conform with the new internal revenue law, and unless there is sufficient time to accomplish the work before January 1st it is feared that business will be thrown into confusion.

Take Stock.

In his campaign for economy in the government service, Gen. Dawes ordered every bureau to make an inventory of its office equipment and hand over to the General Supply Committee all articles of furniture, typewriters, etc., that it has no immediate use for. Future purchase of new supplies will be prohibited so long as the Committee is able to fill requisitions from the stocks on hand. Many thousands of dollars will be saved by the new rules. Heretofore it has been the practice of bureau chiefs in need of equipment to buy the stuff in the outside market, with little regard to what the government might have on hand in the shape of second hand goods. Great big storhouses have been kept filled with slightly used equipment that has rapidly deteriorated and been finally sold at auction at prices far below the original price. Gen. Dawes has decreed an end to the extravagant practice.

Comparing.

Howard Elliott, of the Northern Pacific Railroad, wants the sober minded people of the country to counteract the teachings of the I. W. W., the sovietists, the socialists, etc. Well we see some progress along that line. The experiment in government operation of the railroads, under Mr. McAdoo, et al., was something of a jolt to people who had begun to look with diffidence upon the socialistic propaganda. The American people have had enough of that and they are beginning to say so.

Little by Little.

Here and there, from day to day, the Harding administration is lopping off one little government extravagance after another and will eventually get government expense down to the irreducible minimum. After government employees have had 8 years in which to form habits of waste and luxury, it is difficult to get them back to habits of economy. But persistence will finally attain that end.

Grave Debate.

One effect of postponing of the soldier bonus bill is the stimulation of public discussion of the measure, such as could have been obtained in no other way. It is probabe that not one man in a thousand had any clear conception of the obligation upon the treasury that the passage of the measure would have entailed, or the ability of the treasury to meet the paymens. The wide publication of Secretary Mellon's letter, and the publicity given to the whole subject by President Harding's address to the Senate, have stirred wide inquiry as to just the effect that the bonus bill would have had upon the tax payers.

There is no more effective way to insure legislation that the majority of the people want, and only such as they want, than to subject it to the widest possible discussion. It is quite possible that the league of nations would have received the approval of the Senate had a vote been taken without debate thereon and without time being given the people in which to study the document and register their opinion. There was a delay of some months during which the most thorough consideration was given to proposal, and the people concluded overwhelmingly that they would have nothing of it. At other times in our history sugested legislation of major importance has been subjected to amendment or actual defeat by the presence of public opinion following unrestricted discussion of its provisions.

A soldier relief bill will probably be passed in the future, but that it will differ in many respects from the measure now before Congress seems assured. The more the people learn of the condition of the national treasury, the greater will be their opposition to the cash bonus features of the measure. There are ways in which Federal relief can be extended to the overseas veterans, other than in the distribution of money, that would be of more permanent benefit to them and put far less burden upon the treasury. When the measure is finally enacted into law it will be written as the majority of the people of the country want it, a fact made possible only through President Harding's plea for delay.

Billiousness and Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with billiousnes and constipation which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

LAWRENCE GARAGE

J. P. LAWRENCE, Proprietor

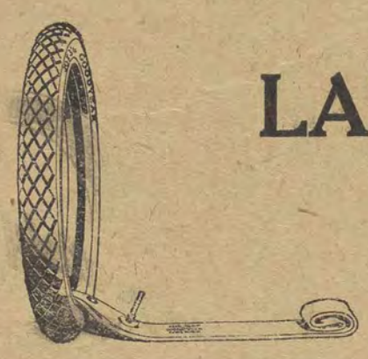
Clanton, Ala.

Mr. Automobile Owner:—

We have been in business selling Automobile tires, tubes, accessories, etc., for some time, and we are here to stay, too.

We realize we couldn't stay long if we didn't serve the public satisfactorily. None of us has much use for a fellow that seems to have no particular aim in life except to get all and give as little as he can.

We want to build up a reputation for this establishment as being one of the safest places in town to buy. We want you to feel that whether you come personally or send to us for some article, it makes no difference. Our service and the quality of goods we handle are uniform.



Take the tire question for example. You would get the same Goodyear tire and the same expert service that goes with it, whether you called personally or sent your car around.

This peace of mind is worth a lot to the busy car owner. We don't want you to feel that you have to waste time "checking up" or "shopping around" to see where you can get the best values.

This is exactlv why we are in business---to try to get the business of people who don't feel quite sure about where to trade.

We would like to prove our ability to serve you in the proper way.

Very truly yours,

PRESIDENT GRANT VETOED SOLDIERS BONUS MEASURE

Washington, Aug. 1.—When President Harding appeared before Congress a few days ago to oppose the passage of the Bonus bill, he repeated history. President Grant, in the spring of 1875, vetoed a soldier's bonus bill which had been passed by both branches of Congress. The veto was based upon substantially the same reasons as those presented by President Harding a few days ago when he urged a postponment of consideration of a bonus to ex-service men. The bonus bill of 1875 provided for the payment of $8, 1-3 a month for all those in service. President Grant's veto message read as follows:

"Washington, March 3, 1875.
"To the House of Representatives:

"House Bill 3,341 is herewith returned without my approval for the reasons, first that it appropriates out of the treasury a large sum of money at a time when the revenue is insufficient for current wants and this proposed further drain on the treasury. The issue of bonds, authorized by the bill to a very large and indefinite amount would seriously embarass the refunding operations now progressing, whereby the interest of the bonded debt of the United States is being largely reduced. * * * The passage of this bill at this time is inconsistent with the measures of economy now demanded by the necessities of the country.

ENDORSES HOSPITAL

We are glad to see the public endorsement of Rev. W. S. Cox for the proposition of a hospital for Clanton. He says he is heartily in favor of it, and implies that it would better to care for our sick and afflicted here at home instead of having to carry them to another city. Let us hear from other citizens from over the county.

TWO BIG STILLS CAPTURED ON TUESDAY

RAID NEAR WESSINGTON NETS BIGGEST LOT OF WHISKEY IN HISTORY OF COUNTY.

The moonshine still that was captured by the Chilton County officers Tuesday and brought to Clanton was the biggest one of its kind ever found in this county. But the still was not out of proportion to the amount of whiskey that was captured with it. The officers brought back with them more than one hundred gallons of liquid evidence.

The scene of the raid was near the place of Ed Skipper, just west of the station of Wessington above Jemison. There were two of the stills right close together, both set up on furnaces ready for operation. One was of 300 gallon capacity, made of galvanized iron; the other was of 50 gallons capacity. The caps to the stills were found in Ed Skipepr's house. The big sister was tied on the side of a Ford car and brought to Clanton. The little one was destroyed on the scene.

When the officers arrived at the place Skipper was in his crib grinding malt. About two bushels of the ground and sprouted malt was found in the crib. As the officers began the search about the place, before they had found anything, Mr. Skipper disappeared and has not been seen any more. The whiskey was found in barrels and jugs, hidden in a plum orchard just west of the house. The stills were further away from the house in the same direction.

The Sheriff brought one load of the whiskey to Clanton, and left his men guarding the other until he could get back with more conveyances. It took three carloads in all to bring the big outfit and the whiskey to town.

When Sheriff Gore went back after the second installment he carried Judge Reynolds with him. When the Judge had taken in the scene with all the surroundings he told the Sheriff he believed it was easier to try a moonshiner in the courts than to catch him in the woods.

PUBLIC ECONOMY BIGGEST THING BEFORE COUNTRY

Washington, Aug. 1.—Representative Martin B. Madden, of Illinois, newly selected Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, is calling attention to the fact that since a federal budget is in operation, the Appropriations committee is more important than ever. In speaking of the fact, Representative Madden, immediately after his selection as chairman, said:

"It is essential that every man on the committee devote himself untiringly to the development of a situation which will harmonize with the fiscal condition of the country and bring about economies which will meet with the approval of the House and the country. The biggest thing before the country today is economy of expenditure without destroying the efficiency of service. The burden of taxation is so great that every one feels it. This burden must be lifted, if possible, and without injury to the government. Now, that the government, through its system of direct taxation, has become a partner of every individual, firm and corporation, having a taxable income, it is increasingly important that every safeguard shall surround federal expenditures. It will not do to say that because the government has the power to do so, it shall therefore take a constantly increasing share of the citizen's income while the citizen must continue to work and save and deprive himself of the necessary comforts to enable the government to go on unbridled in its waste and its extravagancee."

Messrs J. W. Murse and Robert Collier from Pine Level, were the guests of Misses Gertrude and Jewel Popwell Sunday.

SMALLEST COTTON CROP

Montgomery, August 1.—Alabama will produce less cotton than any other state of the cotton belt this year unless conditions become better than reports showed them to be during July, according to announcement of F. W. Gist, agricultural statistican, today, following the pubiication of the Alabama condition by the bureau of crop estimates. This condition showed the cotton crop in Alabama to be 58 per cent of normal, which indicates to Mr. Gist that the total yield this year will be only 440,000 bales.

POPLAR SPRINGS

Editor Union-Banner:

Permit me to say a few words through the columns of your paper in regard to the closing exercises of Prof. W. M. Devaughn's singing school at this place, July 30, 1921.

First I will say that I don't believe that I ever attended a school where there was more interest taken by both parents and students. In my judgment, this was among one of the best schools we have ever had in this community. The people of the community showed their appreciation of the success of the school by their presence and cooperation during the school and especially on the last day. In the forenoon the professor took a general review of the work that had been done, which lasted about one hour and a half, after which we sung until noon. At noon there was a bountiful dinner and everyone was invited to dinner, for which the good ladies deserve praise and thanks.

About 1:30 o'clock our Professor called the house to order by singing a song, "I'll do my best each Day," which was very appropriate for the occasion. I believe that the pupils and teacher did their best each day of school. Then we had several other good choruses directed by Prof. Devaughn, after which O. L. Devaughn directed two songs. Then the children sung a song "I'll be a Sunbeam for Jeesus." Next on program was a male quartet title, "Ain't it Awful" rendered by Grover Gilliland, Laughting McDowell, W. M. Devaughn and O. L. Devaughn. Several of the school boys directed one song each, and I think the boys did well for the first time. I say keep it up boys and when ever you have a chance, direct again. You couldn't do a better work. Go on! Then Misses Lena Vinson, Letha Mims, Myrtis Brown and Claudie Hughes rendered a beautiful quartet "Over in the Sunny Clime," which seemed to be enjoyed by all.

A splendid quartet was sung by Miss Beatris Little and O. L. Devaughn, then another song by the children title, "Good Morning." The children did some good singing and we as parents should do all we could to encourage them and use our own means to help them cultivate their talent. Perhaps one of the most interesting features of the day was two quartetts rendered by W. M. Devaughn, Amie Boswell, Archie Devaughn and O. L. Devaughn, title "No Flag like our Own," and "Molly and the Baby." After this we had several good choruses rendered by the school, and another duet by Miss Claudie Hughes and O. L. Devaughn, title, "Take the Name of Jesus with You." One other quartet by the Devaughns and C. B. Norrell.

We had some very interesting talks by Bro. Ed Giles, J. L. McDowell, Mrs. Ed Giles, Bro. T. F. Wyatt, W. F. Gilliland and R. T. Grant, which was certainly enjoyed by the writer. Such talks as these are encouraging to us younger people who are trying to learn more about the divine art of sacred music.

Last but not least, the entire school sung the song "We'll Cross over Jordan by and by." After which we were dismissed in prayer by Bro. Gilliland.

After we were dismissed the good people of the community cut a lot of nice watermelons, and Prof. Devaughn and his school was invited first to partake, and by the way, the secretary-treasurer got a finger in this "pie" too.

I wish to say in conclusion, and I think I can speak the sentiment of our Professor and the entire school, that I most heartily thank each of you for your kind hospitality and cooperation during the school, and especially in the closing exercises. May much and lasting good grow out of these few days of study, and may God's blessings be with you all henceforth, now, and forever.

Yours for the betterment of sacred song. O. L. DEVAUGHN.

John W. Hays of Chunchula, has been visiting old friends in Chilton County for the past few weeks. He was at the old time singing at Pate's Chapel last Sunday, and reports a good time. On Tuesday he went to Mitchell Dam to look over the prospects of getting work to do there.

LEGAL NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Probate Court, July 26, 1921.

This day came Mrs. Belle Smith, of the estate of J. L. Smith, deceased, and filed her petition in writing under oath in this court, for an order to sell certain lands belonging to said estate, described in said petition, for paying the debts due by said estate, upon the ground that the personal property of said estate is insufficient for the payment of the debts.

It is therefore ordered that the 29th day of August, 1921, be appointed a day for the hearing of said petition, when any person interested may appear and contest the said application if they think proper.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of Probate.

Mr. A. C. Smith is at his law office again now, after a month spent at Hot Springs. He is loking fine and says he is wonderfully improved in health. He has written an article for "The Banner" this week about his trip to the springs.

Henry Evan Smith of Macedonia was a visitor to Clanton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wells of Montgomery were here this week on account of the sickness and death of Mrs. Ella Parrish, mother of Mrs. Wells.

SAW A BULL MOOSE

A bull moose was seen in the road near Fairbanks, by an auto driver recently. The animal was apparently not afraid of the car, but wandered off in a leisurly manner. Quite a number of moose have been seen near Fairbanks this summer. — Wrangell (Alaska) Sentinel.

This was, we suppose, a real bull moose, and not one of the kind that was so popular in American politics a few years ago.

COUNTY COURT

The following cases were disposed of in the county court Monday by Judge Reynolds:

Lee Nunley, charged with violating prohibition laws; plead guilty and fined $50 and costs.

Richard Mims, charged with vagraney; nolle prosed by motion of the solicitor.

John Poole, charged with violating prohibition law; defendant convicted and fined $50 and cost. Appeal bond fixed at $300.

Denson Williams, charged with burglary; defendant bound over to Grand Jury, under bond of $500.

Si Campbell, charged with manufacturing liquor or having still in possession; nolle prossed on payment of cost.

Will Ray, charged with assault with intent to murder; complaint amended so as to charge assault with weapon; defendant convicted and fined $100 and cost. Appeal bond fixed at $300.

Roy Howard, charged with violating prohibition law; forfeiture and alias warrant.

Jim Lemon, charged with carrying concealed weapon; nolle prossed on payment of cost.

Jim Newt Lightsey, charged with carrying concealed pistol; plead guilty and fined $50 and cost.

Squire J. J. McDowell of Poplar Springs was a visitor to Clanton on Tuesday, attending to matters in connection with his Confederate pension.

New Line of Stationery just received.—Johnson Drug Co.

FIRST BOLL OF COTTON

The Banner has received the first open boll of cotton for this season. It came from the farm of DeWitt Easterling about a mile and a half east of Clanton. We expect to see cotton picking well under way by the last of this month.

RELIGION IN THE CABINET

A dispatch to the Montgomery Advertiser from Washington, has the following to say on the subject of religious affiliations of members of President Harding's Cabinet:

"Although religious affiliations no longer affect the view-point of public men, it is interesting to note that Baptists and Presbyterians predominate in President Harding's cabinet, since six of the eleven men belong to one or the other of these denominations. On the other hand, in former President Wilson's cabinet communicants of the Episcopal church were far in excess of those of any other denomination, numbering nine out of the twenty-one men who, during the eight years, were called to take seats around the big mahogany table in the executive offices.

"Inquiry has developed that the religious affiliations of the men who now comprise the cabinet are as follows: President Harding, Calvary Baptist; Secretary Mellon, Presbyterian; Secretary Hughes, Baptist; Secretary Weeks, Unitarian; Secretary Denby, Episcopalian; Secretary Hoover, Quaker; Secretary Davis, Baptist; Postmaster General Hays, Presbyterian; Attorney General Daugherty, Methodist; Secretary Wallace, United Presbyterian; Secretary Fall, unaffiliated."

WOULD IT BE A SUCCESS?

Would a hospital in Clanton be a financial success? Would it be a success considered from the standpoint of the treatment of the patients by our local doctors? These are the two vital questions relative to the proposition. For if we have a hospital it must make a substantial return on the investment, and also must produce favorable results in the handling of the patients treated.

Our answer to both these questions is emphatically yes. At this time we shall not devote any discussion to the financial side of the matter, but desire to argue our affirmative answer in favor of our local doctors.

Doctors are no more than mere men who are trained by education and experience to apply the knowledge thus obtained in the practical application of certain known truths in order to obtain a desired effect, which effect has been previously established by the laws of science and nature. In this respect they are not very much more than any other trained professional or business man. Practically all the business and professional men in our town are men who were born and reared here; or if not here, in some other place about like Clanton. And these men are successful in the execution of their duties in their various lines of business. Our doctors are no exception.

Our bankers, merchants, druggists, lawyers, mechanics, carpenters, all are just common every day people who have sense enough to combine their education and experience with the laws of their own trade or profession and make a success of the same. There are several instances where the most complicated devices of modern science and invention are being handled and operated right here in Clanton every day to a practical success by men who are proud to claim Clanton or Chilton county as their birthplace.

And again we say, our doctors are no exception. They are educated in the science of medicine. They are seasoned in the school of experience. They know the tricks of our enemy, disease; and they also know the tricks that medicine and surgery may do to counteract this enemy of humanity. That is all any doctor anywhere knows. Our doctors here are as well educated in their profession as the average doctor you will find practicing in hospitals in Alabama. The only difference is in having and not having the proper atmosphere and environment in which to transform a sick person into a well and healthy being. No doctor under the sun can cope with a case of pneumonia, typhoid or appendicitis unless the patient is in a place suitable for fighting the battle that must be waged. It is a fact that a very small percentage of the homes of this county are not at all suitable places in which to handle a case of a dangerous disease. And then there are that large number of diseases which should never by any means be allowed to endanger the life and health of other members of a family by remaining in the home, even tho it were a wholly suitable place for a sick person to be.

If anybody shouuld doubt the ability of our doctors here to handle the situation, we wish to point them to some facts in regard to a little venture that was made in Clanton last year in the way of a hospital on a small scale. There were in this instance about forty surgical operations performed, nine of which were for appendicitis. Every one of them, without a single exception, got well. Now this was done by two of our local doctors. Then we may be sure that good results would be only the more certain to follow where all our doctors are co-operating. Any of our doctors can do those things, granting them the facilities necessary.

The people need the hospital, and the surplus capital that exists here ought to build it. Then if by any chance in the world, the people should find that the doctors here cannot handle the situation, there are other doctors in the world who would be glad to give it a trial.

Had you ever thought why it has become the custom to load a fellow up in a baggage car of chickens and red snapper and carry him to Montgomery or Birmingham when he gets dangerously sick. It is for nothing else in the world except to get him in a hospital. Why in a hospital? Is it because they have better doctors in a hospital? No, not at all. It is because a hospital is arranged and designed and equipped as a place in which to make sick folks get well. Any good careful and experienced doctor can do the physician's part of the job if you have good nurses and prompt attention to your needs, your medicine given correctly and the doctor at hand promptly to look after you. That is why our doctors take you away to a hospital when you get dangerously sick. Not because they don't know what to do for you, but because they have not got a suitable place to put you while administering their treatment.

The people of Clanton and Chilton county should demand this institution here. It is most vital to the interests of everybody. We urge those who read this to talk the matter over with your doctor, and we believe a spirit will soon be formed here that will not only demand the establishment of a hospital, but also provide the necessary capital with which to do it.

NO BLANKET BONUS

President Harding and Secretary Mellon deserve the highest commendation for the courageous action they have taken to prevent the enactment at this time of the $5,000,000,000 blanket bonus bill for service men. Moved by the purely political consideration, each might have evaded his duty. The Secretary of the Treasury is not responsible for the actions of Congress. He is the cashier of the government, not its board of directors. But Secretary Mellon knows of his own knowledge that the industry of the country is sorely beset to produce the funds necessary to meet the present expenses of the government and that an additional burden of $5,000,000,000 might nullify all the efforts that have been made at reconstruction and stabilization of business. —Los Angeles Times.

REPUBLICANS CUT DEMOCRATIC EXPENSES OVER ONE BILLION

Washington, July 1.—A reduction of $1,287,416,152 in ordinary operating expenses for the fiscal year ending June 30th last as compared with the preceding fiscal year as announced by the Treasury Department. The preceding fiscal year was entirely under Democratic administration. The appropriations for the fiscal year of 1922 total in round numbers, $3,900,000,000. These appropriations are, in round numbers, $1,428,000,000 less than estimates and requests submitted by the executives under the Wilson administration. Out of the appropriations made for the current fiscal year, which were approximately $1,40,000,000 less than the requests made by Democratic executivees, the Republican executives have already figured where they can save in round numbers, $112,000,000 and have so notified President Harding through the Director of the Budget.

A Sample.

The inability of a government manager to run a business economically was illustrated in the case of a railroad shop during the period of government control. It is related that the work got behind and in order to try to catch up, the men were offered double pay for working Sunday. They worked Sunday but laid off on Monday, doing only six days work. but getting double pay for one of the days. A private manager would not have permitted such a condition to exist.

Too Much Tape

Secretary Mellon reports to Congress that when the armistice was signed there were 4,439,664 war risk insurance policies in force of which number 3,836,833 lapsed before May 21, 1921. It looks as though the veterans found the government system unsatisfactory, for Americans generally believe in life insurance and the rates provided in the war risk plan were favorable. Probably there was too much red tape.

A New Dodge.

In seeking to create criticism of the Harding administration for not replying to notes from the league of nations the internationalists are trying a new dodge and one which will be as futile as the others. Secretary Hughes is very diplomatically carrying on his correspondence concerning international matters with the powers themselves. To enter into correspondence with the league would be quickly seized upon by its supporters as a recognition of its authority in diplomatic matters, and the United States does not recognize the authority of the league in anything. The attempt of the league to take a hand in the proposed disarmament conference is another example of the pestiferous propensity of the league officials to interfere. The quicker that old corpse is buried in quicklime the healthier the atmosphere will be for sane deliberation.

One to Twenty.

In his account of the manner in which he brought his company out of its financial difficulties, Henry Ford relates that on investigation, he found that there was a needlessly large office force and one foreman for every five workmen. He cut the office force in half and reduced the number of foremen to one for each 20 men. "We literally took out and sold a trainload of desks," he asserts. Probably something of this sort is what is needed to get the United States government out of its difficulties.

Portland Exposition, 1925.

From the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, Congressman John Jacob Rogers of Massachusetts has favorably reported the resolution, already agreed to in the Senate, authorizing the President to invite foreign nations to participate in the exposition to be held at Portland, Oregon, in 1925. It is probable that the resolution will receive the President's signature in the near future and become a law. It is anticipated that foreign exhibits will contribute materially to the success of the affair, as they have on similar occasions in the past.

The Stimulus.

"A Protective Tariff," says Congressman Edwin B. Brooks, of Illinois, "has been proven to be a stimulus t o all lines of industry in every section of these United States. It has been an incentive to the best efforts put forth by that man who is a disinct creation of this great country, that man whose efficiency is recognized and has never been surpassed—the American business man."

FRIENDSHIP NEWS

The ten day revival at Friendship closed Sunday, when four were baptized. During the services eleven were joined to the church. At every service a good crowd attended, and most of the time, there were not enough seats to accommodate every body. Rev. J. L. Hand of Newton assisted Bro. Lowery, the pastor, in preaching, and he preached some of the best sermons we have ever had the pleasure of hearing.

We are glad to announce that the services of Bro. Hand have been secured for next year already. He is a splendid preacher and a man who practices what he preaches.

The B. Y. P. U. met Sunday night and rendered a nice program, which was enjoyed by all present.

Sunday School next Sunday at 10 o'clock, and B. Y. P. U. strictly at 7:30, p.m., followed by prayer meeting. We are always glad to have visitors at all services.

Prof. W. M. Devaughn began a 20-days singing school at this place Monday morning with an enrollment of 52 to start with.

EDITOR DOSTER HERE

Editor Howard S. Doster and Mrs. Doster, of Prattville, were in Clanton Tuesday on their way to Springville. They were traveling in their automobile. Many of their friends in Clanton were glad to see them during their short stay of a few hours here.

REV. W. S. COX ENDORSES MOVE FOR HOSPITAL HERE

Clanton, Ala., Aug 2, 1921.
Editor Union-Banner:

I noticed an editorial last week in your paper in regard to a hospital to be built in Clanton. I don't think there is anything needed any more than this.

Why can't the public go in with the doctors and build a hospital in Clanton so as to have a place to take care of our sick here at home, instead of having to take them to Birmingham or Montgomery? I am in favor of this enterprise. Let us get busy.

SHIPPING WATERMELONS

Mr. L. E. Diefenderfer, Secretary and Manager of the Thorsby Fruit and Truck Growers Association, was in Clanton Monday, and stated that last week Thorsby shipped 33 cars of watermelons. The average price received for the melons will be something like $200.00 per car. Mr. Diefenderfer says that the total shipment of melons from Thorsby will be about 100 cars this season.

HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY NAMED

Prof. S. E. Alverson announces the following faculty for the Chilton Co. High Echool for next year: S. E. Alverson, B.S., University of Georgia, principal and mathematics; Miss Mary Stewart, A.B., Womans College, science; Miss Elizabeth Monroe, University of Alabama, English; Miss Catherine Page Bauder, A.B., University of Alabama, Latin; Miss Mildred Ford B.S., Athens Female College, Home Economics; Miss Roberta Curry, Piano and Voice; Mr. Victor Heard, Athletics.

An additional teacher has been added to the faculty for the coming session and the faculty as a whole is one of the strongest in the history of the school. We have complied with the demands of the State Department, and the High School no longer remains on the doubtful list of fully accredited schools.

Plans are being made to take care of the record enrollment which is expected this fall. .Desks will be purchased and an additional room equipped. A large number of books have been ordered to add to the libraby. When these are received we will have nearly 500 volumes.

Equipment will be ordered for the Home Economics, Physic, Chemistry, and Manual Training Departments. Most of this will be in readiness for the opening Monday, September 5. The building will be repaired and the outlook is very encouraging for the best year in the history of the schoo.

BUILDING NEW HOME

Mr. J. Hance Alred is now engaged in the erection of a handsome new home on the site of the Will Adams residence. The new house will be an eight-room bungalow. All of the old house is being torn away except the frame work, which will be used to some extent in the new structure.

CEDAR GROVE

The Cedar Grove Singing Society met Sunday afternoon, July 24th. There was a large crowd which we were glad to see. Singing was opened in regular order with song and prayer by G. D. Melton.

Leaders for the afternoon were G. D. Melton, Glover Smith, Misses Lillie and Claudie Smith. Organists for afternoon were Misses Lillie Smith, Bonnie Littlejohn and Mrs. Marietta Collins. We were glad to have so many singers with us and we invite them to come again.

PILGRIM'S REST CHURCH

There will be a home-coming day at Pilgrim's Rest Church on the Second Sunday in August. We give a special invitation to all who have ever been a member with us to come back on that day; also to all the old pastors who have ever served us in the past. The program will be arranged later by the committee.—J. F. Anderson, R. W. Kendrick, W. T. Herrod, Committee.

NEW QUICK WAY TO PUT ON FIRM FLESH

Thousands of weak, thin, pale and sickly people are now quickly putting on solid flesh and regaining rugged health and strength in an entirely new way.

This way is by taking vitamines into their systems. Vitamines are a mysterious living substance, found to be absolutely necessary for perfect daily health. But most of our foods are lacking in them—that is why so many of us became thin and rundown.

Yeast has been found to contain billions of vitamines and is bringing incredible results in putting good flesh and muscle on thin people. No need to eat yeast cakes—simply take Ironized Yeast tablets containing iron and highly concentrateed brewer's yeast. Pleasant to take—brings quick results.

MRS. PARRISH DEAD

Mrs. Ella J. Parrish, wife of Wm. H. Parrish, died at the family home near Falakto Sunday, July 31st, 1921. The death of her husband occurred exactly one year prior to her death.

Mrs. raPsirihseena ?oe? bgk g m

Mrs. Parrish is survived by her mother, Mrs. Nancy McKee, age 80 years, and seven children, namely, W. E., Thos. M., Webb, Lonza and Dewey Parrish, Mrs. J. B. Wells of Montgomery and Miss Susie Parrish. The deceased was a member of Union Point Baptist Church.

Undertaker, J. Mell Martin, had charge of the body, carrying it to Providence Church, where she was buried beside her husband. Rev. Will S. Cox preached the funeral.

Hot Weather Diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Doster of Prattville, while in Clanton a short while Tuesday morning took a look at the new Baptist Church in course of erection, and expressed a fitting compliment upon Clanton for the spirit that will build such a handsome house of worship. We have said all the while that this building would reflect credit upon the town, and it is doing it now, even before it is anyways near completion.

WILL NOT HAVE SINGING

Mr. John W. Hays came by the Banner office Tuesday and asked us to state that it had been decided not to have the old time singing which was scheduled to be at the Soldiers Home next Sunday. He says this does not mean that it will not be held there at all. It will be some later. Announcement of which will be made in due time.

SOLVED THE PROBLEM

"I was almost distracted with stomach trouble, gas and colic attacks and didn't know what to do. I had tried everything I heard of, and the doctor's' medicine did not help me. A friend told me about Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and it has solved the problem, as I can now eat anything and have no distress." It is a simple, harmless preperation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Co., and all druggists everywhere.

Younger Set Enjoys Outing.

One of the most enjoyable of the season's outings was given by Mrs. N. A. Kicker on last Saturday evening, complimenting her guest, Miss Mildred Dunn of Garland. The party left town at five o'clock and motored out to Mims Pond. After a delightful swim the crowd enjoyed a most delightful picnic lunch. Chaperoning the party was Mrs. Kicker and Mrs. A. Johnson, and included Misses Kathleen Mullins, Beverly Hester, Irene Jones, Gussie Rainer, Leona Pipes and visitors and Mildred Dunn; Messrs. Wallace Jones, Leon Kemp, Omar Reynolds, Otto Jones, Grady Heflin, and Ollman of Oakman.

Womens Missionary Society.

A very delightful meeting of the Womens Missionary Society of the Methodist Church was held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Broadhead on last Monday evening. The apartments were pretty with baskets of cut flowers and ferns. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Elbert Littlejohn, and was opened with scripture lesson from 1st James, followed by prayer and the usual business session. Late in the afternoon a delicious salad plate with iced tea was served by Mrs. J. D. Armstrong and Mrs. Durwood Broadhead to Mrs. N. A. Kicker, Mrs. O. O. Roper, Mrs. M. L. White, Mrs. Luckie, Mrs. Macy Jones, Mrs. W. D. Spigener, Mrs. E. Littlejohn, Mrs. B. L. Jones, Mrs. Pearson and Mrs. J. C. Jones.

Entertains for Bride-Elect.

Mrs. Pearson was hostess to the Embroidery Club Friday afternoon from four to six, in honor of Miss Willie Belle Sartor, the much feted bride of the week. On entering each guest was asked to register and write a toast to the bride. The toasts occasioned much merriment. Then booklets were passed labeled "Hints." In these were written by each guest the best recipe I know; the best house hold hint I know; the best advice to keep Mr. Ross an ideal husband. After reading and discussing these a delicious ice course was served to the following guests: Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Grady Broadhead, Mrs. E. Hart, Miss Lessie Reynolds, Miss Smith of Marbury, Mrs. Julius Reynolds, Mrs. Percy Pitts, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mrs. Eleanor Roberts, Miss Willie Belle Sartor, Miss Beverly Hester, Mrs. Tom Woods, Mrs. W. M. Wyatt, Mrs. T. H. Neighbors, Mrs. V. J. Elmore and Miss Gussie Rainer of Elba.

Mullins-Gragg Wedding.

A wedding around which is centered a great deal of interest was that of Miss Annie Laurie Gragg and Mr. Clifford Mullins, which occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hance Alred last Sunday morning. Miss Gragg was becomingly attired in a pretty suit of navy blue tricotine, with acessories. She is one of Clanton's most popular young ladies. After a brief visit to Birmingham they have returned to Clanton.

Mrs. Guy Roberts Entertains.

The members of the Friday night card club were delightfully entertained on Friday night when Mrs. Guy Roberts was a charming hostess. The tables were arranged in the living room and dining room for the game. These were prettily adorned with a variety of summer blossoms. At the close of the game Mrs. McSwain was awarded guest prize, a box of candy, and the score prize was won by Mrs. Eric Hart. Later a delicious plate luncheon was served.

Bridal Party Entertained.

One of the loveliest of the social events of the week was a reception given Miss Willie Belle Sartor on Tuesday evening after the rehearsal, by Mrs. T. C. McSwain.

The home was most radiant in its decorations of rainbow colors. Crepe papers gracefully hung from the chandeliers to the corners of the room. A quantity of pink rose buds added also to the interior decorations.

Punch was served in the hall by Mrs. Macy Jones and Miss Sallie Johnson, from a pretty decorated table covered with a handsome lace cloth over the rainbow colors, banked with ferns.

A musical program was enjoyed when Mrs. Julius Reynolds and Miss Beverly Hester gave several delightful selections.

Late in the evening the cutting of the bride's cake afforded lots of merriment. The cake was beautifully embossed in pink and white rosebuds and bore the inscribed monogram of "Sartor-Ross." The bride, first to cut, got the thimble, Miss Lessie Reynolds the dime, Miss Jane Roberts the ring, and the button fell to Miss Mary McSwain.

Cream and cake was served later by Misses Sallie Johnson and Mary McSwain to the bridal party, consisting of Miss Sartor, Mr. Crutcher Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Sartor, Mrs. Roberts, Misses Jane and Helen Roberts, Miss Callie Watts, Mr. and Mrs. J. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McDavid, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron McDavid, Mr. and Mrs. Ross, of Athens, Miss Edna Roberts, and Miss Lucile Crutcher.

Mr. Dennis Plau of Oakman was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Luckie last Sunday.

S. S. PICNIC AT LOCK 12.

The students and teachers of the Mulberry Sunday School, about 75 in number, went through Clanton on Wednesday morning on their way to Lock 12, where they were to spend the day on a picnic. The merry crowd was traveling on two large trucks and some in cars.

After spending several days with friends in Clanton, Miss Elsie Orr returned to her home in Birmingham on Tuesday.

NOT THE SHOUTING KIND

Elijah Mims said to us the other day that he wondered who would be the first one to get happy and shout in the new Baptist Church in Clanton. It will be more than we have seen in Clanton in the past if anyone ever shouts in it. One would think from past observations here that the religion possessed by Clanton folks is not the shouting kind.

Don't stick with the prunes

MY DAD'S favorite yarn.
WAS THE one about.
THE OLD storekeeper.
WHO WAS playing checkers.
IN THE back of the store.
AMONG THE coal oil.
AND THE prunes.
WHEN THE sheriff.
WHO HAD just jumped his king.
SAID "SI there's a customer.
WAITIN' OUT front."
AND SI said "Sh-h-h!
IF YOU'LL keep quiet.
MEBBE HE'LL go away."
NOW HERE'S the big idea
WHEN A good thing.
HAPPENS ALONG.
DON'T LEAVE it to George.
TO GRAB the gravy.
F'RINSTANCE IF.

YOU HEAR of a smoke.
OR READ about a smoke.
THAT REALLY does more.
THAN PLEASE the taste.
THERE ARE no hooks on you.
THERE'S NO law against.
YOUR STEPPING up.
WITH THE other live ones.
AND SAYING right out.
IN A loud, clear voice.
"GIMME A pack of.
THOSE CIGARETTES.
THAT SATISFY."

YOU'LL say you never tasted such flavor, such mild but full-bodied tobacco goodness. You're right, too, because they don't make other cigarettes like Chesterfields. The Chesterfield blend can't be copied.

PROF. C. J. BUDLONG
Manchester, N. H.

"I am in good health for the first time in thirty years and I give Tanlac the entire credit," said Professor C. J. Budlong, well known and highly respected citizens of Manchester, N. H., living at 42 School Street.

"From the time I was a boy I couldn't sit down and eat a meal without being in misery afterwards from indigestion. During all these years I was afflicted with rhumatism too. It was all over my body, but especially bad in my feet and legs, and at times I couldn't get from my bed to my chair without help. I was almos a nervous wreck from all these years of suffering and could not half do my work. I hoped for nothing more than temporary benefit from Tanlac, as I believed it impossible for any medicine to give me entire relief, but this is exactly what Tanlac has done.

"For the first time since I can remember I eat anything I want and digest it wihout trouble. I haven't an ache or a pain and have put on eighteen pounds in weight. I just feel good all over and enjoy life as I never did before. Having put Tanlac to the test, I do not hesitate to say that it is the greatest medicine of the age for stomach trouble and rhumatism." Tanlac is sold in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

You are hereby notified that Alabama Power Company, a corporation, has filed its written application in this Court, seeking to condemn and to acquire the lands, rights and interests therein described for ways and rights of way upon which to erect tower, pole and wire lines and other appliances necessary or convenient in connection therewith, for the manufacture, supply and sale to the public of electric power, on, across and over a strip of land one hundred feet in width, according to the final location survey of the said ways and rights of way heretofore made by the applicant, the said strip of land and the lands of which the same is a part being situated in Chilton County, Alabama, and described as follows:

Said strip is a part of the west half of the southeast quarter of fractional section twenty-five, township twenty-three north, range fifteen east, and is more particularly described as follows: Fifty feet on each side of a line and the continuations thereof, beginning at a point on the south boundary of said section twenty-five, said point being east 2,875.2 feet from the southwest corner of said section twenty-five, running thence north 2 degrees and 13 minutes west for a distance of 2,640 feet, more or less, to a point on the north boundary f the southeast quarter of said section twenty-five.

Said strip is a part of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter and the east half of the southeast quarter of section one, township twenty-two north, range fifteen east, and is more particularly described as follows: Fifty feet on each side of a line and the continuations thereof, beginning at a point on the south boundary of said section one, said point being west 444.5 feet from the southeast corner of said section one, running thence north 21 degrees and 41 minutes west for a distance of 2,839.5 feet, more or less, to a point on the north boundary of the southeast quarter of said section one.

Said strip is a part of the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section seven, township twenty-two north, range sixteen east, and is more particularly described as follows: Fifty feet on each side of a line and the continuations thereof, beginning at a point on the south boundary of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of said section seven, said point being located as follows: Commencing on the south boundary of said section seven, at a point 1,665.1 feet east from the southwest corner of said section seven, running thence north 23 degrees and 04 minutes west for a distance of 1,455.6 feet, more or less, to said point of beginning on the south boundary of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of said section seven, running thence from said point of beginning north 23 degrees and 04 minutes west for a distance of 943 feet, thence north 21 degrees and 41 minutes west for a distance of 1,872 feet, more or less, to a point on the north boundary of the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of said section seven.

Said strip is a part of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section seven; the east half of the northwest quarter, the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, the west half of the southeast quarter and the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section eighteen; the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter, the east half of the northeast quarter and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section nineteen; all in township twenty-two north, range sixteen east. Said strip is more particularly described as follows: Fifty feet on each side of a line and the continuations thereof, beginning at a point on the east boundary of said section nineteen, said point being north 2,120.1 feet from the southeast corner of said section nineteen, running thence north 23 degrees and 04 minutes west for a distance of 10,-164.2 feet, more or less, to a point on the west boundary of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of said section seven.

Said strip is a part of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section twenty; the north half of the northwest quarter, the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter, the east half of the southwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section twenty-nine; all in township twenty-two north, range sixteen east. Said strip is more particularly described as follos: Fifty feet on each side of a line and the continuations thereof, beginning at a point on the south boundary of said section twenty-nine, said point being west 2,352.8 feet from the southeast corner of said section twenty-nine, running thence north 23 degrees and 04 minutes west for a distance of 7,209.2 feet, more or less, to a point on the north boundary of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of said section twenty.

And you are further notified that the hearing of said application has been set by the Court for the 9th day of August, 1921, at 10:00 o'clock A. M., and notice of said application and of the day so appointed for the hearing thereof is hereby given to you.

Witness my hand this the 20th day of July, 1921.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of the Court of Probate of 7-21-3t. Chilton County, Alabama.

SPECIAL TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT HERE.

Circuit Court Clerk, M. D. Foshee, informs us that an order has been received calling a two weeks special jury term of the Circuit Court of Chilton County, to convene on the 22nd day of August. He states that there is a heavy docket of cases to be disposed of.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION TO NON - RESIDENT.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy Pitts that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that her place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in the Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Rosa Barnes, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 21st day of August, 1921, or in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against Respondent.

Done at office in Clanton, this 13th day of July, 1921.

Same Old Story, But a Good One.

Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of oters, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured mee of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles." Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

PRICE OF COTTON BOOSTED

The government report on the cotton crop for July 25th has served to boost up the price of the staple to some extent. This report says there will be only 64.7 per cent of a normal crop. This will be, according to that report, the smallest cotton crop in 25 years. On the strength of the report, the price of cotton in New Orleans went up three dollars on a bale Monday.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since . . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too.

MR. SMITH WRITES LETTER ABOUT HOT SPRINGS TRIP

Editor Union-Banner:

My wife and I having returned from Hot Springs, Ark., after spending the month of July there, would thank you for space in your paper to tell your readers and our friends something about the place and its famous waters, that would probably be of some interest to them.

We arrived there the second day of July, secured apartments, and entered into light housekeeping. Hot Springs is a picturesque little city, situated near the center of the State of Arkansas, about fifty miles southwest of Little Rock, the capital of the State; the county seat of Garland, County, and has a resident population of about 16,000 and 150,000 annual visitors who go there for their health. It is supplied with all the public utility services of the larger cities. There are churches of every denomination, public and private schools, hospitals and sanitoria, theaters and other places of amusement.

There are 46 hot springs, grouped about the base of what is called Hot Springs Mountain, their total flow being about a million gallons per day, and range in temperature from 102 to 147 degrees Farenheit, most of them having a temperature of 135 to 145 degrees. The source of the heat is believed to be great masses of ingeneous rock intruded in the earth's crust by volcanic agencies. Deep seated waters converted into vapors by contact with this heated mass, probably ascend through fissures toward the surface where they meet cold springs, which are heated by the vapors. But this is theory, the mind of man has not fathomed this hidden mystery of Nature.

Before the advent of the white man, the Indians had discovered these springs and the curative properties of their waters. Various tribes battled from time to time for control of them, in which the "Geat Spirit" was said to be ever present. But finally a truce was declared, under which the benefits of the waters were extended to the sick of all tribes, the ground to be mutual, and no war to be made upon the sick nor their attendants, during their sojourn there. Baths were then taken in the creek and in pools formed near the hot springs on the mountain side, and were free to all. What a great change since the white man came—wrested these unlimited treasures from the red man—sent him westward, builded a magnificent city and made fields of his hunting ground. There are now twenty well equipped bath houses, constructed of granite, white cut stone marble and pressed brick, furnished with the best quality of royal porcelain bath tubs. The water is the same in all, but the prices charged for the baths vary in different houses in accordance with the equipment and accommodations furnished.

The United States government has absolute ownership and control of the Hot Springs, and each bath house is required to pay a license to the government for the use of the water. And the government exercises a most rigid control over the bath houses, by government official who regularly inspect each bath house and see that everything is clean and sanitary. There is a government free bath house for those who are unable to pay for the service, and in connection with the Army and Navy Hospital, a bath house is maintained for the benefit of our disabled soldier and sailor boys.

Our great government, appreciating the inestimable value of these waters, has set apart a reservation comprising four sections of land surrounding the springs, and dedicated it as a National Park and Sanitorium for all time, so that afflicted humanity—the rich and the poor—may have the benefits of the waters for relief and cure of their maladies, without monopolization by individuals.

Now, Mr. Editor, for fear of intrusion upon your space, will conclude by saying: During our sojourn, my wife and I took baths at the New Rector aBth House, under the proprietorship and management of Mr. Talbot P. Shelby, who is a most efficient and courteous gentleman, and where the service is not excelled; and we feel a marked improvement in our general health. The writer took 27 radio-active hot baths especially for rhumatism, which had become chronic and apparently incurable. And while a cure has not yet been effected, great benefit has resulted and there is a ray of hope that further improvement may follow. I would advise all sufferers from this life-absorbing malady to go to Hot Springs.

Yours very truly,
A. C. SMITH.

Everything for QUALITY
—nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigaretty aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

"THE STORE WITH THE RED FRONT"

BIG TIME WAITING FOR EVERYBODY AT CLANTON ON NEXT SATURDAY

Aeroplane Will be Here to Pull off All Kinds of Thrilling Stunts in the Air. Merchants Will Give Away Many Valuable Prizes.

Next Saturday, August 13th, is decreed to be a great event for Clanton and as many people of Chilton County as will come here for the grand occasion. That day has been designated as "Trades Day," and the people of the county are being urged to come here and spend the day and have one grand and glorious frolic together. The merchants and business men of the town, co-operating through the Chamber of Commerce, have made this day posible by contributing to take care of the expense that will have to be incurred in showing the people a good time. It will not cost any visitor one single copper cent, outside of what he may desire to spend for his own personal needs and pleasures.

The one big free attraction of the day will be the aeroplane exhibition flights that have been contracted for as entertainment for the crowds. The flying will be done by the Reeves Flying Co., with pilot Jimmy Faulkner and Acrobat Ralph Finch. There will be some hair raising stunts pulled off by these two dare-devils of the air, and it will all be free. The cost of getting the flyers here has been paid by the business men of Clanton. The people are invited to come here and enjoy the thrills at the expense of the local merchants.

It is just going to be one of those good old "come to town and see the sights" days. Rev. P. G. Carter, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is arranging for plenty of free ice water for those who are not able to buy a drink of soda water. You can't help but have a good time if you come here next Saturday. We are going to make you enjoy yourself if you come.

For those who want to do some trading at the stores, the different merchants have arranged some special bargains for that day, and they will make it to the advantage of those who may wish to buy anything in their stocks. In the afternoon the aeroplane will fly directly over the Main Street of the town and drop from the air 1,000 numbered tickets. Each merchant has a number displayed in his store, and the person that gets the ticket dropped from the aeroplane that corresponds in number to that in a merchant's store will get a prize given away free by that merchant. Elsewhere in this paper is printed the list of merchants and business men that are offering prizes. It will be a lively demonstration when everybody begins to scramble for those tickets in the street, as they fall from the aeroplane.

MORE ABOUT THE HOSPITAL

Editor Union-Banner:

While you are publishing about the building of a hospital at Clanton, with your permission I would like to express myself about it. I never did give this matter much thought until after I had some very sad experience at a hospital, and probably there are many others who like myself thought it a good thing, but not giving it a serious thought.

Just let me tell you right here, when you have to carry some one of your family to some city away from your home and family, you will then see the need of a hospital at home or as near home as possible. We have as good doctors here at Clanton as you will find in any of the larger cities.

On the 16th of last April I carried my little boy to a Birmingham hospital and stayed there for about four weeks. My expense there was near $800.00, and at last I had to give the little one up. Now, I am not knocking the hospital, for I sure do think they did all in their power. But you see if we had had a hospital at Clanton I believe I could have gotten just as good treatment with at least half the expense, and been at home all the time or at least most of the time. As it was I only came home twice and was away from my crop all the time. Not only did I have my little boy to worry about, but I had my family at home, my crop and other things. Those who have never experienced such can't realize how hard it is.

Now, Mr. Editor, you will please pardon me for referring to myself. Am only doing it trusting it will be of some benefit to some one else who might be as unfortunate as some of us have been. As centrally located as Clanton is from any part in the county, it can be reached in a short time, day or night. You can also rely on most of the people from the western part of Coosa Cunty. The nearest place for us at present is to go to Birmingham or Montgomery, and when we do that it not only costs us more but all your money is gone from your home town to the city where we people never get any more of its benefits.

Clanton being the largest town between Birmingham and Montgomery, I say it is a shame for it not to have some way of taking care of the sick, and there is no other way but to build a hospital.

A great many people go to the large cities with their sick to see and consult specialists; and they have almost become disgusted with the word "specialist." It is the largest humbug on earth. I wouldn't give our doctors here in Clanton for all the specialists in Birmingham.

Just one thing else and I am done. Nine times out of ten, when you carry a patient to the hospital where you find a number of specialists, they generally tell your local doctor, if one goes with you, that his diagnosis is right. So, why not have a hospital in Clanton.

Yours for the hospital,
B. F. MASSEY.

LEGAL NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Probate Court, July 26, 1921.

This day came Mrs. Belle Smith, of the estate of J. L. Smith, deceased, and filed her petition in writing under oath in this court, for an order to sell certain lands belonging to said estate, described in said petition, for paying the debts due by said estate, upon the ground that the personal property of said estate is insufficient for the payment of the debts.

It is therefore ordered that the 29th day of August, 1921, be appointed a day for the hearing of said petition, when any person interested may appear and contest the said application if they think proper.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of Probate.

HOMER THOMPSON DROWNED FRIDAY, IS FOUND SUNDAY

The body of Homer Thompson, of Lineville, Ala., was found early Sunday morning in the Coosa River near Duncan's Riffle, where he was drowned Friday at noon.

The young man, who was 29 years of age, and a workman for the Alabama Power Company, was on a raft in midtsream, when companions with him left him to get a boat, swimming to the bank, according to reports. He, seeming to think that he too could swim the stream, threw himself into the water and started for the bank, but was drowned before reaching it in the swift current of the stream.

A search was made of the river for many hours for the body without any avail, but Sunday morning it was found lodged on a rock three-quarters of a mile below where he was last seen. The body was brought to Clanton and turned over to Martin Undertaker, and it was prepared for burial and sent to Lineville, Ala., Clay County, former home of the deceased.

Mr. Thompson had been employed by this company for the past two years, it was stated.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEET

The Clanton Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular meeting on Thursday night at 8:00 p.m. in the Odd Fellows Hall, above the warehouse of Messrs Smith & Downs, Wholesale Grocers. Many important matters are to be considered, among them being our Trades Day next Saturday and the erection of a local hospital to cost approximately $15,000. We would like a full attendance of all the merchants to devise plans for special sales so that the several thousands of people who will come to Clanton on Saturday to see the great Aeroplane Acrobatic stunts will be of mutual benefit to the merchants, as well as to themselves.

A preliminary meeting for the organization of a local hospital has been held and the various details of the proposed enterprise will be laid before the Chamber at this meeting. It is a matter which concerns every citizen, and certainly every member of the Chamber should make an effort to atend.

Ice cream refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Remember the place of the meeting,—Odd Fellows Hall, on tonight, Thursday, 8:00, p.m.

If you don't think the Chamber of Commerce is doing anything, come and learn for yourself.

Mr. Emmett C. Powell of Tuscaloosa, of the News force, together with his wife and children, has been visiting relatives and friends in Clanton the past week. They came over here in their automobile, via Birmingham, last Sunday.

PLACE FOR SALE—The Bill Duke place on Maplesville road, 1 1-2 miles from Clanton. Will sell all or part. Worth the money. For particuars see W. J. Watson, Clanton, Route 7. 3t

REYNOLDS WILL SPEAK AT PILGRIM'S REST CHURCH

Judge L. H. Reynolds has consented to speak at Pilgrim's Rest, at the "Home Coming Day," Sunday, Aug. 14th, at 10 o'clock, a.m. His subject will be "The Home of To-Day as compared with that of a Quarter Century Ago." W. T. HERROD.

DEATH OF REV. B. C. HUGHES

Rev. B. C. Hughes was taken sick at his home at Siluria, Ala. His wife, children, friends and doctors did all they could for him. They decided it would be better for him to be sent to Birmingham, so he was carried to the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. T. Thomas.

But with all of the aid of medical skill it did no good. God saw fit in his all wise wisdom to take him from this sin smitten world to a blessed abode above to sing praises to his Redeemer.

Rev. Hughes was married twice, first to Miss R. E. Shaw. To them were born eight children, three died when small. The living are H. W. Lee Hughes, Henry Hughes, Mrs. Minnie Thomas, Mrs. Almer Burton, and Miss Ida Hughes. His second wife was Miss Mollie Blalock, and they were blesesd with one child, Amos Hughes.

His body was laid to rest by the side of his first wife at Union Cemetery, Shelby County, Ala.

The church and friends of Siluria extend to Mrs. Mollie Hughes and his children their deepest sympathy.

E. H. SMITH, Siluria, Ala.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

We had a very good attendance at Sunday School last Sunday.

A very interesting meeting of the B. Y. P. U. was held Sunday night. Several of the young people took part on the program, and it was enjoyed by quite a crowd.

There will be Sunday School next Sunday at 10 o'clock. In the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock the Singing Society will meet in regular session. All singers are invited.

Prof. Devaughn's singing school is in progress here now with an enrollment of about 70. Arrangements are being made for a concert at the close of the school.

The B. Y. P. U. will meet at 7:30.

Ex-County Commissioner, W. T. Herrod of Plantersville, was a visitor to Clanton Monday.

The court of County Commissioners has been in session this week. All members of the court were in attendance. Quite a lot of the County's business was disposed of at this meeting.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The Mulberry Baptist Sunday School enjoyed an unusual pleasure on August 3rd when the entire school motored to Lock 12 on a picnic. They were two trucks and several cars that conveyed the pupils to the picnic grounds. The crowd met the trucks at Mulberry about eight o'clock, left for Lock 12 about nine o'clock and reached there about 11. After resting a while a basket lunch was served. Then the school enjoyed the afternoon as they wished, until 3:30 when they gathered together for the return home.

This picnic had been planned for some time by the earnest workers of T. L. Lecroy's class, but they decided it would be more enjoyable for the entire school to accompany them.

There was over one hundred people on this picnic, and the day was enjoyed by all.

CANE CREEK

Health in this community is fine at present.

Sarah Lambert is about to recover from her operation.

Work in this place is scarce.

Mr. Ervin Williamson is visiting home folks, from Greensboro.

Our protracted meeting will start h ere the second Sunday in August. We hope we shall have a success, and we ask all Christian people to pray for it.

CONVENTION NOTICE

The County Singing Convention of the Harp and Harmony will meet in regular semi-annual session at Lomax Church the first Sunday in September, and Saturday before.

The people of the surrounding country are cordially invited to assist the Lomax people in supporting the convention by all carrying well filled baskets.

Judge S. M. Adams of Thorsby was among the visitors to Clanton Monday.

B. Y. P. U. THOUGHTS

The old time way when mother "tied her boy or her girl to her apron string" seems to have lost its vogue. However, it is yet apparent that there are a great multitude of mothers who are profoundly interested in the welfare of their children. Even though there be no persistency to keep the youths at home continously, not letting them get even a fresh whiff of God's free air, so to speak, still there is an intense anxiety on the part of many mothers, fathers as well, to know where the children are when they are not at home. That parental spirit still sings "O, were is my boy to-night?" Yes, it behooveees the parents to kep track of their own. May we ask, "Where do the youths spend their Sunday afternoons and their Sunday evenings?" Are they under the influence of some Christion organization? Or, are they "in the middle of the road" somewhere, probably in the throes of unwholesome company? This is indeed a pertinent question. They should by all means be under Godly atmospheric pressure. Surely it is appalling to see so many in a vacuum—where nothing but worldly things are extant. If a person is twelve years old or up, that person should be in the training services of his or her own church. The exercises of the training branches increase spiritually, train for service, edify in siriptural knowledge, instruct in Biblical history and teachings, and enlist in missionary endeavor. These facts should grasp and hold securely the attention of parents. Organizations of these pure types should have a magnificent consistency. The young people should be trained for Christian service and not used by the Devil.

FRANK MASSEY ON HOSPITAL

If there is a man within the bounds of Chilton County who is capable of spending an opinion on the subject of a hospital in Clanton, that man is Frank Massey. He has spoken his sentiments in a letter in this weeks paper; and not only his sentiments but some very valuable items in his experience are also included in his expressions.

There is no telling who of us may be the next one to go through the bitter ordeal which Mr. Massey and his family passed through the first part of this year. Nothing can prevent these things from coming into the lives of people, but if we will watch and prepare ourselves, we can be so situated that when they come they will not bear down upon us so hard. Mr. Massey would probably have lost his little boy if he had had him in a good hospital in Clanton of the kind we are going to build here. But he would not have lost such a large part of his family savings in caring for the little one while he was sick.

We are going to have sickness and death in spite of all the hospitals that could possibly be built in the world. But a hospital here would save us more than half the expense of caring for those who may be stricken with disease, and at the same time get just as good attention and treatment for them as we would get in a city at the greater expense.

WHERE ARE YOUR BOYS?

Some of the parents of Clanton may well inquire into where their little boys are these days when they become scarce about the house. It would likely be found that these little fellows are spending many hours at a time in the "old swimmin' hole" at Gore's bridge, which is a mighty good place for some of them to get drowned one of these days. We learn of an incident that happened there one day last week that came very near being a tragedy. One little boy who could not swim but a very little undertook to swim across the deep hole under the bridge. When he had gotten into the deep water his strength gave away. There were none there except two or three other boys who couldn't swim any better than he. As this little fellow was struggling for life a young man happened to pass along the road. Seeing the commotion among the kids, and the danger the exhausted lad was in, this young man leaped from the bridge and rescued the little fellow.

We don't know whether these boys in this particular instance, were out at the swimming hole by permission of their parents or not, but however that may be, they should not have been there without some grown person present to take care of them in case of trouble like that which came very near causing an unfortunate occurrence. There is of course nothing wrong in the boys taking a dip in "the ole swimmin' hole," but they should not slip away without the consent of the parents, and then not unless accompanied by somebody who is able to keep them from drowning.

Mr. S. L. Gibson of Verbena was in our office one day last week and stated that Verbena has taken on extra life and activity since the Alabama Power Company began operations at Duncan's Riffles. The biggest feature of Verbena's activity so far, according to Mr. Gibson, is the building of a first class road from Verbena to Mitchell Dam. He stated that lots of work has been done on this road with mules, tractors and plows. The hills have been graded down and the curves taken out. The route is what is known as the old Knight's Ferry Road, and after Mitchell Dam is built this will be the only crossing into Coosa county. Mr. Gibson says that Verbena built this road by pivate subsciptions altogether. Traffic was begun over the new road last Friday morning between Verbena and the river.

25 YEARS AGO

As Printed in "The Banner" of AUGUST 13, 1896.

Marriage licenses have been issued this week to Mr. Charlie W. Wells and Miss Birdie Day; Mr. E. A. Norris and Miss Callie Robinson, Mr. Ed Smitherman and Miss Ella Noah.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mr. Thos. McKinney and Miss Ella Caldwell, to be at the home of the bride's parents at Irondale, Ala., on Aug. 13th.

Death of Mr. John B. Wells.

One of our oldest and most valued citizens passed away Sunday morning. Few men were more highly respected than John B. Wells, and his loss will be greatly felt. Mr. Wells was apparently in the enjoyment of usual health almost to the morning of his death, and it was only last Monday week we had the pleasure of seeing him at the election when he cast his last vote. He got up and dressed on Sunday morning and went out, then coming back he lay down and remarked, "I see Louisa," (his deceased wife who died 18 months ago) turned over and expired. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved relatives. He was buried at Poplar Springs on Monday.

TAYLOR-KEMP WEDDING

A wedding of much interest, and one that came as a surprise, was that of Miss Eloise Kemp of Clanton and Mr. Grady Taylor of Coopers. The young couple were married at Columbiana, and after a brief trip to Birmingham returned to Coopers to reside. Mr. Taylor is a progressive young business man of that place. The bride is a pretty girl of typical blonde, and is the only daughter of Mrs. Bama Cox.

OAK HILL SUNDAY SCHOOL VISITED CLANTON TUESDAY

The members of the Oak Hill Sunday School, about fifty in number, in charge of Supt. A. H. Glasscock, and E. L. Glasscock, were visitors to Clanton Tuesday afternoon. They came down Tuesday morning in cars and trucks and went out to Mims Pond for a picnic. A very enjoyable time was spent in swimming, followed by a fine picnic dinner. In the afternoon the jolly crowd of boys and and bright faced girls, accompanied by a number of the grown folks, came back by Clanton to take in the sights of the city. As soon as they got here Sheriff Gore took them to jail, but he did not keep them in there very long. Being free again from the walls of the county bastile, they went to the Ideal Theater and witnessed the performance of a moving picture show.

The next place they visited was the printing plant of The Union-Banner. Here they saw the various processes of printing being enacted. The visitors found the linotype machine especially interesting to look at as the type for this week's paper was being set up. A part of the paper was being printed while they here and they also found the big cylinder press of considerable interest, as it turned out the printed papers which they will read in their homes on Friday of this week.

14 YEAR OLD GIRL ASSAULTED AND KILLED.

Centerville, Ala., Aug. 9—Waylaying her while enroute to her home at Randolph, little Annie Lee Wallace, 14 year old daughter of John Wallace, well known resident of Bibb County, was attacked and then choked to death Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The body of the young girl was found by a paserby, and was in a nude condition with the prints of the man's hands around her throat.

According to information received at Centerville the little Wallace girl was returning to her home about a mile from Randolph and was passing through a densely wooded spot of the road, this being the place where her body was found some time later. It is presumed that the girl's murderer jumped out from behind a tree and grabbed her.

A SURE WAY TO KEEP MOUTH FREE FROM DEADLY GERMS

Science tells us that most cantagious diseases aree contracted through the mouth. Yet an amazing number of people take no steeps whatever to protect their mouths from the millions of disease germs in the air. The safest precaution against disease, it is found, is daily use of an antiseptic mouth wash, such as Steroline. A few drops of Steroline on your tooth brush will not only keep your mouth cool, sweet and free from disease germs, but also serve as a splendid dentrifice. Being a liquid, it gets in between the teeth and reaches all the hidden spots which ordinary tooth pastes and powders cannot reach. Don't take chances on your health. Sold and recommended by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton.

Firestone

30x3½ STANDARD NON-SKID

The Fastest Selling Tire In America

The increasing popular demand for the Firestone Standard 30x3½ inch tire over a period of years has given us big volume. Our Plant No. 2 devoted wholly to this size tire with a capacity of 16,000 tires and 20,000 tubes per day cuts costs on every operation.

On May 2, we dropped our price to $13.95 passing on to the car owner the full benefits of this big sales volume and this labor-saving plant. This tire has been our standard for years---four plies long staple fabric---extra gum between plies---heavy non-skid tread. The greatest value ever offered car owners. Insist on Firestone.

Our Cord Tire Values

Firestone Cord tires are made exclusively in Plant No. 1. Our process of double gum-dipping each ply of cord gives thicker insulation. The massive non-skid tread, with extra thickness where wear is most severe, gives real effectiveness in holding the car against slipping and adds many extra miles of service.

Firestone Cord tires are sold at the lowest prices in cord tire history: 30x3½, $24.50; 32x4, $46.30; 34x4½, $54.90.

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Mrs. F. M. Woods 75th Birthday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Woods was the scene of much merriment Sunday, August 7th, when their mother, Mrs. F. M. Woods, celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday. Her children gave her a glad surprise with baskets filled in picnic style and many useful gifts.

Mrs. Woods, widow of the late Rev. F. M. Woods, has lived a most useful life. When but a girl she helped her mother, Mrs. Isaac Johnson of Montevallo, Ala., dye the wool, spin the thread, weave the cloth and make the suit the first Representative from Shelby County, wore to the legislature after the Civil War. This legislator was the Confederate Veteran, John P. Morgan. She is still active and interested in everything around her in both civic and religious life.

The following children were present: Mrs. J. J. Lucas, West Blocton; Mrs. W. W. Perry, West Blocton; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Piper, Thorsby; Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Woods, Clanton; Miss Mayme Woods, Clanton.

The following grandchildren were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Young, West Blocton; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Belle Ellen; Miss Willie Perry, West Blocton; Mr. Walter Perry, Jr., West Blocton; Master Glenn Perry, West Blocton; Master Thos. D. Woods, Jr., Clanton; Miss Mary Lyman Woods, Clanton.

The following great-grandchildren were present: Mr. J. Robert Young, Jr., West Blocton.

Mrs. Woods is mother of six children, has eighteen grandchildren and has one great-grandson. All of her children were present except her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Johnson, of Underwood, Ala.

Philathea S. S. Class Meets.

The Philathea S. S. Class met with Mrs. Hart on last Monday. The subject for study was Paul's Journeys, and were impressively explained by Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Pearson, and Mrs. J. C. Jones. At the close of the program the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curlee of Birmingham visited their parents in Clanton this week.

Study Club Meets.

A very interesting meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Johnson on last Friday evening. The apartments were thrown together and decorated with a profusion of ferns and midsummer flowers. After a brief business session the following program was enjoyed with Mrs. John VanDerveer as leader. Subject, Americanism. Roll Call, Whos Who in America. Paper, The American Ideal, Statesman, Capitalist, or Author? Mrs. Pickens. Talk, American Leaders of the Past, Mrs. Broadhead. Paper, The Proletariat of America, Mrs. Jones. Discussion, What is the Real American, if he exists? Is there any such thing as a democratic structure of American society? Does society tend to grind down or develop the individual? Does morality depend more upon character or upon the standards fixed by society?

Later the members and guests were served a delicious ice couse. Besides the club members the following guests enjoyed the afternoon: Mesdames Claud White, P. T. Hinkle, Martin Nix, Glennie Phillips, Ervin Luckie, Watts Moore Will Mullins, Hugh Simpson and Miss Stewart of Birmingham. The Club will meet with Mrs. Horn in September.

Joint Hostesses Entertain for Bride.

Mrs. Clifford Mullins was the honoree at one of the summer's prettiest parties given on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. P. Crumpton, when she and Mrs. Mack Wyatt entertained jointly at a miscellaneous shower.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Wyatt and were invited to the tea table presided over by Misses Clara Crumpton and Louise Connatser. The table was lavishly decorated with yellow zenias and marigolds and ferns. Here tea and sandwiches were served from pretty sandwich baskets in the color motif of yellow and green. The guests were then invited to write household hints in the bride's book. During the afternoon Miss Roberta Curry gave several vocal solos and her sweet voice was never heard to greater advantage.

Later the bride was invited into the living room where an improvised well had been erected. From here many useful and beautiful gifts were drawn.

The living room and reception hall were decorated with quantities of ferns and rose buds. Late in the afternoon delicious ice cream, carrying out further the yellow and green tones, was served. About seventy-five guests called during the afternoon.

Tuesday Card Club Meets.

The members of the Tuesday Card Club had a most pleasant meeting Tuesday morning when Mrs. Heard was hostess. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and ferns, and after a spirited game Mrs. Sam Johnson held nighest score and was presented a deck of cards. At the close of the game a delightful salad course was served to Mesdames John VanDerveer, Arthur Johnson, Hosea Downs, Carrie Mullins, Eric Hart, Earl Alverson, Guy Higgins and Sam Johnson . Mrs. Higgins will be hostess on next Tuesday.

Birthday Party Enjoyed.

On Friday evening last a pretty party was enjoyed by fifteen of the younger set of children, when Elizabeth and Helen Eubanks, ages 5 and 3, respectively, celebrated their birthdays. Lemonade was served upon the arrival of the little guests, by Mrs. Leonard Eubanks. Several games were played on the lawn. Later ice cream and cake was served to little Misses Rosemary Pickens, Elizabeth Harris, Virginia Eubanks, Mabel Harris, Laylier Griffin, Mary Armstrong, Inez Parrish, Lois Thompson, and Duheal Honeycutt; Messrs. Archie Harris, Curtis Hurtt, Wesley Danforth, Joe Earl Gowan, Winston Calloway and Grover Harris. Mrs. Eubanks was assisted by Mrs. Grover Harris and Mrs. Leonard Eubanks in entertaining the children.

Mrs. R. E. Luckie and children will spend Thursday and Friday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Dennis of Montgomery were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Horn spent last Sunday in Thorsby.

Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Broadhead went down to Montgomery Sunday for a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Phillip Horn and Mrs. L. F. Gerald were shopping in Birmingham Monday.

Mrs. Macy Jones left Friday for a visit to relatives in Montgomery.

Miss Rboerta Curry returned home Monday after a visit of two weeks to her sister, Mrs. Clinton Jones, in Ashville, N. C.

Ross-Sartor Wedding.

One of the loveliest of the midsummer weddings, marked by brilliancy and elegance, took place last Wednesday evening at four o'clock in the First Methodist Church when Miss Willie Belle Sartor became the bride of Mr. Lucius C. Ross. Loving hands had transferred the church into a place of beauty. Ferns, chrysanthemums and white tapers were effectively used. Three large arches forming the background, carrying the bridal tones of white and green. Unusually fine nuptial music was rendered before the arrival of the bridal party. Mrs. Percy Pitts presided at the piano, while Mr. Pitts sang with much expression, "Love, like Dawn, came Stealing," and "At Dawning." Miss Beverly Hester's voice was never heard to better advantage than when she sang "Until." Mrs. Tom Woods played "Traumerei" exquisitely on her violin.

Promptly at the appointed hour, to the strains of the march from Lohengrin, the bridal party, led by the ushers, Messrs. Guy Roberts and Julius Reynolds, slowly approached the altar where Rev. D. M. Pearson, in a very impressive manner performed the ceremony. Then came the matrons, Mrs. Barney Roberts and Mrs. Guy Roberts. Miss Lessie Reynolds was maid of honor, and Miss Lucile Crutcher, bride's maid. Little Misses Jane and Helen Roberts, Louise McSwain and Edna Roberts, wearing fairy-like frocks, were flower girls, and were followed by Master Cameron McDavid bearing the ring in a large white lily. Dr. J. D. Ratchford was groomsman.

The groom entered with Mr. Sims McCamme who was best man, and was met at the altar by his bride, wearing a handsome going-away suit of brown with accessories, and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses and valley lillies. She was acompanied by her father who gave her in marriage. While the vows were being said the sweet notes of "In the Gloaming," softly sounded through the sacred edifice.

The attendants wore rainbow attires and carried Killarney roses.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sartor, and a beautiful girl of pronounced brunette coloring. She never looked lovelier than on this, her wedding day, when she plighted her troth to the man of her choice. Mr. Ross is a popular young business man of Atens, Ala. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for their home in Athens.

Mr. Otto Jones Entertains.

The younger set enjoyed a lovely social affair last Thursday night, when Mr. Otto Jones entertained a few of his frineds at a stag dinner. The occasion was his twentieth birthday anniversary. Pink and white were the chosen colors for this delightful affair. Baskets of roses and ferns were attractively arranged about the rooms.

In the dining room pink tapers burned on the table which bore as its center motif the embossed cake. A lovely four-course menu was served, the color note being further accentuated in the ice course. Covers were laid for seven, and bore the inscriptions of Messrs S. P. Allman, Wallace Jones, Dick Hayes, Leon Kemp, Omar Reynolds, Leon Mullins, and the honoree. After the luncheon the party enjoyed seeing a good picture at the Ideal Theatre.

After a pleasant stay of several weeks with Mrs. M. A. Gore, her cousin, Mrs. Martin, has returned to her home in Tampa, Fla.

Rev. and Mrs. Pearson had as their guests for the week-end, Rev. and Mrs. Johnson of Montgomery. Rev. Johnson delivered a very impressive sermon from the Methodist pulpit on Sunday morning.

A Surprisee Party.

Mrs. M. A. Gore entertained beautifully at a surprise birthday party on last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Gore's "sixteenth" birthday. The apartments were thrown together and adorned with pot plants and varied bright summer flowers. The central table decoration was the birthday cake holding sixteen burning tapers. Covers were laid for Hugh Simpson, C. Fenn Jones, G. C.Walker, Dr. N. S. Johnson, R. E. Luckie, Wesley Danforth. A most elaborate dinner was served, and later the party went to the lodge.

Card Club Meets.

Mrs. Victor Heard was a charming hostess on last Thursday eveing entertaining her card club. Baskets of roses and zenias were effectively used in decorating the apartments where the tables were placed for the game. After a series of games Miss Leona Pipes held the highest score, and was presented a deck of cards. Later a beautiful salad plate with ice tea was served to Mesdames S. E. Johnson, Arthur Johnson, Watts Moore, T. C. McSwain, R. E. Luckie, Grady Reynolds, Guy Roberts, and Miss Leona Pipes.

Miss Gussie Rainer left Tuesday for her home in Elba, after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. V. J. Elmore.

Pretty Party Given.

Miss Peggy Mullins was the pretty little hostess on last Friday morning at a birthday party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mullins. The occasion was her fifth birthday anniversary. After playing several juvenile games on the spacious lawn the little folks were served an ice course from a pretty table, which held as its center piece the birthday cake with five twinkling pink candles. Mints were passed in a beautiful candy basket by Miss Sarah Luckie. About twenty litt'e folks enjoyed this happy occasion.

Couldn't Sleep To do any Good

LITTLE ROCK WOMAN WEIGHED ONLY 85 POUNDS—IS NOW WELL AND STRONG AGAIN.

"There is such a big change in me that my friends are astonished when they see me and I lose no time in telling them that Tanlac is responsible for it," said Mrs. Eulalia McAdams, 260 Maple St., Little Rock, Ark.

"It is just beyond my power of words to describe how much I suffered from stomach trouble. Although I lived on almost a starvation diet, I suffered for hours after eating. I got so thin I looked like a good wind would blow me away and I weighed only 85 pounds. My nerves gave way too, and I was miserable day and night, not being able to get enough sleep to do me any good. I was told an operation was my only hope, but I felt too weak and nervous to stand it at that time.

"I began taking Tanlac, and in a short time I was so much stronger, and my nerves were so much better that I had the operation performed. For months afterwards I was still in a very weak condition, so I began to take Tanlac again and the results have been simply marvelous. I eat anything I want without the slightest trouble afterwards, sleep as sound as a child every night and now weigh one hundred and thirty-three pounds which is just about the right weight for me. I never remember feeling as well and strong as I do right now, and it is all because I was fortunate enough to get the right medicine."

LIBERTY HILL

The singing society met at this place Sunday afternoon, August 7th with a large crowd. The singing was good. Messrs Glover Smith, Ruben Miller, W. G. Culp, J. W. Lowery, Dave Melton and Misses Claudie and Lillie Smith, directed three songs each. A mixed quartett was sung by Etta Foshee, Lillie Smith, Gresham Smith, Willie Riggins, Glover Smith, Paul Littlejohn, Alphus Littlejohn, and L. V. Riggins. A male quartett by Glover Smith, J. W. Lowery, Alpheus Littlejohn and L. V. Riggins, also a duet by Neacie and Gresham Smith.

Organists were W. G. Culp, Lillie Smith, Blanche Riggins and Bonnie Littlejohn. We thank the visitors for coming. Come again.

JEFFERS SPEAKS IN WASHINGTON, AT BEAUTY PAGEANT

Friends of Major Lamar Jeffers, popular congressman from this district, will be interested to know that he is attracting much attention in Washington, the Alabama representative having taken part in many interesting programs in Washington and vicinity during past few weeks.

Last week Congressman Jeffers delivered a speech at a beauty pageant staged in the capitol in the interest of the Georgia division of the Roosevelt Memorial Association, Congressman Upshaw and Senator Harris of Georgia being the other speakers.

Same Old Story, But a Good One.

Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of oters, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured mee of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles." Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

A LOCAL HOSPITAL

A very timely article appeared in the Union-Banner last week by the editor, on the need and possibility of a local hospital. Inasmuch as only a few of the salient points were stated, it might be well to add further information on the subject.

Territory.

It is interesting first to note that no hospital is in existence between Birmingham on the north, Montgomery on the south, Selma on the west and Georgia on the east. With the immediate territory of Chilton County which is a hub in the wheel of the adjoining counties around, we would have a population of some 25,000 people to cater to. Coosa County has very inadequate railroad facilities to larger hospital centers, therefore this is the logical place for patients from this territory. According to hospital statistics of the United States there should be an average of three beds to every 1,000 people which according to the ratio of our population that we have to draw from necessitates us building a 75 bed, instead of a 25 bed hospital. For purposes of safety however we think it better to start out with the smaller building, and so construct it as to be able to add to it according to the demand. More important matters however than these are to be considered, and not the least of these is the Medical Ability.

During the past year in Clanton alone our local surgeons and doctors have operated on between 30 and 40 major operations, many of them very serious cases, without a single death, and with a full recovery in all of them. This is in itself a glowing testimony to the ability of our local doctors to do the work. The fact also that in addition to these others were sent away for the lack of proper equipment, bears witness to the need of such an institution.

The Need.

As we go to press this week three serious major operations are waiting attention by the local doctors. It is however a mistaken idea that hospitals are only for surgical cases. Numerous cases of severe sickness such as typhoid, pneumonia and kindred diseases would be taken better care of and more successfully often than in the home of the patient or some distant or very expensive hospital.

The Value of Time.

The value of time in many surgical operations is also an important matter about which very few people think. Those with bursted appendixes need to be operated on at once, for even then it is extremely serious. It is therefore a very unwise and dangerous procedure to have to carry such persons upwards of a hundred miles away to some distant hospital in the baggage car along side of a coffin, chickens, vegetables or some other kind of undesirable freight. The coffin part is at least very suggestive, and not at all consoling, yet it is a fact that many who have thus been shipped away have been brought back again in similar boxes, whose lives might easily have been spared if there was a local hospital where such cases can be taken care of efficiently and immediately.

The Expense.

Then think of the extra expense of sending the sufferer to the larger cities. Raiload fares, almost extortionate hospital charges and sundry other expenses according to the needs of the case. With a local hospital the railroad expenses would be eliminated, and the hospital expenses be necessarily very much smaller in the local institution. The relatives and friends being close to the hospital could drop in almost daily if desired to see a sick one, and attend to their business affairs at the same time without all the expense of visiting the larger cities and spending considerable time and money to do it. If perchance the case proves hopeless as frequently occurs in the best of regulated hospitals the relatives would still be out far less expense by supporting the local institution.

Children's Diseases

With a good hospital equipment the doctors will be able to specialize on diseases of children, such as eye, ear nose and throat, which cannot very well be done with the present equipment.

Trained Nurses.

It will of course be necessary to have one or more thoroughly trained nurses, but such an institution will also afford an opportunity for the training of nurses who can go out from the hospital in the course of time fully equipped to minister to the needs of this vast territory who may desire their services.

How to Build.

Further details as to the proposed method of building this hospital will be given in a later issue of the paper. It is sufficient here to say that it is proposed to make a stock company of the enterprise, giving every citizen who desires an opportunity to take one or more shares at $100 each, payable in one or three installments which will bear interest or yield dividends according to the success of the institution. It is proposed that a Board of Directors shall manage the business affairs so that everyone who becomes a stockholder will get a fair deal. With the X-Ray and other modern equipment, and the building erected on ap rominent beautiful site, we are sure it can soon become a very successful enterprise and a valuable addition to our county. Let us boost for it and make it go. We can and we will.

FROM UNCLE DOCK WELLS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me a small space in the dear old Banner. I have been gone so long I am afraid the dear people of Clanton will think I have run away.

I went to Minooka Saturday and conducted a three-days meeting. We had a glorious meeting. I made a trip to Birmingham last Wednesday to visit my daughter, Mrs. W. A. Lodge, and while there I had pleasure of seeing my grand daughter, Miss Sydney Lodge happily married to Mr. E. M. Sims of Birmingham, of the L. & N. Railroad Co. The young couple wil make their home in the city of Birmingham.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since . . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Fairly good congregations were present last Sunday, but not nearly as many of the members as we would like to see. A splendid Sunday School of 125 was registered. Others came in too late to be recorded. For the summer months when such institutions frequently fall off in attendance, the number last Sunday was very gratifying.

The services next Sunday will be held as usual. The morning service will be held especially for the children, when the address will be given to them. It will be interesting to the grown folks as well.

The date for the big revival meeting is set for September 18th, when all three churches will unite. Dr. Charles P. Weigle, highly recommended to us who holds big meetings in the various states, will conduct the meeting, assisted by one of the best singing evangelists in the country. Let us work and pray for a great meeting.

We cordially invite all visitors to our services. P. G. CARTER.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

Mrs. Soberg Honors Mrs. Mikesell.

On last Wednesday afternoon a very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. M. J. Soberg, when Mrs. Soberg delightfully honored Mrs. Mikesell by the presence of a number of her friends. The invitation list included the following: Mrs. R. Mikesell and children, Lavertia and John; Mrs. Martin Peterson and sons Richard and LeRoy; Mrs. Lefstead, Mrs. Carl Grenn, Mrs. M. Grothy; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morgan and little son; Mrs. Ivy Horn and sons; Mrs. M. Anderson; Mrs. Erdahl and daughters, Anna and Inga; Mrs. H. Gerald and daughters, Iola and Mary Ella; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hutchinson; Miss Caroline Skinnes; Miss Nellie Wernss; Miss Alma Lefstead; Miss Palma Dahl; Miss Olga Grinley; Miss Clara Peterson. Everybody reported a very good time and all more than enjoyed the delicious refreshments as well as Victrola music, which was furnished during the afternoon.

The mery camping crowd who went to Coosa River last week returned home Sunday evening, and take it from the writer who was one of them, they surely had one jolly time. They were supplied with loads of all kinds of good eats, and the time was spent in rowing, swimming, hiking, and various other ways. Music was enjoyed as one of the crowd furnished a graphonola, one an accordion and one a clarinet. During their stay at camp they had several visitors from Thorsby. On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Paxson, Mr. and Mrs. Mead and Clyde Mead came and spent the day and on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Graham and son, Almon, called. Bill Parrish of Clanton also was a visitor. All have been teased since they came back about being such poor fishermen, but they just don't understand the situation. We wish to explain that the reason we didn't catch any fish was because "Art" Villadsen was continually on the river either swimming or rowing and he kept the water so riled up that the fish simply refused to bite. Well anyway, we had our fill of fish and a mighty fine trip.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Horn have with them this week their daughter Mrs. Stine Pittman and children of Montgomery, also Leroy Horn of Clanton.

Misses Edith Roll and Theresa Bosworth of Birmingham are the guests this week of Christine Bosworth.

Mrs. Sarber of Elmore arrived on Tuesday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Echols of Birmingham were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. M. Bosworth last week.

Mr. Thos. Bosworth left last week for Portland, Indiana, for a visit to his son, Dick Bosworth. His little granddaughter, Helen Bosworth of Birmingham, went with him.

The next meeting of the Ladies Guild will be held at the home of Mrs. Ivy Horn the fourth Thursday of This month. All the ladies, whether or not they are members, are cordially invited, and of course the "men" are also allowed to be present as long as they bring their dimes.

Mrs. M. Peterson Entertains.

On last Friday afternoon Mrs. Martin Peterson entertained complimenting her daughter, Mrs. R. Mikesell. The social afternoon as well as the delicious refreshments were enjoyed by Mrs. R. Mikesell, and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Horn, and children, Mrs. M. Anderson, Mrs. Dryhood, Mrs. M. Grothy, Mrs. Erdahl and daughters, Anna and Inga, Mrs. Carl Grenn, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morgan and little son, Mrs. M. J. Soberg, Miss Caroline Skinnes, Miss Nellie Werness, Miss Palma Dahl, Miss Olga Grinley, Miss Clara Peterson and Rev. J. Benson.

Mrs. R. Mikesell and her sister, Clara, enjoyed a very delicious chicken diner given by Mrs. Anna Villadsen on last Monday.

Mrs. M. Anderson and daughter, Mrs. Ivy Horn, pleasantly entertained a few friends last Monday afternoon. The party consisted of the following: Mrs. R. Mikesell, Mrs. M. J. Soberg, Mrs. M. Grothy, Miss Nellie Werness and Miss Clara Peterson.

Mrs. R. Mikesell and children who have been visiting with Mrs. Mikesell's parents, Mr .and Mrs. Martin Peterson, left Tuesday morning for Chicago, where Mr. Mikesell will join Mrs. Mikesell for a few days visit, after which they will leave for their home in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

On Tuesday the Lutheran Sunday School held its annual picnic in the grove across from the church. A bountiful dinner was served to quite a large crowd, and ice cream, lemonade and soda water were served during the day. After dinner a program of races, contests and games were enjoyed by the children and also the older ones. The following are the races and winners: Girls race, Mabel Howard; tub water and apple contest, Mary E. Gerald; apple and string contest, Verner Carlson; Boys race, Verner Carlson; potato race, men, Nels Nelson; ladies, Inga Howard; mens race, Martin Nelson; juvenile foot race, Frank Nelson; water and coin contest, Arnold Soberg; fat womens race, tied by Miss Grenn and Mrs. Larson; watermelon contest, James Nelson; sack race, boys, Thomas Adams; girls, Rosa Nelson; shoe and stocking race, Thomas Adams. After the races coffee and cake was served. It was indeed one of the most successful picnics the school has ever had.

Miss Agnes Leary left Monday morning for Mobile, where she will spend her vacation days of about two weeks.

Mrs. C. E. Bice of Birmingham is spending a few days with her parents.

The Baptist Ladies Aid holds its next meeting with Mrs. G. C. Wilder.

Mrs. H. V. Thompson has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Thornburg and her little son.

BODY OF PORTER PLIER RETURNED FROM FRANCE.

The body of Private Porter M. Plier, killed at Lorraine in France June 18th, 1918, is expected to arrive in Clanton to-day (Thursday) for final burial by his family and friends in his last resting place on earth. The burial will take place in Clanton cemetery at 2:00 o'clock on next Saturday afternoon.

Private Plier was 21 years old on the day of his death, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Plier of Clanton, and a member of Co. A, 84th Brigade 167th Infantry, Rainbow Division. He was the first Chilton County boy to be killed on the battlefields of France in the great world war. His death was caused by the explosion of a shell which is said to have very nearly blown his entire head from his body.

The funeral will be conducted next Saturday from the family residence in Clanton, by Dr. Brady of Birmingham. The Porter Plier Post of the American Legion will participate in the ceremony of administering the last sad rites to the body of their departed comrade in whose honor the local post of the Legion is named. There will be visiting Legionaires from other cities in Alabama in attendance upon the funeral, and all ex-soldiers are invited by the family of the deceased.

CONCERT AT FRIENDSHIP

The singing school classes of Prof. W. M. Devaughn at Friendship will render a concert program at the close of the school Saturday night, August 20th. Admission will be charged as follows: Adults 25 cents, 10 to 20 years old 15 cents, all under 10 years old admitted free. No visitors are wanted at the school during the last week. The concert program will begin at 7:30. We will make it worth the money.—J. D. Collins, Jr., Sec'y.

HIGH SCHOOL UP TO STANDARD

Since the selection of the present faculty, how does the Chilton County High School rank as compared with other county high schools last year? This question, Prin. S.E. Alverson answers by giving some interesting data below. Regulations reequire that 75% of the teachers of county high schools be college graduates. Last year only 58.82% of all the teachers employed in county high schools in Alabama held degrees from standard colleges. Last year 40% of the teachers of our high school graduates. Hence we were below the average. This startling fact together with a comparison of salaries of the teachers of Chilton County High School and other near by high schools was laid before the County Board of Education and the Town Council. They readily saw the condition and remedy. Better salaries for better teachers and more money for an additional teacher was provided for.

As a result, Prof. Alverson has secured a corps of teachers 80% of whom are college graduates. He has not only secured teachers of this type but he has endeavored to secure teachers who are specialists in the subjects they have been selected for. When all of our teachers for our high schools have the foundation and background of scholarship and professional training which is implied in graduation from a standard college and when each teacher is teaching branches in which he has made himself a specialist both in content and method of presentation, a wonderful improvement will follow in our high schools. May we work with this ideal as our goal.

Standard colloges require 15 units for unconditional entrance to their institutions. Chilton County High School offers a minimum of 16 units. Hence students enter the higher institutions of learning of our state in good standing from this school. Now that we have complied with the requirements of the State Department and the standard colleges of our own state, whot next is our goal? We should put our school on the Southern Accredited list. The requirements are very strict. Only two high schools in Alabama were on this list for 1921. Parents, you are urged to lend us your hearty co-operation as you have in the past. Prospects are very bright for the largest enrollment and the best year in the history of the High School.

The fall session of the high school will begin Monday, September 5th. Students should watch the Union-Banner from week to week for important announcements.

BARBECUE AT VERBENA NEXT SATURDAY.

The citizens of Verbena are planning for a great day at that place on next Saturday. There is to be a big barbecue, a string band to furnish music, and public speaking by State Supt. of Education, John W. Abercrombie, and Hon. John S. Tilley. The day is proposed for the benefit of the Verbena School.

OAK HILL

Sunday school last Sunday morning as usual with a good attendance. Tuesday was set for our annual picnic trip from which we have just returned, and oh, what a good time we had bathing, swimming and boat riding.

Our singing society met with the Pleasant Grove class last Sunday evening, and after a short discussion between Prof. A. H. Glasscock and Prof. James Franklin as to which of them would act as President, a vote was taken and it was decided in favor of Prof. Glasscock. After a song led by Prof. Franklin, and prayer by Mr. Z. J. Jones, the singing started in full blast with Mr. Chester Maddox as first director. Other directors for the evening were Leonard Glasscock, G. W. Spivey, Charles Glasscock, Vester Campbell, James Franklin, W. H. Conway, E. L. Glasscock, Z. J. Jones, A. H. Glasscock. Organists were Misses Sybil Langston, Lena Glasscock, Nora Franklin, Eva Childress, Dalene Wright. A mixed quartett was sung by A. H. Glasscock Vester Campbell, Eva Childress and Dalene Wright. A duet was sung by Prof. James Franklin and daughter, Miss Nora.

About recess time a storm of wind and rain came down upon us, blew out and smashed a window. A mule belonging to Mr. Ed Lenoir became frightened, broke loose, turned the buggy over, broke out the shafts, but no other damage was done.

Our singing society meets with the Union Grove class next Sunday evening. Everybody is invited. We are expecting a large crowd and some more fine singing. That day is the regular preaching day at Union Grove and also the beginning of their protracted meeting. Everybody come if you possibly can.—E. L. G.

PAYING FOR THE HOME

"Up to two years ago my money all went to doctors and medicine for my stomach trouble. I was constantly filled with gas and no medicine helped me permanently until I tried a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy at that time with excellent results. Now I am using my money in paying for a home." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the cattarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflamation that causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by Alred Drug Co., Clanton, and all good drug stores everywhere.

BODY OF PORTER PLIER BURIED HERE SATURDAY

The body of Porter M. Plier now rests beneath his native soil, having been removed from its temporary repose in France and buried in Clanton last Saturday.

The burial was made here with full military honors, the ceremony being participated in by local ex-service men and a squad from Birmingham. The funeral was preached by Rev. Dr. Bryan of Birmingham, and the final salute was fired by his comrades as the body was lowered to its final resting place.

Private Plier was the first Chilton County soldier to fall in battle in France, and the great throngs of people that witnesseed his burial here Saturday attested the honor which is held for him in the hearts of is home people.

MRS. MANDA GILES DEAD

Mrs. Manda Giles, age 76, died at the home of her son-in-law, Joe Retherford, at Gorgas, on August 13. The body was shipped from Jasper to Clanton on last Sunday and taken in charge by J. Mell Martin, undertaker here. The remains were carried to Robinson Cemetery near Mineral Springs and buried Sunday afternoon beside the grave of her husband, Martin Giles, who died some forty years ago. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. J. Parrish.

Mrs. Giles is survived by two children, W. C. Giles and Mrs. Joe Retherford. She lived in the Mineral Springs Community all her life until a few years ago. Before her marriage she was Miss Manda Traywick.

Mr. Maurice Lande of The New York Store has been in the eastern markets for the past two weeks buying goods for his fall and winter trade in Clanton. He is expected to return in a short time, whereupon the customers of the New York Store may look for interesting news regarding fall bargains.

ADAMS PARAGRAPHS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow us small space in your paper to say a few words. Health of this community is very good.

We are glad to see Leedie Adams able to be up again, after a spell of typhoid fever.

The revival meeting at Mt. Carmel closed Friday at 11 o'clock. We had one of the best meetings we have ever had. The meeting started Saturday, August 6th, with only the faithful pastor, Rev. J. E. Champion, on hand to preach. Monday Rev. Buford Lawrence came to help in the meeting, which was a grand success. Large crowds attended the services and we had the pleasure of listening to some fine sermons. Bro. Lawrence had h elped in a meeting here before, and we were all glad to have him back again with us. If all would only heed the messages he gave us we would have much better times than we are now having. There were 16 new members added to the church, one by letter, the other fifteen were baptized Friday.

With love to The Banner and its many readers.

JEFFERS INVITED TO DELIVER IMPORTANT MASONIC ADDRESS

Congressman Lamar Jeffers has been invited to deliver an address before the Federal Lodge No. 1, A.F. & A.M., at Washington, August 9th. He will have for his subject, "The New Era in Fraternalism."

Major Jeffers has delivered this address to various fraternal meetings in this district and this is quite a complimnt to Mr. Jeffers to be invited to deliver it to this Masonic Lodge so soon after his arrival in Washington. This lodge invites some speaker to address it at a regular communication once each month.

REPUBLICANS AND REDUCTION OF TAXES.

Washington, Aug. 15—In a statement issued today through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., the Republican Publicity Assn., takes exception to the assertion of staff writer of the New York Tribune who represents Republican leaders as confronted with the demand of the administration for continued large appropriations, on the one hand, and the demands of the people for reduction of taxation on the other, with political death as the alternative if the reduction of taxes is not accomplished. The statement says:

"It is altogether likely that the correspondent of the Tribune is not thoroughly familiar with the state of public opinion throughout the country. Beyond question the people of the country desire reduction of taxes more than they desire any other one thing just at this time. Nevertheless the people are intelligent enough to understand that the present members of Congress are not responsible for conditions which make immediate reduction of taxes practically impossible. If the country is to make a choice between the candidates of a party which does not reduce taxes immediately and the candidates of a party which made that reduction impossible, they will undoubtedly choose the former.

"Both Congress and the officials of the Executive Departments are andeavoring to find every possible means of curtailing public expenditures in order to pave the way for reduced taxation, and with hope of success, but it has been long understood by men familiar with public affairs that many fixed and unavoidable obligations of the government are not susceptible of immediate reduction. This was foreseen when the Republican platform of 1920 was drafted at Chicago. That platform specifically stated that no immediate reduction of taxes could be promised for the reason that the previous administration had conducted the public business in such a wasteful and extravagant manner and had incurred indebtedness in such a degree as to make immediate relief out of the question. The Republican party dealt frankly with the voters. Neither by direct assertion nor by inference did it promise immediate relief from tax burdens. On the contrary it gave clear and unmistakable warning that no immediate relief could be expected. This being true, the Republicans cannot be charged with bad faith if there be no diminution of taxation at the present session of congress.

"But even if the Republicans had promised reduction of taxes, what reason would there be for the people of the country at the election in 1922 to return to a Democratic administration? It was a Democratic administration that brought about the conditions of which the people now complain. This does not mean that the Democratic administration was responsible for the war, the reasonable expenses of which the people would bear without complaint. But it does mean that the Democratic administration conducted the war in such a wasteful manner and by such extravagant methods as to pile up an indebtedness far beyond any justification. Not even the Democratic press will have the hardihood to deny that under the Democratic adminitration there was an orgy of extravagance from which the tax payers will suffer for decades to come.

"The political retirement of the Republican party would mean the restoration of the Democratic party, practically all of whose leaders were either active participants in the Wilson administration or its supporters. However much the people may be displeased with Republican failure to reduce taxes now, if failure there shall be, they will be still more displeased with the Democratic party which made that reduction difficult if not impossible."

CONCERT AT FRIENDSHIP

The singing school classes of Prof. W. M. Devaughn at Friendship will render a concert program at the close of the school Saturday night, August 20th. Admission will be charged as follows: Adults 25 cents, 10 to 20 years old 15 cents, all under 10 years old admitted free. No visitors are wanted at the school during the last week. The concert program will begin at 7:30. We will make it worth the money. No charges will be made to the patrons of the school.

J. D. COLLINS, Jr., Secy.

PROVIDENCE, BEAT 16

The protracted meeting at this place will begin on Saturday before the first Sunday in September, and run into the following week.

AN INSPIRATION TO YOUNG AMERICA

Beginning as a water boy in a stone quarry at the age of 10, Martin B. Madden worked up to a superintendency with 1000 men under him, at the age of 18. During that eight years he worked ten hours a day, went to school at night, and turned a large part of his earnings into the family purse. His studies were directed particularly to engineering, thus fitting him for the larger problems connected with his chosen calling, and securing him the general supervision of the engineering work for the Northern Pacific Terminal at Chicago. Before he was 30 he was offered and declined a vice presidency of the Northern Pacific at a salary of $10,000 a year although he was receiving but $3500 from the stone company. By sticking to his job he worked up to the presidency of the concern, which position he held for 20 years.

Such preparation in private life led to his election to the Chicago City Council where he became chairman of the finance committee and president of the council. When he became chairman of the finance committee the city owed $20,000,000 of current obligations and had just added 160 square miles of new territory in which improvements must be made. So able was Madden's management of the finances of the city that at the end of seven years the debt had been paid off, current expenses had been met and there was a surplus in the treasury so that there was money enough to run the city before a tax could be collected.

It was such a record as that that caused the people of his district to send Madden to Congress when he declined to remain longer in the City Council. He has served 16 years continuously in the Lower House, which is sufficient evidence that his constituents are well pleased with the manner in which he represents them. No better qualified man could have been found for the chairmanship of the House Appropriations Committee in these trying times. He has a large and difficult task before him, but his past record justifies confidence that he is equal to it.

S. D. A. CONFERENCE

The annual Convention and camp meeting of the Alabama Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists will be held in Clanton, Alabama September 1 to 10. A city of tents will soon be pitched on the Gulledge Grove in the northern part of the city, for the accommodation of those who are coming from Birmingham, Mobile, Pensacola, Decatur, Montgomery, and other places in the State.

Large pavillions will also be erected for the holding of meetings, for a cafeteria, where only vegetarian dishes will be served, and for the display of literature.

The Convention, according to B. C. Marshall, Secretary of the Conference, will be the most important ever held by the denomination in this State. Not only will practically all of the ministers, licentiatees, colporteurs, school teachers, and gospel workers be in attendance, but a number of the leading clergymen will come from the world's headquarters of the denomination in Takoma Park, D. C., and also from the Southern Union Conference which has its office at Nashville, Tennessee.

Among the visitors coming are Charles Thompson, Assistant treasurer of General Conference; J. S. James, Field Secretary of the General Conference Sabbath School Department; J. L. McElhaney, President of the Southern Union Conference; O. R. Staines, Secretary of Home Missionary Department of Southern Union Conference; V. O. Cole, Field Secretary of the Literature Department of the Southern Union Conference; John C. Thompson, Superintendent of Education and Secretary of Young Peoples Department of the Southern Union Conference.

There will be a Bible Convention each day in which the prophecies will be expounded. The books of Daniel and Revelation will be dealt with quite considerably, and those prophecies which relate to present day events will be brought to the attention of the people. A great deal will be said about the political, social, and financial unrest in the earth, and what these things mean in the light of prophecies by the seers of old.

The great fundamental doctrines concerning the nearness of the return of Christ, which Seventh-Day Adventists have held to ever since the denomination was organized, will be preached during the evening meetings, and much consideration will be given to the question of Sunday legislation, which is attracting attention throughout the nation.

The public is cordially invited.

JEFFERS GIVEN PLACE ON PUBLIC LAND COMMITTEE

Congressman Bowling of Fifth District, also Placed on Office Committee.

W. E. Bowling, who was elected as Congressman from the Fifth District to succeed Senator J. Tom Heflin, has been appointed as a member of the post office and post roads committee of the House, to succeed the late Congressman James of Virginia, Major Lamar Jeffers of this District having been given a committee assignment this week as a member of the committee on public lands.

Information reaching here from Washington Friday is to the effect that the public lands committee is one of the most important in congress and that the Fourth Disrict Congressman is being treated fairly in the matter of committee assignments, despite the fact that the Republicans have a majority in the House.

A strong fight had been made between Congr'sman Bowling and other Congressmen for the post office and post roads committee place, Congressman Fred L. Blackmon having been a member of that committee at the time of his death last February.

CONVENTION NOTICE

The County Singing Convention of the Harp and Harmony will meet in regular semi-annual session at Lomax Church the first Sunday in September, and Saturday before.

The people of the surrounding country are cordially invited to assist the Lomax people in supporting the convention by all carrying well filled baskets.

Judge B. K. McMorris of Wetumpka was in Clanton Saturday attending the funeral of Porter Plier. Judge Mcmorris was a Major in the army, seeing service with the boys in France. His love and respect for the men in the ranks calls him forth to do honor to them at every opportunity.

PELLAGRA CONTROL

Whatever facts the complete investigation may disclose as to the alleged danger of a pellagra epidemic in the South, President Harding is to commended for taking prompt action to ascertain whether Federal assistance is needed. Of course there is no intention on the part of the Federal authorities to supplant local health officers in guarding the public health in their several jurisdictions. If there were any such intention or effort, it would furnish a very proper occasion for resentment. Pellagra is not a contagious or infectious disease; hence control of the disease can not be considered a national problem unless local authorities are unable to cope with it and call for Federal assistance. At a time when the National Treasury is depleted, there is no probability that the National administration will go around hunting for new burdens to place upon the Federal bureaus.

It is a sad commentary on the income tax law when a strong industrial concern goes into bankruptcy and its offices are taken over and luxuriously fitted up by a firm of "Income Tax Experts" who make their money telling people how to make income tax reports.

One of the leading supporters of the Republican Administration bill for relief to the farmers was the Democratic leader of the Senate. Now, let's have an end of that assertion in the Democratic press that the Republicans are accomplishing nothing.

WILL IT BE A FINANCIAL SUCCESS?

Along with the many other important questions relative to a hospital in Clanton, that concerning the financial success of such an institution ranks among the first for consideration.

Let us take note first of such cases of Mr. Massey as he stated in last week's paper. His hospital experience of four weeks in B'ham cost him around $800.00. Even if the hospital were in operation in Clanton now, it would be getting three to six cases each week of about the same nature as the Massey case. Granting that each one of the cases in Clanton would cost the patients only half as much as it cost Mr. Massey in B'ham, that would mean right now, if we had the hospital, from $1,200.00 to $2,400.00 turned loose in our town each week. As the institution grew and added to its success these figures would be greatly increased.

Money being spent by the patients at the hospital in this way would not alone benefit the hospital and the doctors who might have the case in charge. But the business man, store keeper, automobile shops, drug stores, and practically every other business in town would get its due proportion of the money. In many cases a part of the money would even find its way back to the patient himself.

As it is now, with cases of sickness going to other cities, instead of every line of our business being helped every one of us are directly or indirectly drained to pay our part of the expenses.

Now, as to whether the hospital itself would get enough business to justify its operation, we can best determine by comparing conditions and opportunities here with conditions and opportunities in other towns about like Clanton.

Selma maintains four hospitals, Dothan three, Sylacauga two. These towns are a little larger than Clanton, but have considerably smaller territory to draw from; yet they operate two to four hospitals successfully.

The case of Andalusia is an impressive one. About two years ago seven doctors in that town put in $700.00 each, and borrowing the rest of the money, built a $10,000 hospital. In the first sixteen months they made expenses and lacked only $1,600.00 of paying for the whole outfit. In other words the hospital cleared $8,400 in sixteen months over and above expenses. Clanton has more territory to draw hospital business from than Andalusia had.

A few years ago Dr. L. V. Stabler moved from Thorsby to Greenville, bought an old hotel building and started a hospital. Since starting, his business has outgrown his quarters and he has been forced to build a new hospital. At present he has more work than can be done by himself and his brother. In the meantime another hospital has gone up at Georgiana only 16 miles away, and is doing a sustaining business.

It did not take a big city in which to build the world famous Mayo institutions at Rochester, Minn. The town of Rochester has no appearance of a modern city. There are no street cars and no bright lights that carry the tide of humanity into the mystic whirl of city night life. It is a plain country town like Clanton. Yet the Mayos have a hospital there that will take care of 2,000 patients, and an office building that cost a million dollars.

If hospitals in these small towns are not a success, why do they continue to operate? If they are not successful, why do they keep on building them?

If hospitals are a success in Andalusia, Greenville, Sylacauga, and such places, don't you know it will be a success in Clanton? There is not a doubt in the world about it.

MEMBER OF FAMILY MISSING

Mr. G. B. Williams of Pletcher was in our office Wednesday and stated that a member of his family was missing and that he wanted us to use our efforts in helping him to recover the lost one. When asked how long the member had been missing Mr. Williams replied: "Don't know exactly, but the best I remember he was last seen about the middle of March."

After telling us how lonely and bereaved himself and family had been since this sad departure, we (with tears in our eyes too) asked him the name of the lost member. In his great sorrow Mr. Williams replied: "His name is The Union-Banner."

We took his name and $1.50 in cash, and on next Friday his family circle will be completed with The Union-Baner in its regular place in his home.

NEW INFIRMARY IS CROWDED TO THE LIMIT.

The formal opening of the Sylacauga Infirmary has been indefinitely postponed due to the press of the emergency hospital cases which have kept the infirmary continually crowded since its opening. Of the nine cases reported in the infirmary Tuesday, four were accident cases.

"We intend to give our formal opening at the earliest possible moment," stated Dr French Craddock, "but up to the present time the press of emergency work has made it impossible. We are anxious to have Sylacaugians inspect the infirmary, and e expect to give them an opportunity to do so just as soon as we can arrange for it."

Local citizens are keenly anticipating the opening, and the event will undoubtedly cause large crowds to visit the new institution.—Sylacauga News.

Don't you know that if Sylacauga's second hospital can start off with such promising prospects, Clanton's first one will be a success? If you don't believe it will, we will show you in a few months.

CATTLE DIPPING QUESTION MAY COME UP AGAIN SOON

Recent communication to the Probate Judge of Chilton County from the Live Stock Sanitary Department at Auburn looks a little like this county may be put back under the federal quarantine and subjected again to the details of the operating laws concerning the dipping of cattle for the eradication of the ticks.

In regard to this matter Judge Reynolds has received a letter from Dr. C. A. Cary, under date of August 13, in which he says:

> "I have received a letter from inspector M. R. Perry. Up to date he has received no money for his work. It looks very much like your county is going to be forced back into quarantine, and that at an early date. If we have to put on a tight quarantine on the county, that will mean there will be no movement of cattle whatever from the county."

The reply of Judge Reynolds states very ably the attitude of our county in the matter of financing the dipping proposition. His letter to Dr. Carey was as follows:

"In reply to your letter of the 13th instant, will state that this county has no money t pay inspectors to look after ticks in this county.

When the law went into effect in 1919, forcing this county to dip its cattle, the Commissioners Court made every effort they could to assist the State in getting rid of ticks. We borrowed money and paid for the work and did without some things that the county needed in order to carry on Tick Eradication, even though we were not financially able to carry this work on.

"I suppose the people in this county complied with the law in 1919, as there was only one instance when any person was reported for failure, and he was convicted in the County Court, over which I preside. In 1920 we were again asked to dip our cattle. We were still without funds to pay the expenses with, but we managed to borrow some more money and did the best we could, thinking that we would be sure to get through with the work that year. Again in 1921 we were told that we would have to dip our cattle, and the Commissioners Court made an effort to comply with the Government's request in the early part of the year, but the Court reached the conclusion that the proper effort was not being made by the inspectors and Government officials to get through with this work, for it seemed that the work was being extended so that the managers could draw pay; some people who had ticky cattle were requested to dip them, while others were not.

"The Court feels that it has done its full duty and in justice to the County it is compelled to keep its bridges repaired, so they have spent all the money that county is able to spend on tick eradication during the year 1921, especially when it seems that it is doing no good.

"We would hate to see our county put under quarantine, but of course, this is a matter in which we will have no voice for the people of Alabama have already lost their local self-government.

"I think the law is radically wrong in many respects and especially is it wrong when it gave the State the right to enforce this law and made it compulsory for the Commissioners Court to payf or it.

"We try to be law-abiding citizens but we have appropriated all the money we can this year, but if you you want the Court called together, I shall be glad to call the Commissioners at any time you can meet them.

"Yours very truly,
"L. H. REYNOLDS,
"Judge of Probate."

NOT "PURELY PSYCHOLOGICAL"

Washington, Aug. 15.—Contrasting the industrial depression of 1913-14 with the situation today, the Republican Publicity Association has this to say:

"Following the inauguration of the Democratic administration in 1913 and the enactment of a Democratic tariff law, there was a period of decline in industry due largely to the fact that the United States was increasing its imports and decreasing its exports, giving more employment to foreign and less employment to American labor. There were long lines of unemployed getting free food from bread wagons and soup carts. President Wilson's explanation of the depression was that it was "purely psychological." There were 5,000,000 men out of employment.

"It is said that there are four million men out of employment now, but the Republicans make no claim that it is a "purely psychological" condition. We admit that the present condition is due to a number of very definite causes, chiefly reaction from war conditions, but accentuated by the waste and extravagance of the Wilson regime, the heavy taxes necessitated by that extravagance, the defiltion policy adoptel by the Democratic Federal Reserve Board, the scrambling of the railroads by the McAdoo management, and the paternalistic policies pursued by the Democrats during their eight years of rule.

"The present condition is not "purely psychological," and neither was the depression that followed the adoption of a free trade policy in 1913. There was a very real cause for the depression that afflicted the country during the first two years of the Wilson administration—and relief came only when the war furnishel this country with unprecidented markets at unprecedented prices, with no competition from abroad. The Democratic administration wasn ot required to do anything to get the nation out of its difficulty then.

"There is also a real cause for present conditions, but apparently nothing but hard work, sound legislation, and wise economy on the part of the administration and the people will restore the country back to its prosperity."

ALABAMA DOES WELL IN CARING FOR CHILDREN

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 12.—The State Child Welfare Department has just received from the Children's Bureau at Washington a report that is of much interest to welfare workers in Alabama. The title is "Children Deprived of Parent Care." This report presents the experience of 513 children taken under care by agencies in the state of Delaware during a two year period. As shown by the records of the agencies and institutions, at least half these children had one parent living and only three per cent were full orphans.

These figures show an interesting comparison with some figures recently compiled for Alabama by the Child Welfare Department, showing that of 1,670 children in the various institutions of Alabama only 9% were full orphans.

The Delaware report is further interesting to Alabamians in that they have shown one of their principal problems to be that of subnormal or feeble-minded children, and that a start has been made in that state, as it has in Alabama, toward proper institutional care for such children. It was ascertained that 11% of the children whose records were examined were in this group. The exact number in Alabama is as yet unknown, because the proper mental examinations have not been made in all cases but it is thought that the new institution for the feeble minded a Tuscaloosa will be filled to capacity.

YOUTH BEARS NAME OF POPULAR MOTOR CAR

Dodge Brothers Inc., is an institution, but Dodge Brothers is an individual.

Which, though it sounds somewhat involved and perhaps even enigmatic, is but a very simple and very truthful statement.

Fifteen months ago a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brothers, Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Brothers, it happens ,is a salesman for the Barnes Motor Co., Cleveland dealers for the Dodge Brothers. He had been selling the Dodge Brotehrs car a long time and was exceedingly proud of it. He was also exceedingly proud of his son. So he decided on a simultaneous tribute to the two. The youngster was christened "Dodge."

Master Dodge Brothers is a very bright young gentleman and gives promise of achieving a renown quite in proportion with the weight of his name.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The regular meeting of the Clanton Chamber of Comerce was held at the Odd Fellows Hall on Thursday, August 11th. The meeting was presided over by the President, Dr. V. J. Gragg. The principal matter that engaged the attention of the body was the proposed erection of a local hospital now being projected by several of the citizens. After the various details of the movement and the possibility of erecting such a building was laid before the meeting by the Secretary, the matter was freely discussed by those present. The following motion was then adopted endorsing the very worthy enterprise: That the Chamber of Commerce go on record as endorsing the idea of the erection of a 25 bed local hospital, and pledge its support to the movement. The motion was adopted unanimously.

Another matter of interest considered was the erection of some watering troughs for the stock, and on motion of J. Mell Martin and G. C. Armstrong, the body was requested to petition the City Council to take steps for the erection of suitable drinking places for the stock coming into the city from time to time.

At the close of the meeting enjoyable ice cream refreshments were served and much appreciated by those who were present.—P. G. Carter, Secretary.

Same Old Story, But a Good One.

Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of oters, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured mee of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles." Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

BETTER LABOR CONDITIONS IN MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Aug. 16—Michigan industries have added 34,000 employees to their working forces since April 1st, and are now operating on a basis of about three-fifths of their peak-time production, according to employment figures given by the Chamber of Commerce of employer's associations of 24 leading cities. The compilation shows 310,512 employees are now at work in the factories, compared to 276,000 on April 1st, and a low ebb of 136,000 men when the industrial depression was at its worst. Bay City, Muskegon, Monroe, Battle Creek, Ironwood, Ionia and Ann Arbor have fewer employees on their payrolls now than they did on April 1st, but all other cities show some increases. Detroit leads in the improvement.

PHILADELPHIA MEN RETURN TO PAY ROLLS.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16—The Chamber of Commerce has just completed a survey of local industrial conditioins which shows in 72 per cent of Philadelphia establishments there is an increase in the number of employees for the month of July, while 8 per cent show no changes. From reports gathered by the Chamber of Commerce manufacturers and business men alike are looking for material improvement in conditions as soon and the summer season is over and are making arrangements to increase their payrolls.

NORTHWEST OPTIMISTIC

Chicago, Aug. 16—Howard Elliott, Chairman of the Northern Pacific Railway Co., has just returned from a 6,000 mile trip over the lines of the Northern Pacific throughout the the northwest. "Everywhere I went there is a general feeling of hope and belief that conditions are going to be better," said Mr. Elliott. "In very few places did I find any feeling of pessimism. The outlook for agricultural production is very good. Minnesota will be above the average. North Dakota will have a considerable crop though the drought has reduced prospects in that state. Montana, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington will have production in grain, grasses and fruits above the average."

GOOD BUSINESS IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 16—Business reports from this section show substantial improvement. Numerous plants are reopening or increasing their working period. Unemployment in northern Ohio is being reduced. Motor and tire industries are in splendid shape. Pottery plants are resuming operations after a complete shutdown, working 50 per cent capacity with expectations of increasing next month. Textile industry reports a good business. All of the forty houses in the Cleveland Garment Manufacturers Association are working at full capacity.

RAILROADS INCREASE FORCES.

New York, Aug. 16—All eastern roads show substantial increases in the number of men employed in shop and repair work as compared with June 1st. The New York Central has increased its payroll by 9,000 in its various shops. The Pennsylvania system shows an increase of approximately 5,000; the Seaboard Airline of 1,000 and the Erie and Lackawanna like increases.

C. & N. W. SHOPS RESUME

Chicago, Aug. 16—The Chicago & Northwestern Railroad resumed operations in their car shops August 1, employing a full force of about 1,200 men. At the same time their locomotive shops reopened, putting about 25 per cent of the usual force back to work.

ALTOONA SHOPS BUSY

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 16—100 more shop men reported for work August 1, which made an increase of 500 in ten days which have been recalled to take their places in the Pennsylvania shops in this division.

TIN PLATE WORKERS BACK

Cumberland, Md., Aug. 16—After a shut down since July 1, the local tin mills reopened, giving employment to 200 men.

TAKE NOTICE.

Persons selling lumber to Chilton County must itemize all bills by stating the kind of lumber, whether it is oak or pine, heart or sap; the dimensions of each piece; by whom the lumber was bought; what bridge the lumber was used on; what public road the bridge is on; and by whom the lumber was received. All orders must be given by a member of the Commissioners Court. Unless the above is complied with bills for lumber will not be passed by the Commissioners Court. L. H. REYNOLDS,
Aug. 15, 1921. Judge of Probate.

ODIS PRICE SHOT SAM DAWSON ON TUESDAY

Odis Price shot Sam Dawson with a single barrel shot gun Tuesday afternoon, killing him instantly, according to a statement by the parties who claim to have seen the tragedy enacted. The killing occurred about two miles west of Thorsby, where Price was living on a farm owned by Dawson's mother The trouble beteen the two men arose from a dispute about some fodder. Price shot at Dawson twice, the first shot going wild. The second shot took effect in the left side.

Odis Price is a young man about 19, married. Sam Dawson is about 35, and has a wife and family.

The Sheriff was called soon after the shooting. When he arrived upon the scene the lifeless body of Dawson was lying in a patch of sorghum where he fell when shot. Price was taken in charge and brought to jail.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION TO NON - RESIDENT.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy Pitts that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that her place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in the Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Rosa Barnes, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 21st day of August, 1921, or in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against Respondent.

Done at office in Clanton, this 13th day of July, 1921.

SOUTHERN FARMERS PROTEST DEMOCRATIC POSITION.

Washington, Aug. 16—The Fordney Tariff Bill, as it passed the House affords protection to practically all of the agricultural products of the south, with the exception only of hides and cotton. These products are citrus fruits, onions, rice, cattle on hoof, meat products and vegetable oils—such as cotton seed oils, peanut oil and soy bean oil. About the only agricultural products of the south which the bill did not protect are the two which were voted out by the Democrats.

There is increasing evidence that the Democratic members who voted against protective schedules on cotton and hides are having a very embarrassing time explaining their vote to their constituents. It is predicted that the reaction in southern states against this record of a majority of the Democratic membership of the House is going to be so keen that the Democratic Senators from several southern states will be compelled to vote for a protective tariff upon all agricultural products.

ROBBERS AT MARBLE VALLEY

Mr. S. E. Morris brings to us the story of robbers at Marble Valley in Coosa County on last Saturday and Sunday night. He states that the stores of W. J. Morris and W. B. Blankenship were entered and a large quantity of merchandise taken.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

. . . I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

Everything for QUALITY —nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigaretty aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Timmerman-Thomas.

An interesting wedding of last Thursday, and one that came as a surprise, was that of Miss Mary Timmerman to Mr. Curry Thomas, at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Timmerman, in Montgomery, at 11 o'clock.

Only a few close friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride is a girl much admired and has host of friends here where she has taught for several years. Mr. Thomas holds a responsible position with the Railroad.

After a brief trip to points in the South, they have returned to Clanton where they will make their home.

Missions are Studied.

A study of Mission Stations of the Methodist Church in foreign fields is being conducted in Missionary programs of the Womans Missionary Society, and at their meeting on last Monday, with Mrs. Neighbors as hostess, "Our Work in Soochcow" was the topic discussed. Opening with appropriate scripture reading, Mrs. Neighbors conducted the devotional, and the "Description and History of Soochow" was discussed. Mrs. Neighbors read "The Story of the Chinese Woman."

After a short business session the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Pearson, served a delicious salad plate with iced tea.

Children's Party Given.

Miss Mary Heard was a charming hostess on last Saturday evening when she entertained a number of her friends at a birthday party. In a potato race Miss Mattie Mae Fiquett captured the prize, while other juvenile games were played and little Misses Louise McSwain and Edna Roberts won similar prizes, boxes of candy. In the dining room where ice cream and cake was served was pretty decorated. The central table decoration being the cake burning pretty pink tapers. Here cute candy favors were presented to about 15 little guests.

Miss Lurline Harper has returned to her home in Clanton after a visit of several weeks to different points in Alabama.

Miss Alice Wood Perry and mother of Blocton are spending this week in Clanton with Mrs. F. M. Woods and family.

CATHOLIC PRIEST SHOT

Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, Methodist preacher, shot and instantly killed Father James E. Coyle, Catholic priest, at the home of the latter in Birmingham last Tuesday evening. It is said Stephenson killed Coyle because he (Coyle) performed a marriage ceremony between Stephenson's daughter and a Catholic.

Tuesday Club Meets.

The members of the Tuesday Card Club enjoyed a lovely meeting with Mrs. Guy Higgins, hostess, on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. Mullins. The spacious living room where the tables were placed was pretty with decorations of summer blossoms. At the close of a spirited game Mrs. Arthur Johnson held the highest score and was awarded a deck of cards, while Mrs. Kyle was presented a bottle of toilet water, as guest prize.

Later a delicious ice course was served. Besides the club members, Mrs. Kyle, Mrs. Alex Richards, and Mrs. John VanDerveer and Miss Maud Mullins were guests of the club.

Mrs. A. Johnson will be hostess on next Tuesday.

Enjoyable Spend-the-Day Party

Mrs. Mallie White was a charming hostess on last Tuesday, entertaining at an old fashioned quilting and spend the day party. Beginning early, the ladies were busily engaged in quilting, completing their task long before the day was over.

At noon a most sumptious dinner was served and covers laid for Mrs. Bama Cox, Mrs. P. T. Hinkle, Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Mrs. E. E. Upchurch, Mrs. Martin Nix and Mrs. John Armstrong.

Wednesday Club Entertained

Mrs. Arthur Johnson delightfully entertained the members of the Wednesday Card Club at her home on last Wednesday. The rooms were made attractive with crystal vases of bright colored zenias. Here two tables were arranged for the game. The highest score was held by Miss Leona Pipes, who was presented a box of stationery. A tempting salad plate was served to Mrs. V. J. Heard, Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mrs. E. Luckie, Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mrs. Sam Johnson, Mrs. Grady Reynolds and Miss Leona Pipes.

There will be preaching at this place the fourth Sunday. Everybody is invited to come.

NEW OFFICERS ARE GETTING READY WITH TAX MATTERS

J. T. Rockett of Coopers and S. M. Pate of Thorsby, the new Tax Collector and Assessor of Chilton County, were in Clanton on Wednesday getting things straightened out for the beginning of their duties of assessing and collecting taxes, which is to begin on October the first. They arranged the dates and places for their rounds of the county, which will be published according to law. Only one round will be made over the county.

NEGRO CONFESSED TO ASSAULT

Clyde Thomas, negro, alleged confessed assailant and slayer of the little 14 year old Wallace girl near Randolph, went to trial for his crime in the Circuit Court of Bibb County at Centerville Wednesday. A detachment of soldiers are guarding the court house and jail during the trial to prevent any possible lawless demonstration. Feeling is said to run high in the Randolph neighborhood but precautions are being taken to prevent anything like mob violence.

CHARGED WITH CAR THEFT

Sheriff Gore went to Americus, Georgia last week and brought back George Kilgore and Oscar Giles, together with a Buick automobile which was in their possession, and was thought to be the car of Dr. Gowan which was stolen from him here some weeks ago. It has not yet been definitely determined whether the car is Dr. Gowan's or not, as all the numbers and possible marks of identification had been effaced. Giles has been released from jail on bond. Kilgore is still in jail.

SATURDAY'S TRADES DAY; A JUST EXPLANATION OF IT.

Inasmuch as many of the country people as well as many of the citizens of Clanton were keenly disappointed in the aeroplane exhibition advertised for last Saturday morning and afternoon, it is only fair to the Chamber of Commerce of Clanton, under whose auspices this was undertaken, and on behalf of the merchants and citizens who so generously contributed their money to make it a possibility that an honest and truthful explanatioin be made to all concerned of the comparative failure and disappointment.

On the good faith of the merchants and citizens of Clanton who liberally subscribed their money for this purpose, the Reeves Flying Co., of supposed good reputation as represented by letters of testimonial, were engaged to put on two aeroplane stunt flying exhibitions. According to the verbal agreement made in the presence of several witnesses, an exhibition was to be given in the morning about 11 a. m. and the other at 4 p.m. when the prize tickets were to be dropped.

The acrobat to be engaged in this exhibition was to be one of the best in the land or among the best to be found. The aeroplane was to reach Clanton Friday afternoon or early Saturday morning so that no possible hitch could occur. This they failed to do. Neither the flyer nor the acrobat promised to us by the Reeves Flying Company appeared, but a second rate acrobat, with a second rate machine was supplied us, in the place of the one who was said to be one of the most clever acrobats in the entire country. As to the failure of the machine to appear at the proper time, the excuse of the Reeves Co., is that they encountered a severe storm in the way and were compelled to return to Birmingham. The fact is, if they had kept their verbal agreements they would have left Birmingham early in the morning at the latest and reached Clanton long before any storm occurred and so have fulfilled their agreement. Finally however, they put in their appearance at 5 p. m., and on their arrival it seems that it became necessary for them to effect additional repairs to their inferior machine which delayed them in dropping the tickets until nearly six o'clock when some 50% of the people had been compelled to return home.

It is therefore due to the citizens of Clanton who signed the contract and the Chamber of Commerce to state that they were not in any sense to blame for the disappointment unless it was in the signing of the unforeseen one-sided terms of the written contract that was signed by the merchants and citizens with the Reeves Flying Co. The attempt on the part of the merchants was an honest one to furnish the people who came with an enjoyable entertainment absolutely free, and give them an opportunity to secure some prize of value to the fortunate ones who secured the lucky tickets. If the people who left the city feel that they were stung because they were not able to see the stunts as advertised or wait until the tickes were distributed, much more do the merchants and citizens who put up the $300 feel that they were stung in the failure of the Reeves Flying Co., to fulfill at least their verbal contracts. Neither the Chamber of Commerce nor the merchants were to blame for the unfortunate disappointment. All we ask is that for future interests you place the blame in the right place, and give us another opportunity to serve you better next time.—The Clanton Chamber of Commerce.

YEAST FILLS OUT HOLLOWS IN SUNKEN CHEEKS

Science finds that people became thin, weak and sickly because their food lacks one vitally necessary element called vitamines.

Yeast contains billions of vitamines and is great for building good solid flesh and muscle. People formerly ate yeast cakes but the best and easiest way to take vitamines into the system is to take Ironized Yeast which contains highly concentrated brewer's yeast (very effective) in tablet form. It also contains iron, the great blood builder, making the work of the vitamines doubly effective. Many say that with Ironized Yeast it is easy to gain as much as a pound a day. Quickly rids the skin of pimples, black heads, etc.

The fact that such a reliable drug store as Upchurch's highly recommends Ironized Yeast indicates that it is well worth trying. Special directions for children in each pkg.

Mr. Yancey Giles of Birmingham is in Clanton spending his vacation. He has been here with relatives and friends for a week or more.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

UNCLE TOM'S 85TH BIRTHDAY

I wish to thank my children and all those who called to congratulate me on my 85th birthday. Especially do I wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Lon Reagan for the excellent birthday cake.

There was but one small cloud visible, Miss Naemi Turnquist had formed a conspiracy with others against me, for as I was enjoying my easy rocker and trying to get a little comfort out of the 100 degrees of heat, with humidity added, the aforesaid young lady forced me to face a kodak.

My advice is, buy a picture and rats, mice, roaches and chigers will disappear as if by magic. Bedbugs will forsake their secret lairs and boll-weevils will fly for their lives from cotton fields.

Wishing you all good health, prosperity and life, I remain,

UNCLE TOM BOSWORTH.

Mrs. H. V. Thomsen delightfully entertained a few young people last Saturday night. After enjoying some good victrola music, punch and cake was served to the following guests: Misses Beatrice Johnson, Agnes Gerald, Gladys Carden and Naemi Turnquist, Messrs Walter Johnson, Clyde Meade, Horace Williams, Walter Parnerr, Mrs. Thornburg and Mr. Thomsen.

Miss Agnes Gerald left Monday afternoon for Clanton, Ala., where she will spend about two weeks visiting with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gerald.

Mrs. John Carlson delightfully entertained a number of friends at a dinner Sunday.

Miss Marie Flummer returned home Monday afternoon, after a two weeks visit with relatives and friends in Birmingham.

Miss Agnes Gerald returned home Saturday night from Eutaw, Ala., where she spent two weeks visiting with friends.

Misses Vivian and Murial Langville of Ensley spent the week end with their grand mother, Mrs. Martha B. Grothy.

Mrs. E. E. Hanson was a delighted hostess to a few of her friends last Friday afternoon.

Mr. H. O. Johnson left Monday night after having spent the greater part of the summer here with his parents.

Mr. W. L. Leary was a visitor in Thorsby Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Singfred Benson left Monday morning for Silver Hill, Ala., where he will be the guest of Rev. John Benson this week.

Next Sunday a series of revival meetings will be opened at the Baptis Church here. They will be conducted by Rev. Earnest of Maplesville, Ala.

Mr. Williams of Guntersville was a visitor in Thorsby last week. He was here for the purpose of getting information as to the growing of strawberries. Our Manager, Mr. L.E. Diefendefer was at hand to give him all the information that he was looking for.

Next Saturday p.m. Mrs. Conrad Carlson and Mrs. Sam Grenn will give a social at the home of Mrs. Carlson. The small amount of ten cents will be charged for refreshments and the proceeds will be given to the Luther League, to help pay for the piano. All are cordially invited.

GROWING SENTIMENT AMONG DEMOCRATS FOR PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

Arizona's Democratic Senator Urges Protection of the Cotton Industry.

Washington, Aug. 16—Republicans are viewing with a great deal of satisfaction the speech Senator Ashurst, Democrat, of Arizona, made in the Senate on the day the Fordney Tariff Bill was reported to the Senate from the House. It might be added that the Democrats are viewing the same speech with a great deal of concern. In the opinion of both Republicans and Democrats, Senator Ashhurst's speech and the position it outlined, forecasts a very serious split in the Democratic party upon the tariff. The Senator's speech was devoted to the subject of a protective tariff upon cotton, which he said was absolutely necessary for the continued prosperity of the American cotton planter.

While the Senator's speech was devoted particularly to the Egyptian or long staple cotton which is raised in the southwest it was a comprehnsive and scholarly discussion of the cotton industry as a whole, both in this and other countries. He pointed out that it cost 46c a pound to produce the long staple Egyptian cotton in the United States. The Egyptian grower pays not over 50c a day for his labor. It costs southern cotton growers $6 to $10 per bale to ship to Boston, the cost varying accordidng to distance. On the other hand the Egyptian cotton grower can ship his cotton from Egypt to Boston for $3 per bale. Senator Ashurst insisted that the American grower is entitled to a protection which equals these differences between labor and transportation costs, and then said:

Democrat Pleads for Tariff.

"The government of the United States within the past fifteen years has spent large sums of money in the testing of soils, sending out experts and urging farmers to plant Egyptian cotton. * * * We have spent thousands of dollars demonstrating that we could build up this industry in America. Yet the tariff bill which has come to the Senate from the House of Representatives puts cotton on the free list, which means that the American grower of cotton will be exterminated unless this schedule is corrected. I appeal to the Senators not to destroy this Egyptian cotton industry but free trade will destroy it, and I appeal to the Republicans not to destroy it."

Were Senator Ashurst the only Democrat taking such a position, it would not be so significant, but he is not alone. During the closing hours of the debate on the Fordney bill in the House, Representative Garner of Texas, ranking Democratic member of the Ways and Means Committee, and in the absence of Representative Kitchen, leader of the Democrats in the tariff schedules, took the floor, and announced that he intended to support the protective schedules on hides and cotton. It is pointed out that in this position he was supported by a very appreciable following in his own party. Only a few weeks ago Governor John M. Parker of Louisiana, in New Orleans, urged his people to discard that idea that a tariff was a political issue. He stated that it was an economic proposition pure and simple, and that the agricultural south would be better conserved by a protective tariff than it would by the traditional Democratic doctrine of a free trade policy.

A CENTRAL ALABAMA HOSPITAL

An interesting meeting of the citizens of Clanton was held on Tuesday night to further the project of erecting a hospital in Clanton by forming a stock company. According to the reports received by those present the interest in the enterprise had grown considerably, and the verbal promise of many had been made to take stock.

After considerable discussion it was decided to issue the stock at $25 a share, with a minimum of four shares to a block, thus making the first stock certificate worth $100. This method was adopted so that those who desire may be able to take six shares when they might not be able to take as many as ten shares, but might like to put in more than $100 of stock. The stock is proposed to be paid for either by cash in full if so desired by the buyer, or one-third in cash, one-third by Dec. 1st, and the balance within a year from date, with interest. By this method the person who may desire to take stock but has not the ready cash, will have some extension of time to pay for it.

It is fully anticipated from the experience of most all hospitals now in existence that the shares will pay a dividend at least after the first year, and possibly from the start, of from 8 to 10%. Apart however from the dividends received, there is a humanifarian side of the enterprise to be considered, and the great value it will be to the citizens of our county by furnishing the very best of hospital attention to the sick at much less cost than the larger institutions can afford to do in the cities.

The following committee was appointed by the meeting to solicit the sale of the stock: Prof. J. L. Johnson, Dr. V. J. Gragg, Dr. T. J. Marcus, M. L. White, W. M. Wyatt, and P. G. Carter This committee will begin work probably some time this week, and hopes by this time next week to be able to report the full amount of stock being purchased. The privilege of taking stock is not limited to the citizens of Clanton, but is open to any citizen of Chilton county, and the surrounding territory, who may wish to do so.

The affairs of the hospital will be managed by a Board of Directors, elected by the stockholders, who will be elected at a later meeting to be called for that purpose.

With the territory from which we have to draw and from which we can expect support, we believe it will be a good investment apart from the humanitarian benefit it will be to all concerned.—P. G. Carter, Secretary.

Minister Discusses His Wife's Troubles

Rev. A.H. Sykes, former pastor of Watkins Park Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tennessee, says:

"After seeing what Tanlac has accomplished in my wife's case, I am convinced that it as a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have ever seen anything give such prompt results. Mrs. Sykes had been in delicate health for ten months, suffering from stomach trouble and nervous breakdown.

"I frequently sought medical advice but Tanlac is the only thing that gave her any relief. After taking the medicine only a short time, she was able to sit up and help with the household duties. I think it only a short time until her health will be fully restored."

Tanlac is sold in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

SPECIAL TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT HERE.

HIGH SCHOOL UP TO STANDARD

Since the selection of the present faculty, how does the Chilton County High School rank as compared with other county high schools last year? This question, Prin. S.E. Alverson answers by giving some interesting data below. Regulations reequire that 75% of the teachers of county high schools be college graduates. Last year only 58.82% of all the teachers employed in county high schools in Alabama held degrees from standard colleges. Last year 40% of the teachers of our county high schools were college graduates. From this you see we were below the average. This startling fact together with a comparison of salaries of the teachers of Chilton County High School and other near by high schools was laid before the County Board of Education and the Town Council. They readily saw the condition and remedy. Better salaries for better teachers and more money for an additional teacher was provided for.

As a result, Prof. Alverson has secured a corps of teachers 80% of whom are college graduates. He has not only secured teachers of this type but he has endeavored to secure teachers who are specialists in the subjects they have been selected for. When all of our teachers for our high schools have the foundation and background of scholarship and professional training which is implied in graduation from a standard college and when each teacher is teaching branches in which he has made himself a specialist both in content and method of presentation, a wonderful improvement will follow in our high schools. May we work wit. this ideal as our goal.

Standard colloges require 15 units for unconditional entrance to their institutions. Chilton County High School offers a minimum of 16 units. Hence students enter the higher institutions of learning of our state in good standing from this school. Now that we have complied with the requirements of the State Department and the standard colleges of our own state, whot next is our goal? We should put our school on the Southern Accredited list. The requirements are very strict. Only two county high schools in Ala., were on this list for 1921. Parents, you are urged to lend us your hearty co-operation as you have in the past. Prospects are very bright for the largest enrollment and the best year in the history of the High School.

The fall session of the high school will begin Monday, September 5th. Students should watch the Union-Banner from week to week for important announcements.

WASHINGTON LETTER

A Shameful Record.

The high freight rates of today are directly chargeable to unwise governmental action in the past. The government has long controlled freight rates, through the Interstate Commerce Commission. During the period of government control, the question of rates was left almost entirely to the Director of Railroads, although the Commission maintained an appearance of exercising its usual functions. When prices of everything else were increasing, and the cost of operating the railroads was advancing, the government authorities controlling rates did not increase the freight revenues in proportion. When labor was getting almost fabulous wages and producers were getting high prices for their comodities, freiht rates in corresponding degree, could have been paid without the slightest embarassment. But the government authorities were blind to the needs of the situation. They denied the increase in rates when such increases were the logical thing, and left the increases to be imposed when the industries of the country were in a depression and could pay with difficulty. The record is a shameful one, and adds one more testimonial to the inefficiency of government agencies in the managemnt of business.

What Choice?

John Skelton Williams, Democrat, and recently a member of the Federal Reserve Board, charges the majority members of the Board with practicing favoritism in controlling credits. The Chairman of the Board, also a Democratic, characterizes Williams in language that is not at all complimentary. Far be it from us to decide a controversy between two high officials of the Democratic administration concerning the folly of some of the policies pursued, but let us at least remind the contestants that the Federal Reserve law was the Aldrich law in most particulars but differed from the Aldrich measure chiefly in trying to keep control of credits out of the hands of large bankers. What choice is there between credits controlled by bankers and credits controlled by politicians?

Bought Your Diamond.

New York dealers report a great improvement in demand for diamonds and this is reflected in the increased operations of the Antwerp and Amsterdam diamond cutting industry. The increase in the demand for diamonds has always been a harbinger of better times.

Inquisitional.

It is reported that persons making complaints to the Wood-Forbes mission concerning the conduct of the Phillipine government have been obliged to seek the protection of the commission from persecution on just trumped-up charges. This savors more of the old Spanish Inquisition than evidence of the Filipinos to govern themselves as the people of this age should be governed.

The Price.

Russia's present predicament is due almost entirely to the adoption of a governmental policy which disregards the right of property. Men will not work when they are denied the fruits of their labor.

After the Grafters.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is conducting a general clean-up of his bureau to get rid of the graft that was permitted to spread throughout its branches during the last administration. Every employee who is found to have used his knowledge of the tax files for his own private gain will be instantly separated from the service, and criminal actions instituted wherever the circumstances warrant. "We propose to clean up this situation," declared Commissioner Blair," and clear out of the Government service every individual found to have used his time and opportunity in government employ to help others rob the government of tax obligations."

How Britain Disarms.

Great Britain has no hesitancy in starting out on a naval building program of four new battle cruisers of the largest type. They will cost at least $150,000,000 before they are finished. Meantime the British owe us something like four and a half billion dollars, with no immediate prospect of payment.

A Billion Slash.

Although the Republican platform made no promise of immediate tax reduction, it seems altogether probable that substantial cuts in the tax burden will be made in the forthcoming internal revenue bill. Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee say that the estimates of Secretary Mellon of $4,600,000,000 for running the Government in the next fiscal year must be cut at least a billion. Whether that object will be attained or not, it is fairly certain that sufficient economies in administration will be made to curtail greatly the need for revenue.

Lasker Thrice Armed.

The determination of Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board that American shipping shall have its fair share of world cargoes is refreshing to Americans. Mr. Lasker has some very effective retaliatory weapons in the provisions of the Jones Shipping act, and if foreign ship owners do not play fair he will not hesitate to use them.

Not a Chance.

Railroad labor chiefs have formally requested the rail executives to restore the wage schedules in effect on June 30th, in other words, they are asking for an increase in wages of 12 per cent while wages in all other lines of industry are going on down. Consideration for the public or for fellow workers in other trades is foreign to members of the brotherhoods, whose sole concern is for their own immediate gain.

Can't Keep Cape May

As part of the general program of economy, Secretary of Navy Denby has ordered the abandonment of the air station at Cape May, New Jersey, after August 1st. The station is one of the largest on the Atlantic Coast, and its closing will mean a substantial saving in the cost of running the Navy Department.

Carriers Essential.

The lessons to be gained from the bombing tests off the Virginia Capes are constructive rather than destructive. The battleship is far from being doomed, but airplane carriers must be built and added to the fleet as permanent units.

A Pretty Compliment.

Miss Alice Robertson, Congresswoman from Oklahoma, is the recipient of a most gracious note and a magnificent bouquet of American Beauty roses from the Ambassador of Peru. It so happened that Miss Alice was presiding over the House temporarily when a measure was passed recently authorizing the President to appoint a special mission to represent the United States at the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the independence of Peru. "As the representative of the Peruvian Government, and nation in this Capital." wrote Ambassador Pezet to Miss Alice, "I wish to express to you on this day my gratification in that the first event of a lady presiding over one of the branches of the Legislature should have coincided with taking of a vote in reference to a participation in my country's celebration." On request of Congressman Mondell, Republican leader of the House, the Ambassador's letter was read and received with applause.

Agreement on Soldier Relief.

Conferees on the bill introduced by Congressman Burton E. Sweet of Iowa providing for the consolidation of all bureaus having to do with soldier relief have reached a complete agreement, and it is anticipated that the bill will soon receive the President's signature and become law. The Senate provision making the new Veteran's Bureau directly responsible to the President and independent of the executive departments, is retained. The Fedral Board for Vocational Education will not be entirely abolished as proposed by the Senate, but its activities will be confined to cooperation with the States in vocational education. The construction of all hospitals for the Veteran's Bureau will be under control of the Treasury Department.

Major Fitz Will Report.

Representative Roy G. Fitzgerald of Ohio is a major in the officer's reserve corps. He has just received an order from the commanding general of his corps area to report for duty with the citizen's training camp at Camp Knox, Kentucky. He will serve with the troops until August 21. Congressman Fitzgerald was a captain of infantry in the American Expeditionary Forces during the world war.

The Children's Friend.

Congressman Benjamin K. Focht of Pennslyvania, Chairman of the House Committee on the District of Columbia, is the author of a bill authorizing the Commissioners of the District to seize unimproved lots in the city of Washington and utilize them as children's playgrounds until such time as the owner may wish to build upon them. Mr. Focht is receiving many congratulatory letters concerning the legislation he has proposed. The measure is before the District Committee and will be given thorough consideration.

Bull's Eye Maker.

The Bullitt appointed by President Harding to represent the U. S. Shipping Board and the Emergency Fleet Corporation in claims pending against the government shipping agency is not the same Bullitt who was at one time an intimate of President Wilson and a man of super-radical tendencies. The Shipping Board Bullitt is a man of higher calibeer and more certain trajectory.

B. Y. P. U. THOUGHTS

The old time way when mother "tied her boy or her girl to her apron string" seems to have lost its vogue. However, it is yet apparent that there are a great multitude of mothers who are profoundly interested in the welfare of their children. Even though there be no persistency to keep the youths at home continously, not letting them get even a fresh whiff of God's free air, so to speak, still there is an intense anxiety on the part of many mothers, fathers as well, to know where the children are when they are not at home. That parental spirit still sings "O, were is my boy to-night?" Yes, it behooveees the parents to kep track of their own. May we ask, "Where do the youths spend their Sunday afternoons and their Sunday evenings?" Are they under the influence of some Christion organization? Or, are they "in the middle of the road" somewhere, probably in the throes of unwholesome company? This is indeed a pertinent question. They should by all means be under Godly atmospheric pressure. Surely it is appalling to see so many in a vacuum—where nothing but worldly things are extant. If a person is twelve years old or up, that person should be in the training services of his or her own church. The exercises of the training branches increase spiritually, train for service, edify in siriptural knowledge, instruct in Biblical history and teachings, and enlist in missionary endeavor. These facts should grasp and hold securely the attention of parents. Organizations of these pure types should have a magnificent consistency. The young people should be trained for Christian service and not used by the Devil.

STATE SACRED HARP SINGING SOCIETY TO CONVENE B'HAM

The B. F. White Sacred Harp Singing Society of Alabama announces its annual session which will convene in the city of Birmingham the 26th, 27th and 28th, being the fourth Sunday, Friday and Saturday before, in this month. Friday's session will be held at the court house, while Saturday's and Sunday's sessions will be at the Fraternal Hall, one block east of the court house.

All singers and lovers of song are cordially invited to attend and enjoy these three days spiritual feast of sacred song.

Visitors will be accommodated with a nice home at which to stay during their visit to the convention.

COTTON COMING IN

The first bale of this season's cotton was ginned last Saturday by Mullins & Popwell. It was brought in by Mr. Fred Johnson and bought by Mullins & Moore at 12 1-2 cents. Another bale was brought in Tuesday by Hugh Headley and was ginned by J. A. Maddox. The ofefring Tuesday was 12 cents a pound.

LIBERTY HILL

The singing society met at this place Sunday afternoon, Aug. 21st. The crowd was small. Directors for the afternoon were, Glover Smith, J. W. Lowery, Blanco Durbin, W. J. Mims, Lillie and Claudie Smith. A male quartette was sung by Willie Riggins, J. W. Lowery, Glover Smith and L. V. Riggins. Organists were Blanco Riggins, Lillie Smith, and Bonnie Littlejohn. We are glad to have visitors any time.

President Harding Thoroughly Enjoys "Roughing It" in Mountains With Edison-Ford-Firestone Camping Party

Upper left: Henry Ford, chopping wood. Upper right: President Harding and H. S. Firestone discuss the morning news; Thomas A. Edison in the foreground resting. Center: President Harding accepting a bouquet of flowers from an aged woman residing near the camp. Lower: President Harding, on his arrival, greets his fellow campers.

THERE are those who may claim the above picture refutes the popular belief that Thomas A. Edison, the world's foremost inventor, sleeps only four hours a day. But Mr. Edison is only resting, while his companions, President Harding and H. S. Firestone, the tire manufacturer, discuss the morning news.

It was a genuine "back to nature" trip for the campers, who sought to shun as much as possible the spotlight of publicity which continuously plays upon each of them. The president was obliged to return after a brief outing because of the press of official business, but Mr. Edison, Mr. Firestone and Mr. Ford continued into the heart of the hills.

While in camp, the president and other members of the party made their own bunks, assisted in the camp chores, went fishing and followed the usual routine of the tincan tourist.

One of their favorite recreations was horseback riding, Mr. Firestone bringing six thoroughbred horses from his Ohio farm for the accommodation of his friends. It was astride one of these spirited animals that the president took his first ride in years. He expressed his enjoyment of the experience, and his physician has suggested that he continue the practice for his health.

JUDGE REYNOLDS TO SPEAK AT SARDIS NEXT SUNDAY P. M.

Judge L. H. Reynolds will speak at Sardis Church on next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. His subject is to be "The Home of Today as Compared With the Home of Twenty-five Years Ago." He delivered this same lecture at Pilgrim's Rest a few Sundays ago, and everybody who heard it were highly pleased. We predict a great crowd to hear him at Sardis on next Sunday.

KILGORE AND GILES RELEASED ON BOND.

The preliminary trials of George Kilgore and Oscar Giles, charged with grand larceny, for the alleged theft of Dr. Gowan's automobile, were called for hearing by Judge L. H. Reynolds in the County Court on last Saturday. Quite a long list of witnesses had been sumoned for both the state and the defense, and after hearing the testimony, the Court bound the two defendants to appear before the grand jury, and fixed their bonds at $1,000 each.

ODIS PRICE GIVEN BOND

Odis Price, charged with murder, for the alleged killing of Sam Dawson, was given preliminary hearing before Judge Reynolds in the County Court last Saturday. The defendant was given bond in the sum of $2000 to await the action of the grand jury. The bond was promptly made and Price was released.

PLEAD GUILTY TO CHARGE

In the County Court August 22, Ludy Moore, Hiram Gillespie, colored, and William Fitter, white, plead guilty to a charge of train riding and were fined $20.00 each. Upon failure to pay fine the defendants were each sentenced to hard labor for the payment of same.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks to the people of Clanton and Gorgas for their kindness during the recent sickness and death of our mother and grand mother, Mrs. Amanda Giles. May God's blessings rest upon you all is our prayer.

WILLIAM CULP HURT

William Culp was hurt last Saturday by a log crushing one of his legs. The accident happened down about Coopers. He was brought to Clanton for hospital treatment, but could not be taken care of because of the fact that we have not got our hospital built yet. Dr. Gragg fixed up his wound and sent him back home. This was just one more of the many instances that turn up every day showing us how bad Clanton needs a hospital.

$15,000 STOCK ALREADY SOLD TO BUILD A HOSPITAL HERE

Amount of Capital Stock Will be Extended to $20,000 in Order to Give People Outside of Clanton a Chance to Buy Stock.

We are glad to be able to say to the people of Chilton County this week that the proposed hospital to be established in Clanton is already an assured success. The committees for the sale of stock have been working for the past week and the readiness with which the people have bought the stock is indeed most gratifying.

Up to the time we go to press there has been a total of $15,000 stock purchased, and the committees have not yet seen anything like all the people in their territory. It is practically certain now that the hospital will be organized with a capital sock of $20,000.00.

Originally it had been planed to sell ten thousand dollars of stock in Clanton and five thousand dollars in the surrounding comunity and other towns of the county; but owing to the ready response of the citizens of Clanton in purchasing all of the proposed amount of fifteen thousand dollars of stock, it is now determined to extend the total amount of capital stock to twenty thousand dollars in order to give the people outside of Clanton a chance to buy stock in this institution in which all are so vitally interested.

Just as soon as the stock subscription list is completed the temporary organization, including those who are to be stock holders, will be called together in a meeting at which time the permanent organization will be perfected. A Board of Directors will be elected from the stockholders, the matter of securing a charter will be started, and other steps necessary to the beginning of the building will be taken.

CAMPBELL SHOT ACCIDENTALLY

Andrew Campbell of the northern part of the county got shot again last Saturday, but this time he shot himself by accident while he was cleaning up his pistol. The bullet entered the lower part of his leg. He was brought to Clanton for hospital treatment, but could not be accommodated. Dr. Gragg dressed his wound and sent him back home. We need a hospital in Clanton and are going to have it.

CLANTON OVER THE TOP

Clanton has run away with the hospital subscription list by buying every bit of the fifteen thousand dollars of stock which it was originally proposed to sell in Clanton and the surrounding country and other towns all combined.

But we are determined that Clanton shall not have all of it. There are people in other parts of the County who want to buy some of that stock and have a part in the hospital which is to serve all the county as well as Clanton.

It has been decided by the Committee in charge of the movement that the amount of capital stock be extended to twenty thousand dollars, instead of stopping at fifteen, just in order to give the people outside of Clanon a chance to get in on it. But listen now. Twenty thousand dollars is the limit, and it will be all taken up by next Saturday night. If anybody in Chilton County wants to buy any stock you may do so by sending in your application before the entire amount is sold. Just drop the editor of The Union-Banner a card and say how much you want—any amount from one hundred dollars to one thousand dollars, and we will put your name on the list. Remember you can pay it all cash when stock is issued; or one-third when stock is issued, one third about Oct. 15, 1921, and the balance Oct. 15, 1922, with interest.

If you want any of this stock you will have to send in your application before Saturday night or else the other fellow will have bought your part. Get busy now and act. Don't wait till it is too late nad then say that Clanton acted a hog and took it all away from the rest of the county. Clanton don't want to take it all. We want the people outside of Clanton all over the county to come in with us. But the hospital must be built and that at once. We are losing too much good money by not having it. And if the other people won't buy the stock Clanton will do it.

The time for monkey business on the hospital question is past. It is a plain case of take it now or the other fellow will.

BALL GAMES HERE SATURDAY

Clanton will play the fast Siluria team here next Saturday two games, 10 o'clock and 1 30. The Siluria team is one of the fastest outfits that has been here this season and the game is sure to be an interesting one. Everybody is expected to be at these games and help root for the Clanton boys.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL IN CHILTON COUNTY.

One of the most interesting features of the Birmigham Semi-Centennial Celebration in October, outside of the visit of President Harding to our magic city, is the proposal that every county in Alabama select the most beautiful, the most attractive, gracious and womanly girl in its borders as "queen" for that county, and send her to Birmingham to represent her county in the celebration.

From the sixty seven girls thus selected and sent to Birmingham, the queen of queens will be chosen at a Beauty Show, and the one thus honored will be given a $300 wardrobe of winter wearing apparel by the merchants of the city.

This proposal is calculated to create an interesting campaign in every county in the state for the selection of the most beautiful girl in each of the counties. It has been suggested by the Birmingham committee that the county newspapers in each county conduct the campaign. We do not know yet what plan will be adopted but we will say that The Union-Banner believes that Chilton county can and will furnish the queen of queens as her representative in that great occasion. We shall be glad to help in any way possible to select the most beautiful girl in Chilton county, and send her to Birmingham as our representative to greet President Harding. As soon as definite plans for the selection campaign and be gotten together, we shall make all necessary detailed anouncement to the public.

SIXTY-SEVEN MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRLS IN ALABAMA TO CONTEST

The proposal that every county in Alabama select the most beautiful, the most attractive, gracious and womanly girl in its borders as "queen" for that county, and send her to Birmingham to the Semi-Centennial in October, seems to have awakened a good deal of enthusiasm, and a number of counties have already started contests to find the consensus of opinion as to the most attractive girl. From the sixty-seven the people who visit the "Style Show" will select the "Queen of Alabama" the most beautiful and attractive girl in the State, by ballots. It will be a mighty interesting occasion.

If there is any larger or more general crop that Alabama raises than one-gallus politicians it is pretty girls. They are to be found everywhere, from the Tennessee line down to Fort Morgan; from the Tombigbee to the Chattahoocheee. The State is famous for 'em. People have come from the far corners of the earth to try to persuade our girls to accept their names, hearts and pocketbooks.

And so, when we get down to it and get the very prettiest, sweetest and most attractive girl in each county, and then bring all sixty-seven of them here to Birmingham, where they will be royally entertained by sixty-seven of our finest families, it is going to be an event worth coming miles to see. And those little queens are going to be given the time of their lives—a ball at the Country Club, another at the Southern Club and another at the Roebuck Club, and the young men of the Junior Chamber of Commerce have put in a bid to look after the queens and see they have escorts and all the attention that any queen could possibly wish for. As our most representative young men are in that organization, that is guarantee in itself no county queen will find time hanging heavy on her hands.

The sixty-seven prettiest girls in Alabama, already famous for pretty girls—will it not be an occasion notable in the annals of Alabama.—The Birmingham News.

KICKS ON DIPPING DRAW BALL'S IRE

Powerless to Enforce Law, He Threatens No More Appropriations.

Jefferson County has appropriated its last cent for the eradication of cattle ticks, if the whole Board of Revenue has to go to jail for failure to do so, if the views of D. C. Ball, president of the county's governing body, proved he told a delegation of 96 members of the Cahaba Valley Cattlemen's Association, which appeared before the board Friday to protest against the manner in which the law is being enforced.

According to A. Meyers, secretary of the organization, who headed the delegation and acted as spokesman, they have obeyed the dipping law to the best of their ability, but are being "reviled to death by those in charge of the enforcement of the law," and unless relief is granted" will be driven out of the cattle business."

Meyers said the territory represented by the delegation covered a 15-mile area. The dipping vats are in bad condition, he said, and the men in charge of the enforcement of the law are not observing any proper rules and regulations. "We have been dipping for six years," he said, and according to the inspectors we are the most law-abiding community in the county in regard to dipping, but they won't let us get relief. We are right on the line and we'll never get out from under the law until the bordering counties have been freed. We believe in dipping, but we think these men should be made to observe some regulations about it and have proper vats and facilities.

"You haven't been fussing about this law any more than we have," Mr. Ball told the delegation. "We have no jurisdiction over the enforcement of the law. All we can do is to make the appropriation. The old Board of Revenue nearly went to jail for refusal to make the appropriation, but later made it when advised by the solicitor that it was a compulsory matter. We want to get rid of this business as you do, but under the law we are helpless to aid you. Personally, I have voted my last time for an appropriation if we all go to jail for it."

He then cited the delegation to Section 12 of the 1919 laws which provides that if a county court of commissioners or a county board of revenue shall fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of Sections 2, 4 and 9 of this act, each member thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction, each member shall be fined not less than $100 and not more than $1,000."

The delegation was told that the power of a board to refuse to make the appropriation on the grounds that no funds are available for that purpose is now in the supreme court on mandamus proceedings against the court of county commisisoners of Shelby County, which had declined to make the appropriation on that ground and that settlement of the question depends on the outcome of that case. The Jefferson County Board of Revenue several months ago made an appropriation of $70,000 to cover tick eradication work in the county during 1921.—B'ham News.

HOSPITAL MEETING

Those who have bought stock in the proposed hospital in Clanton are hereby called to meet at the Court house on next Tuesday night, August 30th, for the purpose of perfecting the permanent organization and starting the movement toward the erection of the building and getting the hospital into operation. A Board of Directors is to be elected from among the stockholders, and other important matters must be definitely settled. This is important, and every man who has subscribed for stock must be present. Come out and let's start right, and we shall have easy sailing all along and get full return from the money we are to put into it.

CHILTON COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The county convention of this Association will be held at Messer's Chapel, close to Verbena, next Thursday and Friday, September 1st and 2nd. The convention will begin at 10 a.m. on Thursrday. A very interesting program has been arranged. Mr. J. B. Green and Miss Ethel Bean, two of the State speakers, and several of the county speakers will take part. Dinner will be served on the ground.

All Sunday Schools are invited to attend and those cooperating with the association work are urged to appoint their delegates next Sunday morning. All superintendents and all district workers are urged to be present.

P. G. CARTER,
Chairman Executive Committee.

Arthur Beaird of Verbena is in Clanton this week at Circuit Court.

CATTLE DIPPING QUESTION

We call attention of the people of the county to the notice of Judge Reynolds in this week's paper in regard to cattle dipping. The Commissioners Court will hold a public meeting on next Monday, August 29 to discuss the proposition, at which meeting Dr. Cary, State Veterinarian, will be present. It is the hope of the Court that every citizen in the county who is interested in the proposition be pesent at this meeting.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

Dr. C. A. Cary, State Veterinarian, will meet with the Commissioners Court Monday, August 29th, 1921, at 10 o'clock, a.m., to discuss and arrange to complete Tick Eradication in Chilton County.

The Commissioners Court earnestly urges every citizen in Chilton County who is interested in dipping cattle to meet with the Court.

Judge of Probate.

CLANTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

The Clanton Grammar School will open September 5, 1921, at 9:30. All parents are urged to come and bring their children. The faculty will be about the same as last year with the exception that Miss Eula Mae Vines will have the second grade instead of Miss Irene Jones, who decided to attend college next year at Montevallo. Up to the present time it is not known whether Mrs. Collier will be with us next year or not.

The incidental fee will be two dollars for the nine months. This money will be used exclusively for buying coal, repairing the building, fixing the lavatories, paying up the deficit the school now owes. Fee tickets may be purchased from Mr. J. Hance Allred at the Allred Drug Co.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Womans Miss. Union Meets.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Womans Misisonary Society of the Baptist Church, was held at the home of Mrs. Hosea Downs on Monday evening. An elaborate display of ferns palms and cut flowers made a pretty setting for the members present.

After a brief business session a refreshing ice course was served to about 20 members.

Rook Party Given.

On last Tuesday morning the younger set enjoyed one of the season's most delightful affairs, when Miss Mary Upchurch paid a special courtesy to Misses Louise and Ruth Holly. The occasion being a rook luncheon. Upon the arrival the guests were served delicious punch from an attractive table by Misses Mary Elizabeth Powe and Mary Ellis. Tables were arranged on the porch and living room, which were prettily decorated with a profusion of cut flowers and pot plants. At the conclusion of the game a lovely plate luncheon was served to the honorees, Misses Roberta Curry, Leona Pipes, Kathleen Mullins, Marzelle Mullins, Lessie Reynolds, Madeline Orr, Margarite Hill, Anice Kemp, Irene Jones, Allie Crumpton and Fulton.

Miss Annie Arant, who has been visiting friends in Verbena, has returned home.

Tuesday Club Meets.

A pleasant meeting of the Tuesday Card Club was held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Arthur Johnson, as hostess. Tables were arranged in the living room and dining room, which were prettily decorated with a profusion ofzenias and asters. The score cards were artistic little baskets filled with divinity candy. The prizes were cards and a dainty handkerchief, and were won by Mrs. Guy Higgins and Mrs. Alex Richards. After the game a pretty salad plate with tea wes served. Besides the club members Mrs. Alex Richards, Miss Lurline Harper and Mrs. W. K. Mullins were present.

Mrs. Hugh Jones Entertains.

Mrs. Hugh Jones was hostess on last Friday evening to a few of her friends at a bridge party in honor of Mrs. Kyle and Mrs. W. K. Mullins. Tables were arranged on the porch which was lovely with a profusion of summer flowers and ferns.

The score prize was captured by Mrs. Fuqua. A lovely salad plate with fruit nectar, was served late in the evening.

Eastern Star Notice.

Beauchamp Chapter No. 271 of the Eastern Star will hold their regular meeting Thursday night, Aug. 25th, at which time the grand matron, Mrs. Etta B. Smith of Ensley will be present. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. N. S. Johnson Hostess.

Mrs. N. S. Johnson was a charming hostess on last Wednesday evening when her guests were the members of the Wednesday Card Club, and other friends. Brown-eyed Susans and ferns formed a pretty decorative scheme. Green and yellow were used in the details of the party.

A deck of cards and lingerie clasps were the prizes offered for top score and guest prize, and were won by Mrs. Luckie and Mrs. Kyle. A delicious ice course was served to Mesdames Kyle, Luckie, McSwain, Macy Jones, Watts Moore, W. K. Mullins, Sam Johnson, Arthur Johnson, Victor Heard, Guy Roberts, Grady Reynolds, Misses Leona Pipes and Lurline Harper.

The Study Club will meet with Mrs. J. P. Hayes on Friday, Sept. 2, instead of Mrs. Horn's. Members will please note change of Hostess.

Messrs William and Moses Simpson left Tuesday for a weeks visit to relatives in Montgomery.

After spending a week in Birmingham with relatives Misses Ruby Armstrong and Lurline Minor have returned home.

Mrs. Kyle has returned to her home in Decatur, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Victor Heard during the past week.

Miss Julia Mae Parrish left Sunday for her home in Montgomery, after visiting relatives in Clanton last week.

Mr. Bob Gilbert will arrive Thursday, and be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Curlee.

Miss Marion Reed of Tuscaloosa is the guest of Miss Gladys Henley this week.

Mr. Udah Curlee spent several days in Birmingham last week.

Miss Kathleen Mullins has returned home from a two weeks stay in Brewton, Ala.

Miss Leona Pipes has as her guests Misses Louise and Ruth Holey of Marion.

Pretty Birthday Party Given.

One of the prettiest parties of the season was given Monday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock by Mrs. Joe VanDerveer in honor of her little granddaughter from Birmingham, Miss Evelyn Powe, in celebration of her eighth birthday.

On arrival the little guests were given parafin, and a lively contest arose as to which could mold his into the best shaped turtle. Master Arthur Johnson captured the prize, a turtle. They were then invited to the fish pond, where a lovely fairy saw that each child was a successful fisherman, filling each hook with attractive favors. After several out door games, beautiful pink and green paper caps were presented the guests. They each donned their cop, then were invited into the dining room, which was a dream of loveliness. From the candelabra pink crepe paper festooned with asparagus fern reached to the table on the center of which was a beautifully embossed birthday cake bearing four pink and fourgreen candles. The cake was surrounded by dear little pink baskets filled with green candy; these werel ater presented as favors. Here they were served tempting refreshments. Then they were grouped on the lawn and Mrs. Richards kodaked this lovely assembly of belles and beaux of the future, a grand finale to a most enjoyable afternoon.

Those who assisted the hostess in entertaining were: Mrs. Powe from Birmingham, Mrs. Richards from Jackson, Miss., Mrs. John VanDerveer Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Hart, and Mrs. Pearson.

Miss Curry Hostess.

One of the loveliest of the season's social functions was given on Monday night when Miss Roberta Curry entertained a coterie of friends at an elaborate birthday luncheon. The apartments were lavishly decorated, conveying a color scheme of green and gold throughout, marigolds and asparagus ferns being used extensively. The dining room was a scene of loveliness, the chandalier being showered with marigolds and ferns and tied with green tulle. At each end of the table burned green tapers in crystal candle sticks and tied with yellow tulle. The centerpiece was a bowl of yellow cut flowers and ferns. The place cards being hand painted cards with "20" inscribed and were tied with green ribbons to dainty dolls attired in yellow crepe dresses with yellow hats. These were the favors of the occasion. A four course dinner was served. The ice course further conveyed the color scheme, the cakes were embossed in green inscribed in gold "20" on each. Salted almonds were also served.

Later in the evening a musical program was enjoyed. Participating in this lovely affair were Misses Kathleen Mullins, Leona Pipes, Madaline Orr, Maud Mullins and Louise Holley, Messrs Omar Reynolds, Mims, Morgan, Lykes, Spigner, Bill Lanier and John Deramus.

Rev. J. H. Williams of Luverne spent Saturday in Clanton with Rev. D. M. Pearson.

Rev. C. P. Roberts of Verbena and Rev. J .H. Williams of Luverne were pleasant visitors to Clanton Monday.

Dr. Will Alex Gowan of Kosciusko, Miss., is visiting his parents and sister here.

After a delightful stay of a couple of weeks at Sumpterville, Miss Beverly Hester and Miss Margaret Hester returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Robert Powe returned home Tuesday afternoon, after a brief visit to her parents here.

Miss Roberta Curry has as her guest Mrs. Nelson of Collinsville.

Master Joe Luckie will return home Thursday from Pine Apple, where he has spent the summer.

Dr. Arthur Johnson spent several days in Birmingham this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Foshee have as their guest Mrs. Hill and daughter, from Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Atkinson has as their guest for the week end Mrs. Hammett and daughter, Miss Myrtle from Birmingham.

MERCHANT TELLS OF A REMARKABLE CASE

Writing from Maxeys, Ga., A. J. Gillen, proprietor of a large department store at that place, says:

"I have a customer here who was in bed for three years and did not go to meal at any time. She had five physicians and they gave her out. One bottle of Tanlac got her up, on the second bottle she comemnced keeping house and on the third she did all the cooking and housework for a family of eight."

This sounds really incredible, but it comes unsolicited from a highly creditable source and is copied verbatim from the letter.

Tanlac is sold in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

BURGLARS ENTERED STORE ON LAST MONDAY NIGHT

Burglars accomplished a wholesale drag in Clanton on Monday night, when they entered the store of G. C. Armstrong and carried away something like $200.00 worth of goods. The entry was made through the front door by breaking out a large glass. Mr. Armstrong gave The Union-Banner the following list of things missing:

Fourteen pairs of high grade shoes, six dozen pairs of silk hose, two bolts of sheeting, five mens shirts, one dozen overall jackets, one dozen pair of overalls, two suit cases, six buckets of coffee, two cartons of smoking tobacco, and a whole raft of ties, handkerchiefs, etc.

Night Marshal Branch discovered that the store had been broken into about 2:30 Tuesday morning and notified Mr. Armstrong. It was found that the burglar had cut himself on the glasss as he entered the store and blood was dropped all over the floor. The blood was followd on the side walk around the block to the post office, but no further trace could be found as to where the parties went or what direction they took in leaving town.

TAKE NOTICE.

Persons selling lumber to Chilton County must itemize all bills by stating the kind of lumber, whether it is oak or pine, heart or sap; the dimensions of each piece; by whom the lumber was bought; what bridge the lumber was used on; what public road the bridge is on; and by whom the lumber was received. All orders must be given by a member of the Commissioners Court. Unless the above is complied with bills for lumber will not be passed by the Commissioners Court.

FRIENDSHIP CHURCH

The singing school of Prof. W. M. Devaughn closed with a concert last Saturday night. As shown by the well rendered rogram, the school was a success in every way. A small admission was charged, and some over $17 was realized. $10 of this amount went to pay Osce Devaughn for helping teach the school, and the other went into the treasury of the church.

Sunday school was held Sunday a.m. and the B. Y. P. U. met in the evening. Both services were well attended and much interest was shown.

Next Sunday is regular preaching day. Rev. W. P. Lowery of Thorsby will be on hand to preach. Don't forget to come. Sunday School will be at 10:00 o'clock; preaching at 11. The Singing Society meets in the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7:00 Sunday night, and preaching will begin at 8:00.

Visitors are always welcome.

HE IS LOOKING 'EM OVER AGAIN

"Eight years of stomach and liver trouble reduced me to a walking skeleton. My skin was dried up and as yellow as a twenty-dollar gold piece. I was filled with gas and had severe pains in my right side. I could not think and had lost all ambition to do anything. Doctor's medicine did not touch me. My cousin advised Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, hich snatched me from the grave. I have gained sixty pounds, eat like a hired man and am looking 'em over again." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allayst he inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendic'tis. One dose wil convince or money refunded. Sold in Clanton by Alred Drug Co., and by all drugists.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Two good congregations were present last Sunday, considering the excessive warm weather. The subject at the morning service was directed principally to the men of the two churches represented which was The Kingdom of God a Man's job. The appeal for a stronger and more united leadership on the part of the men of the community in the work of the churches was listened to with splendid attention and was well received. The fact that in both of the Sunday Schools of the Methodist and Baptist Church there were no male teachers, and at the prayer meetings the men were usually conspicuous by their absence, whereas the ladies were usually present and seemed to do the most of the real work of the church was also forcibly alluded to by the speaker. The regular presence of the men of both churches at the services of the church and their loyalty and cooperation in the work of the church, said the speaker, would make Clanton a vastly different place religiously than it is. The sermon at night was on "The Practical Application of Christianity to Life, and in the Christian's Amusements, to the Home life, and the Marriage relationships, and was listened to with great interest and fine attention.

A great problem confronting the church at present is the furnishing of the new building when it is completed, which will be in about sixty days. No provision has yet been made for seating the church, and it will cost us approximately $3,000. A letter will be sent out this week to almost every member of the church explaining the proposed method to raise this money, which must be raised in the next ninety days. Many of the members have given sacrificially and liberally to the building, but if we are to raise the required amount it will be necessary for some more to be contributed for this purpose. We feel sure also that a great many of the members who have not given anything on the building, both adults and young people, will be willing to contribute towards the cost of the pews. There are also a large number of citizens who have not contributed to the building who ought to have some part, inasmuch as the building will be at the service of the entire public, and all who desire may reap its benefits. The building stands as a beautiful edifice to the city of Clanton, and means much to the community, not only as a religious institution, but as a commercial asset as a recommendation to prospective settlers. An opportunity therefore will be given to everybody who will to contribute something towards the proper equipment of the building.

Services will be held next Sunday as usual, morning at 11 and evening at 8. Everybody welcome to all of our services.—P. G. Carter, Pastor.

AN AMAZING SECRET ABOUT TOOTH PASTES AT LAST FOUND

A recent scientific investigation reveals the surprising fact that many tooth pastes and powders, instead of helping the gums and teeth, often do them serious harm.

This is because the abrasive substances contained in tooth pastes gradually wear tiny crevices in the teeth, where decay germs quickly enter. This gritty substance also tears the membranes of the gums where germs of pyorrhea and other dangearous mouth diseases quickly gain foothold.

The ideal dentifrice it is found, is a thoroughly antiseptic liquid mouth wash such as steroline. This cleanses all the hidden spots that tooth pastes and powders never reach, and acts as a real preventive of the many diseases contracted through the mouth. Steroline keeps the mouth cool, sweet and fresh, heals raw and bleeding gums and quickly helps to overcome bad breath. Upchurch Drug Co.

Labor Schedule Covering Work on Ford Cars

We, the undersigned dealers, who have been operating our shops at a loss for the past few months, have gotten together and agreed on the charges for labor on Fords and other cars. These prices have been determined by careful thought and comparison with charges made by other garages throughout this section of the state, and are what we consider a minimum for good conscientious work.

We wish to thank our friends and customers for their patronage in the past, and to assure them that we are taking this step only to make a living wage for ourselves and to assure you of continued good service.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

Miss Agnes Leary and her brother, Earl, who have been visiting in Mobile for the past two weeks, returned home Monday morning.

Mr. C. E. Bice of Birmingham was a visitor in our town the first part of the week.

Mr. George Jasperson of Birmingham was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Thompson last week.

Mr. A. E. Reagan and M. J. Soberg made a business trip to Birmingham Monday, in the interest of Thorsby Hardware Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Graham of Anniston spent the week end here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Graham.

Mrs. May Hastings Nottage, who has been away for the summer, returned Tuesday afternoon. She will be a member of the Institute faculty again this coming school year.

Mrs. E. W. Butler returned home last week, after spending several weeks in North Carolina with Miss Elizabeth Hoopes. She went there for the purpose of recuperating and her many friends will be glad to learn that she is greatly improved.

Mrs. P. W. Horn and son, Leroy, of Clanton, spent last Friday here, with Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Horn.

On last Thursday night Martin Nelson entertained a number of young people at his home. Cards and music were enjoyed along with a pleasant social time, and late in the evening delightful refreshments were served to about 20 guests.

Miss Lorena Graham has as her guest this week her friend, Miss Myrick.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Conrad Carlson and Mrs. Sam Grenn gave a social, at the home of Mrs. Carlson, which was indeed a success. Coffee, lemonade, cake, sandwiches and cookies were served at the low rate of 10 cents, with donations, of course, thankfully received. Quite a large crowd attended and a neat little sum of $23.05 was realized, numbers of donations were received from those who were eager to help the young people in their efforts to pay for the piano, which they purchased a few months ago. These young people are proud of the fact that they have now made their last payment, and wish to thank all those who have so kindly helped them. Special thanks must be made to Mrs. Carlson and Mrs. Grenn for their social given and also to the Ladies Aid Society for what they have done.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Thompson entertained at cards Saturday night in compliment to their guest, Mr. George Jasperson of Birmingham.

The revival services which are being conducted at the Baptist Church this week, by Rev. Earnest of Maplesville, are proving quite a success. The little church is packed to its fullest capacity every night and lots of people are being turned away on account of lack of room in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Foss are being showered with congratulations upon the arrival of a baby boy, whom they have named Carl Ruben, Jr.

The next meeting of the Ladies Guild will be held Thursday, the 25th at the home of Mrs. O. L. Jackson. This meeting should have been at Mrs. Horn's, but on account of her illness, Mrs. Jackson has kindly offered to entertain the ladies at her home.

LIBERTY HILL

Health here is good except a few cases of fever, all of which are improving rapidly.

Our revival meeting at this place closed last Saturday. We had the best meeting the writer ever attended here. The revival was to have begun the second Sunday in July, but on account of the illness of our pastor, Rev. Ben Hughes, it was put off until the second Sunday in August. We had Rev. J. S. Holland of Avondale with us. He did some very able and effective preaching. There were forty-five added to the church, 33 by baptism. The church was full at every service. We had good behavior all the time. There were about one thousand people to witness the baptizing last Saturday morning.

We were glad to have Bro. Holland with us and hope to have him again.. The church has called Rev. J. D. Hughes as pastor for the next year.

Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. met Sunday with good attendance. Ten new members were added to the B. Y. P. U. The singing society met Sunday afternoon and had a very good singing.

NEW SALEM

On last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Henry Walker delightfully entertained the members of the New Salem Social Club. The members present were Mrs. R. M. Smith, Mrs. J. L. Vines, Mrs. W. R. Pate, Mrs. Emma Maddox, Mrs. Robert Bean, Mrs. Connatser, Mrs. Maud Cox, Mrs. Lawrence Hayes, Mrs. Earnest Porter Mrs. Loyd Bean, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Gentry, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Evie Smith, Mrs. T. W. Childress, Mrs. Lowery, Mrs. Walker, Ivy Bean, Pauline Maddox, Delene Mims, Eula Mae Vines, Clara Vines and Lillian Pate.

After an enjoyable afternoon was spent, delicious refreshments were served. A good time was had by all and the hospitality of Mrs. Walker will long be remembered.

PROVIDENCE, BEAT 16

The protracted meeting at this place will begin on Saturday before the first Sunday in September, and run into the following week.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Hughes At Head.

President Harding has named Secretary Hughes as the head of the American delegation at the forthcoming armaments conference. In taking that course he adheres to the precedent followed by executives in the past, with the single exception of Mr. Wilson. Mr. Harding was careful to appoint a cabinet in whom he had implicit trust. They have all been working in complete harmony for the good of the country, and the President knows he can depend upon his Secretary of State to guard zealously the interests of the United States in the armaments discussions. President Wilson had the unfortunate habit of distrusting everybody around him, including the men whom he had selected as his offical advisers. When the emergency of the Versailles conference arose he undertook the personal direction of the American side of the case, with entire loss of his own prestige and serious damage to the influence of the United States as a world power. No such result will follow the armaments conference. The country may rest assured that it will emerge from those meetings in a stronger position than ever in the family of nations.

The Silver Lining.

Direct tax reductions are not to to be confined to the rich or to big business. The Ways and Means Committee has determined to increase the exemption of married men from $2,000 to $2,500 if they have an income of $5,000 or less, and to grant further exemptions of $400 for each dependent and minor child instead of $200 as at present. Those provisions will make direct cuts in the assessments of hundreds of thousands of taxpayers in their next returns, for the new exemptions will be retroactive to January 1, 1921. Furthermore, every consumer in the land will be indirectly benefited by the repeal of the excess profits taxes and the higher rates of surtaxes. Industry will resume, better labor conditions will follow, and lower prices will be enjoyed by al.

Wheat Freight Cut.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has granted the request of the rairoads for a reduction of freight rates on wheat shipments from Chicago to New York for export. The cut amounts to 7 1-2 cents per 100 lbs. It is probable that other reductions will be made on grain shipments from Mississippi River points and other cities farther west. The railroads recognized the insistence of the farmers that grain rates were too high, and they also noted an increased demand from abroad for American wheat. It is believed that with the new schedules commerce will be stimulated, the increased traffic on the roads will largely compensate for the loss of revenue due to the lower rates and the farmers will receive a substantially higher price for their grain.

An American Question.

The British government still insists that American coastwise ships should not be granted free passage through the Panama Canal. It is probable, however, that the Hay-Pauncefoote Treaty will be interpreted by the present administration according to the American understanding of its provisions, particularly as the British meaning attached to its language has always been a highly strained one. Senator Borah's bill for the restoration of tolls exemption for American coastwise ships is in the Senate Calendar ready for consideration, and it is not likely to be side tracked merely because some other country would wish to see it defeated.

The Pledge

A staff correspondent of the New York Times, Democratic, writes to that paper from Washington that members of the Ways and Means Commitee "want to keep the Republican platform pledge to reduce taxes." Now why can't the Times be honest? Here is the exact language of the Republican platform pledge on the subject of reduction of taxes:

> "In presenting a true statement of the situation, we must face the fact that while the character of the taxes can and should be changed, an early reduction of the amount of revenue to be raised is not to be expected."

The Republican platform emphassized the fact that the Republican administration would inherit an enormous indebtedness from the Wilson administration, and that this, with interest, must be paid, in addition to mantanng the various agencies of the government. Economy was promised and ultimate reduction of taxes was inferred, but it was specifically stated that immediate reduction could not be expected. This is the frst session of Congress since the Republicans came into power, and reduction now would be "immediate" reduction.

It would be interesting to know whether the Times is misrepresenting through ignorance or maliciousness.

Costs Less to go Abroad.

The "See America First" movement gets a severe jolt from the announcement in New York newspapers that a trip to Europe costs less than a trip to the Pacific Coast. Perhaps this difference in favor of seeing Europe first is due to the fact that the railroads are still almost entirely operated under the direction of the Interstate Commerce Comission, which regulates rates, and the railroad labor board which regulates working conditions. It would be interesting to see what would happen if the government would loosen its grip a little and let the roads compete for the tourist business.

Want a Ship?

Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board is quoted as saying that the $313,000,000 wooden ship fleet was as great a blunder as the aeroplane fiasco, and that as soon as possible the Shipping Board will sell the wooden ships, give them away or sink them. Since it appears not to be profitable to operate them, it is evidently the wisest business policy to get them off the government's hands as soon as practicable, for the cost of caretaking is large. If there is anyone who thinks he can make use of a small wooden ship, now is his opportunity to get one cheap.

The Unadorned.

The officers and men of the merchant marine who served in the Great War are asking to be awarded medals. They are entitled to them, if any one is, but when one considers the number of medals which were dished out by the Democratic Administration before it had a leather medal tied around its own neck, one is of the opinion that a fellow without a medal is more conspicious than one with, and in many instances the adorned rendered less useful service than did the unadorned.

LEGAL NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Probate Court, July 26, 1921.

This day came Mrs. Belle Smith, of the estate of J. L. Smith, deceased, and filed her petition in writing under oath in this court, for an order to sell certain lands belonging to said estate, described in said petition, for paying the debts due by said estate, upon the ground that the personal property of said estate is insufficient for the payment of the debts.

It is therefore ordered that the 29th day of August, 1921, be appointed a day for the hearing of said petition, when any person interested may appear and contest the said application if they think proper.

Firestone
Again Reduces Price
Extra Size 30x3½ $16.65
Now $13.95

Firestone first made the low price of $13.95 on the Standard Non-Skid, May 2. Unusual purchasing power through big volume of business, and the great efficiency of its $7,000,000 Plant No. 2, manufacturing exclusively 30x3½ size, made this possible.

Now, the production of the Extra-Size 30x3½ tire has been transferred to Plant No. 2. This permits the price reduction on this tire from $16.65 to $13.95. No such value has ever before been offered tire users. If your dealer hasn't the Extra-Size in stock ask for our Standard Non-Skid type at the same price. You will still be getting an unusual tire value.

CATTLE DIPPING QUESTION SETTLED

AGREEMENT REACHED AT THE MEETING HELD HERE ON LAST MONDAY.

The meeting of the people of the county at the court house Monday in regard to the cattle tick and dipping question resulted in a satisfactory settlement of the problem from the standpoint of the people and the government and the county commissioners.

Dr. Carey, the state veterinarian, was present at the meeting, as also were Judge Reynolds and the members of the Commissioners Court. A large crowd of farmers were also in attendance. The meeting was brout about by some misunderstanding of the tick eradication work in the county which had resulted in a lack of co-operation that was unsatisfactory to Dr. Carey, and the authorities had threatened to put the county back under quarantine if something were not done at once. When Dr. Carey heard the true situation explained at the meeting Monday an agreement was readily reached whereby the county will not be put back in quarantine.

An arrangement was made and agreed to between the commissioners court and Dr. Carey to take off all the Federal inspectors in the county. C. D. Foshee was employed to look after the situation in the south-west part of the county where there are some ticky cattle. The county authorities, the people and the Federal authorities will work in harmony now in an effort to clean up all the ticks in the county by Oct. 1st, and release all the cattle.

In discussing the meeting Monday Judge Reynolds said: "The meeting Monday was very satisfactory in every respect. I feel now that the matter has been cleared up so that a complete understanding exists between Dr. Carey, the Commissioners Court and the people. We expect to go ahead now and get the county cleared of all ticks without further trouble, and at less expense than under the former management. I was pleased to see the good nature of the people in the meeting Monday."

TWO COURTS TO MEET

Judge Reynolds informs us that a meeting of the Commissioners Courts of Chilton and Autauga Counties has been arranged to take place at the home of Charley Foshee on the County line on September 9. The purpose of the meeting will be to reach some plan of procedure satisfactory to both counties in dealing with the cattle tick and dipping question in an infected section that lies partly in Chilton and partly in Autauga.

The peopile of the southwest portion of Chilton County are urged to be at Mr. Foshee's place on Sept. 9th when the two courts meet there in joint session.

Altough disarmament is universally desired, there is little prospect definite action can be taken by the leading naval powers until an understanding is reached with respect to the rights and privileges of the United States as an associated power in the World War.—Peoria Transcript.

CLANTON TAKES TWO GAMES FROM SILURIA ON SATURDAY

The fast Siluria baseball team came down to Clanton on last Saturday and were administered two defeats at the hands of the Clanton boys. The first game resulted in a score of 9 to 1 in favor of Clanton, and was featured by the hitting of Connatser and Scott. Oates was pitching for Clanton. Siluria's hurler was knocked out in the seventh inning.

The second game was a close call and finished up with a high degree of interest. Siluria was one score ahead, having 4 to Clanton 3, when Clanton went up for her last half. With two out Roper went to the bat and passed two strikes On his third swing he hit to first. A wild throw passed him to second. The pitcher went wild trying to catch him off second, and Roper went home, tying the score, 4 to 4. From this point the game took on new life, as the errors of Siluria had enabled Clanton to pull a chance to win out of what looked like hopeless defeat.

Siluria went up in the first half of the tenth inning, and three went out without a score. Clanton did not score in the second half of tenth.

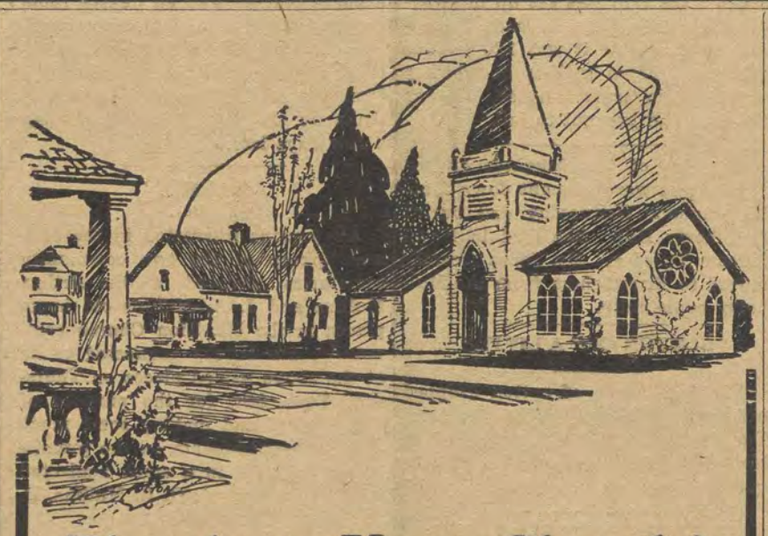
Siluria failed to get on in first half of eleventh.

George Wyatt went up for Clanton in second half of eleventh for a safe hit over second. Holt popped up behind and was caught out; Wyatt passed to second. Shaw sent a safe to deep left scoring Wyatt and thus winning the game for Clanton.

A BUSY MAN

These are streneous times for the President. His callers are numerous, and as a rule their business is urgent. He sees them all, hears them all, and considers what they lay before him.

Then he has Congress on his hands. It was inevitable that the warring factions should seek his advice. They have probably done so none too soon. Differences of opinion on Capital Hill are sharp just now and there is work in plenty for a referee.



Then he meets the members of his cabinet for consultation; and the affairs in their hands are always important.

His daily card, therefore, is crowded. Questions of all kinds, foreign and domestic, are submitted to him, and decisions are expected promptly.

Fortunately for Mr. Harding, his party, and the country, he is a strong man physically as well as otherwise, and is of a temperament that accommodates itself to the situation that exists. He has patience. He is not easily confused or rattled. He listens well. When he speaks it is to the point.

The pressure is steady. One day is like another in its appeals and anxieties. A President has no understudy. He must puzzle out problems for himself and tackle them as they come; and when, as at present they tread upon each other's heels, so fast they follow, he is the busiest man in the country.—Washington Star.

Rev. Job Reynolds of Jemison was a visitor to Clanton Monday. He expressed his pleasure at the prospects for a hospital to be established in Clanton, and stated that the advantages to the people would be worth a great deal.

The Auto Your Church?

"This is such a fine day, suppose we take the car and go to Othertown for a visit"—and the church for that Sunday is left to itself.

This is not your idea of supporting the best asset our community has. But many persons do put an auto ride ahead of church attendance

The Church Needs You

The pulpit and the press are the two great upbuilding forces in every community. You wouldn't care to live in any town where either was absent. Suppose everyone gave the church the support you do—in time and money. How long would it keep alive?

You have a definite responsibility to support some church. It is helping you whether you know it or not

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

We appreciated very much the large attendance of our Methodist friends on last Sunday night, who came to worship with us, as there was no services at their church. Owing to the small attendance of Baptist people our church would have been nearly empty had the Methodist people not been there. The song service for the occasion was much enjoyed by all, and the sermon on "Judas" was listened to with good attention by the congregation. We were pleased to welcome Miss Sarah Cox into our fellowship by letter.

We apreciate the help being extended to us by the general public in the furnishing of the church, but so far only one-sixth of the necessary amount has been subscribed, and a fairly general canvass has been made. Many of the members feel that they have about all they can for the building, and some have done nobly. It is evident however that it will be absolutely necessary to strain another point to make it possible to secure the requisite furniture for the opening day. It is also essential that we place the order imemdiately if we expect to enter the building as soon as completed. Inasmuch as it is a community benefit we will appreciate any assistance for this purpose that can be given us.

The services will be held as usual next Sunday with preaching by the pastor. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.—P. G. Carter, Pastor.

HUGHES THE MAN

The White House announcement on Saturday that President Harding had informed Secretary Hughes that he would be head of the American delegation to the international conference on the limitation of armaments means a vast deal to this country. It would have been easy for the President to have gone outside the cabinet and made either a political appointment or a selection of some distinguished publicist, but he has avoided the blunder of personal participation in the conference and at the same time has assumed that personal representation which is the prerogative of the executive in matters of diplomatic negotiation.

Furthermore, the announcement is taken to mean, according to Washington interpretation, that Secretary Hughes will act as president of the conference. A more difficult position can hardly be imagined. And the appointment shows that the President is fully conscious of what the success or failure of this epoch-making conference may mean to his administration. Secretary Hughes is not likely to reopen old sores a nd old controversies in an effort to impress the peoples of the earth with his rhetorical and historical inspiration. He is not the man to rub racial and national currents the wrong way in such a manner as to shock and irritate foreign feelings. The one great danger in American statesmen, due in large measure to a provincial grasp of foreign politics and tendencies is to make unfortunate remarks. Secretary Hughes might do many things, but not that.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

FRIENDSHIP CHURCH

Rev. W. P. Lowery preached here Sunday and Sunday night. Two very good crowds werep resent, and fine sermons were listened to.

The singing club met in the afternoon, and enjoyed some splendid singing.

The B. Y. P. U. met in an enthusiastic meeting at 7:00 o'clock Sunday evening. This lasted for nearly an hour, and was followed with preaching.

A called conference has been called of all the church members next Sunday night, immediately after the B.Y.P.U. closes, which will be about 8:00 o'clock. The purpose of this special conference is to call a pastor for the coming year, and every member is especially urged to be present. This is a matter in which every member of the church should take part

TENTED CITY READY FOR THE ADVENTIST CONFERENCE.

Everything is in readiness at the tented city of the Alabama Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, located at Gulledge Grove in the northern part of the city, for the opening session tonight (Thursday) of the ten day convention that will bring together representatives of the denomination from practically every city in the state.

During the past week, clergymen and other gospel workers connected with the conference donned overalls, rolled up their sleeves, and worked earnestly in their efforts to get the "city" ready for the opening. White collars and Prince Alberts were conspicuous by their absence. Among those who joined in this work were M. L. Wilson, Albany, Ala., J. G. Mitchell, Albany, O. F. Frank, Birmingham, N. B. Jobst, Birmingham, R. D. Capps, Bessemer, and J. R. Staton and B. C. Marshall of Clanton.

Campers came in yesterday on all the trains and kept the locating committee composed of Mr. J. G. Mitchell and J. R. Staton busy placing them and making them comfortable.

The night meetings promise to be unusually interesting to the general public as themes touching on the political, religious, social, industrial, and financial conditions existing in the world as seen in the light of prophecy, will be considered. The speakers have given close study to these subjects for many years and are well qualified to present them from a Biblical standpoint.

The daily program is as follows:

Rising hour	5:30
Devotional	6:00-6:45
Breakfast	7:00-7:45
Workers Meeting	8:00-8:45
Family Worship	8:00-8:45

ALABAMA STANDS HIGH IN PROHIBITING CHILD LABOR

According to a chart recently issued by the Children's Bureau of the Federal government, Alabama ranks with the leading states in the Union as regards to its laws prohibiting child labor. No state has higher standards as to the number of hours that a child is allowed to work, the minimum age is as low as any of the states, the educational requirements compare favorably with most of the other states, only a few having higher educational requirements.

In this state, the enforcement of the child labor law is in the hands of the State Child Welfare Department, of which Mrs. L. B. Bus is director, and so efficiently is the work done that the Child Labor Tax Bureau of the Federal government recognizes the employment certificates and age certificates issued by the state authorities as having equal value with Federal certificates. In fact, the Federal authorities have placed in the hands of the state child labor inspectors the responsibility of enforcing the Federal child labor tax law in this state, having no other inspectors in the stae.

In Alabama, no child as allowed to work at any gainful occupation, except selling and delivering newspapers, under the age of fourteen, and between the ages of 14 and 16 he must obtain an employment certificate, which is granted only after certain physical and educational requirements are met. This law, in connection with the compulsory attendance school law, insures to every child in the state sufficient training to be able to read and write and to carry on the ordinary business of life.

NEW EQUIPMENT BEING PUT IN AT THE PLANTERS GIN

The Planters Gin of Clanton is now installing the latest and most improved machinery in connection with their already up-to-date ginnery, which is calculated to return thousands of dollars to the farmers for whom they gin cotton. The purpose of the new equipment is to clean the cotton thoroughly before it is ginned, and thereby prevent any damaging substances to go in with the lint and reduce the grade of the cotton. Ginners who have used this method declare that it will make cotton grade as high as ten per cent above cotton that is ginned by the old process.

Mr. W. I. Mullins and Mr. W. L. Popwell, the managers of the Planters Gin, have seen the process thoroughly demonstrated, and they feel sure that it is well worth the price, because it will cause the farmer to get a better grade, and consequently a better price for his cotton.

Next week they will have a big advertisement in The Union - Banner giving in detail the many advantages that will come to the farmer by having his cotton treated with this special process. The machinery is being installed now, and will be ready for operation inside of a week's time.

FIRST BALE AT COOPERS

The first new bale of cotton was brought to Coopers Tuesday by Mr. M. N. Allen. It was bought by T. M. Taylor at 13 cents.

HOSPITAL STOCK HOLDERS MEETING

CENTRAL ALABAMA HOSPITAL ON WAY TO PERMANENT ESTABLISHMENT.

A well attended and enthusiastic preliminary meeting of organization was held at the court house on Tuesday night of this week. Acting president W. M. Wyatt occupied the chair. Dr. Gragg reported that some $19,500 of stock had then been tentatively purchased, and with the addition of several other prospects would easily reach over $20,000.

The following were appointed as a nominating committee for the officers and directors: Dr. S. C. Wood, of Thorsby, Dr. J. P. Crumpton, J. P. Lawrence, M. D. Foshee and B. F. Massey. The report of the committee included the following nominations: President, Dr. V. J. Gragg; Vice-President, Dr. S. C. Wood of Thorsby; Secretary, Dr. T. J. Marcus; Treasurer, W. M. Wyatt; Directors, M. D. Foshee, M. A. Gore, Dr. N. S. Johnson, and Dr. J. P. Crumpton, with the President as Chairman of the Board of Directors.

After some discussion it was the decision of the stockholders to name the hospital The Central Alabama Hospital, being the logical name because of its geographical location.

The following committee was appointed to draw up by laws for the company: Grady Reynolds, C. Fenn Jones and P. G. Carter.

Owing to the tentative nature of the list of stockholders it was recognized that the meeting held last night was only preliminary to a proper legal meeting to follow later. The officers and directors therefore were instructed to take all the necessary steps to secure the Charter and get everything into legal form for the perfection of a permanent organization at another meeting of the stockholders as soon as possible.

As soon as this is done the plans of the building will be drawn, the site purchased and the building erected without any unnecessary delay. It is hoped that the building will be ready for occupancy by the first of the next year, which will supply a long-felt need for the county and be another progressive move on the part of the citizens of Chilton County.—P. G. Carter, Acting Secretary.

CHILDRENS DAY PROGRAM AT METHODIST CHURCH

BULLY FOR MR. HAYS

Postmaster General Hays has issued a general order directing all postmasters to "clip from all newspapers or periodicals," all comment favorable or unfavorable, and all suggestions referring directly or indirectly to the departments, including editorial articles. The department, the Postmaster General tells postmasters, is particularly anxious to have all constructive criticism called to its attention.

This sort of spirit on the part of the Postmaster General will get just what he asks. Mr. Hays has shown from the very first that he is determined to make the postal service one of the most efficient, as it is one of the most important services in the world. For that reason, if there were not a hundred others, the American people will rally to his support. Efficiency knows no politics and its only religion is 100 per cent action.

So the shipping board last year expendid $680,000,000 instead of $99,000,000, as it claimed? It's a wonder it didn't claim that it made a profit! Manifestly, the government didn't change hands politically any too soon! —Marion Star.

Of First Meeting In the District Court of the United States, for the Northern Division of the Middle District of Alabama, IN BANKRUPTCY.

In the matter of G. W. Hodgens, Bankrupt, post office Jemison, Chilton County, Alabama.

The aforesaid having been adjudged a Bankrupt, under the Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to Establish a Uniform System of Bankruptcy Throughout the United States," approved July 1, 1898, meeting of the Creditors of said Bankrupt is called at the office of the undersigned Referee, in the United States Court House, Montgomery, Alabama, on the 8th day of September next, at 10 o'clock, A.M., to make proof of debts, and for the election of a Trustee, and such other matters as are necessary and required by the Acts of Congress aforestad.

M. S. CARMICHAEL,
Referee.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 24, 1921.

Messrs. F. A. Gulledge and H. B. Oliver, of Verbena, were in Clanton Tuesday night attending the meeting in the interest of the Central Alabama Hospital.

Among the out-of-town people who are interested in the proposed Central Alabama Hospital at Clanton and who were in attendance at the meeting of stockholders Tuesday night were Dr. S. C. Wood, Mr. Robert Johnson and Mr. Howard of Thorsby.

BODY OF GROVER HAND TO BE SHIPPED HOME.

A telegram has been received by Mr. Robert C. Hand, stating that the body of his son, Grover L. Hand, who was killed in France, has arrived at Hoboken, New Jersey, and will be shipped to Clanton in a few days. Upon arrival here the body will be buried at Samaria cemetery.

DON LOWE DEAD.

The remains of Mr. Don Lowe were brought to Clanton for burial on Wednesday. The deceased was the son of Mr. Homer Lowe. He died in Birmingham Tuesday after a lingering illness.

He is survived by his father and several brothers and sisters. Funeral services were conducted at the home of Mr. M. D. Foshee by Rev. H. A. Price of Birmingham.

The burial was in the charge of J. Mell Martin, Undertaker.

STILL CAPTURED ON SUNDAY

The forces of Sheriff Gore went over into the western part of the county near what is known as Clanton Ford on last Sunday and captured a 25-gallon copper still and arrested Will Grover in conection with the same. The still was set up in Grover's field on a furnace ready for operation and near it was 120 gallons of beer. Three gallons of whiskey was found in Grover's house. He was arrested and brought to jail.

Remains of the daughter of Mr. Pink Jones were brought down from Birmingham Wednesday and buried at Liberty Hill. She died in Birmingham Tuesday. Mr. Jones recently moved to Birmingham from the Mulberry community.

COTTON OFF A LITTLE.

The local price of cotton dropped off considerably on Wednesday from Tuesday's quotations. It reached as high as 15.50 Tuesday while it was quoted Wednesday at 14.80.

R. Mullins, D. F. Jones, H. F. Mullins.

Walter Gillespie of Shelby County was among the visitors at court here Monday.

NO LICENSE ON SYRUP MILLS

There seems to be a mistaken idea in the minds of some people that there is a license required for the operation of a syrup mill. This is a wrong impression. It has been officially stated from Montgomery that there is not required any license, either state or county, for the operation of a syrup mill. Those who hold the opinion that a license is required should correct themselves by the proper investigation of the matter, and make an effort to right the wrongs they may have done by telling anybody the wrong thing about the matter.

Rev. D. D. Head of Marbury was in Clanton Wednesday attending to some business details connected with the Baptist revival meeting which is to begin at the Marbury Baptist Church on Sept. 7th and continue to Sept. 18th. The services will be conducted by evangelist J. A. Scott and singer C. C. Elsey.

LEGAL [illegible]

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Probate Court, July 2[illegible]

In the matter of the estate of [illegible] L. Smith, deceased.

This day came Mrs. Belle Smith, of the estate of J. L. Smith, deceased, and filed her petition in writing under oath in this court, for an order to sell certain lands belonging to said estate, described in said petition, for paying the debts due by said estate, upon the ground that the personal property of said estate is insufficient for the payment of the debts.

It is therefore ordered that the 29th day of August, 1921, be appointed a day for the hearing of said petition, when any person interested may appear and contest the said application if they think proper.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of Probate.

Alabama Contributes Missionaries to South China and the Argentine

(1) Mrs. Lou Combs Hawkins, Red Level, evangelistic work, Buenos Aires, Argentina; (2) Sanford E. Ayers born at Anniston, Ala., but reared in China, who returns to do educational work at Hwanghsien, China.

From the larger proceeds of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has been enabled to send out more than 160 new missionaries since that movement was launched, it is announced, and of that number sixty young men and women, representing fourteen states, have just sailed for China, Japan, Africa, Brazil, Argentina and Chile. In addition to these, Dr. and Mrs. Everett Gill of Kansas City will sail September 14 to become representatives of the Board in Europe, while Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hamlett of Austin, Texas, have just sailed for Jerusalem, where they will maintain headquarters in acting as the Near East representatives of the Board.

The new missionaries to China and Japan sailed from Seattle, Saturday, August 27, on the Hawkeye State of the Admiral Line, while those for Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Africa sailed from New York on the Aeolus August 17. They will be engaged chiefly in evangelistic, educational, medical and agricultural work and will be stationed at various points in these fields. While a large number of new workers have been sent out by the Board since the beginning of the Campaign, at least 100 other capable young men and women could be employed to advantage if they were available, Secretary J. F. Love advises.

Mission Money Gets Results.

Of the more than $25,000,000 that has been collected in cash on the 75 Million Campaign to date, about $5,000,000 has gone to foreign missions. This has made it possible not only to strengthen the old work on all fields and employ a large number of new missionaries, but to do much other work, including building or making substantial additions to 15 boys' schools, 17 girls' schools, 37 mission residences, five hospitals and dispensaries, four light and power plants for mission compounds, 26 church buildings, four colleges, seven theological seminaries. In addition, assistance has been given seven church building loan associations, six new stations have been opened and equipped, land has been bought for the enlargement of several mission compounds, a home for orphans in Italy has been established, and a block of ground has been purchased in the heart of Rome for headquarters for the work in Italy, a theological seminary, publishing house, church and mission residence being provided on this property.

Enlarge European Field.

As a result of the Campaign, Southern Baptists have been enabled to greatly enlarge their work in Europe. They have carried on mission work in Italy since 1870, but now they have opened up new work in Jugo-Slavia, Hungary and Roumania, and have made a beginning, through the distribution of Bibles, in the Ukraine and Southern Russia and Siberia. To act as the European representatives of the Board in this enlarged program, Dr. and Mrs. Everett Gill of Kansas City were recently named. They will probably make their headquarters in Switzerland.

The first work Southern Baptists have ever done looking to the evangelization of Mohammedan lands has just been undertaken in Palestine and Syria, and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hamlett of Austin, Texas, have gone to Jerusalem, where they will superintend the work of the native evangelists. It is planned to establish a church, theological seminary and college, hospital and orphanage at Jerusalem as soon as practicable and thus seek to reach other points in Palestine and Syria from this center.

Minister to 900,000,000 People.

With the enlarged foreign mission program of Southern Baptists that denomination is now operating in 18 countries on every side of the globe and has in its employ practically 500 foreign missionaries and twice that number of native workers trained in the mission schools. Through its present missionary operations the Board is seeking to minister to 475,000,000 yellow people, 4,000,000 brown people, 200,000,000 black people and 225,000,000 white people, making a total of 900,000,000 people, or more than half the population of the globe. Numbered among its workers already on the field are 21 foreign physicians and 8 foreign mission nurses who last year gave 154,070 treatments. There are now 611 mission churches on the foreign fields and of this number 184 are self-supporting. The average contributions of these mission churches last year to denominational causes was $5 per member, the Christians on the foreign fields responding more liberally as a result of the 75 Million Campaign.

The new missionaries sailing at this time were contributed by the following states: Alabama two, Arkansas one, Georgia five, Kentucky six, Louisiana two, Mississippi four, Missouri four, North Carolina three, South Carolina five, Tennessee five, Texas fifteen, Virginia six, Iowa one and Pennsylvania one.

CLANTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

The Clanton Grammar School will open September 5, 1921, at 9:30. All parents are urged to come and bring their children. The faculty will be about the same as last year with the exception that Miss Eula Mae Vines will have the second grade instead of Miss Irene Jones, who decided to attend college next year at Montevallo. Up to the present time it is not known whether Mrs. Collier will be with us next year or not.

The incidental fee will be two dollars for the nine months. This money will be used exclusively for buying coal, repairing the building, fixing the lavatories, paying up the deficit the school now owes. Fee tickets may be purchased from Mr. J. Hance Alred at the Alred Drug Co.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE

Under and by virtue of an order and decree of the Honorable L. H. Reynolds, Judge of the Probate Court of Chilton County, I, A. C. Smith, administrator of the estate of M. E. Martin, deceased, will sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder, in front of the court house door of Chilton County, Alabama, on Monday, the 19th day of September, 1921, at 12 o'clock noon, for cash, the following described real property, belonging to said estate, to-wit: Beginning at the southwest corner of a tract of land owned by A.C. Smith, a deed to which is recorded in Volume 82, Record of Deeds, page 454, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Chilton County, and running thence along the south line of said tract of land to the Clanton and Cooper Station Public Road; thence in a southeastern direction along said road 210 feet; thence parallel with first line above described to the right-of-way of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company; thence along said right of way 210 feet to the point of beginning, in Sections 1 and 12, Township 21, Range 14, in Chilton County, Alabama.

A. C. SMITH,
9-1-3t Adm. of said Estate.

LAND FOR SALE—61¾ acres, 5 miles north of Clanton on B. & M. Highway; 25 acres in cultivation, rest contains about 80,000 feet of fine pine timber and lots of fire wood and lightard; one dwelling 4-room house with good out buildings, all practically new. Price reasonable.—BEN DUKE, Clanton, Route 4. 2t-pd

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

. . . I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

At all druggists.

THE FORD R. R. CASE

Henry Ford's purchase of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad, his subsequent reduction of rates and increase of wages of common labor, have been made the subject of much interesting discussion, a large part of which is hardly instructive. There has been an assumption that what Henry Ford has done with the D. T. & I., he could do with any other road and if placed in control could accomplish the same results on all roads.

But Mr. Ford himself has never made such claim, nor would it be justified if made. The fact is that Ford bought the road at a sacrifice sale when it had such small business that it could not pay expenses. His invested capital is only about half the actual cost of the road. Ford is the owner of the largest automobile factory in the world and is a large buyer of iron, coal and the innumerable raw materials that go into an auto. All his freight business he withdrew from other roads and shipped over the D. T. I., and moreover, used his control of these shipments over roads beyond his own lines in such a way as to favor roads that would divert freight to his road. Presumably all the people who travel on Ford business go over the D. T. I., if possible. The bulk of the business of the D. T. I. is made of shipments to or from the Ford factories.

Let us suppose that Ford continued to own the railroad but gave up or lost control of the factories—what then would be the condition of the road? Let us suppose that Ford controlled all the roads and shipped his freight without discrimination, what then would be the extent of freight shipped over the D. T. & I?

The answer to these queries is obvious. Without the favors incident to united ownership of the factory and the road, the transportation line would drop back into its former status of insolvency.

The present successful operation of the D. T. & I. does not demonstrate anything of practical value to the railroad world.

BUSINESS MAN IN FINE CONDITION

LITTLE ROCK GROCER RESTORED TO HEALTH FOUR YEARS AGO, IS STILL FEELING FINE.

"Tanlac is my stand-by, for it restored me to health four years ago, and I have kept it in the pink of condition ever since by taking an occasional dose," said Paul Snodgrass, 229 West Capital St., Little Rock, Ark. Mr. Snodgrass has been in the fancy grocery business for thirty years and is known as a man whose word is as good as his bond.

"In all my life I have never known a medicine like Tanlac. When I began taking it I was in such an awfully weak, run-down condition I was hardly able to attend to business. I had had no appetite for a long time and the little I managed to eat did not digest properly and caused me no end of trouble. I was nervous in the daytime and restless at night, and I felt so miserable in the mornings it was all I could do to force myself to get up and go to the store.

"I began to improve almost from the first dost of Tanlac and it was not long before I was my old self again and feeling just fine. It built me up wonderfully; why in a few weeks time I gained fourteen pounds in eight. There is no doubt about it, Tanlac certainly delivers the goods."

Tanlac is sold in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Company.

LEAN PICKINGS

The determination of the administration to cut the connections which a large number of outgoing Democrats had carefully made with Democratic holdovers is apt to cause a number of vacant office rooms in Washington. The number of former Democratic officials who settled down to practice of law at the capital, in pleased expectancy of handling claims aginst the government which they deliberately, or through inefficiency had created, is positively appalling. If these legal rush-lights are blocked by the enforcement of the old Act of 1873, they are going to experience some pretty lean pickings, for "claims agin the guvment" form a large part of the practice of the Washington lawyer.

DR. CARY HERE MONDAY

Dr. C. A. Cary, state veterinarian, of Auburn, was in Clanton Monday. His visit here was primarily for the purpose of meeting with the Commissioners court and the people in regard to the cattle dipping question. But the interests of Dr. Carey are not confined to cattle alone. He is a great agricultural enthusiast, and while here he visited several farms and looked over the agricultural situation as best he could during his short visit.

Vegetables Wanted

I desire to get in touch with farmers having vegetables to sell.

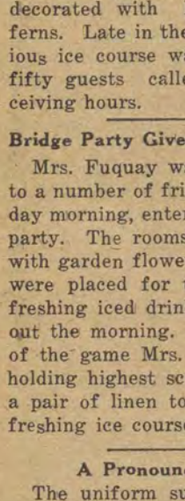
Miscellaneous Shower for Bride.

A miscellaneous shower was given on last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. S. Johnson when she and Mrs. W. P. Splawn were joint hostesses, complimenting Mrs. Curry Thomas, a recent bride. The guests were received by Mrs. T. C. McSwain who presented them to the bride, then they were invited into the living room where refreshing punch was served by Misses Sallie Johnson and Ruth Splawn. Here the guests registered in the bride's book. For the occasiono the reception rooms were appropriately decorated with a quantity of cut flowers, ferns and begonias. During a musical program on the Edison, in charge of Mrs. Macy Jones, the steamer, "Mary Thomas" arrived with Hal Broadhead and Alex Hayes, sailors in charge. The ship was laden with many pretty and useful gifts for the bride, and were displayed in the dining room, which was decorated with lovely asters and ferns. Late in the afternoon a delicious ice course was served to about fifty guests called during the receiving hours.



Bridge Party Given.

Mrs. Fuquay was a lovely hostess to a number of friends on last Thursday morning, entertaining at a bridge party. The rooms were made bright with garden flowers where the tables were placed for the games. A refreshing iced drink was served thruout the morning. At the conclusion of the game Mrs. H. M. Simpson, holding highest score, was presented a pair of linen towels. Later a refreshing ice course was served.

A Pronounced Success.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival, and as everyone who has used it knows, it is without an equal.—Adv.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

THE HARDING WAY

During the disarmament conference President Harding will not keep his motor car in gear to rush to and from the meeting place. He will be a close observer of the proceedings, but not a personal participant. He is willing to trust his Secretary of State.

Moreover, on the delegation he plans to have representatives of the Senate—one from the majority and one from the minority. Other members are expected to be men of weight—neither slackers nor speaking tubes—and capable of forming their own judgments, while at the same time not insensible of the value of teamwork.

The president is headed toward reestablishing normalcy in the handling of the country's international relations. He saw how a departure did not work. So old-fashioned practices seem specially good to him. A prudent gentleman, he would have any arrangement arrived at indorsed by public opinion and ratified by the Senate. It's safer to consult early those who must some time be consulted.

The President has made no loud boasts of his knowledge of psychology, yet he has some notion of how the average human mind works. He deals with conditions not as they might be or perhaps should be, but as they are. So he is surely, even though slowly, building up a repute that will stand him in good stead should a crisis arise.—N. Y. Tribune.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!

A TOKEN OF APPRECIATION

Deatsville, Ala., Aug. 13, 1921.

I wish to express to the public thru the press what life insurance has done for me. Possibly this will be the cause of some poor woman and children to get protection, if they have not got it already. About ten months ago my husband, Canty M. Crosby of Deatsville, Ala., Elmore County, met Mr. J. C. Brown of Clanton, Ala., who represented the American National Insurance Co., of Galveston, Texas. My husband took a policy with that good company through Mr. Brown for $2,500. I did not know he had taken it for some time. His second payment would not have been due until the 20th of Sept., 1921. My husband died last month, and just in a few days after his death Mr. Brown handed me a check for $2,500, which has lifted the mortgage from our home for $1800, and left me some money besides. If it had not been for Mr. Brown I would have been homeless and pennilss. I was left with 5 children and some of them small. Now I have a good home all paid for. I can see my way now to make a living. But without this check we would have been left to the mercies of the cold world. I hope every man and woman over this county will protect their families with life insurance. Call Mr. J. C. Brown of Clanton; he will gladly come and protect you as he did me.

Thanking you, yours respectfully, adv. MRS. WILLIE CROSBY.

YEAST GIVES NEW STRENGTH TO WEAK PEOPLE.

Everybody is talking about yeast and of the apparent miracles it is performing in bringing new strength and health to t he weak, run-down men and women.

The reason is that yeast contains a vital substance known as vitamines, which we do not get in most of our foods. These vitamines are absolutely necessary to the system, and it is because people do not get enough of them that they become thin, pale, weak and old before their time.

Ordinary yeast cakes, however, con tain only about 20% real yeast. The mose efficient form of yeast is brewer's yeast, highly concentrated. This is the basis of the great new tonic, Ironized Yeast, which is bringing almost incredible results everywhere, especially in treating weakness, thinness, and general run-down condition Contains iron as well as vitamines, and being in tablet form is pleasant to take. Sold and highly recommended by Upchurch Drug Co., Special directions for children.—Adv.

VIRGINIA, ROLL UP THE SCORE!

Steagall Believes Farmer Relief Legislation Largely Responsible for Cotton Price Rise

"The rise in the price of cotton, which has done so much to cheer up the Southern people recently, is in my opinion, due in a very large measure to the farmer-relief projects that Congress passed after they had been threshed out in the house committee on finance," declared Representative Henry B. Steagall of the Third District, a member of the committee who was in Montgomery yesterday. Mr. Steagall is enroute to his home at Ozark from Washington. He will remain in his district till Congress reconvenes September 21.

"The measures handled by our committee which were passed into law and are now in effect, of which I speak are (1) the bill reviving the War Finance Corporation, (2) the measure authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to subscribe for $25,000,000 of land bank bonds, (3) the act authorizing the Federal Farm Loan Board to sell bonds at 5 1-2 per cent interest instead of 5 per cent Our committee also framed and helped pass the farmer's relief act by which a billion dollars of the War Finance Corporation's funds were made available to banks, industries, and sundry agencies desiring to aid in holding crops off the market till they could be sold in an orderly and satisfactory way.

"I feel a natural pride in the efforts and achievements of this committee. I believe recent events in the market justify the labors of that committee. I should say that the Democratic members stood solidly together on all agricultural and industrial relief measures.

"I was convinced some weeks ago that the present rise in the price of cotton would occur. I feel sure that the market will continue to improve and that before December we shall see 18 cent cotton. Cotton will not go back to 10 cents; neither do I expect any sensational rise to war-time levels. But the market is going to improve still further, and we are going to have a good fall."

Mr. Steagall says that high officials of the Federal Reserve Board have said to him: "We are determined to finance this year's crop in a manner which will enable the farmers to market their products in an orderly way and avoid beating down the market by dumping their stuff in a lump."—Montg'y Advertiser.

Right here we wish to remind our gentle readers of what happened about a year ago, when the farmers of the country were trying to get the Democratic administration to do the very things which Mr. Steagall says has caused the sudden rise in cotton prices. Don't you remember what David Houston, Secretary of Agriculture under Mr. Wilson said and did to the farmers when they were seeking to get aid from the Federal Reserve Board.

Mr. Steagall is to be complimented for the frankness of his statements in the above article clipped from the Montgomery Advertiser; but he should have gone a bit further and made it clear that in passing this legislation to relieve and help the farmers the present administration at Washington has done the very thing that the previous administration persistently refused to do.

VOLUME IX. CLANTON, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1921 NUMBER 24.

Who is the Most Beautiful Girl in Chilton County?

She will be Chosen and Sent to Birmingham to Meet President Harding in October

A LIVELY CONTEST WILL BE WAGED TO DETERMINE WHO SHALL BE THE HONORED ONE

The Plan of Conducting the Campaign Assures Every Girl of the County a Chance to Win the Honor.

FULL DETAILS GIVEN BELOW

When President Warren G. Harding comes to visit the city of Birmingham during the Semi-Centennial Celebration in October, it is desired to have him meet some of the beautiful and charming young women of our state. Since it manifestly would be impossible for him to see them all, the plan has been adopted to have each county in the state select a young lady to act as their county queen and special representative in the social events given for the President and in connection with other details on the program of the Centennial.

This young lady from each county is to be the real representative of the people of the county from which she comes, and all the people are to have a voice in her selection.

For the conduct of the campaign of choosing the most beautiful girl in Chilton County, the following committee of ladies has been appointed as a central committee to direct all details of the campaign: Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. W. T. Callen, Mrs. Guy Higgins, Mrs. V. J. Heard, Mrs. J. M. VanDerveer.

The method of conducting the campaign in Chilton County has been decided upon as follows:

The selection shall be determined upon a basis of votes received, the one receiving the highest number being declared our queen to represent us in the celebration. Votes on the contest shall be based solely upon subscriptions to The Union-Banner, and upon the coupons to be published in the paper.

A coupon will appear in every paper for the next four weeks, and will be good for the number of votes stated therein, when filled out with the name of the young lady for whom it is desired to cast the votes. Anyone may clip these coupons and vote them for anyone in the contest.

For each new subscription to the Union-Banner, paid for, cash in advance, there will be issued a coupon good for 500 votes. For each renewal of an old subscription which has not yet expired there will be issued a coupon for 250 votes. These coupons will be issued to the individual who subscribes for the paper and pays for the same, and he or she may fill in the name of the candidate desired to vote for and deposit same in the ballot box. Or if anyone should turn in a subscription for another, then the coupons will be issued to the party turning in the subscription, who may vote them for the candidate desired.

This week we publish a nomination blank in the paper which shall be used for nominations of candidates in the contest. No other nominations will be accepted by the central committee. Nominations for this contest will close on Sept. 20, at which time the central committee will meet and go over all nominations and decide which candidates shall be declared eligible to proceed into the final contest. The purpose of having this central committee pass upon the nominations is in order to assure every community in the county an equal chance to land their candidate in the final vote.

For instance, if nominations are made indiscriminately, and all nominations allowed to stand as final, we very likely would have a conflict of interests that would exclude all possibility of a community winning with their candidate. We would suppose, for illustration that Thorsby nominates three candidates and Mulberry community nominates one. If the contest runs to the end with Thorsby pulling for three candidates and Mulberry centered upon one, it stands to reason that Thorsby would not have a fair chance of putting up a winning fight for either of her candidates. When such cases as the above arise it will be the duty of this central committee to equalize the campaign by determining which candidate at Thorsby would be the strongest, and declare such one a nominee to stay in the race to the final wind-up of the contest.

The final list of nominees as decided upon by the central committee will be announced in the Union-Banner on Thursday, September 22, at which time the voting shall begin. Until that time all coupons should be saved and not voted for anyone until it is settled as to who will be the final candidates.

Every community in the county is urged to make use of the nomination blanks which appear in this week's paper. The central committee wants as many nominations as possible to select from in order that they may be able to give every community in the county a candidate in the final contest. The more nomination blanks there are for the same candidate from any community, the more certain it will make the possibility of that candidate appearing on the final list of nominations; but all nominees on the final list will be started off with one thousand votes.

This is going to be a distinct honor of which any young lady in the county may be justly proud. The lucky one who shall go to Birmingham to represent Chilton county will be introduced to the President personally and individually upon his arrival in the city, and given a place of honor in the Presidential parade. An automobile will be furnished by the Birmingham committee for her use in the parade.

The young lady will be entertained in one of the representative homes of Birmingham during her stay in the city. One of the county queens will be chosen as queen of the Semi-Centennial, and the merchants of Birmingham will give her a wardrobe to cost not less than $250.00.

The final contest to determine who shall go as Chilton County's most beautiful and popular young lady must be closed by October 12th, in order to give the fortunate one plenty of time to make all the necessary arrangements for attending.

All nomination blanks must be filled out and in the hands of the chairman of the central committee before September 20th. If the nomination blanks are sent by mail, the envelope should be marked plainly on the outside with the words "Pretty Girl Contest," and sent to either the Union-Banner or Mrs. Hugh Jones, Clanton, Ala.

By the time the final contestants are anounced by the committee, all details of voting will be arranged, and it will be anounced where votes may be deposited. It should be remembered that all coupons should be held and NOT voted until the final list of nominees is declared and published on September 22nd.

Any further information in regard to the contest will be gladly furnished by the Editor of The Union-Banner upon application from anyone interested.

Beginning to-day, Thursday, September 8th, The Union-Banner will issue the coupons for all subscriptions coming into our office. These coupons can be kept until the 22nd and then voted for any young lady whose name appears on the final list of candidates selected by the central committee.

NOMINATION BLANK

GOOD FOR 1,000 VOTES

I hereby nominate

Miss .....

Of ..... Community

to be a candidate in the Contest to determine the Most Beautiful and Most Popular Girl in Chilton County who will represent Chilton County at the Semi-Centennial Celebration in Birmingham in October.

(Signed) .....

HOW TO GET VOTES

1. The Nomination Blank Counts 1,000 Votes, which will be given to every girl who is entered in the Contest by the Central Committee on September 20th. The greater the number of Nomination Blanks there are for any one girl, the more likely will she be to get a place on the final list of Candidates to be chosen by the Central Committee. All Nominations must be in the hands of the Chairman of the Central Committee by September the 20th. Nominations should be mailed or handed to The Editor of The Union-Banner or Mrs. Hugh Jones. If sent by mail the envelope should be marked "Pretty Girl Contest."

2. Each week from now until October the 6th, there will be a coupon in The Union-Banner, which will be good for a stated number of votes when filled out with the name of the girl to be voted for and deposited in the ballot box. Coupons appearing before Sept. 22 should be saved, as they cannot be voted until the list of candidates is officially certified by the Central Comittee and published in the paper on September 22.

3. For each NEW SUBSCRIBER to The Union-Banner, a coupon for 500 votes will be issued. For each renewal of an old subscription, a coupon for 250 votes will be issued. Issuance of these coupons will begin to-day (Thursday, Sept. 8) and continue to October 12, the date when the contest closes.

Remember that all coupons must be held and CANNOT be voted until after September 22 when the list of Candidates will be published in the paper.

The young lady who has the highest number of votes on the final count October 12 will be declared the Most Beautiful and Most Popular Girl in Chilton County, and will be sent to Birmingham as Chilton County's Queen to represent the County in the Centennial, and to meet President Harding.

PLAN RECORD OF MILITARY SERVICE

Families of Deceased Soldiers Urged to Co-operate With Department of Archives.

The family and friends of every soldier in this county who lost his ilife in the service during the late world war have been requested to send in the name of the deceased veteran together with the address of his next of kin to the Department of Archives and History of Alabama. The department is to publish a book in the near future containing short sketches of the Alabama boys who made the extreme sacrifice in the world war and it is anxious that no name be omitted. Some omissions have been found in the government casualty lists, and in order to fill these vacancies the department is calling upon the relatives of the dead soldiers to aid them.

The following letter on the subject from Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen, director of the Deartment of Archives and History of Alabama, has been received by the Editor of The Union-Banner:

Dear Editor—It is the intention of the Alabama State Department of Archives and History to issue a book at as early a date as possible, which will contain a short sketch and a picture of the soldiers, sailors, marines, nurses, etc., in field and camp, who lost their lives during the world war.

The Government issued from time to time what is called a casualty list but upon checking this over we found some omissions. It would be a matter of rofound regret if any man or woman who made the supreme sacrifice for our country during this critical period of our history, should be omitted from the roll of honor. I am writing you to ask you to please print this letter, and call upon the family and friends of every man or woman from your county who deserves to be upon the list, to furnish me their names and the address of the next of kin.

Thanking you, I am,

(Mrs.) Marie Bankhead Owen.
Director.

PASTORS AND WORKERS CONFERENCE.

The Pastors and Workers Conference will meet next Monday, Sept. 12th, with the Ebenezer Baptist Church at Stanton. The following interesting program has been arranged with the suggested but not permanently arranged speakers:

Devotional at 10:00 A. M.

THE PRETTY GIRL CONTEST

We wish to direct especial attention this week to the announcement of the contest to be instituted to determine who is the most beautiful and popular girl in Chilton County, full details of which are explained on the front page of this paper.

This is a matter in which the entire county should be interested, and all the people of the county should take a hand in making the selection of the one who is to be our representative in the festivities of the Birmingham Semi-Centennlai, and the greeting of President Harding upon his visit to the Magic City of Alabama.

The plans for the contest have been carefully arranged by the central committee of ladies who were named for this duty by Mrs. Hugh Jones, at the direction of Mrs. L. J. Haley of Birmingham.

The cost of advertising and conducting the campaign will be a considerable amount; but the Union-Banner has undertaken this task for the committee, and it will not cost any one anything. The entire expense of the proposition will be borne by the publishers of The Union-Banner and we hope to have the co-operation of all the people of the county in carrying the contest to a sucecssful conclusion.

The central committee in charge of the contest is composed of Mrs. J. Hugh Jones, Mrs. W. T. Callen, Mrs. Guy Higgins, Mrs. V. J. Heard, Mrs. J. M. VanDerveer.

This committee has named other ladies at different parts of the county to help arouse interest in the campaign, as follows:

Mrs. Horace Stringfellow, Mountain Creek; Miss Mary Carr Gibson, Verbena; Mrs. C. N. Parnell, Maplesville; Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Stanton; Mrs. S. E. Norton, Thorsby; Miss Lizzie McNeill, Jemison; Mrs. Trotter, Lock 12; Mrs. Splawn, Lomax; Mrs. Maud Deshazo, Mulberry. It is hoped that these ladies will call attention to the contest in their respective localities, and see that their communities have nominations made of the young ladies they would like to enter in the contest.

HENLEY CHILD DEAD.

Otis, the seven year old son of Mr. F. C. Henley, of Billingsley, Route 3 died Tuesday afternoon, and was buried Wednesday at New Cedron.

VERBENA VOTES SCHOOL TAX

The Verbena School District voted 57 for the three mill school tax last Monday and nothing against it.

CENTRAL ALABAMA HOSPITAL

The movement for the establishment of the Central Alabama Hospital in Clanton goes steadily forward. Every day finds us a litte nearer our goal.

All the necessary details for securing a charter from the State are being put into legal form, and within a few more days we shall have a full fedged and legally organized corporation, chartered by the State of Alabama with which to put our tentative plans into final execution.

Mr. C. B. Cox carried Drs. Gragg and Marcus, and architect Ed Plier on a little scouting trip last week, going to Selma and Montgomery, and looking over the hospitals in those cities. They gathered some ideas which they believe will be valuable suggestions for out building.

Just as son as the charter is issued, the stock certificates will then be ready for issuance to those who have tentatively subscribed for stock. The matter of selecting a site will be gone into, and other steps taken leading to the immediate erection of the hospital building.

THE SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS

If there be any hereabouts who are disposed to treat lightly the doctrines and practices of the Seventh-Day Adventists they need but to attend about one of the tent services now going on in Clanton and get their opinions revised. We have heard some of the sermons preached by high authorities of the Seventh-Day faith, and we do not see anything at all light and flimsy about their doctrines. In fact it is indeed weighty and convincing, being founded closely upon the Bible and Bible teachngs.

We, of course, shall hold on to our good old Baptist convictions of the past, believing that ours is the truest Bible church, but at the same time, it should be remembered that the arguments of the Adventists are not merely chaff that is blown before every wind. They claim to teach "The Bible and the Bible only," and what we have heard of their teachings and preachings so far, sounded mighty like the Bible to us.

PICTURE SHOW NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday afternoon at three P. M. there will be a picture show at the Ideal Theater for men and boys only. Boys under fifteen years of age will not be admitted. The program is under supervision of the public health department, and no admission will be charged. The purposes of the picture is to explain the dangerous evils of veneral diseases. It will be an educational lesson well worth the while of every man.

CONSCIENCE TROUBLED

"I know I have done wrong, please forgive me for not doing my duty and writing you before. I am thankful to God for the good remedy He gave you, and would not take $500 for the good the first dose did me. I have been bothered for many years with gas in my stomach and indigestion, but since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy two years ago I have had no trouble." It is a simple, and harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation that causes prctically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Co., Clanton, and all good druggists everywhere.—Adv.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

The lawn social which was given by the B. Y. P. U. Saturday night was indeed a success. Most all of Thorsby's young people were present. Interesting games were played, victrola music was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served.

Misses Bertha and Versie Littleton had as their guests Sunday, Misses Mae and Bessie Horsley of Birmingham.

Miss Lorena Graham left Sunday morning for Anniston, where she is the guest of her brother. After a brief visit there she will leave for Demorest, Ga., to take up her studies at Piedmont College.

Mrs. Emma Adams spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gronquist.

Mr. C. P. Turnquist left last Wednesday morning for Waseca, Minn., where he will spend a few months with his daughter Mrs. S. A. Thorson.

Mrs. Ethel Loveland arrived in Thorsby Thursday afternoon from Chicago, where she has been spending the summer.

The many friends of Mr. Harry Peterson will be intersted to learn that he was married last Sunday to Miss Evelyn Hunt of Prattville. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride.

Mrs. John Johnson is spending a few days in Birmingham visiting with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris of Birmingham spent Friday in Thorsby and were the guests of Mrs. W. J. Billingsley. Mr. Harris will be the principal of the Grammar School this year, and his wife will have charge of the primary classes. After a short visit to Prattville they will return to take up their duties at the school which opens Monday. They will be at home with Mrs. J. R. Billingsley.

Miss Lucile Adams of Birmingham spent Sunday and Monday in Thorsby.

Mrs. N. C. Peterson returned Monday from Prattville where she went to attend the wedding of her brother in law, Mr. Harry Peterson.

Miss Nolia Robinson spent Sunday and Monday here with her parents. She returned to Birmingham Monday night.

On Sunday night, Sept. 18th there will be a musical program rendered at the Lutheran Church. This will be Mr. Benson's last Sunday in Thorsby and the young people have decided to come together and have a musical service. A good program is being arranged and we hope to see the church well filled on that night.

The Baptist Chilton County Association held its annual meeting at the Baptist Church in Thorsby Tuesday, Sept. 6th. A very enthusiastic meeting was carried out. Among the delegates present were, Miss Hannah Reynolds of Montgomery, Mrs. Hyman,a nd Mrs. Duffee of Jemison, Mrs. Foshee and daughters and Mrs. Morris of Liberty Hill. Mrs. Ed Plier was elected Superintendent of the Association for the coming year. A young girls auxiliary was organized, of which Miss Bertha Littleton is leader. Dinner was served at the church by the ladies.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a meeting on Monday night, when matters of special interest to the town were taken up. An open forum meeting where all members of the Chamber of Commerce are expected to be present, will be held on Monday night, Sept. 19.

THORSBY INSTITUTE

Thorsby Institute will open its sixteenth school year Wednesday, September 14th at 9:30, a.m. There will be a short program consisting of speaking and music to which the public is cordially invited.

The faculty includes several former members and some new ones, who have been carefully selected with a view to their ability to meet the requirements of their positions.

Miss Helen C. Jenkins, principal, needs no introduction to the people of Thorsby and vicinity. For the past fourteen years much of the success of the school has been due to her high ideals, her Christian character, and her self sacrificing devotion to the interests of the Institute.

Miss Emily Ellsworth, who succeeds Miss May Stoddard as the Asosciate Principal, gave abundant evidence during the past year as a member of the faculty that she is well equipped for the position she holds.

Mr. N. Owen Shappington, a recent graduate (with a B.S. degree) from Piedmont College, comes as boys preceptor—athletic director, and teacher of history and agriculture.

Miss Agnes Gerald, after graduating at Thorsby Institute, has taken a full college course at Piedmont College and graduated with an A.B. degree. Miss Gerald has developed considerable ability as a musician and will be in charge of the music department, but being versatile, she will also teach science.

Miss Emily Tyler, while new in Thorsby, is by no means a novice as a teacher. She has had a wide experience in grade work, and during the war was among those who did their bit overseas. She will make a valuable adidtion to the faculty.

Miss May Hastings Nottage, as house mother at the boy's dormitory for some time past, has been retained for that position. She will also teach French and chorus work.

Miss Lois Leach, matron at the girls dormitory, preceptress and domestic science teacher, is another new comer in Thorsby. She has a pleasing personality, and long experience in the duties of her office, not the least of which is to make a pleasant home for faculty and students.

Miss Ruth H. Gerald, is another Thorsby Institute graduate who has since taken a course at Wheeler Businesses College in Birmingham. She made a remarkable record for attendance at Thorsby Institute, being never absent or tardy during the four years of her high school course. She will have charge of business department, stenograpy, typewriting, bookkeeping, and will also be office assistant.

In the employment of these young ladies of Thorsby, the Institute has demonstrated its faith in the character of its educational product. The Gerald sisters have made good wherever placed which is evidence that they will continue to do so.

Miss E. J. Robinson will return as librarian, a very important position, and in addition to the duties of that office, will teach Bible in school. Miss Robinson has a B.S. degree from he National Normal University.

Misses Jennie Robinson and Leora Goodgame made a trip to Birmingham Thursday.

LIBERTY HILL

The Liberty Hill singing society met Sunday afternoon, Sept. 4th. There was a large crowd and also good singing. Directors for the afternoon were Glover Smith, C. C. Parrish, Claudie Smith, Birdie Edwards and Lillie Mae Smith. Organists were Birdie Edwards, Lillie Smith and Blanche Riggins. We are glad to have visitors any time.

CITY-WIDE EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN PLAN

In accord with preliminary announcements, arrangements are now being completed for the great City-Wide Evangelistic Campaign, in which all the denominations of the city of Clanton will unite, and which begins on Sunday, September 25th. Dr. Chas. P. Weigle, who holds large meetings of this nature all over the Southland, will be the evangelist, and Mr. C. P. Curry will be the musical director and soloist. These two constitute a strong force for such meetings. The first preliminary meeting of the two churches to make the necessary arrangements was held at the Baptist Church on Monday, September 5th, at which meeting, C. Reese Mullins was elected as chairman of the meeting. The committee on arrangements to decide the location and to secure the tent, and make such other arrangements as necessary was apointed and is as follows: Revs. P. G. Carter and D. M. Pearson, V. J. Elmore, John A. Thomas, and Prof. J. L. Johnson. This committee has decided to locate the meeting on the property known as the Chestnut Lot or old Fairground, on Main Street, if the use of it can be secured.

At this first meeting a nominating comittee was also appointed who met on Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. Luckie, and nominated the following committees: Music Committee, Mrs. Armstrong, chairman, and Miss Roberta Curry, Mrs. Roberts, Hrs. Alverson, Mr. Tom Litlejohn and V. J. Elmore and Percy Pitts. Publicity Committee, W. M. Wyatt, chairman, with Mrs. R. E. Luckie, T. J. Littlejohn, Mr. R. C. McDavid, Prof. J. L. Johnson and S. E. Alverson. Finance Committee, J. C. Page, chairman, T. H. Neighbors, M. D. Foshee, John A. Thomas, J. P. Lawrence, C. Reese Mullins, Mrs. E. E. Upchurch, Mrs. Ed Plier, Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mr. M. L White and T. A. Curry. Prayer Meeting Committee, Mrs. J. A. Hester, chairman, Mrs. W. T. Callen, Mr. G. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Barney Roberts, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mrs. N. A. Kicker, Mrs. J. Mell Martin, Mr. V. J. Elmore. Committee on Ushers, J. Mell Martin, chairman, Otto Jones, Willie Murphy, John Armstrong, R. E. Luckie, Lucian Duncan, Guy Roberts, Grady Heflin, Omar Reynolds, Guy Roberts, J. Watts Moore, and J. R. Mullins. Committee on Religious Census, Mrs. J. M. Martin, Mrs. M. A. Gore, Mrs. R. E Luckie, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Grady Broadhead, Mrs. M. L. White, Miss Bettie Mullins, Mrs. E. E. Upchurch, chairman.

It is expected at the time of going to press that the report of the nominating committee will be largely endorsed at a meeting held on Wednesday night at the Methodist Church, but too late to report the meeting for this issue. It is earnestly desired that all those whose names appear accept the positions alloted to them cheerfully, and do the very utmost to make it a very successful meeting. It is suggested that these committees get together at once and organize and start their work, as the time is short prior to the beginning of the meeting. Both of the pastors are appointed as associates with all committees.

Your co-operation will make the meeting a great success. We invite everybody in the county to be present. A large tent, seating some 1000 people will be provided. Further announcements will be given from time to time through the columns of our weekly paper. We bid you welcome to all of these meetings.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT LIBERTY

On the third Sunday in September there will be held at the Liberty Hill Baptist Church, a Baptist Sunday School Convention for the Baptist Schools of this District.

We are going to try to have Mr. S. P. Moore, the State worker, with us. He is an able lecturer and it will be a treat for the people of that community and the schools of this District to hear him. Other numbers will be prepared for the day.

The following Baptist Sunday Schools are requested to send three delegates, each for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization: Clanton, Cane Creek, Refuge, Friendship, Concord, Mt. Zion, Poplar Springs, Maple Springs, Samaria and Liberty Hill.

J. L. JOHNSON.

A Pronounced Success.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival, and as everyone who has used it knows, it is without an equal.—Adv.

THE LOMAX SINGING

The Singing Convention at Lomax Saturday and Sunday was good. The church and people of Lomax did their part nobly.

Among the visitors we noted T. C. Jackson of South Georgia, M. F. Riggins of Birmingham, Ruben Jackson of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. Sorrell of Mt. Creek.

One pelasing feature was the solo, Graham's great composition, "Don't Grieve Your Mother," so beautifully rendered by Miss Era Sanders. Many thanks were tendered the Banner for the convention notice. The dinner was a bounty. It was a happy occasion.

Mr. Chester Mims, the erstwhile "hot dog specialist," has abandoned the art of the frying pan, and joined himself to the clan of soda jerkers. He may be found plying his new trade at the Johnson Drug Co.

Clanton Mercantile Co.

To the Cotton Growers of Chilton County:

IN THIS AGE OF PROGRESS and improvement it behooves everyone who would get the best out of any phase of life or business to keep abreast of the times and employ the most modern means available for any desired purpose.

We are engaged in the operation of a gin at Clanton, and our aim is to give our customers better service than they have ever received before. Some ginners may be content to run along in the same old way they did ten years ago. But we are not. We believe in giving our customers the latest advantages available. We feel that we owe this spirit of progress to the welfare of those who bring us their cotton to be ginned. And we propose to give them the best service known to the ginning industry.

For these reasons, we have installed in our large gin plant at Clanton, the latest and most modern machinery for the improvement of the process of ginning cotton.

It is constructed and operates so as to remove from the cotton a large per cent of foreign matter such as dirt, sand, hulls, leaves, etc., the elimination of which improves the lint cotton one to two grades, which means to the farmer an increase in value of from $2.50 to $7.50 per bale on low grades of cotton.

It does not cost the farmer any more to have his cotton ginned by this improved method than it does in the old time way.

We cordially invite every farmer to visit our gin and see this machinery in operation, and observe the cotton as it comes from the gins practically clear from all damaging matter.

We believe also that you will be impressed and pleased with the neatly packed and wrapped bale which we turn out, and with the other improved details of service which we render.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Study Club Meets.

Mrs. Hayes was hostess to the Study Club on last Friday. The living room was very attractive with potted plants and baskets of cut flowers. The following program was carried out, after which a delicious ice course was served in the colors of green and white:

Leader, Mrs. Guy Roberts. Roll call,, name of a great musician. Paper, Music of the Present Day, by Mrs. S. E. Johnson. Sketch of the Life of Beethoven, Chopin and Schuman, by Mrs. Barney Roberts. Paper, Value of Music and Art in the Home, by Mrs. Chandler.

Besides the club members were Mrs. Harris of Munford, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mrs. Lee Smith. Mrs. Grady Broadhead assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Tuesday Card Club Meets.

The members of the Tuesday Card Club met with Mrs. Carrie Mullins on last Tuesday. The tables were arranged in the spacious living room, which was decorated with bright zenias. The game closed with Mrs. Guy Higgins holding highest score and was presented a deck of cards. Later a delicious ice course was served with the following members present: Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Heard, Mrs. G. Higgins, Mrs. Hosea Downs, Mrs. E. Hart, Mrs. Alverson, Mrs. Jake Shepard, and Mrs. John VanDerveer.

Mrs. Simpson Hostess.

Mrs. Hugh Simpson was a delightful hostess on Friday morning, entertaining both the Tuesday and Wednesday Card Clubs with an extra table. The living room and dining room were prettily decorated with cut flowers and growing plants, and here the tables were arranged for the games. At the conclusion of the game Mrs. Heard held highest score of the Tuesday Club, and Mrs. Guy Roberts of the Wednesday Club, and each received a jar of fruit. In cutting for the consolataion Mrs. Luckie was presented a similar gift. At the noon hour an elaborate plate luncheon was served.

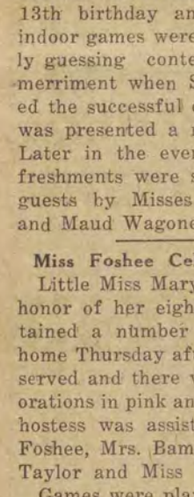
Birthday Party Given.

Last Friday night the younger set enjoyed a lovely birthday party when Miss Ruby Armstrong entertained a number of friends celebrating her 13th birthday anniversary. Several indoor games were played and a lively guessing contest afforded much merriment when Sarah Luckie proved the successful contestant, and she was presented a nice box of candy. Later in the evening delightful refreshments were served to about 20 guests by Misses Jewel Armstrong and Maud Wagoner.

Miss Foshee Celebrates Birthday

Little Miss Mary Louise Foshee, in honor of her eighth birthday, entertained a number of friends at her home Thursday afternoon. Ices were served and there were elaborate decorations in pink and white. The young hostess was assisted by Mrs. F. M. Foshee, Mrs. Bama Cox, Mrs. Grady Taylor and Miss Virgin White.

Games were played, and Miss Martha Howard was awarded first prize and Master Joe Earl Gowan the second prize.



Mr. Clarence Evans of Birmingham was a visitor to Clanton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. Jim Armstrong motored down to Deatsville and spent Sunday with relatives.

Mr. W. K. Mullins of Birmingham was a visitor to Clantan Monday.

Mrs. P. D. Wilson was in Birmingham shopping Monday.

Joint Hostess For Visitor.

One of the most elaborate parties of the summer was given on last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Sam Johnson and Miss Lurline Harper entertained jointly for Mrs. Harris, their house guest, at bridge. The entire apartments were thrown together and artistically decorated with yelow and white cut flowers, bowls of these being placed in attractive places throughout the rooms. Bridge was played at five tables and at the close of a spirited game a deck of cards was presented the honor guest and Mrs. Victor Heard a similar trophy for top score. Then the hostess had each guest guess how many petals on a yellow daisy. Mrs. Luckie guessed nearest and was presented a hand-painted wall vase painted by the hostess.

Throughout the afternoon Mis Annie Mae Harper served delicious fruit punch from a prettily decorated table in the dining room. Mints were also passed during the game.

Later a delicious salad plate was served and the color scheme was further accentuated here. Enjoying this hospitality were Mesdames Harris, Guy Higgins, Grady Reynolds, Arthur Johnson, Victor Heard, McSwain Macy Jones, Carrie Mullins, Alex Richards, Watts Moore, Simpson, Alverson, N. S. Johnson, Hosea Downs, Hart, John VanDerveer, Luckie, Guy Roberts, W. K. Mullins, and Miss Leona Pipes.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson Entertains.

On last Saturday evening a number of young folks enjoyed a pretty birthday party when Mrs. Arthur Johnson was hostess to quite a crowd celebrating the birthday anniversary of Arthur and Joe Hall.

A number of juvenile games were played and the pinning on "Peter Rabbit's" tail resulted with Miss Jane Roberts winner of a nice box of candy. The table placed on the lawn, where the games were enjoyed, held the two pretty cakes holding eight and two burning tapers. A chosen color scheme of green and white was carried out. Ice cream and cake was served to thirty-five young folks who enjoyed this affair. Assisting Mrs. Johnson were Mrs. Willie Jones, Mrs. Luckie, Mrs. Grady Reynolds and Mrs. Alex Richards.

Joint Hostesses at Bridge.

The members of the Wednesday Card Club with several extra guests enjoyed a most pleasant evening on Wednesday last when Mrs. R. E.Luckie and Miss Roberta Curry were joint hostesses honoring Mrs. Fred Nelson the house guest of Miss Curry. The Curry home was effectively decorated with baskets of goldenrod and other cut flowers, carrying ont a color scheme of yellow and green. These colors were also brought out in the refreshments.

At the close of the game the honoree was presented with a box of powder. The top score was held by Mrs. John Armstrong who was presented a hand embroidered towel, while the club score was held by Mrs. Grady Reynolds and was awarded a pair of lingerie clasps. The consolation was drawn by Mrs. W. K. Mullins, a pot of asters.

Later a tempting salad plate was served. The guests of the club were Mesdames Nelson, Percy Pitts, Saxon, W. K. Mullins, H. M. Simpson, John Armstrong, Eric Hart, Earl Alverson, Hosea Downs, Alex Richards, N. S. Johnson, Grady Broadhead, Misses Maud Mullins, Louise Orr, and Kathleen Mullins.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

DISEASE GERMS LIE IN WAIT FOR YOU EVERYWHERE

No matter how strong our constitutions, everyone of us are constantly open to the dangers of the millions of deadly disease germs in the air.

There is only one real protection. That is daily use of a thoroughly antiseptic mouth wash such as Steroline As we know, most germs enter thru the mouth. Thus, if we keep our mouth in antiseptic condition, germs are allowed no foothold. Besides being the approved mouth wash, Steroline is highly recommended as a dentrifice. Being a liquid Steroline gets between the teeth, reaching the most out-of-the-way crevices, which most tooth pastes never reac. Steroline keeps your mouth cool, sweet and always fresh. Quickly heals raw and bleeding gums and sweetens the breath. Get a bottle from your druggist today. For sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton, Ala.—Adv.

PROFITS BY WHAT HER MOTHER DID

LITTLE ROCK WOMAN INDUCED TO TAKE TANLAC THROUGH PARENT'S RESTORATION.

"Tanlac restored my mother's health so perfectly that I began taking it too, and just two bottles have helped me wonderfully," said Mrs. Goldia Bird, 310 1-2 East Markham St., Little Rock, Ark.

"A short time ago I seemed to have a general break down," she continued. "My stomach became no good and I just didn't want to eat a thing. I fell off in weight and became weak and run down. My complexion was pale and sallow and my back ached so I could hardly lift my little baby. I took little or no interest in anything and was going from bad to worse.

"But I think Tanlac is just wonderful to have helped me so in such a short time. I have only finished my second bottle but I already feel like a different person. I enjoy my meals and am gaining in weight. The pains have about all gone from my back and I have been built up so I feel beter and stronger in every way. I have nothing but the highest praise for Tanlac." Tanlac is sold in the city of Clanton by Upchurch Drug Company.—Adv.

OAK HILL

We had Sunday School at the usual hour Sunday morning and preaching at eleven by the pastor, Rev. S. L. Crouch.

Our united singing society met with Jemison class at the Baptist Church and all the classes were very well represented except Collins Chapel, Dewey Benson and Miss Claudie Davis being the only ones present from that place, but they did their part in making the singing the great success that it was. Union Grove came in late, but did some fine singing. Both president and vice-president being absent on account of sickness, the class was called to order at 2:15 by E. L. Glasscock, who acted as president. After a song and prayer by Mr. J. M. Langston, the following directors were called: Leonard Glasscock, Vester Campbell, Charles Glasscock, Vernon Northcutt, E. L. Glasscock. Organists for the evening were Misses Myrtle Dorminey, Lena Glasscock, Sybil Langston, Ellen Glasscock, Elsie Robinson.

After song No. 118 was sung and prayer by Mr. C. C. Conway, the society adjourned to meet with Union Grove next Sunday at 2:00 p.m.

We invite all to come and take part with us. We are always glad to have you with us at all times. We were sorry that Prof. A. H. Glasscock could not be with us, for we missed him very much. We hope for him a speedy recovery, that he may be with us again next Sunday.

The next meeting of the Clanton Chamber of Commerce will take the nature of a Lawn Social, which will be open to the public on Thursday, September 15th. Rev. J. M. Graham of the Thorsby Institute will show moving pictures of very interesting subjects that are educative and enjoyable. It is expected that the lawn will be nicely decorated for the occasion and light refreshments served at the close. The location of the meeting will be at the residence of Mr. W. I. Mullins. Members and their wives are specially invited to this gathering. P. G. CARTER, Secy.

You'll enjoy the sport of rolling 'em with P. A.!

FIRST thing you do next—go get some makin's papers and some Prince Albert tobacco and puff away on a home made cigarette that will hit on all your smoke cylinders!

No use sitting-by and saying maybe you'll cash this hunch tomorrow. Do it while the going's good, for man-o-man, you can't figure out what you're passing by! Such flavor, such coolness, such more-ish-ness—well, the only way to get the words emphatic enough is to go to it and know yourself!

And, besides Prince Albert's delightful flavor, there's its freedom from bite and parch which is cut out by our exclusive patented process! Certainly—you smoke P. A. from sun up till you slip between the sheets without a comeback.

Prince Albert is the tobacco that revolutionized pipe smoking. If you never could smoke a pipe — forget it! You can—AND YOU WILL—if you use Prince Albert for packing! It's a smoke revelation in a jimmy pipe or a cigarette!

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of 85 and 90 years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spar emen, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.

CHILTON COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The annual convention of the Chilton County Sunday School Association was held at Messer's Chapel on Sept. 1st. Only those who have been to Messer's Chapel know how we were entertained. We were invited to come back there every year if we desired to do so.

We feel sure that everyone present received a message that was helpful and inspiring, that much good was done in this convention. We have never had an audience that was more attentive. The addresses of every speaker was great and enjoyed by everyone. We appreciate having so many ministers with us and the helpful thoughts they gave us. Reports show that our county officers, especially the President, Prof. J. L. Johnson, Adult Superintendent, J. C. Pattillo, and Chairman of the Executive Committee, Rev. Carter, did all in their power to make Chilton County a gold star, and we hope to reach it next year.

The following officers were elected:- President, Prof. J. L. Johnson, Clanton; Vice-President, Rev. E. W. Butler, Thorsby; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Della Williams, Verbena; Executive Committee, Chairman, Rev. P. G. Carter, Clanton, Mrs. W. T. Callen, Clanton, Dr. E. G. Hyman, Jemison; Division Superintendents, Elementary, Miss Addie Horsley, Jemison, Secondary, W. T. Bean, Clanton, Adult, J. C. Pattillo, Verbena, Administrative, J. L. Winslow, Thorsby; District Presidents: 1, W. J. Northcutt, Jemison; 2, F. J. Eiland, Thorsby; 3, J. D. Culp, Clanton; 4, H. A. Harris, Clanton; 5, W. A. Calloway, Verbena; 6, H. R. Oden, Lawley.

The folowing report rendered by the resolutions committee:

1. We appreciate the hospitality of the good people of Messer's Chapel and vicinity.

2. We are grateful to Brother Greene and Miss Ethel Beane for their inspirational and instructive addresses.

3. We recognize our debt of gratitude to our county officers and particularly our Secretary, for their untiring eforts not only during this convention but throughout the year.—Rev. C. P. Roberts, C. D. Messer and J. W. Davenport, Committee.

We hope for the future co-operation of every Sunday School in Chilton County, and that we may be able to have much greater results this year than last.—J. L. Johnson, President, Della Wiliams, Secretary.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

A fine congregation was present last Sunday morning which really surprised the pastor. There was also a large Sunday School attendance of 137, almost one of the records for attendance. We were delighted with the fine number present. At a call conference of the church it was decided to purchase the pews for the new building, but it should be remembered by the membership of the church who have not yet made a donation on the furniture that only about half of this money is in sight. It will take some more giving in a sacrificial way to finish paying for the pews. We will appreciate any assistance in this matter from any person who may desire to nelp us, whether members of the church or not.

Services will be held next Sunday morning and evening to which all are cordially invited.—P. G. Carter, Pastor.

There were no services at the Baptist Church in Clanton last Sunday night. The pastor, Rev. P. G. Carter, went to Verbena to fill an engagement which he had made with the Baptist church there upon invitation of the church.

SOUR STOMACH INDIGESTION

Thedford's Black-Draught Highly Recommended by a Tennessee Grocer for Troubles Resulting from Torpid Liver.

East Nashville, Tenn.— The efficiency of Thedford's Black-Draught, the genuine, herb, liver medicine, is vouched for by Mr. W. N. Parsons, a grocer of this city. "It is without doubt the best liver medicine, and I don't believe I could get along without it. I take it for sour stomach, headache, bad liver, indigestion, and all other troubles that are the result of a torpid liver.

"I have known and used it for years, and can and do highly recommend it to every one. I won't go to bed without it in the house. It will do all it claims to do. I can't say enough for it."

Many other men and women throughout the country have found Black-Draught just as Mr Parsons describes —valuable in regulating the liver to its normal functions, and in cleansing the bowels of impurities.

Thedford's Black-Draught liver medicine is the original and only genuine. Accept no imitations or substitutes. Always ask for Thedford's. E 88

THE UNION-BANNER

VOLUME IX. CLANTON, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1921 NUMBER 25.

Nominations Must be Made Before Next Tuesday

Every Community in the County Should Have a Candidate in Pretty Girl Contest

SEND IN NAMES OF YOUNG LADIES ON THE NOMINATION BLANK FOR THAT PURPOSE

Send Nominations to The Union-Banner or Mrs. Hugh Jones, Clanton, Ala., Before Next Tuesday.

When President Warren G. Harding comes to visit the city of Birmingham during the Semi-Centennial Celebration in October, it is desired to have him meet some of the beautiful and charming young women of our state. Since it manifestly would be impossible for him to see them all, the plan has been adopted to have each county in the state select a young lady to act as their county queen and special representative in the social events given for the President and in connection with other details on the program of the Centennial.

This young lady from each county is to be the real representative of the people of the county from which she comes, and all the people are to have a voice in her selection.

For the conduct of the campaign of choosing the most beautiful girl in Chilton County, the following committee of ladies has been appointed as a central committee to direct all details of the campaign: Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. W. T. Callen, Mrs. Guy Higgins, Mrs. V. J. Heard, Mrs. J. J. Pickens.

The method of conducting the campaign in Chilton County has been decided upon as follows:

The selection shall be determined upon a basis of votes received, the one receiving the highest number being declared our queen to represent us in the celebration. Votes on the contest shall be based solely upon subscriptions to The Union-Banner, and upon the coupons to be published in the paper.

A coupon will appear in every paper for the next four weeks, and will be good for the number of votes stated therein, when filled out with the name of the young lady for whom it is desired to cast the votes. Anyone may clip these coupons and vote them for anyone in the contest.

For each new subscription to the Union-Banner, paid for, cash in advance, there will be issued a coupon good for 500 votes. For each renewal of an old subscription which has not yet expired there will be issued a coupon for 250 votes. These coupons will be issued to the individual who subscribes for the paper and pays for the same, and he or she may fill in the name of the candidate desired to vote for and deposit same in the ballot box. Or if anyone should turn in a subscription for another, then the coupons will be issued to the party turning in the subscription, who may vote them for the candidate desired.

This week we publish a nomination blank in the paper which shall be used for nominations of candidates in the contest. No other nominations will be accepted by the central committee. Nominations for this contest will close on Sept. 20, at which time the central committee will meet and go over all nominations and decide which candidates shall be declared eligible to proceed into the final contest. The purpose of having this central committee pass upon the nominations is in order to assure every community in the county an equal chance to land their candidate in the final vote.

For instance, if nominations are made indiscriminately, and all nominations allowed to stand as final, we very likely would have a conflict of interests that would exclude all possibility of a community winning with their candidate. We would suppose, for illustration that Thorsby nominates three candidates and Mulberry community nominates one. If the contest runs to the end with Thorsby pulling for three candidates and Mulberry centered upon one, it stands to reason that Thorsby would not have a fair chance of putting up a winning fight for either of her candidates. When such cases as the above arise it will be the duty of this central committee to equalize the campaign by determining which candidate at Thorsby would be the strongest, and declare such one a nominee to stay in the race to the final wind-up of the contest.

The final list of nominees as decided upon by the central committee will be announced in the Union-Banner on Thursday, September 22, at which time the voting shall begin. Until that time all coupons should be saved and not voted for anyone until it is settled as to who will be the final candidates.

Every community in the county is urged to make use of the nomination blanks which appear in this week's paper. The central committee wants as many nominations as possible to select from in order that they may be able to give every community in the county a candidate in the final contest. The more nomination blanks there are for the same candidate from any community, the more certain it will make the possibility of that candidate appearing on the final list of nominations; but all nominees on the final list will be started off with one thousand votes.

This is going to be a distinct honor of which any young lady in the county may be justly proud. The lucky one who shall go to Birmingham to represent Chilton county will be introduced to the President personally and individually upon his arrival in the city, and given a place of honor in the Presidential parade. An automobile will be furnished by the Birmingham committee for her use in the parade.

The young lady will be entertained in one of the representative homes of Birmingham during her stay in the city. One of the county queens will be chosen as queen of the Semi-Centennial, and the merchants of Birmingham will give her a wardrobe to cost not less than $250.00.

The final contest to determine who shall go as Chilton County's most beautiful and popular young lady must be closed by October 12th, in order to give the fortunate one plenty of time to make all the necessary arrangements for attending.

All nomination blanks must be filled out and in the hands of the chairman of the central committee before September 20th. If the nomination blanks are sent by mail, the envelope should be marked plainly on the outside with the words "Pretty Girl Contest," and sent to either the Union-Banner or Mrs. Hugh Jones, Clanton, Ala.

By the time the final contestants are anounced by the committee, all details of voting will be arranged, and it will be anounced where votes may be deposited. It should be remembered that all coupons should be held and NOT voted until the final list of nominees is declared and published on September 22nd.

Any further information in regard to the contest will be gladly furnished by the Editor of The Union-Banner upon application from anyone interested.

Beginning to-day, Thursday, September 8th, The Union-Banner will issue the coupons for all subscriptions coming into our office. These coupons can be kept until the 22nd and then voted for any young lady whose name appears on the final list of candidates selected by the central committee.

NOMINATION BLANK

GOOD FOR 1,000 VOTES

I hereby nominate

Miss .....

Of ..... Community

to be a candidate in the Contest to determine the Most Beautiful and Most Popular Girl in Chilton County who will represent Chilton County at the Semi-Centennial Celebration in Birmingham in October.

(Signed) .....

HOW TO GET VOTES

1. The Nomination Blank Counts 1,000 Votes, which will be given to every girl who is entered in the Contest by the Central Committee on September 20th. The greater the number of Nomination Blanks there are for any one girl, the more likely will she be to get a place on the final list of Candidates to be chosen by the Central Committee. All Nominations must be in the hands of the Chairman of the Central Committee by September the 20th. Nominations should be mailed or handed to The Editor of The Union-Banner or Mrs. Hugh Jones. If sent by mail the envelope should be marked "Pretty Girl Contest."

2. Each week from now until October the 6th, there will be a coupon in The Union-Banner, which will be good for a stated number of votes when filled out with the name of the girl to be voted for and deposited in the ballot box. Coupons appearing before Sept. 22 should be saved, as they cannot be voted until the list of candidates is officially certified by the Central Comittee and published in the paper on September 22.

3. For each NEW SUBSCRIBER to The Union-Banner, a coupon for 500 votes will be issued. For each renewal of an old subscription, a coupon for 250 votes will be issued. Issuance of these coupons will begin to-day (Thursday, Sept. 8) and continue to October 12, the date when the contest closes.

Remember that all coupons must be held and CANNOT be voted until after September 22 when the list of Candidates will be published in the paper.

The young lady who has the highest number of votes on the final count October 12 will be declared the Most Beautiful and Most Popular Girl in Chilton County, and will be sent to Birmingham as Chilton County's Queen to represent the County in the Centennial, and to meet President Harding.

TARIFF LAW NOT AN ISSUE BECAUSE IT WAS CONCEDED

Opponents of the new tariff law complain that the tariff was not an issue in the last campaign. Of course it wasn't. The whole country was opposed to the Wilson-Underwood law and it was assumed naturally that a new law would be passed. Even President Wilson attempted to switch his party and to kidnap the protective tariff as a democraic policy, asserting that the world war had created new conditions. And so it really had, too, and everybody realizes today that America with her short hours, high wages and curtailed production would speedily fall victim to competing nations if allowed to continue under the Wilson-Underwood law. Indeed, so rapidly was disaster coming upon us that the emergency tariff law was passed by practically a unanimous vote of congress, many of the strong party democrats voting for it.

The truth is that today every class and element in the country is demanding protection. The agricultural interests insist upon it in order to save them from ruinous competition from Canada, South America, and Australia. The manufacturing interests want it to save them from the disaster threatening them from the work shops of Europe where men labor under forced tension for long hours. In America today there is by far a higher standard of living than in any other country on earth and it can be maintained if it really can be maintained at all, only by a tariff which really protects.—Fort Wayne News.

SQUIRREL SEASON OPEN

County Game Warden, J. L. Easterling asks us to call the attention of the people to the fact that the squirrel hunting season opens on Friday of this week. "All hunters are warned," he says, "to secure a license at the Probate office before they start hunting. The County license costs one dollar and the license for hunting out of the county is three dollars." All hunting licenses expire on Oct. 1st.

Mr. Easterling promises a strict enforcement of the State Game Laws without fear or favor for anyone.

Nominate somebody in the pretty girl contest.

Nominations in the pretty girl contest will close at noon on next Tuesday, September 20th.

Send your nomination blank, filled out, to The Union-Banner or Mrs. J. Hugh Jones, Clanton, Ala., before next Tuesday.

Every community in the county should have a candidate in the pretty girl contest. Nominate one for your community now.

Pretty girls are timid and modest of course. They will not nominate themselves in the pretty girl contest; but they would appreciate the nomination by some friend. Do it today. Use the blank printed on front page.

Clip out the coupon in this paper and save it till next Thursday when the list of pretty girl candidates will be published in the paper. After then the coupons may be voted for any of the young ladies appearing on the list as published.

There are many young ladies in Chilton County who would be glad of the honor of representing the county in the Birmingham Semi-Centennial; and likewise the people of the county would be glad of the honor such young ladies would do us as our representative in this auspicious occasion. Friends of these young ladies all over the county should see that their names are placed in nomination before next Tuesday.

If you have in mind a young lady who would make a fitting representative for Chilton County to meet President Harding in Birmingham, you should send in a nomination for her now. Don't wait for somebody else to do it. If you do it will not be done, and then you will be sorry of your neglect. If someone else does nominate her besides you, that will be all the better, giving her a better chance to win.

So far there have been only a very small number of nominations made in the pretty girl contest. Better send in the name of your favorite at once, or else the list may be closed without her name on it. Let's get busy now and give every girl a chance to win this much coveted honor. Any young lady would be proud to have her name on the list of nominees, and prouder still to be declared the most beautiful and popular young lady in Chilton County.

LINTLESS COTTON

Mr. Eddie Ward brought us a stalk of cotton last Saturday that seems to be of a peculiar variety, or else a common variety acting in a very uncommon way. There is not a thread of lint cotton in the bolls, the seed being jammed close together like chestnuts in the bur. When the bolls open the bare black seed fall out on the ground. It is a peculiar kind of cotton for some cause or other.

Oscar Bean saw the stalk hanging out in front of our office, and remarked that it was not so uncommon. He says he has found many such stalks in his field where he planted a high grade improved seed, and he says some of his neighbors have found such cotton in their fields. Oscar says he believes such stalks were caused by the dry weather conditions under which the crops grew this year.

Another man who saw the stalk said it was an old out of date variety of cotton which was frequently seen in the south before the days of improved cotton seed. This man said he once saw an old farmer plant a greater part of his land in this lintless cotton one year, so that when the bolls ripened the seed would drop out on the ground. Then they were plowed under for fertilizer for the next year's crop.

Mr. W. A. Moore of Bethsalem was in Clanton Wednesday on business. He visited The Union-Banner while in town.

George Jones, saw mill operator, of Idella, was in Clanton on business Tuesday night.

PLENTY OF MOSQUITOES

For the last few weeks we have been hearing some almost incredible reports of the great number of mosquitoes in the communities lying just east of town, and even in the eastern part of the town itself. But all our incredulity was smashed on last Sunday when we made some personal observations at the home of a family just across the creek. We found that the air was literally filled with the pests, and the mystery of it all is how people ever manage to sleep any where there are so many of the hateful things. The only thing between the people and utter desttruction is screen doors and windows, and many of those are not altogether mosquito proof.

This condition exists, so we are informed, at every home within a mile or so of town on the eastern side. We learn that one man of the infested area has made investigations that lead him to believe that the mosquitoes are breeding at the place where the city sewer system empties into the creek. We do not know if his findings are correct, but we do know that his report sounds reasonable. The creek has been practically dry all the summer. We know that for some months there has been no flow of the stream below where the sewer empties. This means of course that ther is a stagnant pond of filth at the end of the sewer. And it is a fact known to all that mosquitos do breed in such ponds.

We learn that our city authorities have taken prompt action to prevent any further crops of mosquitoes at the above mentioned place, for which they are to be commended.

But all this discussion only prefaces the main object of this article, which is again to call the attention of our citizens to the importance of the project of draining the swamps around Clanton. That matter has been hit at a time or two by a few interested citizens, but nothing definite has yet ben done. This mosquito business is one of the things we get by allowing these swamps to remain stagnant at our door.

Who wonders at millions of mosquitoes around here, when we face the fact that our city sewer has been pouring its refuse out for months past in one place from which the accumulation does not move on since the stream that is supposed to carry it away is not running at all? Why the wonder of it is that the whole town and surrounding country has not been completely devoured by them long ago.

But the emptying of the sewer is not the only place in the swamp that breeds mosquitoes. There are others, all of which should be promptly eliminated by a draining system.

A Pronounced Success.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival, and as everyone who has used it knows, it is without an equal.—Adv.

GENUINE RELIGION WILL BRING HARMONY IN CLANTON

There are several things that are essential for the building up and development of a city or community. Good schools, good public buildings, and churches, modern conveniences such as waterworks and lights help to make a city or community an attractive place in which to live, but nothing is more essential than a good supply of real genuine religion. Good buildings are beautiful to behold, but without the people to occupy them they do not justify their existence. Beautiful churches with mere forms and ceremonies may appeal to the aesthetic taste; large commercial enterprises may appeal to the ambitious man who seeks to prosper in this world's goods; but not one of these cultivate or develop the spirit of brotherhood, friendship and neighborliness that makes people want to live in a city and invest their money and their lives: There is one thing that solves this problem more than anything else—that brings the people together in harmony and unity—and that is real genuine Christian religion.

For this reason Clanton is about to enter upon a great City-Wide Evangelistic Campaign, in which all people, regardless of sect or creed will unite. All denominational differences for the time being will be laid aside, as all Christian people unite on the one common ground of brethren and sisters in Christ. Politics, we hope, will be eliminated for this period of time.

Under one great tent seating one thousand people, a soloist and musical director of nation-wide reputation will control and direct a great chorus choir of 200 voices. Under the same tent Dr. Charles P. Weigle, who preaches to thousands of people every month in the year, will deliver his heart-stirring discourses and telling sermons. He is a man who fearlessly denounces the wrong, and boldly defends the right. These are men of great experience, the like of whom Clanton has seldon, if ever, heard before.

Already enthusiasm runs high in those who have attended the preliminary meetings, and at this early date, regardless of the fact that it will be a very busy season, it is predicted that Clanton and vicinity will witness one of the greatest revivals and get-together meetings ever held in Central Alabama.

The date of this meeting is from September 25th to October 16th. By beginning to make your plans now you will be able to attend this great meeting.—P. G. Carter.

HOSPITAL COMING ALONG

Don't think just because you are not hearing much about it that the hospital proposition is waning. We have been engaged for the past week in the matter of getting the incorporation papers from the state. This matter is all fixed up and just as soon as the stock certificates can be printed the subscription list will be gone over and those who have tentatively purchased stock will make it a bona fide transaction by paying for the stock they subscribed for. When the money begins to come in the matter of selecting and purchasing a site and the erection of the building will be taken up with a view to getting it on foot at the earliest possible time.

UNDERWOOD WILL ACCEPT

Senator Underwood of Alabama will accept the place offered him by President Harding as one of America's representatives in the Disarmament Conference at Washington in November.

The Senator asserts that it is his belief that the nations to be represented at the conference will be willing to make concessions and sacrifices so that the ultimate goal may be reached of relieving the world of armaments and assuring peace to this and future generations.

Time to Face the Facts

"So much has been said against the use of patent medicines that I have had a strong prejudice against them. But after four years doctoring with six different doctors, without results, for acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, appendicits, and other ailments, I was said to possess, I was encouraged to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, seeing what it had done for a friend similarly afflicted. I also was entirely relieved of my trouble, and am sure this medicine will do all and more than is claimed for it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practiclly all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Co., and all druggists everywhere.

ADVENTIST CAMP MEETING

The camp meeting of the Seventh Day Adventists in Clanton will continue for this week, up to next Sunday. Most of the visitors from other parts of the state have gone away, but the meetings will continue with services every night, and preaching by one of the high authorities of the church. The services of the adventists have been attended by large congregations of people, and the impression created by their teachings has been very impressive. We hear much comment upon their doctrines.

DOINGS AT WASHINGTON

NOT NEEDED NOW

The way in which the Republicans of Congress are not receiving support from their Democratic colleagues in their campaign for economy is illustrated by a resolution introduced by a Senator from Texas. He would authorize the Committee on manufactures of the Senate to investigate "the practicability of establishing a bureau of manufacture at the seat of government for the purpose of studying manufacture in all its forms and diffusing information relating thereto among the people of the United States." At a time when the tendency is towards coordination of government activities, and retrenchment of expenditures wherever possible, the establishment of such a bureau would be folly. The opportunity for development of a bureau of manufacture would be almost limitless, until it would easily exceed all others in cost and personnel. Of course there would also be vast duplication of work, as the Departments of Labor and Commerce and the Federal Trade Comission are now dealing with most of the subjects that a bureau of that sort would handle.

AVE, DANTE!

Senator Samuel M. Shortridge of California is the author of a resolution authorizing the President to send a suitable communication to the King of Italy on the occasion of the six hundredth anniversary of the death of Dante, the great Italian poet. The resolution also sets aside the 14th day of September of this year as a national holiday in the United States to be known as Dante's Day.

ALL AROUND OFFICERS

Secretary of War Weeks has adopted a policy of transferring staff officers to the command of units in the field so as to familiarize each with the employment of different arms of the service. Some of the veteran generals of the war who have been on staff duty for several years are to be given command of artillery, cavalry, infantry, aircraft or other branches of the army in the field. It is believed that the change will contribute materially to the efficiency of the army as a whole.

TRANSPORTATION TAX REPEAL

Repeal of the transportation taxes provided for in the new revenue bill is looked upon by Congressman Aaron S. Kreider of Pennsylvania as the most important provision in the measure. The effect of those levies in raising freight and passenger rates discouraging shippers, and depressing industry has had a most demoralizing influence throughout the country. Mr. Kreider believes that no factor will work more for the economic rehabilitation of the nation than the relief from those taxes that the revenue bill brings. The Cngressman rendered subsantial aid by speech and vote in the passage of the measure thru the House.

CORRELATION

A Federal Purchasing Board and a Federal liquidating board have been created by Budget Director Dawes for more closely cooperating purchases and sales by the executive departments. So far as possible, standardization of purchases will be sought, and special effort will be made to "knit the purchase and sales activities of the various departmnets into a Federal business organization."

GRAIN VIA GREAT LAKES

Great Lakes barges are coming into New York City under their own power, each carrying 80,000 bushels of grain. They make the trip in less time than it takes the roads to bring similar freight from the same points of origin, and at less cost. This is the sort of competition into which the railroads have been driven by the excessive wage demand of the rail employees. Freight rates were raised, the business driven into other channels, and now the roads face disaster and those responsible for their condition face the loss of their jobs.

FAILURE

The radical demonstration of miners in West Virginia will end just as every other attempt of the irresponsible element to carry its point by force or coercion has ended. The great majority of law-abiding American citizens are not to be browbeaten by a minority of a few thousand. The policy of a few West Virginians of shooting down those who tried to stop them is no different in principle from the attempt of other organizations to carry their point by starving and freezing the population through stoppage of transportation or otherwise. One situation is as unendurable as the other, and will be just as strongly and successfully resisted.

THE BEST POSSIBLE

Congress has a wealth of tax proposals before it for consideration. When the completed law is written it will represent the composite judgment of about 350 men, and can be depended upon to be the best statute that could be framed for the good of the people as a whole.

TESTIMONY OF MR. PAGE

We have always known that the diplomatic service of the United States was thoroughly demoralized during the Wilson regime, but the extent of the demoralization has not been known until the present publication of the letetrs of Walter H. Page, former ambassador to Great Britain. In one of his letters to Col. House Mr. Page said concerning his communications to the State Department:

"What the devil do you suppose does become of the letters and telegrams that I send, from which and about which I have never had a word? As a matter of curosity I should like to know who receives them and what he does with them.'

Mr. Page's curiosity concerning the operations of the State Department were shared by a lot of people throughout the United States concerning the operation of various oother Departments during Wilson's regime. People wonder who got their letters, and what they did with them. Publication of Mr. Page's old letters will serve a number of useful porposes.

GOOD BUSINESS HARBINGER

A syndicate headed by Charles Keith of Kansas City has just purchased a tract of timber land in Oregon at a price of $7,000,000. Looks as though business men in the center of the United States have confidence in our immediate industrial future, since they are investing in a class of property that depends upon construction for its value.

BUT WILL THEY?

Republicans stood by the Wilson administration in winning the war. They voted for many appropriations they doubted the necessity for, in order to give the Wilson administration the benefit of every doubt. Now the Democrats ought to stand by the Republican administration in trying to find ways and means of paying the Democratic indebtedness.

My, how mad the Democrats are because the Republicans have provided for an $800,000,000 cut in public expenditures!

BARE BOAT CHARTERS

As rapidly as possible, the Shipping Board is abandoning the present form of agreements under which its vessels are operated by private concerns and substituting what is known as bare boat charters. Heretofore the return to the Government has been based on the profits made on the voyage, but when poor management resulted in a deficit the Government received nothing for the use of its ship. The new form of charter will provide for a specific return to the Shipping Board, based on the tonnage of the ship in question. In a few cases, where it can be shown that profitable voyages are in prospect, the profit-sharing charter may be resorted to. Already, it is stated, 42 vessels have been withdrawn from service because it was apparent that the Government would suffer further loss if they were continued under their past management. The policy will be consistently adhered to of laying up ships rather than continue them in service at a loss to the Government.

GERMANY HARD AT IT

William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen Co., on his return from a tour of Europe, warns the United States that it has a dangerous commercial competitor in Germany. "Wages in England are very much lower than they are here," he said. "Our wages are six times what they are in France or Belgium and ten times what they are in Germany. We cannot compete, of course, with such labor costs, and are out of the running so far as foreign markets are concerned. Germany is fairly teeming with activity."

Mr. Wood is only one of many who have perdicted early industrial revival of the defeated Central Power. In her defeat, Germany avoids many of the domestic problems and controversies which are delaying return to normalcy in other nations. Forced by circumstances and the reparations indebtedness, the people are getting back to work and are producing goods for sale wherever there is a purchaser to be found, prices a secondary object. A few days ago a large German mercantile establishment was started in Chicago to do both buying and selling for German account. Germany will very rapidly resume her former South American trade, and, unless checked by a protective tariff, will seriously invade the markets of the United States to the injury of our own industries.

THE INDUSTRIAL CIRCLE

Congressman Louis T. McFadden of Pennsylvania, chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee, was in charge of the bill amending the War Finance Corporation Act so as to enable credit extensions to the railroads and to farmers. In closing the debate on the measure in the House, Mr. McFadden summed up the imperative reasons for the passage of the bill in one short paragraph. "The importance of the agricultural interest is paramount in our national economic structure," said the Congressman. "It is evident that the merchants and bankers cannot pull themselves out of the hole without pulling the farmer out of the hole. It is equally true that the market for the farmers' commodities depends to a great extent upon a fully employed and prosperous commerce and industry. Commerce in this country not only depends upon the railroads for the vital element of efficient transportation, but normal operation of the railroads involves the consumption of lumber, coal, iron, and steel, and other great basic commodities. When the railroads are out of the consuming market, as they are at present, industry is inevitably stagnant and unemployment prevails. If they are in possession of funds and functioning in a normal way, they are directly among our greatest consumers, and indirectly through the large number of industrial labor affected."

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

The regular ervices of this church will be held next Sunday, beginning with Sunday School at 10 a.m., preaching services at 11 a.m., Sunbeam Bands at 4:30, Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30, and preaching at night beginning at 7:30, p.m.

The subject for the morning service will be "Getting ready for the Revival." At the night service Dr. J. T. Williams, missionary to China will preach, just prior to his departure for China where he returns to his work in the course of a few days.

At the close of the morning service the annual Church Conference will be held, when the election of officers will take place for the Sunday School and church. It is requested that a large number of the members be present for this annual conference. Everybody is invited to the preaching hour.

To those who are irregular in their attendance at the services we would remind them that loyalty to the church by their presence is essential for the building up of a great church, and a great many of our members are failing to do their duty by their absence from the services. We are delighted to have so many of the general public with us from time to time,but respectfully request a much larger representation of our own membership. We hope to have a large congregation present next Sunday morning.

STORE BURNED TUESDAY A.M.

About 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning the store of W. S. Jones at West End was destroyed by fire. The building and contents were a total loss, with no insurance carried. The building was owned by Frank Foshee.

The store of Jim Scroggins, next to the Jones store caught on fire several times, but the prompt and effective work of volunteer fire fighters with the city hose saved the building. A damage of some $250 was done to Scroggins' store by breakage water, etc.

The entire West End group of stores was threatened with destruction by the flames, and were saved only by the use of the fire hose of the city water works department.

NEW SALEM

Cotton picking seems to be all the go around here now.

On last Monday Mr. A. Bussie entertained a number of friends and his children and grand children in honor of his 66th birthday. A note together with a neat little sum of money was presented by friends and relatives. Refreshments of the most elaborate kind were served to those present, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bussie of Haden, Ala., Miss French Parker, Miss Ivy Bean, Miss Pearl Cox, Mr. Parsons of Thorsby, Mr. Leonard Bussie of Cullman, Ala., Mr. Aldridge Parker, Mr. Robert Bean, Mr. Claudie Deason and son Isaac, Mr. Terrel Bussie, Mr. Fletcher Parker, Mr. Jim Williams and the hostess.

We have Sunday School at this place every Sunday at 11 o'clock and B. Y. P. U. at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon. We invite all to come and take part with us. We are always glad to have you with us at all times.

The New Salem Social Club will meet with Mrs. Fannie Collins on the afternoon of Thursday, Set. 22. We invite everybody to come and be with us.

Mr. Hollie Jones of Pelham spent the week end with friends and relatives here.

Miss Ivy Bean spent Sunday with Miss Mattie Bean.

ANNUAL W. M. U. MEETING

The annual meeting of the W. M. U. will be held at Adams, Mt. Carmel Church, Tuesday, Set. 20, 1921. Officers are requested to bring written report of year's work. New officers for the following year will be elected. It is important for each society to be represented. Also churches with out societies expected to attend.

TWO MEN ESCAPE FROM JAIL

Wash Varden and Arnie Davenport escaped from the Chilton County jail on Saturday night. When Deputy Sheriff Curlee went into the jail to give the prisoners their supper the two men ran out by him just as the door was opened, and succeeded in making their escape.

Varden was in jail on a charge of vagrancy, for the alleged stealing of an automobile belonging to Martin Giles a few months ago. Davenport was held on a charge of vagrancy.

Davenport came back and gave up to the Sheriff. Varden is still at large, and a reward of $25 for his apprehension is offered by Sheriff Gore.

PISTOL TOTER ARRESTED

Sheriff Gore went down to Verbena Monday and arrested a negro named B. J. Rucker, on a charge of carrying concealed pistol. He was brought to Clanton and put in jail.

Mrs. F. M. Roberts and mother, Mrs. Dupree, of Montgomery, returned home last Friday after spending several days with relatives here.

FINE POTATOES

Dudley Collins has brought The Union-Banner a couple of fine sweet potatoes that weigh about four or five pounds each. He says the potato yield has been cut short by the dry weather. Upon digging into them he seys it is found that each hill contains from one to two potatoes.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

The public school here opened on Tuesday morning at 9 A. M.. There was a large attendance for the first day, and we have a splendid outlook for one of the best years in the history of the school. The teachers for this year are Prof. J. L. Harris, Principal, Bertha Littleton, intermediate and Mrs. J. L. Harris, primary department.

Mr. Frank Nelson is spending a few days in Thorsby this week.

Mr. C. R. Foss and C. E . Lucas made a business trip to Birmingham Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Adams left Monday morning for Birmingham where they will reside in future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. M. Bosworth are being congratulated upon the arrival of a baby boy, whom they have named Thomas Leonard Marion.

Misses Agnes and Ruth Gerald motored to Montgomery Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gerald of Clanton.

On last Friday night Beatrice and Walter Johnson entertained a few young people at their home. Music and rook was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Anna and Inga Erdahl, Agnes Gerald, Esther Johnson, Naemi Turnquist, and Mrs. Thomsen; Messrs. Martin Nelson, W. M. Parnell, H. V. Thomsen, Clyde Meade, and Mr. Lander.

A number of students have arrived for school, and they are still coming in on every train. Thorsby looks real lively. We hope for a very successful year.

Mrs. E. H. Adams and children are visiting relatives in Birminghtm this week.

Miss Alpha Bentley of Birmingham spent a few days here last week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E . N. Bentley.

Miss Ruth Gerald returned Saturday night from Birmingham where she has been attending Wheeler Business College. Miss Gerald will have charge of the business department of Thorsby Institute this year.

Those who are interested in the Beauty Contest are asked to see Mrs. E. N. Bentley, who has been appointed by Mrs. S. E. Norton, who was to have taken charge of this district.

FOR SALE—Several good second hand doors and windows.—J. Hance Alred, Clanton, Ala.

Hear the Choral Society Sunday afternoon at the Lutheran Church, at 3 o'clock. Please note that the time has been set for the afternoon instead of at night as was announced in last week's paper. This change was made on account of the fact that there will be religious motion pictures at the Congregational Church on Sunday night, and in order that there might be no conflict, the Choral Society decided to render their program in the afternoon. The public is invited to attend this program, which promises to be a real treat to lovers of good music.

The following program will be rendered:

Hymn.
Psalm 24 by Wennerberg, choir.
Vocal solo, Agnes Gerald.
Invocation, Mr. Benson.
Vocal solo, Esther Johnson.
Vocal duet, "Teach Me to Pray," Misses Gerald and Turnquist.
Vocal solo, Agnes Leary.
Anthem, choir.
Remarks, J. S. Benson.
David's Psalm No. 84, Wennerberg, Choir.
Vocal solo, J. S. Benson.
Psalm No. 150, Wennerberg, by the choir.
Hymn, congregation.

It being Mr. Benson's last Sunday in Thorsby, this has been arranged as a sort of a farewell service for him.

UNION GROVE NEWS

We had Sunday school last Sunday morning at the usual hour and preaching at eleven by the pastor, Rev. W. P. Lowery, who delivered an able sermon that was listened to with great interest by all present. Brother Lowery has served us faithfully for the past nine years, and his work has been a success. Yet we have to say sadly that the summer is ended and we are not all saved. Oh what a sad thought it is to contemplate being forever lost. And how sweet is the thought to Christians that the end of their way is peace, life and joy eternal.

But we do not have to wait till the end of the way to get joy. We may have joy and peace which surpasses all knowledge in this life. As an instance of this joy, our hearts were made to rejoice as we were permitted to sit and listen to the beautiful songs by the class known as the United Singing Society which met in regular session at this place Sunday evening. The singing was very sweet and everybody behaved nicely. There was a large crowd. We had with us in addition to our regular directors two visiting singers, Prof. J. L. Harris, and Herbert Lowery, who like all the other singers present, did their very best. The class made up of men and women, boys and girls, ranging from the ages of six to sixty, made it one of the best singings we ever had. We regret very much that both our President and Vice-President, Mr. R. S. Chandler and Prof. A. H. Glasscock, were still on the sick list and could not be with us. We hope for them a speedy recovery, as we miss them a great deal.

The closing song was sung by Prof. Harris, who acted as President, the song being that good old hymn, "Bless be the Tie that Binds Our Hearts in Christian Love," followed by a short prayer by our good Brother W. H. Conway. The society adjourned to meet with Collins Chapel next Sunday at 2:00 P. M. We insist that everyone go who possibly can, as we are expecting some more fine singing. We believe we have one of the best classes in the county. Come and be with us.

Mr. Lincoln Newman and mother of Birmingham, en-route to Tampa, Fla., for the winter months, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Branch in Clanton Tuesday.

RETURNED SOLDIER TO BE BURIED AT SAMARIA TO-DAY.

The body of Private Grover L. Hand, of Co. B, 313th Infantry, arrived in Clanton Wednesday morning and was carried by Undertaker J. M. Martin, to the home of his father, Robert C. Hand. The body was accompanied by Private Clarence L. Guthrie from Fort McPherson, at Atlanta, Ga. At the time Private Hand entered the army he was a resident of Elmore County, his father coming here from Titus a little over a year ago.

The body of the returned soldier will be buried at Samaria at two o'clock this afternoon (Thursday). The funeral will be preached by Rev. P. G. Carter of Clanton. The pall bearers will be made up of ex-service men.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT LIBERTY

On the third Sunday in September there will be held at the Liberty Hill Baptist Church, a Baptist Sunday School Convention for the Baptist Schools of this District.

We are going to try to have Mr. S. P. Moore, the State worker, with us. He is an able lecturer and it will be a treat for the people of that community and the schools of this District to hear him. Other numbers will be prepared for the day.

The following Baptist Sunday Schools are requested to send three delegates, each for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization: Clanton, Cane Creek, Refuge, Friendship, Concord, Mt. Zion, Poplar Springs, Maple Springs, Samaria and Liberty Hill.

J. L. JOHNSON.

ALABAMA EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

The last meeting of the Alabama Education Association was decidedly the largest ever held in the history of the state. The executive committee is putting forth every effort to make the next meeting a still larger and better one.

Dr. T. W. Palmer, President, Montevallo, and Mr. H. G. Dowling, Secretary, Cullman, have called a meeting of the executive committee at the Tutwiler Hotel, Birmingham, at 8:00 P. M., September 23, and have invited educators from every county in the state to attend this meeting to offer suggestions for the program for the next annual meeting. At the same time the place of the next meeting will be decided upon. Cities desiring to entertain the convention will have the opportunity of extending the invitation at this time.

The inviting of educators to confer with the etxecutive comittee about the future program is something unique in educational work in Alabama; however other states are considering adopting this plan.

It is hoped that every county in the state will have representatives at this meeting on the 23rd to talk over freely with the executive committee subjects that should be discussed at the next anual meeting which will be held some time in April.

The other members of the executive committee are Miss Lula Bradford, Birmingham; J. Alex Moore, of Jasper; Miss Mary Skinner, Talladega; T. W. Smith, Tuscaloosa; Dr. E. M. Shackelford, Troy; and Frank L. Grove, Mobile.

CORINTH SINGING SOCIETY.

We met last Sunday afternoon, and after a song by A. L. Robinson, and prayer by W. A. Jones, the committee arranged the directors as follows: A. L. Robinson, Adelbert Norris, N. J. Jones; recess ten minutes. Directors after recess were A. M. Jones, E. F. Taylor, Archie Jones, singing three songs each. Organists for the afternoon were Mrs. Lola Jones, Ora Manning, Vallie Howard. We had quite a number of visitors with us, and want to thank them for their presence and help, and ask you to come back again. We were dismissed with prayer by E. L. Jones.

TOY WILLIAMS TO PREACH

Friends of Rev. J. Toy Williams in Clanton and vicinity will be glad to learn that they shall have one more opportunity to hear him preach before he returns to China to take up his missionary work. He will preach at the Clanton Baptist Church next Sunday night.

THREATENED FIRE SUNDAY

Preaching services at the Clanton Baptist Church were interrupted last Sunday morning by messenger bearing the news that the home of Mr. H. S. Shaw was on fire. Mr. Shaw, who was at the church, together with the other men of the congregation, rushed out and sped to is home in their automobiles. The fire had been extinguished before the men reached the house, and they all returned to the church to hear Brother Carter finish the fine sermon he had begun.

The fire at the Shaw home broke out in the clothes closet, destroying quite a lot of the family wearing apparel before discovered and extinguished.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of 85 and 90 years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spar emen, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.

NEW WAY TO PUT ON FIRM FLESH

Thousands of weak, thin, pale and sickly people are now quickly putting on solid flesh and regaining rugged health and strength in an entirely new way.

This way is by taking vitamines into their systems. Vitamines are a mysterious living substance, found to be absolutely necessary for perfect daily health. But most of our foods are lacking in them—that is why so many of us become thin and run down.

Yeast has been found to contain billions of vitamines and is bringing incredible results in putting on good flesh and muscles on thin people. No need to eat yeast cakes—simply take ironized yeast tablets, containing iron and highly concentrated brewer's yeast, the most efficient form of yeast. Pleasant to take—brings quick results.

Sold and highly recommended by Upchurch Drug Co. Special directions for children.

THE UNION-BANNER

VOLUME IX. CLANTON, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1921 NUMBER 26.

PRETTY GIRL CONTEST NOW OPEN FOR CASTING OF VOTES

The nominations for the Pretty Girl Contest closed on Tuesday, at which time the central committee in charge of the contest met and canvassed the list. It was decided by the committee that all young ladies who had been nominated be retained on the list of candidates. This action was taken on account of the fact that the number nominated was not very large.

The following is the list of the young ladies who have been certified as entered in the contest. Each one is started off with one thousand votes.

Miss Roberta Curry, Clanton 1,000
Miss Jennie Robinson, Thorsby..1,000
Miss Inga Erdahl, Thorsby 1,000
Miss Agnes Gerald, Thorsby 1,000
Miss Lena Downs, Clanton, ...1,000
Miss Mildred Smith, Mulberry..1,000
Miss Florence Foshee, Coopers..1,000
Miss Blossom Crumpton, Mapv...1,000
Miss Mildred Schuter, Stanton..1,000

The contest is now open for voting and anyone who has ballots can write the name of the young lady of their choice on the ballot and deposit same in ballot box. There is a box at the Upchurch Drug Store and one at The Union-Banner office. People in Clanton who cast votes in this contest should deposit ballots in these boxes. People in other towns and communities should either bring their ballots and place them in one of these boxes, or if not convenient to come, should mail them to the Editor of The Union-Banner or Mrs. Hugh Jones, at Clanton.

It will be noted that each coupon bears a date which limits the time in which that ballot must be placed in the box. All ballots heretofore printed in the paper or issued for subscriptions must be in the box not later than next Thursday, Sept. 29th.

The commitete will count the votes each week from now until the close of the contest, and the standing of the candidates will be published each week in the paper.

Remember that there is a coupon printed in each issue of the paper that is good for a stated number of votes. Clip these coupons and fill in the name of the young lady you want to vote for and depo..it them in the ballot box at once so they will be sure to get in the count before the date of their validity expires.

Each new subscriber to The Union-Banner for one year will be given a coupon good for 500 votes. Each renewal of an old subscription will be given a ballot good for 250 vtes.

The race is now started. Friends of the young ladies named above should get busy and do their best to land their favorite one at the top of the list when the contest closes on October 12th.

MR. HAND THANKS FRIENDS

Mr. Robert C. Hand has requested The Banner to extend his thanks and appreciation to those who were so kind in assisting him and his family in the burial of his son, Grover C. Hand, whose body was returned from France last week.

LAWN SOCIAL OF CLANTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

On last Thursday night the Clanton Chamber of Commerce departed from the ordinary routine of business meetings and held a lawn social at the spacious grounds in front of the residence of Mr. W. I. Mullins. It was a very interesting meeting, and because of its novelty, it was none the less appealing to those who were in attendance. The attendance was not as large as was expected, owing to a fine shower of rain that came about an hour before the time for the meeting.

Dr. James M. Graham of Thorsby was on hand with his moving picture machine, and exhibited some very interesting slides showing scenes on the Colorado Plateau. In addition to the pictures exhibited by Dr. Graham, addresses were made by Dr. V. J. Gragg, President of the Chamber of Commerce and Mayor of Clanton, Probate Judge L. H. Reynolds, and Mr. W. W. Fox. These men made short addresses that were pointed with interest to their hearers.

It was an open night to the public, and many of the members of the Chamber of Commerce took advantage of the occason to bring their wives and familes out. At the close of the program five gallons of Mr. J. M. Nix's delicious ice cream was successfully done away with.

The spirit of this meeting attested the fact that the Clanton Chamber of Commerce is still in a flourishing condition, and is doing all it can for the good and upbulding of Clanton. The expressions on the part of those present at the meeting was an evidence that they had enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

Services were held as usual Sunday at this place. Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. and B.Y.P.U. at 7:00, p.m.

Next Sunday is regular preaching day, when Rev. W. P. Lowery of Thorsby will preach at 11:00 a.m. and at 8:00 p.m. The Friendship Singing Society will meet at 2:00, p.m. All singers and lovers of music are urged to come and participate.

New officers and teachers will be elected for the Sunday School next Sunday immediately following school. So all members of the church and Sunday School are especially urged to come and take part in this service, which is the business of all the members of the church. The interest seems to be growing rather low in this all-important work, which should not be the case at all. The Sunday School is one of the most if not the most important auxiliaries to the church, and it should not be allowed to suffer for lack of attendance and interest. So everybody turn out Sunday on time.

Mr. E. J. Rawlinson of Pleacher has bought the home of Mr. H. S. Shaw on Fifth Street, West, and will move here as soon as he can get possession of the property. Mr. Rawlinson is moving to Clanton for the convenience of his daughter, who is one of the teachers in the Clanton Grammar School this year. We are glad to have this good family numbered among the vitizens of our town.

Rother Harris, son of Ex-Sheriff H. A. Harris, has gone back to the University of Alabama to take up his third year's work.

A Little Talk to the Merchants of Clanton

But Anybody Who Wants to May Take Down Their Receiver and Listen to What We Say—It's No Secret.

The Democrats in Chilton County eat victuals and wear clothes just like other folks do, and if you want to sell them anything, you better put an ad in The Chilton County News and let them know. This is their paper. They put it out and they have plenty of sense to know how to patronize the man who patronizes them. Smoke that!—The Chilton County News last week.

If the above is to be taken as the way The Chilton County News feels about the matter of store advertising by the merchants of Clanton, then we might turn the proposition around and see how it would sound when put in the language of The Union-Banner:

The REPUBLICANS in Chilton County eat victuals and wear clothes just like other folks do and if you want to sell THEM anything, you had better put an ad in THE UNION-BANNER and let them know about it. This paper belongs to the Republicans of Chilton County. They have built it up by their support, and they have plenty of sense to patronize the man who patronizes them. NOW SMOKE THAT, you Democratic merchants of Clanton who are depending for a large part, upon Republican trade for a living.

But we consider both the above statements as irrelevant evidence. The only reason we mentioned them at all was just in order for you to know how they would sound when "blowed" side by side. We shall leave that for you to ponder over, and very likely most of you will think that neither one of these brilliant gems of thought should have lived long enough to emerge from their swaddling clothes. But read on below and you will get the meat of our thoughts on the subject of advertising by the stores of Clanton.

The best advice which The Union-Banner can give to the merchants of Clanton is for them to do their very best to sell their goods to both Democrats and Republicans, treating them all alike, fair and square, regardless of politics. If you must put an ad in The Chilton County News to get the Democrats to trade with you, put it there; if you must put your ad in The Union-Banner to get the Republicans to trade with you, put it there. There never has been a merchant in Clanton who advertised too much, and we don't expect ever to see any of them do it. The Union-Banner invites the merchants of Clanton, both the Democrats and Republicans (and even Socialists, if there be any) to advertise their business in our paper, because we know it will pay you to do so. Then if you want to advertise in The News too, that is with you and them. The more advertising you do, the more business you will get. That is a fact that has become a law with all men who have made a success in business.

There are 27 stores in Clanton which are owned by Democrats and 10 which are owned by Republicans. Of the trade that comes to Clanton from the surrounding territory, about 60 per cent is done by Republicans and about 40 per cent by Democrats. Therefore we fancy it would suit the Republican stores in Clanton very well if the people who trade in Clanton should decide to trade only with stores of their own political faith. But we doubt if such an arrangement would be very satisfactory to the Democratic store-keepers. The Democratic merchants of Clanton especially would do well to keep politics out of their business dealings.

If there is a merchant in Clanton who is so politically perverted that he wants only the trade of people who agree with him in politics, we say that the sooner he goes busted and gets out of the way, the better it will be for our town. Such a fellow would be a parasite in any town and would be obnoxious to everybody who has any degree of fairminded business progress.

If there is any Democratic merchant in Clanton who does not want Republicans to come to his store and trade with him, we would be glad to advertise the fact for such merchant free of charge. It would be interesting to see how short a time it would take for such a policy to put him out of business entirely.

There are no doubt some merchants in Clanton who will not put an ad in a Republican paper, asking the readers of that paper to come into their stores and trade with them. We have been here long enough to know that, and hence are not at all surprised to see their ads in the first issue of a Democratic paper. But listen! If you ever hear one of them make the statement that he DOES NOT WANT Republicans to trade with him, we will give you a brass button. We have been here a good while, and we have never heard one of them dare such a statement.

Merchants of Clanton, we say again, do your best to get all the trade you can. Put your advertisement in The Union-Banner so that the Republicans will be sure to know that you appreciate their trade. Put your advertisement in The News so that the Democrats will feel the same way towards you. If you will do this, you will find that you will come out better when you count up your sales at the end of the year. And we can assure you now it will be much more pleasant for you than it will be if you undertake to mix politics with your business dealings with the people of this county.

That's all for this time.
We hope to see you again next week.

THE CITY WIDE EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

The arrangements for this great Evangelistic Campaign are now nearing completion. A tent 40 feet by 100 feet will be pitched on the lot owned by Mr. T. A. Curry and kindly donated for this purpose about one block and a half west of the Wilson Hotel. The lot has a nice sloping grade making it ideal for the seating arrangements, and is far enough away from the railroad to be free from the noise of the trains. It is the only place suitable with the size of the tent, and is geographically almost in the center of the town. The tent will seat about 700 people. A platform will be erected to accommodate a choir of 200 voices. The campaign will be opened next Sunday morning at 11 a. m. by Dr. Charles P. Weigls a great evengelist and preacher, and Mr. C. P. Curry the great soloist and musical director of many years experience. The campaign in an effort on the part of all the churches and Christian people of the community to secure a great religious awakening and revival of the people of Clanton and vicinity, and we believe that with their cooperation Clanton will experience one of the greatest revivals in all its history. The tent will be well seated and well lighted, and we earnestly invite everyone who can to attend the meeting. Prayer meetings are being held each afternoon at 4:30 p. m. in the churches.

Thursday the meeting will be held at the Methodist Church and Friday at the Baptist church to which all are cordially invited. Let us work and pray together that a great revival may come.

P. G. CARTER.

COMMITTEE FOR EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

The following names have been added to the different committees for the revival compaign that were not announced last week: Finance Committee, Mr. C. Fenn Jones and Mrs. N. S. Johnson. Prayer Meeting committee, Mrs. Askins. Religious Census Committee, Mrs. L. F. Gerald and Mrs. Leo VanDerveer, music committee, Miss Madeline Orr and Miss Keith. Those named above can ascertain their part on these committees by getting in touch with the respective chairmen of the different committees which are as follows: Prayer meeting chairman, Mrs. J. A. Hester, Music committe chairman Mrs. Armstrong, Finance committee chairman Mr. J. C. Page, Religious census committee chairman Mrs. E. E. Upchurch or Miss Bettie Mullins. These appointments have been made by the nominating committee.

OFFICERS CHARGED WITH MURDER

Montgomery, September 20.—W. S. Knox and W. A. Crow, state law enforcement officers are held in the Elmore county jail at Wetumpka on charges of murder as a result of the killing of Lee Paunton, white, and the serious wounding of Oliver Dewitt, white, in a fight six miles from Eclectic Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cox are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Fulgham, in Montgomery.

1,791 BALES COTTON GINNED IN CLANTON ALREADY THIS YEAR

General Opinion is That Half of this Year's Crop has been Ginned

The Editor of The Union-Banner on Tuesday visited the three gins in Clanton with the purpose of obtaining reliable figures on the cotton crop for this year. We found that the total number of bales ginned here was 1,791 up to Tuesday at noon.

Mr. A. D. Maddox of the Clanton Mill and Gin Company stated that their gin had ginned 625 bales. The total number they ginned last year was 1,700 bales. Mr. Maddox stated that he believed his gin would go to 1,200 bales this season.

Mr. J. Q. Wade stated that he has already ginned 500 bales this year, and that he believed the total crop was not more than half ginned yet. He says he believes there is going to be more cotton produced than the farmers expected a while back.

Mr. W. L. Popwell. Manager of the Planters Gin and Warehouse Company gave us the number of bales ginned at his gin this year as 666. Last year during the whole season this gin ginned 1,635 bales. Mr. Popwell stated that up to this time last season his gin had ginned only 127 bales.

When asked as to his opinion about what percentage of the crop had been ginned this year up to date, Mr. W. I. Mullins, also of the Planters Gin and Warehouse Company, stated that he thought it safe to say that sixty per cent of the crop was already ginned.

A trip out into the country Monday afternoon, and a glance at some of the cotton fields along the road gave us the opinion that most of the cotton where we went had been picked. And we hear some reports from different places to the effect that the fun is about all over so far as cotton is concerned for this year.

Victor Marcus of Birmingham is spending his vacation in Clanton this week. Vic is at work for the Standard Oil Company.

SYRUP MAKING TIME

The farmers over the county are now engaged in the making of sorghum syrup. Reports reaching us say that the syrup yield is short owing to the dry weather.

CLANTON LOST FIRST GAME

The Chilton County High School foot ball team lost the opening game of the 1921 season here last Friday when the eWtumpka elven put it over them by a score of 3 to 0.

A Pronounced Success.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival, and as everyone who has used it knows, it is without an equal.—Adv.

Why not wish for a shower of kerosene to destroy the mosquitoes? It seems that we could come about as near getting that as we have to getting a decent rain of the ordinary acquatic kind this summer.

A CONVINCING ARGUMENT

If the vast army of mosquitoes which is infesting the swamps round about Clanton does not convince us that the swamps hereabouts ought to be drained, we do not know what argument it would take. When a company of these pests begin to drill for oil upon a man's carcass, it usually causes him to think soberly after he has exhausted his epithetic vocabulary.

THE JOHNSON DRUG STORE

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Johnson Drug Co., in this paper. This is the new drug store of Dr. Arthur Johnson, where every effort is being made to render the very best service to the trade. Dr. Johnson insists that people who trade in Clanton come to his new store and sample the quality of his goods and the service of his selling force. He has associated with him Mr. Leonard Farley and Mr. Chester Mims, both of whom are good fellows and as olite as the proverbial basket of chips.

ANOTHER NEW HOME

It seems that everybody in Clanton who gets a notion to build a new home selects property on North Eighthe Street. The latest addition to the list of residences in this popular section of town was begun on Monday morning when carpenters started to work on the new house of Mr. H. S. Shaw, at the corner of Eighth Street on Sixth Avenue. Mr. M. D. Foshee has just recently completed a handsome new house in this neighborhood; Judge Reynolds is just now putting the finishing touches on his nice new bungalow; work began last week on the new home of Mr. O. M. Carter; this week the Shaw residence has begun; and in a short while Mr. Grady Reynolds will begin work on his new house at the corner of 8th Stheet and 5th Avenue; and there is a possibility that the new Central Alabama Hospial building will be located at the junction of Ninth Street and Seventh Avenue.

THE CHILTON COUNTY NEWS

"The Chilton County News," is the name of a new Democratic weekly newspaper that has been started in Clanton. W. B. Corley, formerly editor of the old Clanton Press, is the editor of The News. Prof. J. L. Johnson, Principal of the Clanton Grammar School, is the business manager of the new paper. According to the announcement of the publishers in their first issue published last Thursday, the paper will be democratic in all things.

WE NEED MORE BUILDINGS

The need of more buildings in Clanton has reached an acute stage. This need applies to houses for business as well as for residences. During the war period practically all building activities ceased, and the resumption since the war has not been sufficient to met the needs.

We know of four instances in the last two weeks in which parties came to Clanton seeking business locations, but could not find houses available. It seems to us that now is an ideal time for property owners in Clanton to develap the same with buildings suited for store purposes. They could be rented before they are completed.

While there are quite a number of residences being built, there is a need for still more. Clanton has never stopped growing for a single day. Every step has been forward, and we ought to have a building boom right now to step out ahead of the demands that are being made by people who want to come here to live and do business.

AMERICAN LEGION IN CLANTON

Rayomnd Marcus says that it is a shame that the ex-soldiers of Clanton have not got a better organized post of the American Legion, and we heartily agree with him. He has assumed the task of putting some real pep into the organization and we hereby offer him our support in his undertaking. There is a work to be done in this respect, not only for the ex-soldiers themselves, but for the people as well. We hope everybody will encourage this organization of the soldiers, and that we may soon see a real active American Legion Post in Clanton.

Mrs. J. Q. Wade has returned from Hendersonville, N. C. where she spent the past month. She carried her son James to a sanitarium for treatment, and reports his condition much improved. On this trip Mrs. Wade took occasion to stop at Spartanburg, S.C. to look over the Textile Industrial Institute. This school is one of the most interesting things in the South, the plan of its operation being novel one. Next week we shall publish Mrs. Wade's story of her visit to this school.

OUR ABSURD ARGUMENT

One of the most absurd and unfounded claims ever put seriously before the public is the published charge that President Harding deliberately played a shrewd trick on the Democrats in Congress by designating Senator Underwood, the minority leader, to be a member of the American delegation to the Disarmament Conference.

The abusrdity of that claim is shown by the President's taking at the same time, Senator Lodge, the leader of the Republican majority in the Senate, for the same service. If the Democratic party was greatly weakened by removing Senator Underwood from the Senate to the Disarmament Conference room, how much was the Republican party weakened by the transfer of Senator Lodge? If it was a political trick to get Underwood out of the Senate while important legislation was pending, what was the trick behind the ousting of Lodge from the Senate?

These criticisms of the President for appointing Senator Underwood and of Senator Underwood for accepting the appointment, curiously enough, emanate from three sources, the Louisville-Courier Journal, the New York World and David H. Lawrence, the well known newspaper syndicate writer. The World, the Courier-Journal and Mr. Larence have one interest and one record in common—each not only supported the League of Nations but each vigorously advocated the methods adopted by President Wilson in helping to secure its approval by the Senate.

The incidents which marked the progress of the fight for and against the League are so recent that they must be fresh in the minds of newspaper readers. First, and his decision bears upon the present argument, President Wilson determined not to appoint any member of the Senate to a place on the American delegation. Every delegation previously sent to foreign shores to negotiate treaties contained members of the Senate. Presidents who were in the executive chair prior to the administeration of President Wilson had named representatives of the Senate upon delegations for the negotiating of treaties. It had proved to be a wise custom; the Senate could destroy any treaty by merely withholding from it a two-third vote. Former Presidents who had recommended treaties to the Senate found it reassuring to have two or three Senators on the floor who had helped to form the treaty which they had helped to make.

The Senate, which had the right to ratify or reject treaties, came to regard participation in treaty-making as its right. When President Wilson determined to name a delegation of men with minds "which ran along with his," declined to put any Senator, Democratic or Republican upon it, he established a precedent. This was one of several precedents—breaking an old custom, is to be judged as to policy by its results. After the rejection of the treaty of Versailles by the Senate, after the bitter controversy in Congress upon it, and after the Democratic party had been turned out of power in a campaign in which he controversy loomed large, the calm dispassionate judgment of history, records that in its practical results the decision of President Wilson was mistaken. If he had called into conference any Democratic Senator in whom he had confidence, that Senator would have urged him not to make that mistake. If he were a patriotic, unselfish man, that Senator would have said to the President: "By all means name a Senator. Don't appoint me—that's not the question. But by all means put a Senator or two of them on the delegation."

The Republicans, it will be recalled, raised the refusal of the President to name a Senator to the Paris Conference to the dignity of a political issue, both in the controversy in the senate and in the controversy in the Presidential campaign. President Harding, by his own stand and by the stand of his colleagues, was morally pledged to name a representative of the Senate on any delegation which was to negotiate a treaty.

He is but doing and doing in a dignified way what he and his associates in the Republican party declared should be done, promised should be done were they returned to power. His act in selecting both the Republican and Democratic leaders as representatives to the Disarmament Conference was a natural tactful way of fulfilling the promise which he had made.

Nor could Senator Underwood, with justice to the country or the President, decline to serve. The call to service was commanding; no man summoned to the responsibility of serving his people and the world in so large a way could decline to accept the distinction and the labor.

We fear that the World, the Courier-Journal and Mr. Lawrence have their faces turned too much to the rear and to old controversies. They had declared that President Wilson's way was the right way. Notwithstanding the disaster to the Versailles treaty and to the Democratic party they still insist that his was he right way. But they are querelous—not convincing.—The Montgomery Advertiser.

"MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE."

"Millions now living will never die." "Who ever heard of such a thing? It is preposterous," you will say. So the scoffers said to Noah: they had never seen rain. But the flood came on due time. "Millions now living will never die," but will enjoy unending human life on earth and ascend a highway of righteousness to full perfection of the body, of mind, of character, in company with their loved ones returned from the grave. When the kingdom of God is fully established mankind will have no more fear of sickness or accident, old age or death; no more dread of loss of home or loved ones or livelihood; no more sorrow or tears.

"Millions now living will never die." You may be one of them. Go hear the proof of these marvelous tidings. Testimony upon testimony, evidence upon evidence, Biblical history, scientific—appealing to your reason as well as to your heart—will be presented without cost in the lecture by a speaker at Mars Hill Church four miles west of Jemison on next Sunday, September 25th, 1921.—Adv.

CLYDE THOMAS PAYS WITH HIS LIFE FOR KILLING YOUNG GIRL

The first legal hanging to occur in Bibb County took place last Thursday at the county jail in Centerville, when Clyde Thomas, a negro, convicted of the murder of a young white girl, was hanged. The morning train from Tuscaloosa which arrived there about 8 o'clock, brought the doomed man, who was in charge of Sheriff R. Huey Wood and guarded by about 100 soldiers proceeded from the depot to the county jail. The crowd from the surrounding country did not exceed 750 persons and many of those were from adjoining counties. There was no disorder, no hitch to the programme incident to the hanging, and barring the accidental discharge of a machine gun, there was not the least excitement.

At 10 o'clock the trap was sprung. His neck was broken, and within 13 minutes three attending physicians pronounced Thomas dead.

The crime for which Clyde Thomas was hanged was committed near Randolph, Bibb County, some weeks ago, when he choked to death Annie Lee Wallace, a white girl. He finally confessed to the crime, was indicted, tried and sentenced by the jury to hang. He was convicted on August 17th.

The condemned man was ordered to jail in Birmingham and he has been at that place since his conviction until last Thursday, when he was hung. Colonel Bear had charge of the military escort.

VERBENA SOCIAL NEWS

A dance was given Friday night by S. L. Gibson at the Verbena Hotel. The Tisdale Band from Montgomery furnished music. There was a large number of visitors from the adjoining towns that attended the dance.

Some of the ladies who have been staying here have moved out to their new homes on the River.

Our "college crowd" of boys and girls left town last week to pursue their studies.

Verbena has for a long time been lagging behind, but it is growing fast now. There are two new stores, a cafe and another store being built.

School News

School opend Wednesday morning, September 7. A large number of patrons were present with an enrollment of 160 pupils. We have five teachers this year, and carry as high as tenth grade.

The following names make up our faculty: W. E. G. Sutton, Principal; Miss Lena Franklin, Assistant teacher; Miss Lewis, teacher of 5th and 6th grades; Miss McLeod, teacher of 3rd and 4th grades; and Mrs. John Ward, primary teacher.

Another room has been added to our building.

Our school news failed to appear last week, because the tenth grade reporter forgot to send it in.

Two schools, Evergreen and Shady Grove, have consolidated with this school. Mr. Calvin Jones, Mr. Frank Patterson, and Mr. Joseph W. Mims drives the wagons from these schools.

The ninth grade conducted chapel exercises Tuesday morning.

During the past few days we have been hearing of some rumors to the effect that trouble was brewing between the negroes and white people of Clanton. We do not know how far this has gone or how serious the matter has become. But we would like to suggest that race trouble is a dangerous business, and we hope Clanton may be fortunate enough to avoid it in future as we have been able to do in the past.

Much Suffering Caused by Waste Products in the Blood

What Science Knows About the Matter and How It Is Best Treated.

The blood is more important than any of the organs. It is thru the blood that the whole human body is directly or indirectly nourished. The blood gets its nourishment from the intestines. The intestines also contain waste products — undigested foods, acids, gases and refuse, which sometimes get in the blood.

When waste products get in the blood, nature will strive to cast them out. If your resistance is strong enough, nature will probably succeed. But if you are "below par," weak, run-down, and nervous, nature will begin to show signs of distress.

As a result, you will have that feeling of fatigue. You will lack the energy you need for the day's duties and pleasure. Minor ailments will begin to affect you—pimples, black heads, and boils.

If the waste products are not gotten out of the blood at this point, it is possible a more serious skin eruption or disease will begin to show itself.

It is not infrequent for waste products to settle in the muscles and joints and cause rheumatism.

Listen to nature's warning. Your blood is your fountain source of energy—therefore keep your blood rich and pure.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by relieving you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles — skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality.

Get S. S. S. at your druggist. Beware of substitutes. Write Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., D-720 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. for special medical advice (without charge). He is helping people every day to regain their health and strength. Ask him to send you his illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free. S. S. S. is sold by all drug stores.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS HOLD SUCCESSFUL MEETING

The Alabama Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists has just held its annual camp meeting in the beautiful grove in north Clanton owned by Mr. F. A. Gulledge of Verbena. Nearly forty tents were pitched in the grove. A large pavillion in which most of the public services were held occupied the front portion of the grounds. There were separate tents for the young people and children, also a large dining tent where splendid meals were served three times a day on the cafeteria plan.

The grounds were well lighted by electricity and a good water supply was laid on; both of these from the Clanton electric plant and waterworks. The family tents were occupied by campers who came from all parts of the state to attend the annual Conference session. Besides ministers from our own state there were a number of leading ministers from other sections of the county. Elder Charles Thompson from Washington, D. C., a representative of the world Conference, was present most of the time and took a leading part in the preaching services. Elders J. L. McElhaney, O. R. Saines, V. O. Cole, and Professor J. C. Thompson, were present from Nashville. The Southern Publishing Association was represented by R. L. Pierce, manager. Besides these Elder W. R. Elliott, president of Louisiana-Mississippi Conference; Elder C. W. Curtis, president of the Tennessee River Conference were also present.

Many of the citizens of Clanton and vicinity attending public services during the camp meeting, and we greatly appreciate the interest they have taken in our work. Their warm, hearty handshakes and words of appreciation are a source of inspiration to us. We wish to take this opportunity to thank Forest Lumber Company for loaning us lumber during our camp meeting, and we thank the citizens of Clanton and Chilton County for their hearty co-operation in helping make the camp meeting a success.

By request of many who attended our camp meeting we have decided to keep up the large pavillion and continue the evening services for a time. In compliance with this request we have arranged for Elder M. L. Wilson to locate in Clanton and have the oversight of our work in this city. We extend to all a hearty invitation to any of these services. The newly elected president, Elder S. G. Haughey, who has spent twenty-two years in connection with the work of the denomination in the British Isles is also locating here. As president of the Conference he will have to visit various parts of the state in the interest of our denominational work but when at home will be able to render much help in our work in this city and county.

One important resolution passed by the Conference when in session was upon the question of Religious Liberty. We will give it in full as we believe all citizens of this county will greatly appreciate it. It is as follows:

"WHEREAS, There is a nation wide effort being put forth by certain religious organizations to Puritanize America, and to revive the Sunday "blue laws" of Colonial times when the church and state were united, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Alabama Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, in mass meeting assembled at the camp meeting at Clanton, September 1-11, do hereby petition the United States Congress not to pass any of the pending compulsory Sunday observance bills. We are opposed to the Sunday "Blue laws" because they are religious in character and contrary to the genius of Americain system of government, in violation of the American principles of the separation of church and state, destructive of the First Amendment to the Federal Constitution, opposed to the best interests of both church and state, and above all, they are manifestly un-American, un-Christian, un-Cnstitutional, paritial, and a piece of class legislation, favoring certain sects and discounting others under duress of civil law.

Religious legislation, unchecked, knows no limitations and no mercy. The last step in that direction is the Inquisition with all the horrors that bigots can invent. It is therefore necessary that we take alarm and raise our voices in protest against the first step heeding us in that direction and the first encroachments upon our liberties. God made the conscience free in the realm of religion and no men have a right to enslave it.

Civil laws and carnal weapons were not employed by Christ to advance His Cause. The church should employ only gospel means to advance the cause of religion.

Let America be the home of freemen, an asylum for the oppressed, the dispenser of equal justice, the defender of the individual conscience and the cradle of liberty for all men of every religion and no religion as long as they do not entrench upon the same and equal privileges and rights of their fellow-men."

Seventh-day Adventists stand for civil and religious liberty to all the peoples of the United States of America. They believe that the principles developed in the American republic expressed in the Constitution and amendments should be carried into the whole world as they set forth the true teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ.

S. G. HAUGHEY, President.
B. C. MARSHALL, Secretary.

VERBENA SOLDIER BURIED ON LAST THURSDAY P.M.

Funeral at Arlington (Virginia) National Cemetery, with Honors.

The remains of four Alabama exservice men were buried at Arlington Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

Four Counties of the State have one each among the number of those laid to rest at that time, who lost their lives in the service of their country, being Chilton, Coffee, Morgan and St. Clair.

The names and organiziation are as follows:

PRIVATE WILLIE ROBERT PLOTT, member of Company D, 164th Infantry, a son of Mr. Dock S. Plott, residing near Verbena.

PRIVATE CHARLIE MURDOCK, member of Company H, 167th Infantry, a son of Mr. Jack Murdock, residing near Enterprise.

PRIVATE SOLOMON H. KITCHENS, member of Company I, Pioneer Infantry, a son of Mr. W. A. Kitchens, residing near Decatur.

SUPPLY SERGEANT JAMES P. ENGLAND, member of Supply Company, 59th Infantry, a son of Mr. John England, residing near Springville.

Senator Heflin of Alabama made arrangements with the officer in charge at the receiving pier at Hoboken to be notified when any of the remains of the Alabama soldiers were sent to Washington for burial at Arlington so he could attend these ceremonies. The notice of the coming of these bodies came to Senator Heflin's office after his departure for Alabama, hence, he was unable to be present on this occasion. In his absence, his Secretary attended and will write the family and give them an account of the funeral and will see that the flag that comes draped around the casket of each is sent to them and will also inform them the number that will be placed on the head-piece and the location of the grave in this beautiful cemetery.

COLLINS CHAPEL

Our singing socitey met at this place on last Sunday afternoon, and we had some good singing. Owing to the absence of our president and vice-president, J. M. Mims acted as our president for the afternoon. Directors for the afternoon were: E. L. Glasscock, Howard Glasscock, Charles Glasscock, Mollie Vinzant, Lucile Mims, and Andell Burnette. Organist for the afternoon were: Myrtle Dorminey, Ellen Glasscock, Mattie Mims and Elsie Robinson. Our singing adjourned to meet at Oak Hill next Sunday afternoon.

UNITY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Unity Baptist Association will hold its regular annual session on October 4th, at Ebenezer Baptist Church, Stanton, Ala. This is one of the oldest organizations of Baptist churches in Alabama, and is composed of churches situnated in Chilton and Autauga Counties.

Andrew J. Davis of Beat 12 was among the visitors to Clanton Monday.

PRICES FOR COTTON SEED ARE NOT HIGH ENOUGH

The Department of Agriculture and Industries of Alabama has been making investigations of prices being paid for cotton seed in different parts of Alabama, and Commissioner Allgood has issued the following statement on the subject:

Complaints from farmers have come to this department in regard to prices being paid for cotton seed. From inquiries sent out we have reports that the following prices have been paid at the following points, however these prices may not be what is being paid to-day; yet it shows too great a difference. One firm in Montgomery informs this department that they will pay $35.00 F.O.B. any loading point in Alabama for seed in car lots, and that wagon seed should bring at least $33.00 at any point in the State.

Prices reported being paid are:

Ft. Mitchell,	$22.00
Athens,	24.00
Tuscaloosa,	25.00
Hartsell,	26.00
Stanton,	28.00
Sulligent,	30.00
Uniontown,	30.00
Cleveland,	30.00
Vincent,	30.00
Clio,	31.00
Eufala,	31.00
LaFayette,	32.00
Livingston,	32.00
Geneva,	32.00
Glen Wood,	32.00
Grady,	33.00
Montgomery,	35.00
Opp,	35.00
Opelika,	37.00
Brundige,	37.00
New Brocton,	40.00

A ton of seed makes approximately the following by-products, which are now bringing on the markets:

300 lbs. oil, @ 8c,	$24.00
1000 lbs. meal @ 38c,	19.00
600 lbs. hulls @ 10c,	3.00
	$46.00

The oil mill has to pay freight and commission, and to this must be added the expense of converting. Since the emergency tariff went into effect in May, there has been a gradual increase in the price of oil and with the foreign supply restricted and with a short cotton crop, it stands to reason that we may look for better prices. There have been but few seasons but when some time during the year the farmer who held his seed could get a ton of 7 per cent meal for a ton of seed and this has always been considered a fair exchange.—M. C. ALLGOOD, Commissioner.

JOHN TAYLOR SCOTT SHOT BY WOMAN THROUGH MISTAKE

Talladega Springs, Ala., Sept. 18.—John Taylor Scott, age 48 years, of Montgomery, was shot and almost instantly killed here about 11 o'clock Saturday night by Mrs. Margaret Morrison, who it is understood, mistook him for a burglar attempting to enter her room at the Talladega Springs Hotel.

John Taylor Scott was a member of the Scott Investment Company of Montgomery. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. M. A. Scott, four brothers, Charles H. Scott of New York, Hal Scott of Pensacola, Fla., and Gaston and T. J. Scott of Montgomery, Ala.

The Scott boys are well known in Clanton, having been interested in the mining business in Coosa County, which business they conducted from Clanton as their center.

SELECT SEED CORN NOW

Auburn, Ala., Sept. 20.—One of the most, if not the most, important jobs now ready for the Aalbama farmers is that of selecting their seed corn in the fields, say the specialists in crops, of the Alabama Extension Service and Experiment Station, and if this work is properly done it should mean a larger per acre yield of corn next year.

In selecting seed corn the stalks as well as the ears should be given consideration. They should not be too high or too low, but of medium height, bearing ears four to five feet above the ground and preferably two ears to the stalk, either of which is as good os the other for seed, provided both are sound.

The ears should have long tight-fitting shucks extending about one and one-half inches beyond the tips of the ears for the prevention of weevil damage, and they should come from stalks having no advantage in moisture, fertilizer, or in space. For weather protection it is very important that the ears to be used for seed purposes hang down as soon as they mature.

On the average one bushel will plant six acres, but much more than is needed should be selected in the field in order to re-cull it at the barn at planting time next spring. It should be stored in a dry place where rats and mice cannot reach it. The county agents will furnish additional information.

Judge B. K. McMorris of Wetumpka was in Clanton Tuesday to draw the jury and prepare for the term of Circuit Court which is to convene on Monday, October 10th.

25 YEARS AGO

As Printed in "The Banner" of SEPT. 17, 1896.

Mr. W. H. Merritt has rented the Collier residence, and will move into it early next week.

Mr. W. L. Sampey, about October 1st, will move into the house now occupied by Mr. Merritt.

Dr. Joseph S. Johnson, Sr., accompanied by Miss Roberta Johnson and Dr. E. A. Matthews, have gone to Washington to consult an eminent specialist in regard to the doctor's health.

DOINGS AT WASHINGTON

A Double Opportunity.

Now is the best season for road building. There is little moisture in the soil, and the conditions are ideal for the laying of foundations that will remain permanent. But perhaps of more consequence is the fact that many men are out of employment who would be willing to work if given the opportunity. There is said to be $450,000,000 available in the States for the construction of roads, and other funds are constantly being raised through the issuance of bonds. There could be no better time than the present to spend that money for the objects for which it was provided. It would serve the two-fold purpose of providing men with work and taking advantage of the season for carrying road projects to completion.

Progress Already.

It may be said that already the armaments conference has accomplished actual results. Japan, as the date of the meeting approaches, appears stimulated to great exertion to settle some of the disquieting Pacific and Asiatic questions before the conference is called to order on Armistice Day. For some time Tokyo has been in communication with Washington in an endeavor to reach a settlement of the Yap problem and the question of cable communication involved therein. Japanese relations with Siberia have also formed a subject for recent diplomatic exchanges, and the return of Shantung to China promises to be an event of the near future as the outcome of negotiations between Japan and China. With those three agreements consummated before November 11, of course their consideration will be removed from the conference, but President Harding can claim credit for hastening their solution and reducing by that much the probability of future wars.

Value of Newspapers.

Recent educational tests have shown a deplorable lack of knowledge of current events among pupils of high schools and students of colleges. A few of our higher institutions of learning have recognized the need of greater attention to the subject, and are instituting special courses with that end in view. West Point Military Academy is an example. Two metropolitan daily newspapers are delivered to each cadet daily, and he is expected to report to his class the items of interest contained therein, and give to each its proper news value. The same sort of instruction should be adopted in other schools.

Already commercial interests have sensed the need of greater attention to current events in the schools, and have undertaken to publish sheets purporting to give a condensed daily resume of important news. But the knowledeg of current events gained from such sources is bound to be influenced by the economic and political beliefs of the compiler and editor; in fact, one such periodical is redolent with propaganda in advocacy of American membership in the league of nations. Far better is it for a regular daily newspaper to be subject of class study than for the pupils to be given one of those inspired sheets. Occasionally a teacher will be found who will pervert his teachings of current history to suit his own prejudiced opinions, but the majority will treat the subject fairly, and certainly the average of newspapers and the average of teachers there from will rank higher than anything gleaned from the canned "current events" so often served up to unsuspecting studets.

Baldwin (Kansas) Leader.—Wholesale beef sold recently for less monen than for five years. What about the retail price?

Pledges and Performance.

Performance depends largely upon who does the promising. In the campaign of 1912, through which the Democrats came into power in 1913, the charge was made in the Democratic platform and on the stump that the Republicans had burdened the nation with a needless army of government employees and had conducted the business of the nation in an extravagant manner. But there was never a day after March 4, 1913 when the payroll was less in either numbers or amount than it was before. In 1920 the Republicans charged extravagance and employment of needless persons at public expense, and each month since the Republicans came into power there has been a reduction in both the number of employees and the amount of the payrol.

"Help Wanted."

The Sunday edition of a prominent Washington, D.C. paper recently had five columns of "Help Wanted" advertisements and a column and a half of "Situations Wanted." That seems to confirm the assertion tnat the unemployment problem is not as bad as represented.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.—Mr. McAdoo fails to answer the replies that have been made to his impudent letter on the railroad situation. Still, what in the world could he say?

Boston Transcript—Upon one thing we are all agreed—the cost of the government has got to be less.

Omaha Bee.—Democrats on the Senate finance committee are suddenly struck with horror at the prospect of a deficit. Where have they been? The country has been running behind every day since Woodrow Wilson was inaugurated in 1913.

Virginia Needs Republicanism.

Richmond, the capital of Virginia, a is beautiful city with broad and well kept boulevards ornamented with statues and memorials in honor of those statesmen and warriors whom all the South holds dear. But in all of Virginia outside of the capital there is no manifestation of beauty and public improvement. Except where the federal government built highways at national expense, there are a few good roads in Virginia, notwithstanding its taxes have been high for many years. Most of the roads are miserably bad. In Virginia politics the contests have heretofore been merely a matter of ratification. Old prejudices have practically barred any man who ran on a Republicn ticket. Democratic boses have been able to capitalize the old prejudices and keep themselves in control of state finances and state expenditures. But now it looks as though the Virginians are getting a little tired of being made the goat. They have before them a Republican candidate for Governor who stands high in the business and social world of the "Old Dominion" and who has a programme of public policy that appeals to the average citizen. Reasoning that their state government could not possibly be any worse, many citizens who have heretofore voted the party ticket straight may very likely vote this year for the Republican nominee in the hope of getting for state affairs some of the reforms the Republicans have instituted in the national administration. They certainly will if they are wise.

COOPERATIVE BUYING AND SELLING MAKES MONEY FOR FARMERS

Auburn, Ala., Sept. 20.—By buying cooperatively 23,000 pounds of crimson clover and hairy vetch seed the Farm Bureau members of Autauga County have probably set a new record, from the standpoint of quantity in buying cooperatively winter legume seed in Alabama.

The Autauga County Farm Bureau was organized nearly two months ago and since that time the results along different lines have been unusual, and the winter legume and cover crop results have been outstanding.

The crimson clover and hairy vetch seed both were bought at a saving of more than one cent per pound, and 6,000 pounds of Southern bur clover seed were bought at a saving of at least 4 1-2 cents per pound. The saving on the pure cultures for inoculation amounted to 60 cents per acre, which runs into quite a large total when it is considered that the Autauga County farmers are planting more than 1000 acres to winter legumes this fall.

In still another way the Autauga county farmers are profiting by cooperating through their county farm Bureau. Their marketing committee has just completed an arrangement whereby they will save $1.25 per bale on the warehousing and insuring of their cotton, and scales and pens are being installed for the cooperative sale of livestock, which has made the raising of livestock profitable in so many Alabama counties during the last few years.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of 85 and 90 years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spar emen, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me.

"I saw after taking some Cardui ... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person.

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me ... My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments.

JOHN P. CAGLE SHOT BY JOE EASTERLING SATURDAY

According to a report reaching the Sheriff of Chilton County late last Saturday afternoon, Joe Easterling shot John P. Cagle with a shot gun. The report stated that the shooting occurred near Salem Church on the river, but when deputies from here reached the river they found that it had occurred in Coosa County, and hence they took no action in the matter, but returned to Clanton.

The wounded man was carried to Coopers for medical treatment. He is said to be severely wounded, but will recover.

Exact details of the affair could not be obtained, but it is rumored that some trouble about whiskey started the altercation which resulted in the shooting of Cagle by Easterling.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

SHOULTS

School days again, and a sudden quiteness in the homes. Several from here have left, and are leaving for school.

Mr. Paul Oden, after spending his vacation at home this summer, has returned to Pennsylvania to prepare himself for the ministry.

Mr. Clifton Sewell left a few weeks ago for Birmingham where he will attend Howard College this year, also prepare himself for the ministry.

Mr. Hort Walker has returned to Centerville to attend the Bibb county High School again this session.

Miss Myrtel McAfee will leave this week for Newton, where she will attend school this year.

The people of this community are going to greatly miss these young people and especially will the Sunday school miss Miss Myrtle, for she has been teacher of the beginners class for some time.

The parents are not sending their children to school to bound Alabama or the date of Flodden Field. These things will mean nothing in their lives; as facts they are quickly forgotten, and easily rediscovered. They are sending them to school to help them grasp some notion of the great world of science and history and art that is about them; to learn how they may find their own place and work in that enormous scheme, and above all, to gage themselves as human beings; to acquire patience and application, ambition and interest to make friendships, and to grow worthy of friendship. Heaven be praised for school.

On account of bad health, Rev. J. D. Martin resigned some time ago as pastor of Pleasant Grove Baptist church. Rev. Deason preached on second Saturday and Sunday, the church met in conference and called him as pastor of the church. Every one should co-operate with him, to make his work worth while.

Mr. R. F. Thompson and family, Mr. W. M. Thompson and Mr. Eugene Thompson, saw mill operators of this community, motored to Centerville last Thursday to witness the hanging of Clyde Thomas, the negro who killed Annie Lee Wallace at Randolph some time ago.

Mrs. W. P. Hicks and sister, Miss Allie Walker attended the funeral services of their cousin, Mr. James Bedford, who was buried at Rehoboth church one day last week.

Mr. Emmet Lawrence of Lawley has opened up almost a full line of goods here in the old store building vacated by Mr. J. O. Mize, who is in the merchantile business at Maplesville.

Miss Annie McGee had as her guests last Saturday night, Misses Alice Sewell and Myrtle Ingram.

Mr. Alsie Maness is spending a few days at home with his mother.

Mr. Fred McGee and family of Lawley spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hicks.

Rev. Gilbert, of Maplesville preached his regular monthly sermon at Plesant Hill Methodist church last Sunday afternoon, to a reasonable good congregation. Rev. Ernest of Maplesville preached Sunday night. The Methodist and Baptist of this community have united with their revival services this week, and are being conducted by Rev. Gilbert of the Methodist church and Rev. Deason now pastor of the Baptist church, with Rev. Ernest of Maplesville as helper. We feel that these services will be characterized with a fine spirit of hormony and unity, and that great good will be accomplished. There are so many splendid young men and girls in this comunity that need very much to give their lives to God's service, and the Christians need to be revived and to be made stronger in God's great love.

If the editor will permit, we will next week give the results of the revival services.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

Birthday Party Enjoyed.

Miss Sarah Luckie entertained a number of her friends last Friday night at the home of her parents, celebrating her 12th birthday anniversary.

The home was prettily decorated with a profusion of zenias, ferns and roses, on the porch was used golden rod and japanese lanterns.

Upon the arrival of the guests they were served refreshingg punch in the hall by Misses Elizabeth Duncan and Aurabell Martin.

A number of juvenile games were played and later an ice course was served.

Mrs. Luckie was assisted by Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. Alverson and Mrs. Geo. Polk.

About 35 guests were present.

Mrs Pickens Entertains.

Miss Rosemary Pickens was the honoree of a pretty childrens party Tuesday afternoon in celebration of her fifth birthday, where her mother entertained a large number of her little friends.

The home was prettily decorated for the occasion and great bunches of balloons were seen here and there which were later given as favors.

Mrs. Grady Broadhead and Mrs. Pickens served punch on the lawn throughout the evening.

Many juvenile games were played on the lawn, and later a delightful ice course was served to about 40 little guests. The children were each presented a "Dol-face" which afforded much laughter.

Prayer services will be held Thursday at the Methodist church and Friday at the Baptist, at 4:30 o'clock. Come out.

You will want a bottle of the wonderful Tanlac remedy. You can get it from Upchurch Drug Co.

The prayer services which are being held alternative at the two churches are proving especially interesting and the crowds are increasing. Everybody is invited to come.

After a visit of six weeks to Mrs. Watts Moore, her sister, Mrs. W. K. Mullins and children left Tuesday for Cuthbert, Ga.

Miss Della Latham left Saturday for Deland, Fla. where she has accepted a position as music teacher in the Stetson University.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Edwards left Friday for Springfield Mass., to visit their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Edwards. Before their return they will visit several Eastern cities.

Mrs. J. Watts Moore spent Tuesday in the Capital city.

Judge L. H. Reynolds was a visitor to Birmingham Monday.

Walter Gillispie of Shelby county was a visitor to Clanton Tuesday.

The many friends of Miss Elizabeth Hoopes, formerly of Thorsby Institute, will be glad to know that she has established a rest sanitarium in Hendersonville, N. C. She will be glad to see any of her friends from Chilton County, who may visit that city.

Last Friday night Miss Toy Campbell was the inspiration of a beautiful luncheon at the Exchange hotel when Miss Madeline Orr paid her a special courtesy.

The central table decoration was a bowl of bright blossoms and ferns and pink rose buds filled with bonbons were used for place cards and bore the inscription of Misses Campbell, Maud Mullins Roberta Curry, Madaline Orr. Messrs Omar Reynolds, Leon Mullins, Dick Hayes and Bill Orr.

A four course luncheon was served.

Woman's Missionary Society met with Mrs. W. W. Fox on last Monday evening. Flower pot plants were used to decorate the living room where the meeting was held. The meeting was opened with Scripture reading. Acts 10th Chapter, followed with a reading by Mrs. Fox. New ways for an active church. After a brief business session a social service programe was presented as follows: Social needs in Soochow, China, Mrs. Armstrong, Social Customs, Mrs. Fox. The Marie L. Gibson settlement house. Mrs. J. C. Jones.

Later in the afternoon the hostess assisted by Mrs. N. A. Recker served a refreshing ice course. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. M. A. Gore the first Monday in October.

Veteran of Civil War Still Hale and Hearty

GEORGE D. SHAW, Springfield, Mass.

"To say that I feel twenty-five years younger, twenty-five years healthier, and twenty-five years stronger, express what Tanlac has done for me better than any other way I can put it," said Geogre D. Shaw, veteran of the Civil War, who now lives at 321 Walnut Street, Springfield, Mass.

"I am now seventy-eight years old and I don't hesitate to say I have never known a medicine to equal Tanlac. For fifteen years I was subject to attacks of indigestion that were so bad at times I would have to lay up for a week or two. For a long time I lived on crackers and milk alone, as nothing else agreed with me.

"When I started on Tanlac I weighed only one hundred and seventeen pounds and my days were thought to be numbered. I've been so wonderfully built up, I now weigh one hundred and forty-three pounds and my stomach is as sound as a dollar. In fact, I believe I could eat the old army rations again without hurting me in the least.

"I never miss a chance of saying a good word for Tanlac and I would like to urge the boys of the "Sixties" who are not feeling right to give it a trial, for I am sure it would put them in line again just as it has done me. For a man of my age to have no physical ailment to be well and strong and enjoy life as he did twenty-five years ago, is certainly something to be thankful for and there is nothing too good I can say for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Company.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

The concert which was rendered at the Lutheran Church Sunday afternoon, was attended by a large crowd, and the music was enjoyed by all. The chorus was especially good, and for the accompaniment the piano and organ were both used, which sounded very beautifully. The piano was played by Miss Inga Erdahl and the organ by Mrs. Nottage.

Mrs. Sereno E. Norton appointed Mrs. E. N. Bentley as her substitute, as chairman in Thorsby for the Union-Banner Beauty Contest, and Mrs. Bentley appointed Mrs. A.K. Horn, Mrs. E. R. Piper and Mr. C. R. Foss on the committee to select the prettiest girl in Thorsby. The committee met last Saturday afternoon and selected Miss Jennie Robinson.

Mrs. J. S. Benson, who has had charge of the Lutheran Church work here during the summer, left Monday afternoon for Rock Island, Ill., where he will attend the Augustana Theological Seminary. Mr. Benson made many friends here, who were sorry to see him leave.

Mr. Albert Anderson spent a few days here last week with his parents. He returned to Sylva, N. C. Monday.

Mrs. N. C. Peterson is spending a few weeks in West Point, Ga., visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon.

Miss Sue Simpson of Montgomery was a visitor in Thorsby Tuesday night. She was the guest of Mrs. A. M. Johnson while in the city.

Thorsby Institute opened its doors last Wednesday a.m., with the largest enrollment in the history of the school. A number of town people attended the opening exercises which consisted of a number of interesting talks by members of the faculty and others.

Mrs. Emma Adams spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gronquist.

The annual reception given by the Ladies Guild of Thorsby to the Trustees of Thorsby Institute, their wives, all members of the faculty, the students, the Alumni, and all contributing friends of the school will be given at Bates Hall from 7:30 to 10. p.m. Friday, Sept. 23. A program consisting of speaking and music will be a feature of the entertainment and light refreshments will be served.

PRAISE FOR WORK OF HARDING AND REPUB. CONGRESS

COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE ENDORSES NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

At the meeting of the County Republican Executive Committee here last Friday, time was taken from the special business of the call to pass a strong resolution of endorsement of the policies and accomplishments of the national Administration and the present Congress. The resolution reveals the careful manner in which the Republicans of Chilton County are following the record of the present National Administration, and the high degree of approval which they are giving same.

Following is the resoultion which was adopted:

We, the members of the Chilton County Republican Executive Committee assembled at Clanton, Alabama, on this the 23rd day of September, 1921, desire to express publicly in open declaration some of our observations of the splendid record of tireless, intensive, intelligent and preductive efforts along constructive lines that has been accomplished in the first six months of President Harding's administration in clearing away the debris left by the Wilson regime.

1. We recognize that the Republican administration has definite policies for administering to the country the legislation that will bring the country out of the unsettled conditions of the recent past, and put us back on the solid ground of common sense and sound progress. The administration knows its mind. It is working without splutter and splurge. It is making substantial and satisfactory headway. It deserves and commands the confidence and endorsement of the whole country.

2. The Republican Congress is not loafing. No previous Congress has ever made a better record for close application to the tasks at hand and intelligent consideration of them.

3. We do not believe the country is going to the demnition-bow wows. Business has not gone to smash. Calaminty is not abroad in the land. Things are getting better and will continue to do so; for which the country should thank the sturdy, sound and sensible policies of the Administration of President Harding, and the Republican Congress at Washington.

4. The interests of the public in general are not being neglected. Policies are being formulated and put into effect with a view of serving all the people instead of the cliques or sections. The return of better business conditions in the country is due in a very large measure to the relief projects that have been instituted by the Administration and in Congress for the benefit of the farming people of the United States. A particular instance of this important relief is found in the action which caused the Federal Reserve Board to extend its energies in helping the farmers instead of witholding its resources from them as was done under the previous administration. In bringing about this relief through the use of the Federal Reserve Banks, the Republican administration has done for the country exactly what the former Democratic Administration persistently refused to do.

5. After six months of the Republican control of the legislative and Executive branches of the government, our salutation tests out one hundred per cent true. We realize, as does the whole country, that the Administration is doing what it promised to do, the result of which is a tremendous wave of approval going up from the 4 corners of the United States in thankfulness to the Republican powers that have brought these good times to pass. The people are seeing the fallacy of the old time buncombe that the Republican party was a money-power party and did not care for the farmer's interests. This administration has done more for the farmers in the first six months than any other administration has ever accomplished in the same length of time.

6. But we warn the people of the program of the Democratic party which is pretty well established by now. It is the same old narrow partisan opposition to and misrepresentation of the things attempted by the Republican administration to hasten reconstruction and normalcy at home and better relations throughout the world.

7. This committee wishes further to endorse the leadership of our State Chairman, Hon. Pope M. Long, and our National Committeeman, Hon. O. D. Street, in handling the affairs of the Republican party in Alabama. We condemn the carpet-bag idea of some men in our State who seem to want to overthrow the regular state organization of our party. We believe our party organiziation should be recognized and held intact, so that we may have a solid foundation upon which to deal with important matters that concern the future progress of the Republican party in Alabama

8. This Committee further hereby endorses the applications of Mr. W. E. Snead for the position of Collector of Internal Revenue of the State of Alabama, and of Judge C. M. Sartain for the position of Prohibition Director of the State of Alabama.

FOUR ARRESTED AT MITCHELL DAM ON SATURDAY NIGHT

The Sheriff of Chilton County took his force of deputies to Mitchell Dam last Saturday night and succeeded in hauling four white men into their net for the alleged offense of spreading the joy of Coosa County moonshine throughout the camps of the workmen who are engaged in building the new dam. Those arrested were W. H. Bramlett, M. C. Bailey, L. W. Cates, T. I. Tippey. They were brought to jail Saturday night, where they remained until their bonds were made Sunday, and their release accomplished by their friends.

Euburn Wooley of Montevallo has been employed by the Upchurch Drug Co. He began his work there on Monday morning.

WILEY BEAN GETS ENDORSEMENT FOR P. M. AT CLANTON

UNANIMOUS ACTION OF COUNTY REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Chilton County Republican Executive Committee met at the Court House last Friday at th e call of the Chairman, W. G. Culp. The purpose of the meeting was for the committee, as the regular Republican organization of Chilton county to make an endorsement of one of the three eligible applicants for the position of Postmaster at Clanton. This endorsement was given to Mr. Wiley Bean. After the first ballot was taken it was found that Mr. Bean received a majority of the vote of the committee, and then it was voted to make the endorsement unanimous.

Three eligible applicants, Messrs. J. N. Dennis, W. M. Bean, and J. L. Wilson, had previously agreed to adopt this method and allow the regular Republican organiziation to say which one of them should have the place, and since this action has been taken in Mr. Bean's favor, all energies will be directed toward getting him appointed as our Postmaster at the earliest possible time!

It is popularly accepted that the endorsements that have been given Mr. Bean mean that he will be appointed Postmaster. We wish to venture the prediction in advance that he will make a good one. He is a good man to begin with, capable of filling the positiion.

Wiley Bean was reared in the Collins Chapel Community, was educated in the common schools of Chilton County, and was student of Prof. Rasco in his splendid school at Jemison several years ago. He was later a student for some time at The Thorsby Institute, going from there to the State Normal School at Jacksonville, from which he graduated with honors. He began teaching in the schools of Chilton County in 1907 and was one of our most successful schoolmasters for thirteen years. For the past two years he has been in business in Clanton, being a member of the firm of Bean Brothers, composed of himself and his brother, Mr. Willie T. Bean.

In all his public dealings his record has been excellent. He has made a success in every way.

Such a man will make a good Postmaster, one of whom his friends will be proud, and one who will do credit to the Republican party, at whose hands he will receive the appointment. We might add before closing our sketch of Mr. Bean, add that he is a thoroughbred Republican and has been loyal to the party in Chilton County. He has never held public office of any kind. He offered for the place of Clerk of the Circuit Court of Chilton County in 1910, but was defeated by Mr. M. D. Foshee by a close margin.

We confidently hope to see Mr. Bean appointed as our Postmaster at an early date.

APPOINTMENT TO BE MADE

Rockford Awaits Announcement of Results of Civil Service Examinations.

ROCKFORD, Ala., Sept. 23.—A civil Service examination was taken by six applicants for the local office on July 9 at Alexander City, the Rockford postoffice having been declared a third class office early in the year. The six applicants are A. D. Bentley, the present postmaster, who has held office for the last eight years; Knox McEwen, a bookkeeper for a local turpentine company and a previous cashier of a local bank; J. E. Pond, a farmer and a life long resident of Rockford; Mrs. Minnie Mooney, a resident of Rockford and school teacher; W. P. Washam, a local merchant, and William P. Shurett, the chief clerk of the probate court in Coosa County. Two of the applicants have had experience in civil service work. These are A. D. Bentley, the present postmaster, and William P. Shurett, who several years ago resigned the place of rural free delivery carrier.

It is expected that an appointment will be made for the office within the next few days, though nothing official has been given out from Washington in reference to the appointment.

JOHN D. McNEEL RESIGNS.

John D. McNeel, Collector of Internal Revenue for Alabama, has formally tendered his resignation to take effect October 1st. He held the job until he saw it was eigher get out or be put out by a Republican appointment.

THORSBY GIRL LEADS IN CHILTON COUNTY PRETTY GIRL RACE

MISS JENNIE ROBINSON LEADS LIST OF CANDIDATES BY WIDE MARGIN

When the Central Committee in charge of the pretty girl contest for Chilton County met Tuesday evening to count the votes that had been cast up to that time, it was found that Miss Jennie Robinson of Thorsby has taken a long jump ahead in the beginning of the contest.

The following is the standing of the various candidates as determined by the count up to Tuesday night:

Jennie Robinson	7,075
Roberta Curry	2,700
Inga Erdahl	1,000
Agnes Gerald	1,075
Lena Downs	1,075
Mildred Smith	1,000
Florence Foshee	1,050
Blossom Crumpton	1,075
Mildred Schuter	1,000

Again this week we call the attention of the public to the short time in which this contest is to run and urge that friends of the candidates lose no time in doing what they can for their choice. There is a ballot box at Upchurch Drug Store and one at the Union-Banner office. Votes may be deposited in either. Or if anyone outside of Clanton wishes to mail votes, they may be sent to either the editor of The Union-Banner or Mrs. Hugh Jones, Clanton.

Remember there is a ballot in each issue of the Banner that is good for a stated number of votes. These may be clipped and voted for your choice by filling in the name of the person you desire to vote for. With each new subscription to The Union-Banner you get a coupon good for 500 votes; and with each renewal you get a cupon good for 250 votes.

SHELBY IRON PLANT IS NOW OPERATING

COLUMBIANA, Ala., Sept. 23.—Shelby Iron Company, which has been shut down about 10 months, has begun operations. Workmen are cleaning up the car beds, straightening up the track and getting in shape to start the big washer. This company operates two large charcoal furnaces at Shelby, and operates large batteries of charcoal ovens all over this section. The furnaces will not be put into blast for some time yet, as supplies will have to be provided first.

The people all over this section hail with delight the sounding of the big whistle this morning which they feel eventually means the employment of several hundred people who have been out if work since last December.

COUNTY BOARD TO MEET

Supt. of Education Howard L. Foshee makes the announcement that the County Board of Education will meet at his office in the Court House at Clanton on Friday, the 30th day of September. All parties who may have any business with the Board may come before them on that date.

Mr. Z. J. Jones, The Banner correspondent from West Chilton, was in Clanton last Friday attending the meeting of the Republican Executive Committee, of which he is a member from Beat 14.

BAPTIST SCHOOL BUILDING AT NEWTON BURNS THURSDAY

The Baptist school building at Newton was burned down Thursday morning at four o'clock.

It is thought that it was set fire, as no one was supposed to have been in the building at that hour, and no fire had been in the building.

The building was the property of the Baptist State Convention, but assistance in the building of the first school there came from the people of Newton. When the old building was burned the convention erected a handsome brick structure.

It is said that the churches of Newton have been tendered the trustees, who held a meeting this morning, and school will be continued in them, till anothr building is erected. There was $18,000 insurance, and it is said that another building will be erected on the same site

A Pronounced Success.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival, and as everyone who has used it knows, it is without an equal.—Adv.

PINEDALE SCHOOLHOUSE BURNED THURSDAY NOON

The Pinedale Schoolhouse in District 42, located four miles northeast of Clanton, was destroyed by fire about noon on last Thursday. The railroad track of the Vida Lumber Company ran within about sixty feet of the building, it is stated to us, and the opinion prevails among some of the citizens of the community near the school that the fire was started from a spark from a passing log train; however this is only the opinion of some whom we have heard talking about the matter.

The school at Pinedale had not begun for the winter session. That District only a few days ago voted a three-mill school tax for school purposes. It is indeed unfortunate that the building burned, as it may prevent any school there this winter.

A. C. Vinzant, Jemison;

COLLINS-DUKE WEDDING.

The many friends of Mr. J. D Collins, Jr. and Miss Mary Duke were somewhat surprised on last Friday by being invited to the marriage of these two popular young people on Friday night. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride by Rev. P. G. Carter in the presence of a large company of their friends. Miss Duke was the daughter of Mr. Will Duke and Mr. Collins is the son of Tax Collector, J. D. Collins. Both live in the Friendship community a short distance from Clanton.

We extend our congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple.

ALA. POWER COMPANY OPEN OFFICE IN REYNOLDS BLDG

THEIR LAND BUSINESS WILL BE CONDUCTED FROM THE OFFICE HERE

Clanton should feel proud of the fact that the Alabama Power Company has located some of its most important offices in this city having rented the entire upper floor of the Reynolds Building west of the railroad and already opened for the transaction of business of the company.

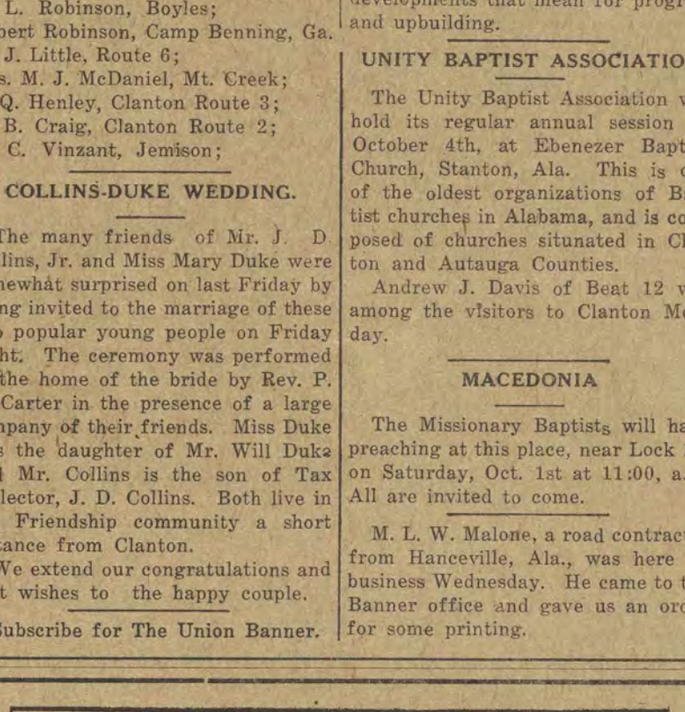
The offices here will be those of the land and legal departments for the handling of the tremendous amount of land claims and valuations that have been made a part of the Company's task in the erection of the new dam at Duncan's Riffles.

In connection with this office here we are glad to state that we shall have with us that veteran of the Coosa River Development, Captain W. P. Lay of Gadsden. Mr. Lay is the man who first dreamed of the imemnse power project of the Coosa, and he bears the scars of conflict which he has encountered in this work, all the way from his trampings up and down the river over hills and rocks on up to the perfection of legislation in the National Congress at Washington which culminated in the final authorization of the erection of the Mitchell Dam now in process of construction.

Capt. Lay says he wants to keep a close watch over the growth and development of this youngest child of his imagination, Mitchell Dam, and he finds fascination in watching the project as is takes the hills and rocks adjacent to Duncans Riffles and shapes them out of the rugegdness of nature into the finest works of science and engineering.

We predict that the coming of the Alabama Power Company ofices to Clanton will be a great help to our town and community, for the Company con be depended upon to put its influence behind any industrial developments that mean for progress and upbuilding.

UNITY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION



The Unity Baptist Association will hold its regular annual session on October 4th, at Ebenezer Baptist Church, Stanton, Ala. This is one of the oldest organizations of Baptist churches in Alabama, and is composed of churches situnated in Chilton and Autauga Counties.

Andrew J. Davis of Beat 12 was among the visitors to Clanton Monday.

MACEDONIA

The Missionary Baptists will have preaching at this place, near Lock 12, on Saturday, Oct. 1st at 11:00, a.m. All are invited to come.

M. L. W. Malone, a road contractor from Hanceville, Ala., was here on business Wednesday. He came to the Banner office and gave us an order for some printing.

DOINGS AT WASHINGTON

EXPENSES DOWN, CREDIT UP

Following closely after announcement of reduction in government expenditures, we have a higher quotation for Liberty Bonds in the market. The government's credit goes up as its expenditures go down.

"EASY MARKS"

The Philadelphia Public Ledger, which so earnestly supported the League of Nations scheme, wants to know why it is that professional men are "easy marks," and it cites a college professor as an instance. We don't attempt to answer the question, but haev always wondered why the former professor of Princeton was such an easy mark for Lloyd George.

HELP WANTED

A Philadelphia housekeeper wants someone to call a public meeting to discuss the present difficulty in securing demestic help. Might refer the matter to the unemployment conference.

According to Jacob H. Taylor, Editor of the farmers' National Magazine, the Republican administration has enacted into law practically every policy that was demonstrated to be in the interest of the farmer, and, therefore, of the country as a whole. Worth remembering.

We are proud of the confidence doctors, druggists and the public have in 666 Chill and Fever Tonic.

JAP SHIPS LEAD

According to dispatches from Portland, Oregon, the chief grain exporting point on the Pacific Coast, Japanese ships have become the leading carriers of grain and can transport that commodity at less than half the rates required by either American of British merchant ships. It looks as though the American merchant marine must have some sort of advantage under American laws if it is to hold any considerable part of our foreign carrying trade.

NOT PLEASING BRITAIN

Spokesmen of British industry are asking the American Congress to lower the proposed rates of import duty in order that they may the more easily sell goods here, and, thereby, capture a large share of the American market. It would be funny, if not tragic, if an American Congress framed a tariff bill to suit British rather than American producers.

There is a strong suspicion that the vote of railroad shopmen to strike because of the 12 percent reduction in wages is merely a basis for negotiations, for further action has been deferred.

HARDING AND WILSON LETTERS DIFFERENT

Washington, Sept. 26.—Contrasting President Harding's letter written for use in the New Mexico Senatorial contest with the Wilson letter asking for election of a Democratic Congress in 1918, the Republican Publicity Association says in a statement issued today through the President of that organization, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr.:

"Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, who seems to be the new leader of the Democrats in Congress, charges that President Harding's letter setting forth the accomplishments of the administration is similar in effect to the letter which President Wilson sent out on the eve of election in 1918 asking for the return of a Democratic Congress.

"But there are several important differences. Let it be admitted that Harding's letter was written to help the senatorial election in New Mexico. It was a political letter. It is just such a letter as any President might properly write in ordinary times.

"But the Wilson letter was not written in ordinary times. President Wilson had but a few weeks before issued a declaration that 'politics is adjourned.' We were in the midst of war and he had called upon all citizens to lay aside partisanship and unite in the effort to win. Republicans acquiesced in this, but on the eve of election when it was presumably too late for the Republicans to reply, Wilson issued his infamous appeal for election of a Democratic Congress as an expression of confidence in him and in his leadership when peace negotiations should be taken up. The result was defeat for the Democratic candidates and the election of a Republican majority in the House.

"Senator Harrison knows all this, and knows that there is no similarity between the Harding letter setting forth the Republican record, with no appeal for votes, and the Wilson letter, appealing for votes but not setting forth the record."

SHOULTS

The revival services have not closed yet. At this writing about 30 members have been received into the church. Untold good has been accomplished during last week and still there is more to be done. What a glorious week.

The many friends of Mrs. J. R. McAfee are indeed sorry to learn that she is sick and can not attend the revival. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Miss Mamie Hicks, of Lawley, spent a few days last week with her brother, Mr. W. P. Hicks, attending the revival services.

Mr. Robert Holdsombeck and wife who are teaching at Randolph, spent Saturday night and Sunday with their brother-in-law, Mr. R. F. Thompson.

On account of the illness of her mother and the revival, Miss Myrtle McAfee did not leave for school last week, but will leave soon.

COMING, VETERAN'S BUREAU AND CLEAN-UP-SQUAD. OCT. 8, 1921.

The Porter Plier Post No. 6, American Legion has secured the Clean Up, Squad for Chilton County on October 8, 1921. This Squad is composed of five experts from the Veterans Bureau in New Orleans whose duty it is to visit all County sites and assist ex-service men in filing their claims for Vocational Training, Compensation, Hospitalization and Insurance. The squad will hold its session in the auditorium of the County Court House and will be prepared to get quick action on all cases filed before them. All parties who have filed claims and desire to appeal or reopen their claims can do so by appearing before the Bureau with all papers, including discharge, that have any bearing on their case.

Here is the chance to Clean Up Chilton County of all claims and it is hoped that every one will support the American Legion in getting the news to every man in the county. The Squad will be here for one day only and will be prepared to hear all cases presented.

NOTICE

The Chilton County Association will meet with the Thorsby Baptist church on Wednesday after the second Sunday in October. Hope the churches will send a full delegation. Let us pray that we may have a good Association.

T. J. DEASON.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which griped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

Get a package from your druggist today—Ask for and insist upon Thedford's—the only genuine.

CORINTH NEWS

Dear Editor:

Please allow me a short space in your paper to say a few words for this place.

Health of this community is verw good at present. Farmers are very busy gathering their crops and working at the dam.

Our singing society met Sunday afternoon Sept. 25th. The society was opened with prayer by A. M. Jones. Directors were as follows: A. L. Robinson, Crayton Norris, A. M. Jones, Archie Jones. We had recess for 10 minutes. Directors after recess were E. F. Taylor, Adelbert Norris, N. J. Jones. All singing three songs each. Organist for the afternoon were: Adelbert Norris, Lola Jones, Ora Manning, and Vallie Howard. We were dismissed with prayer by Rev. E. A. Norris. The Singing was enjoyed by a large crowd. A number of visitors were present. We want to ask them to come back and help us again.

With best wishes to the editor.

S. S. CONVENTION

On Sunday afternoon Oct. 9th we will have our District Sunday School Convention at East View, 2 miles South west of Cooper.

THORSBY NEWS

Miss Naemi Turnquist, Reporter.

The reception tendered by the Ladies' Guild of Thorsby to members of The Board of Trustees of Thorsby Institute, their wives, the Faculty, all Students in the school, their parents, The Alumnae and all contributing friends of the school brought to Bates Hall a capacity audience of about 300 people. Mrs. J. L. Winslow, President of the Guild, presided, flanked by Mrs. S. E. Norton, vice-president, Mrs. Ivey Horn Secretary and Mrs. J. H. Goddard, Treasurer. After the opening prayer by Mrs. May Hastings Nottage, instrumental and vocal selections were rendered by Miss Agnes Gerald and Miss Igna Erdahl, a pleasing recitation by Miss Ruth Gerald was well received. Miss Helen C. Jenkins, Principal and Miss Emily B. Ellsworth, Associate principal of Thorsby Institute gave interesting accounts of their vacation experiences and Rev. James W. Davenport gave a short talk interspersed with humorous stories which were greeted with rounds of applause. Then came light refreshments, in plenty for all present, and an hour or more of get acquainted sociability. This reception has become an annual affair and the ladies are adepts at conducting them without a dull moment from beginning to end.

Thorsby Institute opens this year with considerable increase in enrollment over the beginning weeks of any previous year, a very notable increase being manifest among local students from Thorsby and vicinity where the people are coming more and more to realize the educational opportunities offered and the nonsectarian character of the school. There were 93 students in attendance when the latest report was received with immediate prospect of exceeding 100, with Dormitiries almost filled. The dining room and kitchen unit of the new dormitory for girls is progressing as fast as money can be secured for material and labor, upwards of $6000 of the estimated cost of $10,000 has been secured and much work done and is is the intention of the Trustees to finish and equip the building without debt.

Mr. J. D. Ponder, former student of Thorsby Institute was a visitor in Thorsby Saturday and Sunday. He is now at work down on the new dam.

Mr. H. L. Leary of Birmingham was a visitor to Thorsby last Sunday.

THOUSANDS HAVE BAD BREATH AND DON'T KNOW IT

Nothing is more offensive than a bad breath. Yet thousands of people suffer with distressing affliction—and the surprising part of it is that a good part of them do not even realize it. Most people hesitate even to mention this disagreeable subject.

An excellent remedy for bad breath is daily use of an antiseptic mouth wash such as Steroline. A few drops of Sterolne on your tooth brush will keep your mouth cool, sweet and fresh. It makes an excellent dentifrice, as it gets between the teeth, reaching all the hidden spots that ordinary tooth pastes and powders cannot reach. It arrests decay which is one of the commonest causes of bad breath and gives your mouth that "clean feeling." Get Steroline from your druggist today!—Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton.—Adv.

AUTO LICENSE FOR STATE HAVE BEEN RECEIVED

State automobile license tags for 1922 have been received by the state tax commission and are being distributed to the various judges of probate, it was announced Tuesday by John S. Mooring, chairman of the tax commission.

In speaking of the arrival and distribution of the new tags, Mr. Mooring explained that the 1921 automobile licenses will expire September 30 and that it is required that the new license be secured in thirty days after the expiration of the old licenses.

A part of the clerical force which is handling the matter of auto licenses was busily engaged at the capitol Tuesday in sending out the new tags to the probate judges throughout the state.

IN HARD LINES

"I could not work at all and had to take to my bed with a high fever due to intestinal indigestion, gases in my stomach and pain in my right side. I had spent my last cent for doctors and medicine, which gave me no relief. I was in despair. A lodge brother gave me a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and the first dose relieved me. Thanks to the medicine I am now in the best of health." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Alred Drug Co.—Adv.

PATES CHAPEL

The Pates Chapel Singing Society met Sunday evening Sept. 25, with a large crowd. At this meeting officers of the Society were elected. Mr. J. A. Cleckler was nominated chairman for the evening. The following officers were elected: President, Chester Maddox; vice-president, J. F. Robinson; Secretary, Emily Pate.

Notwithstanding the exceeding heat we had a fine singing. If we all would only "put our selves into our singing is would be much better." Some times we come to a song which we do not like, this is not the time for us to quit singing because some one else may like the song. Directors for the evening were Prof. James Franklin, Eual Dawson, Chester Maddox, J. A. Cleckler, Cooper Scott and Callie Edwards. Organist were Miss Nora Franklin, Mrs. Eva Childress, Mae Maddox and J. A. Cleckler.

We wish to thank the visiting class of Pleasant Grove for their co-operation and assistance in our work and want to invite them back and all others who love music to come be with us on the second and fourth Sunday evenings of each month. We have songs for every person, if you are weary come and listen to the music and we feel sure you will feel better, or on the other hand if you want to express your feelings come and help us sing praises unto God, the maker and giver of all good and perfect Gifts. It has been said that "music washes away from the soul the dust of every day life," if that is the case come to the singing service after a week of toil and labor and go home rested and in peace with all mankind. Van Cleve said, the most truthful music is the most religious, and the most religious is the most beautiful. We do not claim to have the most beautiful music but we have some music "that helps." All are cordially invited to come and be with us.

Here is tentative agenda of Disarmament Conference — Headline. Now we wonder what that is they are going to consider. Maybe it is what Japan wants to whip Uncle Sam about.

"The Democratic party, as a patriotic organization and one interested in regaining control of governmental affiars, must not only refrain from captious criticism, but must actively support the administration in its efforts to disarm the nation and thereby reduce taxation and guarantee the peace of the world." This is a statement made public by Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic leader in the U. S. Senate, and Democracy's representative on the conference for limitation of armaments of the world.

The American Legion is to be commended for their effort in attempting to spread the news of the coming of the Government Clean-Up-Squad and to assist the ex-service men of Chilton in securing final action on cases now pending as well as those presented when the Squad comes to Clanton. This is a real exemplification of their motto of "Service." In this work, as ex-service men, they are proving that they have at heart the welfare of the Nation's disabled first. It would be well if the general public would join in this effort to make it a typical Clean Up Campaign in Chilton County.

PROTECTION AT HOME.

The people of this country should keep an eye on the economic situation in Europe where industries are being compelled to choose between closing, or reorganizing along lines of much lower wages and longer hours in order to meet the competition of Germany. If the importing interests of the United States, plus the professional free trader, plus ohter interests which are more concerned about the prosperity of European nations than they are about that of American industries and American working men, have their way this will become a country of wide open customs houses and tight shut mills.

As between building up European industries or American Industries, the Republican party has always stood in favor of American industries. It is not merely an economic problem of vital importance; it is a matter of fundamental Americanism,—of protecting our national producers, husbanding our national resources and strengthening our national independence—for no nation not independent economically can remain independent politically. It is high time the people awake to the seriousness of the challenge that is being made of this American policy which is also a fundamental Republican doctrine.

AN OLD FASHIONED DADDY.

"An Old Fashioned Daddy," will be the subject of Rev. Weigle at the Union Tent Meeting Friday night. It is going to be a great treat to hear this sermon. There are so many boys and girls and young men and young women in these days who have never seen one of those old fashioned daddys that it makes the subject a unique one. The same service at which Rev. Weigle will tell you about the old fashioned daddy is also designated as family night. All families who attend are requested to sit in family groups.

THE PEACE TREATY

The completion of a separate treaty with Germany, signed and ready for presentation of the United States Senate, is another striking tribute to the efficiency of the diplomacy of the State Department under Secretary Hughes, and the stalwart Americanism which marks the Harding Administration in all of its foreign policies. The treaty negotiated and signed within six weeks after the Congress passed the joint resolution declaring an end to a state of war between the United States and Germany. The resolution was passed and signed by President Harding July 2. The separate treaty was signed on August 25th.

Briefly outlined the treaty preserves to the United States every privilege, right and advantage which belong to her by reason of her participation in the war as one of the victors. In view of this it is interesting to trace the attitude of the anti-Administration, pro-Wilson papers and influences.

They opposed the peace resolution and opening of negotiations for a separate peace upon the ground that such action would leave the United States alone and unfriended by any of the Allies and would enable Germany either to refuse to make any treaty or drive us to accept a German-made treaty that would humiliate us This was in keeping with President Wilson's threat and prediction that if the Treaty of Versailles were not ratified the United States would have to go hat in hand and humbly beg Germany for peace terms.

After the passage of the resolution, anti-Administration syndicate writers and the Democratic press kept up a daily barrage to the effect the Harding administration didn't know what it was going to do, that the Allies wouldn't let the Administration make peace with Germany, that the State Department was trying to get the consent of the Allies for the United States to negotiate a separate peace treaty, that Germany had decided not to enter into peace negotiations with the United States, and much more to the same effect.

All this time the State Department was saying nothing,—but was negotiating a separate treaty which speaks for itself. As for the opposition press and the "special writers" whose only education in statecraft was tricked through the censor at the Hotel Crillon in Paris,—they are left the embarrassing choice of admitting they were irresponsible scribblers who didn't know what they were talking about or they ere engaged in deliberate misrepresentation which reflected not merely upon the Administration but upon the competency and puissance of the American government.

And now,—it is to smile indulgently,—these same Administration critics who were portraying the Administration as impotent and helpless to negotiate a treaty (except by the tolerance of the Allies and the charity of Germany) are deeply shocked that the treaty is so "hard," so selfish, such a "cash register treaty" which ignores the Allies and is so stern with Germany.

FOR MEN AND BOYS ONLY

"When a Man's a Man," will be the subject of Rev. Weigle at the service for men and boys only, at the big Union tent meeting next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Boys under twelve years old will not be admitted to this service. Everybody within reach of this town is urged to come to this service. You will hear something that will help you morally, and spiritually. Weigle has got the goods and the machinery it takes to deliver them. Come get your share.

Supt. of Education H. L. Foshee is planing to build another residence on his property in front of the Grammer schooll. He has only recently completed the house he lives in; the building he is now planning will be built for rent, and anybody wanting a good place near the school will find it a suitable location.

THE HOSPITAL IS COMING

Just because there has been a temporary cessation of agitation on the hospital question, no one need get the idea that the matter is slowing up in any degree. It is just now where the real work is to start. The stock is being taken up by those who tentatively subscribed for it, and the money is coming into the treasury right along.

A committee has been named to receive suggestions for the purchase of a lot upon which to build the building. This committee will consider all available places in the city, and receive offers on same, reporting to a meeting of the stockholders at a later date. This committee is composed of M. D. Foshee, M. A. Gore and Charley Cox.

The plans for the building have been drawn up by Mr. Ed Plier and have been looked over by the officers of the hospital and approved for adoption. Mr. Plier before drawing these plans visited hospitals in Selma, Birmingham, Montgomery, and even went out of the state and visited several of the hospitals in the city of New Orleans. He has embodied in our plans all the best and latest features of the finest hospitals in the south, and the one we are going to build is not going to be some kind of an excuse for a hospital. It is going to be modeled and arranged with the best ideas of all the hospitals which the architect has visited. Material for the building will be bought right away.

We want to mention here again the urgent need for this institution. Almost every day there is somebody coming to Clanton for hospital treatment. They of course have to be turned away, and they go to other cities. Clanton must care for these sick folks here. We owe it to ourselves as a thriving and modern little city. And we owe it to the people for what they have a right to expect a hustling city to do for them.

Get ready now to make the last final pull for the Central Alabama Hospital. It must go over the top. Buy the stock which you have pledged to take, and the rest will take care of itself. Up to now we have been running the hospital on hot air. Now we must have the kale.

CURRY, THE SINGER

Some people may think it is just a habit of newspapers to say that every singer that comes to town to conduct the music for a revival is the best one that we have ever heard. Well, of course we would not be guilty of humiliating any singer by saying in his presence that we have heard better ones. If we had heard better ones we would write it some way without saying it in those naked words.

But ith all due respects to Roland, Jelks, and the others who have been here, we are bound to say that Mr. C. P. Curry steps out ahead of them. That is the honest truth now, and we do not say it just because Curry is in town and the other fellows are not.

Possibly the biggest secret of Mr. Curry's success lies not so much in the fact that he is a wonderful singer his own self; but more in his ability to put the singing spirit into others. There has never before been a choir gotten together in Clanton that sings with such spirit as that which is following te direction of Mr. Curry in the present revival.

We are glad to note that W. E. Snead of Boaz, has been nominated by President Harding for the position of Collector of Internal Revenue for Alabama. This means that the regular Republican party organization in Alabama is to be recognized when appointments are made. This is as it should be. We need a Republican party in Alabama worse than we need a Republican Club in Birmingham. The way to have a better Republican party is to stand by the one we already have.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of 85 and 90 years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spar emen, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.

WEIGLE, THE EVANGELIST

Due to the wide publicity which has been made of the City-Wide Evangelistic Campaign of all the churches in Clanton uniting, we might say that the people of this community had worked themselves up to a high pitch of expectation with which to greet the conductor of these services, Rev. C. F. Weigle. But we feel safe to say that when this marvelous preacher appeared before his first congregation under the big tent last Sunday, there was not one in all that vast throng who felt disappointed in having expected too much of him. He more than filled the bill on that first appearence, and every service since that of Sunday, he has been heaping the measure fuller and fuller. His promise in the beginning that he was going to wake Clanton up religiously begins to look like it is going to come true. He is making them hotter and hotter, and there is no telling where he will go before he stops.

WHAT THE COUNTY QUEENS WILL WEAR IN BIRMINGHAM

Many inquiries are coming in to the local semi-centennial committee asking what the county queens who will come to Birmingham to meet President and Mrs. Harding are expected to bring along in the way of wearing apparel.

While no definite policy is being outlined, and every girl will be allowed to bring what she pleases, she can get along with a few things and not be encumbered with a lot of baggage if she wishes to.

For these are really the only vital things: A tailored suit, a hat, some pretty blouses to wear with the tailored suit to the various luncheons that will be given, and an evening dress.

Outside of that, they can bring what they want, but they are not, in this age, expected to come like Queen Sheba, or queens of old who arrived with 40 horsemen and other accessories and 100 servants to salaam.

The tailored suit will do for the parade of the President, don't you see? The blouses will look mighty sweet for luncheons, and the evening dress will be for the queens when they attend the President's reception, and march after him and Mrs. Harding in the grand march.

And one mighty little grip would hold it all.

Birmingham wouldn't for the world put herself in the position of telling the county queens what they shall wear—understand that. But what they'll actually need is different, and if you look over the list you'll see it won't be an awful lot of money even if fathers had to buy the whole wardrobe new, which isn't necessary, either.—Age-Herald.

OAK HILL

The United Singing Society which is composed of Oak Hill, Union Grove, Collins Chapel and Jemison classes, met in regular session at this place Sunday evening with a large crowd in attendance. The singing was fine and enjoyed by all present. All the classes were well represented, and we were glad to have the visiting singers from Oak Grove, Thorsby and other places with us. Among the many visitors we noticed the smiling face of our old friend, Uncle Billie Green who has often motored all the way from Birmingham to be with us, and by the use of his faithful Dodge helped to build up the society. We were glad to have Prof. A. H. Glasscock with us again, though unable to Direct.

Our president being present the society was called to order at 2 o'clock and Miss Lessie Vinzant was chosen to direct the opening song, after which prayer was offered by J. M. Langston. The directors for the afternoon were Prof. J. L. Harris, Vernon Northcutt, Vester Campbell, Charles Glasscock, Leonard Glasscock, E. L. Glasscock and Prof. Harris who was called to direct the closing songs. Organist for the evening were Misses Ester Atkinson, Myrtle Dorminey, Sybil Langston, Emma Arledge.

They, like all the other singers did their best and it was said by many to be one of the best we have had yet.

After the closing song was sung prayer was offered by the president. The society adjourned to meet with Jemison Baptist church next Sunday evening at 2 o'clock. Every one who possibly can go do so and lets make Jemison ring again with sweet songs in praise to Him from whom cometh all good things.

Come and be with us. We are always glad to see you.

MRS. ELIZA ROBINSON DEAD

Mrs.Eliza Robinson, wife of J. M. Robinson of Mineral Springs, died about nine o'clock Tuesday morning, Sept 27, 1921, after a lingering illness of several days. The cause of her death was blood poison, which had set up from an injury on her foot.

The deceased was one of those sweet and lovable women of the olden days, having always a kind and cheerful disposition, even in times of adversity. She was the light of her home and the guide of her children unto the pathway ofrighteousness.

She is survived by the following children who mourn the loss of one whose memorywarms their hearts with a passionate love that nas been their joy and comfort tnroughout life: Charley Robinson of Jemison; Walter Robinson of Mineral Springs; Mrs G. D. Retherford, Clanton; Mrs. Ab Retherford of Mineral Srings; Mrs. Will Martin of Billingsley; Mrs. Henry Dobbs of Mineral Springs. All her children and her husband were with her during her illness.

The remains were laid to rest in the Robinson Grave yard near the family home Wednesday.

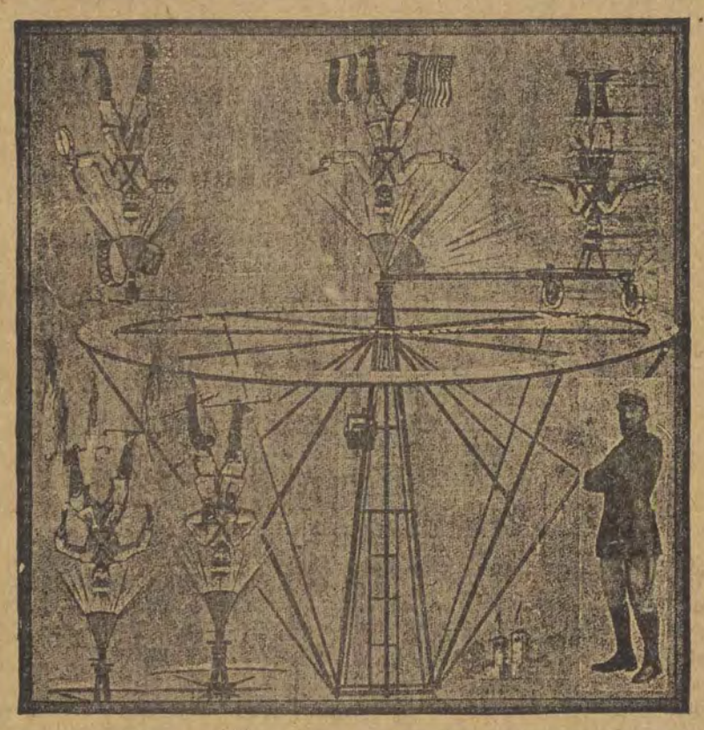
ALABAMA STATE FAIR LOWERS ENTRANCE CHARGES THIS YEAR



EXHIBITIONS AT BIRMINGHAM TO EXCEED ALL FORMER FAIRS ACCORDING TO DENT.

"Back to Pre-War Prices" is the slogan of the Alabama State Fair, to be held in Birmingham during the week of Oct. 3-8. The general admission to this big exhibition will be but 50 cents, while children may enter for 25 cents. Grand stand tickets for the special performances will likewise be reduced, this year the cost being but 50c for adults and 25c for children, according to J. L. Dent, Secretary of the Alabama State Fair Association.

And in line with this policy of giving the public their full money's worth, the dandy program will include the very best exhibits, performers and sideshows obtainable, according to Mr. Dent.

Among the attractions to be offered this year will be horse, auto and motorcycle races, Jersey Ringel, daredevil aero wonder; stupendous hippodrome acts, the well known Johny Jones' shows, and many other attractions. There will also be a large and varied exhibit of agricultural products, cattle and other products of perfection, selected from the best the State of Alabama offers.

Special atention will be given to the matter of parking cars this year, and much additional space has been provided for this purpose than heretofore. The parking space will be sufficiently large to accomodate all the cars expected.

MONS. LATOUR

(Gyroscopic wizard, who in an act embracing the last word in thrills, will perform twice daily at the Alabama State Fair, Birmingham October 3-8.)

Stupendous Hippodrome Acts To Thrill Fair Audiences

Hippodrome acts—too large and extensive for the vaudeville stage—will be one of the distinct features of Alabama's State Fair to be held at Birmingham, Oct. 3-8.

These acts, each of sensational interest and amusement, have been carefully selected from a wide variety of talent, and each individual represents the cleverest and best arranged performances of its kind obtainable.

Of special interest to fair goers will be the performance of Mons. Latour, skilled acrobat, who turns and twists in innumerable revolutions while moving at terrific speed. Mons. Latour does his entire act on a specially designed tower which enables him to provide so many thrills for his audience.

The Willards, in "The Fantasy of Jewels" offers a novel and alluring act which is expected to be of tremendous interest to those attending the fair. These performers became widely known as a result of their efforts at the San Francisco Exposition in the "Tower of Jewel Girl" and her clever company of talented musicians. This stupendous musical novelty of modern times has been referred to by many as the mammoth musical production of the world.

The "Six American Aces," an act participated in by six young blooded Americans, is another hazardous one, offering many thrills to those who witness it. This performance embraces many thrilling stunts in aerial trapeeze work. There are three sensational flyers and three wonderful catchers. They will be seen twice daily during the full week of the fair.

Madam Bedini's Blue Blooded Thoroughbreds will likewise appear both in the afternoon and evening during the fair. There are seven horses and five people participating in this performance. This production is valued at $50,000 and travels in its own especially designed baggage car.

Another sensational performance is that of "The Great Diving Ringens," sensations of the century. This is guaranteed to be the highest and most spectacular of any diving act ever offered in Birmingham.

Tripping along safely and securely on the tight wire, the Lamont Trio will offer an especially interesting performance of courageous and sensational feats, consisting of walking, running dancing, passing and re-passing each other on the wire.

Two laughable acts to be seen this year will be those of the Rainbow Trio. Comedy bumps and falls are presented by comic characters, creating endless outbursts of laughter. This trio has just returned from Havana, Cuba, where they were the laughable features of the Ciro Pubillones circus.

In every respect the acts arranged for this year are expected to surpass any previous offering in brilliancy, daring and amusement.

Special effort will be made by the Fair Management to make the Poultry and Pet Stock exhibit take its place as one of the leading attractions There is more interest in poultry this season than ever before and it is expected that the Poultry and Pet Stock people will fill the exhibit building to over-flowing. Thousands of people in all walks of life, the farm or the back yard have enough standard bred poultry to pick a pair, a trio or a pen of fancy birds and enter them in a show for competition. Pick them out, get them in good condition and show them to your fellow man.

GUERNSEYS AND JERSEYS TO BE ON EXHIBITION AT FAIR.

Approximately $3,000 Will Be Awarded Various Winners In Dairy Cattle Exhibition.

Special attention is being given this particular department of the annual fall exhibition in Brmingham. It is under the supervision of Robert N. Bell.

Entries for compeition for the large cash prize awards will close Sept. 27, and judging will begin October 4th.

All animals entered for this competition must be registered or accepted for record, according to J. L. Dent, Secretary of the Alabama State Fair Association.

All applications for entry must be accompanied by the name and register number of the animal and exact date of birth. Applicants for entry where the age determines the class or classes to which the animal is eligible, must give date of birth. Fee for exhibitor's ticket and stall rent must accompany application for entry.

The largest class to be exhibited will be that of Guernseys, which will be open to the world. This class will embrace eighteen separate sub-classifications and the total awards in prizes will aggregate approximately $1,500. Special awards will be presented animals awarded first prize in class rings and eligible to compete for championship.

The other principal class to be displayed will be that of Jerseys, and the total prizes to be awarded will be nearly $1,500.

GOVERNOR CALLS EXTRA SESSION

EIGHTEEN DIFFERENT PROPOSITIONS NAMED FOR CONSIDERATION IN CALL.

Montgomery.—Within a day after Governor Kilby's return from a ten day trip East, he issued a proclamation calling the Alabama legislature into extraordinary session, naming the date as Tuesday, October 4, at 12 o'clock.

Eighteen different subjects are included in the Governor's proclamaion for consideration at the session, including permission for the manufacture and sale of cereal beverages, revision of the Sunday observance laws, soldiers poll tax exemption, good roads, port of Mobile, school appropriations, sale of fertilizer tags, to authorize suits against unincorporated associations, University coal lands convict employment, city water supplies, to provide advice of supreme court judges on bills before they are enacted into law, substitution of tax records, blacklisting and boycoting laws, keeping of county funds, salt water shrimp, changes of venue, to provide penalties in connection with section 7654 of the code, to appropriate money for the extra session.

Text of Proclamation.

"A proclamaion by the governor:

"Whereas, in my opinion an emergency exists requiring the action of the legislature of Alabama, concerning the matters hereinafter spefically mentioned.

"Now, therefore, I, Thomas E. Kilby, governor of the state of Alabama, do hereby call an extraordinary session of the legislature to convene at the capitol in the senate chamber and in the hall of the house of representatives on Tuesday, the fourth day of October, 1921, at 12 o'clock, noon, and I do hereby designate the following subjects and matters as those concerning which action of the legislature is deemed necessary, namely:

"(1) To provide for raising money to match funds appropriated by the United States government for the building and maintenance of highways and bridges in the state of Alabama, and to amend the act creating the state highway commission and to amend sections 1408 and 1409 of the Code of 1907 providing for the issuance of bonds by municipalities for road improvement purposes.

"(2) To provide for exemptions of soldiers, sailors and marines from payment of poll taxes.

"(3)To provide for the development of ports, water fronts and river systems.

"(4) To revise laws relating to the observance of Sunday and to regulate the exhibition of motion pictures.

"(5) To permit the mafnufacture and sale of non-alcoholic cereal beverages.

"(6) To appropriate money to the State Training School for Girls for building purposes.

"(7) To amend the law governing the printing and use of fertilizer tags.

"(8) To authorize the bringing of suits against unincorporated associations.

"(9) To amend the act which provides for the employment of convicts in mining coal on university coal lands and abolishes the system of leasing convicts.

"(10) To enable cities and towns to provide means to secure adequate supplies of pure and wholesome water.

"(11) To provide that advice of the judges of the supreme court of Alabama may be furnished to the governor and the legislature concerning the constitutionality of bills proposed to be introduced in the legislature or bills pending therein.

"(12) To provide for the substitution of tax records of counties which have been lost, stolen or destroyed and for the assessment and collection of taxes for any year when such assessment and collection depends upon substituted records.

"(13) To amend chaper 176 of the Code of 1907, regulating boycotting and blacklisting.

"(14) To provide for the deposit and keeping of county funds.

"(15) To further protect salt water shrimp within the waers of the state of Alabama and within the water subshrimp within the waters of the state

"(16) To amend the statutes of the state providing for change of venue.

"(17) To provide penalties for failure to comply with section 7654 of the code.

"(18) To appropriate money to defray the expenses of the special session hereby called.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed at the capitol in the city of Montgomery, on this the twenty-fourth day of September, 1921.

Mrs. Wade's Story of Her Visit to Textile Industrial Institute in S. C.

As an incident to my recent visit to the mountains of North Carolina, I took advantage of the opportunity to visit and see the famous Textile Industrial Institute at Spartanburg, S. C. For some years past I have heard and read something of this splendid school, and I was anxious to go over the plant and see the school in operation.

I stopped off at Spartanburg last week on my return trip from Hendersonville, N. C. for the sole purpose of looking over the Textile Industrial Institute. I went to the office of the President, Rev. E. D. Camak, who greeted me very cordially and very kindly took the time to conduct me over the entire school, showing me the various departments in operation and explaining the whole system fully. The buildings and grounds are very beautiful, and include the finest cotton mill in the world, Hammond Hall, the principle building of the school, the library building, which was once used as a library at a nearby army camp, a dormitory building, and the home of President Camak. The buildings and all operations of the school are owned and controlled by the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The student body is composed of poor young men and women who can attend no other school, or for such as desire to specialize in the practical knowledge of cotton mill work. Under certain circumstances married young people are admitted, and many men and their wives are found here working out a practical education. The oldest student at the school has two sons as classmates.

The method of work and study which the students pursue is explained as follows: The student body is divided into two sections, A and B, each student having a partner. The week A is in school B runs the job in the mill, and the next week they exchange places. In this way the machinery in the mill is kept in constant operation, and at the same time every student attends school every other week. During holidays and vacations the patrons are jointly responsible for the running of their jobs.

The exactness with which this plan is carried out is the most impressive thing I have ever seen. The boys and girls who attend the school are taught the highest moral and religious principles in addition to the regular requirements of an all round education, and the practice of cotton mill work as their life trade. In this plan the work of the cotton mill is removed from the old ruts of drudgery, dust and disease, and placed upon a high plane of cleanliness, health and education.

I wish to quote the following from President Camak's story of the Textile Industrial Institute:

There is not a person on the campus who has not made a public profession of saving faith in Jesus Christ and forty-nine per cent of those thus professing arrived at the school unconverted. Sixty-five per cent of the student-body have prayed for an education chance prior to entering here. It has been demonstrated that a grown man can make five primary grades in school in ten months while working every other week in the mill. A high school can be conducted on this half-time basis with the student operatives making on the average a class a year, just as other high schools do. Our grown-up, near-illiterates get ready for college in three to five years and "hold their own" in every phase of colloge life with the public school product.

Our graduates are sought after by college authorities "because they give moral tone to the college campus." The public, once dubious of the social worth of cotton mill operatives, is fast being convinced that they are an asset instead of a liability. The mill people themselves have been stimulated to think of themselves as an important segment of American society, thus engendering self-respect as a basis of social evolution in the mill village. A piece of practical work has been done in such a thoroughgoing manner as to convince working people that after all the Church does care. Perhaps the finest cotton mill in the world belongs in fee simple to the Methodist Episcopal Church, So., in whose social vision and Christian sincerity organized industry has shown its confidence by donating heavily toward the Model Mill.

There is no danger of subsidy by corporations because they know we stand on Christian principles, and Christian principles cannot be subsidized. A staggering responsibility has, by this simultaneous confidence of the worker on the one hand and the employer on the other, been suddenly thrust upon the Church.

"Character Cloth," manufactured in our own Model Mill, by our own students exclusively, is guaranteed never to fade, never to shrink, and seldom wear out, and is to be sold direct to the home of the consumer by parcel post. Every dollar made on "Character Cloth" will be reinvested for the promulgation of a big scheme which has, under the hand of God, been developing here for the moral, religious and social salvation of three-quarters of a million of the purest Anglo-Saxons on earth.

There are already many Student Volunteers among our students, who will carry the spirit of the Textile Institution and its Christ to the uttermost parts.

If the reader should find it difficult in this materialistic age to accept the story of the seeming miraculous as it runs through the narrative of this wonderful accomplishment, he should stop off at the Textile Industrial Institute some day as I did, and see at first hand, the wonderful things that are being carried on for the elevation of poor and otherwise helpless boys and girls.

Pimples Denote Waste Products In The Blood

So Do Blackheads, Boils and Similar Skin Disorders.

The human system is forever striving to get rid of the waste products. It is a life-work which goes on forever. When waste products get in the blood, they cause a lowered vitality. As a result, we become subject to many painful and embarrassing ailments.

When these symptoms appear, Nature is warning us. To throw off the waste products the blood must be purified. Don't clog your blood. Just clean it out. Nature will do the rest. Pure, rich, red blood nourishes the body and fights off disease.

S. S. S., the standard blood purifier and system builder, is the ideal remedy for skin eruptions. The effect of S. S. S. is to rid the system of the waste products which are causing the trouble. For over 50 years S. S. S. has proven to be of unusual merit. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for 56 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.

ONE BRAND- ONE QUALITY- One Size Package

All our skill, facilities, and lifelong knowledge of the finest tobaccos are concentrated on this one cigarette—CAMEL.

Into this ONE BRAND, we put the utmost quality. Nothing is too good for Camels. They are as good as it's possible to make a cigarette.

Camel QUALITY is always maintained at the same high, exclusive standard. You can always depend on the same mellow-mild refreshing smoothness—the taste and rich flavor of choicest tobaccos—and entire freedom from cigaretty aftertaste.

And remember this! Camels come in one size package only—20 cigarettes—just the right size to make the greatest saving in production and packing. This saving goes straight into Camel Quality. That's one reason why you can get Camel Quality at so moderate a price.

Here's another. We put no useless frills on the Camel package. No "extra wrappers!" Nothing just for show!

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And their added cost must go onto the price or come out of the quality.

One thing, and only one, is responsible for Camels great and growing popularity—that is CAMEL QUALITY.

NEWS OF FRIENDSHIP CHURCH

Last Sunday was regular preaching day, and Rev. Lowery filled his regular appointment. He preached at 11:00 o'clock, and at 7:30 Sunday night he delivered his farewell sermon to this church, he having submitted his resignation as pastor of the church. Rev. Lowery has been preaching here ever since the church was organized some five years ago, and the people of the community sure hated to give him up.

Rev. E. A. Norris of Corinth has accepted the pastorate of the church for the ensuing year, and will deliver his first sermon the Fourth Sunday in October. We expect a large crowd to be out to welcome the new comer.

Sunday School was held at 10:00 o'clock, Mr. T. E. Wyatt acting as Superintendent. New officers were elected for the school, which resulted as follows: Superintendent, T. E. Wyatt; Secretary, Mrs. Mary Collins; Teachers, Prof. W. T. Bean, Miss Alice Wyatt, and Mrs. W. W. Hand.

The Young Peoples Union met at 6:30 Sunday evening with a fine attendancee. A nice program was rendered by Group No. 1. The Union launched a campaign to raise funds for painting the church building, and set out at once to collecting the money. About $20.00 was raised in a few minutes among the congregation, and a committee of six girls were appointed to look after the collecting of funds among the citizens of the community. Quite a nice sum has raised already.

Services will be held next Sunday as usual: Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. and B. Y. P. U. at 6:30, p.m. Everybody in reach is cordially invited to come.

Mr. Tom Patterson of Coopers was in Clanton Wednesday attending to some business matters. Mr. Patterson says the business boom has hit coopers good and stout. The town is going about its affairs in a business way. Those who have come to Coopers to do business will be privilege license, the funds of which will be used in improvement of the town in different ways.

Aerial Daredevil To Head Attractions At The State Fair

Heading the list of attractions, Jersey Ringel, ace of the air, who frequently comes within an ace of meeting death, will perform at the Alabama State Fair Grounds during the 1921 State Fair at Birmingham, and will twice daily go through his complete reportoire of startling and sensational stunts.

Ringel, who appeared at last year's fair, and who was pronounced a worthy successor to the late Lieut. Locklear in his daring prowess, had added a number of additional features to his performance, and it is said by those who have seen his performances recently that they have never been equaled by any other airman in the country.

In addition, Ringel's mechanical ability has tended to assist him in his efforts of daring, giving him a pronounced advantage over Locklear. To those who have watched Ringel perform it would seem he has scattered care to the four winds, but not so. Prior to each performance he carefully scans each panel and section of his planes, not overlooking the slightest suporting wire or part. All the controls are carefully gone over and the linen wing covers are likewise examined for defects.

And the motor is given the closest scrutiny, being tested thoroughly before each flight for any defects that might result disastrously for him.

His knowledge and application to mechanics in this respect has been the principal reason of his continued success and safety in so daring a calling.

The two flights of this aero wonder will be made in the afternoon and night, respectively. During the first flight he will go through a full program of daring events, vastly more spectacular this year than last. The night program will offer a new feature never witnessed in Birmingham before. He will go through a similar program as the afternoon, but with the addition of brilliantly illuminated torches, enabling spectators to see his performance.

This pyrotechnic display will be offered in addition to the performances of Ringel, according to J. L. Dent, Secretary of the Alabama State Fair Association, presenting every kind and type of amusement.

The Alabama State Fair this year will be continuous through the week of October 3-8. For Catalog or other information, write J. L. Dent, Secretary of the Alabama State Fair Association, Birmingham, Ala.

SCOTCH HIGHLAND BAND TO FURNISH MUSIC AT FAIR

BOBBY BROLLIER

(Scotch tenor, who with the Royal Scotch Highland Band, will render two concerts daily at the Alabama State Fair, Birmingham, October 3-8.)

Music lovers will delight in knowing that officials of the Alabama State Fair Association this year have succeeded in securing the Royal Scotch Highland Band, for regular twice daily band concerts during the Alabama State Fair in Birmingham.

This organization of musicians is widely kown throughout Alabama for the excellent concerts rendered here in the past, and it was principally because they were so universally liked that the Alabama State Fair Association officials determined to secure another engagement for the 1921 State Fair.

As a special feature of this organization, Bobby Brollier, Scotch tenor and often termed "The Harry Lauder of the outdoor amusement world," will appear at each performance and will render special vocal selections during each concert.

The Royal Scotch Band is an organization of 30 pieces. Roy D. Smith is the conductor.

This band will be one of the principal features of the daily exhibitions in front of the grand stand.

Among other special acts to take place during these performances will be "The Five Eugene Boys," and Ce'Dora—"The Girl in the Golden Globe."

Each of the Five Eugene Boys are marvels of health and physical perfection. They will give a performance in the afternoon and evening each day the fair is in progress. Their act consists of an exhibition of lofty acrobatics and somersaults, and they accomplish each of their sensational feats with ease and gracefulness that immediately commands the admiration of the audience.

This act is one of the most skillful to be presented at the fair this year.

How'd you like to loop the loop on a motorcycle, encased in a huge golden laticed sphere? That's just what Ce'Dora, the Girl in the Golden Globe will do twice a day at the forthcoming Fair at Birmingham.

This act is said to be the most novel and sensational of all the big thrilling features that have appeared before the public in many years. It consists of two girls riding cycles and motorcycles within a huge steel laticed sphere. This, however is only a prelude to the thrilling portion of the act when M'lle Ce'Dora loops the loop on the interior while traveling at full speed on the motorcycle.

The Ce'Dora have been featured for a number of years by Barnum and Ringling Circus, during their annual engagement at Madison Square Garden, New York.

These and many other acts will be on the regular daily program of the Alabama State Fair this year.

We call your attention to the special reduced fare which the L. & N. Railroad is offering from Clanton to Birmingham on account of the State Fair next week.

This week Clanton has had two big rains, the first of any consequence since last April. It will take many more good ones to get the ground good and wet.

WE WANT FIDDLERS

Modern Jazz artists have had their fling, and so far as we folks down here in Verbena are concerned, for the present they are to be relegated to the back ground, and out of the past will be brought those famous old melodies of the days when dads and gran'dads and their sweethearts tripped lightly to the strains of "Johny, Will Your Dog Bite?" "Tom Sawyer," "Devil's Hornpipe," "Highland Fling," "Sally, Put the Kettle on," and many other of those olden time pieces which are entirely foreign to knowledge of younger generation.

We are going to have an old fiddlers' convention here, and give the best fiddlers prizes—and nice ones, too. No one will be barred excepting "violinists," or professionals, for this affair will be for the fiddlers, and banjoists, but mostly for the fiddlers. There will be a prize for the best string orchestra, too, but don't get your mind off the fact that fiddlin' will be the main show.

If you are a fiddler, or have a friend who is a fiddler, send the name in at once to W. E. G. Sutton, who has charge of the affair, and let him get an idea of how many will be here. We can take care of all of you, and want you here. Do not forget the date—October 21,—Friday. Place, Verbena. Further announcement will be made through the papers of the county, and by poster. Look for it.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE OCTOBER THE FIRST

The Chilton County Teachers Institute has been called by Supt. Howard L. Foshee, to meet at the Chilton County High School Building on Saturday, October 1st. The session will be for one day only. Dear Editor:—Will you allow me a small space in your paper to say a few words in regard to this place. Health is just fine. Cotton picking is all the go.

Our B. Y. P. U. gave it's first social Saturday night at Mr. Green Burnett's. Sandwiches cake and lemonade were served to a large crowd. Everyone seemed to enjoy it.

We are sorry to know that Mr. Cary Martin is going to move off and leave us, for he is such a faithful church worker. He has been superintendent of our Sunday school for some time. He will reside at Thorsby.

Mr. R. C. Collins and family spent the day at Mr. A. J. Davis Sunday.

Miss Claudia Davis and Estelle Collins spent Sunday evening with Misses Ruth and Jewell Martin.

Miss Lessie Mims spent Saturday night with Miss Antionette Gore.

Miss Stella Lowery spent Saturday night with Misses Audell and Delene Burnette..

DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING

During the heavy rain which visited this territory Tuesday evening, the lightning and thunder played hide and seek all around here.

Lightning struck the home of Mr. Floyd Aldridge, and he and his wife were severely shocked, his wife suffering the worst injury of the two. Several large holes were knocked in the roof and walls of the house, and one of the sills was shattered all up. Some half a dozen chickens were killed under the house. One or two small children were in the house but they were uninjured.

Another stroke hit the house of Mr. Henry Burnett on the north side of town, doing slight damage to the building. No person was hurt there.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(Nettie Dennis Reporter.)

This being test week we are all real busy.

We had the pleasure of having with us on Monday morning, Mr. Toy Williams, a missionary from China, and on Tuesday morning Dr. Weigle, the Evengelist, Mr. Curry the singing director and Rev. P. G. Carter to conduct our chapel exercises.

The Sophomores have organized their class and are proud of the following officers:

President, Lucien Duncan; Vice-President, Flossie Wilson; Sect. and Treas., Otto Miller; Historian, Charles Moore; Poet, Grace Sims; Musician, Jewel Minor; News Reporter, Zora Belle Foshee.

Also the Juniors have elected the following officers:

President, Willie Higgins; Vice-President, Elly Daniels; Sec. and Treas., Clara Vines; Historian, Lorene Parrish; Poet, Gertymae Davis; Musician, Agnes Kemp; News Reporter, Gladys Kemp; Goat, Pauline Wagoner.

Mr. J. D Collins who was a member of our Sophomore class was married last Friday to Miss Mary Duke. After a brief honeymoon has returned to resume his sturies.

We are sorry to part with one of our class mates, Luther Little, who is going to teach.

We are planing to have one of the hardest foot ball games of this season Friday afternoon with Marbury. We would be glad to have the town, as well as the school represented there.

SEPARATE TREATY WITH GERMANY TO BE GIVEN SENATE AFTER RECESS

Protects All American Rights and All Foreign Entanglements

Washington. Sept. 26,—As soon as the Senate returns from its recess it will be presented with the treaty of peace with Germany which was completed and signed on the 25th day of August. The three salient features of the treaty are:

(1) The absolute and complete rejection of the covenant of the league of nations and all portions of the Varsailles treaty which refer to covenant.

(2) The reservation of the rights and advantages gained by the United States by the provisions of the Versailles treaty to which this nation is entitled as one of the principal allied and associated powers.

(3) Rejection of all provisions of the Versailles treaty which would commit the United States to sanctioning or helping in any way to maintain or defend any of the new boundaries set up by the Versailles treaty or new nations created by the Versailles treaty or the carrying out of any of the political provisions and concessions set forth in the Versailles treaty.

Untangling The Tangle

The first feature, that of the completed repudiation of the covenant of the league of nations, is self-explanatory. In this connection is interesting to note that just before he sailed for Paris the second time President Wilson announced that he would so interlace the league of nations with the treaty of peace that they could never be separated. It is now apparent, however, that the present administration has separated them.

The second feature simply preserves to the United States all of the rights and advantages to which it was entitled by reason of its participation in the war and by reason of its position and standing as a sovereign nation.

The most prevalent criticism is of the third feature. It is said the United States has deserted the allies by making this treaty; that we have taken to ourselves all of the rights and benefits which we might have obtained had we agreed to the Versailles treaty and at the same time we have refused to assume any of the responsibilities of the Versailles treaty and thereby left the allies to "hold the sack."

Allies Owe All To Us

Such critics ovedlook this point. Had not the American nation taken up arms and joined physically with the allies in the war against Germany the treaty of peace which would have eventually terminated the war between Germany and the allies would have been materially defferent than the treaty of Versailles, which was dictated to Germany.

In other words, American participation in the war and in the treaty conference, enabled the allied powers to write into the treaty of Versailles whatever clauses and terms that treaty contains that is of benefit to them and from which they have obtained any indemnities or reparations or concessions of any kind whatever, either in the form of additional territory, additional economic advantages or as in England's case, the destruction of the German navy. So instead of abandoning the allies, all that the allies have today of tangible benefit as a result of the Versailles treaty, they owe to the United States.

Germany Admits Her Guilt

Another charge which has frequently been made is that in the separate treaty Germany does not admit her responsibility for the war. This charge is not founded upon fact. The separate treaty with Germany particularly specifies Part 8 of the Versailles treaty as one of the provisions which shall apply to the treaty between the United States and Germany. Part 8, thus specially re-affirmed in the treaty with Germany, begins with the following:

"The Allied and Associated Governments affirm, and Germany accepts the responsibility of Germany and her allies causing all the loss and damage to which the allied and associated governments and their people have been subject as a consequence of the war imposed upon them by the aggression of Germany and her allies."

In brief, the separate treaty with Germany is an American treaty that stands foursquared for all American rights and for American sovereignty, and which stands equally firm against entangling this country in any of the quarrels and bickerings or open warfare which may occur in any quarter of the globe, as a result of the bitterness, which is the aftermath of the Versailles treaty.

Mrs. Eric Hart Entertains.

The members of the Friday night Club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Eric Hart on Friday night last. The apartments were glowing with bright golden glow and pot plants, and as the guests arrived they were served a delicious beveage by Mrs. Hart.

After a series of games Mr. Victor Heard was presented a deck of cards for a score prize.

Later in the evening the hostess served an elaborobe salad plate to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Heard, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pitts and Mrs. Carrie Mullins.

Mrs. Hart was assisted by Miss Maud Mullins.

Miss Adelaide Courtney of Montgomery is the attractive house guest of her sister, Mrs. Hugh Jones.

Mrs. E. E. Upchurch returned home Sunday from a short visit to relatives in Montevallo.

You can't have good health with a disordered stomach. Correct your stomach disorders with Tanlac and you will keep well and strong.

Mr. John Stanfield is spending the week in Clanton.

Mrs. L. H. Reynolds visited Montgomery last Thursday.

Miss Cecelia Fuqua left Friday for Tell City, Ind., where she will attend the Loretta Academy.

Mrs. J. C. Gowan will leave Thursday for her home in Kosie, Miss., after spending a year with her daughter here. Mrs. Ross Mullins will accompany her to Birmingham.

Civic Announcement.

The first Tuesday in October is the opening of the Civic Club year, but owing to the City-Wide Revival, the date has been postponed at present, to be announced at a later date. The Prospective Committee has planed for a very enthusiastic Club Calender and this promises to be one of the clubs historys fullest periods. A large membership is expected.

People who have been helped by Tanlac are always anxioos and willing to tell others aboot it.

Mrs. Martin Nix went to Birmingham Wednesday to spend a few days and to enter her daughter, Miss Gladys Mae into the Lula Compton School, which opens Thursday, Sept. 29th.

No Substitute Offered.

Say what you will about druggists offering something "just as good" because it pays a better profit, the fact still stands that 99 out of 100 druggists recommend Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, when the best medicine for diarrhoea is asked for, and do so because they know from what their customers say of it that it can be depended upon. —Adv.

Mrs. Ed Plier had as her guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Allen of Marvel and Mrs. J. W. Ray from Helena.

THE GREAT CITY WIDE EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

The largest audience that ever attended a religious meeting in Clanton packed the large tent erected in the west end of the city with 700 people, on the first night of the campaign, and more than 100 voices were present to lead the singing under the splendid leadership of the musical director. Dr. Carles F. Weigle who is doing some very forceful and powerful preaching, and Mr. C. P. Curry who is leading the great chorus choir, and doing some splendid singing together are a strong team. The themes dealt with by the evengelist are the timely and practical everyday sins and practices of the people. With strong uncrompromising language these things are handled in a masterly manner by the speaker, with an enthusiasm and intense earnestness that radiates through the eyes and seems to set every nerve and muscle in motion. The discourse on Sunday night on John the Baptist as the fearless uncompromising preacher of the truth, with its dramatic ending was listened to by the vast audience with wrapt attention. The sermon Monday night based on the text "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God and there is none righteous no not one," made a great impression as the evangelist pictured the various distinctions some endeavour to draw in society, between the upper, middle and lower classes, and the various forms of sin in which they engage. The sermon on Tuesday night on the Personality and Power of the Devil was in some respects the best of all so far. Notwithstanding the heavy rains the tent on Monday and Tuesday was comfortably filled. As the meeting grows it is fully and reasonably anticipated on the basis of the splendid start that some 1000 people will be in attendance before many days of the meeting have passed. Mr. C. P. Curry, the evangelistic singer has kind and pleasing personality that makes the people want to sing. His voice is charming and clear. On the platform stands a splendid folding organ which under the masterly touch of Mr. Curry is capable of producing music, and is one of the attractive features of the meeting.

The meeting will be held every night this week and beginning with Wednesday afternoon meetings will be held until Friday afternoon beginning at 3:30, p.m. as well as at night. It is earnestly desired that all the children will be allowed and make a special effort to attend these meetings in the afternoon, especially those who may not be able to attend at night. On Sunday afternoon a great Men's meeting is to be held when Dr. Weigle will preach on the subject "When a Man's a Man." All men and boys are earnestly invited to attend this meeting. It will be one of the best during the campaign.

The pastor of the churches appreciate the very liberal response of the people, and the large audiences at the very beginning of the meeting which seems to indicate that Clanton and possibly the whole community is on the verge of the greatest revival ever experienced in the city. The meetings begin each night promptly at 7.30 p.m. and we advise those who purpose to attend to be there on time if they expect to get a seat.

P. G. CARTER.

Mrs. Plier Hostess.

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the Embroidery Club was held on last Thursday when Mrs. Ed Plier was hostess.

Her attractive home was adorned with vases of roses, lending fragrance and beauty to the scene, pot plants were also placed advantageously about the rooms.

Fancy Needle work was the diversion of the evening and at the close of social hour the guests were served a delightful salad plate with delicious iced tea..

Enjoying this affair were Mesdames. Guy Roberts, Percy Pitts, Mack Wyatt, Grady Broadhead, J. C. Page, Eric Hart and L. F. Gerald.

The club gladly added the name of Mrs. Macy Jones to their roll.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN NEW MEXICO IS A STUN TO DEMOCRATS

Result a Splendid Endorsement of National Administration and Republican Candidate

Washington, Oct. 1, 1921.—Not since the Congressional electional in 1918, which wrested control of both houses of the Congress from the Democrats for the first time in eight years, has the Democratic party organization and leaders been so suprised and dumfounded as they are from the result of the special election in New Mexico which resulted in a landslide for the Republican candidate, Holm O. Bursum.

When the special election was called, the Democratic organization immeadiately began an intensive campaign to carry it. They nominated as their candidate for United States senator, Judge Hanna, who, as Democratic candidate for governor in New Mexico last year ran 4,000 ahead of the presidential ticket and conceded to be the strongest candidate they could have selected. The Democatic national oganization assumed the aggressive in the New Mexico campaign and sent a large squad of speakers into the state under the leadership of United States Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, Democratic floor leader in the Senate. The Democratic speakers and campaign committee forced the issue along national lines, insisting that the election would be a test of the people's faith in the Republican national administration.

Democrats Expected To Win

From the vigor with which they conducted the campaign from this angle it was very evident the Democratic organization believed they had more than an even chance of carrying the election. Perhaps according to the political "dope sheet" this may have been so. It is an "off year," which as a rule, works against the party in power. There was a third ticket n the field which it was presumed would draw prartirally all of its strength from the Republican candidate. With the exception of the tremendous majority President Harding received in New Mexico, elections in that state have been very close so that it appeared to the Democrats that it would be necessary for them to change but a few hundred votes in order to turn the tables.

Two things they didn't count on defeated them,—the popularity of President Harding and the Republican national Administration and the popularity of Senator Bursum. Now that it is over, the political wiseacres in the Democratic party admit the worst sort of tactics was used by them. The virulent attacks made upon the national administration by such speakers as Senator Pat Harrison, reacted against the Democratic candidate.

Bursum And G. O. P. Popular

In addition to this display of bad politics the Democratic organization was up against a very popular candidate in the person of Senator Bursum.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE HERE LAST SATURDAY

The teachers institute of Chilton County met at the County High School Building last Saturday. All teachers of the county who have contracted for schools in the county for the next year were in attendance at the meeting. Supt. Foshee informs us that the lineup of teachers for the schools of the county has been changed some from that as published last week, owing to the resignation of some dozen or more teachers in different places.

The organization of the Teachers Reading Circle work for the county this year was one of the most important things done at the Institute Saturday. The county was divided into three districts or groups, with officers as follows:

Clanton Group—W. E. G. Sutton of Verbena, Chairman; Miss Eula Mae Vines of Clanton, Secretary.

Maplesville Group—N. W. Harrison, Chairman; Ethel Gregg, Secretary.

Jemison Group—H. G. Steeley, Chairman; Kate McNeill, Secretary.

Meetings of the Reading Circle this year will be held on Saturdays, the first meeting of which will be held on the first Saturday in November. A program Committee was selected to arrange programs for each meeting of the different groups.

Matters relative to the compulsory attendance law, and the opening of the rural schools were discussed by the teachers, and all of them left this meeting prepared to begin the work of their schools which opened on Monday of this week.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

On account of the revival campaign now in progress in Clanton, there will be no preaching services at the Clanton Churches next Sunday morning. But the Sunday schools will meet as usual.

DeVAUGHN WILL SING

Prof. W. M. DeVaughn will be at Friendship next Sunday afternoon at the regular singing society. He requests that his classes from Maple Springs and Poplar Sprngs be present.

This cas apparent at the very outest. The convention which nominated him gave ample evidence of his unusual strength and popularity. It was a remarkable exhibition of enthusiasm which had but one object, the triumphant election of Mr. Bursum. From the time the convention adjourned ontil election day, the enthosiasm waxed rather than waned.

The result is a splendid vindication of the Republican national administration as well as a magnificent tribute by the people of Nef Mexico to Senator Bursum. The national significance was emphasized by the insistence of the Democrats upon waging the campaign on national issues.

Some idea of the magnitude of Senator Bursum's victory may be obtained from the fact that his majority is the largest ever given any candidate for any office in New Mexico and has been exceeded only by the majority given President Harding in 1920.

TENTATIVE PROGRAM FOR CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS ARMAMENTS

ENTIRE FAR EAST QUESTION TO BE EXHAUSTIVELY HANDLED BY INTERESTED POWERS.

Washington, Oct. 3.—The State Department has made public the official text of the tentative agenda, or program, for the approaching conference on limitation of armaments. Out of courtesy to the governments that have been invited to participate in the conference the State Department did not intend to give out this program until it had been formally accepted by the other powers, but inasmuch as some information as to the list of topics to be discussed had been made public from other sources and part of it was inaccurate, the State Department deemed it advisable to issue the correct text of the program as proposed and forwarded to the nations which will be officially in attendance. This program follows:

Limitation of Armaments.

One — Limitation of naval armament, under which shall be discussed (a) basis of limitation, (b) extent, (c) fulfillment.

Two—Rules for control of new agencies of warfare.

Three—Limitation of land armament.

Pacific and Far Eastern Questions.

One—Questions relating to China.

First—Principles to be applied; second—Application.

Subjects:

(a) Territorial integrity.
(b) Administrative integrity.
(c) Open door—equality of commercial and industrial opportunity.
(d) Concessions, monopolies or preferential
Economic privileges.
(e) Development of railways including plans to Chinese Eastern Railway..
(f) Preferential railroad rates.
(g) Status of existing commitments.

Two—Serbia (similar headings.)
ings.)

Three—Mandated islands. (Unless question earlier settled.)

Far East Discussion First

The State Department made it clear that although the subject of limitation of armements is put first upon the program it does not necessarily follow that it will be first to be discussed. Because it will be impossible to arrive at any satisfactory conclusions regarding limitation of armaments unless the vexatious problems of the Far East are settled in a manner satisfactory to all interested parties, it is more than likely that the Far Eastern questions will come first in actual discussion. An examination of topics relating to the Far East shows that economic, rather than political, interests will receive the consideration of the conference. Practically every problem affecting economic interests in the Orient will be discussed according to the tentative program.

Under the head "Questions relating to China" every phase of the Chinese question will be handled. This involves of course the general principles of monopolistic or preferential economic privileges in China. This includes not only concessions enjoyed by Japan but also those enjoyed by Great Britain, by which she has control of mining and railroad privileges in certain Chinese provinces.

Secret Treaties Dragged Out

The innocent looking sub-head, "Status of existing commitments," is really one of the most important subjects to be brought before the conference because its discussion will disclose secret agreements and concessions which have not been made poblic or, if known, are subject to various interpretations. Under this topic it will be necessary for the participating powers to make very clear what they regard as definite commitments, which of course will open up the entire subject of secret treaties and "gentlemen's agreement," parceling resources, commercial and industrial privileges and other economic rights in the Far East.

LIBERTY HILL

The Liberty Hill singing Society met Sunday afternoon Oct. 2nd. The crowd was small. We had some very good singing. Directors for the afternoon were: Glover Smith, Miss Claudie Smith, J. W. Lowery, Miss Lillie Smith and D. T. Melton. Organist were Lillie Smith and Blanche Riggins. Visitors are always welcome.

PLEASANT GROVE

Our singing society met Sunday afternoon with a large crowd and several visitors. The leaders for the afternoon were James Franklin, Euell Dawson, Chester Maddox, Mrs. Enie Childress, Miss Nora Franklin, Miss Collie Edwards, Cooper Scott and J. S. Wright. The organist were Mrs. Enie Childress, Miss Nora Franklin, and Miss Delene Wright. We were glad to have so many visitors with us and to have their co-operation with us. Our singing society meets every first and third Sunday afternoon. We invite all lovers of music to come and join us with us. I don't think there is a greater work that can be done than to meet together and sing the prises of God. We hope that our singing will not go dead but will grow stronger and stronger and that the Pates Chapel class will continue to co-operate with us in this good work. now we invite all lovers of music to come next third Sunday evening and bring somebody with you.

FLOYD

The singing society of this place met in it's regular session Sunday evening Oct. 2. We were called to order by President J. M. Taylor. After singing song No. 115 prayer was offered by Bro. J. J. Burkhalter. A committee was appointed to arrange the programe. The dirrectors for the afternoon were as follows: Mr. J. J. Burkhalter, Miss Lela Taylor, Prof. A. A. Beaird, Mrs. Onie Belle Burkhalter, Miss Leona Williams and Mr. W. A. Norrell. The organist for the afternoon were Prof. G. T. Anderson and Prof. A. A. Beaird. The singing was enjoyed by all who were present. We cordially invite all singers and lovers of music to come and be with us. We meet on the first Sunday afternoon of each month. After singing song No. 97 we were dismissed in order by Bro. Mack Wambells.

The presence of Rev. D. D. Head of Marbury was noted at the Weigle-Curry meeting Monday night. Mr. Head spent the night here en route to the meeting of the Unity Association at Ebenezer, Stanton, which met Tuesday morning for a two-days session.

Messrs Clarence and Leonard Parrish of Birmingham were visiting friends and relatives in Clanton last Sunday.

AUBREY THOMAS OBJECTS

A dispatch from Washington says that Aubrey Thomas, of Talladega county, who formerly represented an Ohio district in Congress, is in the national capital to protest against the appointment of W. E. Snead as Internal Revenue Collector of Alabama. Mr. Thomas saw President Harding, who is an old friend of his, in regard to the matter of his objection to Snead. Snead has the endorsement of the regular Republican organization in this state.

JEFFERS IN POSTOFFICE SCRAP

Congressman Lamar Jeffers has taken to the warpath in favor of the claim of Thomas M. Parrish, Democrat, for the position of Postmaster at Clanton. He has instituted a campaign in Washington in which he seeks to have Mr. Parrish appointed as Postmaster down here instead of giving the place to Mr. Wiley Bean, Republican. His latest statement on the matter seems to indicate that he has not received much consolation for his scheme from the President and Will Hays, Postmaster General. Jeffers bases his claim for Parrish mainly on the fact that he (Parrish) is an ex-service man, and is therefore entitled to preference in the appointment.

DOCTORS FAIL TO SHOW UP

Tuesday of this week was the day for the regular meeting of the doctors of Chilton County in the Chilton County Medical Society. The only ones of the profession who could be found about the court house at the time for the meeting were Dr. Gragg and Dr. Marcus. As these two did not constitute a quorum, no meeting was held.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS
(By Nettie Dennis.)

We are through with our test for this month now, but we are having to study hard yet to attend church and keep up our studies too.

We are sorry to say that our boys lost in the game with Marbury Friday, after putting up a hard battle the score being 6 to 0, in favor of Marbury, yet we are looking forward to win the game next Friday with Wetumpka on Wetumpka's ground.

We have several more new scholors this week which are Sophomores and Freshmen.

HOLLAND AND BELGIUM TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Washington, Oct. 4—The Netherlands and Belgium have been invited by President Harding to join the six other powers that will participate in the Washington conference that convenes on Armistice Day. It is not expected that either of those countries will take a leading part in the discussion on the limitation of armaments. Their part in the conference will be devoted to consideration of Far Eastern questions. The Netherlands has vast territorial interests in the Pacific, her holdings there being three and a half times the area of France, and more than seven times the area of the home country. The population of her Pacific colonies is estimated at 10,000,000. Belgium does not have large colonial possessions in that part of the world, but her economic interests in the Far East are considerable, and her people have large investments in China.

It is certain that the admission of Holland and Belgium to the conference will strengthen the determination of the United States to insist on the open door in China. Both countries are friendly to China, and the Chinese delegation will welcome their participation. Whatever plans Japan may have for extending her influence over China will be held in check by the vote of the newly invited members of the conference. With their participation in the meeting, every country, except Russia, that has an interest in Pacific affairs will be represented. The move to include Holland and Belgium was not only suggested by their apparent right to representation, but was dictated by the shrewdest diplomacy.

CRIMINAL CASES IN COURT

The criminal division of the Circuit Court of Chilton County will be in session for one week, beginning on Monday, October 31st, for the trial of criminal cases.

Cause For Mirth

When the young mistress of the house entered the kitchen she carried herself with great dignity. She had, incredible as it might seem, come to call the cook to account.

"Bridget," she said, "I must insist you have less company in the kitchen evenings. Last night I was kept awake by the uproarious laughter of one of your women friends."

"Yes, mum, I know," Bridget admitted cheerfully, "but she couldn't help it. I was telling her how you tried to make cake yesterday morning."—The American Legion Weekly.

PRETTY GIRL CONTEST CLOSES NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

MISS ROBERTA CURRY OF CLANTON LEADING IN COUNT THIS WEEK.

The count in the pretty girl contest this week places Miss Roberta Curry of Clanton in the lead by about five thousand votes. Miss Curry therefore takes the lead away from Miss Jennie Robinson of Thorsby who started out ahead in the first count last week.

The count for this week made by the Central Committee Tuesday evening, and the results as announced by that committee are as follows:

Roberta Curry	12,050
Jennie Robinson	7,700
Lena Downs	1,750
Agnes Gerald	1,100
Florence Foshee	1,050
Blossom Crumpton	1,075
Inga Erdahl	1,125

The contest will close next Tuesday night, October 11th. The Central Committee must make the final count on Wednesday, October 12th, and certify the successful candidate to the Birmingham Centennial Committee on that date. All people who may desire to vote for anyone in the contest are cautioned as to the date the voting closes. Remember you cannot vote unless your tickets are in the ballot boxes not later than Tuesday night. There is a box at Upchurch Drug Store in Clanton and one at The Union-Banner office.

Jeffers says he doesn't see why Harding said he would give the ex-service men prefeience in postoffice appointments unless he really intended to do it. He will answer his own juery by explaining why Woodrow Wilson said he would give postoffices to those who made the highest grade on civil service examinations, and then refusing to do so on the very first dash out of the box when a Republican showed up at the top of the list in the test for the Clanton office.

Let us not forget to call the attention of ex-soldiers of the world war that next Saturday is the opportunity for them to make their claims to the government for any benefits which they may be enitled to for injuries or wounds received while in the service. There will be a company of clerks here from the Veterans Bureau at New Orleans to assist in making out the necessary papers. The boys are requested to come to the Court House in Clanton next Saturday.

Another important step has been taken toward the consumation of the plans designed for the erection of a hospital in Clanton. At a meeting of the stockholders Monday afternoon the By-laws governing the management of the affairs of the corporation were adopted. At this same meeting a committee was appointed whose duty it is to buy a lot upon which to build the hospital and also to proceed with the work as soon as the material can be bought.

Splendid progress has been made in disposing of the stock, and already there is enough money paid in to buy the lot and make a good start in paying for the erection of the building.

TO HEAD OFF THE MOSQUITOES

We learn that the Alabama Power Company is having built a number of small fish ponds in the territory which will be flooded by the backwater from the new Mitchell Dam, putting them on every spring branch and little creeks. These ponds they are stocking with the top-water minnow, or Gambusina, which is said to destroy the larvae of mosquitos where ever found. They are getting the young minnows from the government as fast as they can be supplied. The idea is that the new lake will take in the ponds, two or three years hence, and thus be stocked with the mosquito destroyers, making the chance of malaria much less. In connection with this, however, is the query as to whether or not the trout and other big fish in the lake will not be as fond of the minnows as the minnows are of the young mosquitoes.

UNITY ASSOCIATION WAS A SUCCESS SAYS CARTER

Rev. P. G. Carter, Pastor of the Clanton Baptist Church, returned from Stanton Wednesday night where he has been attending the annual session of the Unity Baptist Association two days. He proclaims that the session was a successful one in every way for the Baptist cause. His praise for the manner in which the people of the Ebenezer Church entertained the Association is very commendatory.

Rev. W. J. Ruddick of Stanton was re-elected as Moderator of the Association, and Grady F. Harris of Clanton was re-elected as Clerk.

Rev. Carter preached the introductory sermon of the Association on Tuesday, using the subject: "The Liberty of Baptists in their Belief and Practice."

All the sessions of the Association were well attended and much interest manifested in all the deliberations and discussions.

Among the preachers whom Mr. Carter mentioned as being in attendance at the Association were Rev. S. H. Bennett, State Superintendent of the Baptist Enlistment work, Rev. Dickinson representing the Baptist State Hospital at Selma, Rev. W. H. Connell, Rev. M. J. Parrish, Rev. W. A. Goss, Rev. D. D. Head, Rev. E. A. Norris, Rev. W. W. Robinson, Rev. J. W. Mitchell.

The next session of the Association will be held at White Pond Church in Autauga County.

Rev. Carter promises us to write a lengthy article for next week's paper covering the entire proceedings of the Association.

Mr. Chas. Swanson of Thorsby was in Clanton Tuesday arrangeing for some advertising matter for a big auction sale which he will have on Saturday, Nov. 12th. He has a fine lot of household goods and farm implements which he will sell at public auction.

While Major Jeffers and the Democrats of Clanton are contending that Thomas M. Parrish, a Democrat, is entitled to the appointment as Postmaster at Clanton, we want them to remember the examination of December 1918 under President Wilson's administration when J. L. Wilson, a Republican, made the highest rating and was therefore entitled to the place. The same thing that kept Wilson from getting what was his under a Democratic administration is more than likely to keep Parrish from getting what the Democats claim is his under a Republican administration. The Democrats may now realize how it feels to take a dose of the same medicine which they gave the Republicans.

A Good Physic.

When you want a physic that is mild and gentle in effect, easy to take and certain to act, take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are fine.

The next Grand Jury of Chilton County will convene on Monday, the 10th day of October, for the consideration of the regular business that is treated by that body.

The Chilton County Association will meet with the Thorsby Baptist church on Wednesday after the second Sunday in October. Hope the churches will send a full delegation. Let us pray that we may have a good Association.

T. J. DEASON.

APPLICATION FOR PARDON

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, convicted for manufacturing liquor, and sentenced for 1 year and 1 day, and not more than 1 year and 1 month, at the April, 1921 term of the Circuit Court of Chilton County, will make application for pardon or parole.

IMAGINE SCRUBBING YOUR TEETH WITH SANDPAPER

You say you wouln't do it of course. But, as a matter of fact, you do as bad every day. That is, if you use ordinary gritty tooth pastes and powders, which not only wear away the enamel on your teeth, allowing decay to set in, but which also leaves your gums raw and bleeding.

People everywhere are beginning to see the real dangers in abrasive tooth pastes and are turning to lisuid dentifrices. Perhaps the most satisfactory of these is Steroline. A few drops of Steroline on your tooth brush each day keeps your month and teeth in perfect condition. Being a liquid, Steroline reaches and cleanses out all the hidden crevices that tooth pa stes never do reach; keeps yo ur mouth cool and sweet, heals bleeding gums, and acts as a real preventive against the many diseases contracted through mouth. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Upchurch Drug Company.

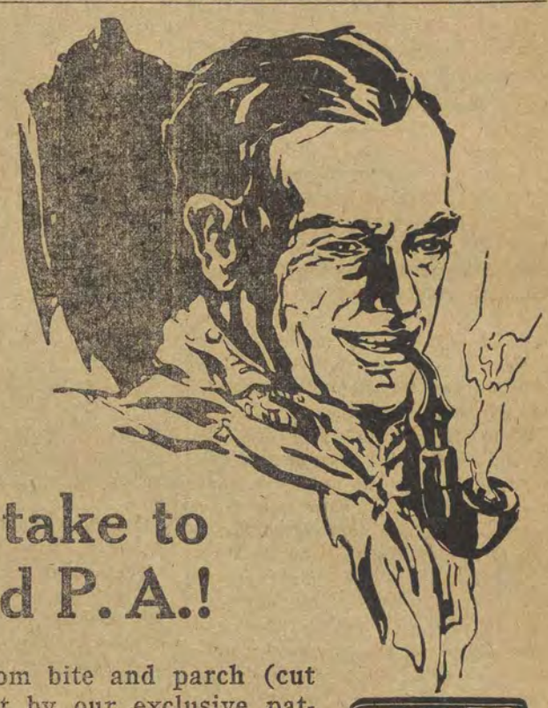
A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. Ith as been in use for colds, croup, and whooping cough for almost half a century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities become better known. It is the standard and main reliance for these diseases in thousands of homes. The facts that it can always be depended upon nd is safe and pleasant to take are greatly in its favor when it is wanted for children.

Mr. F. A. Ellison has decently opened up a store in Clanton.

"SECOND COMING OF CHRIST"

Next Sunday night at the Union Revival in Clanton the subject of Rev. Weigle will be "The Second Coming of Christ."



How Better than Pills?

The question has been asked: In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is, they are easitr and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

SPECIAL PREACHING SERVICE FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS SUN.

Rev. Weigle announces a special meeting for women and girls at the big tent in Clanton at three o'clock next Sunday afternoon. His subject will be "Strong Womanhood."

Rev. W. W. Robinson of Providence Beat 16, was in Clanton Wednesday night on his way home from the Unity Baptist Association which met at Stanton. Mr. Robinson expressed himself as being pleased with this session of the Association more than any session he ever attended in years before.

Me-o-my,
how you'll take to a pipe—and P. A.!

Before you're a day older you want to let the idea slip under your hat that this is the open season to start something with a joy'us jimmy pipe—and some Prince Albert!

Because, a pipe packed with Prince Albert satisfies a man as he was never satisfied before—and keeps him satisfied! And, you can prove it! Why—P. A.'s flavor and fragrance and coolness and its freedom from bite and parch (cut out by our exclusive patented process) are a revelation to the man who never could get acquainted with a pipe! P. A. has made a pipe a thing of joy to four men where one was smoked before!

Ever roll up a cigarette with Prince Albert? Man, man—but you've got a party coming your way! Talk about a cigarette smoke; we tell you it's a peach!

Making Extraordinary Mileage a Certainty—

Car Owners want more rubber on the tread where the wear is hardest; more gum between cord plies to perfect a resilient and powerful carcass. And they want a scientifically constructed Non Skid tread with all angles and contacts to resist skidding and give sure traction. Firestone Cord Tires have met these demands of the car owners.

Read Letters Below—
Records from 29,000 to 57,000 Miles

Cord Tires built the Firestone way could not fail to produce mileage. Every day, from all over the country, comes the word that 10,000, 20,000 or 30,000 miles are frequent and consistent records. Now and then they are emphasized by unusual instances such as quoted below. Performances like these demonstrate the ultimate possibilities of Firestone Cords under careful driving.

Sept. 10, 1921

Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.,
Jacksonville Branch,
Jacksonville, Florida.

Gentlemen:—

I submit herewith the history of a 33x4 Firestone Cord tire. This tire has run 57,000 miles. I have retreaded it seven times. The average mileage to each retreading was about 7,000. I think you will agree this is a remarkable record. It is especially unusual as I know the owner to be a severe driver. However, he gives his tires proper inflation. The tire in question is not yet out of service and has every indication of being sufficiently strong for another retread. I am mailing photographs under separate cover.

C. U. Penney,
Plant City, Fla.

The Harvey E. Mack Co.,
Thirteenth & Harmon Place,
Minneapolis.

Gentlemen:—

It occurs to me that you might be interested in the mileage that I obtained from the set of Firestone Cord tires on my Dodge coupe. The first tire went over 29,000 miles. The second tire rolled up a mileage of between 34,000 and 35,000. These were both rear tires and had been cut considerably by chains. The two front tires have gone better than 35,000 miles and are still in good condition. I expect to get at least 40,000 miles from each of them. I need scarcely say that the Firestone Cord will be my tire choice for the future.

HOW MANY PEAS ARE THERE IN THIS BOTTLE?

Commissioner Walker Wants a Contest Among the Older Men and Will Give $10 For Correct Gusses.

The Union-Banner is in receipt of a communication from County Commissioner Chas. T. Walker of the Third District of Chilton County, in which he says:

"Why not join the old man's contest? Guess at the number of peas in the bottle. The one guessing the correct number will receive $10. One must be the age of 45 years. He must do one honest day's work on some public road in the Third District. Send your guess to C. T. Walker, Lawley, Ala., not later than Nov. 1, 1921. The day's work must be certified by the overseer of the road on which you do the work. Judge Reynolds will count the peas Nov. 15, 1921."

Anyone desiring any further information as to the details of this contest are referred to Mr. Walker.

PLETCHER NEWS

Mrs. E. G. Cladwell left Oct. 1, for Atlanta, where she will be the guest of Mrs. A. Rosborough, and she will probably visit Mr. R. L. Cladwell of Greensboro, while there.

The friends of Mrs. J. H. Tippett are very sorry to hear that she is very ill at St. Margaret's Hospital. She was operated on last Thursday and hasn't improved very much.

Mr. D. T. Fletcher of Montgomery visited the Cladwells Sunday.

Mrs. L. B. Pounds returned to her home in Joffre, after a weeks visit to Mrs. J. H. Tippett.

Master Jay Tippett is in Joffre with his grand parents while his mother is in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pounds of Gordo, are smiling of the arrival of a son. Mrs. Pounds will pleasantly be remembered as Miss Gertie Kliner.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Houdith and two children and Mrs. Jim Abbott went to Montgomery Sunday to see Mrs. J. H. Tippett who is at St. Margarets hospital.

Miss Bertha Rainwater and Mr. Sidney Rainwater went to a singing at Gordens Church Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Herrod entered the Autauga County High School Monday. She is a Sophomore.

Miss Louise Cladwell, who is a Junior in the A. C. H. S. says they will be ready to play any basket ball team in the State by November. Show the old C. C. H. S. what a team is.

Uncle Bill Mullins left Clanton bright and early Tuesday morning, bound for the Unity Association at Ebenezer Church, Stanton. Mr. Mullins has for many years been one of the corner stones of the Baptist work of the Unity Association, and there is nothing that gives him any more pleasure than sitting in the deliberations of his co-workers in the cause of Christ as represented in this Association.

DOG TAX IS NOW DUE

Circuit Clerk M. D. Foshee reminds us that the dog tax was due and payable on October the first. But he says he has not yet received all his supplies from the State. He is expecting everthing to show up in a few days, and as soon as he can get the neccessary supplies he is ready to issue the tags.

Hon. W. A. Reynolds, Representative of Chilton County in the Legislature of Alabama, left Tuesday for Montgomery to be present at the convening of the extraordinary session of the law makers which convened at the Capitol at noon Tuesday.

SHOULTS

The people of this community have just experienced one of the most glorious revivals in many years. Rev. Ernest did some wonderful preaching. Rev. Gilbert led in the singing most all the time. He has such a pleasing personality that makes the people want to sing whether they are asked or not. The young men and girls need to be praised for the way they helped with the singing, and the good behavior.

The revival closed last Tuesday. The baptizing took place on Tuesday afternoon, when 34 persons were baptised. 4 members were received into the Methodist church during the revival, with 39 received in the Baptist church. This revival will long be remembered in the minds of the people of this community. One of the attractive feathres of the revival was the heart to heart talks made by Rev. Gilbert pastor of the Methodist Church, to the young men and boys, and also Miss Myrtle McAfee gave the girls some good advice which reached the hearts of all girls present. Rev. Gilbert talked to the boys out in the grove on one side of the church, while Miss Myrtle talked to the girls on the other.

This community has secured a great religious awakening, and we hope that every one will hold to their vows and promises made during this revival.

We regret very much to say that Mr. Milton Lawrence was carried to the insane hospital last week. We hope he will soon be able to be back with his family.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shoults at this time is very sick.

Miss Myrtle McAfee left last Friday for Newton, where she will enter school.

Mrs. C. T. Walker has as her guest this week, Mrs Jane Merchant, who is living with Mr. and Mrs. Jim McGee.

Sunday school every Sunday here at the usual hour 10:00 o'clock. Prayer meeting every Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Brady MrAfee condusted prayer meeting last Sunday afternoon. Everybody come out to preaching next Saturday afternoon and Sunday at 11:00 o'clock at Pleasant Grove.

OLD COOSA CITIZEN DEAD

The death of Mr. Neeley Harris occurred at his home at Providence in Coosa County last Wednesday, and he was buried there on Thursday. He was about 70 years old, and was a life long citizen of the community in which he lived at the time of his death. He was a Mason, and a devoted and faithful member of the Baptist Church. He was a brother of Mr. H. A. J. Harris of Clanton.

GRADY CECIL MITCHELL

Grady Cecil Mitchell, the 23 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mitchell, died Wednesday night of last week, and was buried at Chestnut Creek Church last Friday. Funeral was conducted by Rev. Prickett.

Judson Strock of Verbena was a visitor to the Union Revival services in Clanton Monday night.

NEW MEXICO RESULT POINTS WAY TO 1922 REPUBLICAN VICTORY

The special election in New Mexico, Tuesday, afforded the first opportunity to the electorate of any state to pass judgment upon the Republican national administration, inaugurated in March. The result, according to returns at hand, is a splendid vote of confidence in the Republiian party, based upon the accomplishments of the administration and the Congress during their six months control of the government. It is also a splendid and well deserved tribute to Senator Holm O. Bursum, the successful Republican candidate, whose brief incumbency as United States Senator has been characterized by the closest application to the duties of his office and faithful service to his constituency in New Mexico.

There can be no mistaking the meaning of the New Mexico result. It points the way to Republican victory in 1922. Throughout the state campaign it was understood that the election had a national significance,—that it was being viewed nationally as a referendum on the Republican Administration in Washington. Our Democratic opponents even stressed that fact. The result speaks for itself. Naturally Republicans everywhere are gratified but they are by no means suprised. New Mexico only reflects public opinion throughout the nation. The Republican national administration is keeping faith with the people and the people have abundant and abiding confidence in it.

HOME ORCHARDS

Auburn, Alabama, Oct. 3.—Following the harvesting of crops one of the next jobs is to start a good home orchard, where such orchards have not already been started, and Professor G. C. Starcher, Horticulturist of the Extension Service has just prepared a list of the different varieties of different fruits to be planted in these home orchards.

Named in the order of their ripening the apples recommended are: Early Harvest, Red June, Red Astrachan, Fanny, Hackworth, Grimes Golden, Stayman, Winesap, Rome, Beauty, Delicious, Yates, and Winesap.

The varities of peaches are: Mayflower, Greenboro, Arp Beauty, Carman, Hiley, Belle of Georgia, Elberta, J. H. Hale, Chinese King, Augbert, Late Crawford, and Late Elberta.

The varieties of plums are: Burbank, Abundance, Red June, Wild Goose, Shropshire Damson, and Shiro; the varieties of pears are: Magnolia, Kieffer, and Sand; and the varieties of cherries are : Large Montmorency, and Early Richmond.

The grape is one of the surest most delicious fruits in Alabama, and the following varieties are reccommended: Moore's Early, Diamond, Niagara, Ives, Deleware, Concord, Leutie, Worden, Brighton, Scuppernong, James, and Flomers.

The above list of varieties known to succeed under the conditions.

The county agents will furnish information as to the selection of orchard sites, amount of ground needed, methods of laying out the orchard, digging the holes, setting the trees, etc.

LIKES JUDGE SARTAIN

Judge C. M. Sartain, the new federal prohibition director of Alabama, is no stranger to Alabama folk who have kept posted on men. His appointment will be approved by prohibitionists. He has been a life-long exponent of the cause. Further, he is a substantial citizen. He served for a time as postmaster at Oakman and later as probate judge of Walker county. If a republican had to have the job, no better selection was possible.—Tuscaloosa News.

CO-OPERATIVE CAMPAIGN FOR DESTRUCTION OF BOLL WEEVILS INCREASE LAUDERDALE'S COTTON CROP

Auburn, Ala., Oct. 3.—By instituting and putting into operation a campaign for the destruction of boll weevils last July, which has increased the cotton crop of Lauderdale County at least 10 per cent, or 1250 bales, worth more than $125,000 at the present prices, County Agent J. T. High and the Lauderdale County Farm Bureau made co-oeration serve a new purpose in Alabama, and are receiving the thanks of the people therefor.

Boll Weevils began appearing in Lauderdale county in June, and by early July they had appeared in such large numbers as to endanger the entire crop. County Agent High explained the seriousness of the situation to the directors of the Lauderdale County Farm Bureau at their early July meeting and immediate action was taken. On the following Monday night fifteen community meetings were held in the county under the auspices of the Farm Bureau, and five or six more meeetings were held during the next few days. Eighty per cent of the farmers joined in the campaign for the destruction of infested squares, and now not only the farmers but the business men of Florence and other points in the county are profiting by this unusual piece of work which cost very little and increased the income of each farmer in the county more than $30.

STATE AND COUNTY LICENSES

All State and County licenses, including automobile tags, were due and payable at the Probate office Saturday, October 1st. Already the clerk at the office is busy issuing these licese and tags to all who apply for same. If people who are entitled to pay these license fees on automobiles, or for the coduct of any business which requires a state and county license do not pay said license before October 31, the license becomes delinquent, and the first thing you know there will be a license inspector on your track.

If you own a flivver you better come right along now and have the Probate office fix you up one of those beautiful new yellow tags.

DEATH OF MRS. PEARLIE HEADLEY OF CLANTON

Mrs. Pearlie Headley died at her home in Clanton last Thursday morning. She was 87 years old on the day of her death. Her husband was Elijah Headley, who died some years ago. The family originally lived in Fairview community.

The deceased lady leaves the following children: Miss Florence Headley at home, Mrs. J. R. Broadhead of Clanton; Mrs. B. L. Jones of Clanton; Mrs. O. O. Roper of Clanton; R. O. Headley of Montgomery; and Mrs. D. Broadhead of Clanton. In addition to these children she is survived by 19 grand children, 15 great grandchildren, and one great great grandchild.

Mrs. Headley was born in the year 1834, and before her marriage to Mr. Headley she was Miss Pearlie Henley. She was married in 1855. For 73 years she was a devoted member of the Methodist church.

The remains of Mrs. Headley were laid to rest in Mt. Nebo cemetery last Saturday, the funeral being conducted by Rev. Pearson of the Clanton Methodist Church. The following grand children acted as pall bearers: M. C. Broadhead, J. D. Broadhead, Grady Broadhead, John Armstrong, G. C. Roper and Otto Jones.

Disabled Soldiers To Be Examined

CLEAN-UP SQUAD COMING TO CLANTON TO LOOK AFTER CLAIMS OF ALL DISABLED EX-SERVICE MEN.

The following itinerary has been arranged for the Clean-Up-Squad in Alabama:

Bessemer, October 6th, 1921.
Columbiana, October 7th, 1921.
Clanton, October 8th, 1921.

Now is the time to notify all Ex-Service men in your locality who may have a disability as a result of their service in the would War to be present when the Squad arrives in order to have their claims properly filed.

The purpose of this drive is to fully advise all ex-service men of their rights under the War Risk Insurance Act and the Rehabilitation Act.

Since the signing of the Sweet Bill, August 10th, the Bureau of War Risk Insurance and the Federal Board for Vocational Education have been merged into what will be known in the future as the Veteran's Bureau.

The Clean-Up-Squad will fully advise all Ex-Service Men of their rights to compensation, hospitalization, insurance and Training, and assist them in filing their claims for Compensation and Training. They will be fully advised as to what methods to pursue in order to secure medical treatment, provided they are suffering from a disability due to or treaceable to their service in the World War. Men who are suffering to such an extent that they are in need of hospital treatment, and where it can be shown that the disability is due to their service, if they have not already filed a claim for compensation the Squad will assist them in filing this claim. If the claimant is suffering from a disease or disability and is in need of hospital treatment, if he has not already filed a claim for compensation he will be premitted to do so and transportation will be issued to him so that he may go to the nearest hospital for treatment.

Colonel Dallas B. Smith, District Manager of the Veterans' Bureau at New Orleans, is anxious to clean up all outstanding cases. The Squad will be in the field approximately three months and it is the intention of Colonel Smith to visit every county in the States of Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

If you know a man who has a disability as a result of his service, you can assist him by telling him of the Squad, so that he may be present when they arrive in his town.

Be sure and tell all men to bring their discharges, marriage certificate and birth certificates of their dependent children. This is very important.

Your American Legion Post, your Red Cross Chapter or your Postmaster can give you information relative to this drive.

Have a big crowd out when the squad reaches Clanton next Saturday. It is anxious to clean up all outstanding claims. Now is your opportunity to file your claim against the Government that you served.

BAPTIST PREACHER IS DEPUTY SHERIFF HERE

Chief Deputy Sheriff, W. G. Culp, has resigned his position under Sheriff Gore, and the place has been filled by Rev. Leonard P. Martin. Sheriff Gore says it is a new idea of having a preacher for Deputy Sheriff, but those who know Mr. Martin say that he is made of the right kind of stuff for a job like that. He is the son of Uncle Newt Martin of Collins Chapel.

Mr. Culp has been a good deputy and a faithful official. He has held the job ever since Sheriff Gore took charge of the office some three years ago.

"The Dance of Death"

(Sermon Preached by Rev. Weigle at the Revival Last Night.)

Last night (Wednesday) Rev. Mr. Weigle's sermon on "The Dance of Death" might be considered one of the best of the series.

It was as follows:

Text: "Then said Jesus unto His disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me."—Matt. 16:24.

One great principle that Jesus Christ taught and emphasized in His teaching as well as in His life, was that of sacrifice. No man can hope to succeed in any line of endeavor without practicing this principle of sacrifice. You cannot be a good soldier, a successful merchant or professional man or a promising student, without sacrifice.

The same thing is true in Christian experience. If your religion is not a religion of sacrifice, one that sacrifices the lower for the higher, it is not the religion of Jesus Christ. A Chrstianity of mere profession, without sacrifice of those things that imperil the soul, is a bogus one and is sickening and offensive to God Almighty.

Some people would have me think they are happier than I because they allow themselves to indulge in some things that I abstain from. Let me tell you that the real Christian is the happiest person in the world. It is not indulgences that create happiness but the denying of one's self. If you have the idea that true hapiness comes from card-playing, dancing, theater-going and wearing decollette dresses, then your gray matter is so infinitesimal that if it were put into the quill of a humming bird and shot into the eye of a mosquito it wouldn't make it wink.

When young people ask me as to the right and wrong way of amusements, I give them three rules with which to test any form of amusement. Let me give them to you. First, never indulge in any form of amusement that will injure the soul, mind or the body. Any amusement that tends to lead you away fom God, that leaves you less conscientious; that lessens the power of the mind or body, should be condemned, no matter how fascinating it may be. Second, abstain from all pleasures that lead to evil association. If duty leads you among wrong associations, God will take care of you and bring you out clean and safe; but if in your desire for pleasure you deliberately choose that which brings you among bad associates, their influence will work to your ruin. Third, beware of pleasures which may affect others disastrously. You had better deny yourself all pleasure than to enjoy them at the expense and well-being of others. And let me say to you my friends, it will not help matters after your influence has ruined a life to say "I meant no harm."

Now, I am sure you will agree with me that the three roles I have laid down as a test of amusements are perfectly reasonable. Some of you may have come here tonight saying "I'd like to see Weigle or any other preacher convince me that this thing of dancing is wrong." You are already prejudiced in your mind against me in this matter, and I can hardly hope that you all will agree with me in what I say, but I also know there are some here who will agree with me in what I say, but I also know there are some here who will be true to their better nature, and who wish to do the will of God, and I believe I can show them by facts that dancing is wrong and that it works disaster to many souls. I am not going to argue with you about the dance. I am simply going to tell you some things I know to be true, and then trust to your high sense of honor, and let you choose between what is good and pure and what is indelicate and unclean.

Let me say first of all that the church is against the dance. All branches of the Christian church have declared against it. There is one church that countenances the dance, however, and that is the Mormon Church. The Mormons have danres in the meeting houses and open them with prayer. I can easily see why a church that practices polygamy and which knows no mortality can endorse the demand of modern society. The dance adds fuel to the fire of lost.

The Roman Catholic Church, thru its bishops, assembled in council in Baltimore, went on record as follows: "We consider it our duty to warn our people against those amusements that may easily become to them an occasion of sin; against those fashionable dances which as at present carried on are revolting to every feeling of delicacy and propriety and are fraught with the greatest danger of morals."

The Episcopal Church, which is supposed to be the most lax and loose relative to this question, through Bishop Hopkins says "Danceing is chargeable with waste of * * * * of passions, and no ingenuity can make it consistent with the covenant of baptism." Bishop of the same church says: "The dance is lascivious and those who persist in it should not presume to come to the holy table."

While leaving the matter of discipline to each church, the Presbyterian Church in its general assembly has said: "We regard the practice of promiscuous social dancing by church members as a mournful inconsistency and the giving of such parties for such dancing on the part of the heads of families, is tending to compromise their religious profession and the sending of children to dancing schools by christian parents is a sad error in family discipine."

The Methodist Church in its discipline has a rule against dancing and a Methodist church member who dances is deliberately breaking the rules of the church.

A dancing church member is a detriment to the cause of Christ. I fancy I hear someone say there were Bible characters who danced. David danced. Yes, but he danced alone in holy joy. Moses' sister, Movian danced. Yes, and she danced only with the women, and did it with holy joy. Why don't you read Exodus 32:19, the account of the dance around the calf. Calves and dancing—they go together. Read down to the 25th verse, "and Moses saw that the people were naked." It reads like a reference to a modern dance. You still see the dancer's calves. And the shame of it made Moses so mad he took a sword and put three thousand of the hoof-shakers to death. The Bible tells us of another old time hop-party. It was in the palace of Herod and was sponsored by the woman he stole from his brother. Madam Herodias could show the devil cards and spades when it came to meanness. She and her nimble-legged girl, Salome, ruled the palace and cared little for what Herod might say. Because John the Baptist had the courage to tell old Herod the truth about the old lady she had it in for him. And when one day old Herod saw Salome shymmying in the dance without enough clothes on to dress a doll baby, his head got dizzy and he exclaimed, "That's what I call real dancing. You can ask anything you want of me and I'll see that you get it." And that loose-limbed kid of a she-devil asked for the head of John the Baptist, and as a result off came the head of the world's greatest prophet and fore-runner of the Messiah who came to redeem the race.

Then we read about some of those Corinthian church members who thought they could go joy-riding with the devil and still belong to the Church of Christ. But Paul says it different, and writing to them he said, "Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of devils." And he knew what he was writing about. The Corinthians had been heathens and when they came over to Christianity they sat down at the Lords table. They were still living among their old neighbors who had their sacraments also. They'd go up to the temple of their gods and get sprinkled with some sort of water and while the sacrificial supper was being prepared they would take part in a lot of dirty dances like the turkey trot and the huchi-kuchi and a number of other fashionable dances, and then sit down and eat and drink until the whole blooming bunch would get beastly drunk. Now Paul had seen this and he called it the cup of the devil, and when he found out that some of the Corinthian church members after sitting down at the Lord's table would get un and hike over and join their old friends in the temple of debauchery, he became indignant and said, "Ye and the cup of the devil."

No doubt some of those people took issue with Paul and said they could see no harm in it. That's the mistake a lot of preachers and members have made. Even Aaron said to those Yiddish dancers in the wilderness: "I guess there won't be any harm in it." But God saw it different and if it had not been for Moses would have wiped the whole race off the map. The trouble has always been in the tendency to listen and give heed to a lot of church members who want to compromise with sin. They want us to soft-pedal on dancing so that more members will come into the church. We've got too many of that brand now.

I believe the dance is the devil's revival. May God pity the pulpit peddlers without sense or salvation who are condoning the whole rotten thing. They tell us the dance has come to stay and we must make the best of it. They might as well say, adultry has come to stay and immorality has come to stay, and murder has come to stay. The stay argument is a stale argument.

I have no comment to make upon the stately dancer of Colonial days. But I am certainly opposed and antagonistic to the indecent, corrupting, soul-destroying dancer of today. The waltz born in a brothel, was the first step in the gradual dedescent to the unclean, indecent, suggestive shimmy and huchi-kuchi of the present time. The waltz which shocked the moral tone of the day when it was introduced, was as the cool breath of a sleeping infant in comparison with a blast from hell's furnace when compared to the dancing permitted in many places today.

The dances of today are so insolent and dirty-minded that they imperil the nation's morals. They are infernal and lecherous and shocking exhibitions of unchasity. The modern dancers try to imitate the passions of birds and animals, and the appeal is made to the animal passion of those who participate in them. That's why they are named the fox-trot the grizzly bear, the bunny-hug and other appropriate things. The dance of today is a moral cancer which imperils our nation. Nations have not died of free silver or free trade—they have died of free love. They tell us it is fun to dance. I'd like to know what fun it can be for a good mother to see her sweet impressionable daughter crushed in the lecherous embrace of an old libertine with the breath of a billy-goat. Or what fun can it be to a man to see his boy's bosom folded in the arms of a future sweetheart. What fun can there be in attending a masqurade all dressed up like a negro or Indian, a harlot or some other freak and dance thirty miles around a close room, inhaling the same air that a hundred or more other people have swallowed several times?

They try to fix up the dance and make it look respectable under various names. They've called it the charity ball, the social dance and the community dance but it is the same old dance of death. They tried the community dance in New York city and the president of the musical protective union of that city said these dances were a public disgrace and it was a shame that the public schools should be used for these purposes.

I indict the dance as being detrimental to the mortal, moral and physical being of those who participate in it. You don't need any brains to dance. It is the favorite amusement in insane asylums, and often the best dancers in society are the most insipid, empty-headed persons, who take out at their heels what they lack in their craniums. We are told it is a splendid means of social intercourse, but it is rather a substitute for the best means of social intercourse. It is purely emotional and so stimulates the sense that it is used as a makshift in the absence of intellectual resources.

Professor Faulkener, an ex-dancing master of Los Angeles, said that of two hundred abandoned women with whom he had talked personally that while three ascribed their fall to various other causes, one hundred and sixty three ascribed it to the dancing school and the ballroom.

There is an intoxication about the dance that leads to moral ruin. Some girls have been known to become so wild at the dance as to yeild easily to the seduction of the social sin. The daughter of a refined wealthy city family went to a dance, but demanded to be taken home after dancing a couple of sets. When alone with her mother she threw her arms around her neck and bursting into tears said: "Oh, mother, one more dance and your daughter would have been ruined."

In the modern round dance the two who embrace each other the most firmly can the most readily accomodate themselves to the step and the motion of the other. And the lady who yields herself to her partner most easily is considered the most desirable partner. Women soon learn to become desirable partners and will not complain of many little liberties which are purposely taken by designing men. A girl soon finds that nearly all the girls permit their favorites to take great liberities and as passion is aroused the resistance is natually less. Modesty is one of the strongest defences of virture, and there is not a girl in town who can go to the dance and find herself in the embrace of the average bunch of young men with whom she is compelled to dance, who can leave there with as much modesty as she arrived with.

When the steamer Columbia was wrecked on the Illinois river a few years ago, a dance was in progress in the cabin below. The steamer struck a submerged log and felt the jar from stern to stern, but the crowd of merry-makers and Sabbath desecraters, dance crazy, cried out "Go on with the dance," The musicians began to play, the crowd laughed and foxtrotted and in a few minutes later the boat sank in deep water with the loss of one hundred and fifty lives.

And that is the cry we hear oday —"Go on with the dance." No matter how many girls are ruined and debauched, on with the dance. No matter how many souls are damned on with the dance! "On with the dance!" cries the worldly churchmembers. "On with the dance," cries the poor pussyfooting, backboneless, flourflushing preacher. "On with the dance." shouts the unconverted newspaper editor. "On with the dance!" chimpers the worldly-minded Sunday school teacher. And all the devils dance with glee and hell laughs in anticipation of an increased harvest of souls tamned by the modern dance.

Listen! the hardest young man or woman to win to Christ is the one in love with the dance. Many have come to me and said, "If I have to give up dancing I'll not be a Christian." And often this is said before we have said a word about dancing. No doubt it is the voice of a guilty conscience that makes them speak that way. Now let me say that if the spell of the dance is so terrible as to cause you to choose it in preference to Christ and the church, that alone ought to show it up as the enemy of what is moral and spiritual.

To you young people who are here I offer the salvation of Jesus Christ which alone can satisfy the soul. There is no greater joy than the joy of being saved. As a minister of righteousness, as one who wants you to have the best for time and for eternity, I ask you to come forward tonight and take Christ into your life. If you have the courage don't wait for someone else to lead the way, but come now and Christ will meet you and save your soul.

Seventh-Day Adventists Will Build A Great Tabernacle in Clanton

As a result of the camp meeting and a series of lectures conducted by Elder S. G. Haughey and M. L. Wilson, under the auspices of the Seventh Day Adventist church their work in the city has been greatly strengthened, and the outlook for this denomination is very bright. In response to a call of the people and the needs of the work it has been decided to erect a temporary tabernacle for a place of worship, taking the place of the big tent now in use. The tabernacle is to be erected on the south side of Second Avenue South, between Fifth and Sixth Streets.

Seventh Day Adventists are a very earnest, zealous people and believe that God has given to them a special message for the world today. They believe the Ten Commandments as spoken by God on Mount Siani is still binding and should be the rule of life. They are very diligent Bible students, giving special studies to the prophecies of both the Old and New Testaments; believing in the literal personal coming of Christ the second time to be near, but do not believe in time setting for that great event to take place.

They are a great missionary people and at the present time are carrying forward missionary operations in every country of note in the world. The medical work among this people is one of the strong features in their missionary propaganda. The circulation of denominational literature, from forty printing plants throughout the world, is given special consideration in their work. This literature is printed in one hundred and one different languages, comprising over six hundred books, pamphlets, periodicals, tracts, and papers. The total amount of literature sold in 1920 exceeded the sum of five million dollars.

Meetings will be held on Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday nights in the big tent until the tabernacle is erected.

DOINGS AT WASHINGTON

BETTER HELP

The U. S. Shipping Board has recently discharged a lot of employees and has employed a few at higher salaries. It has long been apparent that what the Board needed was not more help but better help. However that may be, the public will judge the Board by results.

WISE ECONOMY

Southern banks are appealing to Northern cattle breeders to ship some of their breeding stock South where sales can be made to farmers who will raise more cattle and cattlefeed and less cotton, thus checking the boll weevil and also avoiding a surplus production of cotton. The plan ought to work to the benefit of both North and South.

BRITISH LABOR EXPERIENCE

The British governments is considering further means for relieving the unemployment that still continues in the island. It has been the policy heretofore of paying unemployment insurance, and distributing weekly doles among those out of work, but the drain upon the British treasury became so great that at one time it was announced that the practice would be discontinued. Now it is proposed to cooperate with local authorities in making out-of-work payments, and the further suggestion is made that $50,000,000 be appropriated for payment in wages on public work that a committee of the cabinet shall provide, such as public soads or public utilities.

Either suggestion amounts to subsidy grant to those out of work. Whether the cash is presented directly to the beneficiaries, or whether it is given in form of wages for work that would not otherwise be undertaken, the fait is that it is largely a bounty from the government. Just so long as such a policy is followed in England there is not going to be any permanent relief from the unemployment problem, and if similar practices should be adopted by our own government to relieve our domestic labor situation they would also fall short of accomplishment.

Those concerned with unemployment problems in the United States would do well to study the labor history of Great Britain for the past few years. Not only in the matter of government relief for those out of work, but in the great strikes that have tied up British mines and transportation, and the manner of their settlement, there are object lessons that should be carefully studied by our stutents of the subject. The British have been through very trying experiences in recent months. In some of the things they have done to meet the emergencies as they arose, events have since prover thay actet wisely. In other courses that have been followed, subsequent history has shown that blunders mere made. The whole constitutes a most valuable experieice in the relation of national government to unemployment from which the United States should profit.

NOTICE

The Fidelis Class of the Thorsby Baptist Church will have a Pie Supper at the Public School building, on Friday night, Oct. 14, at 7:30. Public invited.

BURSUM HOLDS LINE

The election result in New Mexico proves that the Republican cause is stronger than ever. Last November there was a Presidential election in which the personality of Mr. Harding and the tremendous issue of American sovereignty involved in the league of nations accounted for much of the big Republican majorities. Both of those factors were removed from the election in New Mexico. Mr. Harding is safely in the White House and the league, so far as American membership in it is concerned, is effectively disposed of. In spite of that fact the majority for Senator Bursum was just as great, in proportion to the total number of votes cast, as the majority for President Harding in New Mexico last year.

The Democrats have tried hard to convince the country that the Republican Congress has failed to carry out its program announced when it convened last spring, and that President Harding has ignored many of the promises made in the campaign last year. But the facts disprove both charges, and the people have preferred to be guided by them rather than by the inspired partisanship of the administration's enemies. If the results in New Mexico indicate the trend of thought in the other States, a country-wide election today would roll up even greater Republican majorities than were recorded last fall.

The United States in its government is happily delivered from the control of Democratic leaders who in international affairs operate from the back of their heads and not the front from their emotions and not their minds. Because it is under a different control there are prospects of success in the Washington conference. Probably we should not expect sentimental extremists to understand this.—Chicago Tribune.

AMERICAN WHEAT ON CANADA ROADS

A new phase of our Interstate Commerce problem is presented in the news that Canadian railroads are carrying American wheat from Duluth or other Lake points to Montreal for shipment to Europe. Canadian railroads are not subject to the regulation of our Interstate Commerce Commission and can underbid our roads on those commodities which can profitably take from us. The American roads have their costs of operation largely determined by a government board and their rates similarly fixed. How to meet the Canadian competition under such circumstances is a question to be solved.

SAVING IN ALLOWANCE

Secretary of War Weeks advances the theory that a Department need not spend all the money just because it has it available. Who said there was nothing new under the sun? Heretofore it has been the prevailing theory that a Department must not only spend all that has been appropriated but must incur a dificit in order to lay the foundation for rlaims for increased appropriations in the succeeding year.

EAST IS EAST, WEST IS WEST, BUT BOTH ARE VERY REPUB'CN

DEMOCRATS, FIGHTING ON NATIONAL ISSUES BEATEN THREE TO ONE IN MASS.

Washington. Oct. 10.—The Democratic party and its national organization courted and received another smashing defeat on national issues when the Republicans carried the Massachusetts Sixth Congressional district at a special election, September 27th, just one week after the tremendous Republican victory in the special election held in New Mexico for United States Senator.

The Republican candidate for Congress in the Massahcusetts election, A. Piatt Andrew, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, received 22,545 votes, while his Democratic opponent received only 6,792. The victory of the Republican candidate, by a ratio of nearly three to one over the Democratic candidate, marked the close of a short but very bitter campaign.

Campaign on National Issues

In this district, which is the home of a great many large industrial interests and the location of several cities, the Democratic party and its national organization decided to force the issue along national lines. A corps of speakers, headed by United States Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Massachusetts, campaigned the district vigorously and appealed to the voters to rebuke what they termed the Republican party's failure to redeem its campaign pledges. The Democrats announced that they did not expect to carry the district, normally Republican by a large majority, but they did confidently expect to make big gains in the district and, by the reduction of the normal Republican majority, impress the country with the fact that the Republican administration was losing ground.

The election of the Republican candidate by three to one was as great an astonishment and severe blow to the Democratic party and organization as was the election of Senator Bursum, a week earlier in New Mexico by the largest majority ever given a New Mexican candidate. Although the total vote in the Massachusetts district was considerably less than polled in the presidental election of 1920, the proportion of the total vote polled by the Republican candidate was about the same as the ratio Harding beat Cox in the district, which clearly indicates the sentiment in this Massachusetts district is as strongly in favor of the Reublican party now as it was in the presidental election.

Democrats Appeal to Prejudices

After the New Mexico election the Democratic organization tried to explain it upon the ground there has been so much legislation by this Republican Congress in behalf of agricultural interests that the test in New Mexico was hardly representative of the sentiment in the rest of the country, inasmuch as practically the only interest in New Mexico are agricultural interests. In the Massachusetts fight the Democratic seakers attempted to make a great deal of the issue of industrial unemployment, for which they blamed the Republican administration, and other issues were raised which they thought would appeal either to the class interests or class prejudices of certain voters.

In this district are located a great number of large industries. It is the center of the shoe and leather industry in the United States. In addition, it has many textile mills and manufacturing plants of general character. Gloucester, located in the district, is the center of a large fishing industry.

The result in this district clearly shows that the Eastern cities and industrial sections of the country are no more responsive to Democratic appeal than are the Western agricultural states. The results here and in New Mexico clearly show the country is perfectly satisfied with the Republican administration and has confidence in the President and the Cogress to work out the problems which the people at the last election commissioned them to handle.

VERBENA SCHOOL NEWS

The Parent-Teachers Association had their monthly meeting at the school building last Tuesday night, October the fourth. Committees were assigned to make a success of our Fiddlers Convention October the twenty-first.

Don't any one forget the Fiddlers' Convention Friday night, October 21, at the Verbena School building. Every one is invited to come, especially the old time fiddlers who play old time music. The following prizes have been donated by the merchants and other public spirited men of the town: Cash prize—(value to be determined later); Pair shoes—Gulledge Bros.; Pure bred Pig—Estate of D. I. Deramus; Short—H. T. Williams (best in stock.); Tie—The Star Store; One pound tobacco (chewing)—J. W. McDonald. There will be other prizes added to this list.

Miss Lena Franklin spent the week-end at her home in Thorsby.

Mr. Sutton, our principal spent the week-end in Birmingham.

Miss McLeod spent the week-end in Montgomery.

CENTRE HILL SINGING

The Christian Harmony Convention met at Centre Hill last Sunday.

Attendance was good. Singing sweet and enthusiastic. Dinner rich and abundant.

Among the visitors we noted Mr. V. Lawley of Montevallo, J. P. Barret and daughter, Miss Tressie, of Thorsby; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Scott, of Birmingham; Mr. Argo and daughter, of Helena; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, of Dry Valley; J. Lawrence Hays, of Clanton.

Officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, J. L. Jones; vice-President, W. R. Scott; Secretary, J. E. Cobb.

The musical assistance of Mr. Argo and daughter was greatly appreciated. It was indeed a pleasant session. At eleven o'clock had preaching by Rev. Mr. Deason.

Nation's Most Solemn Military Funeral Will Be Held Armistice Day

SERVICES FOR UNIDENTIFIED ENLISTED SOLDIER TO BE AMERICA'S TRIBUTE TO HEROIC DEAD

Washington, Oct. 10.—The most impressive and solemn military funeral in the history of the United States will be that held in Washington and at Arlington Cemetery, November 11th, the third anniversary of the signing of the armistice. This funeral ceremony will mark the burial of an unidentified enlisted man, one of the 4,765,071 who served in the United States armed forces during the World war.

The military honors accorded this unknown soldier will be those prescribed for one of the rank of a general.

Body Must Be Unknown

The Quartermaster General of the United States army is charged directly with the responsibility of selecting the body from among the unidentified American dead in France. Under orders of the War department, the selection must be made so as to preclude any possibility of future identification as to the name, the rank, organization or service of the unknown dead, or the battlefield upon which he fell. The Quartermaster General will deliver the body to representatives of the American army any navy at the port of Havre, France. At that port it will be taken in charge by a Rear Admiral of the navy and transported in the United States cruiser "Olympia" to the Washington navy yard, where it will arrive on November 9, 1921, after dark. At the Washington navy yard the body will be received by a major general of the United States army and a guard of honor and borne to the United States capitol, where it will lie in state in the rotunda through out the day of November 10th and until the hour of 9 a. m. November 11th.

Impressive Military Cortege

At that hour the body will be moved to the amphitheater at the Arlington National Cemetery. The body will be escorted by a battalion of U. S. field artillery, a squadron of U. S. cavalry, a combat regiment of troops composed of one battalion of U. S. Infantry, one batallion of U. S. sailors and marines and one batalion of the national guard. The cortege will be headed by the United States Marine band. The pallbearers will consist of eight general officers of the United States army and four admirals of the United States navy. The body itself will be borne on a caisson draped with the American flag. The route of march from the capitol to the cemetery will be lined on both sides by United States regular infantry stationed at an average distance of one man every five yards.

The President of the United States will meet the remains at the amphitheater at Arlington National Cemetery and deliver an oration in commemoration of America's dead in the World war.

Whole Nation to be Silent.

In accordance with a proclamation yet to be issued by the President of the United States. all industries and activities of all kinds within the continental limits of the United States will cease from 12 o'clock noon to 12:02 p. m., Eastern time, Nov. 11, during which two minutes all citizens of the United States will be requested to observe silence and to assemble in places of worship to do honor in memory of the dead.

In addition to the military escort the following persons will be invited to attend: (a) All living holders of the Medal of Honor; (b) One representative for every 10,000 enlisted men of the World war, such representatives to be selected by the governors of states and territories; (c) One member of the American Legion from each state and territory; (d) One member from each of the other permanent war veteran societies and organizations; (e) One officer and one enlisted representative from each arm and service of the army and navy.

President to Deliver Oration

At the amphitheater, where the President of the United States will deliver the funeral address, will be the diplomatic corps and representative of the military and naval forces of every nation represented in Washington, with special honor accorded to those who represent the allied nations with which the United States was associated in the World war.

In addition there will be the foreign delegation which will have, by that time, assembled here to attend the conference for the limitation of armaments. It was intended to open that conference at noon November 11th in commemoration of Armistice day, but this plan has been changed in deference to the ceremonies in honor of the unidentified enlisted soldier, who stands as the symbol and type of all American men who made the supreme sacrifice during the World war.

English Delegation Visits U. S. To Make a Fight Against Protectv. Tariff

AMERICA ASKED TO RUIN HER INDUSTRIES IN ORDER TO KEEP EUROPE COMPANY

Washington. Oct. 10.—A party of English manufacturers, headed by Mr. Arthur Balfour, Deputy President of the Association of British Chambers of Commerce, have just completed a five-weeks tour of the eastern section of the United States. While in this country they appeared before the United States Senate Finance committee and visited many of the larger cities in the eastern part of the United States, conducting a campaign against the enactment of a protective tariff. Mr. Bolfour, spokesman for the party, on the day of their departure for England, said:

"The British people are most anxious to pay the United States all the money they owe, both principal and interest, but unless you allow us to trade with you freely, this will become impossible.

"Now that the United States has become a great creditor nation, with more than half of the world's gold supply under her control, it has become absolutely imperative, if she is to keep her people well employed and maintain the present high standard of living, that she should loosen up the gold which is stored here, and this can only be done by trading.

"We have been told that the high protective tariff of the Fordney bill is directed against Germany. but the effect is that it also kills the allies. Germany is bound to be a serious industrial competitor for some time, owing to the fact that she is manufacturing and paying wages with depreciated paper and selling for gold."

Alien Campaign Against Tariff

This statement is an epitome of the views Mr. Balfour and his delegation of British manufacturers expressed to the United States Senate Finance committee and in various cities which they visited. Altogether it constitutes the most remarkable propaganda ever waged by foreigners against American protective tariff. Boiled down, the attitude of the British manufacturers is:

English industries in common with industries throughout Europe, are experiencing disastrous effects from competition of German goods. This competition is expected to continue for some time. In order to relieve the pressure upon English and European industries, England desires to divert a great flood of cheap German goods to the United States markets. Not only would this relieve British industries but it would so cripple American industries that by the time the destructive competition came to an end, industries in this country would be in as bad a shape as they would be in England and the Continent.

U. S. To Foot All War Bills

Germany is under obligations to pay Great Britain and the other allied powers tremendous cash indemnities. To obtain this cash she must sell products. Mr. Balfour's proposition is that she should sell her products for gold to the United States, take the money and turn it over to Great Britain and the other allies in payment of indemnities. In this way the United States will be made to pay the German indemnities. If the United States does not turn over its markets to Germany in order that Germany may pay cash indemnities to London and Paris out of the gold she receives in America for her goods it is confronted with the threat, thinly veiled, that Great Britain and the allies will never repay the loans they made in this country.

Careful study of Mr. Balfour's statement and sober reflection over the mission of the British delegation which spent five weeks in this country should awaken all friends of American industries to a realization of the boldness and the determination of the forces which are working against the enactment of a protective tariff.

W. H. Nobles of Gorgas is in Clanton this week visiting friends and relatives. He came on a motor cycle.

SHOULTS

Rev. J. D. Deason preached here last Saturday and Sunday. All who were not present missed two wonderful sermons.

Literary school started last Monday week. Miss Beatrice Little as principal and Miss Marie Thomas assistant. All the children of this community have not enrolled yet, but we hope they will enroll this week. Cooperate with these teachers, visit the schools, invite the teachers to visit our homes, make a friend of the teachers, and talk over together in the home the childs faults, because the home is the first place to prepare for school life, and if a child has not been trained in the home to be polite, willing and responsive the child's school days are wasted, and their parents might much better put them in a circus or grocery store. And one more hint. We should when talking to the teachers be sensible about it. Your children and mine have faults. Every single one of them are either lazy or noisy or sulky or stubborn, and the fortunate children are those whose mother and father know that they are not angles and are willing in all humility and earnestness to help them to be better.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shoults last Tuesday week and took from them their baby, 2 years and 3 month old. It was budied at Pleasant Grove cemetery Wednesday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gilbert of Maplesville.

This family has our heart felt sympathy.

We failed to write last week about the marriage of Mr. Chancy Bearden and Miss Ruby Shoults. Mr. Bearden motored from Selma where he has a position, to the home of the bride. They returned to Selma and were happily married. The many friends of this young couple wish them many years of happiness together.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Latham, now living in Texas, formely of this community, are the proud parents of a baby boy.

Miss Myrtle McAfee returned home last Friday from Newton, where she went to prepare for missionary work. She said that God has called her back home to finish her work. We know that Miss Myrtle is a child of God, and that she is going to be led by the Holy Ghost. She is a live Christian. The prayer services was conducted last Sunday by Miss Myrtle, and what a great lesson she gave all present. All the people of this and other communities should have heard it.

Mrs. T. C. Snead of Centerville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Walker last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. R. F. Thompson and family motored to Centerville last Saturday night to visit home folks of Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. Mack Oden and daughter, Eunice, visited Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sewell last Sunday after preaching.

Rev. Gilbert will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everybody be present.

J. C. Ballard, chief of police at Calera and Deputy Sheriff of Shelby county was in Clanton at Circuit Court Tuesday.

MISS ROBERTA CURRY OF CLANTON WINS IN PRETTY GIRL CONT.

FINAL COUNT GIVES CLANTON NOMINEE 21,850 MAJORITY OVER NEXT HIGHEST.

The contest to determine the most beautiful girl in Chilton County has come to a close. The "queen" of Chilton County has been selected to represent us at the Birmingham Semi-Centennial October 24-26. The name of the "queen" selected is Miss Roberta Curry. The votes in the contest were counted by the Central Committee on Wednesday morning and the following result was announced:

Roberta Curry	39,300
Jennie Robinson	17,450
Agnes Gerald	1,100
Florence Foshee	1,350
Blossom Crumpton	1,075
Inga Erdahl	1,150

We feel that this is a distinct honor to Miss Curry. And equally do we feel that it is also a distinc thonor to have her as the representative of Chilton County on such an occassion as it will be her good fortune to attend in Birmingham as our "queen."

R. N. Connell of Refuge Church was in Clanton Wednesday morning on his way to Thorsby to attend the Chilton County Baptist Association.

Walter Gillespie of Shelby county was a visitor to Clanton last Thursday. Mr. Gillespie is an applicant for a job on the Federal Prohibition Enforcement squad under Judge Sartain, the newly appointed enforcement officer for Alabama. Mr. Gillespie is one of the best prohibition enforcement officers in Alabama, and if he gets on the force of Judge Sartain you may be sure that the wild cats will have to go slowly.

Miss Bertha Littleton Entertains

Last Monday night, Miss Bertha Littleton proved a delightful hostess when she entertained the Y. W. A. This is a new organization among the young women of the Baptist church, and they have quite a number of members. Delightful refreshments were served to about sixteen.

Mrs. S. M. Connatser had as her guest last week, her brothe rfrom New Jersey.

Miss Vercie Littleton, together with her mother, made a trip to Birmingham last week, where they visited with relatives for a few days.

Miss Carrie Billingsley went to Birmingham last week to attend the Fair. She also visited with friends while in the city.

Mrs. O. E. Wilson of Birmingham spent a few days here last week, and was the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. M. Williams.

Prof. C. M. Williams of Dora, spent the week end here with his family.

The program which was given by the Athletic Association on Friday night was attended by a large crowd. The program which consisted of musical selections, readings, a boxing match and motion pictures was indeed enjoyed. The boxing match being especially interesting, and which resulted in Wesley knocking out McCrory in the fourth round.

On last Thursday night Mrs. Reagan entertained a small number of friends complimenting Mr. Reagan on his birthday. Cards were enjoyed after which refreshments were served to, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Howard, Arthur Villadsen, W. M. Parnell and Naemi Turnquist.

Mrs. H. V. Thompson made a trip to Birmingham last week. She returned home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Turner attended the Fair in Birmingham last week.

Next Sunday there will be services at the Lutheran Church, conducted by Rev. Benson of Silver Hill. The services will be in both languages in A. M. and English in the eveningETT the morning and English in the evening. Special Music will be furnished by the choral society at the evening service.

THE GRAND JURY

The Grand Jury of Chilton county is still in session this morning having been engaged in the work since noon Monday. It is very probable that this body will complete it investigations some time during today.

Irby Deramus, merchant of Verbena, was in Clanton Friday looking after business interests here.

The students of the Chilton County High School attended the Weigle-Curry Revival services in a body last Thursday.

On October 12th, Wednesday night, the choral society of the Lutheran church was delightfully entertained by Misses Ruth and Agnes Gerald.

After the usual program, refreshments were served to about 15 members.

On Wednesday and Thursday of this week the Chilton County Baptist Convention met here. Dinner was served in abundance by the ladies' of the church.

Rev. Olive of Tuscaloosa is spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. Tom Williams.

On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Littleton had as their guests, Mr. J. H. Collins and family, also Prof. Thomas and family of Calera.

The farmers are busy this week hauling fertilizer for their strawberries for next spring. Believe us, you've got to go some to beat these Thorsby farmers, for they are always full of pep and believe in being up and doing.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Honeycutt are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby girl.

Don't forget the Pie Supper at the public school Friday night, to be given by the Fidelis Class of the Baptist church.

666 cures Malaria, Chills and Fever, Bilious Fever, Colds and LaGrippe, or money refunded.

Mr. E. R. Piper went to Montgomery Wednesday to attend the Odd Fellow's Convention, which is to be held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Foshee of Clanton were in Thorsby Tuesday.

Miss Sue Simpson of Mootevallo was a visitor in Thorsby last week, while here she was the guest of Mrs. A. M. Johnson.

Misses Anna Erdahl and Beatrice Johnson arrived home Monday afternoon from Birmingham where they spent the past week, attending the Fair and visiting with friends and relatives.

NOTICE

The Fidelis Class of the Thorsby Baptist Church will have a Pie Supper at the Public School building, on Friday night, Oct. 14, at 7:30. Public invited.

A. P. Oslin of Collins Chapel was among the visitors to Clanton last Friday.

J. Wiley Foshee of Coopers was a caller at The Banner office on last Thursday. Mr. Foshee says he is thinking of moving to Florida some time soon.

Mr. Macy Jones, who has been working for the Ala. Power Company at Gorgas, is home this week on account of a broken foot which is the result of falling from a ladder while working as an electrican there.

Mr. W. O. Rich and mother and Miss Omie Hand, went to Birmingham Friday. Mrs. Rich and Miss Hand visited the family of Mr. Wesley Hand at Bessemer, while we presume that Mr. Ocie took in the sights at the State Fair.

Miss Gladys Mae Nix, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nix, is a student this year at a Seminary for girls in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Higgins, Joe Higgins and Miss Clara Crumpton motored to Birmingham last Thursday. They visited the Fair while in the city.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

"Eternal Life"

(Sermon Preached by Rev. Weigle at the Revival Last Night.)

Following is the sermon preached by Rev. Weigle at the big tent last night (Wednesday):

Text:- "He that believeth on me hath eternal life." Jo. 6:47.

The dominant note in Christ's ministry was that of life. The word life was on his lips so much that we are sure he wanted men to live. And men everywhere want to live but the tragedy of the world is that so few of them discover the secret of living right. John Ruskin once said, "We are not surprised at what men suffer, but we are surprised at what men lose." This is tragically true when we consider how men neglect the eternal interests of the soul.

I want to divide the audience tonight into two classes. One class is composed of those who have obtained eternal life and the other of those who have not obtained this wonderful boon. There are only the two classes. Every saved person has been born twice. The first time you were born of man, the second time you were born of God. The first time you were born into the natural world, the second time you were born into a spiritual world. The first time you were born of the flesh, the second time you were born of the Spirit.

Jesus Christ came into the world to give us life. He says: "I am come that ye might have life." The saddest words that fell from his lips were these, "Ye will not come unto me that ye might have life." When Christ comes into our life He does not come to patch us up, He comes to give us a new nature. He gives us a new spiritual life, and this new life He gives to us is His own eternal life.

It was a wonderful thing for Christ to restore life to the daughter of of Jairus. It was also wonderful for Him to call back Lazarus from the dead. It was even more wonderful for the Prince of Life himself to come out of Joseph's tomb, bursting the prison gates and stepping forth as one refreshed from slumber. But the marvel of marvels is to see Him ressurrect a dead soul. This He has done for every believing soul and is able to do today for all who will have life.

Shall I tell you of one of the most deadly perils in our church life today? The peril is that in the spiritual realm death can be very near to life, can closely imitate life and yet be death still. For instance, two people may be sitting there in the same pew, have the same red blood coursing through their veins, and be singing out of the same book. You may be so near as to be touching each other, and yet be so far from each other that only God can measure the distance. And this is true because one of you may be alive unto God while the other is dead in trespasses and sins. One of you is converted and the other is not. You may read your Bible, say your prayers, go to church, and yet be devoid of spiritual life.

There is one thing I would like to impress upon your minds and that is the fact that not the moralities of life nor the residence nor the intellectual ability, nor the wardrobe or bank account form the dividing line between life and death, but as the Bible says, "He that hath the Son hath life, and he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life."

I have seen a lot of refined, culturued, scholarly people in my audiences. I have admired them for their beautiful traits of character, their helpful and sympathetic lives and their brothely spirit. Yet I recognized the fact that under all this outward adornment there's nothing but a corpse. I think of the words of a poor woman who attended the funeral of a wealthy man and was overheard to remark as she noticed the many beautiful and costly things that were to be buried with the corpse, "Is it not a pity that so many beautiful things should be buried." And when I see so many lives that are devoid of spiritual power I think of what great things could be done for God if all these people had the power of the Spirit in their lives.

Lincoln walked over the battlefield of Gettysburg just after it had been batized with blood, and gazing upon the wreck and ruin of war exclaimed, "How dreadful to see the faces of the dead staring at us." I've been reminded of that as I have faced large congregations in our revival work, and I have gazed into the faces of those who had the name of a living Christ, but whose spirits were dead.

The eighteen-year-old son of a professor in a theological seminary, after a visit to a rescue mission, said to his father, "Father, they've got the real thing down there." The singing was real, the prayers were real, the testimonies were real and the conversions were real. That's what counts, my friends. They were real, because they had life in them.

Let me impress upon your minds the importance of making sure of eternal life. Put it first in the programme of your life, for if you miss it you miss heaven. If you allow material things to monopolize all your thought and aspirations you will do so at the cost of your soul's welfare. Hear what Paul says, "I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things and do count them but dung that I may win Christ, * * * that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection."

"Strive man to win the glory;
Toil man to gain the right;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight."

How May We Obtain Eternal Life?

There are three ways of getting things in this world. There are some things you can get by working for them. But God tells us very plainly in His Word that we cannot secure eternal life by working for it. Some people don't believe in work and so they steal what they want, but it is an utter impossibility to steal eternal life. Some things we have to take as a gift and that is the only method God has for imparting to us eternal life. We must take it as a gift. And that reminds me that God has nothing for sale. Everything we get are facts that the mind can grasp, and puon them we can build our faith. These things were written from Him we must receive as a gift. The eternal life that God offers us is in Jesus, and when we accept Him we have life that it everlasting.

Do You Want this Eternal Life?

If so, hear what Jesus Christ says, "He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Faith in Christ will bring to you eternal life. And that brings us the question as to what faith is. Saving faith has three important elements in it. It takes in the mind, the heart and the will. These three elements enter in, in order to make faith effective. Take the mind for instance. Faith is a reasonable thing, hence it makes demands upon our int lligence. We need not go at it blind. We base our faith upon facts. We have these facts in the gospel story. We have Christ's teaching, His claims and His works, and these so that we might believe on Christ. There are some things we can believe even though we cannot exlain. By the use of radium, people have been cured of cancer. It cannot be explained, but we know it has been done, so we believe it. We have heard the testimonies and seen the changed lives of thousands who have been saved by Christ. We may not be able to explain just how his life is imparted to them, but we have had a revelation of it and so we believe.

Next, the heart element enters into a saving faith. God says "Give me thine heart." He wants our affections. The heart must move out in a desire for Christ. To admire Christ and His beautiful life is not sufficient, He wants our love and affection. A father had a child who was deaf and dumb. He could not bear the thought of never hearing the little fellow speak and tell him of his love. So he placed him in a school where he might be taught to speak. At the end of a year he returned to the school to visit the lad, and the little fellow ran to his father, sprang into his arms and in clear and distinct words said, "Papa, I love you." Imagine the joy of the parent. In the same way God yearns over us with infinite love and hungers for an expression of love on our part. Therefore He asks that you give Him your heart.

A third and important element in saving faith is the will. "Who so ever will may come and be saved." God will not force you to accept Christ. He does not compel you but He lets you make your own choice in the matter. Your will will decide your destiny. Put your will into action and you may have eternal life now.

I don't know all eternal life means, but it is so glorious, so valuable and implies so much that I would not miss it for the world. Eternal life begun here has no end hereafter. A dying man turned to his doctor who was about to leave the room and said, "Doctor, I am afraid to die. You are a Christian, tell me what lies on the other side." The doctor shook his head and said "I don't know." He was holding the handle of the door on the other side of which came sounds of scratcing and whining. He opened the door and his dog sprang into the room and leaped upon him with every expression of joy. Turning to the patient the doctor said, "Did you notice that dog? He had never been in this room before. He did not know what was inside, but he knew his master was here, so he had no fear. And I know not all that is on the other side, but I know that my Master is there, and there is no danger for me. When the door opens I will pass in without fear."

Who knows how soon the door will open for you, my friends. How rapidly the time passes. Soon we will all be called from this life into the next. Unless you have everlasting life when you pass out you will know the death that never dies and the woe that never ends. Why not receive God's gift of eternal life now?

MRS. CAFFEY DEAD

Mrs. Caffey, wife of the late Dr. H. W. Caffey of Verbena, died at the family home last Thursday. The remains were buried at Verbena Saturday.

The deceased is survived by the ollowing children: Dr. Hugh Caffey, Mrs. Dudley, Mrs. J. S. Catts, Frank and Will Caffey, G. H. Caffey, of Verbena; Mrs. Buford and Hon. Francis G. Caffey, of New York City. These sons and daughters were scattered from one end of the country to the other, but they were all with their mother when she died except the son who lives in New York. He arrived at the old fireside after his loving mother's spirit had taken its flight.

B. N. MARTIN DEAD

Last Wednesday, Oct. 5th, Mr. B. N. Martin, age 74 years, died at the home of his son in law, Stephen Pate, near Thorsby. He had been in feeble health for the past year, and his death was not altogether unexpected.

Mr. Martin is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ellen Martin of Thorsby and the following children: J. R. Martin, Thorsby; W. F. Martin, Jemison; W. C. Martin, Thorsby; L. P. Martin, Clanton; N. L. Martin, Thorsby; L. G. Martin, Calera; Mrs. L. W. Robinson, Calera; Mrs. Stephen Pate, Thorsby; Mrs. W. C. Middlebrooks, Brent; Mrs. Ada Baker, Calera. One son, H. N. Martin, of Jemison, died a few years ago.

Mr. Martin was a member of the Baptist church for many years prior to his death, and he was a devoted Christian. His children find great comfort in the words he spoke to them just before he died, in which he assured them that the Lord had taken him by the hand and given him every assurance that his journey through the valley of death would be safe and carry him to his home in heaven.

The remains were laid to rest in Collins Chapel cemetery Thursday, the funeral being preached by Rev. W. P. Lowery.

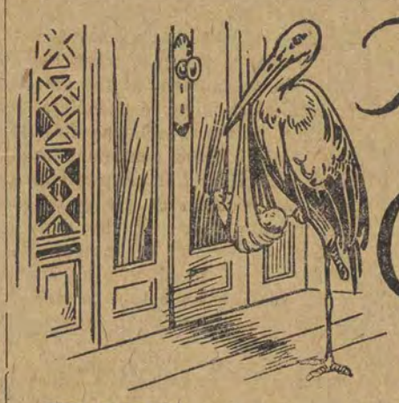
MRS RENA ROBINSON

Mrs. Rena Robinson, age 79 years, died at the home of her son, J. M. Robinson, in Clanton, Wednesday, Oct. 5th. Mrs. Robinson was the wife of Wm. R. Robinson. They were married in 1859. Before her marriage to Mr. Robinson, she was Miss Rena Honeycutt.



The deceased leaves the following children surviving her in addition to her husband:

J. M. Robinson, Clanton; Mrs. G. W. Pate, Shelby; Mrs. J. H. Benson, Thorsby; G. I. Robinson, Birmingham; Mrs. J. M. Beasley, Fairfield.

Mrs. Robinson was a member of the Union Grove Baptist Church. She was buried there Thursday of last week, the funeral was conducted by Rev. W. P. Lowery.

DOG TAX IS NOW DUE

Circuit Clerk M. D. Foshee reminds us that the dog tax was due and payable on October the first. But he says he has not yet received all his supplies from the State. He is expecting everthing to show up in a few days, and as soon as he can get the neccessary supplies he is ready to issue the tags.

How to Make Child-birth Easier!

DO YOU wish to know how thousands and thousands of women have gone thru motherhood without knowing some of the pains and discomforts incident to childbirth? Listen to this:

Motherhood creates almost a new state of being for a woman.

As a result, new nerves, those heretofore restful and quiescent, spring into activity, they cry out, they tingle, they burn in their unrest.

The network of nerves across the abdomen, the loins, the back and other parts now become super-sensitive. All these nerves are being called on to perform unusual duties.

These nerves must be pacified and comforted; must be put in condition for the orisis that is pending.

If these nerves are not soothed and quieted, they may set up aggravated nerve tension, increasing in severity from month to month, sometimes even culminating in a nervous paralysis of the back and limbs. This leaves the mother-to-be in a condition where she is unable, fully, to meet the test when the climax of maternity arrives.

Mother's Friend is used externally as a massage; and its purpose, thru daily use, is to gradually, gently and effectively relax the muscles and nerves involved in the function of child-bearing; to make the skin soft, pliable and elastic so that it may expand easily and naturally as the abdominal parts enlarge—thereby relieving the tension and strain on these muscles and nerves of the otherwise severe distension before delivery.

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, 515 Palm St., Scranton, Pa., says:

"I am willing and anxious to tell any mother about Mother's Friend. It did me so much good that I wouldn't be without it if it cost $5.00 a bottle. With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I only had a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Many doctors and nurses recommend Mother's Friend. It contains no narcotics, or habit-forming drugs and is perfectly harmless. All drug stores carry Mother's Friend.

WARNING: Avoid using plain oils, greases and substitutes—they act only on the skin and may cause harm without doing good.

THE WAREHOUSE FIRE

The fire which destroyed the Planters Warehouse in Clanton earley Friday morning, together with hundreds of bales of cotton stored therein, was one of the heaviest blows that has ever fell upon the people of this community from a financial standpoint. There were right close to a thousand bales of cotton stored in the warehouse at the time of the fire. Some of these bales were only scorched over; and from that condition the damage of the cotton ranged on up to complete destruction and burning into ashes.

The warehouse was discovered to be on fire about five o'clock Friday morning. The water works department at once began its battle with the flames, and this battle lasted until Sunday, and even on Monday and Tuesday of this week some of the cotton was still burning.

Some of the cotton in the warehouse was insured and some of it was not insured. It is estimated that the value of the cotton in the warehouse was $100,000.00 and that the loss will be about half that amount. Many farmers had their last year's and this year's crops stored there without any insurance, and it is this class of men who were hurt most by the loss. Mr. W. L. Popwell states that he and his brother Walter had one hundred bales stored there with no insurance at all, part of wich cost them forty cents a pound.

The Planters Warehouse was owned and operated by W. I. Mullins and W. L. and Walter Popwell.

MUCH WATER USED

Last Friday and Saturday the supply of city water was very low, there being so much of it used in the effort to save the burning cotton at Planters Warehouse. Great streams of water were played upon the burning building from the time the fire was discovered until it was extinguished sufficiently to allow removal of those bales which had not been completely destroyed.

Hundreds of bales in act of burning were dragged out of the ashes of the warehous by tractors and taken to available ground. Hundreds of people were employed all day Friday applying water to the burning bales in the effort to save them. Many men worked for hours before they lould put the fire out on a single bale.

BUSINESS HURT

A very considerable depression in business was noted in Clanton last Saturday owing to the gloom that rested over many people of the town and community occasioned by the heavy loss of cotton in the warehouse fire of Friday morning. Trading in the stores was not as lively as might have been had the loss not happened. We have heard of many farmers who had all their savings represented by cotton which was destroyed in the fire.

ANOTHER VICTORY

The result of the Congressional special election in Massachusetts turned the Democratic confusion over the defeat a week earlier in New Mexico, into a rout and panic. That party is issue-less. It is waiting, Micawber like, for something to turn up. Political blatherskite tactics in both New Mexico and Massachusetts availed the party nothing in the way of votes and left it more discredited than ever. Misreresentation of facts, mean abuse and chronic faultfinding are not winnig issues in American politics today. As this is about the only kind of political merchandise the Democratic party has on its shelves it begins to look like the party would have to go through the process of bankruptcy and complete reorganization before it can hope for any appreciable public support.

Will Hays of Route 7 was among the visitors to Clanton Friday. Mr. Hays wants to sell his farm 10 miles west of Clanton on the Stanton road. Read his advertisement elsewhere.

A REPUBLICAN VICTORY

It would be difficult to exaggerate the depression which exists in Democratic circles as the result of the special election in New Mexico. For some reason, the Democratic organization seemed obsessed with the idea they would win the election and they risked their prestige upon the result.

They sent a corps of speakers into New Mexico, led by Senator Pat Harrison, Democratic floor leader in the senate. Organizers were sent into the state, and the McAdoo influence openly worked to line up the railroad vote. Democratic newspaper correspondents over the country were "fed up" with all kinds of reports to the effect that the New Mexico Republicans were disorganized, disheartened and engaged in fatal factional warfare. The corps of Democratic speakers sent into New Mexico and the Democratic press outside the state insisted the issue was whether or not the Republican administration and the Republican Congress should be endorsed.

The result—the victory of the Republican candidate by a plurality that will exceed 9,000, which is without parallel in the history of New Mexico politics—was a crushing blow not only to Demorratic hopes but to the prestige of the Demorratic organization. Now that it is seen they never had the slightest chance to win, Democratic "politicians" in plentiful numbers are saying bitter things regarding the political sagacity of the national organization for asking such an intensive and open part in the campaign. These critics of their own party's management say the spectacular part the Democratic national organization played in the campaign the greatest political blunder since President Wilson wrote his famous letter in 1918 appealing for the election of a Democratic Congress.

Inasmhch as the Democratic party forced to fight along national lines and upon national issues, the people of New Mexico rendered a verdict accordingly. Senator Bursum, the successful candidate, speaking of his victory, says "I attribute this victory to the approval of the constructive business policy of President Harding. The people have faith that the Harding administration will speed up the return of prosperity throughout the nation."

NOT OUR RICHARD

In the report of the County Court a few weeks ago, published in this paper, there appeared the name of one Richard Robinson, charged with burglary. The person referred to in this case is one of the negroes who broke into the store of G. C. Armstrong some time ago. We have in this county a very estimable white citizen by the name of Richard Robinson, and we hope no one will be fooled into connecting him with this case in the court.

TO LOOK AFTER COTTON SCORCHED IN BIG FIRE

Messrs J. M. Lawrence and B. S. Gilbert, representatives of the Southern Adjustment Bureau, and Mr. S. A. Furr, of the Underwriters Salvage Company, are in Clanton looking after the adjustment of the scorched cotton which escaped complete destruction in the warehouse fire here last week. These gentlemen are at work with Mr. W. L. Popwell in solving the problem of giving to each his prorate share of the damaged cotton. They ask in another place in this paper for all who hold warehouse receipts on cotton in this fire to bring their receipts in to them at once.

GREAT ACHIEVEMENTS BY CLANTON BAPTISTS

Great Consternation was felt by the Editor of The Union-Banner when he discovered the fact that the report of the Clanton Baptist Church, adopted at its last regular conference for presentation to the UnitY Association had been left out of the last issue. We are pleased to publish the fact that the Clanton Baptist have contributed and raised the enormous sum of $25,648 during the past year for all purposes. We are informed that this is money actually cashed in, most of which is for the new building, and with $10,000 cashed in the previous year makes the astonishing total of $35,000 in two years. It is very obvious and therefore needless for us to say that the energetic efforts and enthusiastic leadership of the Rev. P. G. Carter, who is the wide awake pastor, has had very much to do in the raising of this large sum of money. We venture the assertion that two years ago, even the members of the church would have considered this an absolute impossibility, with only 289 on the roll. It is but an evidence of the great possibilities of this church. With the right kind of leadership and with the splendid new building now almost completed we are sure there are brighter and better days for the Baptist of Clanton. We congratulate, and heartily commend them for this splendid accomplishment during the past year.

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

We call attention to the advertisement of the Clanton Motor Car Company, Ford dealers, in this paper, announcing a demonstartion which they will give on Oct. 26th and 27th of the Fordson Tractor. They will demonstrate the tractor as an implement for plowing and illustrate the various uses which the machine may be adapted to on the farm. The demonstration will be given at the Judge Reynolds farm on the Birmingham and Montgomery highway near Clanton.

There was a splendid demonstration here last Friday and Saturday of one valuable work that could be done by the Fordson, to wit: the pulling of those burning bales of cotton out of the warehouse fire. Many hundreds of dollars worth of cotton were saved by the use of these machines.

PERSONALS

W. K. Mullins of Birmingham was in Clanton last Friday on account of the warehouse fire.

Durwood Mims of Liberty Hill, an ex-soldier was here last Saturday to take the examination.

Mrs. J. W. Moore has gone to Jacksonville, Fla. to see her daughter, Mrs. Crump, who is very sick.

Rev. W. W. Robinson of Providence was here Tuesday.

Mrs. Jean Wyatt is visiting relatives in Montgomery this week.

Commissioner C. T. Walker, of Lawley was among the visitors to Clanton Tuesday.

Mrs. W. G. Sessions of Jemison was in Clanton Monday. Mrs. Sessions is an applicant for the position of postmaster at Jemison and has been declared one of the three eligibles as a result of the civil service examination. She is a splendid young woman and her ability to fill the place of postmaster assures the right kind of attention to the business if she succeeds in getting the appointment. Mrs. Sessions was before her marriage Miss Mollie Murrah, and was for several years a clerk in the county tax office at the court house.

Fred Howard of Jemison was in Clanton Monday to see a doctor. While at work at Mitchell Dam he received a slight wound on the hand which has set up blood poison.

C. B. Lenoir of Thorsby Route 1 was here at court this week.

Mr. J. L. Winslow of Thorsby was a visitor in Clanton Monday. He stated to the Banner that he has sold his potato farm to Mr. M. R. Hughes of Tuscaloosa, and will go back to the North right away. Mr. Winslow has made a splendid record of agricultural development in the twenty years he has been in the South and we regret that he is to leave this part of the country.
He goes back to Indiana on the farm of his father where he was born and reared.

George Ingram who lives near Coopers came to Clanton last Friday and brought The Banner a branch from a dog-wood tree in full bloom. Dogwood blooming in October is about as strange as cuckle burs bearing seed in the month of April.

George Collum, merchant of Jemison, was in Clanton Monday. We call attention of our readers to his advertisement in this paper relative to the victrola which he will give away at his store next Saturday.

Now, listen! Women and Children. Don't you know that Mrs. Williams and Phillips at Elmore's can fit you in just the hat that is most becoming to you at a very reasonable price.

Dr. V. J. Gragg, mayor of Clanton, was a visitor to Birmingham last Thursday.

Jim Collins of Lomax was here Saturday to take the examination for ex-soldiers.

Grover Bice of Coopers was a visitor to Clanton Monday .

Sheriff R. H. Wood of Bibb county was in Clanton Monday attending Circuit Court.

Revenue officer D. B. Borden of Tuscaloosa, was in Clanton Monday attending Circuit Court.

J. F. Fleming of Randolph, deputy sheriff of Bibb county was here at Circuit Court Monday.

E. Greenburg of Birmingham was in Clanton Monday at Circuit Court.

If you don't care to buy your Clothes ready made you will find in Elmore's piece goods department just the kind of Cloth you are looking for.

H. J. Grooms of Mulberry was a visitor to Clanton Monday.

Dr. T. J. Marcus was among the visitors to the Fair in Birmingham last week.

Felix Eiland of Thorsby is here as a juror at Circuit Court this week.

George Ingram, who lives near Coopers came to Clanton last Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mullins of Mitchell Dam were visitors to relatives in Clanton Sunday.

Rr. C. N. Parnell of Maplesville was here at Court Tuesday.

Ed Smitherman of Maplesville was attending Court this week.

T. C. Perry of Maplesville was a visitor to Clanton Tuesday.

Mr. J. O. Mize of Maplesville was attending Circuit Court here on Tuesday.

T. H. McKinney, a deputy sheriff of Shelby County was attending Circuit Court here Tuesday.

Oliver Moore of Columbiana was a visitor to Clanton Tuesday on account of Circuit Court.

H. T. Nobles of Collins Chapel was in Clanton Tuesday.

Hon. W. A. Reynolds, our representative in the Alabama Legislature, came up Friday night from the capitol city to spend the week end with his family and look after business interests. In addition to being the Representative of Chilton county in the Legislature Mr. Reynolds is a very busy man, being a merchant, farmer and saw mill operator.

The way those Fordson Tractors pulled the cotton out of the warehouse fire last Friday is another sentence in the argument of their universality. When a man has a Fordson around his place he can find many uses for it that he never thought of before.

Many farmers were insuring their cotton Friday after looking upon the appalling sight of a thousand bales burning into ashes.

Miss Mary Popwell, daughter of W. L. Popwell, came home from school at Montevallo last Friday.

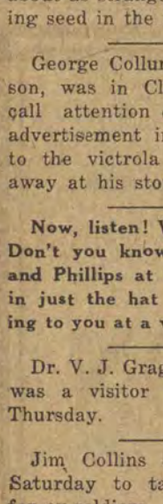
Ralph Calloway of Maplesville was a visitir to Clanton last Friday and Sturday.

A. P. Vinson, former County Commissioner of Chilton county, was a visitor to the State Fair one day last week.

Roy Mahan and Hubert Farley took in the Fair at Birmingham last Saturday. They made the trip in Roy's cut-down Ford. They intended to enter their machine in the auto races if they could secure the consent of the Fair management.

John W. Patterson of Poplar Springs was a visitor to Clanton last Saturday.

Joshua Sorrell of Jemison was here last Saturday.



G. W. Hodgens of Jemison Route 1 was in Clanton last Saturday. Mr. Hodgens says he lives on the first rural mail route that was established in Chilton County.

GREAT CROWDS GOING TO WEIGLE-CURRY MEETING

The city wide evangelistic campaign under the direction of Evangelists Weigle and Curry continues to draw large congregations. Sunday night the big tent seating 800 people was more than filled, it being estimated that there were some 1100 people present in all. Dr. Weigle preached a powerful sermon on the Second Coming of Christ taking the most generally accepted and orthodox view of the Pre-Millenial Coming of Christ and interpreted the great lack of modesty and the great amount of crime now being committed among the nations, with the return of the Jews to Palestine where they are now building a permanent home as strong and certain signs that the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. The large audience listened with wrapt attention to the splendid discourse and several at the close went forward to express their desire to live a better life in preparation for His coming.

Monday night the evangelist spoke on some Fools of the Bible including the fool that denies God, and the Fool of Coveteousness, taking for his text "Thou fool this night is thy soul required of thee." It was a powerful and logical appeal to christian and sinner alike, in response to which some came forward to rededicate themselves to Christ. The sermon on Tuesday on the Harvest of that we sow was enough to melt a heart of stone, as he graphically pictured the sins of the past, the sins of memory, and of lust, and conscience. Conviction seemed to be stamped on almost every face in the vast audience that listened with wrapt attention to the dramatic presentation of this awful truh, yet when the appeal was made only one soul responded publicly to the invitation.

The meeting of the children who came over from the Grammar school in a body Tuesday afternoon was very interesting, as the children responded splendidly to the leadership of Mr. Curry the musical director who clearly demonstrated his wonderful skill in the handling of a large crowd of children and geting them to sing. Some 300 of these children was an inspirational sight and their ready response to the questions of the preacher was an evidence that they were well trained by Prof. J. L. Johnson, Principal of the school.

The high school has been in attendance at two morning services, and the sight of this splendid body of young people marching through the city to attend the meeting made a good moral impression upon those who witnessed it. We are indebted to Prof. S. E. Alverson for his hearty co-operation in this way prompted, as we believe, by his splendid Christain character. These meetings undoubtedly were splendid opportunities to influence the young people at the most critical period of their life to become Christains, and the best of citizens for their country.

An attractive feature of the meeting has been the wonderful vocal duets rendered by the evangelists. It is a rare thing for a preacher who preaches so hard and so continously to be able to sing so well. The large chorus choir is present every night, and rendering splendid service for the meeting.

We are pleased to report that the finances are being well taken care of. Something like $450 being raised for incidental expenses, and the present indications are that the evangelists will be nicely remunerated for their splendid and faithful services.

The hearty co-operation of the various churches is also a fine feature of the meeting, which we trust will continue long after the meeting closes.

Only a few more days remain. Services being held each day up to Sunday night. The day services will continue until Friday, and commence at 10 a. m., and the night services at 7:30 p. m. Mass meeting for men will be held at 3 p. m., being a combination of the last meeting that was interrupted by the storm two Sunday's ago. We would like to see 700 or 800 men and the boys over twelve years of age at the attendance at this meeting. Remember the meeting closes Sunday night.

Take Yeast the Best Way With Iron —In Dainty Tablet Form, as in "Ironized Yeast."

Thousands now realize that there is only one throughly efficient way to take yeast for health—in concentrated tablet form combined with organic iron—as is found in Ironized Yeast. Many find that when yeast is taken this way, results are often obtained in half the usual time! This is because Ironized Yeast is rich in two substances which are absolutely essential to health—vitamines and iron. By increasing the nourishing power of your food, and by feeding your blood with the iron needed to make it rich, red and powerful, Ironized Yeast helps you to put on solid flesh where it is needed, to increase your strength and energy, tobuild up your shattered nerves, and to clear your skin of humiliating pimples, blackheads, etc. Try it for a few days and watch the results!

Ironized yeast is pleasant to take, will not upset the stomach, and is more economical than common yeast. Each package contains 60 individually wrapped tablets (10 to 15 days' treatment) and it costs only -1.00. Special directions for children. Sold at all druggists. Don't accept substitutes . Made by the Ironized Yeast Company, Atlanta, Ga.—Upchurch Drug Co.

DOINGS AT WASHINGTON

NO REACTION YET

Democrats who were hoping that the special election in the Sixth Massachusetts Congressional District would show that the tide had set against the policies of the Harding Administration will be discouraged when they hear that Colonel A. Piatt Andrew, the Republican candidate, polled 29,545 votes to only 6,792 for Charles I Pettingell, his Democratic opponent. This is more than three to one in favor of Andrew, the ratio being in excess of that by which the Republican nominee won a year ago.

In 1920, when the Harding wave swept the nation, the Republicans polled 75 per cent of the votes in the Massachusetts district. This year their share is more than 76 per cent in spite of the fact that the campaign for the Republican nomination was one of unusual bitterness. The Democratic leaders thought they saw in this preliminary split a chance to reduce the Republican lead on election day and so give the impression to the country that the Federal Administration had suffered a loss of popularity. They sent speakers of national reputation into the district and as the Republicans did likewise the campaign became a straight-out struggle on the issue of indorsing or rebuking the Republican conduct of affairs at Washington. Let the result be thoroughly understood. It offers not the lightest suggestion of a desire on the part of the American people to put the Democratic party in power again at Washington.

The Massachusetts verdict follows closely on the similar verdict in New Mexico, where Senator Bursum received the largest majority ever given to a Republican candidate in that State with the single exception of election day in 1920, when the Harding tide overwhelmed the Southwest in common with every other section of the country. The Democratic managers had counted on New Mexico to show that grave dissatisfaction with the Republican management of the nation's business exists, but the election figures spelt nothing but disappointment for them; and now comes this second blow from Massachusetts, where Republicanism is as much entrenched as it ever was.

There can be no escape from the facts. In both instances the Harding administration was definitely on trial. In the case of New Mexico, the President had written a letter to Senator McCormick, rehearsing the achievements of the party since March fourth, and this was admittedly for the purpose of drawing a sharp line in the Bursum-Hanna contest.

In other years similar bye-elections have shown which way public sentiment was trending, and it would be foolish for the Democratic party to ignore these indications of an unimpaired Republican prestige in the fall of 1921.—Providence Journal.

J. T. Rich spent last week on a visit to his old home community in Elmore county.

WHITE HANGS ON

Washington, Oct. 11—Chairman White of the Democratic National Committee announces that he has no intention of resigning, but will continue to direct the activities of his party. He will call a meeting in Washington in a few weeks to discuss party policies. It is indicated that the party will not be idle during the armaments conference, but will garner as much political capital from the proceedings as they can. The active opposition of Democrats in the Senate to the ratification of the treaties with Germany, Austria, and Hungary was proof of the fact that they will not allow the welfare of the nation or of the world to stand in the way of their party's prosperity. If they can gain partisan advantage by placing obstacles in the way of accomplishment by the armaments conference, there is little doubt it will be done.

JAPAN HELD UP TO THE LIGHT

The remarkable series of articles on Japan now running in the New York Herald and other papers serves to remind us of the tremendously momentous task that the armaments conference has before it in the discussion of Far Eastern problems. The stories are written by a man of vision who has just completed a study in the Far East of Japan's preparedness and her acquisition in 18 years of three times her former territory and almost twice her former population. It is declared to be Japan's intention to insist at the conference on retaining everything she has won, and her power over Far Eastern affairs. The idea conflicts radically with the Chinese open-door policy, and it will require the most adroit management on the part of the conference to reach a mutually satisfactory settlement.

GO AND GET IT

The Chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce seeks to reassure the country on the outlook for foreign trade. He declares that the pessimism that prevails is due in large measure to alarmist reports that have been sent out; that much of the export bloom that followed the war was due to war conditions and should not be expected to continue; and that the fundamentals of our foreign trade situation are as sound as ever. He asserts that the German competition about which we hear so much should not be taken too seriously, as he has found that German products are usually very inferior to our own.

How Better than Pills?

The question has been asked: In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is, they are easitr and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

CREDITABLE AGENDA

Commenting on the agenda framed for the arms parley the Washington Herald says:- "The framing of the agenda is a credit to the American diplomacy. It must arouse the admiration and envy of the older governments who have regarded this one as rather a bungler in foreign affairs and quite sure in any proposal to leave open ways for horses and carts. But in all this agenda there is nothing to misconstrue; there is no note of selfishness nor overreaching; of implied censure or complacent superiority. There is nothing asked nor offered; nothing of special interest or favor."

It was under the preceding administration that the representatives of the older governments drove horses and carts through the program conceived and drafted by one man who imagined himself to be the fountainhead of all knowledge and who was dickered out of his pantaloons by the shifty diplomats of Europe. Hence the reason why the older governments regarded us as bunglers. The present Administration takes counsel of wiseacres in the chess game of world powers and the agenda is one result, while the safeguarding of American interests in the coming conference will be another.

OBJECT TO HIGH TARIFF

The United States has just been treated to the unusual, not to say remarkable, spectacle of a delegation of foreign manufacturers making a campaign in this country against the continuation of the traditional American economic policy of affording protection to American industries and workingmen through the medium of a protective tariff. Whatever else they were, the members of the delegation were frank. Their objection to the enactment of a protective tariff by the American Congress was admitted to be a purely selfish one. They said such a tariff would deprive foreign manufacturers of America's very large and very desirable market.

Of course, all this was sugar-coated with a lot of talk about international friendship and America's duty to Europe and the beauties of free and unrestricted trade between friendly nations. But no amount of "hands across the seas" palaver, no subtile working of economic heresies or political sophistries can change the cold, solid fact that the more foreign goods imported and sold in this country, the less American goods will be manufactured and sold, the less work there will be for American labor, the less business there will be for everybody,—except the importer of foreign goods and the broker who handles bonds and securities.

HELPING THE VETS

The Veterans' Bureau has published some statistics that should bring home to every soldier what the Goverment is doing for the ex-service men. In June, July, and August the Goverment paid the veterans $88,004,866.20. Of that total about $28,000,000 was for insurance, $33,000,000 on account of compensation, and $26,000,000 for training allowances. The Veterans' Bureau mails 166,000 insurance checks each month, 6,665 checks of a total value of $317,000 going out of the office each day. There are 207,000 compensation checks mailed every month, or an average of 8, 294 checks totaling $392,000 each day. It should be apparent to every one that the soldiers are no longer being neglected.

IN MEMORY OF CECIL COLUMBUS MITCHELL

The golden bowl is broken; the silver cord is loosed, and again the death angel has visited our community and carried from his earthly home to his Heavenly home abode, little Cecil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mitchell.

He lived only twenty three months and seven days to bless the home. He was a bright and affectionate child. He won the love of every one with whom he came in contact and he never met a stranger. He had a lovable disposition, sweet and kind to all. His life was short but his influence will be felt.

Weep not, dear parents, for you have now a goal for which you must strive, for little Cecil will be awaiting your coming. Put your trust in Him and be resigned to His will for He knoweth best.

Live to meet Cecil in his Heavenly home for he is now rejoicing with the angles.

He leaves besides his parents, one sister and a host of admirers who are saddened by his death.

There is a reaper whose nome is Death.
And with his sickle clean,
He garners up the foliage,
And the flowers that grow between.

BEAUTY RIOT TO MARK OCCASION

CREAM OF ALABAMA'S PULCHRITUDE TO GREET PRESIDENT HARDING AT BIRMINGHAM'S BIRTHDAY.

EVERY COUNTY REPRESENTED

Committees Arranging All Details Necessary To Properly Entertain And Care For Fortunate Young Ladies.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.—No phase of the semi-centennial celebration and the visit of the president is meeting with more general approval and has attracted such wide interest in Birmingham and throughout the State of Alabama as the visit of the 67 queens representing each of the counties of the state. These young women who are chosen by the people of their own counties and as their direct representatives, will be among the most beautiful and the most prominent young women of Alabama. They will be among the first to meet the president, will attend the banquet given in honor of the President at the Country Club on Wednesday night, October 26, and will be honor guests at the President's ball, which will follow the banquet at the Country Club. The celebration will last the entire week of October 24-29.

One of their number will be selected by popular vote as "Queen of the Semi-centennial" and as the Birmingham queen is barred from participating in this contest, it is expected to prove a most interesting event. The committee decided that it would be unfair to the other counties if the Birmingham queen entered, as there will be more people attending the celebration from Birmingham than from any of the outside counties of the state.

The selection of these county queens has attracted widespread attention all over Alabama. Some of them have been chosen by popular vote in newspaper contests while a number have been selected by county conventions attended by representatives of all the organizations from every section of the country. The most prominent and the most beautiful young women in each of the counties were entered.

In addition to the social functions on the occasion of the President's visit, they will also participate in the floral parade which will be the big feature of Thursday, October 27 Each of these young women will ride in an automobile beautifully decorated and will be accompanied by two maids, who will be prominent young girls and matrons of Birmingham. They will also attend the historical pageant and will be guests at the exposition where the fashion show, automobile and industrial exhibits will be shown.

On Friday night, October 28, at the exposition building, all the queens will be present and will be introduced by Sydney J. Bowie, general chairman. One of their number who has received the largest number of votes will be crowned "Queen of the Semi-centennial," after which a ball will be give for the visiting queens and their escorts at the Southern Club or the Tutwiler Hotel.

During their stay in Birmingham, the queens will be the guests of the people of Birmingham and the Semi-centennial committee. Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which numbers among its personnel the most prominent young men of Birmingham, will assist in entertaining the visiting young women and will escort them to all social functions provided the queens have not made other arrangements. The matter of providing these escorts is in the hands of a most capable committee of prominent young men and they will communicate with each of the county committees to ascertain what engagements, if any, the different representatives have already made.

Assisting the Junior Chamber of Commerce committee is the Volunteer Relief Association, whose members are the most prominent young women of the city and are leaders in all social affairs. They will provide two maids to ride in the floral parade with each of the visitng queens and will also assist in providing some informal entertainments during the week. Assurances have been given by all the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce that they are preparing to devote their time and attention to seeing that the visiting young women are properly entertained and many plans are being worked out which will add to the pleasure of the visit of the city's guests.

Committees of women who formerly resided in the different counties of the state are also helping in the plans for entertaining the queens and indications are that their visit will be one long to be remembered by them. Birmingham is entering into the spirit of the occasion and is leaving nothing undone to show its appreciation of the efforts of the other counties of the state in making this a memorable occasion and a really great "Birthday Party."

BIRMINGHAM TO PLAY HOSTESS

THOUSANDS OF VISITORS TO BE ENTERTAINED DURING SEMI-CENTENNIAL WEEK OCT. 24-29.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE

Every Thought Given To Welfare of Visitors—Ample Accommodations; Lavish Entertainment; Reasonable Prices—All Assured.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.—One of the largest jobs in connection with the Semi-centennial celebration and the visit of President Harding to Birmingham during the week of Oct. 24-29, is the problem of properly caring for the thousands of visitors who will attend. Realizing the heavy responsibility which rested on the city to provide hospitality for such a crowd, the semi-centennial committee, through its general chairman, Sydney J. Bowie, arranged with the Chamber of Commerce to take over this important phase of the celebration.

Arrangements have been made by which every hotel room in the city has been listed, together with the location and the price to be charged by the day. The same is true of all available rooms in boarding houses and in private residences. An iron clad agreement has been reached with the Hotel Men's Association, and all the members of that organization by which prices for rooms and other charges are not to be raised during the Semi-centennial week. This applies to boarding houses and restaurants as well, and a copy of the charges which the hotels, and restaurants have agreed to maintain during the week is on file with the Semi-centennial housing committee.

Due to the very large crowds which are assured for the week, it has been necessary to have the people of Birmingham throw open their homes to receive visitors. The committee has arranged all details, has offices and booths down town in prominent places and at the railroad stations, where all information regarding housing and restaurants can be secured. Plenty of boy scouts will be on duty at all hours to look after the needs of the strangers and to guide those not familiar with the city to the place they desire to go. The Chamber of Commerce has assumed full responsibility for this phase of the celebration and indications point to the matter being handled in a most satisfactory way.

Concessions Granted By Railroads

Birmingham, Ala.—Every railroad entering Birmingham and all the other roads of the state have granted a special reduced fare for the semi-centennial week, October 24-29. Tickets which will be on sale several days before the celebration begins and which will be good for return for several days after the close of the week, can be had at any station in Alabama, to Birmingham and return for one and one-half times the regular fare.

While this is by no means such a large reduction as the cent a mile rate quoted for conventions of the American Legion, Confederate Veterans and other soldiers' organizations, it is enough to bring the cost of traveling back to a pre-war basis, which is a material saving over the present rates.

The railroad officials of all the lines entering Birmingham are taking great interest in the celebration and are making their plans to handle a very large passenger buisness during the entire week. Arrangements have been perfected by them through which thousands of vsitors can be brought to Birmingham each day and returned to their homes the same night if so desired, and other plans provide for adequate cars and pullmans to handle the crowds during the week.

Judge L. H. Reynolds and M. D. Foshee attended the funeral of Uncle Newt Martin at Collins Chapel last Thursday.

Unlimited Ability

The town band had been royally entertained in a neighboring village where a concert had been given. On the train home the conductor had some trouble getting the ticket of one of the musicians. After several futile attempts to get his fingers into his vest poct, the musician gave it up and announced:

"I've losht th' dang thing."

"Come, come," ejaculated the conductor encouragingly. "You couldn't lose a thing like a railroad ticket."

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Headley of Pinedale were visitors to Clanton on last Friday.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since . . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too.

BIGGEST CITY FOR IT'S AGE

Birmingham Ranks High In Standing Of American Cities—Forges To Forefront By Steady Growth.

BIRMINGHAM: "The Biggest City in America For Its Age."

That's the record made by Birmingham during the last half century, and to celebrate this achievement, Birmingham will fittingly observe her fiftieth birthday with a very elaborate party.

Birmingham and Seattle are the only cities in America in the 200,000 class which were not in existence at the time of the Civil War, and while Seattle is slightly larger in population than the Alabama metropolis, it was founded in the late '60s and had become a pretty lusty youngster by the time the first house was built in Birmingham.

The first house was built in Birmngham in 1871. Since that time the growth of the city has been steady, despite setbacks in the form of the bursting of the boom, cholera epidemics and other things which checked the rush of people to the city in the early days. By 1880, Birmingham had entered the 3000 class in population and by 1890, she had passed the 20,000 mark. By 1900, Birmingham and Mobile were on the same level, each city having about 38,000 population.

The city's greatest increase came between 1900 and 1910 when the population reached more than 132,000. The extension of the city limits to embrace a number of suburbs and the big developments following the acquisition of the properties of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company by the United States Steel corporation.

In the census of 1920, Birmingham passed the 178,000 mark and the conservative estimate by the government now is that the population is 200,000.

To properly celebrate this unusual development, Birmingham will make the week of Oct. 24-29 the occasion of a great celebration.

NEWS FROM FRIENDSHIP

Services were held at this place last Sunday as usual. Sunday School was held at 10 o'clock. The Singing Society met at 2:00, and Prof. W. M. Devaughn was present, together with several other good singers, who did some good singing and directing.

The B. Y. P. U. met at 6:30, with a large crowd present. The final return was made by the members of the Church painting Committee. The total money raised for the purpose of painting the church was $184.24, for which we wish to thank everyone who was so generous in contributing to this worthy cause. The members of the committee are all to be complimented for their splendid work. This committee consisted of: Misses Hazel Gore, Omie Hand, Maggie Driver, and Mrs. Eva Wyatt, all of whom worked faithful in soliciting these funds.

Work will be begun at once on the painting of the church, and we are going to show you a great improvement in the apeparance of the old church building.

Services will be as usual next Sunday. Sunday School at 10 o'clock and B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Everybody is invited to come to these services.

HARDING'S AIM IN CONTRAST

Appointment of Arms Commission Members Shows How Different Is New Administration.

Nothing could better illustrate the inherent and all important difference between the present Chief Executive of the United States Government and his immediate predecessor than Mr. Harding's appointment of the American delegates to the international conference on the limitation of armaments. Their names are in dazzling contrast with President Wilson's selection of his associates at the Paris Conference to draw a treaty of peace among the allies and Germany on the suspension of hostilities and to set in motion the readjustment of the disordered affairs of the Old World.

Jealous of his own supremacy, intolerant of the opinions of others secretive with his closest colleagues, Mr. Wilson named for the most momentous council of history a collection of men whom, with possibly a single exception, no term could better describe, whatever their personal virtuts, than official mediocrity and international obscurity. Perhaps few of the millions of readers of American newspapers could recall today more than two out of Mr. Wilson's list of Secretary Lansing, Colonel House, General Tasker H. Bliss and Mr. Henry White.

But where among all civilized nations is Charles Evans Hughes not known for his brilliant intellect, his vast judicial learning and his splendid force of character?

Who is there in this country to match, and who is there in any country to surpass, the legal experience, the mastery of all manner of international questions and the genius for negotiation of Elihu Root?

What two men could more strikingly represent the nature of the politics, the legislative principles and practices, the governmental issues of the whole country, than Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader in the United States Senate, and Oscar Underwood of Alabama, Democratic leader in the same body?

To these emphatically different pictures of two and a half years ago and of today not a single thing need be added to perfect the contrast between the old order and the new order in American affairs as conducted for our own people and revealed to the peoples of the world.—New York Herald.

INTEREST RATES REDUCED TO PRE-WAR LEVEL OF FIVE PER CENT

New York. Oct. 10.—Evidence that the financial interests are not worried over prospects is furnished in the reduction to 5 per cent of the rediscount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. This is the first time since 1914 that the rediscount rate has been as low as 5 per cent. This is the fifth reduction of interest made by the Federal Reserve Bank since the first of March, at which time the rediscount rate was 7 per cent. The action of the New York bank is expected to be followed soon by similar reduction in other Federal Reserve districts.

SUCH IS LIFE

"Eighteen years ago I had three ribs broken, fourteen years ago my right leg; eleven years ago I nearly went over with typhoid fever, and since then have had awful stomach and liver trouble. Was filled with gas most all the time. I would have colic attacks so bad as to become unconscious. No medicine helped me and doctors advised an operation. One day talking with a stranger he recommended Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which helped me at once." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrahal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including apprendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Alred Drug Co.

JEMISON ROUTE ONE

Dear Mr. Editor:-

We are so glad you are so kind to put in our little letters and advertisements in your valueable paper, so I thought I would write about the times up here in our section.

Making syrup and carrying on the protracted meetings are about the largest business.

It seems as the narrow way that is spoken of in Matthew 7-14, is about to close up and the high way of holiness spoken of in Isaiah 35:8 is about to open up according to the number that is joining the churches. But I reckon not surely, for Satan has to be bound before the high way opens up, and oh, what a trouble will be at that time. And we think that trouble is now on hand, the Lord and the Prophet Daniel both spoke of this trouble, also Malachi 4th chapter. Also the high way will be the Lord's kingdom sat up on earth, but some of our good brethern have been preaching to us that as quick as we die we go to Heaven or hell one. Also this earth going to be burned up, they are leaving out the kingdom that Daniel said should come and stand for ever, also they are leaving out the Restitutions that the Apostles and all the Prophets spoke of Act. 3-21. Surely these bretheren have not got out of the lost condition into the Holy, where the 7 candles were burning to give light to the ones that had got out of the lost condition into the holy.

The Lord says in Mathew 5-5: The weak shall inherit the earth. Look at the 35th chapter of Isaiah and see the blessings that is going to be on the earth. Now I would say to all the good bretheren, where are you standing if you are not preaching what the prophets and the apostles and the sun that will give light to the whole world in a high way of holiness will soon be up which is our Savior and his bride.

VOLUME IX. CLANTON, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1921.

GRAND JURY FIND 29 TRUE BILLS

INVESTIGATIONS MADE OF 47 ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF THE CRIMINAL LAWS.

The Grand Jury of Chilton county which was empanneled by Judge McMorris on Monday, Oct. 10, worked until Thursday afternoon of last week in constant grind of examining witnesses and delving into alleged violations of the criminal laws.

The following report was turned into the court upon the completion of the work Thursday:

To the Honorable B. K. McMorris,

Judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit:

We, the Grand Jury of Chilton County, duly empanneled for the July Term, 1921 ask leave to submit this our final report:

We have examined 47 cases and return to your Honor's Court 29 True Bills. In our deliberations we have diligently sought for violations of the criminal laws of the State of Alabama to the best of our ability.

A committee of this Grand Jury has visited the County poor farm, and found as inmates therein 6 white males, 13 white females and 1 colored female, a total of 20 inmates. We found some of these inmates rather poorly dressed. Some of the beds of the inmates we found not to be clean as it should be and some of the beds are not satisfactory to sleep on. Some of the steps of the buildings should be repaired. The well is in a condition that makes it dangerous for the inmates who visit it. We found two rooms in which inmates have to stay are without means of heating. We found some discord existing at the home on account of some being placed there who are not in a rational state of mind and apparently uncontroable.

We have examined the County Jail and find the same in good condition and neatly kept. There are 8 prisoners in the jail, all negroes, 7 males and 1 female. We find that the Sheriff's feed records are properly kept. We find in close proximity to the jail an old building the condition of which we believe jeopardizes the safe keeping of prisoners and the safety of the Sheriff's residence. We suggest that the County Commissioners take such steps as necessary in this matter.

Our investigation of the office of the Probate Judge reveals that his office is properly conducted and the records of same neatly kept. We find that the County Court has been held in accordance with law. We find that the bonds of the various county officials are adequate.

So far as we were able to ascertain the office and records of the County Treasurer are properly and neatly kept. Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" is the report of the County Treasurer as submitted to this Grand Jury.

The conduct of the office of the County Seperintendent of Education appears, upon our investigation, to have been correct and in accordance with law. Attached hereto as Exhibit "B" will be found the financial statement rendered by the Superintendent of Education to this Grand Jury.

We find that the records of the office of the Tax Assessor are properly kept, and that the Assessor has complied with the law in the administering of the oath to person making tax assessments.

The committee of this Grand Jury which examined the records of the office of the Judge of Probate wish to make special note of the splendid work of the Probate Clerk in keeping the records of the office, the neatness and completeness of the books and records, etc.

The records of Confederate Pensioners in the Probate office showed thereon 26 first class; 52 second class; 37 third class, and 81 class A (mens.) We find that all names on the pension list are entitled to be there.

It has come to the knowledge of this Grand Jury that there has been too much promiscious shooting by officers at people whom they sought to arrest, thereby jeopardizing the safety of innocent people, as well as the rights of those alleged to have violated the law. We suggest that such officers be more careful in these matters and stay within the bounds of reason and the limits of the law.

We find that the public roads of the county are in bad condition and we suggest that the public cooperate as much as possible with the road officials in the effort to improve the public thoroughfares and keep them in the best condition possible.

This Grand Jury wishes to thank the Solicitor, Hon. Cecil E. Alexander, for the very prompt attention which he has given to matters that have come before us, and for his untiring efforts to bring before us all testimony that would enable us to deal properly with alleged violations of the law.

Feeling that we have accomplished all that could be required of us at this time, we respectfully ask that we be discharged, and we thank the Court and the County Officials for their valuable assistance in our work. We are subject to the further orders of the Court.

W. M. WYATT, Foreman.

HOW TO CONTROL THE BOLL WEEVIL

SYRUP AND CALCIUM ARSENATE WILL DO THE WORK SAYS WM. J. MIMS.

To the Cotton Planter:

The whole South is today interested in the matter of how to check the ravage of the Boll Weevil. You have doubtless read the paper prepared by Prof. B. R. Coad and issued from the Delta Laboratory, Tullulah, Louisiana, under date of July 6th, 1921, on "the efficacy of poisoned molasses mixture for the control of the Boll Weevil."

This paper is well worth the careful perusal of every cotton planter in the South, inasmuch as it stands out prominent as the first real authoritative statement on the use of molasses or syrup as a base for applying the weevil poison in this form.

I am and have been for some time past preparing an exhaustive treatise in pamphlet form for absolutely free distdibution among the cotton planters of the South. Taking the observation of Prof. B. R. Coad and other entomologists as the basis of my investigations, I think this world and all in it will reprint the report of Prof. Coad, and give much detailed information for mixing syrup and molasses and Calcium Arsenate, and how it is applied to obtain the best results, according to my general research and conclusions; when it should be applied and how often, etc. My treatise will contain all the late reports, including the above mentioned report of Prof. B. R. Coad, (which will be given in full,) and excerps from U. S. D. A. bulletins, papers, and pamphlets.

I am distributing this pamphlet absolutely free at my own expense to the cotton planter and I only ask that they send their names and addresses on a postal and also the names of other planters who may wish to be informed on the subject of "Boll Weevils and how to control them," and syrup or molasses and calcium arsenate will do the work if properly handled and applied.

The crowning fault of the average planter is indifference, but present conditions are fast awakening them and I want this treatise on the subject of destroying weevils to reach every cotton planter in the South within the next three months. As I expect to send out literature from time to time, I want my mailing list to include every farmer in Dixie.

Address a postal card, or write, to Wm. J. Mims, Professor of Mathematics, Ensley High School.

NOTICE

There will be a box supper at Bethsalem school house Saturday night, October 30th., for the benefit of raising money to help seat the house. All girls are invited to bring boxes and the boys should come prepared to buy one or more boxes.

Too Late

Private Johnsing was trying to cinch up a typical army mule—if one army mule can be any more typical than his fellows—when the lieutenant came along.

"Dosen't that mule ever kick you, Sam?" asked the officer.

"Na, suh, he ain't yet," answered Mistuh Johnsing, "but frequentlike he kicks de place where Ah recently was."—The American Legion Weekly.

Round and Round

A couple of doughboys, both of whom had been seeing Paris to the best of their ability and financial capacity, took a ride in the Metro. One fell asleep and, on awaking, demanded:

"How long you say I been asleep?"

"Hours!" replied the other with conviction. "We've passed this Dubonnet station six times already."—The American Legion Weekly.

AN EFFORT TO FIND SUFFERERS WITH T.B.

MAKING PHYSICAL EXAMINATION AVAILABLE FOR EVERYBODY

If tuberculosis is discovered and treatment begun early enough, it can be cured. This has been established as a fact by the experience in thousands of cases and over a long period of years. The chief difficulty encountered in anti-tuberculosis work is the reluctance of persons to heed the danger signals of tuberculosis in its early stages and submit themselves for examination by a competent physican, so that they may be informed definitely of their condition and take steps to remedy it.

A striking example of the difference between the number of persons known to have tuberculosis and the number of cases actually exisiting, was brought out in Framingham, Mass., the famous health town. When the health demonstration was begun there, only 27 known cases of tuberculosis were on record. In the survery then conducted, 223 additional cases were disclosed.

Framingham was chosen for purposes of a health demonstration because it may be regarded as a typical American community. Therefore, this wide discrepancy in the number of persons who know they have tuberculosis and the number who are suffering from the disease but are not aware of its identity may be assumed to be a general and not a local condition.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its 1200 affiliated state and local organizations are carrying on a country-wide campaign of education to show the necessity of providing clinics where examinations may be made free of charge for those who cannot afford to pay for them.

At present there are 545 tuberculosis clinics and dispensaries in the United States. All of these are conducted by non-governmental agencies such as anti-tuberculosis associations, except in Pennsylvania and Deleware where clinics and dispensaries are part of systems under the control of the State Government. This number does not include traveling clinics or intensive clinics designed to meet an emergency and maintained for a brief period of time to serve a particular purpose. It has been estimated that a ratio of twelve clinic hours per week for every 100,000 population does not set too high a standard for safe-guarding the health of the public.

General education in regard to tuberculosis and promotion of means whereby it may be discovered early enough for successful treatement, are phases of the work carried on by the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated organizations. Funds for this work are obtained from the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals and the Fourteenth Annual Seal Sale will take place next December. Every dollar's worth of seals you buy is a blow aimed directly at tuberculosis.

ANOTHER CHURCH

PRESBYTERIANS WILL BUILD $10,000 BUILDING IN CLANTON SOON.

Public announcement has been made of the intentions of the Presbyterian congregation to build a house of worship in Clanton, possibly within the next year. Some meetings in the interest of the building project have already been held, and the matter of securing a suitable site hs been placed in the hands of a committee.

For the past year the Presbyterians have been mustering their forces in Clanton, and they have worked up a good congregation. This church has been duly organized and members are constantly being added. Sunday school is held regulrly at the Masonic Hall and preaching every Third Sunday. Rev. E. L. Wilson of Montgomery is the pastor. He is a live wire and will no doubt put the Presbyterians on the map here in a few more months.

Some additions have already been made to this church as a result of the City-Wide Evangelistic camapign, in which Rev. Wilson and the members of his congregation took an active and important part.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

The regular services of this church will be held next Sunday morning at 11 a. m. Subject: The New Testament Church or Why Join the Baptist Church. Preaching at night beginning at 7:30 p. m., subject to be announced. The Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. Sunbeams, Junior and Senior B. Y. P. U. at the regular hours.

It is earnestly requested that those who signed their desire to unite with the church throogh the meeting will present themselves at the preaching hour next Sunday morning when such will be fellowshiped into the church. The baptismal services will be held on the opening night of the new church in the baptistry of the church, but all those desiring to unite with us either by letter or by confession of faith are requested to be present next Sunday. We trust a large number of the members will also be present to welcome these into the church.

On the impetus of the great meeting recently closed let us all make a new start and pull together for a great and prosperous church numerically and spiritually. We expect to move into the new buiding in about thirty days which should encourage us to plan and seek to accomplish great things for God. Your pastor is at your service. Call upon him when you need him. Visitors always welcomed to our services.

P. G. CARTER, Pastor.

HOSPITAL LOCATED

The committee in charge of the matter of buying a lot in Clanton upon which to erect The Central Alabama Hospital have definitely decided upon the Whitfield property on Fifth Avenue West, between tenth and Eleventh streets. This property is something over two acres in area and is situated so as to make a very desirable site for the hospital. Already material for the building is being placed upon the ground and work will start on the building right away.

FRIENDSHIP NEWS

Carpenters and painters are at work this week on the old church building, and when they get through with it it won't look like the same place. It is hoped that the work can be finished this week, so that preaching next Sunday may be had in the newly painted building.

Next Sunday is regular preaching day, when Rev. E. A. Norris of Verbena will deliver his first sermon. Everybody in the community is urged to come out and give the new pastor a hearty welcome. Especially every member of the church is asked to come.

Sunday School will be held at 10 o'clock, followed by preaching at 11. The Singing Society will meet at 2:00 p.m., and the B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Preaching again at night at 7:30.

Everybody is invited to these services, and you are urged to get there prompely at the appointed time.

Dr. A. K. Horn and Rev. E. W. Butler of Thorsby were in Clanton Sunday afternoon to hear Dr. Weigle's sermon for men.

Judge S. M. Adams of Thorsby was in Clanton Monday to advertise his sale which will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 1st. The Judge says he has some mighty good bargains which he will offer on that day.
